CRUSHED TO DEATH BETWEEN CAR FENDERS

Motorman William Brown Killed in Elizabeth Early This Morning.

BY A RUNAWAY CAR

GREEN MOTORMAN LOST CONTROL OF CONVEYANCE ON A HILL.

Brown Mangled While Adjusting Fender to Begin His Day's Work—Death Almost Instantaneous—Lived in This City.

Against the fender of his own car, William Brown, of East Third street, a motorman on the Elizabeth-Plainfield trolley line, was crushed to death at 6:30 o'clock this morning. The fatality occurred in front of the P. S. O. car barn on North Broad street, Elizabeth.

Brown left this city at 4:50 o'clock to take out his car from the Elizabeth barn. At 6:30 he made ready to run his conveyance to the main track. On the spur leading from the barn he halted the car to adjust his fender. He had the right of way, and allowed the front of the car to jut slightly on the straight track.

While he was settling the fender in its place a third street car approached down the hill above the spur. It should have stopped above the spur but the motorman, a green one, it is said, lost control of his car and it shot down the incline with increasing speed.

Brown, unconscious of its approach, was bending over his fender. Before the warning cries of the other motorman could rouse him to the danger, the fender of the rushing car struck him with full force. He was crushed between the two fenders and terribly mangled.

He was breathing faintly when taken from between the cars, but died almost immediately after. His body was carried to A. F. Thorn's cigar store and later to the morgue. Dr. Grier, the Elizabeth county physician, will view the remains today and issue a permit for the removal of the body to this city.

Brown was one of the senior men in the company's service. He entered its employ shortly after the line was started. He was a familiar figure to most of the patrons of the line, particularly in this city, and his good-nature and courtesy won him many friends. The company officials regarded him as one of its best men.

Brown was middle-aged and married, but had no children. His wife survives him. His home on East Third street was near the beef house.

During the Spanish-American war he was a member of the Eighth New Jersey Volunteers.

CENTRAL THEATRE MIX-UP

DURING DISTURBANCE SPECIAL OFFICER IT IS SAID USED HIS CLUB.

Charles Conger, while attending the performance at the Central Theatre last evening became disorderly, and when requested to quiet down refused to do so. Special Officer James Bolmar then took a hand in the matter and Conger was ordered from the house. As a result of this trouble ensued and during the mix-up Conger alleges that the officer struck him with his club on the head. Because of this fact Bolmar has been notified that he need not report for duty at the theatre as another special officer is to take his place in the future. As yet no charges have been preferred against him and it was stated this morning that no action would be taken by the Police Board unless charges were made. Conger was not placed under arrest.

POLITICIANS ONLY AT PARTY PRIMARIES

Excepting in Fourth Ward Little Interest Was Shown in Selection of Delegates.

NO OPPOSITION SLATE

FISK IS ONE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE THIRD WARD.

Delegates Empowered to Select Alternates—Convention to be Held at Trenton on Tuesday, May 10.

Little interest was shown at the Republican primaries held in the four wards of the city last night, at which time delegates were selected to attend the Congressional and State conventions to be held at Trenton on May 10. The attendance at each primary was small and the business was transacted in short order. In each ward the same delegates were chosen to attend both conventions and no opposition was shown.

James F. Buckle was elected chairman of the First ward primary and H. C. VanEmburgh clerk. S. P. T. Wilbur and W. R. Oodington were the inspectors. The delegates elected were James T. MacMurray and James F. Buckle.

J. Harvey Doane was chairman of the Second ward primary and William R. Townsend clerk. The delegates elected were William N. Runyon and William K. Townsend.

Charles W. Runyon acted as chairman of the primary in the Third ward and John W. Murray, Jr., was clerk. Ernest R. Ackerman and Charles J. Fisk were the chosen delegates.

The chairman of the Fourth ward primary was Frank H. Smith and George E. Greenleaf was clerk. This ward is entitled to three delegates and those chosen were Frank DeWitt Randolph, William Newcorn and Andrew McCardell.

In each case the delegates were empowered to select their own alternates in case they cannot attend.

THAT SCHOOL RECIPROCITY

PLAN ENGAGE ATTENTION OF NORTH PLAINFIELD BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To straighten out some slight misunderstanding that has arisen over the provisions of the reciprocity agreement between the Plainfield and North Plainfield school departments the borough board, at its monthly meeting last night again declared its position in the matter. The board agreed that the understanding covers pupils of all grades.

When pupils move across the line the local school system is to take them in to finish out the term without other formality than transfer of names from book to book.

It was said at the meeting last night that the Plainfield authorities seem to think the reciprocal arrangement is to benefit the school. The borough board regards it as a benefit to the pupil and not to the school.

Three recommendations for next year's school work by Supt. Wightman were adopted. The seniors of the High School are to be offered an opportunity to review their arithmetic and geography. These subjects are not touched after the grammar grades, and the pupils are apt to leave the school very rusty in them. This review is not to be obligatory, but the pupils will be strongly urged to take it. It will not interfere with the regular courses and will bring on no extra expense.

Miss Stahlberger, the German teacher, will begin instruction in public speaking and a class in pattern-cutting and dressmaking is to be organized.

Dr. J. H. Buchanan was elected school physician, to succeed Dr. Albert Pitts. The coal supply for next year was ordered.

WOMAN FINDS FATHER AND WEALTH AWAITING

Mrs. Nicholas VanWinkle, of Warrenville, Hears of Her Parents After Many Years.

ESTATE IN MICHIGAN

HAS NEVER KNOWN WHO HER PARENTS WERE.

Romance in the Life of a Farmer's Wife—Estate Said to be Worth $200,000—Purchase of a Farm.

Through the accidental finding of some old papers revealing her identity, Mrs. Nicholas VanWinkle, of Warrenville, has just learned for the first time in thirty years of the whereabouts of her father, and that she is an heir to considerable wealth. When a young girl living in Brooklyn, her place of birth, her mother died and she was adopted by a family by the name of Campbell. Her name was Winifred Havens, but she took the name of Mamie Campbell.

Later the young woman married Nicholas VanWinkle and resided in North Plainfield. When Mr. and Mrs. Campbell died they left their adopted daughter $10,000. Mr. Havens searched constantly for his daughter, but was unsuccessful. He had practically given up all hope of ever finding her, when through the work of settling up the estate of Mrs. Havens, a Michigan lawyer accidentally discovered the missing daughter. It was most essential that she should be located as the estate could not be adjusted until her name was signed to the legal papers.

In searching through some papers and in connection with previous transactions with the estate, the whereabouts of the daughter was learned. She has now been married about sixteen years, and through the estate she will at present receive about $12,000 and will probably share in an estate valued, it is said, at $200,000.

Mr. and Mrs. VanWinkle have just purchased the valuable Dan. Cory farm of 150 acres at Warrenville, where they are very comfortably located. The wealth that has just come to Mrs. VanWinkle is welcome and the fact that she has found her father and at the same time is the means of allowing the estate to be settled, is a source of great satisfaction to her.

At the conclusion of the lecture refreshments were served.

CONTEST INSURANCE.

The Barbers' Union Has Flatly Refused to Pay the Claim of $60 to Mr. Anthony's Widow.

Dispute over the death claim of her husband's life has been started between the widow of Clarence Anthony and the Barbers' Union. The union has flatly refused to pay the claim, and Mrs. Anthony has placed the matter in the hands of a lawyer.

Anthony had been a journeyman barber and then went into business for himself. Later he returned to work as a journeyman, being in the employ of Lafayette Rosenstiel, of Somerset street, at the time of his death. According to the rules of the union a boss in becoming a journeyman must surrender a card furnished him by the union. When Mrs. Anthony applied for the $60 benefit she supposed due on her husband's life, the union denied its liability. It was claimed that Anthony had not turned in his card, as required, and thereby forfeited the right to the insurance.

Mrs. Anthony denies the right of the union's position and insists on receiving the money. She has instructed Counsellor F. J. Blatz to bring suit if the organization fails to meet her claim.

ALLEGED HOLD-UP GAME IN REAL ESTATE

Residents Along East Front Street, Near Farragut Road, Greatly Wrought Up.

SHACKS BEING BUILT

IN BEAUTIFUL RESIDENTIAL SECTION OF THE CITY.

Wanted $8,000 to Quit, But Now the Price is Raised to $12,000—The Properties in That Section Affected.

Residents along East Front street are agitated over the advent of alleged "neighborhood wreckers" in their district, fearing that the value of their handsome estates will be materially depreciated, as told in The Daily Press yesterday. The old Megee homestead land on East Front street opposite Farragut road has been purchased and Italians are now constructing four "shacks," to accommodate an unnamed number of foreigners, unless some one comes forward with $12,000 to buy the tract.

The first attempt to work the "spite house" trick, which is considered in the light of a hold-up here, took place a year ago, the beautiful Newberw district being the scene of operations and Italians being the principal factors. Subsequently certain white persons backed an aggregation of colored men in a plan to erect a colored orphanage in the same district, but this scheme was abandoned.

Across the way from the place where the shacks are now being put up is the large estate of L. V. Randolph, president of the New York Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange and also the John Taylor Johnston estate. The latter was president of the Central Railroad and at the time of his death owned a magnificent estate, which is still kept in fine order.

Wealthy men in the vicinity have received letters from a man engaged to build the "spite houses" which they consider blackmail, but no action has been taken on them as yet. Here is a sample of one of the letters:

"I have learned through some of the property owners on East Front street that you have been looking after that Italian property sometime across the street from you. Now I am going to tell you that if D. C. Evans and Mr. Updike had taken advice two years ago there would not have been any spite houses in Hillside as they could have bought the property right at that time. I have signed a contract to furnish lumber for three three-room houses if you want to prevent such buildings as that going up on East Front street you can save a good many dollars by taking such things as that in time these buildings are about to be started by May as I have got the credit of getting many an Italian out of many a good location. I transact a lot of business for them in a nice way so if you have any idea of buying the property kindly let me know but I would not let these Italians know that I write you in regards to this matter. I remain yours, _____"

This appeal is followed by another in which the writer says that he is going to put up three one-story houses sixteen feet by twenty-four feet each and that he offers to act as agent in the sale of the property at $8,000, adding that if the offer is not accepted $12,000 will be demanded for the place after the shacks are finished. Work has already been commenced and from present appearances it is believed that the neighbors will not buy the tract.

Story of a Success. Speaking of the immense growth of advertising, F. W. Ayer, the veteran member of the firm of Philadelphia, said:

"There was hardly such a thing as advertising until after the Civil War. Then the country began to feel its pulse and to stretch out into new lines. We have seen a great evolution in Journalism. When we started it was in the days of the weekly paper. There were the Toledo 'Blade,' the Atlanta 'Constitution,' Colonel Forney's 'Press' and the New York 'Tribune' and 'Sun.' But now increased postal facilities have rendered the daily paper the vehicle of news in every part of the country. The farmer 100 miles from the city gets it the same day it is issued. Yes, this is the day of the daily, and more and more is the public depending upon it for an account of what it cannot personally see and hear; and more and more the advertiser is depending upon it to tell the people that he cannot meet personally of the goods he has to sell. Do I think advertising will increase? Yes. We began in the days when staples were not advertised, when business men thought it all right for makers of patent medicines to advertise because they were supposed to bring a great profit. But for sugar, bread, biscuits and the like, on which profits were close, it was thought there was no margin for advertising."

Also another lot (vacant) of about same dimensions adjoining, to be sold separately. Part of purchase price may remain on mortgage. Further particulars will be stated at sale.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Fred Zimmer, an employe at Joseph Longhead's machine shop, on White-wood Avenue, is visiting relatives in Newark.

The Somerset Woolen Mill, of Somerville, will resume operations again Thursday morning, after a week's idleness.

Leo Moore, of West Fourth street, has returned from a business trip to Allentown, Pa., in the interest of the New Jersey Central Railroad Company.

Three persons were initiated and three new applications received at the meeting of the International Association of Machinists, No. 167, Plainfield Lodge, last night.

William Nichols, of the Campbell Press Company's plant, is in Boston, Mass., setting up an auto-plate press, from the Campbell people. The machine is being installed in the office of the Boston Globe.

William Skinner, a former employe at the Potter plant, has taken a position with the Wadsworth Brothers' machine shop on Railroad Avenue, Newark. Olaf Saugstad, of this city, is superintendent of the plant.

The Ingersoll-Sergeant Drill Company, at Phillipsburg, announces the prospect of a contract from the Interborough Railroad, in New York, for a supply of machinery, the construction of which would keep the plant running full force day and night for a long time. Many of the recently discharged machinists look for an early order to resume their old positions.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The terms "delegates-at-large" and "district delegates" customarily used in describing the State delegations to the National Conventions, are not as accurate as the old description. "Senatorial" and "Congressional district." The delegates to both the conventions are chosen on a basis of two for each United States Senator and two for each Member of Congress, the latter representing the Congressional district, the former the State. The Senatorial delegates are, of course, chosen by a State convention, and so the honor is considered greater, but each delegate has the same vote and rights in the convention.—Newark Sunday Call.

Along with the gossip of Governor Murphy's appointment to the National chairmanship, of the Republican party, there is a renewal of the story that in case of President Roosevelt's re-election Governor Murphy will be given a place in the new cabinet. The move to put the Governor at the head of the party is due to the efforts of Senator Kean. A year ago, when the senior Senator from New Jersey began to fix up his fences, he found the senatorial bee buzzing in the ears of Governor Murphy and a well-defined opposition to his own re-election in all parts of the State. Murphy seemed to him to be the most dangerous opponent.

There seems to be no doubt now that former Congressman DeWitt Clinton Flanagan, of New York and Morris-town, is out to secure the chairmanship of the Democratic State committee when William B. Gourley steps down. In that position Mr. Flanagan would be no figurehead. If he is chosen, it may be taken for granted that former Senator Smith will have reached the conclusion that Flanagan's pull with his fellow-brewers and distillers will more than offset his lack of popularity with the people because of his pigeon-butcherer proclivities. It may be that David Baird would also find it convenient to say a good word for the ex-Congressman.—Ex.

Public Accountants Concern. The Public Accountants Company has been incorporated in Trenton. The new company has many prominent State officials as its incorporators. The company is formed for the purpose of examining accounts of banks, business houses and corporations. The capital stock is placed at $100,000 and is divided in shares of $100 each. Among the incorporators are: Foster M. Voorhees, E. O. Stokes and Robert H. McCarter.

Change in K. D. Affair. Alpha Circle of King's Daughters will hold its entertainment in Franklin School, corner Fourth street and Arlington Avenue, Thursday evening, April 28 at 8:15 instead of at Trell Inn, owing to alterations being made in parlor of hotel.

—William Debele is having his house on Somerset street repaired.

—All bills against the city must be in the City Clerk's hands by April 28.

—David VanBuskirk, of West Second street, has had his auto repainted in handsome colors.

—Ralph K. Eckert has recently secured a position in New York city as stenographer, through the influence of the commercial department of the City High School.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED
BY THE PRESS.

Voting in Somerset.
If the Somerville Messenger is to be believed, Somerset County Democrats have no use for voting machines and hope that the new devices will be sent to places where they are appreciated. Will Colonel Dickinson kindly make a note of this and act accordingly? This is the second time it has been drawn to his attention.—Newark Evening News.

The Commuters' Side.
A number of the citizens who live in Westfield, in Union County, and commute to New York are accused of having neglected to attend to their public duties on the recent spring election day, and as a result Westfield becomes an "open" town. The commuters are the only ones to be censured for neglect of political duties. It is quite true that men whose business is in New York and whose homes are in the suburban towns and cities are often very derelict in attending the polls on election day, and for this they deserve reproof and reprimand. But in some places the natives and the commuters are ever at odds, and if the latter attempt to take an active interest in the local elections they are called hard names and are subjected to the severest kind of censure for having the hardihood to interfere with the plans and methods of the old-timers. Many a good man, capable and of high character, has been defeated for office after having reluctantly consented to run in the interests of progress and reform, simply and solely because he was a commuter. There is more than just one side to this censuring of commuters for not voting at spring or other purely local elections.—Newark News.

Grand Free Exhibition! New York Harbor by Day and Night

A large and magnificent oil painting, by Mr. Leo Lash, of New York, presenting a view of the city and harbor looking toward the north and east, will be shown in our third floor picture department tomorrow. Capably executed, handsomely framed in gold, and draped in crimson, it is a worthy exhibition. The only condition by an artist of a view that is the pride of the nation. In scope the picture includes Governor's Island in the foreground on the extreme right, and the eye is carried by a succession of fascinating details along the Brooklyn skyline, over the colossal bridges that span the East River, to the most imposing spectacle the hand of man has arranged—the marvelous collection of massive structures that would sink any but the rock-ribbed island on which they stand.

After the spectator has enjoyed the comprehensive panorama in its simple state, the picture begins to live. Twilight settles over the city. A light flares up in the clock tower of the Produce Exchange building, and the distant bell strikes five; the sunset sun is seen to flash on Governor's Island, and the report seems to reverberate over the water. Window by window the lights in the great sky-scrapers shine out, illuminating the offices where the business of a continent is transacted. The lights on Brooklyn Bridge twinkle in the distance, and the lighted cars begin to move across the great suspension. Ferries move to and fro in the East River and a myriad of lights—red, white and green, display the signals on the craft of scores of nations. Whistles sound—the piping of the tiny tug vies with shrill notes of the large ferries. Elevators pass up and down the elevator shafts of the Bowling Green and other great buildings, and tiny lights outline the domes of the Park Row and World buildings, the highest commercial structures in the world.

Thousands of lights scintillate from every corner of the picture, and the city lives before you, throbbing with the effort of a million souls.

As darkness gradually spreads over the scene, the lights go out one by one in the great buildings, and the ships and bridge alone remain illuminated. Then the darkness becomes complete, and daylight flashes on once more. The little cycle of the city's history is done. Automatically the story of the day repeats itself at will.

The choice of the picture's subject is peculiarly felicitous. It gives at a glance the most complete single view of New York Harbor that is obtainable. The city is shown as it appears from the deck of an incoming steamer—from the same point of view that Hendrick Hudson saw the island three hundred years ago.

The historic Battery is in the center of the foreground, and in place of Peter Stuyvesant's fortifications, that three times alternated under the Dutch and English flags, the aquarium and old "Castle Garden" stand today. The plaza that saw the treacherous execution of Jacob Leister, the first political martyr in New York, now appears studded with the trees of Battery Park. Beyond and above the Battery the tremendous skyscrapers loom up. This group of buildings is the chief interest of the picture. They differentiate New York from every other city in the world, and their fame has spread wherever our illustrated magazines are circulated. They represent millions of real estate value and hundreds of millions of business transactions are exploited within their walls. Outwardly they are the personification of organized enterprise, massive, towering and magnificent.

Few people have the opportunity to see this wonderful sight, for the great office buildings are only illuminated between the hours of 5 and 6, when the days are shortest. The picture will carry an expression of the spectacle even more vividly than the reality. The true spirit of the scene pervades it, and every detail is closely and veritably followed.

The display combines the interest of a work of the painter's art with the actual transitions that mark the city's life. The eye, the ear and the imagination are appealed to with all the zest of a newly visited scene.

We venture to say that there is not a man, woman or child in Newark who would not enjoy this panorama of New York Harbor in its successive phases from sunset to midnight. Third Floor.

MINISTERS FAVOR IT

Many Brooklyn Divines See
No Harm in Sunday Ball.

MUST HAVE OUTSIDE RECREATION

Baseball Far Superior to Such Attractions as Offered by Coney Island, Said Rev. H. C. Swentzel of St. Luke's.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Several prominent ministers in Brooklyn, where various church societies have been making a fight against Sunday baseball, when asked to give their views on the matter, spoke in favor of the pastime. With very few exceptions they said they could see no harm in playing ball or attending the games—their idea being that spectators were kept away from vicious forms of entertainment.

"I do not consider Sunday baseball an unmitigated evil by any means," said the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Swentzel, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church. "Baseball is a good, clean, healthy, outdoor sport and, considered by itself, is one of the best and most desirable forms of recreation and entertainment. What is more, there is a large class of persons in Brooklyn who are so closely confined by their weekday labors that they certainly earn the right to an outing and some form of recreation on Sunday afternoon."

"Baseball is far superior to such attractions as Coney Island furnishes. Personally I prefer an old-fashioned Sunday, not puritanical, but there seems to be a strong need for something of this sort, and I know of nothing that will fill the want like a good game of baseball."

"Sunday baseball I consider," said the Rev. Father Donohue of the Roman Catholic church of St. Thomas Aquinas, "a good, healthy amusement. It keeps our young men away from temptations."

"I am so strongly in favor of it that I have had one of my curates conduct a game at the club grounds in Twelfth street."

"Sunday baseball is all right," said the Rev. John L. Bedford, rector of the Church of Sts. Peter and Paul, "just the same as anything else in the nature of a healthy and innocent amusement. Anything of this character which interests the young and keeps their minds occupied I consider is devoid of evil."

When arraigned in the Myrtle avenue police court the cases of the three ball players who were arrested during Sunday's game in Brooklyn were postponed until tomorrow. The defendants are Roth, catcher of the Philadelphia team, and the Brooklyn pitcher and catcher, Poole and Jacklitsch.

Griffith, Eason and Vandergrift, the three players who were arrested during a game between the Philadelphia American league team and the Jersey City Eastern league team, were held in $100 bail each by Recorder Lazarus at Bayonne, N. J., under the vice and immorality act, for the grand jury.

Wall Street Men Are Generous.
NEW YORK, April 26.—It was learned that the members of the New York Stock Exchange have sent Barney Smith, their janitor, to Europe on a vacation trip. His salary will go on in the meantime, and his trip expenses are all paid. Smith has been in the employ of the exchange for many years and is well known to nearly all the members. He has been in poor health for some time, and the rest and recreation he will get, the members hope, will recuperate him.

New River Tunnel at New York.
ALBANY, N. Y., April 26.—The Hudson and Manhattan Railroad company has applied for authority to build a tunnel and railroad of standard gauge under the Hudson river from a point at Broadway and Cortlandt street, New York city, to a point in New Jersey. The proposed road will connect at the state line with a railroad to be organized under the laws of New Jersey.

Moyer Will Be Held Until May 5.
DENVER, April 26.—The state supreme court has denied the motion for the release of Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, on bail pending a decision on the habeas corpus proceedings in his behalf. The hearing on the merits of the case was set for May 5. Meantime Moyer will be held as a prisoner in the military prison at Telluride.

Prince Pu Lun at White House.
WASHINGTON, April 26.—Prince Pu Lun, accompanied by Sir Liang Cheng, the Chinese minister, and several members of his suit, attended a musicale given by the president and Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House. They were the recipients of much attention. A distinguished company was present, representing the official and social life of Washington.

Port of Monte Cristi Tied Up.
SANTO DOMINGO, April 26.—The government has issued a decree declaring the port of Monte Cristi blockaded. A gunboat will be stationed at that port to prevent the entrance of ships. Elections for president and vice president will take place May 30.

Plainfield, N. J., April 26, 1904.

The Equal Suffrage League, of Plainfield and North Plainfield, have carefully compiled figures showing the total valuation of real estate held by women in the two communities. Of course this is used as an argument for women's suffrage. When it is considered that nine-tenths of the property recorded in women's names is transferred to them by their husbands merely as a matter of protection to escape possible creditors, the statistics are of little value.

ALIS BUYS GRANDSTANDS

AND WILL PUT THE FIELD AND DIAMOND IN FINE SHAPE.

Extensive plans for improvement of the field and grandstand have been made by the Alis Club baseball committee. When the season opens the diamond will be in splendid shape and the seating capacity of the grounds will be doubled at least.

The committee has purchased the grandstands owned by the P. H. S. and St. Mary's ball organizations. Each of them seats about three hundred people without crowding. Arrangements have been made to move the newly purchased stands to the Alis field without delay. The St. Mary's stand is on their old field on Fourth street and the High School stand is on Orange Oval.

Chairman Mumford, of the committee, has determined that the diamond will be the smoothest and fastest in this section of the baseball world. Soil will be rubbed and rolled into it until the lowly grass blade shall have nowhere to poke its head through. 2,000 pounds of the stuff, it is estimated, will be dumped on the diamond.

A heavyweight four-horse roller will be run over the field this week. When the committee gets through with the diamond and the outer breastworks, it will not be the fault of the field if Alis doesn't play gill-edge ball.

No Settlement in Anderson Case. There has been no settlement of the case of John O. Anderson, administrator of the estate of James A. Anderson. The latter died in January last, and according to the will his wife, Rosanna Anderson, was the beneficiary. She died in February, 1903, a year before her husband, and the will was not changed.

According to the by-laws of the Catholic Benefit Legion, the insurance in the case goes to the legal representative of the deceased beneficiary, who is J. P. Owens, Esq., for distribution to the wife's heirs at law. Mr. Anderson's heirs claim that they are entitled to the money and have secured a temporary restraining order, preventing the Supreme Council from paying the money to the administrator, J. P. Owens, Esq.

An important meeting is to be held by the German Beneficial Society on Thursday night. Officers will be elected.

Harry Brokaw, who is well-known here as a former salesman for L. W. French, is State manager for the Sperry & Hutchinson Trading Stamp Company in Rhode Island.

Miss Elsie Moore, of Madison avenue, is spending a week with friends in Pennsylvania.

ATTACK ON GENSAN

Vladivostok Squadron Sank a Japanese Ship.

PEACE PROPOSALS DECLINED BY CZAR

Asians say Outside Interference Will Not Be Tolerated and That She Will Impose Her Own Terms at End of the War.

LONDON, April 26.—A Tokyo report says a Russian squadron, consisting of three warships, the Rossia, Gromovoi and Hurik, and two torpedo boats, appeared off the port of Gensan, Korea, without warning and made an attack on the place.

They sank a Japanese merchantman named the Goyo, a vessel of 600 tons. The Rossia is the flagship of Rear Admiral Baron Shtakelberg, commanding the Vladivostok squadron, and is the heaviest and most powerful cruiser in the czar's navy.

The Japanese residents were thrown into consternation. The old men and the women and children fled from the concession and took refuge at a distance from the water front.

After a time the Russian torpedo boats withdrew outside the harbor. The warships remained inside for some hours and then withdrew.

Ten days ago a telegram from Nagasaki reported the Japanese Admiral Kamimura on the way to Vladivostok with his squadron of seven vessels.

It is thought in Tokyo that this Russian naval movement was made in the hope of intercepting some unprotected Japanese troopships. It is not believed the squadron will remain near Gensan long.

Advices from St. Petersburg say it is announced authoritatively that the talk of mediation in the Russo-Japanese war was founded upon the personal desires of King Edward and King Christian of Denmark to avoid further bloodshed and end the conflict, but the steps initiated have utterly failed. The czar, with the full concurrence of the imperial family and his advisers, has firmly decided not only to reject all proposals looking to intervention, but to prosecute the war with all the resources of the empire until victory crowns the Russian arms.

The interference of outside powers will not be tolerated. There is to be no repetition of the Berlin congress.

Furthermore, Russia will in no wise consider herself bound by the propositions made to Japan prior to the war. The hostilities have wiped out the engagements Russia offered to make with Japan regarding Korea and Manchuria. Russia will consider herself free to impose such terms as she desires.

It is said that the emperor, replying to Viceroy Alexieff's application for leave, has telegraphed his refusal, adding that he hoped the viceroy would be able to send good news soon.

Feigner, the most celebrated tenor of the imperial opera, who is an officer of the naval reserves, has been called to the colors.

A St. Petersburg report says General Kuropatkin has played a strong card in the game of strategy. A large portion of General Rennenkampf's Cossack cavalry division has been thrown across the upper reaches of the Yalu, and a considerable force of cavalry which crossed the Tumen some time ago is moving down to the southwest to effect a junction with it. Together with this force, which it is believed totals 2,000 men, he will threaten Lieutenant General Inouye's left flank when the Japanese are ready to cross lower down on the Yalu. Being composed of cavalry, with a few mountain guns, Rennenkampf's force is extremely mobile. Unless it should be dislodged it will compel the Japanese to leave a very strong army to guard the communications, whereas if a Japanese force should be sent to drive it out it would have to move directly away from the main army, while the Russian army, if compelled to fall back, can recross in the direction of the Russian troops concentrated in Manchuria.

General Kuropatkin, it is believed in the highest military circles here, is destined to become commander in chief of all the emperor's forces, both military and naval, in the far east.

Admiral Alexieff may remain there for some little time as viceroy, but his reign is considered practically ended. He will not be humiliated, but in order to effect harmonious relations a way will be found to secure his elimination.

The emperor has received the following telegram from General Kuropatkin:

"General Sussulitch reports that the Japanese have been observed landing pontoon material and collecting boats in preparation for the construction of bridges in the neighborhood of Wiju and also near the village of Sigou, ten miles farther up the river.

"A Japanese detachment consisting of two companies of infantry and a small body of cavalry has crossed the Yalu ten miles below Sinopoussikhe. General Sussulitch immediately re-enforced the cordons on our front. Small parties of the enemy have been seen preparing to cross elsewhere in that vicinity."

A dispatch from Port Arthur denies a report that 20,000 Japanese have landed at Dally.

Gordon McKay's Will Probed.

BOSTON, April 26.—The will of the late Gordon McKay of Newport, which provides for a bequest of over $1,000,000 for Harvard university, has been allowed by Judge Grant of the Suffolk county probate court. Miss Harriet Abbott, a distant relative who had contested the will, appeared in court and withdrew all objection. Another relative who had remonstrated against the probating of the will was not represented.

SING SING FOR LIFE.

McNamara Confessed to Murder of Captain Jennings.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Frank McNamara, who shot and killed Captain George R. Jennings, president of the Jennings Adjustable Shade company of Brooklyn, pleaded guilty to murder in the first degree when arraigned for trial here. He will be sentenced to Sing Sing for life next Monday.

Henry F. Cook, secretary and treasurer of the Fahys Watch Case company, Chicago, where McNamara was employed as assistant foreman for fifteen years, charged McNamara with having stolen $5,000 worth of gold from the factory during the last three years of his employment. He gathered the sweepings from the floor and sold them to a Chicago jewelry firm. For his last theft McNamara received a draft for $2,200. He was then in Brooklyn and induced Captain Jennings, who knew of nothing wrong in the matter, to allow the draft to be deposited to his account in the Borough bank. It was then agreed that McNamara should withdraw the money in sums of $500. Later Jennings discovered how McNamara obtained the money and refused to let him have any more of it until he had obtained a release from the Fahys company.

McNamara then made up his mind to kill Jennings and did so when he next visited Brooklyn. Jennings was formerly an officer in the Fourteenth regiment.

The interesting religious marriage ceremony, to which the entire American colony is looking forward, will take place tomorrow in the Church of St. Honore d'Eylau. The bride and groom will be Miss Noufflard and Miss Lillie, an American girl who recently made her debut at the Grand Opera. The ushers will be A. H. Sartoris, a cousin of the groom; Maurice Noufflard, a brother of the bride, and Sir Frederick Robinson.

JEALOUS WOMAN'S CRIME.

Mrs. Powell Confessed to Killing of Essie Albin.

DOVER, Del., April 26.—Mrs. Mary A. Powell has confessed to the murder of Essie Albin, her foster daughter, at the Powell home near Bowers Beach. The confession was made shortly after the grand jury had returned a true bill of indictment against Mrs. Powell.

The murder of Miss Albin was unusually brutal. Her body, which was cut and bruised in scores of places, had been dragged from the cellar to the attic of the Powell home. Suspicion rested upon Mrs. Powell, as she was the only person who had been seen about the house on the morning the murder occurred. She was arrested on the day of Miss Albin's funeral, but maintained that she was innocent up to the time of her confession. Jealousy is said to have prompted the crime.

ROYAL ARCANUMITES ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

K. of C. Hall is Thronged by Guests of Prosperous Greenbrook Council, No. 1725.

A JOLLY GOOD TIME

THE AFFAIR IS ENJOYED BY THE LARGE ASSEMBLAGE.

Similar Affair to be Given in June —Committee in Charge, of Which Russell Hazard is Chairman—The Programme.

Under the auspices of Greenbrook Council, No. 1725, Royal Arcanum, one of the best entertainments of the season was given last night in Knights of Columbus Hall. There were over six hundred guests and a number of persons had to be turned away. From the time that James and John Galvin appeared in their amusing specialties, until a feast of good things was served by the committee in charge, the Arcanumites were considered the best of entertainers.

There were songs and dancing by Harold Willard, recitations by Miss Adele von Ohl, banjo and delcimer selections by Charles Henn and Fred Finigan gave his famous dutch dialect sketch. William Jeffery won applause in singing "For Sale, a Baby," illustrated, the slides being operated by William Soborh. Mrs. A. E. Willard gave her fire dance and the entertainment was concluded with a laughable farce, entitled "Hector," presented by Fred Long, A. E. Willard, Mrs. Fred Long, Mrs. A. E. Willard, Miss Clara Kester, Mortimer Slater, Fred Huff, Walter Emmons and Fred Finigan. During the evening Grand Vice Regent James Rogers, of Cranford, made an address.

The committee in charge was composed of Russell Hazard, chairman; Horace Conover, John Dickson, William C. Force and Charles Messersmith. A similar affair will be given during the early part of June. Dancing will be a feature.

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

George Johnston, manager of the Allis Club ball team, received the third degree at the meeting of Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F., last night. Others who received the same degree were William VanCourt and A. B. VanSickel.

Because the Modern Woodmen of America is aiming to report a membership of 1,000,000 at its head camp meeting to be held in Milwaukee in May, 1905, the members of other orders are speculating as to what methods are employed by this organization to warrant the hope that such a task will be accomplished. According to the official reports made for March 31, there are now 753,045 members enrolled. Of this army all but about 50,000 have been "adopted" within the past ten years.

St. Tammany's day, the red letter day in the calendar of every member of the Improved Order of Red Men in New Jersey, will be celebrated in Camden Thursday, May 12, with the biggest demonstration the order has ever held in the State. There will be a whole grist of star attractions, including a street parade, in which hundreds of "Indians" in war paint and full warpath regalia, will march to music of a number of the leading bands of the State. As one of the leading Red Men cities in the State, Plainfield will take a leading part in the celebration and will send good delegations from all the local tribes. Many of the big Red Men in this city will go to Camden on that day.

Stole Coal? Hall Ross, an Italian, was arraigned this morning in the city court on the charge of having stolen goods in his possession. The Pingry School baseball team, of Elizabeth, defeated the team from the Carteret High School on Saturday by a score of 28 to 0. Only seven innings were played.

Although Manager Denman was pleased that his team won Saturday's contest with the Seventh Regiment aggregation, he was disappointed in the showing made by the members of New York's National Guard. The contest was too much one-sided.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The members of the Interscholastic League, composed of Leal's School, of this city; Pingry, of Elizabeth; Newark Academy, Montclair High School and Carteret High School, have decided to wait until fall before arranging athletic events. This action is taken because all of the schools have fixed their baseball games for this season. In the fall a series of football games and other events will be arranged.

GOLF.

The second play for the George Morrison Cup was the only event at the Cranford Golf Club, Saturday. The cup is offered for a series of three competitions in which the player returning the best score for the three will be declared the winner. The final contest will be on Saturday. ## PLAINFIELD HIGH WINS

FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP GAME IN SERIES WITH LEAL'S SCHOOL.

The first of a series of games between teams from the Plainfield High School and Leal's School for the championship of the city was played on Crescent Oval yesterday afternoon, resulting in a victory for the High School boys by a score of 17 to 4. Each team was well represented by "rooters" and the contest was a lively one from start to finish.

Features of the game were the pitching of Lovell and Abbott, of Leal's School. They held their opponents down to six hits, while Smith, of the High School, allowed only five hits. Both teams shows weakness in batting and questionable decisions by the umpires at critical points were partially responsible for the large score. The error column shows that Leal's team run up a total of fifteen, while the opposing team made seven.
