The nominations in the First ward were unanimously made as follows: Councilman, Walter L. Hetfield: justice of the peace, Thomas Callahan ; constable, Charles Dutcher.

When the Second ward was called for, William K. McClure, representing the ward committee, requested that the committee be empowered to fill the position today, as at that time it way our business and all dat we kin was impossible for them to decide on do in de winter is to stand 'round de an available candidate-or at least on streets now. He did not believe lected when the colored men apin the policy of waiting to see what peared on the scene, and now to nomithe Republicans were going to do. If nate a colored man would necessitate Mr. Kinsman was in sympathy that the conferences be held over with the movement of the Citizens' and his name was favorably considered for the Councilmanic honor in the Council, he should consider it his the Third ward the time to put him in duty to restore to them any rights the field was right there.

After several of the committee had sed themselves over the situation it was concluded to nominate Mr. Kinsman irrespective of what the result of the Republican primary was.

The nominations for the Third ward were then unanimously made as follows: Councilman, Frank E. Kinsman; justice of the peace, J. Oakley Nodyne; onstable, Amos Moffett.

The Fourth ward nominations were unanimously made as follows: Counclimen, Henry Liefke, (two years), Elmore D. Moffett, (one year); justice of the peace, Jacob Kriney; constable, Albert Jaeger.

At this point in the proceedings of the meeting a dark cloud, figuratively speaking, appeared on the political horizon of the Committee of Forty and it is expected that a large conand for the time being eclipsed the other work yet to be finished.

Arthur Venable and John Scott, as committee coming from the meeting held in the Mt. Olive church Monday night, were given a hearing to present the attitude of the colored voters in the present campaign. Mr. Venable secured recognition and said he 'sposed dat de gemmen here had seen what de papers had publicked bout de meetin' dat was held in Mt. UNITY OF GERMAN STATES. STANDING OF HIGH SCHOOL

Series of University Extension Lectures.

"German Unity" was the subject upon which Prof. Wheeler, of Yale, School and its thorough work shown spoke at the University Extension by the following items seem to indilecture, given in the chapel of the cate that it is one of the best fitting Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church schools to be found for a boy or girl last night.

Prof. Wheeler explained clearly the gradual formation of the longing for unity among the German States, the early steps in that direction-the Act of Confederation of 1815, and the calling together of a representative body, chosen by the people, by Frederick William IV- and the fact that when, at the death of Frederick VII. of Denmark, the Scheleswig-Holstein trouble began, Prussia and Austria were the rival powers of Germany. In the conflict which followed. Austria was shut out from Germany, leaving Prussia without a rival, and later, in the Franco-Prussian war, the astonishing success of the German armies created such National pride that all the States became anxious for union. The Ger man Confederation was formed, with William, of Prussia, as President, but he was soon given the title of German Emperor, and Germany became a constitutional empire.

Prof. Weeeler made frequent and enthusiastic mention of Prince Otto Von Bismarck, the great Prime Minister, who early saw the danger to unity which lay in the power of Austria. and who used the whole force of his genius and statesmanship to further the varification of his fatherland. Prof. Wheeler told briefly the life history of this remarkable man, and showed how his appearance at the head of Prussian affairs marked an epoch in history, and how his policies have shaped German affairs.

TEA AND TEST SOCIAL. Guests Were Put to Their Best Wits for

Good Answers. The Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church held a very enjoyable and novel social in the church parlors last evening It was called a "Tea and Test Social," and proved to be a good fun-maker. Small cards, in colors of white and green, were given to each one as they arrived. The colors were symbolical of the tea plant, and on the back was printed a list of twenty conundrums, opposite which were left blank spaces to be filled by the holder of the card. Each answer contained an emphasis of the letter "T," which conveyed the idea of the scheme. This part of the they exchanged with some other person, and when the time was up Mr

There was a marked absence of most of the colored men of the ward. Each faction would be glad to improve their game had its workers on deck and there was considerable buttonholing before the primary was called to order. It sidering the fact that nearly one-half was a very orderly gathering, however, and all the contest there was was fought out silently at the polls.

to fill any vacancies in its own number. Jacob Kirkner made a few remarks on the situation. He said that he anderstood that there was quite a strife in the party and that it was in danger of a split. He spoke of F. E. Kinsman as a candidate acceptable to the Citizens' movement as well as to the Republicans. Having lived long in the city and being thoroughly conversant with its needs, he recommended that the nominee from the ward be someone with experience in practical lines. There should be one in the Council with a thorough knowledge of electrical affairs and competent on franchises. Mr. Kinsman was all this, he explained, and was willing to give a portion of his time to the city if put in such a position. The city, he went on to say, had had some experience with people in the Council who were empowered to fill any vacancies did not have experience. He referred particularly, he said, to the sewer beds. He spoke of Mr. Frost's claims that the sewer beds would be utterly free from odors and declared that at present the beds were certainly very offensive.

As there was no one named for Justice of the Peace, D. W. Little presented the name of John Naegle. The polls were then opened and the voters lined up. As each man voted, he gave his name and address and his ballot was deposited in a box. The polls were kept open for half an hour and then the work of counting the votes was begun. A regular tally-sheet was kept and it was 11 o'clock before the last ballot was counted. From the start, it appeared that Mr. Barrows was in the lead for the Councilmanic nomination and he was never headed.

The vote was as follows: For one member of the Common Council; Elliot T. Barrows, 138; Frank E. Kinsman, 37; D. W. Littell, 42.

For Justice of the Peace: John Naegle, 64; J. Oakley Nodyne, 8; E. R. Ackerman, 1.

For Constable: J. Caspar Kirkner. 120; Amos Moffett, 81.

For seven delegates to the city convention: W. H. Rogers, 203; E R. Linn, 121; B. F. Coriell, 80; F. M. E. Marsh, 33; D. E. Titsworth, 32; George W. Rockfellow, 27; C. Woodcock, 15; S. C. Baker, 2; George T. Odiorne, 1.

After the result of the primary was announced, the few that had remained through the count adjourned. There was considerable satisfaction expressed by the "roosters" at the easy victory of their candidate and conof the Republican voters in the ward turned out, they consider the outlook for the city election very bright.

New York, Nov. 24.-With all the res tivities due to the occasion and char acteristics of the institution, the Cham ber of Commerce of the State of Nev York celebrated its 128th anniversar; last night in the new Delmonico ban quet room. Numerically it was the largest banquet ever held by the institution, nearly 500 persons being present, among them the Governor of the control of the contr State, the Mayor of the city, and two guests ate, drank and were merry, and after that they listened to speeches of various subjects of moment by men specially qualified and specially invited to speak on those subjects.

The eight tables at which the mem bers and guests were seated complete ly filled the big gold and old rose ban quet room, which for the first time wa thrown open to a banquet. The dec orations of the tables were of crimsor meteor roses and pink bridesmaid roses, except in the case of the President's table, which was decorated with ferns, orchids and American Beauty roses. At each plate was a menu card showing a symbolical engraving. Over the gold-lettered "Nineteenth Annua

Alexander E. Orr, the president of the Chamber, presided. Lyman J. Gage, the Secretary of the Treasury, was the chief speaker and guest of honor. He discussed the financial situation. Mr. Gage said, in part:

"The text to which I was called to speak is thus stated: 'Currency Re-form—Now or When?' By implication I am absolved from all obligation to discuss the 'how,' or to go into details of methods to achieve currency reform. This is a great relief to me for two rea-

"In a word, I commit myself to the following proposition: At a cost too contemptible for serious consideration, the debatable condition of our currency and banking system may be put upon clearly safe, if not theoretically scientific foundations. This may be secured without any necessary contraction of the circulating medium of exchange, and with no danger of an undue expansion, and, best of all, this desirable end may carry in its effect potential relief to those districts in the South and West, which, though rich in possibilities of soil and climate, have been held back through the absence of banking

New York. That has gradually diminished, until now it is scarcely half. During thirty years last preceding 1896 the foreign commerce of New York shrunk from 59 to 51 per cent. while Boston, with a smaller harbor, with no rivers or canals, has during the same period doubled hers. There may be other reasons for this unfavorable comparison, but this at least is one. Boston has done her best, and New York has not. And it has often happened in the world that in time the best efforts of the weak surpass the indifferent efforts of the strong.

Gov. Black was followed by Major-Gen. Wesley Merritt, who took the place of Major-Gen. Nelson A. Miles. who was unable to be present, in re-sponding to the toast, "The Army."
"The Navy" was responded to by

Commodore Francis M. Bunce. Mayor Strong discussed "The Duties and Obligations of a Citizen of New York."

President Daniel C. Gilman, of Johns Hopkins University, was the last speaker. His subject was "Commerce, the Child of Science, and its Filial Supporter.'

The dinner wound up with a toast to Mr. Delmonico. Among the other guests present were Russell A. Alger, Secretary of War Gov. Black, Mayor Strong, Mayor-elect Van Wyck, Gen. Nelson A. Miles.

President Daniel G. Gilman of Johns Hopkins University, President Seth Low of Columbia University, Carl Schurz, Samuel D. Babcock and Henry E. Howland. The Committee of Arrangements spared no effort to make the dinner surpass all previous affairs of the Chamber in interest, and they were aided in every possible way by George Wilson, the secretary of the Chamber. Among the members of the Chamber of Commerce who were present were John Jacob Astor, George F. Baker, August Belmont, Calvin S. Brice, Ver-non H. Brown, John Claffin, Henry Clews, William P. BRYAN PLAYS FOOTBALL. Late Presidential Candidate Starts a Game in Missouri.

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 24.-William J. Bryan, late Presidential candidate, appeared in Columbia in an altogether new role. Mr. Bryan participated in his first game of football. Clad in a striped old-gold and black sweater, the erstwhile Presidential candidate appeared on the athletic field of the Missouri University and took part in the game. It was a practice game between the 'Varsity and the Alumni teams, and Mr. Bryan had been persuaded to go to the field by the college boys. Once on the field, it was suggested that the distinguished guest take part in the

At the solicitation of Capt. Hill and Coach Young, Mr. Bryan consented to kick off for the Alumni. Capt. Hill offered the Nebraskan his sweater, which was pulled on amid a deafening college yell. Mr. Bryan strode on the field. The ball was placed in position, and, after a few rehearsals, Mr. Bryan planted his No. 10 fairly and squarely under the sphere and the ball went sailing down the field for forty yards. Mr. Bryan retired to the side lines and watched the scrimmage, continuing to wear the sweater during the game. He was much impressed with the play and said that, while it was not played in his college days, he was certain that he would have been on a team had he been given a chance.

Deafness Cannot BelCured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed deaf ness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. HYPNOTISM IN A DIVORCE CASE. Strange Influence Exercised by Husband Over His Wife.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Hypnotism pervades a divorce suit pending here between Elizabeth Smiley and Charles W. Smiley, the suit probably being the strangest ever filed in the District of Columbia. Mr. Smiley, the defendant, is a publisher of this city, a man of means, who came from New England. He has lived in Washington for the past eight or ten years. He was married to the plaintiff on April 27, 1893.

Mrs. Smiley, in her bill, alleges that she and her husband are first cousins, and declares that some time previous to their mariage her husband "inoculated her with ideas not in accordance with modern civilization, and that such was the influence he gained over her mind and will that she saw things only in the light in which he presented them to her, rarely exercising her own judgment. So much was this so that she would put in writing requests to him to do many things utterly at variance with common sense, and admissions as to her conduct, which, based on his requirements, would seem bad, but which, judged by the standard that she s now advised ordinarily governs marital relations, would have no such significance. He said her conduct unfitted him for business, and thereby he failed to make as much money as he other-wise would." She further avers "that he has made her married life one continual selfeffacement and abnegation and bending to his will, and she has been made to believe it to be her duty to yield to the slightest wish of an arbitrary and exacting self-appointed judge and master. She must not move if he desired her to be still, or speak if he wanted silence, or obtrude her presence even at meals unless he requested it, the mental pain and anguish she has suffered by reason of his cruelty in this respect being heightened by reason of his false teaching. She thought she deserved such treatment in order to become worthy to move on the same high plane on which he has led her to believe he MADE $50,000,000 IN THE KLONDIKE Patrick Galvin, Who Went to Alasks Poor, Is Now a Crosus.

Philadelphia, Nov. 23 .- A man whose artner made $25,000.000 out of the Klondike gold fields, and who is credited with having made twice as much himself, is in this city. His name is Patrick Galvin. One year and six months ago he was a poor man. He now ranks among the multi-milionaire kings, not only of the United States, but of the world. He is here on business, and has been spending much of his time in the East. He came to this city to have a very small amount of his gold dust turned into coin. He is stopping at the Hotel Walton.

He appeared at the Philadelphia Mini Monday morning and was received by Superitendent Kretz. Mr. Galvin said that he was a little short of money and that he had some gold which he had dug out of the Klondike mines, and added that he wished it turned into money as soon as possible.

His gold was dust, nuggets, and in s granulated condition. It weighed in the neighborhood of five hundred ounes. and proved to be of the finest quality. Its value was estimated, and Cashier Murphy was authorized to pay $4,018.51 to Mr. Galvin. While all this was tak-ing place the Klondike milionaire was closeted with the superintendent in his private office

Mr. Galvin said he had been a news-paper man, had worked on papers in the West, and shortly before going to Klondike was engaged in an editorial capacity on the Helena Independent, the largest paper in Montana. Over four years ago he went to Alaska and settled in Forty Mile, a city a little less than one hundred miles distant from what is now Dawson City. There he took up the hardware business and remained until the gold craze struck the country a little over a year ago. He sold out his business at once, and with what small capital he could gather started for the gold fields. His wife was with him, and they made the trip together. At that time he had no partner, but went with a party of nine prospectors from Forty Mile. Mrs. Galwas the first woman to enter the

He is now worth $25,000,000. Any man can man should go, however, with less than $1,200, for he has to take his own provisions with him. Dawson City now numbers over ten thousand inhabitants. It has a theatre, a church, and a number of large stores. I own a store there which cost $200,000. It is built of logs, and is forty-eight feet wide and twice as long. It is not very beautiful to look at, but it is very warm and comfortable. In a few weeks I am going with my sister and wife to County Derry, Ireland, where my parents live. Japanese Laborers for Mexico.

City of Mexico, Nov. 24.-Application has just been made to the Mexican Government by a syndicate of Ceylon coffee planters, who have acquired a large tract of coffee land in this country, for permission to import several thousand Japanese laborers to work on the plantation here. The Japanese Minister to Mexico favors the project, and, if the experiment is satisfactory, there will be a considerable influx of Japanese laborers to this country.

V.CTORY FOR MACHINE.

The Republicans who are dissatisfied with the prevailing regime in city affairs and sought to reform the party within its own ranks have signally failed of accomplishing that end if the results of the ward primaries are an evidence. In all but the Third ward the men who stand for the same ideas as now in official force were victorious Hall. without being put to the trouble of making any sort of fight sgainst the who believe that there should be a giving. change in the policy of administering city government had centered their strength, but they were outvoted in sufficient numbers to stamp them as a small minority. In the Fourth ward the Republicans made a pretense of catering to the independent vote by nominating Henry Leifke-one of the prime movers in the Citizens' movement-as a one-year Councilman. Mr. Leifke declares that it is a shallow trick devised to scatter the opposition which the Republicans have encountered in the Fourth ward, and that in no manner is he in sympathy with tendencies of the men who are trying to work both ends. The fact that he was nominated for a two-year term by the Citizens' puts the Republican accomplish what it was intended for.

Now that the issues are defined by the results. the popular knowledge of what the candidates represent it remains to be seen whether the dissatisfied Republicans will accept the edict as gained by party organization or whether they will break away and support the Citizens' ticket.

ORGANIZATION NEEDED.

The action of the Committee of Forty last night in naming a full ticket, which will probably be endorsed and Grant avenue employes of the city home. by the public meeting this evening, are erecting a culvert and laying a gives the citizens something to fight sidewalk to correspond with the one for now. So far there has been a material lacking of what might be called a head or tail to the movement. If the good points of the candidates are to be made to tell forcibly there must be organization that will work speedily and effectively in presenting their 8 o'clock. side to voters. There is plenty of spontaneous enthusiasm for the movement if it is directed in the right channel, but if left to exert itself without any exact arrangement of last week, has returned to New York ideas the strength will be dispelled by and another woman is serving in her the thorough organization of the Re- place this week. publicans, who will then ride into victory on a good majority.

DON'T WANT TO PAY DOG TAX.

Principal Complaints Received by Commissioners of Appeal. Between the hours 2 and 7 o'clock yesterday afternoon and evening the Commissioners of Appeal, consisting of J. B. Coward, August Saltzman and Armstrong Mulford, met in the Council rooms for the purpose of treating with all property owners who con sidered the assessment on the real or personal property unjust. There were about seventy-five property-owners who appeared before the commissioners, and each case was treated fairly and with evident satisfaction. The greatest kick seemed to be against the dog tax, and many of those objecting claimed that they do not own dogs. One man claimed this and one of the commissioners said that he knew the man owned a dog for he had an en counter with him when he called at the house not long ago. There were commissioners.

CAR HORSES HARD TO GET.

Since Electricity Was Introduced the Market Channels Have Been Closed. One of the most curious effects of When the general replacing of horses by electricity and cable traction for drawing street cars is being experienced by one of the extensive car lines. in New Sun says one would suppose that, since the only lines in the whole country which continue to use horses now form but a very small percentage of those which used them five years ago, these lines would have a much wider range of choice, and could get horses of a grade superior to the general run of those which used to be offered to them. Lemarkable as it may seem, this is the exact opposite of the truth.

The New York city line referred to runs in direct competition with the cable lines of the upper west side, and its managers, who recently purchased it, determined as soon as they came Much to the surprise of the managers, most no street-car horses of any kind to be bought.

The explanation of this situation most important features of the horse market. They were animals of a standard grade and of almost stable price, and every part of the country contributed its quota. The street-car horse had to be big and able, and sound of limb and wind, but it might be of any age. Few lasted long enough in the service to make the question of a few years more or less of any consequence. The demand was constant, and the price never varied in New York more than from about $125 to $150 each. Dealers could always count upon getting this price and getting it promptly, and as a consequence every horse which would answer the purpose was a safe investment at a little smaller price, and a clean profit of $10 a horse was regarded as a fair margin in handling them.

Horses of all sorts, which lacked the qualities of speed, beauty or youth, but possessed the other requirements, were quickly sorted out from the markets of the whole country, and every big dealer was always able to gather droves of car horses as fast as the companies needed them. The trolley has superseded the car horse, and car horses are no longer quoted as staples in the market. The companies which still use them are obliged to go out and search the marts and buy them one by one, instead of simply sending out an order for 100 or 200 of 500 and getting them readily.

He glories in the victory of the Bicycle Baggage bill, and says, with a chuckle, "It was a great victory for us wheelmen." Mr. Depew caught the bicycle fever at Newport. It was a sudden and violent attack. He learned to ride with remarkable ease, and announced that he would keep at it for all time. He smilingly said that he was not a candidate for a ride on a silver bicycle from Nice to Naples, adding: "I hardly think two trips to Europe in a year would be advisable." He wouldn't discuss makes, century runs, sprockets. saddles or other data dear to a wheelman's heart, and explained apologetically, "I am only a beginner. When everything gets in working order I will be ready to debate with any one.' -New York Tribune.

CAN'T DENY IT.

They Are Plainfield Facts.

A wholesome suspicion is one of our York city which still uses horses. The characteristics as a people. In matters worthy of investigation we want real tangible facts regarding it. The word of those we know, the nearby evidence obtainable, are generally what we most desire. When we call on a neighbor, a man of business at experience with so and so; what do you think of it?" and he answers "just the thing, I know, because I have tried it," it goes a long way in helping our decision. This is always the case with Doan's Kidney Pills. Everybody who has used them for any kidney complaint will tell you "they are perior lot of horses, and in this way just the thing." Why? ## SPAIN FEARS WEYLER CASE AGAINST THORN

Two Reports of How He Was Witnesses Repeat the Testimony Received at Barcelona.

The Official Report Says the Public Greeted Him Coldly-Other Reports Say 20,000 Joined in the Demonstration.

Barcelona, Spain, Nov. 24.—Gen. Weyer, the former Captain-General of Cuba, arived here yesterday on board the steamer Montserrat. He landed beneath the Columbus monument at 10 a. m., and was received by about twenty thousand people.

In order to escape the crowd, the General was driven to the house of Deputy Saladrigas, where, however, he was forced to appear upon the balcony, and was applauded by the multitude which had gathered about the house. A number of bands took part in the welcome, and the Montserrat was met many boats decorated with flags. When the Captain-General landed, accompanied by Gen. Montaner, he en-

Gen. Weyler cried: "Long live national production! The General also called for cheers for "Spain" and "Spanish Cuba," which

Official Reports of Indifference. Madrid, Spain, Nov. 24.-The official report of the landing of Gen. Weyler at Barcelona differs from the independent reports. The former says the General landed without the demonstration in his honor assuming the proportions anticipated, and that as he traversed the streets the public appeared indifferent. The official version adds that six gala carriages awaited the General, but that the crowd was small, little enthusiasm was manifested, and there were no del-

Autonomy Plans Approved. Madrid, Nov. 24.—The Cabinet has approved the Sagasta scheme for the autonomy of Cuba, with the exception of the clauses of the trade regulations giving the Cuban Chamber the right to fix the Cuban tariff. This was the part of the plan of au-tonomy which was opposed by the Catalonian deputation that waited upon Senor Moret, Minister of the Colonies, Monday, to urge the protection of Spanish imports into Cuba.

Trying to Buy Gomes Off.

Washington, Nov. 24.-Information received at the State Department con-firms the story from Havana that the Spanish authorities are trying to bribe the insurgent leaders to lay down their arms. Negotiations are now being attempted with Gen. Gomez to abandon the insurgents' cause and retire from the island, accepting a bonus and a pension for life. Should Gomez accept this proposition, it would leave Calixo Garcia the only leader of any prominence in the insurgent ranks, and it is stated that a similar attempt will be made to buy him off.

DOOM FOR MEYER. The Church Murderer Sentenced to the Death Chair.

York, Nov. 24.—Constantine Steiger, alias Fritz Meyer, was yester-day sentenced to be electrocuted during the week beginning Jan. 10 next by Justice Fursman in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court.

The room was crowded with specta-

The room was crowded with spectators when the prisoner was brought into court. His face was pallid, but he showed no other outward signs of anxiety. His counsel, Lawyer O'Hare, moved for a new trial on eight counts, and when it was denied he moved for an analysis of interest of the body. He attacked the identification of the body. He attacked the identification of the body as vigorously as if an arrest of judgment. It was over-

Judge Fursman then pronounced sentence. His tone was so low as almost to be inaudible, even to the prisoner but that poor wretch could hear very well the date when he was to pay the law in full for his crime.

The prisoner bore his sentence without wincing. It would have been impossible for him to turn paler, for throughout his appearance in court he was as pale as a corpse.

Steiger shot Policeman Frederick Smith in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer in East Third street a month ago. He had broken into the church for the purpose of robbing it. There he stumbled upon a burglar alarm, and, his, presence becoming known, the police were notified. Among others who responded was Smith, who encountered the burglar in the parochial schoolroom attached to the church. There he shot the policeman and made his temporary escape through a screen

The trial was one of the most rapid in the history of the Criminal Court. The murderer was placed on trial within four days after the commission of the crime, and the greater part of the lecting a jury. The jury promptly con-victed him of murder in the first degree, for which he was sentenced yesterday.

Meyer was taken to Sing Sing yester day afternoon with two burgiars, who have been sentenced to two years and four months each. The men are William Chauler and William Purdy, to whom Meyer was handcuffed. The men were in charge of Deputy Sheriffs Engle and Kelly.

CHEERS FROM THE CROWD MAKING RAPID PROGRESS

Martin Thorn Wears a Sickly Smile While Listening to the Evidence Against Him-Sensational Developments Held in Store.

New York, Nov. 24.—The jury to try Martin Thorn for the murder of the bath-rubber, William Guldensuppe, was completed at 12.45 o'clock yesterday afternoon

District Attorney Youngs began his address to the jury imediately after the court reconvened in the afternoon rehearsed all the frightful details of the plot to murder the bath-rubber, William Guldensuppe; how the victim was lured to the Woodside cottage and shot down in cold blood; the cutting up

Several new witnesses who had not been present at the preceding trial were in court. There was an air of expectancy, as the belief was general tered the cariage of Deputy Saladrigas, that many surprises were in store, and that the trial would be, perhaps, the most sensational one in the annals of crime.

of the body and its final disposition.

The crowd was even greater yesterday than on Monday. Many women were present. Thorn seemed paler and more nervous. He sneered venomously every time Mrs. Nack's name mentioned.

After the District Attorney's opening address, John McGuire, the boy who found the first bundle containing part of the body of Guldensuppe, was called as the first witness.

Other witnesses followed in much the same order as at the opening trial. Thorn listened sneeringly as the boys and other witnesses told of finding the parts of the body in the East River and at High Bridge. He seemed to appreciate the fact that the chain of evidence was being as carefully and tightly drawn about him as though Mrs.

Nack's confession was not depended upon to make a verdict of guilty absolutely certain.

The chain of circumstatial evidence was developed so carefully that even should Mrs. Nack fail to repeat her testimony given at the former trial the District Attorney would still be confident of securing a conviction.

Witness after witness told of finding the parts of the body, of the disap-pearance of Guldensuppe, of the identi-fication of the parts, and also identified the oilcloth in which they were wrapped and the photographs taken at the Morgue.

Mrs. Nack's name was not mentioned in the opening address to the jury. This worried the defense.

When the taking of testimony was begun it became evident that the prosecution would follow out the procedure intended at the former trial. It had been said that Mrs. Nack would be called upon at once to repeat her testi-mony, and that the prosecution would rest, after introducing corroborative evidence and proving corpus delicti.

Instead of this, however, the same witnesses called at the beginning of the first trial were called, and it was announced that the testimony would be taken in the regular order, as laid out at first by Mr. Youngs—that is, proving the finding of the pieces of the body, identifying its wrappings, prov-ing that the pieces were parts of one body, proving that this body was Guldensuppe's body, and then proving by Mrs. Nack that Martin Thorn killed

Mr. Howe's cross-examination of witnesses indicated that he would make a he intended to claim that it was not that of Guldensuppe. The trial was adjourned at 4.50 o'clock until 9.30 o'clock this morning.

GIGANTIC PIANO TRUST.

Plans for Combining the Biggest Concerns in the United States. New York, Nov. 24.-All the great piano manufacturing concerns in the United States are working together to form a gigantic trust. It is the intention to absorb at least 200 factories, squeeze out the samiler ones, and con centrate the business in a few of the biggest manufactories.

Negotiations are progressing, cloaked under the greatest secresy. It is known that several bankers in the country and Europe have spoken favorably of advancing the $50,000,000 which would be necessary to carry through the deal. W. W. Kimball, of Chicago, or Alfred Dodge, of this city, it is said, will be president of the new giant enterprise.

The Steinway, Chickering, Knabe and Kimball and Cable companies, with the big concern of Alfred Dodge would form the nucleus and real strength of the trust. But four grades of pianos would be manufactured, and all competition and atendant expenses would be eliminated.

The trust could absolutely control prices.

Mildred Brewster's Trial. Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 24.—Mildred Brewster's trial for the murder of Annie Wheeler will not go on at this term of court.

It has been put over till March, that the Supreme Court may decide the technical question raised by the fact that the court stenographer was in the Grand Jury room when the prisoner's case was being considered.

Miss Brewster shot Miss Wheeler and attempted to kill herself last May, jealousy over John Wheeler, whom both girls loved, being the cause.

Delay for Foster.

Paris, Nov. 23.—The extradition of William R. Foster, who was arrested at Neuilly a short time ago upon a charge of stealing $193,000 belonging to the Gratuity Fund of the New York Produce Exchange, has been postponed, probably for three weeks, on account of a tehnical point relating to the absence of a signature from the papers necessary to his surrender to the American authorities. It is thought that this delay in his extradition has been created in order to enable Foster's friends to arrange a compromise in his case.

Inspecting and Highly Complimented The Members

Winfield Scott Post, No 73, G. A. R. met last evening and was inspected by Assistant Inspector Oakley, of Ulric Dahlgren Post, of Elizabeth. The gathering was a large one, for beside the presence of sixty members of Post 73, there was present a number of the department officers, including Department Commander Hayter, of Bloomfield; Senior Vice Commander Hovencamp, of Paterson; Assistant Adjutant General Frank Cole, of Jersey City; Chief Mustering Officer Collier, of Newark; Chief Ordnance was also present a delegation from Ulric Dahlgren Post, of Elizabeth, and one from Wadsworth Post, of Somerville.

Inspector Oakley remarked after the inspection that he had never seen G. A. R. work performed better than it was by Post 73. There were speeches by the visiting officers and comrades, and after the business the comrades adjourned to the room below where they were given a fine supper by the members of the Woman's Relief Corps. The women worked very hard to get up the supper and they deserve much credit for their efforts, which were appreciated by the comrades.

In the business session of the post officers were nominated for the ensuing year. There were several nominations for each office, and the nominations were left open until the next meeting when the election will take It will be noticed that the name of place.

ASSESSMENTS LOWERED.

Plainfield Ice Company Will Have $1,500 Less to Pay For This Year.

The Commissioners of Appeal in North Plainfield Township, consisting of Amos Vail, Goldson Smalley and Phillip Ackor, met yesterday afternoon at Pfinger's hotel and had a large time dealing with the taxpapers who were diseatisfied with their assessments. Assessor Clark was present and assisted the commissioners. Out of a list of taxpayers numbering 348 there were only nineteen who were favored by having their assessments changed. The larges cut was in the assessment on the property owned by the Plainfield Ice and Cold Storage Company, They were assessed $3,000 and that amount was reduced to $1,500. The property upon which stands the stone cracker tired of it, was made manifest last at Scotch Plains received a cut from night by the presence of so many $2,500 to $1,500. There was a big kick about the dog tax, but in almost every case the tax remained. It seems to be the opinion of those living in the township that their tax rate $2.12 is high, when it is considered that the rate in the borough is $2.19 and the latter has fire protection and police, something that the township has not. In the township the rate is where he did so well last year, and by Thursday night will have $1.99 exclusive of school tax. The Dupee is a fine punter and will add reached a grand climax. #### SHAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKA NOTICE TO ALL IN-TERESTED IN UP-TO-

We run the laundry and take care of all details, but you "boss" it. We do what you teil us to do. It may give you a new sensation to find that you get a domestic finish when you sak for it, and to discover that your collars are actually ironed in the way that the maker intended them to be ironed.

We are running a laundry with the most improved methods and appliances. We use pure water and good as ap. We are using two things that are not commonly used in laundries—care and intelligence. If you have found a laundry that pleases you perfectly, we have nothing to say to you. If you have any reason to be dissatisfied, we would like to give you a practical demonstration of our way of lunning a laundry.

Tell us where and when to call for your work, when you want it delivered, and let us know any particular thing that you would like to have done with it.

We want you to understand that we

We want you to understand that we are ru: ning this laundry for you, and that your wishes are to be regarded in every particular. We will give you jutexactly what you want, if we can find out what that is. Perhaps you believe that it is impossible to have your laundry well handled without irritation and annoyance to you. We are sure what was mittaken. May we have and annoyance to you. We are sur that you are mistaken. May we have an opportunity of demonstrating it?
