AN EXPERT'S VIEW OF PROPOSED COUNTY TROLLEY SHORT IN HIS ACCOUNTS.

Lemuel W. Serrell, Jr., Who Has Had Much Experience, Says It Cannot Be Profitable For Taxpayers.

He Reasons that the Amount of Money That Will be Required to Build the Road and Put it in Operation by the Lessees Will be Too Large For the Revenues of the Road to Pay an Interest On.

Lemuel W. Serrell, Jr., is what might be termed an expert in the matter of electric railways. Mr. Serrell is an electrical contractor, who has had much experience in building trolley lines and intimately knowing the cost of operation. Mr. Serrell has watched the promulgation of Frank Bergen's theory of county ownership for a trolley road on the county road with interest. He believes that it is not a practical scheme, and his reasons therefor are given below in the following letter sent to the editor of The Press this morning:

The Food of Nack and Thorn Dosed to Make Them Sick.

A CONFESSION EXPECTED

Strange Methods Adopted to "Break Down" the Prisoners-Man's Head Hung in Mrs. Nack's Cell at Night

New York, oct. 8. - It would ap . . . I that Sheriff Doht and District Attorney Youngs have hopes of securing a confession from either P'rs. Nack or Martin Thorn, who are in the Queens County Jail at Long Island City awaiting trial for the murder of William Guldensuppe.

It is well known that both prisoners have been in a very excitable condi-tion at different periods in the last few days. Sheriff Doht said yesterday he telieved that had not the lawyers of both Mrs. Nack and Thorn called upon them late Wednesday afternoon both would have collapsed from nervous bysteria.

Man's Head in Her Room.

As an indication of how the jail authorities are trying to work on the feelings of Mrs. Nack, the picture of a man's head was hung up in her room in plan view of the prisoner on Tuesday night after she had retired.

When she got a glimpse of the picture Wednesday morning she asked the matrons why it was put there, and they replied it was only a joke. She requested that the picture be removed. This was done.

A story was being circulated about the jail yesterday that on Tuesday food had been especially prepared for Mrs. Nack and Thorn in a way to cause them to have nausea. This was done, it is alleged, to help in breaking them

Sheriff Doht was asked about this, and he admitted that both Mrs. Nack and Thorn had been taken sick after partaking of some soup on Tuesday.

When asked if the soup had been

On the Verge of Madness.

Mrs. Nack is on the verge of a tragic breakdown. She is a haunted woman, starting at the least sound, shivering with fits of terror.

She fails to recognize familiar faces. She stares intently at the blank cell walls, and then recoils as though she beheld some one-Guldensuppe per-with knitted brows and restless hands. Mrs. Nack knows the details of the that awaits her-this is the latest discovery. She has sat in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison.

Sat in the Seat of Death. Six months ago, when she and Thorn were planning the murder of Gulden suppe, she visted the prison for this

She wanted to steel herself for any ordeals of the future. She fitted her portly form in the chair; she had no fear; her superstitious nature told her this was a good omen.

Back she came to New York in an enthusiastic frame of mind. All scruples were thrown to the wind; she urged the killing of Guldensuppe. The foul murder was committed.

She was arrested; she saw the narrow road between prison walls that lay before her. Then she beheld the electric chair—at one end of the narw road the dismembered body Guldensuppe, at the other the electric chair, not harmless as when she sat in it before, but tingling with mysterious, scientific death.

Showed Him Her Deformed Foot. Baltimore, Oct. 8.-Miss Carrie Shapiro, of Richmond, was a witness to-day in her own behalf in the suit brought by her against Nathan Roseu, of Harowith, Roseu & Co., cloakmakers, of Baltimore, for breach of promise. The case differs from any other ever brought here in that the defendant acknowledges that he was en-gaged, but says he declared the marriage off as the young woman had a flat and deformed foot. Miss Shapiro says that he was fully aware that her foot was not shapely, as he examined it soon after he became engaged to her, and then told her it made no difference to him. She also testified that he wanted her to elope soon after this, but she objected.

Col. G. H. North in Jail.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8 .- Col. George H. North, the well-known stock broker and a prominent officer of the Nation al Guard on Gen. Snowden's staff, is confined in Moyamensing prison under a commitment by Judge Ferguson, of the Orphan's Court, dated Oct. 5, 1987. Col. North was arrested on an attachment issued by Judge Hanna for contempt, dated Oct. 2. The contempt consisted of a failure to obey an order made upon him as executor of the estate of the late Mary S. Volans, to account for the payment of a legacy of $2,000 bequeathed to the Woman's Christian Association, of Philadelphia.

More Gold Is Coming.

New York, Oct. 8.-On the steamship Normannia, sailing from Hamburg to-day, will be shipped $500,000 in gold, consigned to Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the New York bankers.

This will make $1,000,000 en route to New York. The total amount which has been received here since the flow of the yellow metal turned to the United States is $2,300,000.

A Spellbinder's Suicide.

New York, Oct. 8.-J. L. Downs, a resident of Cleveland, O., until recently a wealthy business man of St. Louis, Mo., shot himself last night in Central Park. He was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital, where it was said he could not live.

Downs was a friend of Senator Jones, of Nevada, and last year stumped the The only Pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. West for Bryan.

Gen. Woodford's Note.

Madrid, Oct. 8-Premier Sagasta has declared that the note addressed to the Duke of Tetuan by United States Min-ister Woodford, concerning which there has been so much speculation as to its actual purport, was worded in the most polite terms. The note, he says, conveyed assurances of the highest regard on the part of the United States for Spain, and its purpose was to make inquiry at what period the Spanish Government thought it would able to bring the war in Cuba to an end.

Gen. Woodford requested an answer to his note before the end of October upon the pretext that the United States Government must report the matter to Congress at the earliest possible moment.

Albany. Oct. 8. - Attorney-General Hancock has interpreted the civilservice law as it relates to veterans, at the request of the Civil-Service Commission of Rochester. If any veteran passes both of these ex-aminations, even though the percentages he receives are the minimum required by the examiners for passing he is then entitled to preference for appointment under the Constitution.

E. C. Gibson's Operations Extended All Over the Country.

HOTELS WERE VICTIMIZED

He Got $1,000 from Banker Henry Clews-A Cleveland Woman Swindled Out of $6,000-Passed Bad Checks.

New York, Oct. 8.-Chief of Detecives McClusky had at Police Headquarters this afternoon a man whom he charges with being one of the greatest swindlers ever known in this country. His operations, McClusky alleges in his complaint, have covered a period of years and have netted him at least $400,000. The man under arrest is Emmet C.

Gibson, alias George A. Sherin. He said that he was 39 years old and lived at the Hotel Bartholdi. He was arrested at the Grand Hotel, at Thirtieth street and Broadway, by Detectives Evanhoe and Connelly.

Gibson is a lawyer, and was, he says, once president of the Akron Street Railway in Ohio. He says that he is now vice-president of the road.

The specific charge against Gibson is that he passed a bogus check on Aug. 6, 1896, for $620 on the manager of the Imperial Hotel. He tendered the check in payment for a board bill of $265. That is one of his methods, Detective McClusky says. Another method is selling bogus stocks and bonds.

Gibson had an office in the rear of Henry Clews' place in the Mills Building. He swindled Henry Clews, it is charged out of $1,000.

Mr. Carroll is not satisfied with the small post given him, which pays only $1,500 a year, and through members of the State delegation in Congress is endeavoring to secure some more important place. The plan now pursued by the President in selecting Consuls is to order them to appear for examination and announces the appointments just before they are ready to sail for abroad.

A GREAT EUITOR.

Our telegraphic columns record the critical illness of Charles A. Dana, the best known editor in this country. Mr. Dana's death, which seems imminalism. He is the last of the great street. New York editors who towers above and withstands the grinding tendency of modern journalism to obscure the personality of its members. Even now, when Mr. Dana has not written a line for weeks, his paper is distinguished as a champion of a certain Mayoralty candidate in the seething political caldron of Greater New York its opinions oftener quoted than any other journal espousing the same cause. They are pointed out for either condemnation or approval not because it is a newspaper influence simply, but because there is the popular knowledge that they reflect the mind of Dans. In other days he was there personally to see that his ideas were the public policy of the paper; but now that he is not there in person, the character of the man is so indelibly stamped into every department of the newspaper by its actual conductors' long association and training with the noticeable. Strip the Sun of the popular regard that it is Dana who is the fountain nead, and the Sun's influence would wane. The Sun editorials are distinguished simply because Dana is the responsible editor.

SEEMS LIKE NEW STATION. RAILROAD SIDINGS BEING REMOVED

The Work is Understood to be the Pre liminary Steps Towards Establishing the Improvement.

It looks very much as though the Central railroad intends to erect another station opposite the North Avenue station at an early date. The company has given orders to General Section Boss Higgins that the side tracks in that locality must be removed at once. Already a portion of the siding that runs into Morgan Bird's yard has been removed and the rest will be treated likewise very soon. Under the circumstances the company will be unable to give Mr. Bird a siding at that point as the room will be needed for the new station. The sidings that are used by Rushmore & Co. will also be taken up. The railroad company will be unable to give the firm another siding unless it be run in from the bridge. To do this permission from the City Council would have to be secured. This, it is thought, confident the Council will

It is known that the railroad company desire to purchase the Rushmore & Company property and have offered something like $100 per front foot, but the firm, it is understood, ask about $300, and this price is considered too high. It is not known just what the outcome will be.

The D. C. Ivins & Co. siding will be taken up, and another one will be given them further east in the vicinity of the gas works. The tracks that will be taken up will be placed in the freight yard for use.

The plans are now completed for the new station and it is confidently be lieved that before long the work will be started.

But She Was Caught in the Act and Her Purpose Defeated. Thousands of bicycle riders leave their wheels standing in the street open to the prey of bicycle thieves and malicious people. The experience of Mrs. George O. Stevens yesterday may suggest to many that an ounce of prevention is worth several pounds of cure in the case of a bicycle and the possibility of its loss.

During the afternoon Mrs. Stevens had occasion to go to the postoffice to buy a postal card. She rode to the office on her bicycle and left it in front of the big window that lights up the corridor While waiting for one of the desks to become unoccupied so that she might write a message on the card and mail it then, Mrs. Stevens was gazing casually out of the window. A moment later two young women, dressed in bicycle costume, and each guiding a wheel beside Missionary Society of the Methodist them, took up a position in front of the window. They stood apparently unoccupied for a moment. Then they engaged in conversation. This was followed by one of the young women standing her wheel against one of the big stone columns that support the archway of the Babcock building. She walked over to Mrs. Stevens' bicycle and seemed to be looking at the cyclo-

Mrs. Stevens reasoned that it was just an exhibition of woman's curiosity to know the make of the wheel and to see how many miles the cyclometer registered. The investigating young woman felt of the tires. Then she looked the whole machine over and walked back to her friend. They resumed their conversation. Then both Calls promptly Moses N. Terrill, were walked back to her friend. They returned and looked at the wheel again. The young woman who had inspected A large delegation of Westfield the bicycle looked cautiously down the street, then up the street, and finally glanced inside the postoffice lobby. Mrs. Steven's was in a position where the young woman could not see her very well. Apparently satisfied that she had not attracted any one's attention, the young woman took hold of the bicycle she had left standing against the stone column and guided it over beside Mrs. Stevens'. The girl's actions were becoming decidedly interesting to Mrs. Stevens. The young woman deliberately took hold of Mrs. Steven's wheel and moved it to one side. Then in its place she stood the one that she had appeared with. She glanced furitively up and down the street and grabbing Mrs. Stevens' wheel walked birskly to the curb and started to

Mrs. Stevens thought it was time to call halt. She hurried to the door and saw that the wheel that had been left was far inferior to her own. She stepped out on the sidewalk and said in a determined tone:

"Say, miss, hadn't you better leave that here?"

The girl, as cautious as she had been in making the exchange, was taken by surprise. She halted, assumed a look of surprise, glanced at the wheel she was about to ride off on, and exclaimed:

"A-a-a hem! A-a-a oh, I guess I've made a mistake. I thought that this was my wheel. Why it isn't at all. Please excuse me."

The young woman dejectedly and with flushed countenance walked back and delivered Mrs. Stevens' wheel to the owner while she grasped the old one she had left and hurried to the curb and rode off with her friend.

It was a clever trick-except that Mrs. Stevens happened to be a witness of the proceedings.

THE SUNDAY LESSON INTERNATIONAL SERIES, WITH COM

MENTARY BY DR. STEARNS. Golden Text: If any man suffer as a Chris tian, let him not be ashamed.-1 Pere iv: 16. Oct. 10, 1897. 17, 18. "Make haste and get the quickly out of Jerusalem, for they will not receive tny testimony concerning In our last lesson Paul was of his way to Jerusalem in spite of the Spirit's warning that he should not go (chapter xxi, 4, 11, 12.). He nad not been many days in Jerusalem when the Jews of Asi, laid hold of him in the temple. irew him out and would have killed him had he not been rescued by the chief captain with a band of soldiers and carried into the castie. He asked permission of the captain to speak to the people, and having obtained it he addressed them in Hebrew from the castle stairs. He described his former life and the manner of his conversion, and has now come to the a new styles. Lord's message to him at Jerusalem. The child of God who is willing to be wholly the Lord's, may be sure of the Lord's guidance in all things, and if it should be necessary, an angel from heaven or the Lord Himself will see 46

19, 20. "And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on Thee' It is all right for us to confess to God all our sins, but it is not for us to argue or reason with Him when He commands us to do anything or go anywhere. He knows where and how He can make the most use of us. He knows who will receive testimony through this one or through that one, and it is for us to say, "Here am I, send me where Thou wilt and when Thou wilt.
21. "And He said unto me, Depart, for I will send thee far hence into the gentiles." We cannot expect the full blessing of the Lora unless we are ready 101 that work to which He has called us (Acts xiii, 2). May it not be that many ministers who cannot seem to find an open door at home are being called far hence to some of the millions who have never heard of Christ and cannot hear till some one shail tell them? Let each Christian ask, "Am I really willing and obedient and does my heart and say honestly, Lord, what wilt thou have me do?"

22. "Away with such a fellow from the earth, for it is not at that he should live." That the same privileges should be set before uncircumcised gentiles as before circumcised Jews as to them intolerable, and it was for this same thing that Peter was called to account (chapter xi, 2, 3). I am not but the same spirit in a worse form is seen to-day when people of one church or denomination look down upon and make little of work not done by themselves. The ambition of churches or boards or societies to excel each oth instead of all uniting to honor Christ and complete His church is tainted with the same spirit.

23, 24. "The chief captain commanded that he should be examined by scourging that he might know where-fore they cried so against him." Paul had been speaking in Hebrew (xxii, 2); of which language probably neither captain, centurions nor soldiers under stood a word, and the ides was that a little suffering might bring from him a confession of his wrongdoing.

"Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman and uncon-nemned?" This he said to the centurion who stood by while the soldiers bound him with thongs preparatory to scourging him. While Paul was willing to suffer all that was necessary for Christ's sake, and unjustly, too, here was something wholly uncalled for, from which his Roman citizenship might delive him. I am writing this on the North Pacific ocean on my way to Japan as I start on my tour round the world for Him that I serve.

26. "Take heed what thou doest, for this man is a Roman." Thus said the centurion to the captain. As far as heaven is above the earth, so far are the privileges of heavenly citizenship above all those of earth. The devil could not touch Job, neither could he have Simon Peter without asking permission of God (Job 1, 10; Luke xxii, 31, R. V.), and he that toucheth a child of God toucheth the apple of His eye (Zech. i., 8). Let us rejoice in our heav enly privileges and walk worthy of

"Then the chief captain came and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea." So a believer should be ready always to give to every o '+ 'hat asketh as definite an answer concerning his standing in Christ. Paul did not think or hope that he was a Roman citizen. He knew it and said ves. Any one who has truly accepted Christ is accepted in Him and has redemption, even the forgiveness of sins (Eph. i, 6, 7), and should never hesitate to confess it to the glory of God. It is not honoring to God to think or hope that we are saved. We should know it. (I John v, 12, 13), and live it and ever gladly acknowledge it.
28. "And the chief captain answered,

With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free-The heavenly citizenship cannot be bought by money, or good works or any merit whatever on our part. "Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to delivet thein." "Not by works of righteou ness which we have done" (Zeph. i, 13, 7.tus iii, 5). See also Rom. iv. 5; Ept. ii. 8, 9. The only way to become a would of God, an heir of God and a citizen of heaven is by a new birth, a birth from above, even as our Lord said in John iii, 3, 5, 7, and I believe a careful study of Jas. i, 1s; Pet. i, 23; Eph. v, 26, with John vi, 6; will make it very plain that the new birth is wrought in us by the word of God and the Spirit of God concerning our Lord Jesus Christ.

29, 30. Paul was saved from scourging at that time, and we will in some way be saved from all that it is not best for us to endure (I Cor. x, 13). The captain was still in doubt as to the real cause of the uproar, and so called the chief priests and council together that he might set Paul before them. But Paul's testimony before the council caused such a disturbance that the chief captain had to rescue him again and bring him to the castle. Then fol-lowed the discovery of the plot to kill Paul, through Paul's nephew, and his being sent under a guard of soldiers to Felix, the governor of Caesarea.

The Tables Turned.

We have almost solved the servant girl problem. Instead of the maid being mistress, we have made it possible for the mistress herself to be mistress. The tables are turne :, and we have turned them. We have accomplished it to the mutual satisfaction of everybody. The plan is so simple that the wonder is nobody ever thought of it Cheap but good laundering of general house linen enables every housekeeper to have the washing done out of the house. For instance.

What does our proposition mean? It means no more washday odor about the house. It means satisfied servants, because a maid will not be insolent if she can escape washdays and the delay of other work caused by bad drying days. Our booklet "Tables Turned" tells all about our new plan. You can have it for the

FATAL FOREST FIRES

Ten Persons Thought to Have Perished in Manitoba.

FLAMES STILL SPREADING

Heavy Damage Done in Michigan and Indiana by Flames Sweepins Over Dried-Up Prairies-Potatoes Roasted in the Ground.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 8.—The forest fires that have been raging in Manitoba, close to the boundary line, for the past ten days, have broken out more furiously than ever. Ten of twelve persons are reported to have been burned to death, and the fire is rapidly spreading towards North Dakota. Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of timber has been destroyed. besides grain and farm buildings. It is feared that the fires will get beyond the control of the settlers.

At Beausejour, Man., seven sons are reported to have bees burned to death. Mrs. O. W. Thomas her young son and a daughter, had ? race with the flames for several miles They lost a team of horses, which they kept on the run. Sparks from the burning timber were blown into the dry grass of a prairie which they were compelled to cross and soon they were surrounded by the flames. The frantic horses started to run straight ahead into the burning timber. Before they had gone far the carriage overturned and they were thrown down an ema bankment into a small creek. This probably saved their lives. They were badly burned.

A report from Morris, Man., says a prairie fire has been raging there and that one family of four persons is known to have perished. The fire is supposed to have been started by the spark of an engine.

Potatoes Roasted in the Ground.

Niles, Mich., Oct. 8.—East and north of this city, marsh fires still continue Farmers have fought the flames night and day for a week and are exhausted. They have moved their household goods to places of safety and have sacrificed their homes.

Near Berrien Springs, on what is known as the Big Meadow, hundreds of acres of potatoes have been roasted in the hills. The fire is the worst that has occurred in this vicinity since 1871

Large Fires in Indiana.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 8.—Forest fires are raging in the eastern part of this county and farmers have organized to fight the flames. Last evening the little town of Edgerton and Baldwin were threatened with fire and were saved only after hard work Barns, corn in shock, and acres of Winter wheat which was dried up have been destroyed.

LUETGERT'S FATE NEAR.

State Continues Its Attack in the Luctgert Trial.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 8 .- The State yesterday continued its attack begun the day before on the defense set up by Adolph L. Luetgert to the charge that he murdered his wife and destroyed her body in a sausage vat.

The State's attorneys are at present dealing with the allegation that Mrs. Luetgert is still alive, and they have brought out some damaging testimony against Matthew Scholey, who swore that he saw her in Kenosha, Wis., on May 4 and 5. Witnesses have now de-clared that they would not believe Scholey under oath, and two of them have sworn to conversations with Scholey since he was a witness, in which he said he "was satisfied with what he got for testifying," and that "Luetgert made a good job of it, anyway." As to Luetgert's contention that he was making softsoap in the big vat at the time it is alleged he was boil-Frank Moan, custodian for the Sheriff, has shown that there were many cases of all kinds of soap in the factory when he took possession, so that Luetgert did not need to make any. Neither did the factory need cleaning. So far as the evidence is concerned the famous Luetgert trial is nearing its close. It is expected that the rebuttal evidence of the prosecution will all be in by to-morrow night. Some rebuttal on the part of the defense will follow on Saturday and both sides are expected to rest their cases Saturday

Never before in Chicago has the interest in a murder trial been sustained from start to finish as it has been in the Luetgert case. Luetgert was moved to deep profan-ity in the county jail to-day by the visit of a professional hypnotist. man of hypnotic science asked Luetgert's permission to hypnotize him.

Blow to Silver.

London, Oct. 8.-Your correspondent is informed from a trustworthy source that the Indian Government, in reply to a further pressing invitation by the English Cabinet to consider Senator Wolcott's proposal, has answered that it cannot reopen the question of the Indian currency, and it will not be a party to the reopening of the mints for the free coinage of silver. In well-informed English circles it is not believed that Lord Salisbury's Government will dare to overvide the decision of the Indian Government.

Senator Wolcott's mission must thus be considered a failure.

TRYING TO COMBINE ON BLISS. New York Situation at 1 14 ington.

Washington, Oct. 8 .- Rumorbeen revived in Washington conne the name of Secretary Bliss with the Mayorality contest in Greater Ne Several Low people were is the Interior Department, and it is sai that they repeated the overtures mad to the Secretary some time ago to unite the warring factions of the Republicar party in the city on himself. At the department nothing can be learned as to the truth of the statements, but it is known that the Secretary does not intend to become involved in the contest; and it is believed, further, that the Administration will not take any part in the contest.

The Low people in Washington seem to be more anxious to effect a compro mise with the Tracy people than di the latter. Another interesting piece of information is the statement that overtures are being made by the Low forces to the Tracy adherents to effect a compromise by uniting on Mayor Strong. Not much faith is placed in this rumor by New York Republicant in Washington.

It was stated on good authority that if some agreement was not reached within a short time Senator Platt would again visit this city for the purpose of further consulting with the Provident and Senator Platt us a call.

President and Secretary Bliss concern ing the New York situation. feared that if the Administration does not soon take some action to effect a compromise between the two factions it may involve the Legislature. The loss of the seats in New York and Brooklyn would bring the Republican majority in the State Legislature down to a very small figure, and the turning over of a few additional districts in the State outside would give the Democrats an excellent chance for controll ing the Legislature on joint ballot.

Salisbury's Poor Memory.

London, Oct. 8.-The misunderstand ing that has arisen over the Behring Sea conference is due entirely to one of Lord Salisbury's extraordinary freaks of memory. He does not now deny that Ambassador Hay verbally informed United States to invite Russia and Japan to participate in the conference but declares that he instantly replied "Oh, no; Great Britain will not participate on such conditions.'

Ambassador Hay did not hear any such reply, and interpreted Lord Salisbury's attitude as a tacit consent to take part in the conference. Col. Hay had no intimation of the British objection to Russia and Japan until a few days ago. This is by no means the first time that Lord Sailsbury has affirmed that he had said what may have been in his mind, but which was not expressed.
