REMARKABLE CURES Of Recent Date.

A Statement from Ex-Mayor John Corson, Esq., of Ullinton, N. J.

TO THE PUBLIC:
I acknowledge with the utmost pleasure the wonderful cure which Dr. Lighthill effected in my case.

I tried constantly to get relief from my sufferings, but to no purpose until Mr. Bryan, a friend of mine, who had been cured by Dr. Lighthill of the same trouble, recommended him to me, and he effected a complete and radical cure in my case also, and earned my lifelong gratitude.

JOHN CORSON.
THE CASE OF MR. PETER G. EYCK, OF BISSELL, HUNTERDON CO., N. J.

Dr. Lighthill Effects a Complete Cure Where Ten Physicians Had Failed.

TO THE SICK, SUFFERING AND AFFLICTED:
For many years past I have been afflicted with bleeding piles. Every movement of the bowels was attended with loss of blood and with intense pain which lasted for hours and sometimes all day. My condition was aggravated by a prolapse of the rectum, which greatly increased my suffering and sometimes gave me most agonizing pains.

So great was my distress and so bad my condition that I sold my farm, not being able to work it any longer. At one time the protruding pile tumor became so highly inflamed and swollen that they could not be replaced, and I had to go to bed, applying hot poultices for three months before I could get relief.

I had never under the treatment of ten different physicians, some of New York City, Boston, Washington and elsewhere, without any benefit whatever, and had given up my case as hopeless when, luckily for me, the name of Dr. Lighthill's skill and success in such cases, and went to him for treatment, with the happy result that he effected a radical and permanent cure in less than four weeks' time, and I am glad to say that the entire treatment gave me neither pain nor distress.

I consider my cure perfectly wonderful, and so do all my friends and neighbors. I am confident that there is no case of piles which Dr. Lighthill cannot cure.

PETER G. EYCK,
Bissell, Hunterdon Co., N. J.

ALL IN SCHOOL AGAIN.

NOW FOR ANOTHER WINTER OF HARD BRAIN WORK.

Education Too Often Obtained at the Expense of Nerve Force—Parents Study the Problem of Keeping Up the Health at School.

School has been open nearly a month. The streets are crowded with "shining morning faces," full of eagerness and ambition.

Anxiety of parents begins. Will these young boys and girls stand the nervous strain?

Every year, thousands of bright and interesting boys and girls are fatally injured by the indolent and excessive school work.

Pale lips, languor, little eagerness for play, irritability and loss of strength, show that the close application is making and loading upon their health. There should be no delay in building up the child's system, and feeding the worn-out nerves with Pale's celery compound. Parents find their children quickly gain strength and color and increased weight from this remarkable nerve food. It is peculiarly suited to the needs of their weakened powers of digestion and assimilation.

During the school year thousands of children pursuing studies with an ambitious eagerness altogether out of keeping with their strength, have been enabled to keep in school and at work and to recover health and nerve strength by a careful use of Pale's celery compound, first prescribed by Dartmouth's great professor, Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Paris, who has studied the problem of how to build up their children's health while at school. He found that Pale's celery compound brought vigor and strength by keeping the blood pure and the nerves and tissues richly nourished.

Physicians in all parts of the country earnestly recommend Pale's celery compound to parents.

THE CZAR IS VERY ILL.

One Story Is That He Has Bright's Disease.

And in an Advanced Stage—Said To Have Lost Enormously in Weight in the Last Few Weeks—Anxiety for His Favorite Son George May Have Caused His Illness.

London, Oct. 1.—The Standard's correspondent in Berlin is authority for the statement that Prof. Leyden diagnosed the illness of the Czar as Bright's disease in an advanced stage.

On the other hand, the Vienna Tagblatt maintains on the authority of a Russian diplomat that the Czar is suffering from neurasthenia, coupled with anemia in addition to kidney disease. The Czar's condition, it is said, was made worse by a cold which he caught two nights before leaving St. Petersburg. He went to the telegraph office in the winter palace at 1 o'clock in the morning and dictated a message to Abbas Tuman in the Caucasus concerning the health of his favorite son George, and waited an hour and a half in the dark bare office for a reply from the doctor. He was not satisfied with the reply, and returning to his bedroom threw himself into an arm chair and wept. He cried "Oh God, what have I done to be so severely punished."

The Czar could not sleep through thinking of his son George. During the first night of his stay in George's residence in Spain the Czar arose from his bed, went to his son's room and watched him sleeping on for a long time. When returning to his room he went through a cold passage and was attacked with rheumatism, which made his condition still worse. It is said that he greatly enjoyed the Czar's visit to the Crimea. The Times will publish the following dispatch from its correspondent in St. Petersburg:

"The Czar and carina and Grand Duke George will start immediately for Livadia, where they will pass the winter. The Imperial yacht Polar Star is being refitted at the port of Cronstadt for the Crimea. The Czar has lost enormously in weight in the last few weeks. He now looks very ill."

FROM THEIR MINE PRISON.
The Four Rescued Northwest Colliery Miners Objects of Rejoicing.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 1.—Rescued from what was nearly a fatal death on Thursday when a portion of the workings of the Northwest colliery at Simpson, near Carbondale, caved in, William Mitchell, George Arney, John Fanning and Nicholas Kowalsky, are the objects of demonstrative rejoicing in the village. When the cave-in occurred their death was regarded as certain, but on Thursday night the rescuers at work heard responses to their tapings and it was believed that there was one man to escape the fall. As the rescue proceeded a certainty that all four were alive, the agony of Thursday was turned into almost uncontrollable rejoicing. The rescues of the four men, who were nearly asphyxiated, and they pierced the black wall that had made the prison almost five hours earlier than expected. The men were found in the most deplorable condition, but these in stimulating quantities were supplied them, and they were shortly after midnight restored to consciousness, hundreds of whom stood massed at the mouth of the mine, and they were taken to their homes in wagons, with demonstrations of joy greeting them along the way. Their escape from death is regarded as a miracle, considering the extent of the cave-in and the fact that they were at work right beneath it. They had heard of the warning of the cracking roof and fled to a place of safety before the fall reached where they were.

Isinglass' Great Winnings.
London, Oct. 1.—The announcement of the winnings of Isinglass, Mr. McCallum, the year's most successful and the sporting public. Since the col appeared on the turf his winnings in stakes alone have reached $5,835, beating the record of the most successful horseman, Donovan, whose winnings total $5,154. Mr. McCallum also backed his horse heavily and won a large fortune. Isinglass' first race as a two-year-old he has won every contest, with one exception, in which he has been engaged, and promises to add to his record of great cup to be run for at Ascot. Horsemasters predict that before he bids farewell to the turf he will outdistance every rival.

$50,000 Lost in Duty on Tin Plate.
Baltimore, Oct. 1.—There are over 8,000,000 pounds of tin plate in bond at this port. The importers have allowed the stock to accumulate and remain in bond until the new tariff law, which reduces the duty one cent a pound, should go into effect. Under Secretary Carlisle's ruling the new tariff provision becomes effective to-day and the customs officials expect the greater part of the 8,000,000 pounds of tin plate to be taken out of bond this week. The reduction in the tariff will result in a loss to the government of $50,000.

New York, Oct. 1.—A special from Baltimore says that Miss Marie Zell, a pursuer of one of the steamers of the human line. The news of the marriage did not reach here until a few days ago. The marriage occurred in Antwerp.

For Embezzling County Funds.
Dallas, Tex., Oct. 1.—The grand jury today found indictments against County Treasurer William C. and County Commissioners McAdam, Orr and Fisher, charging them with embezzlement of funds from the county treasury. The shortage is not yet known, but is said to be about $12,000. The parties will be arrested.

Huret Wins the Championship.
Paris, Oct. 1.—The bicyclist, Huret, won the 100-kilometer race and the championship of France at the Velodrome de la Seine. His time was two hours and thirty-six minutes.

REST FOR BALL AND BAT

Close of a Very Successful Baseball Season.

The Best Year Since the Palmy Days of 1890—Baltimoreans Have Gone Wild Over the Victory of Their Club and a Great Reception Awaits the Return of the Players.

New York, Oct. 1.—The most successful season that the National League has known since the palmy days of 1890 closed yesterday. The Orioles wound up their season by defeating the Colts and took their departure by special train for Baltimore where a great reception awaits them in acknowledgment of their fine work.

The New Yorks played an exhibition game in Toledo before an appreciative crowd. Russia pitched for four innings, and was safely hit but once. Clark finished the game, and held the home team down to ten scattered hits. After the game the New Yorks left for home on a special car over the Lake Shore road.

The Brooklyn managed to hold fifth place over the Spiders, although the latter came dangerously near to displacing Poutz's men. The standing of the clubs remains the same as has been for several days. The clubs finished in the following order: Baltimore, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Washington, Louisville.

BALTIMORE BASEBALL CRAZY.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 1.—Nothing in recent years has so aroused the enthusiasm of Baltimore's people as the winning of the championship by the Orioles baseball team. Ever since the decisive game was won the city has been in a ferment. The players for the benefit of the ball players, and his champion team will occupy boxes at Ford's theatre for the benefit performance tendered by Manager Charles E. Ford. At night Harriet's academy of music will be packed with baseball enthusiasts. Manager Dean has arranged a special performance for the benefit of the ball players, in which they will appear in "Living Pictures."

Thousands of dollars have been collected by Root's children's entertainments and benefits. A great deal of money has been put in decorations. The principal prizes and business blocks are gorgeously arrayed in yellow and black—Maryland colors. Almost every man, woman and child, regardless of class, condition or occupation, is decorated with something signifying a desire to participate in the "Hallelujah."

Old men and young men, nabob and nondescript, unite in shouting the praises of victory, and from the preparations now practically completed the reception by Root's children and business blocks promises to be one of the greatest events ever known in this vicinity.

Li Hung Will Stick Close to Home.
London, Oct. 1.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Central News announces that the British steamer Pao-tan, which was recently seized off Fuzhou by a Chinese warship, has been released by order of the Tung-Li-Yamen. The Chinese foreign board. The Pao-tan will proceed to Shanghai under bond. The same correspondent says that Li-Hung-Chang is not preparing to go to Korea, as has been reported. He believed that he will not leave Tien-Tsin as long as his enemies have the ear of the emperor.

PEARY LOSES HIS DOGS

Frozen To Death or Disabled on the Ice Cap.

The Explorer and His Party Forced To Remain in Their Tents on Account of the Severe Weather for Many Days—Determined To Continue His Efforts in Greenland.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—The following letter from Lieut. Peary, dated at Anniversary Lodge, Greenland, Aug. 15, has been received by Gen. Isaac J. Wisner, president of the Academy of Natural Sciences.

My Dear General—I do not think you can appreciate the intensity of my feelings of regret that I am unable as yet to write you of the successful completion of my proposed march in this region. I was forced back from my attempt to cross the inland ice to Independence Bay this spring by the extraordinary severity of the weather on the ice cap, which not only interfered with my advance by keeping me storm-bound in my tent a large portion of the time, but also practically destroyed my pack of dogs, freezing some of them to death, cutting down the efficiency of others, and finally inducing in my pack the "piblocto," or dog madness of this region. I shall make another attempt with one or two members of my party who decline to desert me and have confidence that I shall yet win. The following figures will give an idea of what my party endured on the ice cap this spring: Average temperature for forty-eight days, 21.5 F.; average hourly wind velocity for forty-three days, 14.9 miles. In one storm of three days duration the party was exposed for thirty-two hours to an average temperature of 50 degrees F., with a minimum of 53 degrees F. average hourly wind velocity for the same time being 4.1 miles. Yet, in spite of this the party survived and came through without permanent injury.

The experience of the journey has shown me that my ideas as to the geography of the island ice of northern Greenland are correct, and that, on my proposed route, after surmounting the slope of the ice immediately adjacent to Wherry Sound, a level road leads to Independence Bay. I also know that the human animal can be so clothed and fed as to be unaffected by any degree of cold. What I need now is an exhaustive study of the Eskimo dog and his needs under the most trying circumstances. The coming winter will give me the opportunity for such study. In my next year's work I shall utilize my faithful friends and allies, the Eskimo, and with their assistance shall have a strong working force.

You may rest assured that I shall not return until I have done everything that is possible for one who believes in ultimate success, and whose every fibre is in sympathy with and striving for the desired end. Very sincerely,
R. E. PEARY,
Civil Engineer, U. S. N.

WANTED TO FISH IN HEAVEN.
A Wealthy Southerner Directs That Tackle Be Placed in His Coffin.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 1.—A week ago Moses H. Katzenberger, one of the leading representatives of the Hebrew race in the south and president of the Mechanics Savings Bank of Memphis, died in this city. His will, covering many hundred thousand dollars worth of property, has just been filed for probate, and it proves a remarkable document. The testator displays the utmost liberality in bequests to religious, charitable and public institutions. One bequest is to the new Memphis Jockey club, it being cash for a stake to be contested for each year, to be known as the Katzenberger Memorial stake, to be run for as long as there is a racing association in this country. The will says:

"Should there be a boy born to either of my sisters-in-law, Cora and Ligia, and I hope there will be, then such male issue is to take share and share alike all my fishing rods and tackle except a line and a few hooks to be buried with me in order that if there is any fishing in the other world I will be provided with tackle to enjoy the sport which has afforded me much delight in the present mode of existence."

The will concludes: "In reference to my own burial I direct that there be no religious rites or ceremonies, but that these be conducted by my loving friends in such a way as they desire, and I further direct that the formality of interring a bible with the body be dispensed with in my case."

A Novel Scheme for the Poor.
Detroit, Mich., Oct. 1.—Mayor Pingree's famous potato-patch scheme, by which several hundred acres of improved property in the suburbs were last summer planted with potatoes, the crop from which, it was hoped, would help feed the citizens' poor and unemployed during the coming winter, is already assured a rough estimate of the total crop made from digging up a small section of the land planted, shows that it will aggregate fully 15,000 bushels. This would make the Pingree crop worth $3,000. As the total investment for seed, labor in planting and planting, etc., was but $1,500, there seems to be a good margin of profit for the poor in the scheme.

The Wrong Man Murdered.
Berlin, Oct. 1.—A supposed anarchist murder has been committed in Munich. A watchmaker named Huber was found dead yesterday morning in his house stabbed to the heart and his throat cut. Huber kept lodgers, and among them was a commissary of police named Frohman. The latter had made himself very obnoxious to anarchists by shadowing and arresting a number of them. Huber was found dead in Frohman's room, and it is supposed that he was mistaken for the commissary. A number of arrests have been made.

THANKED THE DAILY PRESS.

His Hope Chapel Service Commended.

Just before his farewell sermon last night Evangelist Gillingham from the platform told the more than 700 worshippers that he could not leave town without thus publicly thanking The Daily Press for the aid it had given the revival work. This sentiment was repeated to the editor personally by Mr. Gillingham, Superintendent of the revival, and many others, who commended the excellence of the Daily Press reports, the generosity in giving the meetings such space and publicity, and the spirit in which The Press published the Gospel news. One good sister in Christ said: "We have all out of your reports to keep in our scrap books. When I get a bit of the track I'll turn to Mr. Gillingham's helpful words as they are recorded." Another said: "The Press has proved itself for Hope Chapel, and Hope Chapel's for The Daily Press."

It is gratifying to The Press to be able to engage in so good a work as local evangelism, and The Press is duly and fully grateful to this appreciation by its kind friends.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; since cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give $100 for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A GOOD MAN'S GOOD-BYE.

PLAINFIELD SORRY HE GOES

GLORIOUS FAREWELL SUNDAY OF EVANGELIST GILLIAM.

Large Congregations Eagerly Accept His Parting Admonitions—More Than 300 Converts Gained to the Churches by His Work.

Leaving a pleasant memory and a shining influence, Rev. Ralph Gillingham left Plainfield respectfully today. In his two-weeks ministry in Hope Chapel he brought many souls to Christ, and stirred many of the entire Christian community into renewed activity.

His farewell Sunday was tender with messages to the townspeople sorry to see him go and glorious with Christian achievements. Large congregations filled the chapel, many renewed their faith, and many accepted Christ.

"Conversion" was the morning topic; the plain and practical talk of the preacher brought forth many converts. The afternoon service was devoted to men, and a fine body of stalwart masculinity gathered.

Mr. Gillingham showed that it did not take much of a man to be a Christian, but it took all there was of him, and it took still less of a man to be an infidel, knocking away the props on which rested faith and future hope. He showed it to be a manly thing to be a Christian; religion was sanctified common-sense.

While the men were in session, a faithful band of women was praying for him at the home of Donald McInnes, under the leadership of Miss Jessie Stewart.

As a result of their prayers, and Mr. Gillingham's exhortations, many made a complete surrender.

Again at the evening service, when the chapel was packed, many conversations were made, and almost the entire mass of people openly acknowledged by silent rising their desire to lead a Christian life.

Mr. Gillingham's farewell talk was on the topic, "How then shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation?" He asked that they look beyond his personality and see Jesus crucified for their sins; told of the grace and power to be acquired through pardon; asked the people to pray for him; and urged them to read the Bible, be much in prayer, and get to work.

For all, he had a kind good-bye; and after the benediction the vast congregation crowded about him and shook his hands and told him how much he had helped them and how they regretted his departure.

The choir led in hymns of Christian farewell, greeting, singing in conclusion "God be with you till we meet again." And thus with joyful song and with fervent hand-clasp the people lingered about in an atmosphere of Christian cheer, even after the evangelist had gone out from their midst, leaving his blessing among them.

His work goes marching on.

The actual practical results of Mr. Gillingham's evangelism cannot be estimated. More than 300 have signed cards indicating church-membership desire, and not only Hope Chapel but also Monroe Avenue, Bethel and Warren chapels will gain thereby. The influence of these West-End services has been widespread throughout the city.

Mr. Gillingham left by the incomplete Royal Blue Line at 9:30 this morning for Frankfort, Ky., where he joins the work with Rev. B. Day Mills. He was highly commended by a gathering of friends at the station. His parting greeting to The Press was: "I know of nothing so glorious as to preach the Gospel."

HAPPY HOMECOMING.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Welcomed Home by Their Parish.

The parish house of the Church of the Heavenly Rest was the scene of a large gathering Saturday evening, to give a welcome home reception to Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lewis, who had been away from Evans nearly three months.

The affair was under the auspices of The Woman's Friendship Society, of which Miss Lewis is president; and the members showed their great taste in the beautiful decorations of the parish house, the masses of flowers and flags, and the Chinese lanterns for lighting the grounds.

The fine hall was filled the whole evening with all the friends, who gave a more than cordial welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis.

A bountiful and handsome supper was served during the evening, and the occasion was one long to be remembered.

Sociable Party.

A sociable party was held at the home of Henry Nixton, 249 East Front street, Friday night. The happy people began to gather about 8 p. m. Games of various kinds were indulged in and a good time enjoyed by all.

After the happy party, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nixton, J. A. Stocker, Mr. Moody, Miss T. Smith, Miss Miriam and Bertha Wilson, and Miss Bauspach.

CAMPAIGN CORKS.

THEY BEGIN TO POP IN LIVELY FASHION.

Mayor Gilbert Too Busy to Sober With Congress—Ex-Mayor Place Lacks the Republican Necessity, a War-Sidney Flower Acquires a Military Title—Two Johns on the Case.

The Herald Sunday had gossip gleaned from all political headquarters of the State, and from this portion published the following spicy paragraphs:

The fact that Mayor Gilbert, of Plainfield, has not been able to satisfactorily arrange his business engagements as cashier of the Fulton and Market National Bank, New York, and secretary of the Clearing House alone prevent him from being the Union County candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Eighth Congressional district.

Democrats assert that an Assembly ticket composed of William R. Hicks of Elizabeth; D. Robert Sayer of Union, and Sidney E. Flower of Plainfield, would be an invincible one. And it is said that this is the slate agreed upon. The Republicans are talking of running these against it: Joseph Cross of Elizabeth; John N. Berger of Elizabeth, and Charles N. Coddington of Westfield.

Ex-Mayor Charles Place of North Plainfield borough is willing to be a candidate for Congress from the Third District on the Republican ticket, but he has no bar.

Colonel Sidney E. Flower of Plainfield is being urged as a candidate for one of the Assembly nominations in Union County on the Democratic ticket. Col. Flower was put up as a lamb for the slaughter three years ago.

Plainfield Republicans will send down a solid delegation to the County Convention in favor of Cashier Halsey of Elizabeth for County Clerk. Halsey was a candidate for the position in the person of Freeholder Howard.

It is whispered in Plainfield that Judge John Ulrich, State organizer of Republican clubs in the Harrison campaign, has been adjusting lightning rods for the Congressional nomination, but as long as John Kean is in charge of the electricity Ulrich can wait, and wait, and wait.

Political interest is centered in the Republican Convention of the Third Congressional district which meets in New Brunswick Thursday. It is believed that almost all of the Somerset delegation will cast their vote for Charles Place of North Plainfield.

The powers that direct the State campaign are said to have selected another candidate. This is Benjamin Howell of New Brunswick, once Surrogate of Middlesex County and a very popular Republican. The Republicans want him to help out Charles Herbert through the help of Republican swamps of Chesebrough Creek into the Senatorial chair made vacant by Robert Adams.

It is said that the Monmouth delegation will join Middlesex in this attempt, and if this should be done there is no chance for Mr. Place.

The Democrats expect to renominate Jacob Augustus Gelsenhaner, who has already secured three terms—ever since the district was changed. They smile at the Republican enthusiasm and think there is not the least chance for defeat.

John A. French, Nelson J. Dungan and George W. Anderson are three rising lawyers of Somerset. All of them happen to be Democrats. They are rival aspirants for the Assembly nomination.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Sunday evening services in St. Joseph's Church began again last night after having been discontinued during the summer.

The service will hold an important business meeting in their rooms tomorrow afternoon at 4. It is desired that the attendance be large.

Preparatory services will be held in the Trinity Reformed Church Friday evening, and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated Sunday morning.

The Junior Society of Christian Endeavor of the Trinity Reformed Church will resume their meetings for the Fall and Winter months Thursday afternoon at 3.

A meeting of the board of managers of the Plainfield City Union of King's Daughters will be held Thursday afternoon, Oct. 4, at 3, in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue church.

The Sunday-school session at the Mt. Olive Church yesterday was unusually interesting. After the review a testimonial service was conducted by Superintendent M. C. Debbins.

All children willing to join the Temperance army are invited to join in a Union County rally in Westfield, Saturday afternoon, October 6. Rev. W. H. Ruff will address the gathering in Eliza Hall at 3:30, and a parade of the children will follow.

The Daily-Day services of the Trinity Reformed Church Sunday-school, yesterday afternoon, were very enjoyable. Every scholar had been notified by the superintendent that he or she was expected to be present, and an increase in the attendance was the result. Shows of devotion were made by Superintendent E. E. Anthony and the pastor. In the primary department the heart of the superintendent, Mrs. J. M. Tier, was made glad by the attendance of 110 little ones.

Rev. C. H. Patton of Westfield believes in Christian sociality, and will continue walking parties on the four Saturday afternoons in October, providing they be pleasant. The walks will be about five miles in length, and will be partly on roads and partly in the woods. Every city is invited to go. It is hoped that in this way lovers of nature will get the benefit of this superior form of exercise, and the October comes, see the woods in their greatest glory, and perhaps incidentally, get a little knowledge of the geology of the region. The next Saturday will start sharp at 3, the road opens being Mr. Patton's place.

15TH ANNIVERSARY.

CONGREGATIONAL CHEER.

ANOTHER MILESTONE FOR A FOURISHING CHURCH.

Autumnal Decorations Make a Pretty Setting For The Celebration—Gift Of A Communion Service—A Famous Violin Christened.

The fifteenth anniversary of the Congregational Church, yesterday morning, was very largely attended. The church was very prettily decorated with wild flowers, foliage plants, ferns, and roses. The programme was as follows:

Voluntary—Instrumental Trio, Prelude on Deluge—Cantata—St. Sam's Doxology.

Singing—Hymn 222, "Oh where are kings and empires now?"

Responsive Reading—Selection 26, Scripture Lesson—1 Corinthians 3, Prayer.

Offering—Offertory, "Cavellaria Rusticana"—Intermezzo Sinfonico—Pietro Mascagni.

Singing—Hymn 112—Our helper, God, We Trust Thy Name.

Anniversary Sermon.

Singing—Hymn 215—"I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord."

Benediction.

The instrumental music was supplied by Mrs. B. T. Barnes, organist; Mrs. E. D. Dwight, pianist; P. Ludwig Conde, violinist; and Firman Farrer, cellist. Mr. Conde has just returned from Europe, where he procured a magnificent Amati violin, with which he made his first appearance before the public yesterday morning. Everyone was delighted with the full rich tones of this splendid old instrument.

In his anniversary sermon, Mr. Goodrich took for his text, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." 1 Samuel 7:12. This will be published in full in The Daily Press.

Piano Solo—Miss Nellie Winkler.

COULD HARDLY BREATHE.

Causes of the Cough, Throat, and Hoarse—Life Made Miserable by Spasmodic, Pain and Cough.

Lida McCandless, No. 1330 South Thirtieth street, Philadelphia, in conversation with a reporter, said: "I had very bad case of catarrh of the nose, throat and stomach, with frequent headaches, pain under the shoulder blades and a horrible cough. I had to keep my mouth constantly open day and night to breathe, and felt as miserable as one possibly could. I was advised to try Munyon's Catarrh Cure. I am happy to say that from the beginning I felt relieved and continued to grow better until now I am entirely well. I am so thankful that this remarkable remedy was ever discovered, and hope others will take advantage of my experience."

Have you Catarrh? Are you willing to investigate a treatment that cures Catarrh by removing the cause? If so ask your druggist for a 25c bottle of Catarrh Tablets. The Catarrh Cure will eradicate the disease from the system, and the Tablets will cleanse and heal the affected parts and restore them to a natural and healthful condition.

Another hymn "Oward Christian Soldiers," was followed by remarks from the two ex-superintendents, G. W. Rockfellow and J. M. Whitton. Mr. Rockfellow spoke very feelingly of the early history of the school, how they came into their new building and his sixteen years experience as superintendent. Mr. Whitton told his experiences in the Sunday-school as a teacher, then as superintendent. While the class records were being taken another instrumental trio was played, "Serenade" by Charles Gounod.

After the closing hymn "On Our Way Rejoicing," the exercises were concluded with prayer.

HOPE CHAPEL FIREMEN. USHERS TO THE RESCUE.

SINGULAR PASSIVENESS OF A CROWD OF BYSTANDERS.

A Little Girl Wied From The Burning House to Get Her Parents From Evangelistic Meeting—Much Delay Sending an Alarm.

Clothing in a closet on the second floor of 209 Plainfield avenue caught fire last evening and alarmed the neighborhood. The neighborhood neglected to alarm the fire department, however, and for a while the blaze had a great chance to destroy the dwelling.

Charles McCarthy lives there and rents the rest of the house to Mrs. Willibald and John Nelson. Of the three families the only ones that were at home shortly after 8 were Mrs. Willibald and nine-year-old Mary Nelson. The girl was on the first floor in the rear, talking with Fanny Burke, who is older than Mary. Mrs. Willibald was lying on the lounge in front.

The girls discovered that something was wrong upstairs and opened the stair door. The stifling smoke of burning woolen goods rolled down and drove them out. They began to shout and the neighbors collected. Michael Spilane and his son Cornelius tried to reach the fire, but the smoke drove them back. Mary Nelson rushed off to Hope Chapel, where her parents were attending services.

The little girl knocked on the door and asked for her papa and mamma. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson went out together with Bert Littell and a few others, ushers of the chapel, and a Press reporter, who learned that the trouble was, by the time they reached the house the crowd about the dwelling had become quite sociable and the neighbors were congratulating each other on having taken the stove and the kitchen furniture out. None of them seemed to remember the existence of the fire-alarm system. Littell and the ushers went to Box 43, and Littell by being first to get there, sent in an alarm with ex-Councilman Gallup's key.

The fire-gong sounded loud. The steam signals did not start off on exact time, however, and many understood the blow. The bell in the box worked all right, but the whistle did not start until two taps had been struck. Then the first two blows went off together and only the firemen were expert enough to count 43 the first round. In Trinity Church 32 was announced at first. Those on the street misunderstood the alarm and different parties went off in search of Boxes 32, 33 and 34.

The firemen had no trouble in finding the fire, however, and two lines of hose were quickly laid. It was then nearly 35 minutes after the blaze had been discovered. The men went up the stairs but this smoke was so dense that the ladders went out as soon as the second story was reached. Then, in spite of the protests of Charles McCarthy, ladders were raised and the firemen broke windows and cut a hole in the roof. The smoke cleared away and with two extinguishers the firemen stopped the cause. In spite of the delay the damage was trifling. The neighbors have learned now what to do at a fire. They are now discussing the origin of last night's fire. Some think that children started it, as no chimney is near.

Mr. McCarthy thought this morning that the total loss might be $40. He carried no insurance. Mrs. Nelson says she put some of her husband's clothes on the floor of the closet before she went to church. There might have been a match in one of the pockets and perhaps she stepped on it as she left the closet.

FELL THREE STORIES.

West Dr. Clarence Haviland of Plainfield Will Recover.

Dr. Clarence M. Haviland of this city met with an accident in Annapolis at an early hour Saturday morning. He is taking a special course of study in the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and last week went to Annapolis to visit a naval cadet.

He was suffering from hay fever and asthma and arose in the night and went to the window to get a breath of fresh air. In some way he lost his balance during a fit of sneezing and fell 29 feet to the brick sidewalk. He was found unconscious after a short time afterwards. His father went at once to his bedside and reports that the worst injury is a dislocated ankle.

A GREAT TRIO.

Councilman McClure Alone Would Be a Strengthened.

The Summit Record says: If the Assembly ticket presented in these columns last week did not fully meet the wishes of the voters of Union County, what is the matter with this ticket?

Charles H. Moore of Elizabethtown, Jasper C. Hunt of Cranford, and Wm. K. McClure of Plainfield. With such nominees in the Democratic ticket, would the Republicans think it worth while to waste their money on a convention for the nomination of candidates destined to defeat?

FIRE AMONG FURS.

Quick Destruction of a Million—Loss of $75,000.

The six-story brick building and stock of Jones & Naumburg, cutters of Hatters' fur, 115 and 117 West Third-street, New York, were totally destroyed by fire this morning, making a loss of about $75,000.

Mr. Gilliam last night expressed gratification that not one person left the service when the fire-gong blew.

Among the converts of the Gilliam meeting yesterday was one man who had purposefully stayed away from church 15 years.

Adm. the veteran plumbing expert, keeps up to date, and every household will hail with delight his latest acquisition, the smoke vent, by which he is enabled to detect every flaw in pipes and joints. It will be necessary to have your plumbing put in shape before connection with the sewers, and you'd better have him make this thorough examination now.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

MYSTERY OF A VACANT HOUSE.

Successful Scheme to Rob the Place—Next Door—$300 in Cash Stolen, and a Bundle of Clothing Left Behind.

Another burglary was committed in North Plainfield Saturday. This time the thief operated in broad daylight and obtained $300.

George W. Little and his family moved from Brooklyn to 123 Grove street a week ago. Next door to house 123, unoccupied. Mr. Little has noticed at night a dim light in the rear of the vacant dwelling, but he thought it must be the agent and did not investigate.

Saturday morning at 11 the family went away. At 1:30 in the afternoon they returned and found that the house had been visited. The thief had arranged a pile of clothing and shoes apparently ready for transportation and then opened a bureau drawer. There he found $200 in cash and evidently concluded to depart with that. Nothing else was missing except three sheets and a small quantity of underwear.

Chief Pangborn was notified at once. He examined the premises and concluded that the thief had watched from No. 129 until the family left and then crossed into the yard. He had climbed up to the sill of a window near the rear on the nearest side of the house, leaving the marks of his feet on the siding, and pushed back the catch with a knife. It is possible that the thief, perhaps along with others, has been lodging in the vacant house for some time and had headquarters there when the seven houses were entered last Tuesday night.

QUICKLY JAILED.

MARY AND JOHN FALL OUT.

Domestic Discom on Hillside Avenue.

An outbreak of the trouble between Lewis J. Denton's Polish domestic Mary and her husband, John, caused Miss Denton to telephone for the police at noon to day and Chief Grant and Sergeant Kiehl hurried up to the house on Hillside avenue to arrest the man, but he had disappeared.

John is a one-eyed Pole who has been working for Henry Clay Randolph and tramping about the vicinity for a year. He sent for his wife and she paid her way to this country with the $160 he gave her. They commenced to quarrel again as they had done in the old country and the woman left him and went out to work. He has since been bothering the woman, demanding his money back. This morning he threatened to shoot, and Mrs. Denton summoned the police, but the man escaped before they came.

The policemen afterwards drove across the hill and got on track of the man. They finally found him and brought him to City Judge Coffington. On statement from the woman that she had been threatened with death and so persecuted that she had not dared to leave the house for months, the judge sent the man to Elizabeth for 90 days. He said his name was John Valinski.

$53 IN HIS NAME.

North Plainfield King's Daughters Accomplishing Practical Results.

A number of the young King's Daughters of North Plainfield held a fair Saturday afternoon at the residence of ex-Councilman J. E. Howell of Willow avenue. The tables were placed upon the piazza, which was very artistically decorated with Japanese hangings and yellow and white trimmings. The candy table was presided over by Miss Eleanor T. Van Deventer and Miss Grace E. Overton. The fancy table was directed by Miss Dorothea Wells, Miss Sadie Howell, and Miss Katherine. The croquet court was under the superintendence of Miss Edith Peck, and Miss Dorothea Wells was chief singer at the fish pool.

A large number of both young and old visited the fair during the afternoon, and when all was over the promoters found a balance of $53 to their credit, $16 of which was received for admission tickets.

The young ladies were assisted in their decorating and arranging by Mrs. Joseph E. Howell, Mrs. S. John McCutchen, and Mrs. George E. Rogers.

HELD UP BY NEGROES.

The Train Came Just in Time.

Before daylight Sunday morning a young man was stopped on the road at Rocky's Hill by two Negroes who asked for money. He reached for an imaginary pistol, and when they drew back he ran. They chased him to the Grand Avenue station. The 2:35 a. m. train came in as he got there, and he jumped aboard.

Ex-Letter Carrier Peter Flynn heavily stopped the runaway rig of Pearson & Gayle at 2:45 this afternoon as the horse crossed Park avenue after a run down West Second street.

CRESCENT CYCLING.

LIVELY SPORT ON THE OVAL.

LOCAL RIDERS WIN A FAIR PORTION OF THE PRIZES.

Full Story of the Gratifying Part Played by the Plainfield Cyclists in the Races—1,500 People Saw a Good Day's Sport—Great Scott's Motor Bug Still.

Plainfield's part in the race Saturday afternoon included the exhibition of the cycle track to a representative lot of metropolitan district cyclists, the attendance of 1,500 people, and the capture of Crescent riders of five prizes—three first, second and a third. Barnett won a $125 bicycle, the $70 shotgun donated by the Pope Manufacturing Company, and a $15 pair of tires. Monte Scott obtained a $50 gold stopwatch. His brother Henry kept the $30 silver teaset in town.

The rest of the $555 worth of prizes went to speedy visitors who joined with the Crescent riders in making the most successful of the season. For riding, but few falls and an increased enthusiasm among the spectators were noticeable features of the races.

Of course the value of the Times $50 medal made the one-mile novices interesting to all. A desire to keep it in Plainfield brought out the entries of William J. Dodd and William E. Havens, unattached, and K. D. Williams, E. T. Hand, C. S. Gottlieb and A. V. Rockwell, Crescent Wheelmen. Williams and Dodd were in the first heat with the final lap, Colin Kay, Williams, Scott, and Rockwell. When he found that the heat was to be ridden in 2:35 1-5, Dodd came into prominence on the back where he obtained a lead of a length. Kay had hard work to pass him on the stretch and won by only half a length.

Havens and Hand were down for the second heat. Hand was unfortunate, his rear tire exploding just before the race was called, and preventing him from starting. Havens was unable to get to the front and did not qualify. He looked surprised crawling into W. L. Wells of New York when he fell on the back and smashed his wheel.

Gottlieb and Rockwell were Plainfield pair in the third preliminary. Rockwell held fourth place for two laps, the first a leading match, the second a warm spring. Gottlieb kept the lead for a while on the second lap, but both the Plainfielders fell back in the unqualified bunch in the finishing spurt. William G. Ayres of West Orange went down on the back and out of the race.

Dodd was the only local rider in the final of the novices. He kept in the thick of the bunch and was sixth in the final heat on the last lap. He was unable to follow Kay when the Brooklyn boy shot out on the big turn and won the race. Charles K. Stevens of New York, the third man, looked back as he crossed the tape, wobbled and sat down suddenly through the remains of his rear wheel.

Monte Scott and Nate Titusworth lost their chances with the rest in the final heat of the mile Class A scratch. They loafed around and finished in 2:48 in this order: Barbeau, Scott, Titusworth. All were disqualified for not riding in 2:45 and the second heat became the final.

The fight among the remaining ones was pretty one. Granger jumped out on the back and seemed to own the race. Harcombi left the pocket, however, and hurried ahead to the tape.

Barnett came out in the 1-mile Class A with W. H. Wells as the only representative of the Spalding team, Titus and Helfert being ill. He set the pace for Barbeau and Silvie of the Bambergers and then fell in with the bunch. On the back Barnett went up again, but Silvie passed him and brought his companion up to second place.

By this time Hand had borrowed a wheel, and he appeared to represent Plainfield in the final heat of the mile handicap, Class A. He won the heat from the 1:30 1-2 mark in 2:15, in spite of the fact that good men started in front of him. His riding then and later in the day confirmed the opinion of Crescent experts that this unpracticed novice has a great future.

In the second heat Henry Scott (100 yards) barely qualified in fourth place. Havens and Titusworth, (both 130 yards) could not reach the front of the bunch in the final spurt. The third heat saw four outsiders take places, Rydell and Gottlieb not qualifying. Henry Scott won the final heat by a length from Knecht. Hand seemed to lead at every turn in the track and got no place.

The Class B mile scratch was captured by Barnett, time 2:29 1-5. He had a run away on the last quarter and finished five lengths in front of Silvie.

The first of the two-mile trial heats of the five-mile handicaps brought glory to Monte Scott (30 yards) and Hand (10 yards), who finished first and second respectively. Titusworth worked up well with Hand at first, but neither he nor Williams qualified. In the second heat Henry Scott (120 yards) rode with the limit bunch until the last lap, when he dropped out. In the next heat Gottlieb (30 yards) hung on well with the rest but did not show up among the qualified ones. E. H. Smith of the Crescents was second.

The race next run was the two-mile Class B handicap. The finish was made with a hot spurt. Barnett had the lead. Silvie was hard pressed by Barnett and looked back at him. Barnett passed ahead and reached second place. Ten yards beyond the tape Silvie ran into him. Barnett's rear wheel was smashed and he was severely shocked. His foot was slightly cut. The grand-stand race, frightened in a body when they saw their long distance favorite fall. They were reassured when he rose.

The great race of the day was the final five-mile handicap. For 15 laps the excitement ran high. E. A. Bodinger and Monte Scott joined in pacing from the scratch, each taking a lap alternately. Hand (10 yards) and Smith (20 yards) hung on well, the former falling in behind the four Riversides. The race scratch men found their feet quickly, only to be poked by the famous tactics of the Riversides. Again and again they went out and fell in again. Goodman spurred on the eleventh lap and then Hand took a second position behind the solid front of Orange men. On the last third Monte and Bodinger rushed away in magnificent style, the Riversides working their best to beat them. Monte held his lead, but Bodinger tired and Granger and Barbeau passed him.

The grand-stand and the bleachers went wild over Monte then. They cheered and shouted while he slowed up round the track and a crowd rushed out to greet him. They wheeled him up to the grand-stand with an ovation worthy of the holder of the five-mile competition record. Monte had won the position of Plainfield's first favorite long ago, but this was the first time the people showed to the full extent their admiration and enthusiasm. Monte's happiness was complete when his mother leaned from front of the grand-stand and hugged him. And thus the most excited while rejoicing over the victory of Plainfield's greatest, Plainfield's most popular cyclist.

The summary:

One-Mile Novice Race—First heat—Won by C. Kay, New York; W. J. Dodd, Plainfield, second; Charles K. Stevens, New York, third. Time—2:35 1-5.

Second heat—Won by C. S. Gottlieb, Princeton; B. E. Lord, Brooklyn, second; F. L. Schenck, Newark, third. Time—2:35 1-5.

Final heat—Won by C. Kay, New York; F. L. Schenck, Newark, second; W. J. Dodd, Plainfield, third. Time—2:35 1-5.

One-Mile Scratch, Class A—Won by J. H. Barbeau, New York; W. H. Wells, New York, second; F. F. Goodman, New York, third. Time—2:29 1-5.

Two-Mile Handicap, Class A—First heat—Won by E. T. Hand, 120 yards, Plainfield; E. A. Bodinger, 30 yards, New York; second, W. C. Rydell, 120 yards, Plainfield. Time—2:40 1-5.
