

HORSE SHOW A TRIUMPH

As on Friday Twelve Classes Are Judged on Saturday at the Supurb Exhibition.

SOCIETY THROWS PARK

Everyone is Well Pleased Over Initial Effort, and it is Planned to Produce a Bigger and Better Show Next Year—Those Who Aided in the Affair.

Favored again with ideal weather,
the horse show closed Saturday afternoon at the Plainfield Driving Park in the blaze of glory born of unequalled success. The attendance was double that of the opening day, fully 1,000 people witnessing the display of horse-flesh and horsemanship. The grandstand was almost filled with society people, not only of this city but from the leading suburban towns of the metropolitan district, and fashionable rigs lined the rail.

As on Friday, twelve classes were judged. The special feature was a hurdle race for four-year-olds and upward. The prizes were awarded as follows:

CHARLES B. SCOTT PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY

Instructor in Natural Science
at the High School Dies
From Typhoid-Malaria.

BRIGHT AND POPULAR

SON OF THE PRESIDENT OF HOPE COL-LEGE, HOLLAND, MICHIGAN.

University of Michigan Had Made him a Master of Arts—A Wife and Three Children Survive Him.

Charles B. Scott died yesterday afternoon of typhoid malaria at his late residence, 786 Grant avenue.
During the past year, Mr. Scott has been instructor in natural science in the public schools of this city. With wide and accurate knowledge of birds and plants, he combined great enthusiasm for and clear presentation of his subjects, and a kindness of manner and sympathy in his relations with his students that made him a very popular teacher.

Mr. Scott was a son of Dr. Charles Scott, late president of Hope College, at Holland, Michigan. He received his B. A. at Rutgers and M. A. at the University of Michigan. For a time he was on the staff of the State Geological Survey of Pennsylvania, and then for ten years was teacher of science
in the St. Paul High School and Oswego Normal School. For the three years ending in 1903, he was in the employ of the American Missionary Association in charge of schools newly established in Porto Rico; and the next year he was principal of the A. M. A.
School at Savannah, Ga. During the past year he has been teaching at the Hyannis, Mass., Normal School, in Montclair, and in Plainfield. He had recently accepted a professorship in the Hyannis Normal School for the coming year.

Mr. Scott is survived by a wife and three children; by his mother and sister, Mrs. Daniel VanPelt, with whom he was living, and by two brothers, one living at Holland, Mich., and the other at Fort Collins, Colorado. He was forty-three years of age.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 4 o'clock and interment will be at Shawangunk, Ulster County,
N. Y.

SOME MINOR BASEBALL GAMES

CONTESTS ON THE DIAMOND OF IN-TEREST TO THE FANS.

The Danellen Whistlers crossed bats
with the St. Joseph's of Bound Brook on Saturday and were beaten by a score of 11 to 7.

The Levering & Garrigue iron workers defeated the Standard Paint Co. ball team Saturday morning on the Lincoln avenue grounds by a score
of 13 to 7.

Teams representing Miantonomo and Watchung Tribes, Improved Order
Red Men, engaged in a lively baseball game on the mountains Saturday afternoon. Miantonomo won by a score of 13 to 11. Fred Bimble and Charles Keller was the battery for the visitors and Thomas Keefe and Dick Scott the battery for the defeated side. David Allen and John Scott were the umpires.

The Danellen Field Club covered themselves with glory Saturday by defeating the strong Somerville High School team on the Lincoln avenue grounds by a score of 6 to 5. The Somerville H. S. team is composed of older players than the locals and the victory was very creditable. The game was won by opportune hitting and fine work by Danellen's battery: Logan and Giles. The Danellen infield played in good form and hit the ball hard.
Garretson, Somerville's pitcher, did good work but his support failed him
at critical moments.

Freddie Bennett Buried.
Funeral services for Freddie Bennett,
who was drowned in Green brook last Thursday afternoon, were held from the home of his parents yesterday afternoon. Four of his young friends acted as pall bearers. Rev. J. O. Mc Kelvey, pastor of Warren chapel, conducted the services. Interment was made in Hillside Cemetery.

Boys Bad Franks.
Carl Silbert, the Somerset street
jeweler, complained to Chief Kieley of the renewal of the pranks of the boys who broke one of his windows a short time ago.

ALIS IS DEFEATED IN FINE EXHIBITION

Crack Hoboken Aggregation
Wins the Game by a Score
of 9 to 5.

BADGLEY'S POOR WORK

GOOD STICK HANDLING AND BRILLIANT
FIELDING AS FEATURES.

Walton, Quinby, Davis and Farmer
Carry Off Honors—Two Thousand Fans Present—The Scores in Detail.

Inability to hit at opportune times,
together with the poor showing made by Badgley, the Lehigh University
pitcher, in the opening two innings, tells the story of the second defeat of the Alis team on Saturday. The local team put up a good exhibition against the crack Hoboken aggregation, and it is believed by many that had Davis pitched the entire game the score would have been much closer, and possibly 5 to 4 in favor of Alis. However, it was a fine game and the nineteen hundred fans present were pleased, although they would have preferred to see Alis win.

It was a fast exhibition from start to finish, the coaching of Tiersman,
of the visiting team, being a feature.
Badgley, the college twirler, had a most unfortunate opening and many felt sorry for him. He was a trifle wild, and Hoboken netted a total of four runs while he stood on the firing line. In the first inning Kiernan got a double, Shortell was hit with the ball, Wall and Heckman singled, scoring two runs. In the second inning Kiernan was hit, Shortell singled and Lamar doubled, bringing in two more runs. This was a good lead, while in the first three innings Alis drew blanks. Badgley was relieved by Davis in the third inning and he kept the hits well scattered.

In the sixth inning Walton started a merry go round for four runs. The short-stop, Quinby and Oregan each singled. These hits with a base on balls and an error by Shortell resulted in four runs. Alis got its first run in the fourth. Quinby doubled, Oregan scored and McGee singled, bringing Quinby home. In addition to his excellent pitching, Davis distinguished himself with a three bagger, only to be left on third.

Farmer, who has been hitting the ball hard, kept up his good work by making a three bagger and a single.
He was a trifle slow in running bases,
previous experiences making him exercise more care in this matter. Behind the bat he maintained his clever work.

Bradley, at third, was not up to his standard, either in stick work or in the field, much to the disappointment of his friends. Quinby played his same snappy game, giving a fine exhibition in the field and in base stealing. He touched McKenna for a double and two singles. In all Alis got ten hits, against thirteen for Hoboken.

In the fourth inning Farmer, Walton and Quinby made a pretty double play, and in the seventh another double was made by Davis, Farmer and Quinby.

The contest was marked by plenty of hitting, brilliant fielding and few errors. The visitors made a good impression, and when they return here again will be greeted by even a larger crowd.

Salutatory at the Annual Commencement Exercises.

REVIEW OF THE WORK

APPRECIATES EFFORTS OF SUPERIN-TENDENT AND BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Refers to Pupils' Exhibit at St.
Louis Exposition—Inspiration
Received From Books—Address in Full.

Miss Anna Coriell Randall delivered
the salutatory at the Plainfield High School commencement exercises. Her address received favorable comment
and in response to numerous requests
it is herewith reproduced:

"A great many years ago, the world consisted entirely of men. But as, day after day, from his high Olympus, Jupiter observed his handiwork, he noticed how incomplete the race appeared, and how desolate and discontented man seemed. One day, as he was making his customary observations, an idea occurred to him.
He would create a woman, and send her to earth as a companion for man.
Immediately he set to work, and finally the new being was finished.
Then the father of the gods sent word to all his children that, on a certain day, he would give a birthday party for this new child, and all were invited.

"At last the time for the long-looked-for event arrived, and in great excitement, the divinities assembled at the appointed grove. In the midst, on his high throne, sits Jupiter with Juno at his side, and before them stands the wonderful being in whose honor the festival is given. When all have assembled, Jupiter gives a signal, and the gods and goddesses approach. First comes Venus with her gift of beauty. She is followed by Apollo, who bestows the faculty of music. Thus, one by one, they advance, each bringing a gift. And last comes Minerva with her priceless gift of wisdom.

"When all have laid down their offerings, Jupiter arises, and announces that the name of this new being is Pandora, 'the gift of all the gods.' Then at a sign from him, two goddesses approach, and, lifting Pandora in their arms fly with her above
the heads of the gathered assemblage, and, swiftly descending through the air, leave her upon the earth to dwell
there forever.

"Full of meaning as was this story
for the ancient Greeks, has it, then,
no significance for us? Like Pandora, we, too, have been presented with gifts. We have been surrounded all our lives by influences which have helped to make us what we are.

"The chief of these gifts has come to us in our homes. There, our fathers and mothers have watched and guided us with unceasing care, and no small part of our pleasure tonight lies in the fact that this occasion gives great pleasure to them.

"Next in importance to the influence of the home has been that of the schools, and especially that of the High School in which we have spent so much of our time during the past four years. It is to the citizens of Plainfield that we owe these schools.
To these citizens, then, we owe a debt of gratitude for the many gifts which have come to us through these schools.

"To the members of the board of Education, and to the Superintendent, we extend our greetings tonight. We wish to thank them for their special thought and labor to make these gifts of the most value to us. We appreciate the efforts they have put forth to secure for us a more commodious building. We are sorry that their plans could not have been accomplished during our course in school,
but we are glad that in the near future, their efforts promise to meet other than Neuman Bros.' berries.

GOLF ENTHUSIASTS FOLLOW ANCIENT GAME

Miss VanBoekerck and Willard Wadsworth Win at Hillside Course.

LIVELY COMPETITIONS

REV. DR. CARROLL WINS FIRST HONORS
AT PARK GOLF CLUB.

Team Match With Colonia Golf Club Postponed—Westfield Defeats Westchester Team in a Closely Contested Match.

While the horse show attracted many who would otherwise play golf,
there was a good field at the Hillside
Tennis and Golf Club, on Saturday, to take part in the several events. In the morning Miss Maude VanBoekerck won the Gilbert cup, in the finals played in the morning, with a score of 103, 12-90. Other scores were Mrs.
M. P. Rogers, 92, plus 6-110; Miss Edith Tracy, 114, 10-104.
Play for the Golf Committee and Men's Handicap cups were the chief events of the afternoon. Willard Wadsworth won a leg on the Men's Handicap cup and he also won first honors in the weekly competition,
while E. B. Shoemaker, J. A. Tompkins and H. L. Hall divided the remaining three points with a net score of 76.

These scores were posted for both cups:
Willard Wadsworth, 78, 5-73; E.
B. Shoemaker, 89, 12-76; J. A. Tompkins, 90, 14-76; H. L. Hall, 100, 24-76; O. B. Morgan, 87, 9-78; W. L.
Glennay, 79, 0-79; S. D. Lonsberry, 88, 8-80; Leighton Calkins, 85, 3-82;
C. A. Stover, 97, 15-83; H. D. Hibbard, 92, 9-83; A. E. Barclay, 110, 25-85; F. A. Clark, 99, 12-87; Olaf Sangstad, 100, 8-92; F. H. Andrews, 114, 22-92.

There was a goodly number of contestants at the Park Golf Club on Saturday, the events being the weekly competition for the President's and Park Golf Club cups. By request of the Colonia Golf Club, the East Jersey Golf Club team match was postponed, the date to be fixed later.

Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll, G. T.
Rogers, Herbert Rogers, Arthur Peck
and Rev. J. O. McKelvey won the honors for the President's cup, while Morgan T. Townsend, Arthur Peck and Herbert Rogers won the points in the scratch competition. The scores:
Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll, 100, 19-81;
George T. Rogers, 101, 16-85; Herbert Rogers, 96, 11-85; Arthur Peck, 93, 7-86; Rev. J. O. McKelvey, 99,
13-85; Samuel Townsend, 104, 15-89; Morgan T. Townsend, 89, 0-89;
Charles A. Reed, 90, 8-91.

The Westfield Golf Club team defeated a team from the Westchester Golf Club on Saturday by 3 points to 2, on the Nassau system. The competition was close throughout. After the match the visiting team was entertained at dinner by the home club.

PYTHIAN KNIGHTS HONOR THEIR DEAD

Memorial Day Observances
Here in Which Members of the Order Participate.

DECORATE THE GRAVES

VISIT OF SIX KNIGHTS TO THE CEME-TERIES HERE AND SCOTCH PLAINS.

Gen. Hitchcock, Past Grand Chancellor Commander Shanley, Grand Chancellor Laws and Other High
Officers of Order in Parade.

Delegations of Pythian knights from half a dozen cities came to join with Crescent Company, No. 13, Uniformed Rank, in observing the annual ceremony of the Pythian Memorial Day.
The graves of knights in North Plainfield, Evergreen, Hillside and Scotch Plains cemeteries were decorated, the prescribed ritual of the order being gone through at each place, by Captain J. E. Flannery, David Bowen,
O. R. Pearson, Charles McGinley, J.
P. Hall, Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., of this city and Captain Hale, of Brooklyn, the latter having charge at the North Plainfield Cemetery.

Bathbone Company, of Brooklyn;
Black Prince Company, of Newark; Eshio Company, of Kearney and Dover Company, of Dover, turned out in full strength. Delegations from companies in Elizabeth and Washington, New Jersey, were on hand also.
All the foregoing are of the uniformed rank of the order and in addition to them, delegates from Portchester Lodge, Portchester, New York, were in line. The total number of knights, including those belonging in this city,
Crescent Company, Uniformed Rank
and Perseverance and Unity lodges, was about 300, making the largest affair of the sort yet held here. Of this number, 100 were members of the lodges, the others being of the Uniform Rank.

On arriving at the North avenue
depot, the six knights were met by Crescent Company with the Independent Fire and Dram Corps. Afterward the visits were made to the various cemeteries, finishing at Scotch Plains, where a supper was given in Excelsior Hall. The line of march was made from Evergreen Cemetery
to Hillside and from there to Scotch Plains, by stage.

In addition to the presence of Col.
Howell, of New York, the gathering was honored by the attendance of Past Grand Chancellor Commander P.
Frank Shanley, of Jersey City, Grand Chancellor Commander Lewis G.
Hitchcock and Grand Outer Guard John Main, all of Newark, officers on the executive staff of the State.

The committees were as follows:
Crescent Company—David Bowden,
William Young and Robert Good.
Perseverance Lodge—William N. Run-
yon, John H. Coe, Alex. Muir, Robert Lee and J. Stephen Elgham.
The auxiliary committee in charge of supper arrangements consisted of A.
D. Pope, W. H. Schorb, M. D.
Sweetney, Philip Jahn, B. C. First-brook, V. W. Nash, Jr., E. D. Outting, Frank Putnam and L. O. Vannatia.

WESTFIELD TEAM SHUT OUT

THE AEOLIAN NINE PUTS IT ALL OVER
DENMAN'S AGGREGATION.

With Doeshor, of the Brooklyn Nationals, again in the box, the Aeolians gave the Westfields another dose of shut-out Saturday. Aeolian yanked in four runs.

Westfield had a glibful gentleman named Wilson in the box, but it was no go for the long end. Not even with Mr. Ransitt Kenzie, cheered on and applauded by Capt. Diogenes Mallen, as the umpire person. Close decisions wouldn't have mattered anyway.
Westfield was the mark in one of those taking - candy - from - a - baby things.

Aeolian only got one more hit than Westfield, but the bells counted.
Westfield five swats were scattered dreadfully along the way.

ATTORNEY GENERAL UPSETS SCHOOL PLANS

Fanwood Township and Borough Must Hold Another School Meeting.

WHAT CAUSES HITCH

RESOLUTION AS PASSED IS DECLARED TO BE DEFECTIVE.

Must Hold Another Election to Legalize Act—The Attorney General Reverses His Predecessor.

Because Attorney General McArthur
differs in opinion from his predecessor, Attorney General Stockton, upon a point of law, the action taken by the voters of Fanwood Township and Borough several weeks ago, when they authorized the erection of a new schoolhouse, goes for naught. A new election will have to be held, to legalize the erection of the school.

When Attorney General Stockton was in office he passed favorably upon a resolution providing for a school in another district of Fanwood, this resolution allowing the School Board to select by lot each year the school bond to be paid off. The resolution offered to the voters for the proposed school was identical in provisions and phrasing.

New Attorney General McArthur
says the lot-drawing clause is illegal, and formal notice to this effect has been served on the Board. Another election will be held tonight. The objectionable clause has been changed to provide that the Board shall "determine" what individual shall be paid.

DINNERS FOR BRIDAL PARTIES

MISS BERRY AND MISS VAN DEVENTER
GUESTS OF HONOR AT FUNCTIONS.

Among the social events attended upon the wedding of Miss Ruth Berry and William E. Faber, which will be celebrated Wednesday night at Holy Cross church, was a dinner given by Mrs. Robert McOstobson, of Plainfield avenue, Saturday night. The guests were Miss Ruth Berry, William Rowley Faber, the Misses Frances Bruce, of Pittsfield, Mass.;
Alice Hadden, of Cleveland, Ohio;
Isabelle Milne, Elizabeth Valiant,
Elsie Brokaw, Sophie Barlow, Marion
McOstobson, and Lewis Williams,
George Dupee, Arthur Peck, Herbert
Rogers, Frank Thompson and A. B.
Laing.

Miss Sophie Barlow and Miss Isabelle Milne gave a luncheon this afternoon at the Park Club for the bride-elect, Miss Berry and Miss VanDeventer. Covers were laid for eighteen. Tomorrow night Miss Berry and Mr. Faber will give a dinner at the Park Club for the members of the bridal party, twelve in all.

Just the things you want for table furnishings and decoration through the season of flowers and fruit. Can you look through this splendid stock and fail to recognize that everything is here which the metropolitan stores offer, except the awful crush?

Candidly speaking, the bread and cake, to say nothing of the pastry turned out by W. W. Warnock, the West Front street baker, cannot be improved on by anyone. Don't forget to have him furnish the cream for your receptions this summer.

The fact that H. J. Wierenga has his headquarters at Sattels' music store argues pretty strongly in favor of his ability as a piano mover.

Serges in the best qualities and cut are found at Harry Werner's for the lowest prices consistent with first class goods and this holds true of every garment in the store. Cool summer suits of all the lightest materials, including the newest thing of all, the natty looking Ballaboo home-suits. Many a man, now spending his substance in glad clothes for a campaign among the summer girls at the shore, will repent when he sees the vastly better appearance made by the man who bought his at Werner's, where he couldn't waste money if he wanted to.

To get the satisfaction out of spending your money for painting and papering, give the job to Woolston & Buckle. If you do that, you won't have any reason for suspecting the presence of kerosene in the paint, instead of linseed oil, nor whitening where lead should be.

As thoroughly equipped for a general banking business, as any of the metropolitan concerns, the First National Bank is a thoroughly representative institution and has become a factor in attracting to this city, the class of residents which give the place its distinctive character. Travelers' cheques, letters of credit, foreign exchange and safe deposit vaults, are features which appeal to the wealthy, as do the savings department and interest-bearing accounts to those of moderate means.

If you are in need of cool summer suits or waists, plain or fancy, go to the Boston Cloak and Fur store and you will there find just what you want. You will be pleased with the goods and the price.

When thirty go to L. W. Randolph's pharmacy on West Front street and get a glass of refreshing soda water, or if you need medicine or drugs of any kind or toilet articles, this is the place to get them at prices that will suit you.

Putnam & DeGraw, the West Front street dry goods merchants, are prepared for a big summer trade. The firm has received, one of the best stocks of dry goods in the city and can please you both as to quality and price.

The meals at Timbo's restaurant are of the same uniform goodness every day, as hundreds of patrons can testify. Any one who patronizes this place never goes away hungry and a feature is that the prices are not exorbitant.

There is no place like the right place to get summer dress goods. The right place for Plainfield is I. H. Boehm's store on West Front street. That is a straight tip worth money to the prospective buyer of wash and more expensive fabrics. Summer millinery is also at its best, from every standpoint, in this city at Boehm's.

Only one place in town for cameras and camera supplies. That's at F. W. VanWinkle's store, North avenue. He is headquarters.

More light! Fit up electric lights with Holophane Shades and watch the radiance increase 90 per cent. Your bill won't increase at all.

Fine! The U. O. D. cigar, made by Henry Eggerding, Park avenue. No better smoke in its class. Famous here for years.

Dog Case Compromised. Andrew Carney, of Lincoln place, has compromised his dog fight with the borough over the catching of his two dogs. A conference between Mr. Carney, the dog catcher and the chief of police, ended with the payment of a dollar to the dog catcher and the release of the Carney dogs. The borough waived its claim to fifty cents on each dog.

Negotiations are under way looking to the opening of Washington Hall on West Second street as an automobile station. Joseph Loughhead, at present operating a machine shop on Regent street, is one of the principals in the scheme.

Mrs. H. A. Bonn, of Craig place, has gone to Liberty, N. Y., for recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Shepard, of Beaconhurst, L. I., are visiting friends here.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Anthony Martell, of West Fourth street, has resigned his position at the Federick-Ayer plant.

James Welsh, a laborer at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, is suffering from a badly lacerated finger which he received while at work at the plant Friday. The injured man was holding a piece of hobbit for William Connelly, who was driving on a large shaft, the wedge slipped and struck Welsh on the hand, mashing one of the digits. It will be several days before the injured man will be able to resume his position.

George Fritts, of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, has been transferred from the new electric crane to the erecting department.

Frank Newman, of West Second street, handed in his resignation at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, which took effect Friday night. Just before quitting time his hand was caught between an emery wheel and a shaft he was grinding, nearly severing one of the fingers. The lad went to Dr. Clawson to have the digit dressed. An operation was performed yesterday when the finger was amputated.

Joseph McGauley, of West Fourth street, has taken a position at the Crescent Embossing Company's plant.

John Thompson has returned to his position at the Potter Press Company's works after a two months' vacation.

Thomas Monnell, of the Campbell Press Company's plant, is detained at home with a sore eye. About a week ago he was struck in the eye with a hot chip, but thought little of it. The young lad has been advised by Dr. Ard to go to Muhlenberg Hospital for treatment.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Miss Ethel Garretson is suffering from the effects of having run a rusty nail into the ball of her right foot on Thursday.

Miss Emma Spae, a teacher in the Lincoln School, will leave for her home in Port Jervis, N. Y., this evening, where she will spend her summer vacation.

Invitations have been issued for the graduates' reception which will be held in the Whittier Schoolhouse to night. Dancing will be a feature of the evening.

The Plainfield cars run all the way to Dunellen postoffice now, to the great comfort of travel.

Miss Stella Soffield, of New Market, spent the week-end with Port Richmond friends on Staten Island.

Mrs. Robert Chase, of New York city, has returned to her home after spending several days with Mrs. George Craig, of Front street.

A letter addressed to Mr. George Traynor remains uncalled for in the postoffice.

Herbert Wyckoff, who has been detained at his home several days, suffering with an attack of biliousness, returned to work today.

At a meeting of the Dunellen A. C. plans for the new baseball team were discussed. Fred Vail was finally elected manager and William Giles captain for the present season.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT?

Delegates Discussing Cannon, Fairbanks and Hitt.

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT MAKE A CHOICE

Illinois Will Put Up a Big Fight For Their Congressman—Alaskans Arrive With Totem Poles.

CHICAGO, June 20.—In a nutshell the situation regarding the Republican national convention is as follows:

There is a feeling on the part of some of the members of the national committee that the selection of George B. Cortelyou to be chairman of the committee may turn out to be a mistake.

This opposition is not dying out, and Governor Odell says it is a very serious matter, but there is little doubt that Mr. Cortelyou will be selected at the meeting of the new national committee.

Senator Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana is the leading candidate for vice president, but there is some feeling that Mr. Fairbanks does not meet the demand for a popular figure. There is a strong undercurrent in favor of stampeding the convention for Speaker Cannon or Mr. Hitt.

Illinois has decided to make an active, aggressive campaign for Hitt for vice president. A caucus has been held in the state headquarters, and a formal plan of campaign in the interest of the Illinois congressman was adopted.

After a discussion between the leading men of the delegation it was arranged that Senator Shelby M. Cullom of Illinois should present the name of Mr. Hitt to the convention, and seconding speeches will be arranged for by at least two delegates, one from the middle Mississippi valley and the other probably from New York. After the adjournment of the caucus it was announced by some of the Illinois men that the seconding speeches would be delivered by Senator Dolliver of Iowa and some one yet to be selected. The senator was out of the city visiting friends and could not be seen, but members of the Iowa delegation scouted the idea that he would speak for Mr. Hitt. According to them he had received and had not accepted invitations to speak for the nomination of Senator Fairbanks and George W. Webster of Nebraska, and under the circumstances it was not at all probable that he would second the nomination of Mr. Hitt. Moreover, there is a decided sentiment among the Iowa men in favor of Fairbanks, although a number of them are in favor of Hitt.

The Michigan delegation after learning of the statements made after the Illinois caucus declared that they were in favor of Fairbanks and not of Hitt. Senator Cullom of Illinois said after the caucus:

"There are many delegates in Illinois and in other states also who do not favor the attitude taken by Senator Fairbanks and prefer that the place should go to a man who will show a little more appreciation of it. Illinois has a good man in Hitt, and rather than let the thing slide to Senator Fairbanks in an aimless sort of way we have decided to push the fight for Hitt as strongly as possible."

In a double header special train of fourteen coaches 300 uniformed members of the Cincinnati Blaine club have arrived here with a band of sixty pieces. George B. Cox, chairman of the delegation, and other delegates accompanied the club.

The members of the Rhode Island delegation have arrived and opened headquarters in the Great Northern hotel.

"We expect to play a negative part in this convention," said Charles Alexander, one of the delegates. "We have no special candidate for vice president, have not considered for whom we will vote and have no planks for the platform."

The Missouri delegation announces that Major William Warner of Kansas City will present the name of Cyrus P. Walbridge of Kansas City as a candidate for vice president.

Several personal representatives of the president who have arrived here have made an emphatic declaration that the president was positive in his determination to express no preference regarding the selection of his running mate. Both Senator Lodge and Secretary Root said this to all the delegates who approached them on the subject.

Speaking for themselves, the close friends of the president say they do not doubt that Mr. Fairbanks would be acceptable to Mr. Roosevelt, but they are not willing that the president's name should be dragged in to assist the Indiana senator's nomination.

Sensors Beveridge and Fairbanks, Governor Durbin, Representatives Overstreet and Watson and most of the other Indiana delegates arrived last night. The delegation met at 10 o'clock this morning. Senator Beveridge will probably be elected chairman of the delegation, Senator Fairbanks member of the resolutions committee and Chairman Goodrich of the state committee the Indiana member of the committee on credentials.

Quite the most picturesque entry into the city was that of the Alaska delegation, half a dozen strong, each man carrying a miniature totem pole on which was mounted a big white necked Alaskan eagle.

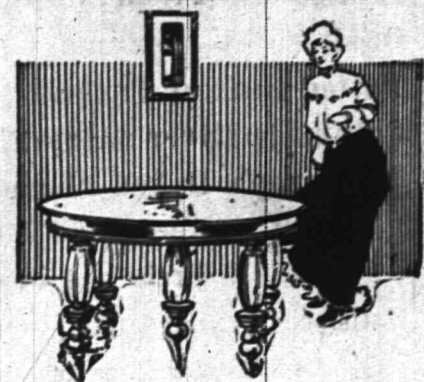

A band enlisted the march from the station to the hotel of the Lead's club of Philadelphia, with Mayor Weaver at its head.

Senator Hansbrough's plank in the form in which he will present it to the committee reads as follows:

"We recommend an early readjustmost of the rates of duty in existing tariff schedules to meet the requirements of changed and changing business conditions and in the matter of our commercial relations with other countries."

As originally drafted the plank was longer than this, but the senator has declared that he will present it in the form quoted.

The National Manufacturers' association is planning to make a strong fight against the insertion in the platform of any plank calling for or declaring in favor of the adoption of an eight hour day or any declaration against the writ of injunction as applied to labor disputes. Eighteen members of the association, several of whom belong to the executive committee, are expected here to watch over the interests of the association.

Hitt Is Better.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Congressman Hitt of Illinois, who is suffering from the effects of an attack of acute indigestion and a severe cold, is better. He is still confined to his room and in obedience to the advice of his physician is keeping very quiet. There seems no probability that he will be able to attend the Republican convention at Chicago.

KANAWHA IS CHAMPION.

Lysistrata Cup Still Held by H. H. Rogers' Yacht.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Mr. H. H. Rogers' steam yacht Kanawha has successfully defended the Lysistrata cup, defeating Mr. F. M. Smith's steam yacht Hauoli in convincing fashion. The Hauoli was beaten over the entire course of sixty nautical miles. The victory of the Kanawha entitles her to still be called the champion of the steam yacht fleet in American waters, an honor which she has modestly carried for five years and has made her one of the most popular yachts ever constructed.

The course was covered by the Kanawha in three hours and fifty-eight seconds. That is an average so near twenty knots per hour there is no use figuring it, yet it is 19.90 knots.

The time the Hauoli required to cover the course was 3h. 4m. 27s., which is an average of 19.33 knots per hour. This race and the numerous incidents connected with it will long be remembered by yachtsmen and should be placed on the records in the archives of the New York Yacht club so prominently as to suggest in a feeble way in future years the interest and excitement attending the battle royal.

Each Gained a Victory.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—The St. Louis and New York American league teams broke even here in a double header. The first game went to the New Yorks by a score of 4 to 3, and the St. Louis team took the second by a score of 1 to 0. Howell and Powell, who figured in an anteseason trade, were the opposing pitchers in the first game, the latter winning by a narrow margin. Fred Glade shut the visitors out in the second game, striking out ten men and allowing only four hits.

Race For Kaiser's Cup.

LONDON, June 20.—Under very favorable weather conditions and a fine breeze aft from west-northwest the international yacht race from Dover to Heligoland for the German Emperor's cup was started, with fifteen great ocean going yachts in competition. Never have so many fine cruisers been seen at such a race before. At the start the German schooner Clara at once shot forward and held the lead as the fleet disappeared.

Honors Were Even at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—St. Louis and Pittsburg each won a game in their double header here, the home team taking the first game, 4 to 3, and Pittsburg getting the second, 5 to 2. Both games were hard fought, and in both cases poor work in the field was responsible for defeat.

Brooklyn Got Bad Whitewash.

BROOKLYN, June 20.—The New York team defeated the local players here by a score of 11 to 0. Witte for the visitors pitched a fine game, only three hits being made off him. New York batted Jones hard for six innings, and then he was replaced by Cronin.

Boston Won Out at Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Boston won out in the game here by bunching hits in the first inning, when they counted twice. The locals put up a great fight to overcome this lead, but Tannehill held them safe at critical times. Score, 2 to 0.

Fighting in Tibet.

GYANTSE, Tibet, June 20.—A force of 300 Tibetans attempted to intercept a British convoy near Gyantse. Four Tibetans were killed, and the convoy arrived here safely. The Tibetans around Gyantse, according to the latest information, number about 8,000 men, and there are 7,000 between Kangma and Karola. The Tibetans' fort is receiving more brass cannon, and its fire is increasing in intensity.

A New Rear Admiral.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Captain F. W. Dickinson, commandant of the navy yard at League Island, has been appointed a rear admiral in the navy, to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Rear Admiral J. J. Read, chairman of the lighthouse board.

British Destroyer a Total Loss.

SHANGHAI, June 20.—The British torpedo boat destroyer Sparrowhawk struck an uncharted rock off Saddle Islands, near Hangchow bay, and is a total loss. The guns from the vessel were saved and no lives lost in the disaster.

Comparing Cities.

Plainfield is only a quarter of a century behind the age. Elizabeth, New Brunswick and other New Jersey cities about thirty years ago tried the experiment of having wooden pavements, which proved to be a signal failure and have everywhere been abandoned. But Plainfield is about to pave Watchung avenue with wooden blocks, and the newspapers there have neglected to inform the City Council of the utter worthlessness of such pavements for general use. — New Brunswick Home News.

It is but natural that New Brunswick and Elizabeth should be jealous of Plainfield, a model city with more improvements probably than any other town of its size in the United States. Over thirty miles of well kept macadamized street, an up-to-date paid fire department, a large and efficient police department, an unexcelled health bureau with a chemist and inspector always on the alert, the third largest free library in the State, a big hospital and an isolation hospital, underground storm sewers, a complete sanitary sewage disposal system with an filtration plant that challenges comparison, and a public school system that is considered by educational authorities in the East as a standard, and less saloons and a higher license than any place of its size in the State—these are some of the improvements that go to make Plainfield the queenly city of New Jersey.

Some of the things we have not got are horrible streets badly kept, noisy, some alleys, houses of ill-fame, an antiquated volunteer fire department, over a hundred saloons, many being of the disreputable type, shady hotels, corner loafers, and a board of aldermen said to be controlled by saloon-keepers and politicians, street walk ers, and a hayseed police department. A finer class of citizens and better looking women are other proud boasts of Plainfield.

As for being twenty-five years behind the times when the Common Council plans to lay wooden pavements, that is the product of an ill informed editor who wastes his time writing rot and nonsense. The kind of wooden pavements which New Brunswick and Elizabeth had was not fit for anything short of kindling wood. Any kind of wood was used and it was merely soaked in tar and laid on planks in the streets. The type that Plainfield is considering is made of hard wood, Georgia pine, which is thoroughly dried and then treated with twenty-two pounds of preservative mixture to the cubic foot. This mixture is of creosote and rosin. The wood will not rot. The blocks are laid on a solid bed of concrete—not on planks. Boston, Lowell, Providence, Hartford, New York, New Rochelle, Baltimore, Jersey City, Newark, Pittsburgh and Grand Rapids are using the wooden pavements with excellent results and on the recommendation of its able street commissioner, Plainfield is likely to follow the example of these cities in its business section. A stibby city like New Brunswick has lots to learn from progressive Plainfield.

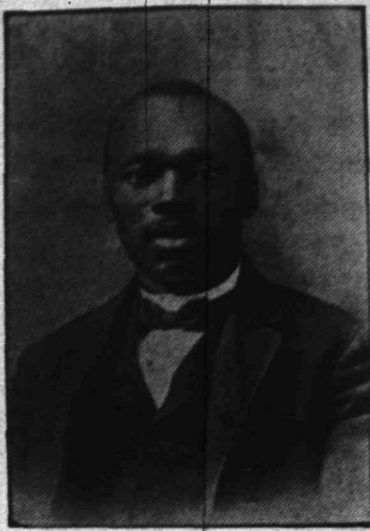

A Philadelphia declares that he will soon be able to make radium for less than the present cost, $500,000 a pound. He's apt to be a little slow, but we'll wait.

PASTOR'S SIXTH ANNIVERSARY

REV. E. E. JACKSON'S FLOCK TO HOLD CELEBRATION TONIGHT.

Appropriate exercises will be held at the Mt. Olive Baptist church tonight in honor of the sixth anniversary of the pastor, Rev. E. E. Jackson. A special feature of interest will be a portion of the program.

Rev. E. E. Jackson.

voted to Miss Anna Broadnax, valedictorian of her class in the recent High School graduation. Prof. G. W. Hayer, of Lynchburg, Va., will speak on higher education. Miss Patsy Landon will have charge of the music and Prof. Randolph will sing. There will also be essays and other features.

During his stay of six years, Pastor Jackson has received 380 new members, making the total membership 422, of which 209 were baptized by the pastor. At the anniversary tonight the officers of the church will, in a substantial manner, express their appreciation of Rev. Mr. Jackson.

Choral Club's Affair.

The first musicale of the Hope Chapel Choral Club, Saturday night, proved highly successful in every respect. Beside the chorus of about thirty-five mixed voices, there were a woman's chorus, two piano duets by Miss Kaitenbeck and W. T. Schneider, of New York. Miss Kaitenbeck furnished the piano accompaniment. Fred A. Ballantyne sang three bass solos.

Capt. Tieman Horn Engaged.

The engagement is announced of Captain Tieman Horn, of Fort Hamilton, and Mrs. Mabel Prentissman, of Highwood, N. J. Captain Horn was a former Plainfielder, having spent his boyhood days here and later was graduated from West Point.

Baseball Player Hurt.

Fred K. Armstrong, of the Y. M. C. A. baseball nine, who injured his right hip in Saturday's game against the Westfield A. O. U. W. team, is laid up with a partial rupture between the ligaments and the muscles of the hip.

GIFTS INCLUDED IN HIGH SCHOOL TRAINING

with the success which they so greatly deserve.

"The gifts which are included in this school life are threefold. First, the help and guidance, of our teachers; next, the comradeship of our schoolmates, and lastly, perhaps the most permanent gift of all, that of the inspiration of books.

"Our principal and teachers we have come to look upon not only as directors of our intellectual development but as our sympathetic friends. Not only for their guidance, but also for their sympathy and friendship we are deeply grateful.

"Now that our school life is over, we realize how great has been that second gift, the influence and joys of comradeship. Day after day, we have come into contact with many earnest workers, all having the same interests in study and all striving for the same goal. We have entered into each other's lives, we have sympathized with each other's failures and triumphs. Can we ever forget how we toiled together over Burke's Oration; how by the flickering light of the midnight oil, we danced with 'the three weird sisters' in 'Macbeth'; how we labored night and day to impress the visitors at the St. Louis Exposition with the great worth of the Plainfield High School? More than all, can we ever forget those bonds which linked us closer than all else, those little boards, six inches by ten, by means of which all could find seats in chapel?

"Our third gift has been in my opinion the most far-reaching of all. This is the gift of books, but they can mean nothing to us unless we learn to enjoy them. Our training in the High School has taught us how to get this enjoyment. 'Except a living man, there is nothing more wonderful than a book—a message to us from the dead—from human souls whom we never saw, who lived, perhaps, thousands of miles away, and yet these, on those little sheets of paper, speak to us, amuse us, vivify us, teach us, comfort us, open their hearts to us as brothers."

"Thus we, like Pandora, have been showered with gifts. But unlike Pandora, our creation is not instantaneous, nor are we passive in its process. These gifts do not end with our school life. As we go forth from this place tonight, whether we enter into higher fields of learning or go out into the busy life of the world, more and more shall we realize the greatness of the gifts we have received, and learn to grasp with more resolute hand the new gifts as they come."

THE GREAT HORNED OWL.

It Has Been Known to Kill a Large Tom Cat in Pitched Battle.

The cruel and powerful great horned owl is a bird of the eastern states, but its brothers—the western horned owl, Arctic horned owl and others—are found in the west and north. It has been known, says Woman's Home Companion, to kill a large tom cat in pitched battle, and on one occasion, while I was handling an owl of this species, it drove its talons through two thick pairs of leather gloves, and deep into my hand. I have seen one break the back of a squirrel at a single bite, and only last January I learned of another, which picked up and carried a full-grown struggling grouse over a hill for a distance of more than 50 yards before devouring it. The great horned owl nests very early in the year, sometimes even in February, utilizing the deserted nest of a hawk, crow or squirrel. It lays two or three eggs, which, like the eggs of all other owls, are white. Woe to the small boy who ventures to take these eggs or the downy white nestlings which come out of them. I have known a man to be nearly scalped by the parent birds while trying to steal young horned owls.

Coal Lands in New Mexico.

The area of proposed coal lands in sight in New Mexico is 1,433,480 acres, with 8,000,000,000 tons of coal, estimated to be worth $10,000,000. In spite of the want of water New Mexico has ready for the market 1,233,000 head of cattle, 97,500 horses, 113,000 goats and 5,674,000 sheep, with a wool yield of 20,000,000 pounds annually. The agricultural productions of the territory are valuable. Over 1,100,000 acres have been taken up since 1900 under the homestead act, increasing the number of farmers and ranchmen by nearly 90,000.

In Brute Creation Wiser?

Every living bird and beast strives its utmost to cram itself with food before retiring for the night, and this food is digested as the night progresses. The evening feed is the feed of the day with the brute creation, and yet the doctors tell us to refrain from eating heartily at night and even advise us to retire to rest with a more or less empty stomach. Are we following nature when following this advice?—Country Gentleman.

we will close out the entire balance of the Sweetser Pembroke Co. Auction Merchandise.

Don't Forget the Fourth of July Seashore Trip which someone is sure to win. If you are not already familiar with the conditions of this contest, read the following:

Anyone saving their "sale slips" of 25c or over may enter this contest by presenting same between 8 o'clock and noon July 1st. The largest number of slips wins. This does not give the largest purchaser the preference, but gives everyone an equal chance, for a check of $10 counts just the same as a check of 25c. It is the number of checks, not the amount, which counts here.

The prize is a RETURN TRIP TICKET TO ASBURY PARK AND $5 CASH FOR EXPENSES.

INNER FORTS TAKEN

Japanese Success Reported at Port Arthur.

ZUMI SUNK BY VLADIVOSTOK FLEET

Russian Cruisers Caught a Third Japanese Transport and Sent Her to the Bottom With the Hitachi and Sado.

LONDON, June 20.—A Chefs dispatch says there is current there a rumor that the Japanese have captured one of the inner forts of Port Arthur, having 1,000 men in the engagement.

The Japanese transport Zumi, which was reported missing a few days ago, has been sunk by the Vladivostok fleet off Oshima Island.

The island of Oshima is situated near the northwest of the western entrance of the Tsungaru strait. The Zumi was sailing to Japan and was carrying 108 passengers. The crew took to the boats when the Russian fleet was sighted. The armored cruiser Gromozed signaled for the boats to approach. They complied, and all were taken on board and confined between decks. The combatants were released and sent on board the Japanese vessel Utsunomiya, which brought them to Maifun.

According to trustworthy advices received, an entire infantry regiment, with its commander, was sunk in the transports Hitachi and Sado.

The Hitachi evidently failed to stop when signaled to do so by the Russians. The claim is made by Captain Campbell, the English master of the Hitachi, refused to stop and planned to ram the Russian, but this is denied. It is said that the Japanese officers on board the Hitachi declined to surrender and required Captain Campbell to keep his ship going. The assertion that the Russians fired upon the lifeboats in which men were escaping from the Japanese transport has been fully substantiated.

The raid of the Vladivostok squadron has brought an unwarranted amount of criticism upon Vice Admiral Kurokuma from the Japanese, and his failure to catch the Russians in the strait of Gensan off the coast of Korea, where the Japanese transport Kinsuichi was sunk with a loss of about 200 men has been recalled.

Some of these even declare that if Vice Admiral Kurokuma fails to catch the Russian vessels before they reach Vladivostok he should either resign from the navy or commit suicide. The popular demand for his replacement is growing, but the public is without information as to the nature of his orders or the plans of the naval campaign.

The Yawata and the Ansei, two sailing ships, were sunk by the Russians between Ko Island and Okushiri Island, off the west coast of Yesso and north of the Tsungaru strait. Thirty-seven survivors have reached Esashi. This makes a total of five Japanese ships sunk or destroyed by the Russian raiders.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says the total Russian losses at the battle of Valangow (Telissu) were about 2,000 men, including more than fifty-five officers. The Russian forces which took part in this fight were described as marching to the northward, and it was said that the Russians had forty-two battalions engaged against forty-four Japanese battalions and that the Japanese had great superiority in artillery, having more than 200 guns.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says Emperor Nicholas has received the following dispatch from Vice Admiral Gromozed:

Our cruiser division has encountered in the strait of Korea a Japanese transport steaming from the south in the direction of the Japanese coast, which was visible on the horizon. The vessel proved to be the Zumi, with troops on board.

On the expiration of the time given those on board to lower boats and leave the ship, permission to do which was taken advantage of by part of the crew, the transport was sunk by our guns.

Shortly afterward two more transports were sighted to the southeast. They proved to be the Hitachi and the Sado, the former with troops and the latter carrying coolies, horses and a railway plant. These transports refused to surrender, and at the end of the period granted those on board to take to the boats the two vessels were sunk by torpedoes and shells.

The losses on the three transports, the tonnage of which aggregated about 15,000 tons, consisted of a portion of the troops and crews, a large quantity of war material and the railway plant.

Our squadron later met the British steamer Allanton, which was proceeding south with a cargo of coal from the port of Mouroum, island of Hokkaido (the administrative name of the Japanese island of Yesso). The lack of clearness of her papers and the irregularity of her log excited suspicion concerning the neutrality of her cargo. The steamer, therefore, was sent to Vladivostok in charge of a detachment of soldiers commanded by Lieutenant Etroff. She has arrived at Vladivostok, where a prize court will consider her case.

A Tokyo report says:

The remarkable raid of the Russian Vladivostok squadron evidently is over. The squadron has disappeared off Cape Hama, steering to the north, and it has not been reported since. It is assumed to be returning to Vladivostok.

Whether or not a portion of Vice Admiral Kurokuma's squadron is awaiting the Russians off Vladivostok is a carefully guarded secret. Assuming that Vice Admiral Kurokuma dispatched some of his vessels to Vladivostok when he learned that the Russian squadron was off the island these ships would have had ample time to arrive there ahead of the Russians and will be ready to give battle. Further news of the movements of the squadron are awaited with intense interest.

A Liabang report says: "For the first time since the beginning of the war General Kuropatkin has taken personal direction of the operations, and in consequence of his having assumed the offensive results very different from those following recent events are anticipated. The naval attaches have abandoned their plan to visit Port Arthur and are going to Vladivostok. The military attaches have left for the southward in anticipation of future developments."

KILLED HIS BLIND CHILD.

Chauncey Hotelling Jailed For Murder at Binghamton, N. Y.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., June 20.—Chauncey Hotelling, aged forty years, has been jailed here, charged with the brutal murder of his three-year-old blind son, whom he had always abhorred because of his infirmities, and the attempted murder of his wife.

Hotelling lived in the town of Vestal, near here. Early in the morning he burned down the house in which the child was and supposed until several hours later that he had also killed and burned his wife.

According to Mrs. Hotelling's story, Hotelling came home partly drunk soon after midnight. He had always misused the child, and made the mother keep the boy out of his sight. Mrs. Hotelling says that he soon became abusive and said: "One of us three has got to die tonight. Which shall it be?"

Mrs. Hotelling then ran upstairs and barricaded herself in her room. Her husband followed and knocked out the door panels with an ax, after which he shot three times at her. She shot at him with her revolver, after which she escaped by climbing from a window and down a ladder.

She ran barefooted to the nearest neighbor, half a mile away. Shortly after Hotelling came to the neighbor's, but did not know that his wife was there, and said that his house was burned down and the "old" as he called his wife, and the child had burned to death.

Hotelling told conflicting stories about how the house was set on fire. His wife thinks that he shot and killed the boy and then fired the house. His revolver was found in the grass, where he had thrown it, with four empty shells in it. Mrs. Hotelling is certain that he shot at her only three times. She is uninjured. The trunk of the child's body was found in the embers in the basement, the head, arms and legs having been consumed by the fire.

In Memory of World's Champion. GLENS FALLS, N. Y., June 20.—The dedication of a monument to the memory of Harry D. Elkes, the professional bicyclist who was killed in a racing accident at Charles River park, Boston, a year ago, took place here. The monument was erected by racing friends of Elkes in Boston and New York. It is a modest sarcophagus of granite. On one side of the stone is the name "Harry D. Elkes" and a wheel with outstretched wings, and on another side are the words "Champion Cyclist of the World."

Steamer Australia Wrecked. MELBOURNE, June 20.—The Peninsular and Oriental liner Australia, inward bound, struck on the rocks at Point Nepean, at the eastern entrance to Port Phillip bay, Victoria, at 2 o'clock yesterday. The bottom of the vessel was stove in, and it is feared that she will be a total loss. The passengers and crew were safely landed. The Australia, commanded by Captain Cole, sailed from Colombo, Ceylon, on June 5.

No Sunday Ball in New York. NEW YORK, June 20.—Justice Gaynor of the supreme court, sitting as a magistrate in Brooklyn, handed down an opinion, in which he holds that games of professional baseball, such as have been played at Washington park this season, games to which the public is invited and to which an admission fee is charged, are illegal on Sunday.

Lady Journalist With Broken Skull. SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 20.—Madeleine Banks, a handsome woman of twenty-one years, said to be a journalist, is at St. Joseph's hospital with a fractured skull, the result of a fall. Her money and valuables are missing. She had registered at a hotel at Birmingham, Ala., but efforts to locate her relatives have failed.

Body Was Cut in Two. MERIDEN, Conn., June 20.—Karl Schaeffer, aged eighty-one, a well known citizen, has been instantly killed by a switch engine near the depot here. He stepped on the tracks directly in front of the engine and, being deaf, did not hear the shouts of the trainmen. The body was cut in two.

Stevens Nominated For Senator. ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 20.—At the forty-sixth district senatorial Republican convention, held at Portage High Bridge, Hon. Frederick C. Stevens of Attica was nominated to succeed himself in the state senate.

CENTRAL BUYS BIG TRACT

SOME IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE BY RAILROAD AT DUNELLEN.

The Central Railroad of New Jersey has completed plans for some extensive improvements to its system in Dunellen. A considerable tract of land, running from the round-house to the Plainfield line, has been purchased. Tracks will be laid and the place will be used as a siding for the New York trains.

Land has also been purchased on the opposite side of the track which will be used for a siding and for the new tower house. Central Park, which has been the scene of many holiday festivities, will be obliterated and the grove of huge trees will have to be cut down.

SCOTCH PLAINS, 4; NEWARK, 1

WILD THROW TO FIRST SAVES VISITORS FROM A SHUT OUT.

Scotch Plains defeated Newark A. C. at Scotch Plains on Saturday afternoon. The Newark team was saved from a shut-out by the 'Plains nine by a high throw to first base of Williams in the fourth inning. "Billy" usually steady arm was too strong and he tried to get it over the benches, Morgan scoring on the error. Score by innings:
Newark A. C. 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1
Scotch Plains 0 0 0 2 1 0 1 0—4
Umpire—H. Montross. Scorer—A. John.

HOW TO OBTAIN
Summer Boarders!

There is in New York City one daily newspaper which has made tremendous gains in circulation during the past five years. Its circulation is over 100,000 copies daily throughout every section of New York City (including Brooklyn), larger than that of any other recognized resort medium. This newspaper's readers are among the wealthy, and well-to-do, intelligent people—those who can afford and do take extended vacations in the country during the summer. It carries more resort advertising than any other morning newspaper, so the publisher naturally took to it for information as to where to go.
An advertisement in its columns is, therefore, exceedingly valuable and sure to produce results. This paper is

York, first; Flower King, br g, Tonso Sauvage, Newark, second; Archer, br g, G. D. King, Springfield, Pa., third. Seven entries, one scratched, A. C. Blair's unnamed chestnut horse. First prize, $40; second, $10.

The hurdle race completed the programme. It was for one and a half miles, over nine flights of hurdles, at 145 pounds. Yelp, owned by L. Trowbridge Martin, of New York, took the race from the other three entries without straining himself in the least. Meadow Lark, owned by Louis Batjer, Elizabeth, was an easy second. Highlander, owned by S. VanShalk, Garden City, L. I., came in third. The stake amounted to fifty dollars.

Every measure of success hoped for by the management has been attained by the show. Financially as well as otherwise, the event has been completely successful, a good deal more than the expenses having been cleared.

This one show has put Plainfield in the front rank of open-air show towns. Lakewood, where the palm for fine shows outside of the New York and Philadelphia exhibitions, has rested, was discounted by the local show. There were more entries here, and the other features were just as good. The exhibitors were highly pleased with the way in which the show was conducted. Most of them declared that they had been treated better here than anywhere else.

All these things mean that the perpetuation of the show as an annual event is assured. Next year the show will be conducted on even a larger and more thorough scale. All the exhibitors have determined to return here, and the majority of them have promised to bring others into the show. The management will erect its own stables near the track.

Credits for the success of the show belongs to the executive committee of the general committee, and particularly to one or two of its individual members. Lewis E. Waring, notably, worked hard to make the affair go, and he was ably seconded by Lewis G. Timpeon. The full executive committee is as follows:

J. Herbert Case, George A. Beaton, William J. Battfield, Robert A. Fairbairn, Charles J. Fisk, Daniel F. Ginna, Francis DeL. Hyde, J. Wesley Johnson, Dr. M. O'Malley Knott, Edward H. Ladd, Jr., George P. Mellick, Henry A. Talmadge, Ed. Orville T. Waring, Lewis S. Waring.

The general committee, which included the most prominent men on both sides of the brook, comprised Marion S. Ackerman, George A. Beaton, Harry A. Bourne, Paul T. Brown, William J. Battfield, William A. Coddington, S. A. Crankshaw, Martin I. Cooley, H. B. Condit, T. S. Davis, M. D., Robert A. Fairbairn, Edward L. Finch, Charles J. Fisk, Charles D. Freeman, John H. Greene, James Gilbert, Daniel F. Ginna, George D. Hallcock, John I. Holly, B. VanD. Hedger, M. D., Francis DeL. Hyde, DeWitt C. Irvin, Henry U. Irons, O. L. Jenkins, M. D., J.
