Good Article of Ball in Which to Decide the Contest.

SUPERIOR FIELDING

FOUR TO THREE THE FINAL SCORE OF THE GAME.

Whitley Serves Some Puzzling
Twists—Dodd and Martin
Make Some Nice Hits—
The Detailed Scores.

Good and timely stickwork did the trick for the Clinton Avenue baseball combination in its opening game with the West End Field Club Saturday afternoon. The score was close enough to satisfy the losers as far as the losing bunch can be satisfied, 4 to 3 being the final tally, and the contest was pretty enough to keep everybody interested.

Whitley, Clinton Avenue's new pitcher, handed out a long string of unobtainable twists. He passed fourteen helpless victims up to his catcher, and Herman was all there with the goods. He steered a mitt that acted like the twin-brother of Johnny-on-the-post, although one ball did get by him.

West End, however, managed to plug the ball safely six times, Barges landing on it twice. Jacot, the West End's left fielder, got what was coming to him a little more so, the Clinton Avenue landing nine lousy belts. Dodd and Martin each delivered two cracks to the leather.

For a first performance, both sides did remarkably good work in the field. The going was a trifle slower than it will be later on, when the experts get limbered up, but there was only a total of five errors between them, two for West End and three for Clinton Avenue.

MORBUS SABBATICUS AN EVIL OF THE DAY

A Peculiar Condition Which is an Excuse for the Non-Observance of the Sabbath.

SUBJECT OF A SERMON

REV. DR. SCHENCK ARRAIGNS THOSE WHO BREAK COMMANDMENT.

Present Tendency to Turn a Holy Day into a Holiday—The People Seek Pleasure
But Not God.

Man's need to keep the Sabbath day and the meaning of the observance were explained last night by Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, of Trinity Reformed church, in a sermon on "Morbus Sabbaticus" or the Sunday sickness. This sickness, the pastor said, affects people only at church time on Sunday, the victim being able to stay at home and read the Sunday papers and feeling well enough to call on friends or engage in other social affairs, but lacking the strength to go to public worship. The only cure for the disease is the religion of Jesus Christ and a faithful adherence to the word of God.

With the passage of the winter, said Dr. Schenck, there comes in with the warm season a danger of relaxation from Christian ideals. Pleasant summer weather tempts one to neglect his duties of church attendance. There is a tendency to make the Sabbath a holiday instead of a holy day, a day of selfish pleasure-seeking instead of one of rest and Christian meditation. People on vacations are apt to forget their duty of.

Dr. Schenck made references, in passing, to Sunday golf and Sunday baseball. He spoke of the fact that a baseball park for Sunday baseball was a possibility for Middlesex county, and that numbers of men in this city and vicinity were hired to play Sunday ball. He exposed the uselessness and wrong of the practice.

The Sabbath day is not a human institution. It is divine, and belongs to God. Government and the institutions of man could not well exist without the day of rest. There is physical need for the Sabbath. Man cannot do his physical or intellectual work without it. In France at one time an attempt was made to establish a day of rest every tenth day, but the falling off in physical and intellectual efficiency that followed taught the French people the wisdom of the Creator in setting apart one day in seven and brought them to return to observance of the Sabbath. Religiously and intellectually, the Sabbath is a necessity.

The action of corporations which force their employees to work seven days in the week was condemned by the speaker. The motorman and conductor, said Dr. Schenck, is practically forced to work on Sunday. His compensation is such that he must do it for the extra money to meet the expenses of life. If he insists upon having his Sunday for rest he is in danger of losing his position.

O. F. C. WINS AT RAILWAY

MONTROSS FIGURES CONSPICUOUSLY IN WELL-EARNED VICTORY.

In a rattling finish, the Orange Field Club baseball nine whipped Railway High School at Railway Saturday afternoon. It was a good game despite football weather. Railway was in the lead from the first inning until the ninth, when the Plainfield boys, with the score six to five against them, pounded the ball for three runs and a victory, eight to six. With two out and two men on base in the ninth, Hellyer made a safe hit and sent in the tying run. Conover then banged out a two-bagger and added two more runs. A close decision at the plate in this inning was made against Orange. Montross pitched a good game and received excellent support. The lineup: Orange F. ## PLAINFIELDER'S IDEAS READ BY MILLIONS

Editorial Opinions of Arthur
Brisbane Most Widely Noted of any in the American Press.

HIS RESIDENCE HERE

A PUPIL OF DAVID HAND AT THE JACKSON SCHOOL.

One of a Number of Great Newspaper Men Who Have Lived in Plainfield—The Chamberlins and Their Work.

Plainfield has always been known as a good news-center. There are not more than one or two cities in Jersey that figure more prominently in the metropolitan press than does the "Queen City." But the fact is not so generally known that, in addition to supplying news, the city has been an important factor in training the men who present the news and whose editorial opinions on it have their deep influence upon the entire country.

Perhaps no one who has gone out from Plainfield has reached a wider circle of readers than Arthur Brisbane whose opinions expressed in the editorial columns of the New York Journal find an echo in the minds of thousands of readers and receive a respectful hearing even from those of different views. Mr. Brisbane has an incisive way of presenting things and in general a sound and sane good sense that make his articles well worth reading.

Born in Buffalo, Mr. Brisbane came to this city from New York when two years old, living with his parents at the Brisbane farm on Terrill road. His first knowledge from books came at the Jackson school house which he attended until fourteen years old. Then he went to Europe and completed the education that has been the foundation for his astonishing success. He is still the owner of the farm on Terrill road and has not yet forgotten the precepts of his old schoolmaster, "Dave" Hand, whom he quoted in a recent editorial.

The Brooklyn Eagle has put Mr. Brisbane forward as a proper candidate for the presidency in place of W. H. Hearst. It says: "There are those who believe that he has made that other man (Hearst) as the Lord made the world, by the word of His power in the space of six days and all very good or as good as could be expected."

The article says further: "Mr. Brisbane is old enough to be President. His age is said to be 40. If that is correct, he was born in 1863 or 1864. That indicates that he is younger than either Mr. Bryan or Mr. Roosevelt, the first of whom has twice run for the Presidency, and the second of whom, chosen as vice president, acceded to the office on the death of President McKinley."

This description of Mr. Brisbane's method of work is interesting: "In his method of work Brisbane is unique. He lives much of the time out of town, but a stenographer goes with him everywhere. In traveling he invariably engages a Pullman drawing room, and, armed with a mass of newspapers, begins his work before the train pulls out. He reads quickly and carefully, mapping out work from suggestions and gathering ideas as he does so. When this preliminary task is over he leans back, and dictates editorial after editorial as rapidly as the stenographer can take them. By the time Hempstead or Lakewood is reached, or whatever may be the destination, he has done the tomorrow morning's work. Going back to town the next day he does the same. Not long ago Brisbane took a much needed vacation, but his daily editorials did not lapse. He called his stenographer, and, with an intermission for rest, in twelve hours he dictated sixty editorials, amounting to about 50,000 words—a book in twelve hours!"

Other Plainfielders who have writ their mark deep and large upon journalism are the three members of the Chamberlin family, Wilbur Chamberlin, the famous writer for the New York Sun, who died while returning from China, where he acted as correspondent during the great Rebellion there; Ernest O. Chamberlin, who met with equal success on the staff of the New York World; and another brother, Walter, whose ability was also great.

PLANS FOR MEMORIAL DAY

EXERCISES TO TAKE PLACE IN REFORM
HALL ON MAY 30.

The Memorial detail from Winfield Scott Post, No. 78, G. A. R., met Saturday night with members of the Woman's Relief Corps, for the purpose of furnishing plans for the observance of Decoration Day. It is stated that Reform Hall had been engaged for the exercises.

It is likely that the Independent Pipe and Drum Corps will be engaged to furnish music. It has also been decided to hold a service the Sunday night before Decoration Day in Reform Hall. Among the speakers will be Rev. L. E. Livermore, of New Market, a member of the Post.

TO ENLARGE SUNDAY-SCHOOL

STEPS TAKEN AT TRINITY REFORMED TO MAKE NEEDED ADDITION.

The officers and teachers of Trinity Reformed church Sunday-school held a meeting yesterday afternoon and the needs of an enlarged Sunday-school room to accommodate the growing primary department of the school was presented by Superintendent F. E. Smith, and after a full and free discussion of the subject it was unanimously voted more room must be had, and the superintendent was authorized to explain the needs of the enlargement to the school at an early date and solicit financial aid from every member, by classes, and report the amount thus raised for the enlargement, early in June. The further consideration of the subject will then be presented to the consistory of the church for their action.

Plans for a two-story structure in the rear, will be figured out, using all the ground space owned by the church. This will give the needed room for the primary department of the Sunday-school on the first floor and a pastor's study and a retiring room for the choir on the second floor.

POLICE DEPARTMENT NEWS

MANY CASES IN THE CITY AND BOROUGH COURTS.

City Judge Runyon had a busy hour in court this morning. Annie Finnasy, arrested for drunkenness by Patrolman Overbaugh, received suspended sentence. John Temkovitz, of Aifon Corners, for the same offense, was also released.

Samuel Lastadel and Max Roth, of New York, arrested for stealing a ride on the Central Railroad, were given suspended sentence; William Ingraham for disturbance while in a drunken frenzy was summarily fined $5. Two colored boys, Lawrence Mitchell and William T. Robinson, were charged with stealing coal from the Central Railroad. Sentence was suspended upon Mitchell and Robinson paid a $5 fine.

From Saturday night to last night the borough police had their hands full gathering in drunks and disorderlies of various shades. Twelve prisoners in all will face the recorder tonight. These are the cases: George H. Phoebe, who claims to be a lawyer at 10 Wall street, New York, for panhandling and three young men for insulting women on the street; Frank Putinsky and Moses Oshinsky, for drunkenness; Clarence Waldron, for fighting; George Waldron, for drunkenness; William Godown, for drunkenness and disorder; James Whelan, same charge; Walter Bernardo, for beating his wife, and J. H. Honeyman, for drunkenness.

George Alexander, arrested for disorderly conduct, was brought before Recorder Doud Saturday night. He was fined $5.

CLARKSON SALE POSTPONED.

No Bids Offered and Auction Was Adjourned Until April 27.

No bids were offered at the auction of the Clarkson property on East Front street Saturday afternoon, and the sale was put off until April 27.

Comparatively few people attended the sale, not more than fifteen at the most being present. Those who went there prepared to bid were not ready, apparently, to take on the property except at a decided bargain. Auctioneer Hand announced that the upset price (the figure at which the property would have to start) was $12,000.

Mrs. J. P. Laire, of Crescent avenue, who was seriously ill on Saturday, is reported as being slightly improved, there being a change yesterday for the better.

PLEA FOR RUSSIA IN A LOCAL PULPIT

District Secretary of American
Baptist Missionary Union
Presents Strong Argument.

ASKS FOR FAIR PLAY

DR. C. L. RHOADES SPEAKS AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Japan's Enemy in Present Strife a Much Maligned Foe—What Russia is Doing for Civilization.

C. L. Rhoades, district secretary of the American Baptist Missionary Union of New York, for over an hour last night, held the close attention of one of the largest congregations gathered in recent years for evening service in a local church.

His talk, the keynote of which was a plea for cool and fair judgment of Russia, dealt with a phase of Russian national growth and character which indicates that power as the chief agent, not only in civilizing, but in Christianizing the whole of Asia. Beginning with the exodus of Christians of the Greek church from Constantinople, when that city fell before the Turks, the speaker drew for his audience a vivid mental picture of successful missionary work among the barbarians of the North, which through the development of a common religious footing, fostered closer commercial and political relations between these people, and gradually evolved a national spirit among them. Stress was put upon the fact that all attempts by Russia to secure outlets upon the sea had been rigorously defeated by other European nations. This fact was shown to be the main reason for Russian conquest and expansion in Asia, where she had a free hand for many years and where her territorial growth has always been accompanied by widespread Christianization of the people who come under her sway.

International jealousy, the same motive which caused the fortification of Heligoland to keep her from the Baltic, was advanced as the cause of the more recent and successful diplomatic moves in Afghanistan, Persia and Turkey and also of the stand now taken by Japan, backed by England. Attention was also called to the growth and internal development which had followed each of these repulses, as well as the feeling of hatred which they engendered among Russians against the rest of Europe. The cruelty and tyranny of which writers are so prone to accuse Russia are held by Mr. Rhoades to be more than anything else, the result of European interference which is responsible for the undeveloped national conscience sanctioning such atrocities as the massacre of defenceless Chinese in Manchuria.

Great strides are to be expected of a nation, he declared, which transplants entire villages to remote sections of its territory and aids them in those lines of agricultural and commercial development to which they are particularly adapted, a nation which builds thousands of miles of railroads through practically uninhabited country at enormous expense, laying open at one stroke, half a continent to successful colonization, when that nation combines with her material strength, the pre-eminent position which is occupied by Russia in Asiatic diplomacy and which bids fair to link her and China together as the rulers of Asia.

Mr. Rhoades closed his discourse with an expression of the hope that the nation holding the unique position of connecting link between Europe and Asia, between the civilization of the West and that of the East, might work out her manifest destiny unassailed by either of those civilizations, both of which would be benefited by her maturity.

In the course of his talk, Mr. Rhoades mentioned the substantial support given to foreign missions by the Mennonite church of Southern Russia, these people having contributed many thousands of dollars to the work done by Americans in India.

FATHER CLIFFORD AT ST. MARY'S

London Priest Temporarily
Assisting Here Preaches to a Large Congregation.

HIS ABLE DISCOURSE

NATIVE OF THIS COUNTRY, BUT EDUCATED ABROAD.

Ordained in London, Where He
Has Resided for Ten Years—
Sermon on Parable of the Good Shepherd.

Father Clifford, the temporary successor of Father Delahanty in St. Mary's parish, made his first appearance in the pulpit yesterday morning. He was greeted by a large congregation, at the 10:30 mass, on whom he produced a strong and pleasing impression. Father Clifford will act as assistant to Father Egan for two months, when Father Delahanty is expected to return from his health-seeking trip to Europe.

Although announced as from Englewood, where he was staying, Father Clifford really comes here from London. He is a native of this country, but was largely educated abroad, and was ordained in England. He has lived in London for the past ten years.

Father Clifford's initial sermon was a striking and interesting one on the Parable of the Good Shepherd. In substance he said:

As there had been two contrarily opposed views of the Messiah preached for nearly twelve centuries in Israel; the victorious Messiah, with His political ideals, and the despised and misunderstood Messiah, "slowly leading judgment unto victory," so the historic Christ in His own person seemed to unite the same mysterious opposites. Catholicism, so the preacher insisted, which is identified both in intention and in sacramental life with the mystic Christ, who dwells invisibly with His church, appeared to obey the same mysterious law of contrariety.

There was the impression it created in the minds of its more intelligent observers, who viewed it from without; there was the faith and the enthusiasm it inspired in the hearts of those who viewed it from within. To know it from within, it is necessary first of all to live its life, to obey its austere precepts of conduct, to use its sacramental ordinances wisely and discreetly, to steep the understanding in its dogmas, to refresh the heart with all its various lessons of ritual, of discipline, and of Eucharistic life.

Catholicism, so understood, and so apprehended, was none other than the realization in history of that church that one true church, of which the marks were to be Unity, Holiness, Catholicity and Apostolicity. The preacher quoted largely from the thinkers of the past generation, upon whom Catholicism had laid a kind of spell of the imagination without yet winning the allegiance of their faith.

Father Clifford observed in closing, that the best way to assert the claims of that Catholicism in this world was not by controversy, not by angry debate, or by logical fence, not by persecution; but by endeavoring in all loyalty and sincerity of mind to realize it first as an ideal in its own life and so to commend it in its beauty to an observing world.

In doing this, so the preacher contended, the Catholics of today would but obey that same mysterious instinct of zeal, which the early believers fulfilled when they compelled the thinkers of the pagan world, in the days of Marcus Aurelius to confess that those Christians did indeed love one another, that they were not as the common ruck of men, that behind those rapt faces and those half-hidden lives there lay a secret which the clean of heart would understand. That secret was Christ. Christ, so possessed and made personal in one's own life, constituted Catholicism as a concrete force in the world.

Fire at Mrs. Helstrom's.

ALIS ANNOUNCES ITS NEW LINEUP

George Johnson is Made Manager of the Club's Baseball Team This Season.

STRONG AGGREGATION

M'LEAN AND GRIFFEN ARE TO TWIRL
THE BALL.

Series of Nine Games With Westfield—Johnson to Have Full Charge of the Team and the Schedule of Games.

The new baseball committee from the Alis Club met Saturday night and organized, by electing J. J. Slevin, chairman; W. A. Boone, treasurer; George Johnson, manager, and Benj. A. Mumford. Mr. Mumford will have charge of the grounds. It is proposed to enclose that part of the grounds extending from both ends of the bleachers and additional seating capacity will be provided.

Manager Johnson will not only have full charge of the team, but also the arrangement of the schedule, which will be altered somewhat. Instead of five games between Alis and Westfield, a series of nine games will be fixed, the dates to be announced within a short time. Manager Denman, of Westfield, was at the club Saturday night, but as he did not have his date book with him the new dates could not be decided upon.

This lineup was announced today by Manager Johnson:

McLean, pitcher; Murray, catcher, Hudson River League; Roobe, first base, formerly Manhattan College; Roberts, short-stop, North Ends, Phillipsburg; McArdle, second base, Fleischman, N. Y.; Barry, third base, Murray Hills; Griffen, right field and change pitcher; Gorbhley, centre field and exchange catcher, Pearalls; Kavanagh, left field, Everitt College; Daily, extra, Madison.

This lineup does not include a single member of the Manhattan College team now playing on the college team.

Roberts, who has been signed for short-stop, made a fine record on the North Ends, of Phillipsburg, last year. In four games with the All-Cubans, Vreeland and Ingersolls, he made three runs, five hits and one error. Murray, the catcher, played with Madison last season and in one game with the All-Cubans he caught six out of seven men running between first and second base.

SIXTEEN IN A DRAG HUNT

MERRY SPORT ENJOYED BY PLAINFIELD
RIDERS ON SATURDAY.

A good run to bounds was held Saturday afternoon by sixteen followers of the sport. Conditions were favorable for the chase. The ground was dry and it was good going. The chase was unusually satisfactory over the same route across country as on the preceding Saturday.

The start was at Rockview avenue and Rockview terrace, thence through farms and meadows to Danellen and New Market and back along Seventh street to the finish at Grant avenue. The gallop home was particularly enjoyable. The bounds followed the scent well throughout the chase. The owners of the Cadmus, McMahon and Sorenson farms kindly allowed the party the privileges of their lands.

Those in the party were Dr. M. O'M. Knott, George P. Mallick, Daniel Runkle, Miss Holly, Miss Noel, of Westfield; Miss Cairns, Miss Tredwell, Miss Orliskbank, Mr. Peterson, Irving Clark, Mr. Bourne, of Cranford; Mr. Bellows, E. A. Shebbeare, Mr. Webster and Charles Irmay, of New York, and Percy Nelson.

The next drag hunt will take place Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The start will be at the Crescent Avenue church.

Mrs. M. A. Rogers Dead.

Mrs. Mary A. Rogers, daughter of Herman and Nancy Hull and wife of C. Benedict Rogers, died yesterday at her home in Tampa, Florida. She was born near Utica, N. Y., and had lived in the South several years. She will be buried in Hillside cemetery on Wednesday.

The Bell is Silent.

Boroughites are commenting on the absence of the time ring from the fire bell, which has not sounded the hour for a number of days. The clock has been moved to the new house, and the time will not be rung until the new batteries are installed.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

E. N. Ryder, of Falmouth, Mass., is the guest of Charles Vincent, of West Third street.

David Thoman, of West Dunellen, has resigned his position from the Potter Press Company's works.

Henry Kline, of the Manganese Steel Safe Company's plant, is in St. Louis, on business for the firm.

Sam Clouston has left for the St. Louis Exposition where he will be in charge of the Manganese Steel Safe Company's exhibit.

After being closed down since December, the 225 ovens of Frick & Company's plant at Dorothy, Pa., will be fired up this week.

Alexander Muir, of the Pedrick-Ayer plant, will sing a new solo in the Hope Chapel Minstrels, at Reform Hall, tomorrow night. The song is entitled "Blue Bells."

A horse belonging to Dick Thomas, of the Potter plant, died of lockjaw last week. Mr. Thomas recently purchased the animal from Jack Entwistle, of Rockview Heights.

The strike begun two weeks ago by the Elevator Constructors' Union in New York has ended in the acceptance of an arbitration plan and the men have returned to work.

Trade being dull in this city, many of the local machinists are talking of going to St. Louis. It is reported that business in this line is encouraging all through the West especially in the vicinity of the Fair.

Ben. Davier, of West Fifth street, is slowly recovering from an injury which he received, at the Potter plant, over a year ago. Mr. Davier fell and injured his knee cap, but did not think anything of the mishap at the time. The injury became worse, and finally a silver plate was ordered by the doctor. At present the lad is able to walk around a little, but it will be some time before he will return to work.

The regular meeting of the Potter Press Company's Mutual Aid Society was held in Knights of Columbus Hall, Saturday night. Thomas Force was elected a member of the auditing committee to fill the unexpired term of Charles Meyer, who has resigned from the Potter plant and is no longer a member of the society. One amendment to the constitution was adopted, which read as follows: "Any member found imposing on the society will be dropped from the roll." The treasurer, David Krymer, reported the society in prosperous condition. Mr. Krymer states that it is in better shape financially than ever.

HEARST MEN STILL ACTIVE

BOLTERS' DELEGATES READY FOR CONTEST AT ST. LOUIS.

Hearst men in this city and throughout the State are still asserting themselves. Their claim now is that some of their delegates were unseated wrongfully. A Trenton Hearst leader asserts that "there were enough Hearst delegates elected throughout the State to have named delegates at large." He said that a fight would be made at St. Louis for each district in which, he alleges, Hearst men were elected and not seated. He makes charges of machine methods and says that Hearst delegates did not bolt the convention. They simply left, he says. A scheduled meeting of the Hearst Club in this city was called off Friday night.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Washington Tours.

The Pennsylvania Railroad's eighth three-day personally-conducted tour to Washington will leave New York, Brooklyn, Newark, Elizabeth and Trenton, April 28. Round-trip rates—only difference being in the hotel selected in Washington—are $12 and $14.50 from New York, $10.50 or $18 from Trenton, and proportionate rates from other points. Tickets cover railroad transportation for the round trip and hotel accommodations. A special side trip to Mt. Vernon may also be taken. All tickets are good for ten days, with special hotel rates at expiration of hotel coupon. For itineraries and full information apply to Ticket Agents; Tourist Agents, 263 Fifth avenue, New York; 4 Court street, Brooklyn; or Gen. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad street station, Philadelphia, Pa. 482m

—The Department of Banking and Insurance has filed a schedule with the State Board of Assessors, showing that the amount of tax to be paid by the three New Jersey life insurance companies is $243,204, an increase of about $20,000 over last year.

—W. G. DeMeza, Esq., of this city, is attorney for Henry D. Brewster in contract cases against Charles D. Solace and Whitkey Brothers, the latter of Seawaren. Both will come up for trial this week before Justice Ross, of Woodbridge. Mr. Stricker, of Woodbridge represents the defendants.

ALBANY CONVENTION

Battle Royal Unparalleled in State Politics.

TAMMANY MAY BE READ OUT.

Insertion Made That Unless Opposition to Parker Delegates Is Withdrawn War Will Be Declared by Hill.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 18.—If the policy adopted by the friends of Judge Alton B. Parker, at whose head stands former United States Senator David B. Hill, is carried out at the sessions of the Democratic state convention opened here today, there is likely to be a battle royal which has not had a parallel in state political conventions for many years. Since the Saratoga convention of 1900, when General Charles N. Bulger of Oswego, representing Senator Hill, putting his finger almost under the nose of Richard Croker, denounced Tammany Hall and its politics, Tammany has waited as an organization to present its compliments to Mr. Hill, and, although it is perfectly apparent that the interests dominated by Mr. Hill control a large majority of the convention's vote, it is a foregone conclusion that such orators as Bourke Cockran, Thomas F. Grady, Charles A. Towne and Victor Dowling on the floor of the convention will personally accuse Mr. Hill of attempting to wreck the party.

These are not statements of mere supposition, for, although Leader Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall will not say a word, and, although former Senator Hill is equally reticent, those who are extremely close to them are making definitely these assertions:

First, in behalf of Mr. Hill that unless Tammany withdraws what he calls a useless opposition to the instruction of the state delegation for Judge Parker Tammany will be practically read out of the convention, delegations in its favor outside of Manhattan refused a seat in the convention and Tammany as a body not allowed to name a national delegate at large.

Second, in behalf of Mr. Murphy, as representing Tammany Hall, that New York has met defeat in national conventions only when it has instructed its delegation and that the fact that the party platform and policy are as yet so vaguely defined that it is unwise to send an instructed delegation; that Tammany, casting the greatest proportion of the Democratic vote in the state, is entitled to name a delegate at large; that a Democratic state committee should not be elected at this convention, but the matter should wait until the fall convention, when state issues are particularly dominant.

Chairman Campbell has received the following reply from Don M. Dickinson of Michigan to his dispatch protesting against Mr. Dickinson's statements relative to Judge Parker:

"I had gone to my country place at the time of the receipt of your very kind and courteous dispatch. I immediately telegraphed the following dispatch to the chief judge and to the newspapers, with copy of your telegram:

"I beg to withdraw my published statement that you participated in the political campaign of 1888, as I am advised that you were then a Justice of the supreme court of New York, elected in 1886 by a unanimous vote. My apology is not needed, but I tender it with the utmost sincerity for making the statement, and by it I wish as well to correct any one who has in any degree been influenced by it to change his and the universal respect in which you have been and are held in the minds of all your countrymen, including myself."

It has been intimated for some time that Frank Campbell would retire from the chairmanship and would be succeeded by John N. Carlisle of Watertown. It is said, however, that while Mr. Campbell could retain the position if he desired, he was not anxious to shoulder the arduous duty of conducting the difficult and exacting state campaign and that Melvin Z. Haven of Syracuse is favored by Senator Hill as Mr. Campbell's successor.

A committee headed by Senator Dowling and including also Joseph Cassidy of Long Island City, Louis F. Haffen and Muller of New York waited on Senator Hill and asked that the up state men who voted on the Merz matter with Tammany at the late state committee meeting should not be disciplined, inasmuch as they did so doubtless in good faith. Senator Hill in his reply was exceedingly noncommittal and told the committee that the districts would take care of that matter. It is generally believed that the men are slated to go.

Play to Aid Missouri Victims. WASHINGTON, April 18.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, has taken a box for the society play given this afternoon for the benefit of the families of the victims of the Missouri disaster. Although the Russian nation is in mourning for the Port Arthur disaster, the ambassador has consented for his daughter, the Countess Cassini, to take part in the play. The Austria-Hungarian ambassador also will be in the cast, and practically every embassy and legation in Washington will be represented in the play.

Plot Against Loubet. ROME, April 18.—Judging from the information which it has received the Italian government considers as groundless the plot alleged to have been hatched by Michael Giovanni and two other Italians who were arrested at Marseilles in connection with a supposed plot to kill President Loubet during his forthcoming Italian visit.

DISASTROUS FIRES.

Indianapolis Hotel and Hospital Burn.

ONE DEAD, MANY INJURED IN PANIC

Occidental Hotel Blaze Threatened Retail District—Guests Had Narrow Escape—St. Vincent Hospital Patients Became Frantic.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 18.—While the city fire department, reinforced by companies from the suburbs, was being taxed to its utmost fighting the Occidental hotel fire here an alarm was turned in from St. Vincent's hospital. When the first fire company arrived one life had been lost, and several were seriously injured in the panic that followed. Harriet Leahy jumped from the fourth floor and was instantly killed.

The injured are: Miss Kate Beach, believed to be fatally injured by falling from the third floor while trying to escape by means of a rope made of bed clothing; Sister Superior Stella, seriously injured by shock following a surgical operation; Sister Nordica, seriously injured by shock; William Schneider, a patient, who at the time of the fire was undergoing an operation; Henry Nicholas, just operated upon for appendicitis, who ran downstairs.

Several other nurses and attendants were more or less injured in their endeavor to escape from what they thought would be instant death. The panic that raged on the third and fourth floors continued until long after the fire had been extinguished. Many of the patients who had recently undergone operations became frantic and made violent efforts to escape. The attending physicians are fearful that fatalities will result to those whose wounds from operations had not yet healed.

The fire at the Occidental hotel, which for almost two hours threatened to destroy the principal retail district, was discovered at an early hour. Every fire company in the city as well as those from the outlying suburbs was summoned. The house was filled with guests, and a panic was narrowly averted. There were many narrow escapes from flames and suffocation, the inmates being compelled to leave the building clad only in their night robes. The hotel fronts for half a block on Illinois street. The total loss is estimated at $75,000, including losses to business houses on the ground floor of the building.

Memorial Service For Dead Sailors. NEWPORT, R. I., April 18.—Naval officers, sailors and seamen boys to the number of 1000

memorial services at the naval training station at Coasters Harbor Island in honor of the sailors who lost their lives in the accident on the battleship Missouri. The memorial address was made by Chaplain William S. Cassard, U. S. N. Chaplain Cassard said the men who lost their lives on the Missouri had not lived in vain. "They gave their lives," he declared, "in the cause of perfect marksmanship, and this is a most vital consideration in the development of a powerful and efficient navy—a navy that commands the respect of the world." The chaplain paid a tribute to the action of Chief Gunner's Mate Monson and complimented President Roosevelt on his message of sympathy.

Missouri Disaster Inquiry Court.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The navy department has received a dispatch from Rear Admiral A. S. Barker, commanding the north Atlantic fleet, giving the personnel of the court of inquiry that is engaged in making an investigation of the cause of the recent accident on the Missouri. They are Rear Admiral Chadwick, president of the court; Captain Joseph N. Hemphill, commanding the Kearsarge, and Commander William H. H. Southerland, commanding the Cleveland, with Lieutenant Mark Bristol as judge advocate. It is expected that the court will complete its inquiry the present week, and on its findings will depend whether further proceedings are to be had.

Three Killed on Track.

ALLEN TOWN, Pa., April 18.—George Clauser, aged forty; Edith M. Metzler, aged fifteen, and Stella Knauss, aged seventeen, were struck and instantly killed by a Reading railway passenger train near their home near Macungie. Miss Metzler's sister Annie saved her life by jumping aside. The party had attended a church service in Macungie and were taking a short cut home by walking on the railroad track. The noise of a passing freight train prevented them hearing the approaching passenger train.

Kaiser Will Meet Loubet.

ROME, April 18.—Emperor William is credited with having indicated that he would be willing to meet President Loubet during his Mediterranean cruise. The emperor, accompanied by fifteen members of his suit, dined with Mrs. Robert Goelt on board the latter's steam yacht Nahma. The emperor expressed himself as delighted with the event and said he wished the empress were with him to share his pleasure.

Walter L. Hatfield, Jr., and Phillip Jahn left Saturday for a short trip through New England. They will visit friends in Worcester and Boston.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Tenderfoot," at the New York Theatre, is the greatest comic musical hit of the latter part of the current season. Richard Oarle, as the Vermont professor, conducting a party of girl tourists through the Southwest, has greatly added to the wide reputation as a humorous entertainer he made while connected with the New York Casino, where he played important comedy roles in the musical reviews which made this house so popular in "the old days." In his present vehicle he is surrounded by a remarkably able company of over 100 people, the largest part unusually pretty and talented girls, all of whom are required to do more effective work than merely pose about the stage. "The Tenderfoot" is a real novelty in story, locale of scenes and characterization and contains a wealth of popular music and specialties which would make even a less meritorious piece a big go. This attraction will remain but a short time longer at the New York, previous contracts making another extension of its run impossible.

In keeping with Mr. Proctor's policy of making an occasional revival of a Shakespearean play, "The Taming of the Shrew" will be offered at the Fifth Avenue Theatre this week. The revival will be scrupulously staged, special settings for each scene now being on the paint frames, and every detail will be looked after with careful attention. The cast will comprise Lotta Lindholm, Gerald Griffin, Vernon Clarges, William Beach (especially engaged as "Petruchio") Hugh Ford, Albert Roberts, H. Dudley Hawley, Loretta Healy, etc. In the vaudeville section Hale and Frances, hoop rollers and club jugglers, will present a novel specialty. One of the features of the act is Mr. Hale's specialty on the running globe, in which he turns a complete somersault carrying the globe with him. Smith and Bowman, black face comedians, will offer a unique specialty, while Josephine Ainsley will sing rag time songs.

To Tell Jefferson's Theories. Newark Democrats will have an opportunity of hearing Assemblyman Swackhamer, of North Plainfield, discuss Jeffersonian Democracy tonight at the Jeffersonian Club of Newark.

Plainfield, N. J., April 18, 1904.

After all has been said and written about him, the one great achievement of Parker has been his ability to keep silence since his name was first mentioned for the Democratic party nomination.

The New York State Democrats are at odds over the length of the platform to be adopted today. Size shouldn't out much figure. What the people expect to see is the usual bunch of "We view with alarm," "we point with pride" and "we arraign with indignation" and half a dozen other standbys.

It is estimated that $1,000,000,000 annually are spent on advertising in the United States. A good second is the insurance business with almost $1,000,000,000. Though the United States stands foremost in the world as regards advertising, both in quantity and quality, there is still much to be learned from other countries, and some things that we will probably avoid. Very many marriages take place in Germany as the result of advertising, but it is not likely that this branch of the industry will find widespread favor here. In Vienna any one who makes misrepresentations in an advertisement is liable to fall under the ban of the law. No such safeguard is afforded to the American public.—Retailer and Advertiser.

HIS FIRST PLAY SUCCESSFUL

CHARLES BATTALL LOOMIS' FARCE
RENDERED AT FANWOOD.

A large audience greeted "A Tramp at Home," Saturday evening at the Fanwood Club House. The play has never before been presented, in fact, it is the first play that Charles Battall Loomis has ever written, and it is hoped that it will not be the last.

Not only the play but the performance were received with interest. It was a clever farce. An enjoyable bit of character portrayal was the impersonation of "Arties Artie," by Mr. Loomis himself. Miss Elizabeth Kye essayed the role of Mrs. Buckle and carried it to a successful finish. Mr. Beardsley, as George Buckle, acted with ease and spirit seldom exhibited by an amateur.

The other parts were well played by J. H. Thompson, Miss Nichols, Miss Babcock and Miss Ethel Kye. Miss Nichols' piano playing added materially to the success of the evening as did also a recitation by Miss Janet Carter.

Mr. Beardsley, who has a remarkable tenor voice, sang Johnson's "Teach Me Thy Charn," and delighted the audience with his sympathetic manner and delicacy of phrasing.

New Apartment House.
Morris Abrams and Marx Weinberger, owners of the old hospital building on Mahlenberg place, have received from Inspector T. O. Doane a permit to make alterations to the building. Two extensions to the building will be separated from the main portion and made into an apartment house for four families. The extensions will be moved about 250 feet east of Mahlenberg place to Second street.

ROOSEVELT AND CIVIL SERVICE.

Chairman Gillett's Statement Regarding Appointments.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Chairman Gillett of the house committee on civil service reform recently wrote Mr. W. D. Foulke, former civil service commissioner, calling his attention to recent congressional and other criticisms of President Roosevelt "on the ground that he has made a larger number of irregular appointments to the classified service than any of his predecessors" and in view of the fact that the period covered was while Mr. Foulke was commissioner asking his opinion as to the charges. In reply Mr. Foulke, under date of April 15, wrote:

"The fact is exactly the other way. There have been fewer appointments without competitive examination under President Roosevelt than under any other president, and there has been no administration since the passage of the civil service act in which the competitive system has advanced with greater rapidity and certainty. It has been necessary for every president to permit certain positions to be filled without examination. The number has been reduced from time to time and the range of the competitive system extended. This process has gone on faster under President Roosevelt than under any other president."

FIRST AMERICAN NEWSPAPER.

The Boston News-Letter, Issued in 1704.

BOSTON, April 18.—The present week marks the two hundredth anniversary of the American press, and the bicentennial is commemorated upon generally by Boston papers, the first American newspaper having been published in this city.

The first newspaper to establish itself in the colonies was the Boston News-Letter, which issued its first number in the week of April 17-24, 1704. It consisted of a sheet 7 by 10 1/2 inches, printed on both sides, two columns to the page. Its editor was John Campbell, postmaster of Boston. For fifteen years the News-Letter was the only newspaper in the colonies of Great Britain in America. Philadelphia was the second American city to establish a newspaper, in 1719, and New York third, in 1725. At the present time there are more than 21,000 newspapers in the United States.

The Globe has figured out, with the assistance of the statisticians of the Massachusetts state bureau of statistics of labor, that at the same rate of increase in its population that has prevailed in the past two centuries Boston, which in 1704 had a population of 7,000 and now has 617,913, would have 200 years hence a population of 54,108,884.

JACK TARS AND POLICE.

Riot at Pensacola in Which an Artilleryman Met Death.

PENSACOLA, Fla., April 18.—In a riot here between police and bluejackets from the warships and a few artillerymen from Fort Barancas Private Banks, Seventh artillery, was instantly killed and four bluejackets from the Iowa and Alabama were wounded, though not seriously.

The riot started over the arrest of a bluejacket. Three policemen were at the patrol call box when a petty officer from one of the ships blew a whistle signal used on the ships for the men to assemble. Fully 300 gathered and rushed the policemen.

Two of the policemen backed away from the crowd, firing as fast as possible at the advancing bluejackets, who were hurling stones, bottles and other missiles at them. It was during this shooting that the artilleryman was killed. Re-enforcements from the police station arrived at this juncture and partly dispersed the bluejackets. Later, owing to many threats by the men from the warships to kill the policemen, Rear Admiral Barker ordered the marine guard from two of the ships ashore, and they quelled the riot and prevented further trouble.

Fatal Auto Accident.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 18.—Dr. George C. Elghme, a prominent dentist of this city, will doubtless lose his life as the result of an automobile accident here. Mr. Elghme lost control of his machine, and it went over a stone wall at the side of the road near the Fairfield town line, throwing him, the only occupant, into a lot on the other side of the wall, the automobile finally landing on top of him. Several of the doctor's ribs were fractured, and one of his ribs punctured his left lung. He was picked up in an unconscious condition by trolley car employees and carried to his home, where it was said that his death was expected at any time.

Grant's Daughter Got Her Jewels.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Jewelry valued at several thousand dollars, which was lost on Saturday by Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris, daughter of the late General Grant, was returned to her at the Holland House, with the exception of one or two small pieces of minor importance. The man who returned the gems explained that he had found them on West Twenty-third street at about the time when Mrs. Sartoris was shopping there.

Governor Bates Favors Y. M. C. A.

WORCESTER, Mass., April 18.—Governor John L. Bates was the principal speaker at the fortieth anniversary celebration of the Y. M. C. A. in Mechanics' hall before 2,200 people. His excellency spoke of the great value of associations for young men and said the state is doing splendid work in this respect, building schoolhouses and establishing libraries and creating public parks and recreation grounds.

The VanDeusen Cake Moulds

which are the only simple, practical and durable cake moulds made. They require no greasing, because they have openings at the bottom covered with slides through which a knife is inserted and the cake loosened from the mould. Being made solid they do not get out of order and leak the batter like the loose-bottom pans do. Everybody is welcome to this Cooking School. Orders taken for cakes.

PANIC AT SUNGJIN

Five Thousand Cossacks Will Divert Japs From the Yalu.

JAPANESE REGRETS FOR MAKAROFF

Korean Emperor Will Rebuild a Temporary Palace—Captain of the Mandjur Went Down in the Petropavlovsk.

LONDON, April 18.—A Seoul report says the Governor of the province of Hamgyung, in northeastern Korea, wires that a force of Cossacks has appeared near Sungjin. The consul at Sungjin became frightened and wired Japanese Minister Hayashi for a vessel to carry away Japanese residents. A steamer sent from Gensan has arrived at Sungjin and embarked the refugees.

It is said that 5,000 Russians are following the advance of the Cossacks with the intention of diverting the Japanese from the Yalu river, but this is hardly credible owing to the possibility of the Japanese landing and cutting them off.

There is no information here as to whether the two English missionaries at Sungjin have left there, but there are no fears for their safety.

Japanese refugees are arriving at Gensan.

The emperor has decided to rebuild only temporarily on the site of the burned palace. The building will be of foreign style. A stone building under construction will replace the once beautiful audience hall, now smoldering ashes.

A report has been received that Port Arthur was bombarded all day Friday and that the action was continued Saturday.

It is said at St. Petersburg that on the eve of the disaster to the Petropavlovsk Vice Admiral Makaroff telegraphed to the emperor that he was about to fight a decisive action with the enemy's fleet.

A court story told here is that on hearing of the catastrophe to Makaroff the emperor wept, and referring to Viceroy Alexieff, exclaimed, "That man brings us nothing but ill luck." It is also alleged that the emperor was with difficulty dissuaded from removing the viceroy from his post.

Captain Crown, who went down with the Petropavlovsk, joined that ship on the previous day, having succeeded in getting through from Shanghai, where he left his vessel, the gunboat Mandjur. Captain Crown was a descendant of a Scotchman who fought with Russia in the war with Sweden, when he captured the first Retvizan.

A dispatch from Port Arthur says several eyewitnesses assert that a Japanese cruiser has been lost outside of Port Arthur by striking one of its own floating mines.

Advices from Tokyo say that the Japanese are elated over the successes they have won at Port Arthur. They are also proud of the achievements of Vice Admiral Togo, particularly of his newest strategy of countermine the enemy's harbor and deceiving him across this field of mines to an equally dangerous flank attack.

The success of the system of placing deadly countermine is due largely to a series of careful observations made by the Japanese during their previous attacks on Port Arthur. The Japanese saw the Russian fleet leave the harbor and return to it several times, and they discovered that the Russian warships followed an identical course every time they came out or went in, evidently for the purpose of avoiding their own mines. The Japanese took bearings on this course. When the destroyer divisions of the Japanese torpedo flotilla laid the countermine during the night of April 12-13 they placed them along this course. The laying of these countermine was exceedingly perilous, because if any Japanese boat with mines on board had been struck by a lucky Russian shot she would have been annihilated.

The weather of the night of April 12-13 favored the work. There was a heavy rain, the night was dark and cloudy, and the Russian searchlights playing over the channel failed to reveal the presence of the Japanese destroyers.

Rear Admiral Dewa was in command of the Japanese squadron which decoyed the Russian ships over the field of mines. His squadron consisted of the cruisers Chitose, Yoshino, Kasagi and Takasago, all unarmored vessels, which presented a tempting bait for the heavier Russian ships.

Vice Admiral Togo directed the flank attack. He had the battleships Hatsuse, Mikasa, Asahi, Shikishima, Yamashiro and Fuji. He waited thirty miles out at sea until Rear Admiral Dewa signalled him by wireless telegraphy to come in. His vessels then dashed at full speed toward the entrance of the harbor. All the battleships under Vice Admiral Togo are capable of a speed of eighteen knots, and they quickly covered the distance. It is not clear what warned the Russians that they had been trapped, but they probably discerned the battleship squadron on the horizon and retreated precipitately to the harbor. Vice Admiral Togo did not succeed in preventing the Russians from entering, but did force them to a disastrous retreat, which ended in the destruction of the Petropavlovsk and the disabling of the Pobieda. After these occurrences the cruisers Nishin and Kasuga were used to bombard Port Arthur. They possess the highest angled guns in the fleet, capable of throwing shells to the elevated Russian land works, which are beyond attainment by the average naval weapon.

Vice Admiral Togo calls this attack on Port Arthur the eighth, whereas here it is numbered seventh. A probable explanation is that Vice Admiral Togo regards the latest operation as two distinct attacks.

Expressions of regret at the death of Vice Admiral Makaroff are general here. Speaking for the naval staff, Commander Ogasawara has published a lengthy statement, in which he laments the death of the Russian vice admiral and pronounces it to be a loss to the navy of the world. Commander Ogasawara reviews the life, professional career and the personal attributes of Vice Admiral Makaroff and declares that he is entitled to be classed with the best admirals in the world.

The Koryu Maru, which participated in the latest attack on Port Arthur, is a torpedo depot ship, under the command of Commander Oda. Oda is a mine expert, and the success of the Japanese countermine operations was due largely to his ingenuity and bravery.

The Japanese report that the wreck of the Petropavlovsk lies southeast of Golden Hill, one mile outside the entrance to the harbor.

It is reported from St. Petersburg that the last Japanese torpedo flotilla attack on Port Arthur was intended to cover a landing from nine transports at Shwangtaise, twenty miles southwest of Takushan, with a view of cutting off the retreat of the Port Arthur troops to Siuyen and Kaiping, destroying the railway and preventing troops stationed in southern Liaotung effecting a junction with the main Russian forces concentrated at Liaoyang and Mukden. The execution of this operation only failed owing to the fact that all places on the peninsula suitable for the landing of troops are protected by mines, well fortified and strongly guarded.

Rumors at Port Arthur say that twenty Japanese transports conveying troops have been sighted steaming in the direction of Yinkow. They cannot be confirmed.

The Russians impatiently await a Japanese landing.

Viceroy Alexieff has hoisted his flag on the battleship Sevastopol.

The Easter gifts received from the grand duchesses have been distributed to the soldiers and sailors.

TOGO'S REPORT.

Makaroff's Flagship Struck Jap Mine Laid During the Night.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Japanese legation has received the following cablegram:

"Admiral Togo reports that the combined fleet, as previously planned, commenced on the 11th of April the eighth attack on Port Arthur. The fourth and the fifth torpedo boat destroyer flotillas and the fourteenth torpedo boat flotilla and the Kero Maru reached the mouth of Port Arthur at midnight of the 12th and effected the laying of mines at several points outside of the port, defying the enemy's searchlights."

"In the early morning Admiral Makaroff, with the Novik, Askold, Diana, Petropavlovsk, Pobieda and Poltava, came out and made an offensive attack. Our third fleet, hardly answering and gradually retiring, enticed the enemy fifteen miles southeast of the port, when our first fleet, informed through wireless telegraphy from the third fleet, suddenly appeared before the enemy and attacked them. While the enemy was trying to regain the port a battleship of the Petropavlovsk type struck mines laid by us the previous evening and sank at 10:32 a. m."

"Although another ship was observed to have lost freedom of movement, the confusion of the enemy's ships prevented us from identifying her. They finally managed to regain the port. Our third fleet suffered no damage and the enemy's damage besides above mentioned probably slight also."

Bryan Still Bennett's Executor. NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 18.—A decision denying in effect the application for the removal of William J. Bryan as executor of the estate of the late Philo S. Bennett has been rendered by Judge L. W. Cleveland in the probate court. The application was brought by counsel for Mrs. Grace Imogene Bennett, the widow, and other residuary legatees on the ground that Mr. Bryan was acting contrary to the interests of the estate. The decision sustains a demurrer filed by Mr. Bryan's counsel and practically denies the application as far as the probate court is concerned. The matter will now go to the higher court on appeal.

Military Honors Paid Wiechert. DANBURY, Conn., April 18.—Thousands of persons crowded into the depot and along the central streets of this city on the arrival of the body of Lieutenant E. A. Wiechert, who was killed in the explosion on the battleship Missouri off Pensacola, Fla. The body arrived at the depot at 8:30, and it was with difficulty that the members of Company G, Third regiment, escorted it to the First Congregational church on account of the great crowds that were in the streets and which lined the sidewalks.

No Clue to Slayer. WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 18.—James Cassal, an Italian, twenty-nine years of age, was found murdered at his home in Forty Fort, three miles from here. He had been struck with an ax, which lay by his side. His body was mutilated in a horrible manner. The police have no clue to the murderer.

Bulgaria Aground at Schulan. HAMBURG, April 18.—The Hamburg-American line steamer Bulgaria, Captain Russ, from Hamburg for New York, which ran aground at Schulan, is expected to be hauled off with little damage.

When the creative power has made a chunk of putty into the shape of a man or woman and breathed the breath of life into it, what are you going to do about it? What can it ever be but a chunk of putty still?

Be good, sweet man, and let who will be clever.

It is a feather in the cap of American women that the first portrait the dowager empress of China ever permitted an artist to print of her is the work of an American girl, Miss Kate Carl. Miss Carl lived for a time in Tsi An's palace at Peking, and Tsi An, dressed in her robes of state, gave sittings to the young white woman. The portrait will be on exhibition at the St. Louis fair.

About that "beauty luncheon" in Chicago over which so many newspaper people have sharpened their wits—it is a fine idea, really. We ought to have such luncheons oftener. Everything that tends to make woman care less for mere clothes for the body and more for the perfection and ideal beauty of the body itself ought to be fostered and encouraged.

It rests almost wholly with a woman herself whether she shall get too old for money earning occupations. If she controls her temper and her silly nerves and takes care of her body and, above all, never slumps down and quits, she can continue to work as long as she needs to. Just simply let her not give up or heed the foolish suggestions that she is "too old" to do this or that. A woman can keep young by intelligence and will power.

Be careful what you write in letters. Speak what you please, but what is written is written. It stands for or against you in black and white.

Can you sharpen a lead pencil or a penknife properly? If you can't, then learn. Woman will never be man's equal till she can sharpen a lead pencil and a penknife.

Grit and perseverance conquer every time.

Why is it that wealthy women always are so philanthropically and patronizingly anxious to have poor girls learn to be cooks and dressmakers and laundresses?

Some women writers and speakers appear to think housework is perfectly glorious—for other women to do.

A statistician has found out that this country contains nearly three times as many widows as widowers. Is this because the widows cannot get husbands or because they don't want them?

If a fire breaks out around where you are, don't faint, have hysterics, jump out of a fourth story window or otherwise make an idiot of yourself. Just keep your head on and try to be of some use.

The silly season has already begun. That perhaps is the reason for an English woman's writing in a silly little magazine an alleged explanation of why women like "masterful men." Women do not like "masterful men" in the domestic sphere, not even in England! A woman admires a man who can master fate, circumstance, misfortune or an unruly horse, but when it comes to trying his masterfulness on her—not much! A woman is not a slave or a horse or a circumstance.

ELIZA ARCHARD CONNER.

THE NEW WOMAN

Suffrage in Australia

A LADY who lives and votes and has her being in Australia, where her sex has full suffrage, lately visited America and gave some addresses. In a speech in Boston she said, "We have found it is better to fence the precipice at the top than to wait at the bottom with an ambulance." So far as working real reforms, municipal and otherwise, the woman who cannot vote can now only wait at the bottom of the precipice with an ambulance, no matter how capable and public spirited she is. All the world lets her take care of the sick and poor. But if she had a vote she could do much to prevent sickness, crime and poverty. Meantime here are some of the things the ballot has done for the feminine sex in Australia: It has established a new department of government, the children's council, which sees that in all court cases children get justice and kindness and a fair chance; it has abolished child labor altogether; in the factories the sanitary conditions have been greatly improved, and all the employees get a Saturday half holiday; in the postoffice department, where women clerks received $300 a year before they had a vote, they now get $550; before women voted women teachers in the public schools got less pay than men for the same work, while now the salaries are the same to both for the like grade of work. Since women have had the ballot the men of Australia have discovered that the world is for woman, too, and that women are somebody as well as themselves. Meantime, while in monarchical Australia women have all their rights as human beings, in the so called free republic of the United States women still wait with an ambulance at the bottom of the precipice everywhere except in four states.

When the creative power has made a chunk of putty into the shape of a man or woman and breathed the breath of life into it, what are you going to do about it? What can it ever be but a chunk of putty still?

Be good, sweet man, and let who will be clever.

MONTCLAIR ACADEMY BEATEN

LEAL'S TEAM WON GAME, SCORE BEING 3 TO 2.

The Leal School baseball team played an exciting game with the Montclair Military Academy on Orescent Oval, Saturday afternoon. Although the wind was blowing in almost hurricane fashion across the field, a good game resulted and the home team won by a score of 3 to 2. Only six innings were played as the Montclair boys were anxious to catch the 5:45 train for home.

Robert Abbott pitched an excellent game for the home team. He had plenty of speed and good control and during the four innings he was in the box he had his opponents at his mercy, they failing to score. A split finger interfered with Lovell's work and was his hit freely.

FAIR ESTATE IS SETTLED

MRS. HANNAH NELSON GETS $130,000—OTHER HEIRS GET SOMETHING.

Superior Judge Cook at San Francisco on Saturday ordered the final distribution of the estate of the late Charles L. Fair, which was appraised at $3,040,000, to the two sisters of the deceased, Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt. The sum of $130,000 is to be held out for the purpose of meeting various claims. Attorneys' fees and other claims amounting to over $200,000, already allowed, are also to be paid out of the estate.

After taking testimony to prove that no child had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fair, the judge decreed that they had died without issue.

During the proceedings Charles E. Neal testified that $130,000 had been paid to Mrs. Nelson, of New Market, the mother of Mrs. Fair. The matter of the estate of Mrs. Caroline D. Fair came up on the petition of Mrs. Jenny Harvey for the distribution of her share, including Mrs. Fair's jewelry and other personal belongings. This partial distribution was ordered and the final distribution will be made later. The bulk of this estate eventually will go to the sisters of Charles Fair, the Nelsons' claim being compromised.

KEPT MARRIAGE SECRET.

Miss Jeanette Zimmer Became Mrs. Rose in December.

Miss Jeanette Zimmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zimmer, of 153 Manning avenue, North Plainfield, was wedded to Augustus H. Rose, of 145 Manning avenue, on December 13, 1903, the marriage being kept a secret until now. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Rev. William Hoppough, of Springfield, N. J. Mr. Rose is employed at Warnock's bakery, on West Front street.

Rural Delivery Runaway. Without its driver, the rural free delivery wagon in charge of Leslie Tingley, was dragged behind its runaway horse shortly after noon today. The horse travelled along West Front street to Oxford place where William Brokaw blocked its passage. Patrolman Higgins took it in charge. The horse's hind leg was badly out.

Mr. Fowler Removes. Benjamin Fowler, of Kensington avenue, who has been in business for several months at Amboy, removed to that place today.

UNABLE TO ACCOMMODATE.

Millionaire Wanted Cash After Banking Hours—Time Locks Wouldn't Yield to Even His Credit.

A well known millionaire hastily entered a few days ago the bank where he carried a large deposit, says the New York Evening Post. He had left his pocketbook home and wanted cash. The bank was sorry, but could not accommodate him. It was past four o'clock, the vaults were closed and the executive staff had gone home.

The subordinate officers held a quick council, and one of them thus described the result:

"We piled up every cent we had in our clothes, then we went through the clerks and had every man in the establishment turn his pockets inside out. The customer was many times a millionaire, and could secure from us any day whatever sum he needed. But the time locks were set, and the best we could do was $50 in cash. He stuffed the roll in his pocket and hurriedly went on his way. We did not even ask for a memorandum, knowing that he detested details, and that a subsequent word with his secretary was all that would be needed to reimburse the bank."

The incident may be taken as illustrating, first, the limit which is drawn in the control of banks by great financiers, of which so much has been lately heard; second, the advisability of presenting checks before three p. m., and, third, the absorbing power of great wealth and credit over the surplus cash of small capitalists.

SAW A BUILDING MOUNTAIN

Landslide from Top of Hill Made Shale Red Hot—Smoke Issued from Ground.

A party of geologists recently made an interesting find in the Arbuckle mountains. They struck, says the Kansas City Journal, a small creek in the mountains, followed down its course and came finally to a place where they saw some smoke issuing from the foot of a tree near the creek bed, and from a streak running up the side of a hill.

When the party came opposite the place they saw that the smoke was issuing from the ground. Upon careful investigation the following was found: There had been a landslide from the top of the hill, which was here like a cliff, and ran up 200 feet or more. The cliff was composed of a shale rock, dark, chert-like substance. In falling this had lodged below and piled against the side of the cliff, while the outer edge ran out to the edge of the creek. The distance from the cliff side to the creek bed was nearly 100 yards. An enormous quantity of this shale had by a slide been placed in the position described.

From the foot of the tree smoke issued from a crevice about two feet wide and running about 100 yards up the slope to the side of the cliff. Another small fork projected before it reached the cliff. The shale on top, whence the smoke and steam were issuing, was light in color. Upon digging down two feet or more the shale was found to be red hot.

HUMANITY OF MAN SHOWN

Crowd Only Wanted a Leader to Pitch In and Help Horses Start Their Load.

A pair of horses were struggling to haul a heavily laden sledge into one of the side streets crossing Westminster, says the Providence Journal. The animals worked hard, but it was no use; the sledge was firmly planted where not a flake of snow remained. A shabbily dressed elderly man happened along. He watched the vain efforts of the poor animals two or three minutes.

"Come, boys," he finally shouted, "let's help 'em out." Whereat half a dozen men, who were passing and who heard the words instantly put their shoulders to the sledge and tried their best, with the aid of the horses, to start the outfit. But it did not budge.

"Twenty more men wanted!" again shouted the elderly man. "Come on, you men," addressing his remarks to a group of male bystanders; "come on, 20 more of you, and give us a lift."

And 20 did come, yes, more than 20, nearly twice that number. The result was satisfactory. One concerted effort of men and beast and the sledge was safely across the car tracks, in clear sailing once more.
