

ALIS' LOSSES FIRST BATTLE WITH WESTFIELD

Three Errors in Ninth Inning

BRILLIANT EXHIBITION

Two Thousand Fans Attend Opening
Game for County Championship—
"Red" Waller Gets a Day Off—
Thatcher in Box for Westfield.

With bright prospects for winning one of the finest exhibitions of baseball here this season, Alis went down ignominiously before Westfield and two thousand fans on Crescent Oval, Saturday afternoon. It was one of those heart-breaking contests that should have been won by the home team. After Davis had pitched a superb game, holding the visitors down throughout,
victory was quickly turned to defeat through two errors by Roberts and another by Mehler. Up to this time Alis had the game 5 to 3. Then Westfield through a combination of three errors and a two-base hit by Brown, of the Jersey City Eastern League team, chalked four runs and won the game by a score of 7 to 5, much to the great disappointment of the big crowd of Alis supporters.

This is the detailed score of the game:

Earned runs—Oregon 2, McGoey, Brown, Hickman, Burke, Thatcher. Two-base hits—Mehler, Hollywood, Hickman, Connolly, Thatcher. Three-base hits—Oregon, Farmer, Thatcher. First base on balls—Off Davis, 3; off Thatcher, 3. Struck out—By Davis, 5; by Thatcher, 3. Left on bases—Alis 4, Westfield 8. Double plays—Davis, Mehler and Roberts. Passed balls—Burke. First base on errors—Alis 0, Westfield 5. Hit by pitcher—McGoey, Devens. Time of game—Two hours and fifteen minutes. Umpire—Merity.

Westfield scored one run in each of the third, fifth and sixth innings. Davis was as steady as clock-work and he was backed up by Farmer in faultless style. In the ninth inning, after Thatcher fanned, Goldberg reached first on Mehler's error. Then Barry got the initial bag on an error by Roberts, who let the ball get by him, and the "Kid" repeated the offense with a ground ball hit by Rooford. With three men on bases, Brown connected with the leather sphere for two bases, bringing Goldberg, Barry and Rooford across the plate and later scoring himself, a total of four runs.

Alis scored one run in the second inning, two in the third and two in the eighth. Thatcher, who was given one trial by the Brooklyn National League team, and was subsequently released, was the star artist for Westfield, "Red" Waller having been held he could have the day off. Denman said it was the first time "Red" had ever failed him, but it was generally believed that it was not intended that he should pitch. However, Davis pitched as good, if not a better game than Thatcher.

McGoey, Oregon, Davis and Farmer carried off the honors for Alis, while up to the ninth inning Roberts played an errorless game. He keenly felt his misplays, as did also Mehler. Oregon and Farmer gave Thatcher a solar plexus for three bases, while Mehler hit for two bases. In the fourth inning McGoey made the star play of the season. Hickman sent a

J. F. Clime, of Burlington, made a speech criticizing the New Jersey Legislature, and Col. Dennis F. Collins, of Elizabeth, also spoke in a similar manner.

It is understood that Col. Clime denied that he said anything derogatory to the legislators and further claims that his speech was incorrectly reported. While here Mr. Valentine secured several affidavits from persons who were at the dinner, verifying statements as to what occurred. The result of his investigation will be reported to headquarters.

REMEMBERED FIGHTERS WHO PRESERVED UNION

Survivors of the Civil War and Young Militia Men Decorated Graves of the Dead.

DR. CHAMBLISS' ORATION
THE SPEAKER SOUNDED A WARNING AGAINST DEMAGOGISM.

Chorus of Fifty Children at the Reform Hall Exercises—Ceremonies at the Cemeteries Closed With "Taps."

Led by the Independent Fife and Drum Corps and with Company K, Second Regiment, N. G. N. J., as a guard of honor, the old soldiers who fought in the bloody struggle for national integrity during the early sixties, visited the local cemeteries yesterday and decorated the graves of those of their comrades who are buried there.

Fully as impressive as the services in the cemetery itself was the sight of the stalwart young National Guardsmen presenting arms in salute of the older generation of fighters as the latter passed into the cemetery to strew flowers on the graves over which they fired a parting salute of three volleys. The ceremonies at the graves were appropriately closed by the sounding of the bugle call "taps."

Exercises were held in Reform Hall in the afternoon by the G. A. R., in which a chorus of about fifty children, trained by Mrs. John Manley, took part and which included post services of the G. A. R., songs and recitations and an address by the Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Choosing for his subject "Voices from the Dead," Dr. Chambliss in his peculiarly sympathetic manner, described the origin of Memorial Day, first set apart by order of Gen. John A. Logan, who had seen the women of Alabama in 1868 laying flowers on the graves of the soldiers without regard to whether they had worn the blue or the gray.

Coming to his subject proper, he said that every man is heard from again after he dies, not once or twice, but continually and perhaps forever. How happy it would be for some men if their remains could be shut down under the lid of a coffin. But a blessed thing for others, that it never can be so.

"There is no other entrance into the glory of any victory," said Dr. Chambliss, "but the gateway of suffering. The history of our country from Valley Forge and the Brandywine to the Rappahannock and the death-bed of a martyred President proclaiming the truth. Even that flag which is loved and revered through all the world—is it not a beautiful and deep sign to us, almost an ordinance of God to us, that whether for nations or for men, stripes are first, blood-red parchment, and only afterward and through them—stars of glory."

"He who will not suffer for principle has no principle. He who will not suffer for love—love of man, love of country, love of God, does not know what love is. To sink self, to bury self—that is greatness, that is glory. Because no other country in the world has so many national cemeteries and so many patriot graves as ours, the American citizen today ought to be the noblest type of manhood on the earth."

"Another voice from the graves of the heroic dead is this: Keep that which one has committed to you. Let the time never come when it shall be said, 'They died in vain.' Remember that the true glory of a nation lies not in the splendid misery of victorious war, but in the dissemination of honorable happiness, the encouragement of righteousness and the suppression of vice; that it form the pollution of demagogism and all political villainy, to preserve its institutions of education and religion in their republican purity and simplicity, to subdue and stamp out the mighty monstrous vices that stalk over the land, defying God and destroying souls; in a word, to hold fast the inheritance one has received, consecrated by the blood of a thousand battlefields."

Anglers' Paradise.

South Plainfield pond has been the anglers' paradise for the last few days. Suckers and catfish have been so thick that when the water was low the fishermen could pick them up from the mud by hand. And the funny easy marks have been bigger than usual. Yesterday one man got a ten-pounder.

Play was begun Saturday in the mixed doubles tennis championship of the East Jersey Lawn Tennis Association on the courts of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club. The entry list was unusually strong and the pick of the women experts represented in the league participated in the contests. There was a large gallery present on Saturday and yesterday, the play being watched closely. The Hillside Tennis and Golf Club and Park Club were well represented and made excellent attempts to win their matches.

Mrs. Edgar and B. Berry of the Ilderan Outing Club of Rahway, in their match with Miss Helen Lockwood and W. Gennert of the Danforth Tennis Club, the last match of the first round, had things by no means all their own way as this proved to be the most closely contested match of the day. All three of their sets went to deuce, the second set going sixteen games.

Last match in the second round: Mrs. A. W. Booth, Jr., and S. L. Smith, Bergen Point Tennis Club, beat Miss Blanche and G. H. Miller, Roselle Casino, 6-2, 6-3.

Third round: Mrs. Edgar and B. Berry, Ilderan Outing Club, Rahway, beat Miss Florence Bradley and F. G. Smith, Westfield Club, 8-6, 9-7. Miss Miller and E. W. Mulford, Roselle Casino, beat Mrs. Booth and S. L. Smith, Bergen Point Tennis Club, 6-3, 6-0. Miss Amy Mitchell and W. Lockwood, Danforth Tennis Club, beat Mrs. C. W. Fourth round: Mrs. Edgar and B. Berry, Ilderan Outing Club, Rahway, beat Miss A. R. Robinson and H. S. Eddy, Seawaren Land and Water Club, 6-2, 6-2. Miss Miller and E. W. Mulford, Roselle Casino, beat Miss Amy Mitchell and W. Lockwood, Danforth Tennis Club, 6-4, 6-3.

The sudden advent of a thunder storm interrupted the finals when Mrs. Edgar and B. Berry, of the Ilderan Outing Club, Rahway, had taken one set from Miss Miller and E. W. Mulford, of the Roselle Casino, by a score of 6-0 and lost one 6-3. The first game of the third set had just been decided in favor of Mrs. Edgar and her partner when the rain put a stop to further play. This deciding set is slated to be played off at 4 o'clock Thursday, June 2.

Phenomenal play has been done by Mrs. Edgar throughout the tournament and the praise of her game is unanimous. Her pluck and steadiness have pulled her out of some very doubtful looking deuce sets and will without a doubt make for success in this last and most closely contested match of the series.

APPEALS FOR HOLIER LIFE

REV. MR. TODD'S STIRRING ADDRESS AT TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

Rev. A. F. Todd, the veteran preacher of Danellen, produced a strong impression upon the congregation of Trinity church at the close of the service Sunday night with a short talk on his conversion sixty years ago and an exhortation for the holy life.

He recalled his conversion in vivid language, and reviewed his life in the Christian service. His appeal for a better and holier life stirred his hearers strongly, and the effect of his words was noticeable. Coming from a man so venerable, in such an unexpected way the appeal will not be likely to pass from the minds of the auditors without affecting them to a greater or less extent. Mr. Todd pronounced the benediction, by request of Dr. Schenck.

Alis, 8, Rahway, 4; Alis, 3, Seventh Regiment, 3; Scotch Plains, 2, Aeolian, 4; Scotch Plains, 3, Celluloids, 0.

The Rahway Field Club, bidders for the Union County championship, was defeated by Alis on Crescent Oval, yesterday morning, by the score of 8 to 4. The Rahwegians put up a good fight, but were outclassed. Griffin pitched a fine game for Alis, striking out eight men, while Mertens struck out seven. Quinby played his old position at second in fine style, Oregon going to right field and Hollywood to the bench. The game was interesting throughout and was witnessed by a good sized crowd.

This is the score by innings:

Alis	20030040x-8 11 4
Rahway	000100080-4 6 2
Batteries—Griffin and Farmer; Mertens and R. Potter.

A record-breaking holiday crowd witnessed the afternoon game between Alis and the Seventh Regiment, N. G. N. Y., which had to be called at the end of the fifth inning on account of a heavy shower. When Umpire Merity called the game the score was 3 to 3. The National Guard boys gave the locals a good stiff game, Claude Edwards, formerly of the Plainfield High School, occupying the box for them and holding Alis down to two hits, while the visitors made five. Barnes, formerly of Alis, played right field for the visitors and made a two-base hit. Davis and Farmer were up to their usual game.

This is the score by innings:

Alis	12000-3 2 5
7th Regt.	01011-3 5 8
Batteries—Davis and Farmer; Edwards and Mooney, Larendon and Voorhis.

Scotch Plains. The Scotch Plains baseball team put up one of the prettiest games of the season Saturday afternoon against the Aeolians, considered one of the strongest teams in this section. Until the ninth inning the game was tie, 3-2. Two base hits, which should have been fielded, netted the organ makers two runs and the game as Scotch Plains was unable to score in their half of the ninth. Montross, who did the box work for the locals, pitched one of the greatest games he has ever twirled.

Following is the score by innings:

Aeolian	030000002-4
Scotch Plains	00109-200-3
Decoration Day afternoon the Scotch Plains and the Celluloids, of Newark, put up one of the prettiest exhibitions that the most ardent fan could desire. Smiling Jimmy was again at the helm and pitched great ball. Only two errors were made by the home team and these were not costly. Not a man crossed the plate for the visitors and Parker's pitching kept the home team guessing.

Following is the score by innings:

Celluloids	000000000-0
Scotch Plains	00010200x-3

Memento gift for Decoration Day? What better than a box of Huyler's candies? J. P. Powers, of Somerset street, received a big fresh shipment Saturday. His soda is delicious—best in the city.

William Hand & Son, of East Second street, are ready at all times to do moving and express work of any kind. The firm employs expert men and all work is guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Every time a man, woman or child buys anything from W. W. Warnock, the baker, they not only get their money's worth but they get what they cannot surpass anywhere; whether it is bread or cake or pie.

Charles E. Vall, the Park avenue jeweler, is showing a very attractive line of silverware and jewelry, of the best quality and lowest prices. He also carries a full line of standard watches for men and women.

Gavett has the finest collection of berry dishes, ice cream plates, fruit sets of all kinds in both china and glass. The tables set with his goods are never out of taste. You cannot go wrong in buying from Gavett.

Fred Ivamy "has the goods" when it comes to fish of any sort whatever. In addition to that he has the facilities of getting the kind of fish you want, around at your kitchen door early enough for breakfast any morning.

Dudley S. Miller, the Park avenue druggist, is serving par excellence these warm days. He uses only pure fruit syrups and his ice cream is very popular. Mr. Miller also carries a complete line of drugs and medicines.

If you need a lawn mower, refrigerator, oil stove or housefurnishing goods of any kind, you will make no mistake in trading with A. M. Griffen, the East Front street hardware merchant. You will find the goods all right and the prices will meet your pocketbook.

It makes no difference whether you purchase meats, groceries or vegetables at S. Schener & Co.'s store on West Front street, you can always depend on getting the best in the market and at prices that are reasonable. This firm has an established reputation for fair dealing and it will always stand behind the goods sold, guaranteeing them to be just as represented.

Memorial Day on a Monday may spell stale goods for some merchants, but that is not the case at the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company's store. Every thing there is fresh every week and the goods just in are the finest of a long line of fine articles which have been put on sale there. Potatoes and other vegetables which we lack space to name are there in abundance and the regular rush for that Elgin creamery butter is in full blast.

When one walks through Woodhull & Martin's dry goods store and sees the countless bargains offered, it is convincing proof that right here can be secured goods just as desirable and at as low prices as in New York. The store is filled from one end to the other with this season's goods, all of the best manufacture. Every department is conducted on the highest scale of efficiency. In the housefurnishing goods department just now will be found just what you want for the house and porch.

James Devlin, of Arlington avenue, has gone out of town on business.

POSITIVE PROOF.

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Plainfield.

Because it's the evidence of a Plainfield citizen.

Testimony easily investigated.

The strongest endorsement of merit.

The best of proof. Read it:

F. O. Smith, of 686 West Front street, contractor for painting, etc., says: "There was a distressing pain across the small of my back which clung to me all the time. When I got seated at times if I moved a sharp pain struck me in the back and loins and almost made me exclaim. Any change in the weather or if I caught the least cold always aggravated the trouble and caused me to suffer severely. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me by one of my employees who had been cured of a long standing case of kidney complaint by their use. I commenced the treatment, derived benefit from it immediately and before I had finished the first box I was cured."

ALIS LOSES FIRST BATTLE WITH WESTFIELD

sky scraper toward Hollywood, but McGee realizing that Hollywood would not get it, started after the sphere. After a long run he made a desperate leap and picked the ball out of the air with one hand while the crowd went wild with delight.

Farmer made another star play in the second inning. He got a pass to first, stole second and third, and while Devens, who also got a pass, was stealing second, Farmer came home, tallying the first run.

In the third inning, Oregon put the ball out of reach for three bases, and was followed by McGee with a single. Then Mehler hit for two bases, scoring two runs. The other two runs were made in the eighth inning. Oregon made a safety. McGee did likewise, but was caught stealing second. Mehler then tapped Thatcher for a single, stole second, while Farmer got a pass. Devens was hit with the ball and Hollywood sacrificed, scoring, Oregon and Mehler.

Captain Lander was considerably off his game. In one or two instances his coaching was disastrous and he did not exhibit his usual snap. Many insist that Manager Johnston should not have allowed "Bully" to play with his sprained ankle, which affected his work generally.

Hickman playing short for Westfield, marred the pleasure of the game somewhat by resorting to questionable tactics. He was roundly hissed several times.

MRS. HOWE 85 YEARS OLD

MOTHER OF MRS. FLORENCE HOWE HALL OBSERVES HER BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, mother of Mrs. Florence Howe Hall, of this city, observed her eighty-fifth birthday in Boston on Thursday, as is her custom on these anniversaries, in her own family circle.

With her are Mrs. Laura E. Richards and Mrs. Maude Howe Elliott, her daughters, and her two granddaughters, daughters of Mrs. Richards.

There were numerous callers during the afternoon at the Beacon street house and quantities of flowers were sent to Mrs. Howe.

Celebrated Her Sixth Anniversary.

In honor of the sixth anniversary of her birthday, Blanche McVoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert O. McVoy, of Sandford avenue, entertained a number of her young friends at her home yesterday afternoon. The affair was in the nature of a lawn party and the little folks had a merry time playing games and romping on the lawn. During the afternoon refreshments were served. The little Miss received a number of useful and pretty gifts to mark the occasion as one of the most pleasant in her life.

HOW TO OBTAIN Summer Boarders!

There is in New York City one daily newspaper which has made tremendous gains in popularity during the past five years. Its net cash paid circulation is over 100,000 copies daily throughout every section of New York City (including Brooklyn), larger than that of any other recognized resort medium. This newspaper's readers are among the wealthy, and well-to-do, intelligent people—those who can afford and do take extended vacations in the country during the summer. It carries more resort advertising than any other morning newspaper, so the public naturally look to it for information, as to where to go, and what to do.

An advertisement in its columns is, therefore, exceedingly valuable and sure to produce results. This paper is

The men and the horses of the borough fire department are rapidly taking front rank in the mechanical part of their work. Lieutenant Campbell has trained the team to respond to the bell with the speed of veterans, and the men, by constant practice, have learned to reach their posts and get away from the house in time as good as that made in the best city departments. The recent series of alarms, false and real, have demonstrated to the citizens that the new department is as fast and expeditious as its warmest supporters promised, and a general comment to that effect is being made.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The trolley party to Riverside Park yesterday proved a most enjoyable outing for those who went, the only thing to mar the day being the thunder storm of the late afternoon.

A number of people went from here to attend the strawberry and ice cream festival held at the First Baptist church in Somerville yesterday.

A detail from Winfield Scott Post, No. 78, G. A. R., of Plainfield, visited the Sampson cemetery yesterday and decorated the soldiers' graves there.

Peter Leimpeter, of Pittsburgh, has been visiting for some days at the home of his brother, Edward Leimpeter, of Fronts tree.

Arrangements are under way for the observation of Children's Day at the Presbyterian church on June 12.

Mrs. D. P. Vail, of New Brunswick, has been visiting at the home of her son, F. Percy Vail.

The first of a series of evangelistic meetings was held last night at the Presbyterian church.

Satisfactory progress has been made in the repairs to the Burke residence on Prospect avenue.

Mrs. Albert Apgar and daughter, Grace, are visiting in Lancaster, Pa.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The threatening weather of yesterday detained many at home who had planned to spend the day at pleasure resorts near by. The usual programme of the day was held in the village cemetery, the graves being decorated by a delegation from Winfield Scott Post, G. A. R., and the local firemen during the morning. The local ball team played but one game of baseball, this being held in the afternoon at 3:45. Galvin's Park opened for the summer with a free programme of music, vaudeville and dancing. The town in general observed the day in a fitting manner, business at the several stores being suspended, while from the homes of many the stars and stripes were flying to the breeze.

Griffin, who it was expected would do the twirling in Saturday's game against the organ makers, failed to show up. Smiling Jimmy Montrose went in and pitched a great game, striking out eight of the organ makers and allowing but eight base hits, it was no fault of Jimmy's that the visitors pulled out a victory in the ninth inning. Had Williams been in his usual form the locals would have won the game. Billy reported sick to Manager Hand, but as there was

The new cars adopted by the trolley company when the express service was started several weeks ago, are being put in service on the local accommodation cars. The change is one appreciated by the public for two reasons: More comfortable; no end seat hogs.

A strawberry and ice cream festival is to be held Saturday afternoon from 3 to 9 on the lawn about the church. This is the first of the season and will no doubt be liberally patronized.

Glenside Park has opened for the summer season, several families have already arrived while others have engaged cottages and will begin to enjoy life in the country shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Owens, who have been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Hand, have returned to their home in Brooklyn.

Miss Mamie Mercere, of West Fourth street, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mercere, of Grand street.

The members of the gun club enjoyed a holiday shoot Decoration Day morning on their grounds near Green brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Robison have returned from their wedding trip and started housekeeping in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stillger and children, of Brooklyn, spent Decoration Day with Mr. Stillger's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ryno, of Park avenue, have been entertaining relatives from Plainfield over Sunday.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Dayton entertained their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Avery, of Brooklyn, yesterday and Sunday.

Clarence Pullen, of Newark, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. P. O. Johnson and his grandfather, James H. Jones. Mabelle Cumberley has returned home after a three days' visit with Miss MacMurray, of Jersey City.

The cemetery was visited Sunday and yesterday by many who decorated the graves of their friends.

Miss Nellie B. Manning entertained her friend, Miss Williams, of New Market, over Sunday.

Albert Manning is building a water breaker along the pond bordering on his lot.

Trinity's Improvement Fund. In response to an appeal for subscriptions to the fund for the enlargement of the school room, the classes of Trinity Reformed church Sunday-school pledged liberal contributions Sunday afternoon. The pledges were made by class, and a total of $375 was promised. Several classes were not prepared to name the amount they would give, so that the sum named is less than the full amount to come from the scholars.

Children's Picnic in the Woods. More than 100 children of the Infant Society of St. Mary's Sunday-school were taken for a picnic in the woods by the Sisters attached to the church Saturday morning. Perfect weather and a complete commissariat made the outing a complete success.

He Got Off Easy. Patrolman Morris Higgins arrested James Wilson, colored, on West Third street early Saturday evening, for stealing coal and trespassing on the Central Railroad's property. He was discharged yesterday morning.

Increasing Church Roll. Ten persons were added to the membership of Trinity Reformed church Sunday morning, at the regular communion service. One of the ten was admitted on confession.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fulton, of Brooklyn, spent Sunday and Memorial Day with Mrs. Fulton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Mills, of West Front street.

Many Was Overturned. NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 31.—A trolley, on which were fifteen young people from the Grace Methodist Episcopal church of New York city, who were seeing New Haven under the guidance of Ashley Willis of this city, was overturned on State street and several of the party severely bruised. Edward Willis, international secretary of the Young Men's Christian association of New York, was among those hurt.

Miniature Car Jumped Track. NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 31.—Five persons were injured seriously by the overturning of a car on a miniature railway at an amusement resort at Savin Rock. Mrs. Edward Boyle of New Britain was most badly hurt. She was cut about the head, and her son, Edward, aged twelve, had his leg wrenched. The train was going around a curve when the rear car jumped the track and was overturned.

Maine Wreck to Be Raised. HAVANA, May 31.—Joseph R. Wyckoff, a lawyer of Havana, has returned from the United States, having organized a company, he says, to raise the wreck of the battleship Maine under an agreement to pay the Cuban government $5,000. The intention is to sink a coffer dam, raise the hull and repair it sufficiently to tow to New York for exhibition.

Hibernian's Officer Missing. ST. JOHN'S, N. F., May 31.—Chief Officer Gallacher of the Allan liner Hibernian, wrecked off Cod Roy, has disappeared, and it is feared that he has committed suicide. He was in charge of the vessel when she struck. The Hibernian is now deemed a total loss.

Chose a Dreadful Death. STAMFORD, Conn., May 31.—Miss Mary Tyler, aged thirty-six years, has committed suicide by igniting her clothing, which she had saturated with oil. Her family can give no reason for the act.

COSSACKS DEFEATED

General Oku Reports Russian Army Retreating.

JAPS CAPTURE RAILWAY TRAINS

Strong Detachment Has Driven Back 2,000 of the Czar's Famous Cavalry at Aliyangpiemen and Occupied It.

LONDON, May 31.—A Tokyo report says a strong detachment of Japanese troops has attacked and defeated 2,000 Cossacks at Aliyangpiemen, northwest of Fengwangcheng. The engagement began at half past 10 o'clock in the morning. The Japanese after defeating the Cossacks at Aliyangpiemen occupied that place, and reinforcements have been sent forward to support them.

General Oku, in command of the Japanese forces operating against Port Arthur, reports that the Russians have abandoned Chienkochen, Hwangshan and Lushutun. No Russians have been seen east of Chienkochen.

General Nakamura's detachment, which occupied Lushutun on Friday, captured four Russian guns.

From Chinese sources it is learned that the Russians have four lines of defense between Nanshan and Port Arthur.

General Kuroki reports a number of outpost affairs and the capture of eight Russian scouts.

The Japanese have captured a quantity of powder and fifty-six railroad cars at Lushutun.

A report says that Japanese troops, after an engagement with the Russian forces, in which the latter were defeated, have occupied Aliyang, a village to the north of Kuantiencheng.

There are at present no Russians at Hamhung, on the eastern coast of Korea. The troops which were there have marched to the south. The Korean soldiers who were sent to Hamhung have been withdrawn.

It is reported that General Kuropatkin has issued a report showing the Japanese have advanced from Kwantien to Hamhung.

Further Had Made All Preparations.

CANALAN, Conn., May 31.—Sherman Deenan, aged twenty-four years, shot and killed his wife here and afterward attempted to commit suicide. He fired a bullet into his own breast above the heart, but will probably survive the injury. Deenan came into this place from West Cornwall in search of his wife, who had left him because of his alleged abuse. As he entered the house of Henry Ives, where he knew his wife's sister was working, he saw his wife and immediately shot her, death being almost instantaneous. He then ran out of doors and shot himself. In his pockets the officers found two 32 caliber revolvers, a razor and a bottle of carbolic acid.

"Blue and Gray" at Florence. CHARLESTON, S. C., May 31.—A special from Florence says the G. A. R. and the Florence Blue and Gray Memorial association held joint exercises at both the Confederate and national cemeteries there, a custom that has been observed for the past five years. After services at each of the cemeteries flowers were placed on both Confederate and Union graves. Former soldiers of both armies were among those taking part.

New Turn in Dreyfus Affair. PARIS, May 31.—The ministry of war has caused the arrest of an officer who is understood to have been connected with the Dreyfus affair. The officer, who is held in close confinement in the fortress of Mount Valerian, is said to be charged with using considerable sums of money during the court martial at Rennes in order to secure the conviction of Dreyfus. All official information concerning the case is withheld.

Bridgeport Man's Body Found. NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 31.—The body of Henry Laughlin of Bridgeport has been found in a barn on the outskirts of the city. There was a terrible gash on the right cheek extending from the eye to the lip, but the medical examiner says that death resulted from apoplexy. He thinks the man received the wound in a fight. The body has been in the barn for several days. The police will investigate.

Twelve Plunged Into River. SALIDA, Colo., May 31.—Twelve persons have been plunged into the Arkansas river here by the breaking of a footbridge on which a crowd had gathered to witness the ceremony of casting flowers on the water in memory of the country's naval heroes, and the wife of the Rev. Warren Thompson was drowned. Some of the others were unconscious when rescued and were revived with difficulty.

Prince Pu Lun at Niagara Falls. BUFFALO, May 31.—The Chinese prince, Pu Lun, and his party have visited Niagara falls and also made an inspection of the plant of the Niagara Falls Power company. The prince descended into a wheel pit in one power house and crossed into the pit of another power house through a tunnel. A visit was also made to the Canadian side of the falls.

Was Pushed or Fell Into River. BRANFORD, Conn., May 31.—During a quarrel among Italian laborers on a wharf at Rogers Island Joseph Thitana, aged forty years, was pushed or fell into the water and was drowned. Search is now being made for Rocco Leposta, with whom Thitana is said to have been scuffling. Leposta disappeared after the tragedy.

INEXPENSIVE FURNITURE.

A Suggestion For Beautifying the Cottage in the Country.

"Why not go to the secondhand shop?" ventured the wise woman. "Oh, I haven't much money to spend. I simply can't afford any furniture at all. I don't know what I shall do for our little country cottage."

"I didn't mean to have you buy antique colonial mahogany, my dear, but do you realize that one can pick up old chairs for so small a price as $1 apiece?"

"Well, let me give you a hint. Buy some cretonne at 25 cents a yard and some gilt tacks and recover them yourself. It's the easiest thing in the world, once you try. Of course, the tufted chairs are a little harder to do, but those with plain seats and backs can be done in three-quarters of an hour. You don't have to rip a thing—just tack the new pieces on over the faded old ones."

Her friend took her advice, and the picture shows the attractive result. The woodwork of this particular room was white and the cretonne in old rose and yellow figurings. The pictures on the wall are merely attractive prints, most inexpensively framed.

R. DE LA BAUME.

SAVE YOUR STRENGTH.

If You Must Economize, Economize on Something Else.

"Never mind! I chased all over town, but I got that ribbon 5 cents cheaper a yard down at Slasheim & Halvethem's bargain sale!"

As the speaker finished she sank into a chair completely exhausted, and the next day Dr. Brown had to be called in to relieve her neuralgia, price $3.

"Yes, we'll live in the Vere de Vere apartment house," remarked Miss Foolish to her chum. "It's really more than we can afford to pay, but we'll get our own breakfast and economize on that."

Result, nervous prostration for Miss Foolish and a term with the complexion specialist for the other young lady.

"I'll save a dollar a week by going to my meals at the boarding house four streets away," announced Miss Economical. But Miss Economical wondered why on earth she was so tired at the end of the first month.

"No, I can't afford so many dresses," remarked the girl who was going away for the summer, "but of course I must have them, and so I'll just economize a bit by making all the skirts myself."

Result, she appeared so homely and worn out when she reached the hotel that no one would look at her even in her best gowns.

"My goodness!" cried the busy mistress of a large house, "Spare myself by eating my breakfast in bed? Why, I couldn't think of such a thing. I'd feel as if I were wasting time. No, I don't suppose I would be, but I'd feel that way." And at the end of the year she had to go away for a long rest.

Women, save your strength. Economize on clothes if you must, but not on food and the necessities of life. Don't be afraid of being lazy occasionally. The hardest workers are those that understand the value of sparing their strength in small things, and in the end they accomplish most simply because they have the actual strength to work.

The chimney stops on both floors were blown out, and the soot was scattered into the room.

VARIOUS GAMES IN AND ABOUT THE CITY BRIEFLY REPORTED.

Accompanied by thirty or more supporters including several of the faculty, the High School baseball team went to New Brunswick yesterday and showed the Rutgers Prep. something of the Plainfield article in ball playing. Smith and Davis made a fine showing as the battery for P. H. S.

After one run by P. H. S. in the first inning, neither side scored until the eighth inning when the New Brunswick boys got two men over the plate. This advantage proved short-lived however as the same thing was done in the ninth by the High School team, making the final score 3 to 2. Van Vechten umpired the game satisfactorily.

The Cedarcroft baseball team defeated Short Hills at Short Hills, on Saturday afternoon, by a score of 13 to 10, and yesterday morning they defeated the Millington Field Club at Millington, 13 to 11 in a ten-inning game.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and John Porter and family desire to express their sincere appreciation for the condolence and many expressions of sympathy which came from a multitude of friends upon the tragic death of their beloved son, and also take this means to thank the Ladies Bible Class and Y. M. A. of Hope Chapel and the employees of Foster Press Works and Hersey and Kapp for the beautiful flower pieces so kindly presented, all of which helped them to bear their burden of grief and made manifest that with them others shared their sorrow.
