CLIMAX OF GOSPEL CAMPAIGN AT HAND.

Increased Earnestness and Interest Marks the Meetings as They Continue.

MEETINGS OF YESTERDAY.

MANY MADE PUBLIC ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF THEIR NEW CAREER.

Meetings Will End With Day of Prayer Tuesday—Schedule of Services Up to That Time—Wonderful Results of Meetings.

Every day sees the people of Plainfield more thoroughly stirred by the Gospel campaign now in progress. As the time comes for the close of this series of evangelistic meetings, the interest is deepened and broadened. One change in the original plan for the meetings has been made necessary. They will close Tuesday with a day of prayer, instead of Wednesday. This change has been made necessary as Evangelist William Phillips Hall has to leave Wednesday for the south, with his child, who is very ill. Instead, meetings will be held tomorrow evening. Four meetings were held yesterday and all showed great interest on the part of old and young, while many were led to take an active stand for Christ.

This afternoon will see the last of the afternoon meetings at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, under the charge of Rev. T. S. Henderson. It begins at 3 o'clock. Tonight Evangelist Hall will speak at the First Baptist church as usual and Rev. T. S. Henderson will conduct the meeting at Hope chapel. Tomorrow evening Evangelist Hall will be at the First Baptist church.

The local pastors will preach in their own churches Sunday morning except that the congregations of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church and Hope chapel will unite in the latter sanctuary and will be addressed by Evangelist Hall. Admission to this meeting will be strictly by ticket and tickets will be distributed only among the two congregations. All the local Sunday-schools will assemble at their usual meeting places in the afternoon at the regular time and then march to the First Baptist church where Mr. Hall will address a Sunday school meeting at 3 o'clock. The public will not be admitted until the members of all the Sunday-schools are seated so there will be little or no room left. This meeting will not include the primary departments. F. H. Jacobs will address the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 4 o'clock.

A service for men only will be held in the First Baptist church Sunday evening. It will begin at 7 o'clock. Mr. Hall will speak. Rev. Dr. W. R. Richardson will address a meeting for women in the First M. E. church, beginning at the same hour. Charles L. Lewis will lead the singing. A general overflow meeting will be held in Vincent chapel at which the speaker will be Rev. J. W. Richardson. A meeting will be held at the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, the speaker at which will be announced tomorrow.

Monday afternoon will see a children's meeting at Monroe Avenue M. E. church at 4 o'clock. Rev. T. S. Henderson will speak. In the evening Mr. Hall will talk at the First Baptist church, and Rev. Mr. Henderson at Monroe Avenue church.

A day of prayer will be observed Tuesday and many of the local merchants have agreed to close their stores part of the day. Rev. Mr. Henderson will speak at a morning meeting in the First Baptist church. It will begin at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Hall will speak at meetings at 3 and 7:45 o'clock in the same church. Rev. Mr. Henderson will conduct an overflow meeting in the First M. E. church at 7:45 o'clock. These meetings will positively end the series of special meetings given under the auspices of the Minister's Association.

ATTENDANCE IS INCREASING.

Afternoon Meetings at the Crescent Avenue Church Largely Attended This Week.

There was an increased attendance at the evangelistic service held in the Crescent Avenue church yesterday afternoon, every seat being occupied. Rev. Theodore S. Henderson was in charge and was assisted by W. C. Weeden, the singing evangelist. Rev.

Dr. W. C. Snodgrass assisted at the opening by offering a prayer.

Mr. Henderson spoke concerning the Christ-centred life and used for his text the words of Paul as found in the second chapter of Galatians and a part of the twelfth verse. He laid great stress on the personal pronoun I, and said that with Paul it was a question of "I or Christ" and he chose Christ, placing all his affections on Him. Mr. Henderson also spoke of the fact that Paul had such a conception of Christ that he reflected His image and glory.

The speaker said the circumference was the outer life, where a great many people are living. He said that there is no self-love in Christ and there was no self-love in Paul after he met Christ. "How is it with you?" Mr. Henderson asked his hearers, "Is it Christ or I?" Paul said, "If meat make my brother to offend I will eat no meat while the world stands." "This should be our position. It is not a question of your conscience as to whether you should do this or that, but your fellow-man's conscience. That is the Pauline doctrine of living for Christ."

Mr. Henderson said that it is a sin to brood over and nurse sorrow. There was a woman member of his church who, on every clear Sunday, went to the cemetery and brooded over the grave of her husband, when she should have been in her seat at church, where her husband would have her. He thought that Paul's great strength lay in the fact that he sought first the Kingdom of God, and this he believed was everyone's duty. At the close of the service, Mr. Weeden sang a solo very effectively.

MANY ACCEPTED CHRIST.

Very Impressive Meeting Held in First Baptist Church Led by Evangelist Hall.

The impressive scene last evening at the First Baptist church when Wm. Phillips Hall, the evangelist, was addressing the assembled congregation, which, with bated breath and absorbing mind, was drinking in every syllable uttered by him, would lead one bereft of hearing to believe that a patriotic populace had gathered to welcome some hero home. Indeed the large percentage of the vast audience were present for the purpose of extending a welcome home to a Christian life, to heroes who had the courage to renounce the devil and become children of God.

Through the power exerted in the eloquent and forcible appeal made by Mr. Hall, at least, twenty-five of his hearers stood up in token of a vow to lead a new life according to the commandments of God. Exactly at 7:30 o'clock the services were commenced by the singing of "There's a Wideness." The stirring music to which this hymn is set served to enthrall the congregation, and as they sang in turn "Pass Me Not," "Doing His Will," and several other hymns precious to Christian workers, the spiritual fire seemed to blaze within them.

At the conclusion of the special musical programme, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Sobenck prayed that God's richest blessing be sent to the meeting and that those present be made right in the heart, regenerated in the Spirit and be made new creatures in the sight of God. Rev. Charles E. Herring followed Dr. Schenck in invoking the blessing of God, and F. H. Jacobs then rendered a solo, "Impatient Heart Be Still."

Mr. Hall chose as the topic of his discourse Hosea, 12th verse of the 10th chapter: "Bow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground; for it is time to seek the Lord, till He come and rain righteousness for you."

The evangelist took occasion to say that the published report of Wednesday evening's meeting stated that the success of the present evangelistic services "is unprecedented in the local history of Gospel meetings." This he believed to be true and also that God is pouring out His flesh here in Plainfield. There are people here thinking who never thought before.

He dwelt upon the thought that "it is time to seek the Lord," and said that it is one's duty to seek God because he is commanded so to do, and God's commandments are the rules of all true righteousness and morality. Again man should seek God because he, with his unregenerated soul, is the enemy of the Divine Ruler.

Likewise the Heavenly Father should be sought because one is commanded to first seek "the Kingdom of God and his righteousness and all things shall come after" and also because one is told to seek "the Lord while he may be found; call upon him."

WASN'T THE TRUTH.

So City Judge Runyon Changed His Mind and Imposed Fine on the Prisoner.

Samuel Rosen, a wandering vendor of fancy trinkets, was taken in custody yesterday for violation of the peddling ordinance. City Judge Runyon, taking into consideration the apparent respectability of the man and his plea of ignorance of wrong doing, mercifully suspended sentence at the hearing this morning.

As the man was about to depart he buried a charge against the attaches of the headquarters that he had been without anything to eat since his incarceration. Rosen, on being questioned by the court, admitted the falsity of the statement. City Judge Runyon withdrew his former decision and imposed a fine of $5 on the prevaricating peddler.

POPE EXTENDS JUBILEE.

NOW EXTENDED TO PARISHES ALL OVER THE WORLD.

Bishops and Priests are Allowed to Grant Indulgences and Blessings Usually Reserved to Pope Alone.

The faithful of the Roman Catholics in Plainfield and North Plainfield are now taking advantage of the Pope's extension of the jubilee. Last year, being the close of the nineteenth century, the Holy Father proclaimed that all who during the year would journey to Rome and perform their devotions, praying specifically for the Pope's intention, should be granted certain indulgences. The Pope's intention, it is explained, means peace between kings and other temporal rulers, as well as peace between individuals. His intention also includes the conversion of the heathen.

The original purpose was to confine the jubilee to the limits of the Holy City and the devotions were restricted to certain special specified churches.

At the beginning of the present year the Pope issued a letter to the bishops and priests throughout the world announcing that the jubilee would be extended both as to time and place. Under the decree, Roman Catholics can render their devotions in the vicinity in which they reside and the bishops and priests are empowered to grant indulgences, favors and blessings usually reserved solely to the pontiff himself.

The period commenced February 24 and closes at the expiration of six months. The supplicant must pray for the Pope's intention four times a day in the parish church and this devotion must be made for fifteen days. In large cities the prayer must be said in four different churches, but here one is allowed to confine his devotions to either St. Joseph's or St. Mary's.

There appears to be somewhat of a rush at present among the communicants in the two local parishes to commence their jubilee prayers early, and yesterday particularly numbers of people were observed moving to and fro at St. Joseph's in particular.

M. E. CONFERENCE.

Newark Conference Will Be Held at Hoboken Beginning April 10.

The annual conference of the Newark Methodist Episcopal Conference will be held in the First M. E. church, Hoboken, April 10, and a programme of unusual interest has been arranged. Bishop S. U. Foss, of Philadelphia, will preside, and the Presiding Elder will be Rev. J. R. Wright, of Jersey City.

Among the prominent speakers at the conference will be Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D., Rev. Dr. Burrill and Rev. S. Parks Cadman, of New York, and Mrs. D. D. Gamewell, wife of the hero of the Pekin siege, and many others. On account of this being the first conference of the century great effort will be made to emphasize the work of the Twentieth Century Forward Movement. The conference will extend from April 10 to 14.

Students on Trip of Inspection. Twenty students of the senior class of Stevens Institute including Nathan E. Lewis, of West Eighth street, have returned from a trip through New York State and Pennsylvania, visiting various shops and works last week, while the remaining twenty students were making short trips to nearby places. The long distance trip was in charge of Prof. E. J. Denton, of mechanical engineering, and Prof. Albert Gang, of the electric course. The students have been visiting locomotive works, electric plants, the Carnegie Steel Works, etc.

To Formally Accept Station. The officials of the Central Railroad Company will probably meet in Plainfield soon to formally accept the new railroad station, recently completed.

WILL NOT SPRINKLE STREETS THIS YEAR.

Members of Council Decided Adversely on Project When It Was Before a Caucus.

COUNSEL MARSH'S OPINION

SAID CONTRACT COULD NOT BE MADE FOR OVER A YEAR.

Difficult to Secure a Contractor Who Would Be Willing to Make Necessary Investment For Only a Year—Matter Laid Over.

Ever since the experiment of street sprinkling by the borough authorities in North Plainfield was started a year ago, the city authorities have been considering the advisability of taking similar action in this city. While the members of the Councilmanic street committee are known to favor the plan, it will not be generally tried in Plainfield this year.

The subject was brought up for informal consideration at a caucus of the members of the Council, held during a recess of the Council on the occasion of the last meeting Monday evening. The advisability of introducing street sprinkling under the charge of the street department was then discussed.

The plan favored by the members of the street committee was to award the contract for sprinkling all the macadamized streets to some local contractor and the city to meet the cost instead of doing the work directly. At the request of Mr. Tolles, chairman of the street committee, an opinion on the subject was presented by Corporation Counsel C. A. Marsh.

This opinion from Mr. Marsh was received that day. He stated that the Council has no right to make a contract for a longer time than one year, and under these circumstances no one would want to make an outlay of much money for watering carts, horses, etc., if he was to have the contract for one year only. He thought that the city would not feel like expending the necessary amount of money for wagons, horses, etc., and besides there was a question as to whether it would be legal.

However, the city owns two sprinkling carts and when possible these will probably be used for watering several of the most important streets in the business part of the city. It is a possibility that a law may be enacted giving the city the privilege of letting out a contract for that work for more than one year. There may be other cities that would like to receive the benefits of such a law and its enactment would give the necessary relief.

If the city should do the sprinkling it is claimed that it would not cost the taxpayers as much as under the present system. Now a person pays from 10 to 25 cents and even more each week to have the street sprinkled in front of his property. Under the proposed change, it is said the increase in tax would be a trifle and would hardly be felt by the citizens.

Association Adopted Amendment. A meeting of the Athletic Association of the Plainfield High School was held this morning with the president, Lawrence L. Tweedy, in the chair. A proposed amendment to the constitution relating to school colors and insignia was submitted by the Board of Directors. The amendment was adopted section by section without opposition before the adjournment of the meeting.

Will Practice Osteopathy. Dr. George DeWitt Herring, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., has taken a suite of rooms in the Babcock building and will begin practicing in this city as an osteopathic physician. Osteopathy is a new science which treats without drugs except in surgical cases, while chronic diseases are made a specialty.

Eighteen in Hospital. There are eighteen patients at Muhlenberg Hospital and all are on the way to recovery. Two or three will be discharged this week. Patrolman Andrew Saffron is greatly improved and will probably leave the first of next week.

To Start Clothing Store. Preger Brother, of 710 Broadway, New York, have leased 207 West Front street, and will open as a branch of the New York business a clothing store. Mr. Lunger, of York, Pa., will have charge of this business here.

Estimating Expenses. The members of the Common Council will probably make the yearly appropriations at the regular April meeting. The various committees are now estimating their expenses for the coming year.

MUCH SICKNESS.

Lots of Work Among Poor and Needy of the City for the King's Daughters' Nurse.

The regular meeting of the executive committee of the City Union King's Daughters was held yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. building. Miss Sadie Hayes, Mrs. Frank Jones and Mrs. Howard A. Pope were appointed as a nominating committee to select officers to be elected at the annual meeting to be held in May, following the regular monthly meeting.

A report was received from the city nurse, showing that she is making on an average of thirty-five visits a week. There is a great deal of sickness among the poor and needy, demanding much attention from the city nurse. The treasurer reported a balance of about $340. This comprised about all of the business of importance considered at the meeting.

AGED ENGINEER PASSED AWAY.

ISAAC LARUE DIED AT HIS HOME ON EAST NINTH STREET.

Was Steamboat Engineer and Worked Long Time For Commodore Vanderbilt.

Isaac LaRue, aged 87 years, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 215 East Ninth street, after a long illness. He had not been a resident of Plainfield very long and was consequently not so well known here, although in Middlesex county he was known by most everyone.

Mr. LaRue was born between Old Bridge and South River and at an early age he sought the occupation of a steamboat engineer. He was engaged for many years in running a steamboat between New Brunswick and New York for the late Commodore Vanderbilt, and it is said that on more than one occasion the Commodore assisted in firing for Mr. LaRue. After a long service as a steamboat engineer he engaged in railroading and for nearly forty years was an engineer on the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was not only one of the oldest steamboat engineers, but a railroad engineer as well. It was a year ago last January that he retired under the company's pension system, and since then has lived a quiet and easy life.

In connection with Mr. LaRue's early career as a steamboat engineer he introduced the now generally used sign on the smokestacks on boats. In the case of the Pennsylvania Railroad they adopted the well known symbol of the keystone, and other companies have adopted similar signs. Mr. LaRue's idea was to distinguish boats so that people living near his home could tell his boat readily when it was approaching either New Brunswick or New York. Mr. LaRue lived in New Brunswick about fifty years. Last September he and his family moved to this city. His death is the first to occur in a family of seven.

Besides a wife Mr. LaRue is survived by five sons and two daughters. The sons are Ira L. LaRue, of the firm of LaRue & Oumling, Wm. C. LaRue and James F. LaRue, of this city; George W. LaRue, a railroad engineer, who lives in New Mexico; Edward M. LaRue, of Beaver Falls, Pa. The daughters are the Misses Julia and Margaret LaRue, who live in this city.

WOMEN IN CAMPAIGN.

Will Have a Ticket at The Coming School Meeting in Cranford Township.

(Special to The Daily Press.) Cranford, March 8.—What two women of this town want to be members of the Cranford Board of Education is a secret and cannot be learned, although many of the voters of the township have signed an agreement to vote for them at the coming school election, March 19.

The movement is said to have been started by the Wednesday Morning Club, which has taken hand in politics before and successfully. During the past week the women of this club have been circulating the following petition which they have asked the men of the town to sign:

In view of the fact that all of our teachers but one are women, and at least one-half of the pupils are girls, and realizing that women know the needs of children better than men, and have more time to devote to the instruction of the schools;

We, the undersigned residents of Cranford, believe it to be for the best interests of the school, ask you to co-operate with us at the coming election of school officers to secure at that time the election of two women to serve on the School Board.

REDISTRICTING BILL READY.

INTRODUCED INTO SENATE BY SENATOR REED YESTERDAY.

Was Referred to Judiciary Committee—Will Come Up for Consideration Next Week.

(Special to The Daily Press.) Trenton, March 8.—The bill providing for the lines of the ten Congress districts in New Jersey was introduced in the Senate yesterday afternoon by Mr. Reed, but will not be considered until next week. Besides providing for the new districts the bill specifies the division of Hudson and Essex counties into two districts each.

The bill was referred to the judiciary committee.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Reed in the Senate provides that the Board of Riparian Commissioners be requested to certify to the Senate an estimate of the value of the riparian rights of the State which would be lost or diminished should the lands mentioned in the Palisades Park bill be acquired by the Palisades Park commissioners, and thus withdrawn from use for commercial purposes.

Mr. Hudspeth asked whether a resolution which he introduced earlier in the session did not cover the same ground, to which Mr. Reed replied that it was too general. Mr. Hudspeth protested because his bill had not been brought up for consideration.

In the House the Hoboken dock bill permitting the North German Lloyd Steamship Company to moor its vessels in front of Washington Park, Hoboken, was passed with the Senate amendments, as was Mr. Bacheller's bill providing for a withdrawal value for building and loan association shares.

Both houses adjourned for the week.

THREE OFFICERS RESIGNED.

Stormy Session of Reform Club Was Held Last Evening.

President Michael Armstrong and Vice Presidents John Manly and Charles Rice, of the Plainfield Reform Club, a local temperance organization, resigned their offices last evening after one of the stormiest sessions in the club's history.

The action of all three officials was the culmination of a series of differences between them and other club workers and, in their opinion, was to be settled only by permanently resigning. The rest of the club members objected strongly to their resigning. A meeting will be held this evening and the vacancies will be filled.

MAY CHANGE VACATION.

North Plainfield Teachers Want Easter Vacation in Third Week in April.

It has not been definitely settled whether the Easter vacation of the North Plainfield schools will be observed during the second or third week in April. The School Board had decided on the second week, but as a number of the teachers are anxious to join Honeyman's trip to Washington which will probably take place in the third week, the School Board is likely to change the time of vacation to conform with their desire.

Many Visited Schools.

There has been a hearty response on the part of citizens of North Plainfield to the invitation extended by Superintendent Wightman to visit the schools this week. Yesterday over fifty parents and friends of the pupils examined the interesting exhibits of school work which at present adorn the walls of the Somerset street school.

RARE MUSICAL TREAT.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bentley, of East Sixth street, entertained Elinor Ellsworth Smith, a finished pupil of Madame Marchesi, and Mabel Searles-Ketum, the pianist, at dinner, Wednesday. A few friends were invited to the evening, who enjoyed a rare musical treat.

Improving Entrance to Music Hall. Manager Maza Edwards, of Music Hall, has been having the front entrance to the hall thoroughly cleaned and the bill boards have been changed to conform with the improvements made at M. Weinberger's store adjoining.

FIVE DAYS IN JAIL.

Mary Anderson, colored, was arrested last evening on Watchung avenue by Marshal Emmons for causing a disturbance. This morning Mayor N. B. Smalley sentenced her to five days in the lockup.

Conducted Services at St. Joseph's Church. Rev. Father Brennan, of Likewood, spent several days this week at St. Joseph's rectory, and conducted the Wednesday evening services for Rev. Father Miller.

JURY GAVE VERDICT FOR MRS. PERRINE.

Decision Reached in the Famous Pangborn-Allen Will Case at Williamsport, Pa.

JURY WAS OUT SIX HOURS.

IF NOT SET ASIDE VERDICT GIVES MRS. PERRINE MUCH PROPERTY.

Result is a Great Victory For Isaac P. Runyon, Who Started Suit Three Years Ago—Many Williamsport People Affected.

(Special to The Daily Press.) Williamsport, Pa., March 8.—After being out six hours, the jury in the Pangborn-Allen case brought in a verdict yesterday afternoon in favor of Mrs. Louise Perrine, of Plainfield. If this verdict is not set aside by future legal proceedings it will give Mrs. Perrine possession of property in this city valued at $100,000.

The contention in this most interesting case of settlement on the ground that property owned by the late Stephen Pangborn and W. S. Allen, who, it is alleged, are one and the same person, is that it was illegally disposed of by the alleged heirs of the deceased, and that if it can be proved that Mrs. Perrine is the rightful daughter of the deceased by the first marriage, she is entitled to property left by him. The case was tried in the Common Pleas Court of Lycoming county court before a jury of twelve men. It is probable that the case will be appealed.

In the victory won yesterday for the plaintiff, Isaac P. Runyon, formerly of the firm of Pope & Runyon, but now of the firm of Bruce & Runyon, deserves great credit. For three years past he has worked hard and faithfully to obtain yesterday's result. He was the originator of the case, being the one to inform Mrs. Perrine of the family affairs, of which she knew very little. The firm of Pope & Runyon took the case up. They employed the law firm of McCormick & McCormick, of Williamsport, Pa., who stand very high in their profession, to look after the Pennsylvania end of the case.

James O. Clark, a New York lawyer residing at Westfield, a man of means, was interested and associated in the contest for the plaintiff. With this combination no stone was left unturned in fighting the case to a successful ending. The opinion of several prominent lawyers seems to be that even if an appeal is taken the plaintiff will eventually win.

FUNERAL OF WM. T. NEWMAN.

Services Were Held From Warren Chapel Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral services of William T. Newman were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Warren chapel and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. O. McKelvey. The members of the Warren Engine company turned out in a body to pay their last respects to Mr. Newman's memory and there were also delegations present at the services from Franklin Council, No. 41, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, and from Unity Lodge, Knights of Pythias.

The chapel building was crowded to the doors with sorrowing relatives and friends who sincerely mourn the loss of one of the borough's most exemplary citizens. The handsome floral tributes completely covered the casket. At the conclusion of the church service the ritual of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics was performed by Councilor Henry Kliner, Jr. Short prayers were said by Rev. Mr. McKelvey at the side of the grave in Chatham street cemetery.

The pall bearers were David Bodine and Raymond Schenck, of the Warren Engine Company; Ephraim Compton and William R. Kriney, of the Jr. O. U. A. M., and Frank Putnam and Samuel Hampton, of the Knights of Pythias.

Attended Children's Service. The children of the Washingtonville public school attended the evangelistic services at the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon. The pupils were brought over in one of William Hand and Son's commodious stages.

Will Open Tailoring Place. M. J. Casella will open a custom tailoring place on Park avenue March 11. He will take part of the store now occupied by VanEps, the jeweler.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goes May Care to Witness.

It is presumed that all who have read the works of the famous humorist, Mark Twain, are more or less familiar with "Tom Sawyer," one of the very best of the famous author's creations. This story in dramatic form will be presented at Music Hall tomorrow afternoon and night and will be found to be highly interesting. The real plot of the story shows how one Indian Joe, assisted by an unscrupulous doctor and a sot, named Lasher Stubbs, attempt to steal a body. They quarrel over some trivial affair and the doctor is killed, for which crime Lasher Stubbs is arrested. Through the testimony of Tom, he is acquitted and the crime placed where it rightfully belongs. The pranks of Master Tom and Huckleberry Finn, the grave yard scene, the grocery store and court scenes, are very real and the comedy is replete with many novelties in the way of songs, dances and clean wholesome specialties, which will please all. Special accommodations for women and children at the matinee tomorrow afternoon.

"On the Suwanee River" comes to Music Hall Monday evening endorsed as a play that families may be taken to with the assurance that its theme and treatment cannot but appeal to one's great emotions. The story and treatment is the old one of mortgaged estates, intrigue and eventual clearing away of a villainous atmosphere before the sunshine of honesty and morality. There is a pathetic love story, a rich vein of humor, and permeating all is the distinct southern flavor of the sunny climes in which the play revolves. A careful scenic investiture has been provided; and taken as a whole, "On the Suwanee River," must prove an addition to the "home plays" of the stage. Stella Mayhew will be seen in her really fine impersonation of Aunt Lindy, assisted by the Clover Leaf Quartette.

A sensation, something that creates more than a passing comment, is what the public is continually harkening after. Herrmann the Great, who appears at Music Hall next Wednesday night, has created more than the nine days wonder in his new sensational trick of magic, "Cremation," in which realism is exemplified to a striking degree in the burning of a young lady alive upon the stage. It is the most talked about bit of black art which has seen the light of day in many years.

At the Academy of Music, New York, last Monday evening, William A. Brady presented "Uncle Tom's Cabin" to a vast audience. It proved one of the most noted theatrical events of the season. The cast given below is one of the best ever before seen. Special scenery of great beauty, and all the other environments, such as a pack of Siberian blood hounds, 20 jubilee chorus singers, buck and wing dancers, and a mammoth cake walk, make it one of the greatest "Uncle Tom" productions ever seen. The cast includes: Wilton Lackaye as Uncle Tom; Odell Williams as Phineas Fletcher; Theodore Roberts as Simon Legree; L. R. Stockwell as Mark; William Harcourt as Geo. Harris; Mabel Amber as Eliza; Annie Yea, manna as Aunt Ophelia, and Maud Raymond as Topsy.

Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 25 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

THE KAISER'S WOUND.

The Cut in His Cheek Not Considered Serious.

BERLIN, March 8.—At the opening of the Prussian chamber of deputies, the lower house of the diet, yesterday the president announced to the deputies that he had received a message from Chancellor von Bulow stating that the emperor had been wounded by a lad.

The wound, the message said, was considerable, but the emperor would be obliged to remain in bed for several days.

It is officially stated that the wound in the emperor's face is four centimeters long. The flesh is cut through the cheekbone, and the skin along the edges of the wound is much torn. The emperor has no fever and does not complain even of a headache. The wound was closed by bandaging without sewing.

A somewhat similar attempt was made at Breslau two years ago on the opening of the canal, when an old woman threw a stone at the Kaiser.

During the examination of Welland at Bremen he had several epileptic fits.

Welland's examination proved that he was not responsible for his actions. He said he did not feel well Wednesday and found an epileptic attack. While he was waiting for the arrival of the emperor the sound of a fountain playing in a courtyard, mingling with the voices of the crowd, caused him to imagine that he was sailing a ship, his former occupation having been that of ship's captain. Under this delusion his excitement increased, and he attempted to leave a room, as his physician refused to discuss his case without permission from his family, and this was refused by Mrs. Harrison last evening. She said that the general is suffering from the grip, but his condition was not considered alarming. When asked if the patient was suffering from any complications of the disease and particularly as to bronchial affection, Dr. Henry Jameson, who was with General Harrison for more than an hour last evening, refused to answer.

GENERAL HARRISON ILL.

An Attack of the Grip Which Does Not Yield to Treatment.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 8.—General Benjamin Harrison is very sick at his residence on North Delaware street, but it is impossible to learn his true condition, as his physician refuses to discuss his case without permission from his family, and this was refused by Mrs. Harrison last evening. She said that the general is suffering from the grip, but his condition was not considered alarming. When asked if the patient was suffering from any complications of the disease and particularly as to bronchial affection, Dr. Henry Jameson, who was with General Harrison for more than an hour last evening, refused to answer.

Mr. Harrison took a severe cold more than a week ago and placed himself under the care of his physician. The ailment did not yield readily to treatment, and he has been confined to his home since. Instead of improving he has grown worse within the last three days, suffering from a pronounced case of the grip and has been confined to his bed.

Friends who have called upon him within the last two days have not been admitted to his room, and there is a fear that he is worse than the public is permitted to know. The lack of positive information has caused alarm outside of the family.

Columbia Outargued Cornell.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The annual debate between Columbia and Cornell universities at the Lenox lyceum last night was won by Columbia, and there was no end of rejoicing among the winners and their friends because of Cornell's victory last year on the occasion of the first debate between the two colleges. The question was the advisability of retaining and enforcing that portion of the fourteenth amendment making representation proportionate to the number of voters in states where the suffrage has been restricted.

Big Job For the Hens.

KANSAS CITY, March 8.—H. M. Slayton of Manchester, N. H., capped the climax of a meeting of the Oklahoma and Kansas Product Dealers' association here by giving an order to be filled by all members of the organization jointly for 200 carloads of eggs. The shipments are to be made a train at a time. The order means that the hens of Oklahoma and Kansas have ordered of them the task of laying 28,800,000 eggs this spring.

Seal Hunting Season Near.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., March 8.—A sealing fleet of 20 steamers will sail tomorrow morning for the annual seal hunt along the Labrador coast. Governor McCallum, who will leave in a few days to assume the administration of Natal, made a farewell address to the crews, about 2,000 men being present.

No Choice In Montana.

HELENA, Mont., March 8.—The legislature has adjourned until 11 o'clock without electing a senator. Seven ballots were taken last night. The last ballot stood: Carter (Rep.), 22; H. L. Brainerd (fusion), 20; John Maginnis (fusion), 24; Walter Cooper, 5; W. G. Conrad, 1, and Frank C. Higgins, 1.

Mexican Timber Lands Bought.

CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, March 8.—A syndicate of American capitalists has just closed a deal for the purchase of 500,000 acres of timber lands in the Sierra Madras, a short distance south of Casas Grandes, state of Chihuahua. The amount involved in the deal is $2,500,000 in gold.

LITTLE FAITH IN STORIES OF PEACE

Kitchener Tells of Heavy Fighting.

Boers Under Delayed Attack Litchenberg—Re-enforcements Being Sent Forward.

LONDON, March 8.—Whatever negotiations are proceeding in Pretoria—and Mr. Kruger declares that they can only be for an armistice—the government evidently has no idea of slackening reinforcements. The war office issued a detailed statement last evening of transports that are to sail for South Africa within the coming week with 12,000 troops.

The casualty list reveals the fact that two officers were killed at Litchenberg March 3. Lord Kitchener's telegram, "Am sending reinforcements," was dated March 6.

Evidently, therefore, the fighting continued for some days, and further advances are awaited with anxiety.

According to The Daily Mail's dispatches General De Wet and Mr. Steyn have separated, the former being at Patrusburg, west of Bloemfontein, and the latter at Smithfield.

The war office has received the following dispatch from General Kitchener, dated at Pretoria, March 6:

"Litchenberg is being attacked by DeWet, and fighting has been going on all day. We have had a major and a lieutenant killed. The Litchenberg garrison consists of 200 yeomanry and 300 Northumberland fusiliers, with two guns. I am sending reinforcements."

Lord Roberts, presiding at a meeting of the Army Temperance society, contrasted the moderation of the British soldiers in South Africa with previous campaigns. He said it was true they had not had many opportunities to drink, but at Bloemfontein, Johannesburg and Pretoria, where they did have such opportunities, they were remarkably well behaved, and he had never heard a single complaint of a soldier being rude or improperly behaved toward Boer women. The latter and their children fearlessly went upon the streets and the children constantly played and talked with the British soldiers.

New Jersey Legislature.

TRENTON, March 8.—The house cleared up its calendar by the passage of a number of bills and then adjourned for the week. Among the bills passed were these: Senate bill making 200,000 the maximum population for second class counties and the senate bill making 150,000 the maximum population for second class cities. These bills were passed for the purpose of continuing Paterson as a second class city and Passaic as a second class county. They had both been elevated to the first class by the recent federal census. Another bill passed was the house bill making it compulsory to have fire drills in public schools with 50 or more pupils. The senate committee on Hudson's bill allowing the abandonment of the Morris and Essex canal and the sale of the waterway and land for railroad or other purposes heard the advocates of the bill. William H. Corbin, counsel for the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, which owns the canal, stated to the committee that the canal has been operated at a loss for some years past and that the company was anxious to get rid of its franchise.

LAWS FOR HAWAII.

Some Remarkable Proceedings
In Island Legislation.

MANY RADICAL MEASURES PROPOSED

Half the Members of the Legislature
Cannot Speak the English Language—Speaker's Chair Is the Former Throne.

HONOLULU, via San Francisco, March 8.—With both houses in control of the independent home rule party and containing a majority of native Hawaiians, the legislature has already been the scene of some remarkable proceedings, and the end of the session promises to see many very radical measures adopted, among those to which the controlling party is committed being a liquor dispensary law, a taxation system that will be a combination of an election law based on proportionate representation and a law excluding from the territory all persons who may arrive here afflicted with consumption or leprosy.

The question of languages is another source of trouble. The organic act says that all proceedings of the legislature shall be conducted in the English language. Half of the members cannot speak English, and Hawaiian interpreters have been employed in both houses. It is the opinion of some lawyers that this will invalidate all proceedings, and this matter will come before the courts when some laws have been passed. Chief Justice Frear and Governor Dole, who were members of the commission that adopted the rule in question, have expressed the opinion that it intended to provide that no language but English should be spoken. The independents claim that laws and resolutions shall be in English. Every measure and every speech is being given in both English and Hawaiian.

The house meets in the throne room of the old palace building, now occupied by government officers. The speaker's chair is the former throne of Hawaiian monarchs.

The steamship Zealandia has arrived here with 769 Porto Ricans from Port Los Angeles. Three of the immigrants died on the way. The immigrants are being sent in steamers to various plantations. It is reported that the Zealandia is to make several trips as a carrier of Porto Ricans and that at least 5,000 more will be brought here by her in the near future.

Annual meetings of several sugar plantations have been held here this week. The managers report large crops and good prospects for the coming year. Most of them report having had some difficulty on account of the scarcity of labor.

Maryland Democrats Get a Quorum.

ANNAPOLIS, March 8.—All the interest in the second day of the special session of the Maryland general assembly centered in the senate chamber yesterday. In the house the proceedings were perfunctory and brief, but in the senate a hot debate took place, and the Democrats receded to some extent from the position occupied by them on Wednesday. In the first place, Senator Moore, whose absence caused so much trouble and uneasiness, put in an appearance in the morning, giving the Democrats the much needed quorum. As soon as the senate met a resolution was introduced and passed, reaffirming and re-enacting everything that was done Wednesday, when there were but 13 members, one short of a majority, present. Then the senate took up the objectionable rule adopted on Wednesday, by the provisions of which each senator is allowed to speak but once upon any measure, and so amended it as to allow them to speak as often as they like if all others desiring to do so have spoken to the question.

The Platte River Rampant.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., March 8.—The Platte river is a swifter and more rapidly rising backwater. An ice gorge which formed in the Missouri river has choked the mouth of the Platte, causing that stream to overflow its banks and spread its heaped up burden of grinding ice over the lowlands on either side. A section of the old main line of the Burlington road between Omaha and Cedar Creek has been washed out, stopping all traffic by way of that line. Both the Burlington and the Missouri Pacific roads have a bridge across the Platte at this point and the latter is suffering severely from the huge gorge. All traffic over the Burlington between this point and Schuyler and Lincoln is being carried on by way of Omaha.

The President's Guests.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—President and Mrs. McKinley have been entertaining two guests at the White House during the past week whose names have heretofore not been published in the list of White House guests. One is Jack Adams, who runs the presidential farm near Canton, and the other his friend, Mr. Alexander, a tinsmith from Minerva, Columbiana county, O., and they have been having a fine time and are still at it.

General Weyler's Plans.

MADRID, March 8.—General Weyler, minister of war in the new cabinet, asserts that he will use all his energy in the reorganization of the army in order to render it useful for service in all circumstances. He does not yet know whether he will maintain as a whole the reforms proposed by his predecessor, General Linares has been appointed a captain general.

Negro's Fiendish Crime.

CORRICA, Tex., March 8.—Mrs. Conway Younger, a farmer's wife, was brutally assaulted and finally murdered by a negro. A posse of 200 men, headed by Younger, are by the aid of bloodhounds following the trail of the murderer, who doubtless will meet a terrible death at the hands of the pursuers.

Adopts Anti-Christian Science Law.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 8.—The Indiana legislature has passed a bill requiring all persons practicing medicine or the art of healing to take examinations and be licensed. This is aimed at the Christian Scientists and will drive them out of business.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The following fourth class postmasters have been appointed: Connecticut—Ellington, M. H. Mandel, New Jersey—Palmer, L. G. Gunnery, Sweetman, Geneva, New York—Joy, Oscar Malcomb.

ADDICKS SEEMS BEATEN.

Delaware Legislature Closes Today.
Deadlock Unbroken.

DOVER, Del., March 8.—That J. Edward Addicks is hopelessly beaten is conceded by many of his staunch supporters in the fight for two United States senatorships. When the hour of balloting arrived yesterday, the excitement among the legislators was intense. The expected break of Flinn and Chandler did not take place, and the Addicks leaders showed their disappointment.

The Vote—Long term: Addicks, 10; Kenney, 23; DuPont, 10. Short term: Sausbury, 22; Addicks, 22; Richards, 7. But one vote was taken.

Only one more day of the present session remains, and it looks to many politicians as if Delaware would be unrepresented in the United States senate.

A strong lobby from all over the state is here working for anything to beat Addicks. His offer to deal with Senator Kenney has been spurned.

J. E. ADDICKS.
ticians as if Delaware would be unrepresented in the United States senate.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Weyler raised state of siege at Madrid.

Silver Republicans of Idaho formally disbanded.

Harry Trent of London committed suicide in Chicago.

Governor Stone of Pennsylvania signed the Pittsburgh "ripper" bill.

Venezuelan constitutional assembly approved President Castro's acts.

British are to aid King Menelik of Abyssinia against the Mad Mullah.

A Russian pilgrim steamer was caught in a Black sea storm and 72 passengers washed overboard and drowned.

A large wildcat was shot and killed by Newton Fowler of Hibernia, Dutchess county. It weighed over 100 pounds.

Secretary Long awarded contracts for 13 warships which, when completed, will almost double our navy's offensive strength.

The Southwest Prosperous.

KANSAS CITY, March 8.—George J. Gould, on his trip of inspection of his railway properties, has left with his party for Coffeyville, Kan. Talking to a newspaper man of his trip through Texas, Mr. Gould said: "I was amazed at the many changes which have taken place in the southwest since my visit to that part of the country nearly three years ago. The prosperity of the southwest is marvelous, and I believe that the same statement will apply to the west generally. On every hand I saw the material proofs of prosperity—not booms, but the solid, substantial prosperity that lasts. The banks in even the small towns in Texas and other southwestern states are filled with money. Cotton at 10 cents and high prices for cotton seed, the other good crops and the great values of all products tell the story."

Killed by Falling Elevator.

MOLINE, Ills., March 8.—Two men were killed and seven injured yesterday by the fall of an elevator in the works of the Moline Plow company. The accident occurred while the men were going to work. Twenty-five workmen crowded upon the 9 by 12 foot platform. The elevator ascended a few feet, when a drum gear gave way, letting the cage fall from the first story to the basement. The iron counterbalance weights shot up to the top of the shaft, and four of them, each weighing 100 pounds, became disengaged by collision with the framework of the shaft and crashed down four stories upon the masses of men below.

New Railway in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—The Southern Pacific announces that its new coast line between this city and Los Angeles will be opened on March 31. The road, which is 481 miles long, passes nearly all the important missions in the state, and for 100 miles passes over the cliffs skirting the Pacific ocean.

Senator Grady Ill.

ALBANY, March 8.—Senator Thomas F. Grady is confined in his room at the Hotel Ten Eyck suffering from a severe attack of the grip. He was resting comfortably last night. It was feared that pneumonia might set in, but he will probably not be stricken with it.

Prize Money For Dewey.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The treasury department has issued a warrant in favor of Admiral George Dewey for $9,570 on account of prize money found to be due him by the court of claims for the destruction of the Spanish fleet in Manila harbor May 1, 1898.

Many Lives Lost In Prussian Mine.

GELSENKIRCHEN, Prussia, March 8.—Ten persons were killed and many injured by an explosion of fire damp in the Consolidation mine. It is feared that others are entombed. The adjoining shaft collapsed, and at present it is impossible to reach them.

Russian Jews Colonizing.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 8.—Many Russian Jews are flocking to the towns of Thompson and Fallsburg, in Sullivan county, where they are purchasing farms and planning to erect large boarding houses for people of their own nationality.

THE INDEMNITY QUESTION.

Ministers' Committee Fixes Rules For Future Guidance.

PEKING, March 8.—The ministers' committee has completed its report, and the general principle to be adopted in the case of private indemnities is based upon laws in harmony with the Roman and English systems. This decision was not reached without considerable discussion, some believing that the claims of men of good reputation should be paid in full without further consideration. On the other hand, a case was mentioned where a man of high reputation claims $10,000 for his own, his wife's, and his daughter's nerves and $20,000 for property destroyed, whereas it is known that the latter estimate is more than three times the value of all.

The negotiations, Mr. Rockhill says are going on well, and he sees no reason why they should not be completed in two months with the exception of the commercial treaties, which will probably take a long time.

General Chaffee replied to the copy of General Yin Tchang's letter sent him by Count von Waldersee that he had given instructions to the American troops when any detachments were sent against robbers and Boxers to obtain to the fullest extent possible the assistance of Chinese officials in making arrests and punishing the guilty.

Regarding indemnity for losses sustained by missionaries and native Christians General Chaffee pointed out that his sentiments were well known to the American missionaries, that he was opposed to extortion in every form, that he favored strict justice in every case and that therefore he would agree quickly to his excellency's proposition that the indemnities Sir Robert Hart had mentioned should be settled by the diplomats.

Count von Waldersee will leave soon for Tsin-tau, the trip possibly extending to Shanghai. He says he expects to return to Peking temporarily.

Fifty Chinese Slain.

BERLIN, March 8.—The war office has received the following from Count von Waldersee, dated Peking, March 6:

"A company of the Third East Asiatics, under Captain Knoerzer, came into contact yesterday southwest of Man-sheng with 400 Chinese regulars who had apparently been separated from their main body. The Chinese were scattered and 50 of them killed. Two of their banners were taken. A small detachment was sent from Tien-tsin to Tisang March 3 to suppress brigandage. Three companies of infantry, a squadron of cavalry and a battery, all under Lieutenant Colonel Arstedt, left for Yung-tsing March 5, with the same object."

CLAIMED TO BE AN EARL.

Death of Young Man in Pittsburgh Reveals a Strange Case.

PITTSBURGH, March 8.—The Leader in its night edition says: "Cecil Sherbrooke Beaumont Howland, whose private papers show that he believed himself to be the Earl of Wargrave and a Knight of the Garter of Britain's court, lies dead in the Allegheny General hospital, known as plain C. B. Howland. The dead nobleman was employed as a superintendent of one of the departments of the Pressed Steel Car company at McKees Rocks. He boarded at the Sauers hotel, Federal street, Allegheny, for the past year, but had not told anyone of his position in England. He was taken sick two weeks ago with typhoid fever and was taken to the Allegheny General hospital. He rapidly grew worse, and his friends in New York were advised of his critical condition. He began to sink rapidly and died yesterday.

"Howland came to Pittsburgh about a year ago and some time later revisited England, but until his death the motive of the visit was not ascertained.

"In the letters left in the possession of Mr. Sauers are many going to prove the legality of the claims of the dead man to an earl's degree. Among the letters were several from A. J. Harrison of 32 Broadway, New York, who claims to be a brother of the dead man.

"Another letter from the legal firm of Berensford, Gray & Seymour of London notifies Howland of his succession to the title and estates of his uncle, Edward, earl of Wargrave. The writer addressed the Pittsburgher as 'my lord' and hoped that he would shortly return to England to enter on possession of his estates. In the letter from the brother occurs the sentence, 'I think you ought to go elsewhere and use your own name.'

Earl of Wargrave a Myth.

NEW YORK, March 8.—In regard to the Pittsburgh dispatch concerning the death of the alleged Earl of Wargrave a careful search shows there is no Earl of Wargrave. The London postoffice directory shows that there is no such firm as Berensford, Gray & Seymour, neither among the solicitors or barristers. There is an Ambrose L. Harrison at 32 Broadway. A call at his Brooklyn residence showed that he was absent from the city, but his wife declares the family never heard of the Earl of Wargrave, and she was very positive that the Pittsburgh man was not Mr. Harrison's brother.

Water Famine Threatened.

NEW YORK, March 8.—New York city, particularly in the Bronx and Brooklyn, is threatened with a water famine such as has never before been experienced in the history of the city. This is according to Chief Engineer Birdsall of the department of water supply, and he says that unless there is a considerable rainfall within the next few days there is bound to be much suffering. "There is only enough water available for a three days' supply in the Bronx," said Mr. Birdsall, "and I can see no prospect of immediate relief. The conditions there are certainly alarming."

Plague Spreading In Cape Town.

CAPE TOWN, March 8.—A soldier employed at the castle has been attacked by the bubonic plague. Two Europeans have also been attacked by the disease, and a European child has died of it. Twenty-four additional persons have been isolated owing to contact with those stricken.

Rich Find of Gold.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 8.—News was received by the steamer Comage City, which arrived from Alaska ports, of a rich find on Porcupine creek. Gravel yielding $5 a bucket has been discovered.

Bryan Comes to Buffalo.

CHICAGO, March 8.—William J. Bryan passed through Chicago yesterday on his way to Buffalo. Between trains Mr. Bryan received a number of calls from Democratic politicians.

The New Bulgarian Cabinet.

SOFIA, March 8.—Prince Ferdinand, in the course of his speech at the opening of the sobranie, said the new cabinet would devote itself to terminating the financial crisis and to endeavoring to strengthen the ties uniting Bulgaria with her liberator, Russia, as well as to developing close relations with other powers, notably with neighboring states.

Railway Extension Recused.

TOLEDO, March 8.—Work was begun yesterday on the extension of the Wabash railway from Toledo to Montpelier, O., a 40 mile line for which $3,000,000 construction and $3,000,000 equipment bonds have been issued. The extension will connect the main line from Toledo to St. Louis with the Detroit-Chicago branch, thus giving another line from Toledo to Chicago.

SLAVERY'S HORRORS

Startling Revelations In South Carolina Case.

NEGROES UNDERGOING SERVITUDE

Many Prominent Men In Anderson County Guilty—Grand Jury's Presentation Reveals Pitiful Details.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 8.—The grand jury of Anderson county has made its report to Judge W. C. Benet and declared that a practical enslavement of negroes has been conducted in that county. The presentation was prepared by a special committee which visited the convict stockade camps in Anderson county and found confined therein negroes guilty of no felony, but undergoing a term of servitude under voluntary contracts which they had signed in partial ignorance.

The charge of false imprisonment was made against J. S. Fowler, P. B. Allen and W. Q. Hammond, three of the largest planters and most influential men in Anderson county. The grand jury declared that these men, who employ convicts from the state, were also keeping confined in their stockades negroes who for some petty cause had been sent there for breach of contract, although convicted before no officer of the law.

The presentation of the grand jury put an end to this practice, which is conducted in no other county in the state. It has been known in Anderson county for a long time that such a system was being carried on, and the people of that county are glad that it has been done away with.

No prosecutions have yet been made, but the solicitor, Mr. J. E. Boggs, will hand out indictments for the June term of court.

The negroes in the county are under the impression that all labor contracts now in existence are practically nullified by the action of the court, and Judge Benet stated emphatically that all illegal contracts would be declared void, but there are just contracts which the court will enforce. Nevertheless there is a general state of demoralization just at the time when crops are being planted.

Judge Benet's charge to the grand jury after it had rendered its finding contained a severe denunciation of certain newspapers which had sent special correspondents to South Carolina and claimed to have made an exposure. He stated that the people of Anderson county are responsible for uprooting this practice. He complimented the grand jury for not having read the newspapers while making its investigation.

He stated that there is no need of interference by federal courts. He said the testimony of negroes is valid evidence in the state courts

The Congressional Districts.

The Republican leaders in the New Jersey Legislature have finally settled upon a plan for the reappointment of the Congressional districts. A bill providing for the change was introduced into the Senate yesterday by Senator Reed. It will be acted upon next week and will probably be passed.

When it was known that the old Eighth Congressional district would be entirely changed, the people of Union county were hoping that a more rational district would be formed. Two plans were suggested either of which seemed a fair division of counties. One was to unite Union, Somerset and Morris counties and the other to form a district of Union, Somerset and Middlesex counties. But these did not suit the Republican leaders.

Under the provisions of Mr. Reed's redistricting bill, Union county is made part of the Fifth district. The other two counties in the district are Morris and Warren. The district is now a belt which extends from the Jersey coast right across the State to the Pennsylvania boundary. It is not a logical division and the three counties included have very few interests in common. It seems too bad that the Republican leaders could not have adjusted affairs so that Union and Somerset counties, such near and intimate neighbors, could be included in the same district.

Of course, nobody expected the Republicans to divide the State other than to make it possible for them to win as many of the new districts as possible. This new Fifth district will not be an easy battleground for them, however. Warren is the strongest Democratic county in the State while Morris is of doubtful political complexion. Union is naturally Republican but a heavy majority will have to be rolled up there if the Democratic vote in Warren is to be overcome.

One of the most significant things about the redistricting is that Congressman Charles N. Fowler is practically left without any important rival for the Republican nomination in the new district. He undoubtedly favored this arrangement, as it has been common talk at Trenton and all through the State that Governor Voorhees would approve of no plan which did not care for the interests of his friend, Mr. Fowler.

The fruit growers and curers of California remarks the Philadelphia Record have for years spent large sums of money in distributing circulars and posters and in sending decorated cars of fruit over the railway lines. Evidently the results of these methods of advertising have not been wholly satisfactory, since a meeting of the California Cured Fruit Association at San Jose, February 21, resolved to authorize a committee to advertise the fruit exclusively in the leading newspapers of the country.

Dr. W. H. Murray has been re-elected to the presidency of the Board of Health of this city. Dr. Murray has been very earnest in his efforts to advance the sanitary condition of the city and he has spared no effort in the work. While he has been criticized by some it was a difference of opinion as to methods and not regarding his inefficiency and integrity as a public official which are questioned by no thinking citizen.

It would have been well if the Plainfield Board of Health had considered at its last meeting the necessity of cleaning out the bed of Green brook. The law of the State does not permit private individuals to make a dumping ground of any stream. The borough authorities have already acted, and it is now the duty of the proper officials on this side of the brook to co-operate with them.

Under the State law which permits women to take part in school meetings in New Jersey, the good women of Cranford are again planning to take an active part in the election of school trustees in that township. They have not announced their candidates as yet, but have already secured the votes of many to support whatever ticket they may put up.

The action of Tax Collector F. H. Smith in taking active measures to secure the payment of delinquent taxes is a proper one. It is but fair to those who do pay their taxes that the delinquents should be brought to time.

People are wondering whether the fight against the anti-spring election law will be successful. After so much legal talent in the Republican party passed upon it, it would seem that it ought not to have any legal defects.

Trenton has been experimenting with permanent pavements and the present verdict seems to be against fire brick pavements. It is said that while very satisfactory at first, they will not last.

The Democrats of North Plainfield have been outspoken in their disapproval of the so-called Democratic pamphlet and its low attacks on the Republican candidates.

The general impression seems to prevail at Trenton that Senator Reed's measure abolishing the poll tax will not be passed by the Legislature at this session at least.

The report of the Plainfield Public Library shows that the people of this city are appreciating its value more and more as time goes on.

The Mayor of Madison is evidently a strong advocate of municipal ownership and he has the advantage of speaking from experience.

The battle to win souls for Christ continues and every day shows an increase in the grand results of the Gospel campaign.

The election in North Plainfield is now only a few days away and both sides are preparing for the struggle.

Gentlemen:—I must say in regard to GRAIN-O that there is no other better or healthier. We have used it for years. My brother was a great coffee drinker. DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, March 8.—Before a very gratifying attendance in the Methodist church last evening, Prof. Frank L. Greene, of Brooklyn, delivered his postponed lecture, "The Boy, the Cigarette and the Future." The talk was very interesting, and as the subject implies it pertained to the disastrous effect the deadly cubes have upon the youth of today, rendering them unfit for responsible positions in after life and in many instances bringing them to an untimely end. The lecture was the fifth in the Board of Education series which will probably conclude with one more.

Now that both the local political parties have completed their tickets for the coming election, active campaigning has already commenced and until next Tuesday button hole parties will be a feature of the streets. As has already been stated the interest centers in the nominees for assessor and freeholder, and the outcome is awaited with no small degree of expectancy.

As soon as the weather permits it is the expectation of Albert Bogetti to re-open the old Dunellen brick works and for that purpose the necessary supply of wood is being carted to the premises.

The Dunellen Gun Club will meet Saturday for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

Charles Tilton has rented the Brennan house on Madison avenue and will take possession shortly.

Charles Milliken has secured a lucrative position with the Central as a sign painter and letterer.

The annual election for three members of the Board of Education will be held on March 19.

Miss May Fulper, of the Whittier school, is entertaining her sister from Flemington.

Lewis Vosseler has accepted a position with W. G. Runyon.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence.)

New Market, March 8.—At the Democratic caucus of Piscataway township, held last evening in Hotel Nelson, the following nominations were made: Town committeeman, O. T. Rogers; surveyors of highways, Lewis Harris and Conrad Egel; commissioner of appeal, Benj. Letson; justice of the peace, N. B. Giles; constable, William Riley. O. E. Kelley, DeWitt Giles and J. J. Fields were appointed a committee to fill vacancies. It was voted to raise $5,000 for roads and $1,200 for the support of the poor.

The Endeavor Society of the Seventh-Day Baptist church will hold a social at the residence of Mrs. Albert Ayers tomorrow evening.

Acting Mayor Alfred McKenna, who has filled the mayor's chair for several months, will be a candidate of one of the factions while it is said that he will meet with strong opposition from those who are opposed to the present administration. There is no long waiting for help if Ripans Tablets are taken for dyspepsia and headache. Relief comes quickly. One Tablet (about the size of a small button) will relieve distress in the stomach within fifteen minutes and the headache will shortly disappear. There was an industrious, hard-working woman of Cooperstown, N. Y., some sixty years of age, who for a long time had suffered greatly from dyspepsia and dreadful headaches. Her stomach tormented her so that she could hardly work at all, and, although she had tried all sorts of things, she got no relief. A friend sent her some Ripans Tablets and she felt better as soon as she took the first one. She said it was more like working. "I have continued with the Tablets ever since," she says, "and they always help me."

SUMMER GOWNS.

A Few Hints For the Clever Woman Who Makes Her Dresses at Home.
Just now the question of how to make up the cotton and other wash goods into pretty and dainty summer dresses is an important one, so it will not be amiss to devote this letter to discussing this question. In the first place, the thin goods require a special treatment and must be made with a view to the fact that they are to be laundered. This means that there must not be too much fussy trimming upon them. Lace when it is used will be of a solid and substantial quality or else it must be lightly sewed on, so that it can be easily removed when the gown is washed. Simplicity is the keynote, and the very prettiest of all these cotton frocks are made with a plain skirt, with only one ruffle or three or four tucks around the bottom. A few may have overskirts, but they are not to be desired from any point of view. So, then, the skirts are to be cut plain for the most part, and the waists are to be as devoid of trimming as possible, and this will allow the wearer the privilege of having no end of dainty neckwear all covered with lace and decorated with the bows of ribbon so dear to the heart of woman.
The present outlook is that very many of the summer waists of wash dresses will be made with a surplice front. This fancy has been growing for some time, and now I think it will be one of the features of the summer dressmaking. This does away with the high collar and will make the wearers much more comfortable in warm weather. Another new plan is to have the waist made all of one piece of cloth. Two holes are cut out for the sleeves, and the rest is shirred to fit, both around the neck and waist. The lower part is shirred from three to four inches and must be adjusted on the waist of the wearer, so that it becomes virtually a belt. I have seen two model dresses, and they were all in one from the neck to the feet, but this is apt to give the waist an undue fullness. This plan—that is to say, the shirred waist—is very pretty and youthful and works well with the soft seprys and gingham and also with the delicate soft wools and silks. Stiff goods would not look well at all.
The white dotted swisses and other muslins are made more elaborately, and here one can use all the lace one likes, as lace is the proper complement of white dresses. For all plain surfaced goods tucks are as much liked as ever, and some of them have the tucks all hemstitched. In one large manufacturing house I saw numbers of dresses for young girls in course of construction and noted one extremely dainty model. The dress was of light tan albatross, and there were three narrow ruffles, scarcely gathered, and they were in three shades of tan, the darkest being at the bottom, and above them was a cluster of narrow tucks, fire in all. On each side of the skirt at the hips were two clusters of narrow tucks, only these were fancy applications of Arab lace. The waist was open in surplice fashion, and at the top and on the collar of the vest there were tucks, while the rest of the waist was made of tucks and insertion of Arab lace. The sleeves had tucks at the top. This design could be made in any of the light cotton goods.
The old fashioned French waist is one of the favorites this season and is especially valuable, as it lends itself to so many different ways of trimming. Made with a postiche collar it can be transformed into a V shape in a moment, and cut with the lower part a little longer than the back and sides it can be made into a blouse at will. This presupposes that it is made separate from the skirt. But the most of the distinctively summer wash dresses have skirt and waist fastened together, and the skirt opens at the left side. Belts of many kinds are shown, nearly all with a direct reference to the cotton dresses. Chambray for everyday hard wear suits bids fair to be even more popular than it was last year. In the illustration will be found a blouse of frosty blue chambray, worn with a skirt of a far darker shade of the same stuff. The skirt is laid in three clusters of plaits, each having four, and a deep hem. The blouse waist is trimmed with heavy Arab lace. This particular lace is much liked, and it is very durable; but, knowing the Arabs a little, I may be excused if I say the lace has a dingy color inseparable to the people of that race. To sum up, it may be understood that all wash dresses are to be as plain as possible, and only those which are not expected to go to the laundry are much trimmed.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning March 10—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic—A Castaway.—I Cor. ix, 24-27. (A temperance meeting.)

In these verses Paul likens the Christian life to a race and to a boxing contest. To the residents of Corinth these allusions would have particular force. They were prominent features in the isthmian games which were celebrated near Corinth and which were of the greatest interest to all its inhabitants. The isthmian games were the chief glory of Corinth and at the time when Paul wrote had even thrown the Olympic games into the shade.

These illustrations gave the apostle a splendid text upon which to preach a sermon on the subject of temperance, not sobriety (temperance in drink), but temperance in all things. One of the chief requisites of success in these athletic contests was temperance in all things. "Every man that strives for the mastery (that strives to win in a contest) is temperate in all things." The contestants in these Grecian games were required to be temperate. They had to develop great powers of endurance, and this could only be done by long training and self denial. They had to be "pure, sober and enduring" to obey orders, to eat sparingly and simply and to bear effort and fatigue for ten months in advance.

Temperance is also required in the Christian race and in the fight of faith, and if the athlete was willing to endure so much, to practice such self denial for the fading crown of isthmian pine, how much more willing we should be to deny ourselves, to be temperate in all things, that we may win an incorruptible crown—a crown of righteousness, a crown of eternal life.

Temperance in all things requires that the body must be in subjection to the mind and that the mind must be in subjection to Christ. The body was never intended to be the master of the mind, but its servant—the instrument by which the desires of the mind were to be carried into effect. In temperance the body is master and not servant; its desires and appetites are supreme. But for spiritual discipline the mind must be in subjection to Christ. If the mind be governed by Christ, and the body by the mind, we have true Christian temperance and self control. It requires a serious and continuous effort upon our part to bring about such a blessed and desirable condition. Paul's self denial was a real one and not a shadow. He had a definite goal before him and not an uncertainty and that he might win it he put forth a serious effort. It was no "shadow fight" in which he engaged. It was not a beating of the air, but a bruising of himself. By great self denial he kept his body under and brought it into subjection. And thus only can we become temperate in all things.

The disastrous results of intemperance should inspire us to temperance. By intemperance the contestant lost a fading crown; by it the Christian would lose an immortal crown! "I keep under my body and bring it into subjection, lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway." It was only by fulfilling certain requirements that an applicant could enter the games. If he failed, he was rejected; he was a castaway. Paul displays here an anxiety lest having trained others to meet these requirements he should fail in them and be rejected. Such a thought is sufficient to cause anxiety. "Hell after preaching" is an awful thought. And the possibility of losing such a crown should inspire all men to any endeavor, to any self denial, that it may not be lost.

BIBLE READINGS.
Ps. i, 1-6; Prov. xx, i; xxiii, 1-3; 29-32; Dan. i, 1-17; Math. xvi, 24-27; I Cor. vi, 9-10; Gal. v, 19-26; Titus i, 7-9; II, 1, 2; I Pet. v, 1-9.

Trust in the Universal Power.
The equanimity of existence, the trust in the everlasting goodness of the universal life movement, breathes at all time unqualified thanksgiving to the Power that moves the spheres and appoints His time for the exaltation of those He chooses for that end and the downfall of those He would bring low. It is immaterial to the religious man whether in the material world there is exaltation or downfall. The evenness of his trust when his spirit is at peace with himself is sufficient cause for continuous thanksgiving. His way is the way of the Lord, and though death be in its path, that death is exaltation and that path is the path that induces thanksgiving.—American Hebrew.

Truth.
The intellectual apprehension of truths is comparatively easy and comparatively profitless. Satan doubtless knows more of them than any of us. The spiritual apprehension of them is a hard thing. That cannot be taught by man. It belongs to the inner individuality and to the grace of God. It is intellectual still, but it is intellect interpenetrated with spirit, and unless it is interpenetrated with spirit it is but a dead thing.—Churchman.

A Cure For Worry.
The best cure for worry is a belief in God's decrees. If we are God's workmanship and were created for a purpose, why permit every little mishap to blight our lives? Our disappointments are his realizations.—Presbyterian Journal.

Duty Well Done.
This is the preparation for a good old age: Duty well done, for its own sake, for God's sake and for the sake of the commonwealth of man. When a man works only for himself, he gets neither rest here nor reward hereafter.—Robert Collyer.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning March 10, "A Castaway"—Text, I Cor. ix, 24-27.

"I keep my body under and bring it into subjection."
The people of Corinth were noted for their self indulgence and were so given to immoral practices that their shameful habits had passed into a proverb. To "Corinthianize" was to corrupt. Paul's work was to Christianize them. This meant to purify and make morally clean. It meant higher ideals of life and action and happiness through self control, which is far higher and more satisfying than and indulgence of bodily appetite and passion can be.

He often refers in his letters to the practices of the athletic games so noted on the isthmus of Corinth, which occurred every two years. He compares the Christian life to these contests which were so prominent and important in all the thought and life of his times. The prize in the isthmian games was only a wreath of the native pine leaves, but it carried with it great honor, and was held in such high estimation that no hardship in training and no exertion in the contest was shunned by the young men of Greece to gain it.

Paul says we are contending for a better prize, a crown that will not wither. We are not uncertain of the goal. All who run here have a chance to win. Only one could be victorious there.

He had acted as a herald in announcing the names of the runners and calling them into the course where eternal life was the prize to be gained.

Having so done, he was careful to fit himself that he would not be rejected as a contestant. He has power and the right to do many things which he does not do because he is keeping his eye fixed on the Christian goal. He has preached to others that they should be pure in the midst of all the prevalent corruption. To enforce it he remains unmarried, though he has the right to marry, as other apostles had. He is urging all the gentle churches to contribute money for the poor at Jerusalem. To enforce it he earns his own living, though he has the right to claim support from the churches he has established and serves. Though a free man, he becomes a servant to all that he may win some to Christ. He makes all his powers of body obey the direction of the spirit and does not let the appetites of the body bring his soul into slavery. Like a boxer, he strikes between the eyes in his blows at evil passions and wastes no strength in beating the air.

This is a lesson in self control, temperance.
There is the greatest need now to listen to this master trainer. Let him coach us for our race. Our young men and women particularly should heed his directions and warnings. Intemperance is deadly and yet most alluring. Impurity is fearfully prevalent in city and country, and few voices dare speak out. The consumption of tobacco increases among the young of both sexes and is scarcely less deadly than alcohol.

Who shall win in this contest, the flesh or the spirit? Who rules you, bodily appetites or the love of Christ? You have started in the Christian race. How are you running? Throw off the weights and run lightly and foot free. "So run that ye may obtain." Get there!

Perry Hall.
In the early days of Methodism in America there were a few homes of wealth where its itinerant preachers found hospitable welcome. None exceeded, if any equalled, Perry Hall in comfort and cordiality of entertainment. This was the home of Henry Dorsey Gough, Esq. It was situated 12 miles from Baltimore in the midst of an estate of 3,000 acres. Both Mr. Dorsey Gough and his wife were converted under the preaching of Asbury and were ever his firm friends.

Dec. 17, 1784, Whatcoat, Vasey and Dr. Coke from England and William Blake from Nova Scotia gathered here to consult with Asbury about the organization of the new denomination of American Methodists, which was accomplished in Baltimore on Christmas day of the same year. Dr. Coke speaks of Perry Hall at this time as "the most elegant house in this state."

The estate has passed into another family, and no descendants of the Gough name remain. The house still stands, and in October last a large company of Methodists made a pilgrimage to it.

Saved to the Uttermost.
Saved to the uttermost: I am the Lord's; Jesus, my Saviour, salvation affords; Gives me His spirit a witness within, Whispering of pardon and saving from sin.
Saved to the uttermost: Jesus is near; Keeping me safely, He catcheth our fear. Trusting His promises, how I am blest! Leaving upon Him, how sweet is my rest!

Saved to the uttermost: this I can say, "Once all was darkness, but now it is day." Beautiful visions of glory I see, Jesus in brightness revealed unto me.
Saved to the uttermost: cheerfully sing, Loud halleluiahs to Jesus, my King. Ransomed and pardoned, redeemed by his blood, Cleaned from unrighteousness, glory to God! Cleaned from unrighteousness, glory to God!

when he is near." What is most needed, said Mr. Hall, is not the conviction to seek God but it is the moral courage to give one's soul to Christ.

As at the previous meetings, nearly the entire congregation arose when those who would follow Jesus were asked to stand up.

All who desired to become followers of Christ and likewise all who desired to work in the service of God, as well as those who had a friend to save, were requested to remain for the "after meeting."

"Lord, I'm Coming Home," was sweetly rendered as an introduction to the "after meeting" and, at the conclusion of a prayer by Rev. C. L. Goodrich, Rev. D. J. Yerkes and W. R. Richards delivered appropriate and helpful remarks. The fruit borne of the evening's meeting was shown when twenty-five persons stood up as a mute declaration of their purpose to become soldiers of Christ.

Closing prayers were said by Rev. G. W. Gardner and Rev. A. E. Main, and the congregation was dismissed after singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

CANDLE TALK BY MR. JACOBS.

Concluding Meeting of Series Held For The Little Folk This Week.

A pretty sight was witnessed in the First Baptist church at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when about six hundred children came together to attend the last of the series of three meetings for boys and girls, conducted by F. H. Jacobs. The meetings have been very popular with the little folks and have all been well attended, but this one was by far the largest, and was greatly enjoyed by the youthful audience.

The meeting opened with a bright song service, conducted by Mr. Jacobs, the children singing well-known hymns with much spirit and enjoyment. Then, after a brief prayer, the address of the afternoon began. "How We May Shine for Jesus; a Candle Sermon," was the subject.

"Ye are the light of the world," might have been called the text of the talk, Mr. Jacobs describing the Christian life as the shining of a light. That a person of one sex, age, race or education could shine as truly as another was illustrated by the speaker with a number of candles of different shapes and colors, all of which were equally useful.

The Christian who thinks he can shine as well standing alone as if he were in the church was represented by the speaker by a candle which stood upright and burning on the table as long as it had no temptation to fall, but which at the first shake toppled over. When placed in a candlestick, the place intended for a candle to shine in, it could not be upset.

The Christian who thinks he can be just as good if he keeps his Christianity a secret was represented by a lighted candle placed, as described in the New Testament, under a bushel. When the measure was removed, the candle had ceased to shine; its light had gone out.

Mr. Jacobs went on to say that a person who is truly shining for Christ will try to bring the True Light to others also. He represented a Sunday-school teacher by a tall lighted candle, and as he told how the teacher gradually gathered together a class he grouped round the first candle a number of small ones, one of which soon had a light of its own. The adventures of this boy were then narrated; how he fell in with evil companions and yielded to the temptation to use bad language, so that his influence for good was gone; his light went out. True repentance, however, relighted it.

In closing his talk, Mr. Jacobs begged all the boys and girls to endeavor to truly shine for their Saviour, and in case they had never tried to follow Him, to begin then. He gave every child present a card stating that the receiver desired to be Jesus' boy or girl and do His will, and having a place for the name. A dozen or more of the youngest children present also received for souvenirs the small candles Mr. Jacobs had used in his talk.

NO ONE CAN BE NEUTRAL.

Rev. Mr. Henderson Presented Important Facts to a Large Meeting at Hope Chapel.

The attendance at Hope Memorial chapel last evening was the largest thus far in the series of evangelistic services being held there, and there was an increase of interest. Rev. Mr. Henderson was again in charge and W. C. Weeden, the singer, assisted him.

Mr. Henderson took for his text "Who Is On the Lord's Side?" and from these words he delivered a powerful discourse. The speaker said that no one could be neutral on this question. "He that is not with Me is against Me; He that gathereth not with Me scattereth," are the words of Christ.

"It does not matter about your side," said Mr. Henderson, but if you are on the Lord's side you are safe. A Christian is one who accepts Jesus Christ as a personal Saviour from sin then acknowledges Him as the Lord of his daily life."

"There is no other side to be considered but the Lord's side. It is manly and womanly to be on that side. I have never heard but one reason why a person should not be on the Lord's side, that was that a person was not manly enough. Some people think religion is all right for women and children, and this thought prevails among young men who are just passing over 'fool's hill.' In reply to a remark that it does not take much of a man to be a Christian, Dr. Chapman said 'It just takes all the man there is to be a Christian.' The reason we are living today in a civilized country, enjoying free schools, churches, etc., is because Christ has made it possible. If the churches should be wiped out of Plainfield there is not one of you would want to live here."

Mr. Henderson then went on to say that the Lord's side is the approved side, and the Lord needs all the help He can get to bring the world to Christ. He warned everyone against putting a stumbling block in the way of anyone coming to Christ, especially children. The speaker then asked those present if they were helping to bring others to Christ. If they were not he urged them to put forth every effort in that direction. After the sermon Mr. Henderson gave the invitation and a number decided for Christ.

Strikes a Rich Find. "I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. SPORTING.

GOLF.

Nearly every enthusiastic golfer throughout the State is commencing to speculate on the probable links for the next championship tournament of the New Jersey State Golf Association. Last season the first tournament conducted under the auspices of this body was held over the links of the Essex County Country Club. There was a large field of starters, and the event attracted considerable prominence throughout the East. Archie Graham, of Paterson, won out in the final round, defeating James A. Tynge, the Baltusrol crack.

A prominent official of the State Golf Association says that while nothing definite has been decided upon regarding the selection of a champion ship links, he rather thought Baltusrol would be the final choice. Of course, it all rests with the officials of the latter organization, and one thing is certain, that should Baltusrol express a willingness to handle the 1901 championship tournament of the New Jersey State Golf Association, the latter would be only too pleased.

When all the proposed improvements have been made to Baltusrol, the latter will equal almost any course in the country. The matter will not be definitely decided before the meeting of the association, which will be held in New York March 15.
