

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS PRODUCE COMEDIES

North Plainfield Juniors Present "Freezing a Mother-in-Law" and "That Rascal Pat."

WIN MUCH APPLAUSE

BOTH PLAYLETS ARE CLEVERLY ACTED BY THE PUPILS.

Scenery Effective—Stories of the Two Productions—The Casts—The Committee in Charge of the Affairs.

There was no lack of histrionic honors for ten members of the junior class of the North Plainfield High School last night. In the amateur production of two comedy playlets they scored a success, before a large audience.

"Freezing a Mother-in-Law" and "That Rascal Pat" were the two comedies presented. They were acted in a way that caught the audience from the first lines, and won hearty laughter and applause at every point of progress.

Both plays were well staged. The scenery was effectively arranged, and the general character of the productions was exceptionally good for amateur work.

"Freezing a Mother-in-Law" deals with the tribulations of the young lover and husband who tries to rid himself of the unwelcome interest taken in his life by his wife's mother. The way in which he seeks to accomplish the extinction of the sharp-tongued, sharper eared old lady furnishes the vehicle for a lot of funny situations that the borough pupils handled cleverly. The cast, all the members of which did well and deserved the applause given them, was composed as follows:

Mr. Watmuff, attached to the past—Carl Steiner; Ferdinand Swift, his nephew, attached to fortune hunting—Marshall Ward; Walter Litterland, attached to Emily—Otto Masack; Mrs. Watmuff, attached to the memory of her parents—Agnes Kelly; Emily, her daughter—Gertrude Townley.

"That Rascal Pat" treats of the troubles and mix-ups occasioned by the blunderings of a good-natured Irish servant, and of the way in which the situations are comically saved after he has done all in his power for unconscious mischief-making to stir everybody to the last stage of desperation.

The cast took the different parts exceedingly well, and won as much handclapping and laughter as that of the other play. The parts were taken as follows:

Pat McGrogerty, a handy servant—Clarence Hand; Major Puffjacket, on half pay—Frank Webster; Charles Livingstone, poor, but ambitious—Laurie Miles; Laura, niece of Puffjacket and in love with Charles—Sadie Fountain; Nancy, her maid, in love with Pat—Mary Robley.

The committee in charge consisted of Miss Sadie Fountain, Miss Belle Maize, Miss Sadie Fountain and Clarence Hand.

A pleasant dance followed the theatricals.

WHITTIER BOYS' WON.

Defeated High School Scrubs on Hope Common.

In the Boys' Baseball League the Whittier School boys defeated the High School scrubs yesterday afternoon on Hope Common. The score was 13 to 10 after seven innings of good play. The teams were evenly matched. Kenneth Robbie was umpire. The line-up: Whittier School—Harding, p; Taylor, o; Martin, 1b; Gleason, 2b; Gray, 3b; Rubenstein, ss; Manning, lf; Gray, rf and 3b; Morrison, cf. High School 3ds—Taylor and Slocum, p; Douglas and Herman, o; S. Freeman, 1b; Taylor and J. Slocum, 2b; Bogart, 3b; Vandevanter, ss; H. Freeman, lf; Garrett, cf; Robert, rf.

Final Rehearsal. There was a large and enthusiastic crowd at the Casino last night to greet the High School seniors in their dress rehearsal for the presentation tonight of "She Stoops to Conquer." The performers won golden opinions for their clever work.

Society Vaudeville. Elaborate arrangements are being made for society vaudeville to be given at the Casino on May 19 and 20 by amateurs for the benefit of the furnishing fund of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club.

WARREN CHAPEL GROWING

REPORTS AT ANNUAL MEETING SHOW PROSPEROUS CONDITION.

Encouraging reports from all departments were handed in at the annual meeting of Warren chapel last night. It was largely attended by members of the church and congregation. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, the pastor, presided.

Steady growth has marked the chapel's history for the year past. In 1903 the membership was 234; at present the roll bears 241 names. $540 was contributed by the chapel to mission work during the twelve-month.

Especially interesting figures were handed in by the Ladies' Aid Society. The members raised $300 by voluntary subscriptions, which was used to further mission work and for the make-up and forwarding of missionary and Christmas boxes.

The Young Men's Brotherhood, although only a year old, is growing steadily and assuming an important place in the chapel organization. It has sixteen active members, and more are expected to join shortly.

The Sunday-school is prosperous, effective, and growing. At present the membership is 414.

There were no elections of any kind, all action of that character being taken by the Crescent Avenue church, of which Warren chapel is dependent.

SOCIETY FOLK AT HILLSIDE

ATTRACTIVE EVENTS PLANNED FOR TENNIS AND GOLF CLUB.

An attractive season is being planned by the house committee of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club. The clubhouse will be opened on Saturday, April 30 and on and after that date meals will be served there by the stewardess, Mrs. Lena Holstrom. The opening reception will be held on Saturday, May 21. There will be music in the afternoon from 3 to 6 and dancing in the evening from 8 to 11. It has also been arranged beginning on Decoration Day and continuing on each succeeding Saturday in June to have a musical programme in the afternoon and dancing at night. L. G. Timpon is chairman of the house committee, assisted by Miss Maud VanBoskerck, Miss Mary Holly, L. E. Waring and Theodore D. Wilson.

School Baseball Benefit. For the benefit of the Whittier School baseball team in the Boys' Baseball League, an entertainment will be given at Franklin Hall, Saturday night, April 30, at 8:30 o'clock. A play enacted by local talent, music by out-of-town talent and a drill by the physical culture class of Miss Adelle Parker Jackson. Ralph Taylor is captain and Kenneth Phillips manager of the Whittier nine.

Dinner in Clergyman's Honor. Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Edwards, of Franklin place, gave a delightful dinner party last night in honor of Rev. Dr. Mottet, of the Church of the Holy Communion, New York. Covers were laid for eight.

GREAT GROWTH OF SOMERSET COUNCIL

Over Sixty New Members Come in During the Year Just Closed.

MEMBERS AIMING HIGH

TRYING TO MAKE SOMERSET THE PREMIER COUNCIL.

Observed Attainment of 200 Mark With a Smoker Last Night—New Members Are Still Coming in Fast.

During the past year Somerset Council, No. 104, Jr. O. U. A. M., has grown by more than three score members. To celebrate the great advance in strength the members of the organization held a smoker last night in their rooms in the Babcock building.

There was plenty of cigars, pipes and smoking tobacco and sociability, and the members enjoyed themselves to its full. That they might have no interruption to the exchange of congratulation on its growth and to the plans for further advancement, there was no programme of entertainment. Pretty nearly all the members had something to say about the greatness of the order and the advancement of Somerset Council, and the whole affair acted as an inspiration to greater work in upbuilding the organization in general and Somerset in particular.

A year ago the membership was 135. It was decided to boost it to the 200 mark, and all the members set to work. Their hustling speedily told on the roll book. The membership mounted steadily until, two weeks ago, the aimed for mark was reached.

And the end is not yet, say the workers. Two more candidates, making a total of 202, were initiated before the smoker last night, and two more are to go through next meeting night. The members are determined to keep the hustling up to make Somerset the largest council in the city. Franklin Council, the oldest of the three here, is now the largest, but the lead is not more than forty or fifty members, and Franklin is confident of going a half-hundred beyond that before very many months.

GYMNASTIC CONTEST TONIGHT

PLAINFIELD Y. M. C. A. HAS CHANCE FOR VICTORY.

The local Y. M. C. A. will have a fair show to win the gymnastic championship of Northern Jersey at the inter-association contests at Montclair tonight. W. T. Bentliff, H. Plonier and Frank N. Marley are the trio upon whom depends Plainfield's chance for victory. Last year Plainfield won on a technicality which made Montclair ineligible. A shield will go to the winning team, and a silver medal will be awarded the man who executes the moves with the greatest ease and precision. Physical Director O. E. A. Heywood, of the local association, will be one of the judges of the meet. The events will be high bar, parallel bar and horse.

Mrs. Anna Hermen Suspended. Because she addressed Mrs. Annie Hermen in strong language and with the use of alleged vile epithets, Mrs. Lena Buss was severely arraigned by City Judge Kanyon this morning. She was released on a suspended sentence of a $50 fine and fifty days in jail, for her misbehavior to bring upon her the full sentence. William Newcom, Esq., and W. G. DeMena, Esq., represented the plaintiff, and S. S. Swackhamer appeared for Mrs. Hermen.

Taming of the Shrew. Owing to the fact that the Casino was used for the dress rehearsal of "She Stoops to Conquer," last evening, the members of the cast of "The Taming of the Shrew" gave up their expected rehearsal and took a needed rest. Now that these charity performances are less than two weeks off, everybody is working hard to perfect the play.

Their Second Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Edgar, of West Front street, observed the second anniversary of their marriage yesterday and in the evening they entertained a number of friends.

Subscription Leap-Year Cottillion. The house committee of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club is arranging for a subscription leap-year cottillion to be given at the clubhouse on Tuesday night, May 10.

JAPANESE HEAVY LOSS

But Mikado's Troops Push on Into Manchuria, Crossing Yalu River.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

London, April 23.—The Japanese forces under Gen. Kuroki are advancing along the Yalu River, and the most reliable despatches received here declare that one detachment of his troops has crossed the stream and is marching into Manchuria.

The despatch says that the Japanese have met with very heavy losses, and the movement is declared to be advantageous and dangerous, though so far it has been successful.

The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent says that the Russian strategists are slowly and reluctantly arriving at this conclusion. These strategists say that the Japanese general is meeting with great difficulties.

PAINTERS' RIVAL UNION

TALK OF FORMING OPPOSITION ORGANIZATION OF JOURNEMEN.

There is a good deal of talk among the painters of forming a union in opposition to the union now in control of the journeymen here.

In New York there are two sets of unions, the Brotherhood of Painters and the Amalgamated Association. There are a good many men in the local union who are dissatisfied with the way the organization has been conducted, so one of the men said this morning, and they think it is time that another union was started. It is expected that an organizer from the Amalgamated Association will be here next week to get the men together.

Half the men brought here by the bosses to break the strike were members of the Amalgamated and they are still at work, regardless of the union's strike.

FLORODORA BALL.

The Masquerade Affair Given in the Olympia Attended by Two Hundred Persons.

Marking the celebration of its second anniversary, the Florodora Club held a masquerade dance in Olympia Hall last night. It was largely attended and scored a complete success. The hall was prettily decorated.

Nearly 200 guests were present, most of them in fancy costume. Some of the make-ups were handsome to a high degree. The guests enjoyed refreshments at midnight.

The committee in charge was made up of the charter members of the organization: William Poole, Spencer Olickner, Ernest Jones, Edward Sutton, Frank Terry. Half-tone photographs of the committee embellished the front of the programme.

IN NEW FIRE HOUSE.

Borough's Paid Department to Take Possession of Headquarters on Monday.

The borough fire department's long wait for its new headquarters will end Monday. The only things to be done are the placing of the door springs and the "crabs" on which the harness hangs, and these will be put in shape today. Monday morning, Chief Woolston said today, the men will install the apparatus in the new house, and settle down to the real work of the paid department. The department house is already being dried in the new tower.

Mission Work in Tibet. "Tibet, the Mysterious Land," was the subject of the Young People's Society meeting at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, last night. Miss Tracy, Miss Rena Thayer and Henry Brower each presented facts of interest concerning Tibet and the mission work there, and the meeting proved to be a profitable one. In addition there was special music by members of the society.

Engagement Announced. The announcement has just been made of the engagement of Miss Eleanor VanDeventer, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. VanDeventer, of North Plainfield, to Herbert G. Wittingham, of Baltimore, nephew of the late Bishop Wittingham, of Maryland.

James Marr and Charles Marr, of West Front street, have left this city to become permanent residents of Philadelphia.

MARSH WINS SUIT ESTABLISHING PRECEDENT

Recovers the High Percentage for Attorney's Collection Fee in Contest on Note.

ON NEGOTIABLE PAPER

WILLIAM J. THOMPSON, OF GLOUCESTER, A DEFENDANT.

Two Notes for $5,000 Each, With Ten Per Cent. For Collection—In the U. S. Court.

Taking advantage of the new negotiable instruments act, two Pennsylvania banks inserted in its notes a printed clause requiring the makers to pay all costs of collection, including ten per cent. attorneys fees if the notes are not paid when due. Craig A. Marsh representing these banks brought suit on two $5,000 notes of this character against the William J. Thompson, of Gloucester, of race track fame, and a partner of his in the artificial ice business.

There were other defenses, but the main question at issue was whether the banks could get judgment for $1,000, being 10 per cent. for attorney's fees in addition to the $10,000 principal. It is believed to be the first suit of the kind to be brought in this State. At the trial before Judge Kirkpatrick, in the U. S. Circuit Court, Mr. Thompson's lawyers, after hearing plaintiff's evidence, conceded that he could not successfully contest the case and judgments were entered for $10,000 with interest, plus $1,000 attorney's fees and cost of court. Mr. Thompson says that he expects to be able to recover damages against the company that sold him the ice plant which he says is not as it was represented.

The new point of law is one of great importance to banks and merchants who use negotiable paper. In other States, the authorities are about equally divided, some holding that the stipulation for attorney's fees, if reasonable in amount, is valid, and the others holding that all such stipulations are null and void.

USE OF NAME CONDITIONALLY

LOCAL CONCERN CAN STAMP "ROGERS" ON WARE IF "W. HENRY" IS PREFIXED.

Yesterday's despatch from Trenton in the case of the International Silver Company against the William H. Rogers Corporation was incorrect in the incidental reference to the effect that the local company had been retained from using the trade mark "Rogers."

The court refused to restrain the William H. Rogers Corporation from using the name Rogers, of its President, if made distinctive by the prefix "W. Henry," and the addition of his title of president and Plainfield, N. J. The local company has not been stopped from using the name of its president and that name will continue to be stamped on all its silver plated wares and with the sanction and approval of the court.

Craig A. Marsh, Esq., who gained the latest decision for the local company, says that he has no doubts that the other side will appeal.

MEMENTO OF OLD SOUTH?

Souvenir Sent From Boston Frized by Plainfield.

William Feiring, of Park avenue, has received an interesting memento of the New England tour that Walter L. Hotfield and Phillip Jahn have just completed. It is a heavy plank, believed by him to have come from the stairway leading up into the belfry of Old South Church, Boston, where Paul Revere's warning lights hung.

Mr. Feiring is a collector of historical relics, and the Boston board is greatly prized by him.

There is scarcely any doubt of the genuineness of the relic, he says, because the donors sent a certificate of authenticity with it.

Octoroons' Excellent Production. The vaudeville show given by Simmons' New York "Octoroons" at T. A. B. Hall tonight will equal any performance in the leading New York vaudeville theatres. The show combines unusual feats of all sorts with a lot of wholesome fun and is warranted to please the most fastidious. It has already pleased big crowds at the performances of last night and Thursday night. It is for the benefit of the West End F. C. baseball nine.

THREE MINISTERS OFFICIATE AT THE SERVICES AT LATE HOME.

The funeral services of Miss Mary E. F. Randolph were held yesterday afternoon from her late home in Myrtle avenue. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The services were in charge of Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of the First Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, pastor emeritus, and Rev. L. G. Leggett, of the East Third Street chapel. Dr. Chambliss read the Scripture selections, while the other divines spoke briefly of the life of Miss Randolph. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes.

The interment was in Hillside Cemetery and these were the pallbearers: L. L. Manning, Samuel Manning, William Manning, Daniel Manning, Howard Randolph and N. H. Saxton.

REV. DR. BUCKLE TO RESIGN

FRIENDS INSIST HE'S INNOCENT OF HIS WIFE'S CHARGES.

There are no new developments of an unusual nature today in the case of Rev. Dr. George Buckle, pastor of the Greystone Presbyterian church, Elizabeth, whose invalid wife, twice an inmate of an asylum, represented that he had tried to smother her and had abandoned her. A special meeting of the officers of the church was held on Tuesday night and Rev. Dr. Buckle voluntarily appeared before them and declared that he would tender his resignation and promised to send it in writing later. So far, this has not yet been received. No further action was taken at the meeting, as nothing more could be done until the resignation was formally tendered in writing, when the matter will be referred to the congregation, and later to the Presbytery of Elizabeth, to act upon.

Miss Tracy Engaged. Society folk will be interested in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Margaret Tracy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Everts Tracy, of West Eighth street, and Dr. Mitta. The latter is a nephew of Miss Kenyon, of West Seventh street.

O. E. Pearsall Resigns. O. E. Pearsall, editor and manager of The Union County Standard, published at Westfield, has resigned his position to engage in a business enterprise in New York. The Standard will continue along its present up-to-date lines.

Bitten by Dog. Louis VanNest, Jr., of Duar street, was severely bitten on the hand yesterday afternoon while playing with a small dog. The wound was properly dressed and no bad effects are anticipated.

Dance at Dunellen. An attractive invitation dance was given last night in Apper's Hall Dunellen by the "Jolly Seven." Eugene O'Reilly's orchestra from this city furnished the music.

COLLECTOR BROWN RECEIVES INSTRUCTION

Must Advise for Sale Property on Which Taxes Are Delinquent Six Months.

HEAVY PENALTY FIXED

MANDATORY DIRECTIONS FOR COLLECTION OF POLL TAX.

Conference of the State Board at Somerville—Assessor Cooley, of North Plainfield, Acts as Temporary Chairman.

Collector George F. Brown, of the borough, returned from the State Board of Taxation conference in Somerville yesterday with instructions to enforce rigorously two stringent regulations governing the collection of taxes. One of the radical changes will cut down the extension of time on delinquent taxes by more than half and the other ruling will make trouble for those who have ignored bills for poll and personal taxes.

Under the old law, delinquent taxpayers have had from one to two years in which to meet the bills. The new law arbitrarily demands that the property be advertised for sale six months after it becomes delinquent. The collector was told that there is no way to soften the provision, and delinquent properties on his books must be advertised on July 1.

Mandatory instructions were issued regarding the collection of personal and poll taxes. There has been a good deal of trouble in collecting smaller personal taxes, and the poll tax has been very largely disregarded by citizens. The collector was told that unpaid taxes of both kinds must be collected as rigorously as any other sort. To further the enforcement of the tax law, the collectors have been empowered to appoint deputies, who may act as constables to compel the payment of delinquent taxes. A certified copy of the tax bill serves the deputy as a warrant.

The State Board impressed the collectors at Somerville with the fact that there is to be no laxity whatever in enforcing every regulation of the tax law. The officers face a heavy penalty if they fail to enforce the law.

Assessor J. H. Cooley, of the borough, in company with the other assessors at the conference, was instructed in accordance with the recent ruling, declaring the tax exemption unconstitutional. Only poll taxes are exempt in the case of firemen and soldiers, instead of $500, as formerly. The meeting at which these instructions were issued was held yesterday afternoon at the Somerset County court house. The Board convened for the one purpose of instructing assessors and collectors on the regulations mentioned above.

Assessors and collectors from all over the county were present. Dr. J. H. Cooley was honored with the temporary chairmanship.

MRS. VANZANDT DEAD.

Passes Away at Age of Seventy—Seven After Brief Illness.

Mrs. Sarah VanZandt, of 423 East Sixth street, died yesterday afternoon at her home after a brief illness. She is survived by one son, Peter VanZandt, of this city. She was seventy-seven years old. The funeral services will take place Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the Second Reformed church, of Somerville, Rev. Dr. Reed, of that church, officiating. A short service will be held at the home in this city, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, of Trinity Reformed church to have charge.

No Cause of Action.

After being out for five and a half hours, the jury in the Supreme Court case at Somerville, of Carolina Woerner against Charles Ananason returned a verdict of no cause for action yesterday afternoon. The trial was before Judge Schenck, William Newcom, Esq., representing the plaintiff who sued her non-in-law for slander and in tort, alleging that she had been struck by the defendant while engaged with him in an argument over furniture.

East Jersey Street Railway Co. The East Jersey Street Railway Company was incorporated in Trenton yesterday with an authorized capital of $500,000 to absorb the East Jersey Traction Company, Haritan Traction Company and the Perth Amboy Railroad Company. The President of the new company is Frank Bergen, of Elizabeth, who is general counsel for the Public Service Corporation.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED
BY THE PRESS.

Hearst's Fool-American.

"Yellow Journalism" had a fine illustration in Hearst's American, Boston edition, Wednesday evening. A great big line showed that Hearst had carried Massachusetts in the Democratic primaries, when the fact was that out of a possible 1026 delegates Olney had 610 pledged and Hearst only 254 pledged, the others being unpledged or unaccounted for. What earthly good can come from such a perversion of facts? The truth must be known within a day or two at the longest, and then the falsity of such a claim lessens all future results.—Westerly Sun.

Acting Gov. Wakelee.

Acting on the advice of his physicians, the Governor has decided to take a European trip, and will sail on Saturday. This will, under the law, make President E. W. Wakelee, the Senator from Bergen, Acting Governor for a month. There has not been a more popular President in the Senate for many years, and all who know Senator Wakelee will be pleased to see him, even temporarily, in the executive office. Acting Governor Wakelee has reached the front rank at Trenton in a comparatively short time. It was only in 1899 that he appeared in the Assembly as the junior member with John M. Bell. He was re-elected in 1900, and because of the death of J. L. C. Graves he was the only member from Bergen that year. In addition he was chosen as chairman of the party caucus and thus became party leader on the floor. The following year he was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Johnson, who was called up higher. In 1901 he was again elected to a full term in the Senate and soon became his party's leader on the floor, and this year became President without opposition. Now, in the ordinary course of events, he will be Acting Governor. Bergen County has been especially fortunate in having two Senators in succession who reached the front rank at Trenton by their own personality without outside aid. They have given Bergen a prominence in State affairs that it did not have in the past.—Jersey City Journal.

LITERARY.

Whoever is contemplating erecting an office building should read the article in the Architectural Record Magazine for April, by Geo. Hill, a New York city civil engineer. It contains more precise, necessary and conclusive information about the best methods of erecting skyscrapers than any statement we have heretofore seen.

There is a striking article in the May Leslie's Monthly on the men who do the real work in Congress, the Senators and Representatives who do most of the work of governing this nation, although their names seldom appear in the papers; another interesting sketch is called "Americus as Quitters," which takes up three remarkable men who have gone from this country to Canada and quitted one job after another as fast as they have accomplished wonders in each place.

—The Merchants and Farmers' Telephone Company, a new concern, is building a line between Three Bridges and Flemington.

—Rev. A. E. Main, dean of Alfred Theological Seminary and formerly of Plainfield, writes that, through the generous aid of Capt. Hubbard, of this city, the Seminary has come into the possession of a new standard typewriter.

"STANDARD OF HIGHEST MERIT."

FISCHER PIANOS.

It is an indisputable fact that the high esteem given to any work of Art must be founded upon merit. When the Musical Artist and the Home Player are united in their high appreciation of the FISCHER PIANO, we take their verdict unqualifiedly. Both have for years maintained the supremacy of the FISCHER PIANO because of its Tone-quality, its Artistic Individuality and its Durability.

CAR BANDITS HANG

Neidermeier Nerveless—Marx
and Van Dine Die Bravely.

LEADER TAKEN TO SCAFFOLD ON CHAIR

Condemned Were Not Asked to Speak Before Execution—One Died Unrepentant, Others Accepted Consolations of the Church.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Altogether the last, but seemingly unnerved completely, Peter Neidermeier, the leader of the car barn bandits, was hanged here from a chair, contrasting with his companions in crime, Gustav Marx and Harvey Van Dine, who, standing erect, kissed an image of Christ and died without a tremor. The three executions were separate, twenty minutes apart, the same scaffold being used for all.

Only once before in the large number of executions that have taken place at the jail in this city has it been necessary to carry a condemned man to the gallows as Neidermeier was. The crime for which the three bandits paid the penalty was one of eight murders which the three men are known to have committed—that of Francis W. Setwart, a clerk in the car barns of the Chicago City railway.

Neidermeier had boasted continually of his courage, but as the last moments approached he collapsed and was unable to take three consecutive steps of a march to the gallows.

Dr. F. W. McNamara, the jail physician, had visited Neidermeier previously and said that Neidermeier's physical condition was satisfactory. The bandit leader himself told Chief Deputy Sheriff Peters, who appeared with the death warrant, that the last walk would be without aid. Deputy Peters then read the document, and Neidermeier started from his cell. He had gone only two steps when he sank, and it was found it would be necessary to lift him to the scaffold.

No minister or priest accompanied Neidermeier, he having finally said when offered a last opportunity before leaving his cell he would die as he had lived, an atheist.

On the scaffold Jailer Whitman disregarded the custom of asking whether the condemned man wished to say anything. The shroud and hood were quickly adjusted. The bandit, instinctively moving his head that the rope might more easily be arranged, took a last glance at the spectators. He appeared as if in a stupor. A moment later, at 10:35 o'clock, the trap fell, the chair being quickly removed from behind as the body shot downward. The shroud became partly disarranged, and fearful muscular struggles of the dying man continued for fifteen minutes in view of the witnesses of the execution.

In the opinion of some witnesses Neidermeier was half crazed when the death warrant was read. He became angry and protested against execution, saying he did not wish to disgrace his family.

"Peters," said the prisoner, "let me look at that warrant."

After excitedly reading the paper Neidermeier nervously folded it and started to put it in his pocket.

"You can't do that," said the chief deputy. "I have to return that to the court."

Neidermeier looked up quickly and, with a ghastly smile, said:

"I want to take this along with me to prove a case of murder. I may want to make a complaint to St. Peter."

He also entered into a discussion with the deputy sheriff on murder.

The only requests that the other bandits, Marx and Van Dine, made were that they be allowed to bid one another goodbye, which was granted. They counseled each other to be brave and joined in hoping they would "meet again." The men had been bitter enemies until a few days before the execution. Van Dine being incensed at his companion for having made the confession which led to their capture.

When the body of Neidermeier had stopped quivering and been removed Marx walked slowly to the scaffold with several priests after having confessed, repented and received the last sacraments, as did Van Dine, both men having been converted to the Roman Catholic faith following the death sentence. Marx, like Van Dine, was heavily attired in black, and in the coat lapel of each was a white rose. Neidermeier, unlike his comrades, wore a rose of dark red. Marx showed no emotion while on the scaffold and in a steady voice repeated a litany after the priests. He fervently kissed the crucifix and at 11:17 o'clock was hanged. His neck was broken.

The execution of Harvey Van Dine was varied by a curious incident. While he stood on the drop praying and waiting for his arms to be pinned and his legs secured the noose fell from the crosspiece of the gallows and dangled before the eyes of the bandit about to die. Disregarding the noose, the bandit continued praying steadily to the end.

Death in his case, as in that of Marx, was immediately evident as not being due to strangulation, but to the fall. Mrs. Van Dine, the mother of the last of the bandits, was at Buda, Ill., pleading with Governor Yates almost up to the time of the execution. She sought to delay the execution in the case of her son on the ground that he was an epileptic. The governor, however, said he saw no reason why he should interfere with the sentence of the court.

The water colors by George Wharton Edwards now on view in a New York gallery have evoked the favorable criticism of the connoisseurs of art. It is the general opinion of the critics that the works of this talented man are of exceptional merit. In another column we reproduce what the New York Times has to say on the subject.

In response to numerous requests, William O. Carl will give a free Parnassal concert in the First Presbyterian church, Fifth avenue and Twelfth street, New York, next Tuesday evening, April 26, at 8:15. —The accidental unfastening of a snap-hook on the end of a rein, nearly involved one of George Conover's moving vans in a bad mix-up at Park and North avenues this morning. As the van made the turn from Park into North avenue, the near horse, responding to the pull of the single rein remaining, swung around until cramped close between his team-mate and the body of the heavy vehicle. POLITICAL NOTES.

R. V. Lindabury has declined to discuss publicly the Democratic gubernatorial situation so far as he and his possible candidacy are concerned. His reticence in this regard is understood to be caused by his unwillingness to be placed in the rather unpleasant position of declining an honor that has not been offered him.

But among his personal friends, in private discussions of the political status, Mr. Lindabury has made no secret of his position. He has declared with emphatic directness that he will not be a candidate for Governor of New Jersey this year. In order that his friends may not mistake his position and look upon his unwillingness to become a candidate as reflecting a belief that he could not be elected, or that there is no chance for Democratic success in New Jersey this year, Mr. Lindabury made it plain in his private communications that he would not accept a nomination for Governor if it should come to him in a unanimous form from both parties.

CARD OF THANKS.

AS A HERD OF CATTLE

Claude Kitchin Bitterly Assailed President in Congress.

INSULTED THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH

Claiming That Roosevelt Had Said in One of His Books That Through-out Southern Character There Was a Streak of Barbarism.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—President Roosevelt was assailed bitterly by Mr. Claude Kitchin (N. C.) in congress. He also included in his castigation General Grosvener, whom he charged with having humiliated Theodore Roosevelt, the vice presidential candidate, whom in a recent speech in the house he had glorified as the worthy successor of McKinley. Mr. Kitchin likened President Roosevelt in this connection to the ant hill taking the place of the mountain, the owl's screech taking the place of the tomb's symphonies and to the minnow taking the place of the whale. He declared that the president had insulted the people of the south by saying in one of his publications that throughout southern character there ran a streak of brutal barbarism. He openly charged the president with being the advocate of lynch law and quoted from one of the president's books to sustain his assertion. In his opinion the president, who he said while governor of New York had styled the members of congress as a herd of cattle, was unfit to hold office and a dangerous man.

General Grosvener admitted that four years ago he opposed the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt for vice president, but said Mr. Roosevelt during the campaign had conducted himself in a dignified manner and had won the confidence and esteem of the people by his acts from the time he was elected to preside over the senate and that he reached the supreme heights when he declared at Buffalo that he would carry out the policies of McKinley. Since then the president had grown to be one of the great men of the country. The president, he said, was today more dangerous to the Democratic party than any other man. The Democrats in New York, he said, had launched a candidate for president who did not know whether he stood on his head or his heels.

Preceding this episode the house debated the bill to create a commission to investigate the merchant marine, but took no action on it.

Governor Peabody on Denver Riot.

DENVER, April 23.—"I have no fault to find with the situation as it is at present," said Governor Peabody when interviewed here. "General Bell is on his way to Telluride with Moyer, and I do not expect to hear from him until he arrives at his destination." "Will Moyer be brought back to Denver?" the governor was asked. "In these preliminary proceedings touching the matter of bail," the governor answered, "I can see no necessity for the presence of Moyer, and he certainly will not be brought back to Denver unless the court so orders." With reference to the case of Haywood, the governor said: "He was arrested by the military authorities because he attempted to interfere with them in the discharge of their duties. He was, however, immediately turned over to the civil authorities, and he is now in their hands, to be dealt with as they see fit."

Americans at King Edward's Court. LONDON, April 23.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra held their first court of the season at Buckingham palace. The large number of presentations included Miss Faith Moore, daughter of J. G. Moore of New York and sister-in-law of Arthur Hamilton Lee, M. P., civil lord of the admiralty, and Miss Marguerite Osborne, daughter of the late Consul General Osborne. Other Americans in attendance were: Henry White, secretary of the United States embassy, and Miss White; Major John H. Beacom, United States military attaché, and C. Wadsworth, third secretary of the United States embassy.

Roosevelts at the Theater. WASHINGTON, April 23.—Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by Miss Carraw, Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Masters Theodore, Jr., and Kermit Roosevelt, occupied the presidential box at the New National theater last night, witnessing Mrs. Clara Bloodgood's excellent performance of the Clyde Fitch comedy, "The Girl With the Green Eyes." Mrs. Roosevelt and her guests followed the action of the play with evident appreciation.

Drunk Caused Sailor's Death. NEWPORT NEWS, Va., April 23.—Carl Olanson, a seaman, was stabbed and killed by Allen Julius, another sailor, in a fight on board the schooner Minnassott, lying in the harbor here. The men had been ashore, drinking heavily, and became involved in an argument over some trivial incident. Julius was arrested. Self defense is his plea.

Packet Has Returned Home. NEW YORK, April 23.—John W. Packett, a prominent Brooklyn attorney, who was yesterday reported missing, returned to his home apparently laboring under mental aberration. He was unable to give an account of his whereabouts during the last two days.

Pottery Plant Destroyed. TRENTON, N. J., April 23.—The plant of the Bryan Pottery company, located about three miles east of this city, has been almost destroyed by fire; loss, $70,000.

Weather Probabilities. Showers; south winds.

DRESS NOVELTIES.

Hopsackings and Mohairs Are Popular—Pongee Dyed in Many Shades.

Hopsacking and mohairs are among the favorite materials for tailor made. The favorite shades are champagne, gray and heliotrope. The latter has come to be quite a fashionable tint for tailor made. The hopsackings are ideal fabrics for summer gowns, as they possess a loose mesh and are very pliable. When mounted over a glass silk lining they are very dressy.

Dull shades of china blue, old rose and dull green will also be utilized both in cotton and in linen for tailor made suits. This will be a season for gayly colored tailor made. The black severe models of the past seem to have slipped out of fashion.

A smart suit seen recently was of mouse colored cloth, trimmed with white and gold fancy braid having a tiny edge of black. This had a fancy vest of white cloth embroidered in French knots.

The new blouses are more carefully fitted at the back and sides, and they pouch very slightly in front, especially if the wide belt is worn with them. The long effect in front is still marked.

Large appliques of chiffon and braid are very smart on veiling and fancy cloth gowns. They are connected with vines and leaves done by hand in artistically shaded silks.

The cut shows a three-quarter black silk coat, the shirred sleeves giving a novel effect, as do also the narrow velvet straps.

ODDS AND ENDS.

A Wreath of Small Flowers—High Pointed Marie Antoinette Girdles.

Wreaths of tiny roses are still much worn. They appear on many of the smart new hats, and they are also used to form dainty hair ornaments.

Sleeves are more fussy than ever, and the undersleeve composed of many ruffles or many shirrings is a smart fashion feature.

Collarless gowns are still used for evening, restaurant and semidress wear. This is a style which has to be carried out effectively in order not to give a half finished effect.

The high pointed Marie Antoinette girdle is ultra smart both for gowns and for separate blouses. It is often enriched with embroidery.

Frequently in order to gain the long shouldered effect a line of trimming is brought down from the collar over the shoulder to a little distance on the sleeve top. The fullness of the sleeves then starts from the end of this strap-like trimming.

Entire crowns of flowers are the sole trimming of certain picture, lace and chiffon hats.

The edges of irregular brims are decorated with tiny rosebuds laid in rows. This is pretty to soften a rather hard toque.

The picture shows a black crepe de chine dress trimmed with very wide ruffles and day corded shirrings.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

Callan, who inspired so satisfactorily last season for Westfield, has been engaged for this season. He will officiate in today's game between Westfield and the Seventh Regiment teams.
Jimmy Montross is on the bench today. He made a successful start for the season last Saturday, winning for the O. F. C. against Rahway, but this afternoon he will lay off and watch Westfield play. He has made no definite arrangements for the season yet.
The baseball team of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A., will open its season Monday afternoon with a game against the Leal's School second team. The boys held a lively practice yesterday afternoon on Hope Common and will meet for play again this afternoon.

Judging from the quality of last week's game between the West End Field Club and Clinton Avenue A. C., this afternoon's game between the same teams should be a battle from start to finish. Clinton Avenue won last week by a single run, but they will have no cake walk repeating the performance. Jacot will probably pitch again for the West Enders.

The Public Service Corporation has given the Alis Club assurance of much better service during the baseball season. During the past few months the club has been endeavoring to secure a spur from the Arlington Avenue line to Crescent Oval and it is possible that the company may decide to do this. At any rate a sufficient number of cars have been promised to carry patrons to and from the games.

GOLF.

The new automobile house erected near the Hillside Tennis and Golf Clubhouse was recently turned upside down by a severe wind storm and the work of righting the building is now progressing.

Funeral Services of Mrs. Mague. The funeral services of Mrs. Levette Mague, widow of Norman O. Mague, were held from the late home in Liberty street, yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. L. R. Howard, pastor of Hope chapel, conducted the service. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The interment was in Hillside cemetery.

The Misses Kittie and Mayme McQuirk, of this city, have been visiting their father at Raritan.

HIGH PRAISE FOR ARTIST

NEW YORK TIMES' CRITICISM OF GEORGE WHARTON EDWARDS EXHIBIT.

Widespread attention has been directed to the water color exhibit of George Wharton Edwards, of Franklin place, at Clauson's galleries, in Fifth avenue, New York, the Metropolitan press criticism being particularly flattering to the gifted Plainfielder. The New York Times, for instance, says:

"Mr. George Wharton Edwards, relieved of the drudgery as art director of Collier's Weekly, hied him to one of the little fishing villages of Maine instead of to Holland, where he usually disports himself in summer, and proceeded to do up Manna in water colors with a thoroughness that leaves nothing to be desired. Desde manana hasta la manana—from morn to morn he seems to have loafed and invited his soul; but loathed to some purpose, for two dozen large views of this remote fishing hamlet, lying between gray rocks and the far from barren sea testify to his intervals of work. They are in the Clauson Gallery, 381 Fifth avenue, and will be visible for the rest of this month.

"Manna from the eastward in the morning. Manna from the westward in the morn, Manna of an afternoon from the grassy lane that leads to the church; the village at dawn and sunset, the mouth of the little port where the reefs are like the teeth of Ginnungagap, foaming and alert to destroy, but lacking just in one spot where the two-masted 'pinkies' slip during a southwest through a smother of spray into the land-locked harbor. Here is a view of the hamlet from the hill, with manna shadows on the opposite headland and a sheen of gold on the little bay wherever no shadows, no reflection of the headland fall. In one view the poppy garden on the right balances with its vivid colors the fish-house, with its stranded boat-shaped fish-er and piles of lobster pots; in another a mass of Indian oars forms the floral accompaniment to similar surroundings, with the tall spindles on the outer reef as the strong accent of the view.

"The most attractive picture of all is 'Red House—Drifting Fog,' a plunging view near the village, taking in outlying islands, with a red dwelling the notable bit of color in the scheme. Hardly less pleasing is 'Gull Head, Looking South'—the fishing boats dotting the ocean beyond a headland and the seashore rise in swarms. Solitary bits are 'Noonday, Stony Lanesome,' and 'On Nothen's Lodge,' a marine full of the crash of big Atlantic billows. A study in lilacs, mayes, buffs, reds, pale blues, and greens in the morning view of the ridge near Manna, and similar delicate tones are registered in 'White Head, in a Shower.' Sometimes Mr. Edwards brings his buildings a trifle too much forward, as in 'Mime's Fortune' and the view of the fish-house with poppy garden.

"Mr. Edwards is an artist in words as well as colors; his is a decorative talent of a remarkable sort, as clever in pen-and-ink illustrations and book plates as in pictures from Holland and the coast of New England. His marines in oils are often seen at the annual exhibitions. Whatever he attempts, he does well. This little special exhibit of water colors should not be overlooked."
