

PUBLIC ENJOYED OPEN AIR CONCERT

Large Crowd Listened to Ben LaVere's Band Discourse Popular Airs.

OFFERMAN AS SOLOIST

GRANDSTAND WAS BETTER PATRONIZED THAN AT FIRST.

Perfect Weather Brought Out a Large Number of People—John J. Nestor Did Not Sing—Sole Pleasured the Audience.

Another big crowd assembled at Concert Park, near Tier's lake, last night, to hear the second concert in Bandmaster LaVere's series. The weather conditions, cool and mosquitoless, were perfect and there was nothing to interfere with the enjoyment of a most delightful programme.

An unusually tuneful collection of numbers made up the bill, and the musicians did full justice to them. Under the practiced leadership of Director LaVere, the band played with splendid spirit and nerve.

There was one important change from the printed programme. John J. Nestor was to have sung two tenor solos, one the hit of the first night, "My Lonely Little Lonesome Maid," but he could not be present. His place was taken by Charles Offerman, who sang "Down in My Heart I Have a Feeling for You" and "Blue Bells." The selections were well sung, and pleased the audience.

The grandstand continued in popularity. More people were on it than at the opening concert, and if the rate of increase keeps up seats on it will be scarce after the first numbers at the coming concerts.

This was the programme in full:

March—"The Competitor," Heed; overture—"Poet and Peasant," Suppe; concert waltz—"Charmagne," Eugene; cornet solo—"Sea Flower Polka," Blum; Mr. L. R. Anderson; selection—"Babes in Toyland," Herbert; (a) intermezzo—"Salambo," Morse; (b) characteristic—"The Sun Dance," Friedman; vocal solo—"Down in My Heart I Have a Feeling for You," (b) "Blue Bells," Charles Offerman; descriptive, "A Hunting Scene," Bucalossi; medley, "A Glean of Heaven," Harris; finale, "Sergeant Kitty," Sloane.

CLAIMS DAMAGES FROM P. S. C.

CONSTABLE PANGBORN'S HAND INJURED ON THE TROLLEY.

Charging that the company is responsible, William Pangborn has demanded damages from the P. S. C. for a severe injury to his hand on one of the cars at the Dunellen terminal two weeks ago. Francis J. Blatz, Esq., has been retained to press the claim, and will bring suit if damages are not forthcoming.

Mr. Pangborn's hand was resting on a seat, when, without warning, it is claimed, the conductor suddenly swung the seat back over. The heavy contrivance landed full on the back of his hand, cracking several of the small bones. His hand was rendered useless, and danger of permanent stiffness of the members has developed.

ST. AGNES' GUILD PICNIC

PLEASANT OUTING CLOSING SUCCESSFUL SEASON OF CHURCH SOCIETY.

The members of St. Agnes Guild of Grace Episcopal church, held their last meeting for the summer on Wednesday, the affair taking the form of a picnic. The merry party boarded a trolley car on Watchung avenue, going to the foot of the mountains, where a delightful spot was found on Johnston's Drive. Here a fine lunch was enjoyed, after which the afternoon was spent in playing games. Before starting for home the baby camp was visited.

The party consisted of twenty-six members and four teachers. The return trip was made about 5 o'clock. In the fall the guild hopes to renew the classes for girls. The past year has been a successful one and the directors wish to thank the members and her able assistants for their hearty support and co-operation in carrying on the work of the society.

AIDING FRESH AIR CAMP

SUCCESSFUL OPEN AIR SALE FOR THE BENEFIT OF CHARITY.

The lawn in the rear of 306 Central avenue, was gay yesterday afternoon, with a crowd of children eagerly buying candy, cake and fruits, as well as fancy articles. The sale was conducted for the benefit of the Mary Morgan Fresh Air Camp. A large majority of the merchants of the city donated the good things sold there.

About 200 tickets were sold for the sale, and taking it all together, the profits will probably amount to $30.

Miss Mary Moffett arranged the affair, with the assistance of Miss Lena Moffett, who acted as cashier, Mrs. Nelson VanWinkle, Mrs. E. E. Ryder, Mrs. Henry Mosher, Miss Jennie Tompkins, Miss Ethel Morris, Mrs. Fred Moffett, Miss Olive Hedden, Henry Zoops and Lawrence Satterlee.

The waitresses were Edna Mosher, Lina Heidloff, Helen Ryder, Dorothy Parvin, Ruth Moore, Muriel O'Connor, Florence Ryder, Ted Ryder, Elizabeth Winn and Marion Wean.

At the close of the sale everything remaining was auctioned off to the guests at figures that soon disposed of the articles.

COURT ORDERS BOYS SPANKED

PUNISHMENT METED OUT FOR QUARTETTE OF YOUNG OFFENDERS.

Stern justice was meted out to four bad boys in the borough court last night. For blocking Somerset street with overturned vegetable boxes, and annoying Grocerman Charles Thammann, Mickey Burns, Willie Conger, Harry Hedden and George VanHousen were handed over to their mothers by Recorder Doud, sentenced to one fine, old-fashioned spanking apiece. There was a small matter of a dollar fine against each unfortunate boy, but that was nothing to them; the awful decree to be enforced in the parental woodshed.

The parents of the naughty quartette were all present. Recorder Doud told them that the punishment of the culprits rested with them, and they agreed with him so readily that the boys trembled with a premonition of what was to come. I'll fine them each a dollar," said the Recorder to the parents, "and turn them over to you for the rest of the punishment. Will you spank 'em good?" The parents said they would very promptly and very emphatically.

The boys sniffed dolefully in chorus. This morning they all refused to ride bicycles.

A MISSING TRUNK CLOUDS HONEYMOON

William Pike and His Bride Sail Away, Leaving Her Gowns in New York.

RECOVER TROUSSEAU AND PLAN ANOTHER TRIP.

Mrs. Pike Was Formerly Miss Drusilla Smith—Marriage a Surprise to Their Many Friends.

Miss Drusilla Smith, formerly of this city, and William Pike, of East Front street, were quietly married a fortnight ago and have since been on their honeymoon. The New York Evening Sun last night contained this story relating to their trip:

The wedding and honeymoon of Mrs. Drusilla Smith-Pike, of 68 West Sixty-ninth street, and her husband, William Pike, a young banker of this city, who returned yesterday from their wedding trip to New Orleans, has been a chapter of surprises, both to the young married pair and their friends. Mrs. Pike is the daughter of William B. Smith, an inventor and manufacturer, and the young pair have gone to live with Mrs. Pike's parents, at 68 West Sixty-ninth street. In spite of the little comedy of errors which followed in the train of the wedding ceremony at the Little Church Around the Corner, two weeks ago, the newly wedded young folks are now planning an extended trip to Saratoga, where Mrs. Smith-Pike expects to wear the gowns which she did not have in New Orleans.

The wedding date of the Smith-Pike nuptials had been set and a large function prepared for the many wedding guests invited to witness the church ceremony. Then Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, fell suddenly ill and all preparations were off. A note was sent out on the trail of each wedding invitation, saying that the happy event had been postponed, and all hands would be duly notified when a new date for the ceremony had been determined upon.

While the friends of the young pair were expectantly awaiting the second notice on their invitations, the prospective bride and bridegroom hastily decided on a new move.

"What's the use of waiting?" said young Mr. Pike.

"It isn't absolutely necessary, dear," answered Miss Smith. And forthwith the knot was tied by the Rev. Dr. Houghton, pastor of the Church of the Transfiguration, on the very day printed on the wedding invitations. Miss Mary Smith became an ally of the anxious ones and witnessed the hastily planned festivities.

Directly after the ceremony the bridegroom despatched four dress suit cases and a large trunk to the Morgan line pier, and the young pair boarded the Proteus for New Orleans. The trunk contained an elaborate trousseau for the bride. The Proteus was several hours out of port when Miss Drusilla Smith-Pike made up her mind to change her gown.

"Where's our trunk?" the bride asked her husband.

"I have the key, but I haven't the trunk about me. I'll look for it," he volunteered.

Mr. Pike went down among the baggage, but no Pike trunk could be found aboard. That is why Mrs. Drusilla Smith-Pike was in New Orleans for nearly two weeks with one gown, and it is also the reason a trip to Saratoga has been planned.

Mrs. Pike's trunk has been at the Fall River line pier for the past two weeks.

Admitted to the Bar.

Fred J. Huff, one of Plainfield's leading Justices of the Peace, received word yesterday from Trenton that he had successfully passed the examination admitting him to the New Jersey Bar as a lawyer, with power of attorney. His many friends will join in congratulating him upon his success. Mr. Huff studied law with former Assemblyman William Newcorn and he has applied himself faithfully in preparation for his chosen profession. He expects to have his offices with Mr. Newcorn on West Front street.

Hillier's Laundry Removal.
Miss Mary Brown, manager of Hillier's laundry, has leased the Linko store, on West Second street and will take possession July 1. The new place will be just as accessible as the old with the added advantage of increased space.

INJURED BY A COLLISION MAN AND BOY THROWN FROM WAGON, WHICH TROLLEY CAR STRUCK.

James H. Searing, employed by H. A. Weber, the grocer, and a boy named William Matell, were thrown out of the grocery wagon on West Front street, this morning, sustaining injuries more or less severe. Mr. Searing was on his way to deliver groceries, when a trolley car, also going west, struck the rear of the wagon, before Mr. Searing could get off the tracks.

The accident happened directly in front of George Geibelhouse's residence. Mr. Searing's injuries were chiefly about the right hand and arm and he received a few cuts in the face. The lad with him sustained injuries about the right elbow and legs, but was able to walk home. The rear axle of the wagon was twisted and the top partly torn. The horse escaped injury.

SWACKHAMER ON THE ROBIN

SOMERSET'S ASSEMBLYMAN TO TELL WHY BIRD SHOULD NOT BE KILLED.

The irresponsible robin so ably defended in the New Jersey Legislature last winter, is again to be the subject of debate under the auspices of the Somerset County Agriculture Society. Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer, of the borough, whose strong voice was heard in support of the bird, will be called on once more to defend it.

William H. Skillman, of Belle Mead, president of the State Horticultural Society, and State Entomologist John B. Smith, of New Brunswick, will argue in favor of extermination. A. P. Sutphen, secretary of the Somerset County Board of Agriculture, is arranging the debate which will be held at Somerville within a short time.

CHAMPION DRUNKARD.

Charlie Williams, Carrying a Heavy Load, in Trouble As Usual.

Loaded beyond the wildest dreams of dipsomaniacs, Charles Williams, the generalissimo of the drunk brigade and holder of the world's record for jail junkies, was picked up on Somerset street yesterday by Chief Marshal Weiss.

Williams was beating to windward under the impression, expressed without shame, that he was headed for New Brunswick. Chief Weiss was scandalized, and put Charles under cover very swiftly. He was released this morning. "I don't want to go to New Brunswick any more," said Mr. Williams earnestly. "I was drunk yesterday."

Junior Charter Trolley.

A special trolley car has been chartered by Franklin Council, No. 44, Somerset Council, No. 104, and Benevolent Council, No. 256, Jr. O. U. A. M., and the members will leave the North avenue trolley stand, on board the gayly trimmed conveyance, promptly at 7:30 tonight for Bound Brook, to attend the union meeting of the councils in this vicinity. A number of State officers will be there and the largest hall in the place has been taken for the affair.

Wife Beater Released.

Judge Vail withdrew the six-months' sentence he had imposed on Robert Moore, of Scotch Plains, for wife-beating and let him off under a suspension of sentence, with a warning that a second appearance in court would land him in State prison. This action was taken after the man's wife had interceded with the court.

P. O. Salaries Increased.

According to the list of adjustments of the salaries of clerks in the first and second-class postoffices of the country, which takes effect July 1, Plainfield receives these increases: One from $700 to $800; one from $800 to $900; one from $900 to $1,000, and one from $1,000 to $1,100.

Allis-St. Mary's Series.

Manager John Carty, of the proposed St. Mary's baseball team, met Manager Johnston, of Allis, last night and arranged for a series of five games between the two teams, the first of which will be played on Crescent Oval on Saturday, July 30.

Flake Give $1,000.

Harvey Fisk & Sons, New York bankers, of which former Mayor Charles Fisk is a member, have contributed $1,000 to the Slocum disaster relief fund.

First Wedding Anniversary.

Edward Feiring, of Orchard place, will observe the first anniversary of his marriage with a reception to his friends tonight.

BASEBALL AND GOLF ATTRACTIONS TOMORROW

Lineups of the Two Teams for the Allis-Murray Hill Game on Crescent Oval.

ON HILLSIDE COURSE

HACKENSACK GOLF CLUB TEAM TO PLAY HERE.

Competitions at Park's Course—Dunellen Baseball Team to Cross Bats With Clinton Avenue A. C.—Other Contests.

There will be many sporting events tomorrow to engage the attention of all. The general public will be interested probably more in the various baseball games, the most important of which will be the one on Crescent Oval between Allis and Murray Hill. The visiting team is considered as strong as Hoboken and should give the local team a fine game. Allis expects to be wide-awake, however, and will make a strong effort to win. The game will be called at 3:45 sharp.

This will be the lineup of Allis:

Walton, ss; O'Keefe, lf; Farmer, c; Lander, 2b; McGoby, cf; Gray, 3b; Lynch, rf; Gaven, 1b; Davis, p. Murray Hill will lineup this way: Courtney, 2b; Dietrich, rf; Onak, 3b; Hickman, ss; Bamford, cf; Conroy, rf; O'Neil, c; Tyler or Deegan, p; Smith, 1b.

Manager Johnston has decided to play Lander on second in this game, and afterward Quinby is expected to play that position for the rest of the season. Gray, who will cover third, comes from the Asplians. He will be remembered as being fast in the field and good with the stick. When Quinby comes, Lander will return to his old position at third. There is no truth in the report that the Murray Hills have disbanded. They will come here very strong, and Allis will have to play fast ball to win.

There is such a demand among the fans for a game here with Hoboken on Fourth of July afternoon, that Manager Johnston has practically decided to close this date with Manager Daab. With the return of Captain Lander there should be new life in Allis and plenty of good coaching.

The newly-organized Dunellen team will meet Clinton Avenue on the grounds of the latter and this should be full of interest to the followers of these teams.

Next in point of interest will be the many golf events on the local links. At Hillside there will be the weekly competition for the Golf Committee cup and a team match between representatives of the home club and the Hackensack Golf Club. In the evening there will be an informal dance.

There will be the weekly competitions for the President's and Park Golf Club cups at the Park Golf Club, and a representative team will play a match with Cranford at the latter place. At Westfield there will be the June handicap, an event which always brings out a large field.

In addition to the golf, there will be the first club tennis tournament at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club courts. This is sure to bring out a large number of players. Several of the club members will take part in the East Jersey Golf Association tournament being held at the Jersey City Club.

WILL TOUR EUROPE IN AUTO.

Mrs. Emily M. Williamson, of Elizabeth, to Go Abroad July 5.

That noted club-woman, Mrs. Emily M. Williamson, of Elizabeth, who is president of the State Charities Aid Association, general secretary of the State Board of Children's Guardians, and Union County's probation officer, has planned an extensive trip abroad and will sail for Europe on the Cunard line from Boston July 5 with a party of friends living in that city. Mrs. Williamson will make a tour of the continent in an automobile and anticipate much enjoyment in this mode of traveling. She will leave her home in Elizabeth for Boston July 3 and will not return until the latter part of September.

While she is away the probationary work in Union County will be attended to by her assistant, Captain Charles W. Irwin, of Elizabeth.

Cleaning Out Warren's House.
Workmen have begun to clean out the old engine house on Somerset street, preparatory to the remodeling of the interior into a jail and court house. The first thing that is to be done to the structure is the replacing of the roof.

A. O. U. W. HONORS MR. THORN

HANDSOME GOLD EMBLEM IS PRESENTED BY CENTRAL LODGE, NO. 48.

Following three years of faithful service as recorder of Central Lodge, No. 48, Ancient Order United Workmen, Harvey R. Thorn was presented with a handsome gold emblem last night by Grand Overseer F. F. Fowle, of Irvington. There were several Grand Lodge officers present and the address of the evening was made by Mr. Fowle. Other remarks were made by Past Grand Master Workman V. W. Nash and Grand Trustee Edward Mosher.

Mr. Fowle made a happy speech in presenting the jewel to Mr. Thorn and the recipient responded with a few well chosen words of appreciation. During the evening two candidates were initiated, after which there was a social time and refreshments. The lodge has taken on a new lease of life and several new members are promised in the near future.

STRICT RULES FOR R. F. D.

CARRIERS CANNOT SOLICIT OR RECEIVE COMPENSATION.

As the rural free delivery is now a part of the local mail system, a new order which goes in effect July 1, and which effects this part of the mail system, will be of interest. The law leaves much to the discretion of the Postmaster-General. According to the new ruling the rural carriers are not to solicit business or receive orders for any person, firm or corporation. All available matter must be prepaid, except county newspapers to actual subscribers. Carriers are not permitted to receive compensation from the seller of merchandise carried, and the carrier must not leave the route officially laid out in delivering such merchandise.

Carriers while on duty are not to carry, either for themselves, for sale or for the accommodation of their patrons, spirituous liquors. They are not to engage in any business during their prescribed hours of service or after hours which offer the temptation to solicit patronage on their routes, or giving them special advantage over competitors, such as book canvassing, insurance, selling sewing machines, nor compile or assist in compiling directories, nor furnish names for pay or favor to business men or establishments.

TALKED ON MOTHERS' DUTIES

MRS. FULLER DELIVERED AN INTERESTING ADDRESS BEFORE THE W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Fuller, of Bedford, Mass., National Superintendent of Mother's meetings of the W. C. T. U., made an interesting address at the meeting of the local Union yesterday afternoon. She talked in a helpful way of the "Responsibility of Mothers."

Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, county superintendent, was also present and she gave a brief talk of what is being done in Washington in the way of temperance legislation. She said that she had received information from Mrs. Ellis, who is stationed in Washington, that the Government had appropriated $100,000 to be used in fitting up the army posts with gymnasiums, reading rooms and other appliances which will, to a large extent, take the place of the army canteen.

Mrs. Ellis declared that there is no desire on the part of Congress to return the canteen to the soldiers, believing that their present condition is far better than heretofore when the canteen was a part of the various posts.

Westfield Girl Drank Too Much.

Patrolman Saffron gathered in a fair young prisoner at 2 o'clock this morning in the person of Dorothy Buckingham, a dreamy-eyed young woman from Westfield. She had attended the hand concert last night and meeting some jolly friends had enjoyed liquid refreshments with them. She lost herself on Seventh street where the officer found her. She promised so earnestly to do better that the Judge released her under suspended sentence.

The Same Old Story.

On Wednesday night, Thomas O. Dudley, of North Plainfield, lost a valuable yellow spaniel. Yesterday he advertised his loss in The Daily Press and soon after the paper was issued the dog was returned. A family on West Front street, readers of The Daily Press, saw the advertisement and at once took the dog to his owner.

RAMAZOTTI TO SUE FOR $5,000 DAMAGES

Plainfield Store Keeper, Acquitted on Charge of Keeping a Speakeasy, Wants Redress.

ACTION AGAINST CITY

AGGRIEVED MAN RETAINS COUNSEL TO BRING PROCEEDINGS.

Humiliated by Being Handcuffed and Taken to Elizabeth Hills Lawyer, William G. DeMena, Talks on the Case.

David J. Ramazotti, the Park avenue fruit dealer, through his counsel, William G. DeMena, is about to bring suit against the city for $5,000 damages for false imprisonment in connection with his recent arrest on a charge of illegal liquor selling.

It will be remembered that Mr. Ramazotti, together with a number of others, was arrested for the alleged keeping of "speakeasies." In most cases the persons arrested were not confined in the county jail. It is claimed that bail was refused in the case of Mr. Ramazotti, although his counsel offered the bond of a well-known freeholder, who was well qualified in the matter. The accused was taken to Elizabeth handcuffed to another prisoner and detained over night. The next day, when he entered a plea of not guilty the court was obliged to accept bail and Mr. Ramazotti was subsequently released.

He takes the position that inasmuch as he was acquitted of the charge preferred and that the city refused him bail, he is entitled to damages for false imprisonment and unless he is reimbursed he will bring action against the city.

Mr. DeMena in speaking of the latter says that the city had no moral or legal right to refuse his client bail, especially as he is a citizen and a business man in this city. He claims that the city authorities have acted very unjust and that in view of this they should be compelled to make a satisfactory settlement. He also claims that his client was disgraced in being handcuffed to a prisoner accused of another crime and led to the county jail, there to be incarcerated for a length of time.

P. S. C. EXPRESS NEW SCHEDULE

SIX THROUGH CARS IN EACH DIRECTION UNDER TWO HOURS HEADWAY.

Six trolley cars are now being operated each way between Jersey City and Trenton, under two hours' headway. The new arrangements went into effect today. There has been such a demand for the through service and the cars have been so crowded that the Public Service Corporation was obliged to put additional cars in service.

Going west, through cars now leave the Watchung avenue stand in the morning at 9:44, 11:44 and in the afternoon at 1:44, 3:44, 5:44 and 7:44, and arrive at Trenton at 12:30, 2:30, 4:30, 6:30, 8:30 and 10:30.

On the eastbound trip the cars leave the Watchung avenue stand at 10:16 in the morning, and in the afternoon at 12:16, 2:16, 4:16, 6:16 and 8:16, arriving in New York at 12:55, 2:55, 4:55, 6:55, 8:55 and 10:55. At Trenton connection is made by boat for Philadelphia.

PICNIC AT PARK

Primary and Junior Sunday-School Teachers' Union Enjoy Day's Outing.

The annual picnic of the Primary and Junior Sunday-school Teachers' Union, at Riverside Park, yesterday, was a success and one of the best yet held. In all forty-five members and friends of the Union went by trolley to the popular picnic grounds and spent a delightful day.

At the same time there was a large Sunday-school present from New Brunswick and the exchange of greetings proved a pleasant feature of the occasion. The Plainfielders took their own lunch and at noon the repast was enjoyed.

Drunk on Roadside.

William Ranwell was taken in a drunken condition from the roadside on South avenue to the police station yesterday morning, at 11:30, in the patrol wagon. Patrolman Higgins made the arrest. Sentence was suspended on him this morning by Judge Runyon.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

The strawberry festival that furnishes ice cream, made by Moberg, is as sure to succeed, as if the profits were already in the treasurer's hands.

For rigs that look just like private ones go to J. D. Fraser's Park stables on Somerset street. The best managed livery stable in the city and borough.

A. H. Essender, the sanitary plumber, guarantees his work every time and he is an expert in his business. All work left in his care will receive prompt attention.

Where is there a better carpenter and builder than W. H. Kirch? Not within the ken of anybody hereabouts. He is the safest man in whose charge to entrust a contract.

When you have a prescription put up you want to go to a place where the drugs are sure to be pure and the chemist expert. Go to Schreiner's pharmacy for that assurance.

Bolse, Runyon & Co., the Park avenue coal dealers, are now prepared to receive orders for large supplies of anthracite, lumber or building materials. You will find the prices right.

For pure milk and cream, fresh eggs and butter go to Marohant Brothers, of North avenue. The firm takes particular care to sell only first-class goods and will be pleased to serve you.

Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, those afflicted with eye, ear, throat or nose trouble, can call on Dr. James E. Wright, at his office in the Woodhull & Martin building, and get treatment by an expert in these diseases.

An opportunity not often [vouchsafed the Plainfield public, is offered by Powlison & Jones, in their clearing sale of summer furniture. They want to sell all the porch rockers, swings, cane couches and stools before July first. You can get a better selection in this way than by going to the metropolitan department stores.

The toughest proposition the baggage smasher ever went up against, is the theatrical trunk, handled by David Dreier, the proprietor of the new trunk and leather goods store on West Front street near Somerset. These trunks can endure a greater amount of indiscriminate slamming around, than anything that ever held clothes.

Hill & Shupp's dry goods store is headquarters for seasonable goods. This week the firm will close out the balance of the fine goods secured from Sweetser Pembroke & Co., and persons looking for bargains should take advantage of this sale. The semi-annual clearing sale of carpets is also well worth looking after, while the sale of trunks and suit cases is meeting with great success.

Now is the accepted time and likewise the very best time for canning strawberries. They are at the fulness of their ripeness, at the top notch of their glory, and delay may mean a slackening of flavor and of quality. Of the berries in the market the very best to be had are at Neuman Bros. They have always been noted for their strawberries, and this year their stock is the finest in their history.

AMUSEMENTS.

Wm. Collier, who is now under Charles Frohman's management, appears at the Criterion in a new farce by Richard Harding Davis, entitled "The Dictator." The author has fitted Mr. Collier ideally and given him a play that is all laughter, resultant from a skillfully handled farce with numerous amusing situations. The scenes are laid among the feverish fire-eaters of the southern republics, and this not only gives plenty of chance for fun, but gives romantic coloring to it also.

Luna Park—The attractions of this seaside park grow more alluring as the summer days come on. A score of Chinese girls have been added to the five hundred persons who take part in the Delhi Durbar. Sharing attention with the Durbar is the spectacle "Fire and Flames." Some of the other attractions are the elephants who shoot the chutes, and the trip to the moon.

Dreamland—A throng of visitors pour through the gates every hour and thoroughly enjoy the wonders of the place. The free vaudeville performance on the plaza stage, now one of the most popular feasts, includes Flora, who does daring things on the slack wire; the Yaeger troupe of balancers; and the "Texarkana" dancers. "The Temptation of St. Anthony," the fall of Pompeii, the canals of Venice and the sewers of Paris are some of the newer attractions in Dreamland.

Bostock's—The giant orang ousang is a centre of interest among the great number of animals in the show. Bonavita and his lions are as entertaining as ever and "the missing link" held a reception afternoon and evening. Mr. Bostock came from Europe Monday, bringing a score or more of Polar bears, tigers, and hyenas for his animal arena.

SEA GIRT CAMP NOT A PICNIC

ORDERS ISSUED BY GENERAL GILLMORE
LIKELY TO HAVE BENEFICIAL RESULTS.

The week's encampment of the National Guard at Sea Girt is not to be a picnic this year. This is indicated by a preliminary order just issued by General Gillmore, through Assistant Adjutant General Gilkyson, which has been received by Captain Martin, of Co. K. The order deals with the regulating of guard duty during the encampment.

General Gillmore orders that the guard each day shall consist of one first lieutenant, who will be commandant of the guard; two second lieutenants, two sergeants, four corporals, two musicians and sixty privates.

The guard to serve Saturday, July 9, and Sunday, July 10, will be detailed previous to the departure of the organization from their home stations. This guard will be employed on the trains to preserve order and prevent the soldiers from riding on the car platforms.

On the arrival of the regiments at Sea Girt the guard will be formed in their rear and as the regiments march past the guard tents the guard, when arriving opposite its position, will fall out from the column.

This last arrangement will do away with the long delays that have heretofore occurred in mounting the guard after the troops reach camp.

First Lieutenant Richard F. Cross, of Elizabeth, who has made a special study of guard mounting, has been detailed as instructor of guard duty for the entire encampment. Each colonel is to detail an officer satisfactory to Lieutenant Cross and his junior in rank as his assistants.

The order providing for the guard to preserve order on the trains is made to prevent a recurrence of the incident of several years ago, when some of the soldiers discharged their guns while the train was passing through Rahway, causing a runaway in which a man was seriously injured.

The summer home of the militia at Sea Girt is making preparations for a long season.

The State camp is an attractive place, and the appreciation which it meets is evidence by the Government officers and men from Governor's Island, who have already pitched their tents on the parade ground and are already at daily rifle practice.

The clubhouse is now open for the officers.

STATE DENTAL SOCIETY MEETING.

The gathering will be of more than usual interest and will amount practically to a post-graduate course in dentistry. There will be an exhibit of all new appliances, and valuable papers will be read by learned members of the profession. At the opening session, Wednesday morning, President H. S. Sutphen, D. D. S., of Newark, will deliver the annual address. The general public will be excluded except on Thursday evening, when the society will give them an entertainment.

A Suggestion from STEINWAY & SONS About Piano Tuning

Incompetent Piano Tuners

are continually doing a great deal of mischief to good pianos. It will therefore doubtless be of interest to owners of Steinway and other pianos, residing at not too great a distance from New York, to learn that we are now prepared to take orders for the tuning and regulating of pianos during the summer months at special rates. Not only the members of our large regular tuning force but also those of our staff of experts who, during the winter season, have been traveling with eminent pianists on their concert tours, and who have now returned to New York, are available for this work. The greater the number of orders from any one place or vicinity the lower our charge will be for each piano attended to. Consequently we would suggest to prospective customers in any locality that they "club together" in sending us their orders, whenever feasible and agreeable, as the most economical and satisfactory plan. Your patronage is respectfully solicited.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Hoboken will play the Trenton Y. M. C. A. at Trenton on Saturday. Thus far Trenton has won two games and lost one with Hoboken.

Wilkie, who is a Somerville boy, is pitching great ball for Baltimore this season. His brother is on the pitching staff of the New York Nationals.

Walton, of Philadelphia, who is playing short stop for Alle, will be given a trial in the same position for the Stars, of Elizabeth, on Sunday afternoon.

The crack Orange A. C. team was defeated by the Trenton Y. M. C. A. team at Trenton, yesterday, by a score of 6 to 3. Egner, the local's pitcher, struck out 14 men.

Many fans are sorry that Badgley, the Lehigh pitcher, was not given more of a show in the game against Hoboken, and it is possible that he may be given another trial.

"Wilkie" Keeler, of the New York Americans, has been on the injured list for several days. The Highlanders are playing gilt-edge baseball, although some of their best players are laid up.

Nearly every one of the big college baseball teams will lose their best players this year, through graduation. The condition among the under graduates, however, seems promising, there being plenty of material.

Before the baseball season was started in this city it was openly stated that the manager of the Westfield team was dictating the policy for the Alle Club. Now that Alle has a good manager, one well able to care for the best interests of the team and patrons of the game, it looks out of place for the down-the-line manager to try and tell the local management what it should do regarding the disputed game. Manager Johnson has told Manager Dauman the conditions upon which he will continue the series, and if the Westfield manager has the interest of the series at heart he will throw out that questionable game. That is the quickest way to bring about a settlement of the trouble.

CORTELYOU SPEAKS

Chairman of Republican Committee Wants No Dictation.

NO FORMAL STATEMENT OF PLANS

Has Resigned From the Cabinet and Will Have Absolute Power in the Conduct of the Political Campaign.

CHICAGO, June 24.—George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican national committee, in thanking the committee for the honor they had bestowed upon him told the members that while he would be glad to have the benefit of their advice and counsel he intended to be chairman in fact and would accept no dictation from any one, high or low. He told them that the friends of the late chairman, Mr. Hanna, were his friends, and he asked for the same measure of confidence and support that had been given to the last chairman.

In conclusion he sought the advice of both old and new members.

Mr. Cortelyou made no formal statement of his plans. He resigned as secretary of commerce and labor as soon as he was elected chairman, the resignation to take effect as soon as his successor qualifies, which will be about July 1. Secretary Cortelyou will not give any active time to political matters until he retires from the cabinet. Then he will select the executive committee and make his preliminary arrangements for the campaign.

After Mr. Cortelyou had closed his remarks Elmer Dover of Ohio was named for secretary by Senator Scott, Cornelius N. Bliss of New York for treasurer by Governor Murphy and William F. Stone of Maryland for sergeant at arms by Senator McComas. All of these officers were unanimously elected.

A resolution was passed authorizing the chairman to appoint an executive committee of nine, with such other officers as are necessary for the management of the campaign. Under this resolution the chairman is given absolute power in the conduct of the campaign.

Chairman Parker of the Missouri delegation presented to the committee an invitation from David R. Francis, president of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition company, asking the committee to dine with him tonight. The thanks of the committee were voted to Mr. Francis for the courtesy, but it was stated that the engagements of the members of the committee would prevent them from accepting.

The vacancy in the committee from Louisiana was left to the chairman to fill. The delegation from that state is deadlocked and could not choose a member.

ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS.

President Received the News of Nominations Quietly at White House.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—President Roosevelt, after receiving the news of his nomination at the White House, accepted the affectionate congratulations of those about him. He was the most unconcerned seemingly of all. He chatted animatedly a few minutes with Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Carow and Mr. Loeb and then accompanied his secretary to the executive office.

Outward indications that Theodore Roosevelt was about to be chosen unanimously as the standard bearer of his party absolutely were lacking at the White House in the morning. The president appeared at his desk at the usual hour and began immediately the transaction of routine executive business with Secretary Loeb. The president was kept in close touch with the situation at Chicago through the press bulletins and private messages from the convention hall, which were received over a special wire at the White House.

On his return to the executive offices, after he had been informed of his nomination, President Roosevelt greeted cordially a number of newspaper men. He expressed his pleasure at receiving the warm congratulations of those who in the performance of their duties are kept constantly in touch with the president and his work.

Sitting tilted back in a big armchair at his desk the president chatted freely and frankly with those about him. All were his personal friends, and the president realized perfectly that the little confidences of the "executive session," as he himself termed it, would be held as inviolable. He talked and acted not as president of the United States, not as the standard bearer of a great political party, but as Theodore Roosevelt, the man and friend.

As soon as the president received news of the nomination of Senator Fairbanks he sent to him the following telegram:

"Permit me to extend to you and the country my hearty congratulations on your nomination. I need hardly add how much pleased I am personally."

In a short time this reply was received from Senator Fairbanks:

"I thank you for your congratulations. To be named by the convention as your associate in the great campaign that is before us is a distinction which I greatly appreciate."

A party of the famous rough riders sent this message to Colonel Roosevelt: "Your comrades of 1898, delegates to this great convention, congratulate you on this, one of the greatest events in American history. Every soldier of your regiment will be on duty from now until you are elected president. May God bless you."

Plainfield, N. J., June 24, 1904.

There are many dead ones trying to do business but classed as deceased for the want of advertising.—White's Sayings.

It's time for some old dodger to come along with the statement that he predicted Fairbank's nomination when the Indiana man was a school boy.

The really important question is not whether Bryan will bolt the Democratic convention, but whether the Democratic convention will bolt Bryan.

Serious results are bound to ensue if the recklessness of automobilists in this city is not checked. Many machines dash through the streets at a high rate of speed and no regard is paid to the safety of pedestrians.

The appropriation made by the Common Council for street sprinkling work has proven to be a profitable investment. The work appears to be thoroughly done and according to the street commissioner there are very few complaints on the part of property owners.

That Plainfield people enjoy good clean sport is evident, judging from the attendance at the baseball games on Crescent Oval. The crack aggregation representing the Ails Club will cross bats with the Murray Hill nine tomorrow afternoon and the size of the crowd expected to witness the contest promises to be a record breaker.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

A series of games between the Dunellen A. C. and the New Market team would prove a drawing card. The followers of both teams have confidence in their favorites and would like to see some arrangement made.

The management of the Dunellen A. C. cleared money on last Saturday's game. That was the first paying game of the season and shows that the new amateur team is a success.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The trolley service of late has been a great improvement over the service of the past. In those days, no matter what the weather was when open cars were once started, they continued in service until the winter snows began to fall. The present management is more considerate of the travelling public and in stormy weather closed cars are called out and put into service.

The local members of the Royal Arcanum observed "Flag Day" of the order in an appropriate manner, hardly a member but what had the stars and stripes floating to the breeze from their home. In the borough, Mayor Warren granted permission to fly the borough flag in honor of the day.

EXECUTIVE PARDON FOR HIM

PRESIDENT ORDERS RELEASE OF LAD CONVICTED OF POSTAL THEFTS.

Pardoned by the President, Charles Townley, the sixteen-year-old boy who was detected in systematic robbery of the postoffice here while employed as a special delivery letter carrier, will be released from Trenton jail today.

Young Townley was sentenced to one year in prison. Every effort was made to secure a suspended sentence, but the ironclad tradition hedging convictions for postoffice crimes made that form of leniency impossible. The boy had a lot of friends, however, and prominent Plainfielders, headed by City Judge William N. Kunyon, who were convinced that he had only made an slip in the face of strong temptation, carried the matter to the highest sources. Through their efforts the case was laid before President Roosevelt, and the Chief Executive, convinced in turn that the sentence was too harsh, readily freed the young Plainfielder from his cell.

The boy is expected to arrive home this afternoon. He has served four months of his sentence.

MINISTERS STONED

French and German Envoys Suffer Outrage in Haiti.

PALACE GUARDS THE PERPETRATORS

Washington, Paris and Berlin Hear of the Assault on Representatives and Their Wives—High Feeling Against Foreigners.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—A cablegram from Minister Powell, at Port-au-Prince, says:

"The French and German ministers, with their ladies, while passing the palace in their carriages were stoned by the palace guard. French minister slightly injured. Apology demanded, but not given. Both have called their governments."

A Paris report says that the foreign office has received a dispatch from M.
Deprez, French minister at Port-au-Prince, Haiti, saying that while he and the German minister were driving past the palace at Port-au-Prince they were attacked and stoned by soldiers forming the palace guard.

M. Deprez was struck by a stone and was slightly injured. The ministers' wives, who were in another carriage following, were also pelted. The wife of the French minister is an American.
Foreign Minister Delcasse has not yet determined what steps shall be taken, but the officials consider it certain that France will make an energetic demand for redress.

One French warship is near the scene, and another is at the French naval headquarters in the West Indies.
A cablegram from Berlin says that Germany will make a like demand for redress.

Advices from Port-au-Prince say that the attack on the French and German ministers, who were stoned by the guards on duty at the palace, was the outcome of the feeling among the population and the government against foreigners, the natives holding them responsible for the wretched financial situation of Haiti.

The proceedings against the French and German officials of the National bank, charged with participation in the issue of $200,000 in fraudulent securities early in 1903, have not been ended.
Some of the officials are still in prison,
and others have sought safety in flight.
Persons prominently connected with the National bank have been protesting against the long detention in prison of the officials who are under charges.

Man Hunt With Bloodhounds.
KINGSTON, N. Y., June 24.—Blood-hounds from the Eastern New York reformatory, at Napanoch, are being used to trail two of the bandits who waylaid Orson C. Longyear near Jockey hill and robbed him. Two Italians were seen at Old Hurley, three miles from the scene of the robbery, and resisted attempts of armed farmers to restrain them. Later shots were exchanged between the fugitives and a sheriff's posse. More than 200 deputies are taking part in the man hunt.

Porte Yields to Powers' Demands.
PARIS, June 24.—The foreign office has been advised that the porte has yielded completely to the demands of the powers for redress as a result of the Armenian persecutions. Evicted Armenians will be returned to their old homes, indemnified for losses and protected for the future. The sultan, however, has thus far declined to ratify the porte's decision. The concessions followed a definite intimation that the powers were preparing to make a naval demonstration in Turkish waters.

A Bold Idaho Bandit.
SILVER CITY, Ida., June 24.—A bandit with a shotgun has held up the outgoing stage to Murphy, near the summit, a few miles from this place.
Nine passengers were forced to alight and give up their valuables. The robber then demanded the mail sack, which he ransacked. The stage driver was then ordered to drive on. The robber wore a black mask, and his shoes were covered with cloth to prevent leaving a track. Sheriff McDonald and posse are in pursuit.

Persian Chancellor Weds.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—Miss Gertrude Heilbrun and Henry C. Finkelstein, the chancellor and interpreter of the Persian legation, were married at noon in the drawing room of the legation. The Rev. A. Simon officiated.
Only the near relatives of the couple and Baron Moncheur, the Belgian minister, and two Washington friends were present.

Gap Got Loan in Silver Dollars.
EL PASO, Tex., June 24.—K. Tosawa, special emissary from Japan to Mexico, has arrived here and says that he succeeded in negotiating a loan for war purposes in the republic. Much of the money, consisting of silver dollars, has been shipped already to the orient.
Mr. Tosawa would not divulge the amount of the loan.

Miss Herried to Christen Dakota.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—The navy department has been notified that Grace Herried, daughter of Governor Charles Herried of South Dakota, has been invited by the Union Iron works, San Francisco, to christen the big armored cruiser South Dakota at that place.

Wife Slayer Found Guilty.
WASHINGTON, June 24.—A. L.
Shaffer, a former employee of the government printing office, who shot and killed his divorced wife in this city last August, has been found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury in the District criminal court.

BETSY ROSS.

Five Pointed Star in the American Flag a Woman's Idea.

It is high time women were beginning to write history for themselves.
Recently I wanted to find out something about Betsy Ross, who made and partly designed the first American flag, the one accepted by Washington and afterward by the congress of the colonies. I searched through five encyclopedias, all of them dealing specially with American biography, one with American biography alone and professing to make note of everybody worth while born or figuring on this continent in the last four centuries. In every one of these alleged encyclopedias I found a whole troop of Rosses,
"theologians and divines" mostly, that nobody ever heard of, but not one word concerning the skillful and brainy woman who wrought the first flag of our country. In the very history itself of the American flag in those encyclopedias there is not a syllable concerning Elizabeth Ross, scores of whose descendants are yet living.

BETSY ROSS SHOWING THE FLAG TO WASHINGTON.

One of these descendants, Mrs. Rachel Albright, a granddaughter of the original Betsy herself, to this day makes flags for the members of various historical societies who desire them.
Mrs. Albright lives in Iowa. She is ninety-one years old. Betsy Ross herself lived till 1830, dying at the age of eighty-four. Mrs. Albright was born and brought up in her grandmother's home, therefore remembers the fashioner of our country's flag well. A grandniece, Mrs. Susan McCord Turner of Philadelphia, also remembers Mrs.
Ross, who, she says, was beautiful even in her old age.

Let us recall the story of the maker of the first United States flag. Let us patch together the few facts that are on record concerning this important personage whom men historians omit the mention of, so opposed are they to giving credit to a woman for anything, and so taken up are they with exploiting their own sex.

Betsy Ross' maiden name was Elizabeth Griscom, and when a mere girl she was noted for her exquisite needlework. She was three times married.
Her first husband's name was Ross.
He conducted an upholstering business in Philadelphia, but died young, and Betsy continued the enterprise on her own account. This fact shows her ability and grit. She was twenty-four years old when she made the first flag.
A committee of men was appointed to design a flag, and Betsy was appointed to make it. The design was shown to her. Washington himself had helped to make the design, patterning it somewhat after the English coat of arms of his own family. He himself drew the sketch for the flag and showed it to Betsy Ross. There were the thirteen red and white stripes, with thirteen six pointed stars ranged in a circle upon the blue union.

Betsy Ross told Washington the six pointed star was a mistake. It was the heraldic star of the British, the enemies of the Americans. She declared that the five pointed star, the heraldic emblem in use among the French and Belgians, who were the friends of the young colonies, was the right one. By employing it on the young nation's flag the patriots would pay a graceful compliment to the only friends they had in their struggle for freedom. Besides that, the five pointed star would arrange itself easily for the circle of stars the first flag contained.

Then Mrs. Ross took a piece of paper, folded it, cut it with a stroke of her scissors, unfolded it and showed to General Washington the perfect five pointed star design which now adorns our flag. Washington was convinced on the spot. Betsy Ross got soon afterward the contract for making all the government flags.

The flag committee of men recommended to congress that a new stripe be added to the original thirteen for each new state. Again Betsy objected strenuously. She told them that would destroy the symmetry of the flag. She said a star should be added for each new state. However, they did not consider that a woman could possibly know anything, so went on and urged the additional stripe provision. Congress adopted it, and the flag continued to grow bulkier and bulkier and uglier and uglier until 1818, when the national authorities were obliged to go back to Mrs. Ross' original plan of thirteen stripes, adding a star for every state.
The old pattern had been followed till the flag contained twenty stripes. Mrs.
Ross had the happiness of living to see her original suggestion adopted.

Her flag was adopted by congress
June 14, 1777, and the next day Betsy Ross was married to her second husband, Captain Ashburn. Her third husband was John Claypool.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

It would be interesting to hear "Red" Waller's version of his termination of play with Manager Denman's team.

McGeehan, formerly of the Philadelphia Athletics, who pitched for St. Mary's team twice last season, is now twirling for the Harrisburg team.

John R. Lewis, a strong pitcher, now playing with a Pennsylvania team, contemplates moving to this city. If he does, the Allis Club may give him a trial. He has not lost a game this season.

There is a possibility that Courtney, of the Murray Hills, may be seen in an Allis uniform before long. It is understood that Manager Johnston has lined out for him. He plays in the infield, and is considered very fast.

"Mike" Lynch, the Brown University twirler, who has signed with Pittsburg, showed up well in his first league game this week against St. Louis. Although he gave six bases on balls, only four hits were made off his delivery.

Barrell, who will be remembered as pitching a game for Allis against Westfield, last year, and who is on the pitching staff of the Baltimore Eastern League team, was touched for nineteen hits by Toronto on Wednesday. He lost his game by a score of 25 to 7.

According to Sporting Life, the Bayonne team has been put on the blacklist because the management is using players who have "jumped" league teams. The same might be said of Westfield in the case of Rochester, who "jumped" the Connecticut State League.

Manager Daab, of the Hoboken, since last Sunday's game with the Philadelphia Giants, has read the riot act to this team. He threatens that unless the team plays the kind of ball expected of them, there will be some wholesale changes from Captain Driscoll down to Pitcher Lindeman.

VOLUNTEERS TO BE READY.

Garibaldi's War on Austria—Declares 30,000 Men Can Be Armed.

ROME, June 24.—General Ricciotti Garibaldi is continuing what he calls his preparations against Austria. He writes that there are already in existence 900 committees which are capable of providing 30,000 volunteers with arms. Garibaldi's assertion is looked upon as exaggerated.

General Ricciotti Garibaldi, who is a son of the Italian patriot, has issued a proclamation in which he declares that the increased armaments of Austria can be only against Italy, rendering impossible the opposition of that country to an Austrian march through the Balkans to Salonika. The general urged the Italian youth not to provoke a fight with Austria, but to hold themselves in readiness, forming special committees capable in time of need of providing at a few days' notice a body of 50,000 armed and well trained volunteers.

Trying to Find Kent Loomis.

LONDON, June 24.—A dispatch from Plymouth says that the authorities there are investigating the disappearance of Kent J. Loomis, brother of Francis B. Loomis, American assistant secretary of state, who was bearing important dispatches to the American ambassador at Paris. It is surmised that Mr. Loomis, who was a passenger on board the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II., which left New York June 14 and arrived at Plymouth June 20, may have landed at Plymouth. The authorities, the dispatch says, are seeking to identify as Mr. Loomis an American who left Plymouth for London on the night of June 21.

The vessel was in command of Lieutenant L. Perry and Gunner Donald. Perry is a submarine expert.

Commissioners Want Their Sista.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The Filipino commissioners to the St. Louis exposition, who are now touring the country, have been so overwhelmed by the receptions and entertainments accorded them wherever they have visited that they have been obliged to make a request that the citizens' committees of the places yet to be visited materially curtail their entertainments. Being accustomed to enjoy a rest during the middle of the day according to the Spanish custom, the strain is overtaxing them.

Mr. Morton declined to say whether or not he would accept the office.

SPORTS AND ATHLETICS

Cresceus, the king of trotters, has made himself and his owner famous the world over, and the mighty achievements of the famous stallion are indelibly emblazoned on the pages of harness turf history. While much has been said and written about Cresceus and his remarkable career, the general public has never been acquainted with the circumstances which were responsible for his being known to the trotting world.

G. H. Ketcham.

Some years ago George H. Ketcham, a prominent business man of Toledo, O., decided to engage in the breeding and racing of harness horses, hoping thereby to regain the vigor and strength of which impaired health had deprived him. He purchased the pacing gelding Charley Friel, 2:15½, and drove exhibitions over the Ohio half-mile tracks, reducing many track records. Then he founded what is now known as the Ketcham stock farm, one of the most prominent breeding establishments in Ohio. In 1892 he paid $250 at auction for the mare Mabel, by Mambrino Howard, and the following year mated her with Robert McGregor, 2:17½, whom he had secured to head his stud. The produce was a chestnut colt, who was named Cresceus, after a favorite slave of Caesar. Mr. Ketcham developed the colt, and started him twice in his two-year-old form, making an extensive campaign with him in 1897, when he was a three-year-old. The race which first directed the attention of the entire harness turf to the Ketcham colt was the one he trotted that season at Fort Wayne, Ind., when he defeated a large field of aged trotters in one of the hardest fought turf battles on record, winning the sixth, seventh and eighth heats in 2:12½, 2:11½ and 2:11½, the greatest race ever credited to a three-year-old trotter. His wonderful career is too well known to require extensive mention, a brief review of his performances showing that he reduced no less than 20 world's records, most of which are still to his credit, setting new records over 22 tracks, starting in 65 races and exhibitions, of which he won 45, earning in purses $110,000, and traveling 12,000 miles during the season of 1901. Thus Mr. Ketcham's search for health was not only awarded with success, but he also gained the proud distinction of having bred, owned, trained and driven a world's champion, while his venture earned for him a small fortune. The remarkable success of his achieved in training and racing Cresceus proves him a high class conditioner and reinsman.

By his recent victory in the British amateur golf championship Walter J. Travis, the champion of America, accomplished what is conceded to be by the conservative critics on the other side of the water the most brilliant achievement ever recorded in the history of amateur golf. For a player of less than ten years' experience to meet and defeat in turn such players as Holden, Robb, Reade, Hilton, Hutchinson and Blackwell—men who may be said to have inherited their golfing instincts—was quite an upset to the theory that correct form is the great essential to golfing success. The quiet little man from the Garden City club went into the camp of the Philistines and came away with the plunder. His success is a source of gratification to players on this side of the water. Travis is a remarkable example of the self-taught golfer, who has taken up the game late in life. Travis began playing the game only nine years ago, and four years ago he won the American amateur championship over men who had played for years. Every one of the Englishmen he defeated in the tournament in England has played since boyhood and it is difficult for them to understand how a comparative novice who has reached middle life can successfully compete with the best players in the world in a game in which it is generally conceded one must be reared from boyhood to become a champion. Travis is famed as a short driver, his strength lying in his short iron and outing shots, but although his drives are usually short, they are wonderfully accurate and well placed, scarcely ever falling in a hazard or bunker.

Jacob Schaefer, the American billiard champion, defeated the French expert, M. Cure, at Paris, in an exciting contest. The former won in a close finish by the score of 3,000 to 2,995. The game was played in six innings of 500 points each. The Frenchman in the second inning ran 255 points, thus beating by more than a "half century" the record of 200 made by George Sutton when playing against Vigneaux in the tournament of 1903. The run lasted 3½ minutes.

William E. Samuelson, of Utah, broke the world's bicycle record for two miles in a competition race at Salt Lake City. Samuelson rode the distance in 3:58 4-5, lowering by one second the previous record by Kramer at Vallsburg.

Thomas Sharkey, the pugilist, has been married to Miss Catherine McIntosh, of Michigan, a professional nurse, who attended him during a recent illness.
