

GOV. COMMENDS COLLINS

Stokes Expresses Appreciation of Guards' Work in Letter to General.

SENDS A VALEDICTORY

Last Encampment Was In Every Way a Success, Declares the State's Chief Executive.

As the climax to a week of social and military triumphs at Camp Stokes, Brigadier-General Dennis F. Collins has received a letter from Governor Stokes, congratulating him and his command of the National Guard on the showing made at Sea Girt, and referring to the splendid management of the camp, which has been a centre of activity for the past week. The letter came as a crowning glory for Colonel Collins and his lads in khaki, and it is safe to assume that the appreciation voiced by the Governor's letter was echoed by every other official who visited the camp.

The members of the Guard labored indefatigably to bring the camp to a state of military perfection, and that they succeeded admirably is evidenced by the praise that has been liberally bestowed on the warriors of Uncle Sam who figured in the manoeuvres at the camp.

There was not a hitch to mar the work of the regiments, and the opinion was greatly advanced that no more successful camp was on record for the state.

The Governor's letter was as follows:

"Governor's Cottage, Camp Stokes, Sea Girt, N. J."

"My dear General Collins:

"At the closing of the encampment of 1907, the last encampment with which it will be my pleasure to be officially associated, the first with which you have been associated as Brigade Commander, I present my valedictory to one whose service has just commenced.

"Accept for yourself and extend to your command my sincere appreciation of your unflinching courtesy to me personally and the splendid manner in which you have conducted the Camp.

"I trust you will have long years of military service to the pleasure of yourself and benefit of our State.

"With very wishes, I am,

"Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) "E. C. STOKES

"Brigadier-Gen. Dennis F. Collins,

"Second Brigade, N. G. N. J."

"Camp Stokes,

TWO BIDDERS FOR FIRE

HOUSE REPAIR WORK.

And Only One Wants the Job to Supply Winter's Coal.

Only two bids were received for the work of repairing the West Second street fire house, at the August meeting of the Common Council, last night. Walter Aggar offered to make the necessary repairs for $1,365, and Wyman & Haberle's figures for the work were $1,316.

Bids were advertised for to furnish the fire department with coal for next winter, but only one was presented. That was from the Consumer's Coal Company, represented by F. J. Harris. He offered to furnish 100 tons of stove and chestnut size coal for $57.73 per ton, and he also offered to furnish 300 bushels of oats, 66 crop, at 52 cents a bushel, while Percy S. Dayton's bid was 51 1/2 cents a bushel for the same quality of oats. All these bids were referred to the fire and building committee with power.

Raceway Unsanitary.

The Board of Health having made a complaint to the Mayor regarding the deplorable and unsanitary condition of the raceway leading from Tier's pond to Somerset street, Mr. Fisk communicated that fact to the Common Council, last night, urging that immediate steps be taken to have the raceway thoroughly cleaned. In the opinion of Mr. Fisk, as well as the Board of Health, the present condition of the brook is a menace to health. The matter was referred to the committee on public affairs, and will probably be attended to at once.

The Only Advertising Medium.

The Alpha Delta Phi pin advertised in yesterday's Daily Press as lost, was found by Miss Young, of West Sixth street, a reader of this paper, and promptly returned to the owner.

BATEMAN NOW HEAD OF ELECTION BOARD

SOMERSET'S BOARD APPORTIONS DELEGATES TO CONVENTION.

The Somerset County Board of Elections met at the Court House in Somerville yesterday for reorganization. The members, Charles H. Bateman and H. W. Reusswig, Republicans, and John H. Mattison and Jacob Shurts, Democrats, were all in attendance. Messrs. Bateman and Mattison were recently reappointed by Governor Stokes.

Several changes in the election laws were discussed, after which the number of delegates to the different conventions were apportioned, according to the vote of the last gubernatorial election by voting districts throughout the county. There is one new district this year, the new borough of South Bound Brook, which has been set off from Franklin township.

Charles H. Bateman was re-elected president and John H. Mattison secretary.

REGARDLESS OF RED TAPE, MAYOR ORDERS CLEAN UP

RACEWAY TO BE PUT IN SANITARY CONDITION AT ONCE.

The unsanitary condition of Green brook from Norwood to Girard avenues, was the important topic of discussion at the meeting of the Borough Board of Health, yesterday, and as a result a resolution, offered by Dr. A. H. Dundon, which was adopted, authorized the secretary to communicate with the Somerset County Board of Freeholders with a view to having the brook thoroughly cleaned.

The resolution asked the freeholders to remove all foul and decayed matter from the brook and to take such action as is necessary to prevent the formation of stagnant pools in the bed of the brook.

The Board of Health also discussed the question of acquainting the Plainfield Board of Health with facts relating to the unsanitary condition of the raceway, extending from Tier's pond to Somerset street. The raceway is situated in Union county and does not come within the jurisdiction of the borough.

The matter had been previously taken up by the city board and at its request Mayor Fisk brought it to the attention of the Common Council, last night. That body taking no action, simply referring the Mayor's communication to the public affairs committee. His Honor today instructed City Engineer Gavett to have the raceway cleaned up and made sanitary.

THEIR WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Galloway;

Guests Surprised Also.

In honor of the thirty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Galloway, of Netherwood, avenue, were tendered a surprise party at their home last night. The affair was a most delightful one. Music and refreshments were the features. Guests were present from Bound Brook, Dunellen, and other places nearby.

The guests were treated to a surprise themselves by the unexpected presence of Chester Galloway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Galloway, who returned unexpectedly on Sunday from a year's trip in the west. He came here from California, and appeared at the house unannounced. His mother was amazed to find him sitting in the dining room when she returned from a visit to a neighbor. He will remain here for some time.

Decorators of the Theatre.

The most important part of the work of making the New Plainfield theatre beautiful, which is being brought to a close, has been in the hands of Woolston & Buckle. They did all the principal decorating, and have been signally successful in securing strikingly attractive results. They and their force are to be congratulated on the quality of the work turned out.

William T. Glenney Played.

It was William T. Glenney who played in the semi-finals of the tennis tournament at the Plainfield Country Club, on Saturday, and not W. Lester Glenney, as stated yesterday. He won his first match with William Mayhew and then lost the second match to W. B. Cragin, after a hard fight.

Sketch of G. H. Babcock.

The current number of the Sabbath Recorder contains a splendid tribute to the late George H. Babcock, of this city, in the form of a historical sketch. An excellent likeness of the inventor, philanthropist and publicist adorns the cover.

CITY FATHERS' ROUTINE

Petitions, Invitations and Reports Command Common Council's Attention.

ACCEPT SEWER REPORT

Review of the Month—Consolidation Expenses—Want More Light—P. S. C.'s Bill.

Aside from the more important business considered at the August meeting of the Common Council, last night, there was a great deal of minor routine business that took up much time. W. B. Mills asked for permission to substitute cement block for brick in the building which he is erecting, J. D. Loizeaux and the Lake Pigment Company, petitioned for a four-way hydrant near Rock avenue and residents in the vicinity of West Eighth street and Monroe avenue asked for a hydrant there. All of these petitions were deferred to the fire and building committee.

Thomas Cavlear resigned as a call-man in the fire department, the resignation being accepted. Mayor Fisk appointed J. J. Neylon to take his place. The appointment was confirmed.

Electrical Engineer.

The annual invitation to the Common Council from the League of American Municipalities to attend the convention to be held at Norfolk, Va., was received and referred to the public affairs committee, as was also the recommendation of the coroner's jury appointed to inquire into the facts concerning the death of Clarence H. Weekes. The recommendations urged the appointment of a competent electrical man to inspect the overhead electric light wires.

Consolidation Expenses. Alexander Gilbert, who was chairman of the consolidation commission, reported that at a meeting of the commission, it was decided that the city should bear two-thirds of the expense incurred for the services of George B. Wean, copyist and stenographer, and the borough one-third, and he recommended that Mr. Wean's bill be paid accordingly. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

Mayor Fisk communicated with the Common Council urging the granting of a fire-box for the residents of the West End, the same to be located at Grant and Sherman avenues. He cited the fact that the petition had been before the Council before and he said that there is now an urgent demand for the extra fire protection. The petition was opposed by Mr. Hubbard, chairman of the fire and building committee because the appropriation is low and it would mean an expense of at least $175. Councilman C. C. Randolph and Herbert Buxton favored the improvement and a resolution that the fire-box be located there was adopted. Mr. Hibbard alone voting no.

Reports Filed.

Building Inspector T. O. Doane reported that twenty-seven permits were granted last month. H. G. Adams, clerk of the district court, reported receipts for the past month of $123.37 and a balance of $88.74. The sum of $2,500 was transferred from the general fund to the fire fund in accordance with a resolution offered by Mr. Hibbard.

Another resolution by Mr. Hibbard gave W. R. Codington and Walter Manning permission to use brick as a facing for their new concrete building on Watchung avenue near the railroad.

The petition by L. J. Geary and other residents in the vicinity of Denmark road and Dixie Lane for an electric light at that corner, was granted on motion of Mr. Montgomery, and two electric lights were ordered placed in Pruden's alley, between Front and Second streets. There was some doubt in Mr. Tolles' mind as to whether the city has the right to erect lights there and he voted against the resolution as did also Mr. Hibbard. It is understood that other improvements are also to be made in the alley.

Want More Light.

There was a report on the petition for lights on Carlton avenue, between East Seventh street and Putnam avenue, by Mr. Montgomery, and on his recommendation the lights were refused. He explained that the residents there prefer the shade trees and unless these trees are trimmed it would be impossible to light the thoroughfare. He also gave out a bit of news, which he said had not been reported to the public.

SEWER WORK ESTIMATES

City Fathers Will Give Contract to One of Ten Bidders on Monday Night.

STORM SEWER BIDS

Six Contractors Compete for Job Which Will Also Be Awarded On Monday Night.

There were ten bids received at the August meeting of the Common Council, last night, for completing the proposed sanitary sewer extensions throughout the city, showing that a number of contractors are anxious to secure the work. As in the case of the bids for the brick pavement, the street committee could not figure out the lowest bidder last night, and it was planned to hold a special meeting of the committee before Monday night, when this will be announced.

C. M. Meeker, Plainfield; Eugene Chamberlain, Westfield; Cavallo & Ziggo, New York; J. J. Fusco, Montclair; McManus & Hillpott, Bound Brook; Warren B. Travell, Plainfield; T. Foster Callahan, Elizabeth; T. J. McGovern, Trenton; Eveline Brothers, New Britain, Conn.

In connection with these bids there were also received bids for building a storm sewer through a portion of Plainfield avenue, as decided by a recently adopted ordinance. Six bids were presented as follows:

Eveline Brothers, New Britain, Conn., 33 inch sewer, $6.66 per lineal foot; manholes, $44; branches, $17; J. J. McGovern, Trenton, 33 inch sewer, $6 per lineal foot; manholes, $50; branches, fifty cents; McManus & Hillpott, Bound Brook, 33 inch sewer, $3.98; manholes, $46; Arthur E. Smith, Plainfield, 33 inch sewer, $3; manholes, $35; branches, $1.50; W. B. Travell, Plainfield, 33 inch sewer, $2.98 and $3.44, according to kind of pipe used; manholes, $35; branches, $1.50; C. M. Meeker, Plainfield, 33 inch sewer, $2.80; manholes, $45; branches, $3. These were referred to the street committee to be reported on next Monday night at the adjourned meeting.

RECTOR'S BIG "FAMILY"

RETURNS FROM OUTING

HOLY CROSS CHOR BOYS BENEFITTED AT CAMP COMFORT.

The members of the choir of the Church of the Holy Cross, accompanied by the rector, Rev. George A. Warner, arrived home this morning from "Camp Comfort," Hedges Lake, N. Y., where for the past two weeks they have been enjoying all the delights of outdoor life. The boys all had a jolly good time and every one has gained weight as a result of the outing. Even the rector "took on" seven pounds.

During their time in camp the boys were never idle a moment, the program for each day filled with amusement. All the summer visitors in that part of the country, as well as the natives, were good to the campers. On one occasion the entire choir and the rector made a trip to the Episcopal church at Cambridge, N. Y., in a hay wagon and sang the complete service to a large congregation of worshippers. One of the most impressive sights at the camp was the open-air service held there on Sunday. Rector Warner was in charge and the singing by the choir attracted hundreds of summer residents from that section.

A baseball game was arranged, the regular team from the choir playing the nine from Shushan, and winning by an overwhelming score. Rector Warner was the umpire and there was a notable absence of "kicks."

Another feature of camp life was a concert given by the choir. The managers canvassed the country-side selling tickets and advertising the fact that among their number was a phenomenal jig dancer, who at the age of three years was found on the Pacific Coast and had since become a wonder.

The boys all agree that they had the best time of their lives and not a single one was ready to come home, when Rector Warner gave the word to break camp. There was not an accident or a case of illness during the outing and the party returned home well and happy.

On the Late Rev. A. F. Todd.

An eloquent appreciation of the late Rev. Augustus F. Todd, of Dunellen, appears in the issue of the Christian Intelligencer for July 31. It is from the pen of Rev. Dr. H. Vanderwart. "I can't get a joy to have known and loved Bro. Todd," says Dr. Vanderwart in the course of his article.

PERKINS' AERIAL STUNTS

Young Woman at New Jersey Building Tells of Randy's Feats.

SUCH A NICE MAN

Jersey City Men Hear of Union County Statesman's Wonderful Doings at James-town.

Three Jersey City business men have just got back from a brief visit to the Jamestown Exposition, and while they are not very enthusiastic about the exhibition in general, they are much pleased with the showing made by the State of New Jersey. The three were Messrs. James Gossill, Edward Fox and J. Henry Castens, the first an expert on insurance, the second on cattle and the last on that which the Good Book says is the root of all evil, and occasionally puts his signature on V's.

They left one day last week on a steamer bound for Norfolk, and then scooted across to the exposition. The New Jersey Building excited in them not a little pride, and when it is remembered that the titular deity at the shrine was a charming young woman, the Jersey City men made a very thorough inspection of the exhibits. They were informed parenthetically by the young women aboard that she just adored Jersey-men.

"There's that dear Mr. Perkins," she said to Mr. Fox, who courteously assisted her in explaining things. "Why do you know him?"

"Do you mean Mr. Randolph Perkins of the Legislature—Mayor of Westfield?" interrupted Mr. Gossill. "I don't know about his titles, but he's a little, jolly, good-natured gentleman," said the goddess before mentioned. "He was here with some people from your State, and while I was showing them around I missed him and on looking up there was Mr. Perkins hanging on that chain from which the big chandelier is suspended, as he was doing all sorts of aerial stunts up there. Laugh! Yes, but I was scared. But he's a nice man—well, I mean you're all nice."

"Of course, my dear—ahem—miss," added J. Henry C., with becoming modesty.

Land sakes! What a long time it took to see everything in New Jersey's building. The trio thought it wouldn't be a fair thing to just hastily rush through, don't you know. That wasn't to be thought of, so, as they looked over everything and resolved themselves into?

"That's a great display," said J. Henry.

"Tip-top," said James G.

"Yes; she's very nice—I mean it is very nice," added Edward F., as they raised their hats and bowed and made tracks for the boat.

CLEANING UP ALLEY.

Property Owners Subscribe $600 for the Purpose.

Inspired by civic pride the owners of property situated along Pruden's alley, have subscribed $600 for the purpose of having the alley macadamized and otherwise improved. The Common Council, at its regular meeting, last night, granted two electric lights to be located in the alley.

In connection with these improvements, S. Scheuer & Co., who own considerable property there, have decided to put a concrete court yard between its building and the New Plainfield Theatre. This alley has for years been an eyesore to citizens and the movement to improve the thoroughfare is a welcome one on the part of all persons interested.

Gets Receivership.

Vice Chancellor Bergen has appointed Counsellor Francis J. Blatz, of this city, receiver for the New York Milk and Food Supply Company, a New Jersey corporation doing business in this State and New York. The receiver was applied for by stockholders. Judge William Newcorn is counsel for the creditors. The receiver did not know this morning just what shape the company was in.

Take Alston to Elizabeth.

June Alston, the colored youth accused of murder in Warren County, North Carolina, was taken to Elizabeth this morning by Detective Sergeant John Flynn, for incarceration in the county jail. He will be held there pending extradition proceedings. Chief Kiely expects a North Carolina deputy here tomorrow with the papers.

Fezeo and Bender Fined $3.

Joe Fezeo and Isaac Bender, of Somerset street, who engaged in a neighborly quarrel last week and called each other all the pet names they could think of, were each fined $3 by Recorder Dolliver in the borough court, yesterday.

DOGS RAN CALF TO DEATH; WANTS THE CITY TO PAY

ODD CLAIM FOR $15 PRESENTED TO THE COMMON COUNCIL.

An unusual claim for damages against the city was presented to the Common Council last night by Mary McCarthy, who lives on West Front street, near Mariner's place. She asked for $15, to compensate her for the loss of an eight weeks old calf, which she alleges was run to death by stray dogs.

The calf was put to pasture in a lot near the McCarthy home. Two dogs started worrying it, and got it running as fast as its shaky legs could go. The calf ran until it could run no more, and then died of heart failure. The value of the calf was established by unbiased appraisers, James Bolmer and John Lyons, who were called in by the indignant owner to judge the damage.

The claim was sworn to before J. H. Van Winkle. The Council referred it to the Public Affairs Committee.

URGES PROMPT ACTION BUT COUNCIL DELAYS

MAYOR WANTS OVERHEAD WIRE INSPECTION AT ONCE.

Calling attention to the recommendations of the coroner's jury, appointed to inquire into the facts concerning the death of Clarence H. Weekes, on Berkeley avenue, caused by a broken electric light wire, Mr. Fisk in a message to Council last night declared that there are many places throughout the city where wires need attention and he suggested that an inspection of them be made under the direction of the shade tree commission; that every precaution should be taken to prevent a repetition of the Berkeley avenue fatality. The Mayor, in urging that an electrical expert be appointed to inspect the wires of the city, declared that the expense should be borne by the Public Service Corporation. He said that conditions require immediate action and that an appropriation should be made for this work out of unappropriated funds. The communication from Mr. Fisk was referred to the lights and tree committee.

Later in the evening Mr. Montgomery, referring to the death of Mr. Weekes, offered a resolution providing for the inspection of overhead electric light wires, as suggested by Mayor Fisk. The resolution was considered too sweeping in its provisions as it did not specify a definite amount to be expended for the work. For this reason it was referred back to the committee and later it will come up in more definite form.

Decide to Improve Rocky Hill Road—Bridge Examination.

The Somerset County Board of Chosen Freeholders met yesterday to view the road at Rocky Hill, recently improved under the State Aid Road act. It was the opinion of the members that more stone should be put on the road in certain places and that the ditches should be opened. The committee on the road was authorized to view the work when completed and report.

It was ordered that Union avenue be closed during the construction of the bridge near DuMont's. The matter of examining certain sites for bridges at Raritan was referred. Garret Durling presented a claim for $15 for damages incurred to his rig during the repairing of a bridge in Montgomery township.

County Assessors Return Books.

Tax assessors from all parts of Union county went to Elizabeth today and presented a duplicate copy of their books to the Union County Board of Taxation. Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon all of the books were returned with the exception of two or three and it is believed that they will be presented before night. The County Board of Taxation will not attempt to go over the books until all are returned. The figures as submitted by the assessors are subject to revision and any figures published in advance cannot be depended upon as being correct.

NINE BRICK PAVE BIDS

Alleged Irregularity on McGovern's Part Will Lose Him the Contract.

HASSAM BID IS SECOND

And C. M. Meeker Third—Result to Be Announced on Next Monday Night.

Contrary to expectation there were nine bids received at the August meeting of the Common Council, last night, for brick pavement, as proposed by the ordinance recently adopted. While the street committee believed there would be several bids, they did not think that there would be so many. It was impossible for the street committee to determine the lowest bidder last night and for that reason an adjournment was taken until Monday night, when this will be announced as will also the lowest bidders for the sanitary sewer and Plainfield avenue storm sewer.

Roughly estimating it was the opinion that T. J. McGovern, of Trenton, was about the lowest, with the Hassam Company a close second. Some of the bidders specified a certain kind of vitrified brick, while others named several kinds, giving prices on each. The Hassam Paving Company, of Worcester, Mass., submitted four bids, each naming a certain kind of brick.

The bidders were as follows: Eveline Brothers, New Britain, Conn.; Russell Contracting Company, New York; M. Noonan, Germantown, Philadelphia; Reeves Smith, New Britain, Pa.; J. F. Kirwin & Co., New Brunswick; Hassam Paving Company, Worcester, Mass., four bids; McManus & Hillpott, Bound Brook; C. M. Meeker, Plainfield; T. J. McGovern, Trenton.

The bids were all referred to the street committee, and with City Engineer A. J. Gavett will work out the details to ascertain the lowest bidder and whether it conforms strictly to the specifications and the surety is all right.

The principal estimates per yard were T. J. McGovern, Trenton, with Leighton brick, $2.20; Hassam Paving Company, Worcester, Mass., Leighton brick, $2.25; C. M. Meeker, Plainfield, Pennsylvania Clay Company brick, $2.39. The result will largely depend on the quality of brick used. Samples of the various brick specified in the bids have been sent to Newark, where they will be given a thorough test.

City Engineer Gavett said this morning that owing to the fact that the check for $300 accompanying the bid of T. J. McGovern, of Trenton, being improperly drawn, the bid had been thrown out. C. M. Meeker's bid was third lowest. It will be impossible to determine the successful bidder until the street committee makes a selection of the brick to be used. It is expected that a report will be received on the test at the meeting of the street committee, Wednesday night, so that the contract may be awarded at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council Monday night.

Employees on a Picnic.

It required the large four horse stage of Mobus Brothers to convey the employees of "The White Store," A. E. Force & Co., proprietors, on their first annual outing to the mountains, this morning. The firm announced last week that the store would be closed today for the purpose of giving their employees an outing and it was arranged to hold a picnic on the mountains. The stage was attractively decorated with American flags and a large streamer bearing the firm's name and the purpose of the trip.

Will Render Decision Tonight.

No settlement was made yesterday of the case of Edward Bimble, of the borough, who, last week, was fined $28 by Justice Snape, for allowing a hound dog to run at large. Mr. Bimble has engaged G. W. DeMeza as counsel and Justice Snape has promised to give his decision tonight as to whether he will re-open the case or allow it to go to Somerville.

A gigantic merchandising coup—a masterpiece in the direction of real economy. We sustained such losses as good store keeping demands early in the season and disposed of all surplus lines of summer garments. This left us in a receptive condition—unburdened—free to act, and now when other stores are vainly striving to rid themselves of odd lots, left overs and uncertain styles, the great Bamberger organization comes to the fore with a sale of fresh, new, desirable summer suits, coats and skirts at practically half their former worth. The entire surplus and made up stocks of four of New York's leading designers now in our store and we shall inaugurate a sale Wednesday that will positively mark an epoch in value giving, and establish a new record for August selling at the State's greatest outerwear store. Eight big lots conveniently arranged on racks and tables—eight great bargain offerings that all Newark and vicinity will be talking about by this time tomorrow.

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

GOLF.

Rival attractions are presented to the golfers this week. In addition to the annual invitation fixture at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, there will be a tournament the same days at Maplewood, N. H. The program for the latter affair provides for both amateurs and professionals.

Liberal purses have been offered for the "pros," and a high class entry has already been assured. Among those who have signified their intention of taking part are Alec Ross, of Brae Burn, the national open champion; Gilbert Nicholls, winner of the professional tournament at Van Cortlandt Park last week; Alec Smith, former national open title holder, and a number of others almost equally prominent.

Jerome D. Travers, of Montclair, the national amateur champion, has entered, and so has Bryce Evans, one of the strongest of the Boston set. Besides the seventy-two holes of medal play there is to be a special four-ball match, in which Travers and Smith will be opposed to Nicholls and Ross.

Although Travers, who won the Shinnecock tournament a year ago, will be absent, it is expected that a fairly strong field will be on hand. Walter J. Travis, of Garden City, generally plays at Shinnecock, and it is quite likely that Charles B. MacDonald, H. J. Whigham, A. H. Larkin, Robert Abbott and J. Whitney Baker will be among the starters.

According to the conditions the golfers will qualify in sets of eights. Last year Travers defeated Travis in one of the early rounds, and followed this up by disposing of Howard W. Perrin, of Philadelphia, in the final. The Shinnecock course is now in excellent condition.

A large number of the leading amateur golfers of the country would like to see a different date selected for the national amateur championship tournament. Of late years the United States Golf Association has been in the habit of selecting a week in July, which is a trifle too early, especially for the Western players. For instance, H. Chandler Egan, twice holder of the title, had only about three weeks' practice for the recent championship at Cleveland.

This also tells the story in many other cases, not only in the West, but over Boston way, where a large percentage of the amateurs rarely get fairly started in the competitive game until the latter part of June. Here in the metropolitan district the situation is not quite so bad, although not a few of the best players claim they rarely succeed in getting at the top of their game much before the latter part of the summer. An early date is also detrimental to the chances of the college players, who are occupied with their studies during June. It is safe to say that if the question were put to a vote among the leading amateurs they would favor a fall date. The matter is likely to be brought up again at the next annual meeting of the United States Golf Association.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Y. M. C. A. aggregation has been making a strong bid for the amateur championship, but it could not quite measure up to the steady, consistent ball played by Clinton Avenue. They were picked by many early in the season as winners of the pennant and the prediction now looks like a certainty.

Nevertheless it was a disappointment to many fans that the association boys failed to make a better showing on Saturday. Dupee was rather easy for the Clinton Avenues, for they secured thirteen hits off his delivery, while Randolph allowed but four, and some of the more expert fans would give them but two singles.

It will now be up to Scotch Plains to make the remaining games of the league schedule interesting for Clinton Avenue and there is no doubt but that they will try and do so.

Raritan is reported to have dropped out of the amateur league. It is not surprising. The team was not in the class with the other teams and starting so late in the season could not hope to make any kind of a showing. The aggregation failed to win a game during its stay in the league.

Dave Fultz, the former center fielder of the New York Americans and now a practicing lawyer in New York, was playing second base on the Yonkers Y. M. C. A. team a few days ago, when a batted ball struck him on the nose. The nose was broken, the injury being a compound fracture. He has had several accidents playing baseball, although he went through several seasons of football without a scratch.

Jim McGuire has signed a contract to manage the Boston Americans again next year.

With Willie Keeler and Hal Chase both laid up with injuries, the Highlanders are deprived of two of their fastest men on the bases.

SAY PRISON LABOR IS USED.

Striking Shirtmakers Charge Employers With Illegal Methods.

Officials of the Shirtmakers' Union, which has 1,200 members involved in a lockout, announced yesterday that they are going to make a complaint to the authorities concerning alleged violations of the prison labor laws. The charge of alleged violation was contained in a letter from a shirtmaker in Trenton. In part, his letter reads:

"Inasmuch as the shirtmakers strike is now in progress, I deem it my duty as a workman at the same time to inform you that while the strike is in progress a portion of the work is being done in the State Prison of New Jersey. It is a fact that the contractors of the shirt shop in the prison are violating the law."

Members of the union say that if the charge be true it is no wonder that the manufacturers are not in a hurry to settle with the union.

At 74 Years Slays Husband.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Aug. 6.—The killing of John Neuman, aged seventy-five years, by his wife, aged seventy-four, has created a decided sensation in Pike county. Neuman and his aged spouse engaged in a quarrel at their home, in Blooming Grove township. Neuman, it is alleged, seized a butcher knife and attacked his wife. To defend herself she caught a hammer and struck her husband on the head, which stunned and felled him to the floor. Then she procured a pitchfork and pierced his body with the prongs. She hid the body in a field.

WIFE, BABY, AND PETS DID IT.

Domestic Combination in Court Saves Young Husband From Jail.

The tears and pleadings of the young wife of Julio Kehne softened the heart of Recorder George W. Cadman, of Bloomfield, yesterday, and saved Kehne from serving a term in prison.

The husband had been arrested on the charge of stealing a watch from a customer of the firm by whom he had been employed. Kehne had entered a house in Bellevue avenue to deliver some goods, and when a servant's back was turned it was alleged he stole the watch. Chief of Police Colline found the timepiece in his possession.

Just as Recorder Cadman was about to send Kehne to jail his young wife entered the police station and pleaded for his release.

"I ran away from home to marry him," she said. "Please let him go."

Mrs. Kehne brought to court with her a baby, a black kitten, and a dog. "I couldn't leave them behind," she explained to the judge.

The combination was too much for the kind-hearted court.

"Go and sin no more," he said to the prisoner, "and you can thank your wife for saving you from a term in prison. Her presence here did it."

Troops May Enforce R. R. Law.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 6.—Sensational developments are expected very soon in the situation growing out of the official revocation of the Southern Railway Company's license to do business in this State. Governor Comer has been in close consultation here today with the State's attorneys on the railroad question. Wholesale arrests for violating the railroad laws may begin at any moment, and the Governor may send out notices through the Attorney General to have every person connected with the railroad violating the laws arrested and tried under the criminal provisions of the various railroad regulation bills. The Southern Railway is still doing interstate business, and no move has been made to comply with the revoking of its license.

Strangles Her Two Babies.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 6.—During a recurrence of insanity which has caused her to be thrice confined in an insane asylum, Mrs. Christine Nenadal, twenty-six years old, the wife of Joseph Nenadal, strangled yesterday morning her two small children, Mary, two years old, and Yaroslav, a year and three months old. Mrs. Nenadal informed neighbors that she was going to dress the children and take them out. Not long afterward suspicion was aroused by sounds coming from the Nenadal home. Neighbors tried to enter, but found all the doors locked. A policeman broke open the door, but was too late to save the children. Mrs. Nenadal is under arrest.

Dying for Revenge.

New York, Aug. 6.—To die so that men who wounded him might go to the death chair is the Oriental method of revenge which the police ascribe to Edouard Correnio, of Cromwell avenue and 170th street, the Bronx, who is dying in Fordham Hospital. Three men attacked him last Wednesday night near his home, and now he has blood poisoning. Physicians in the hospital have told Correnio that his life can be saved if he will permit an operation for the removal of one leg. "If I'm going to die," he replied, "I might as well die. If I live to go out, I shall kill my assailants and then I'll die in the electric chair anyway. I might as well die now."

Peanuts Better Than Beef.

Berkeley, Cal., Aug. 6.—Professor M. E. Joffa, the nutrition expert of the State University, has issued a bulletin on nuts. He says that ten cents' worth of peanuts contain more protein than roast beef and six times the amount of energy in porterhouse steak. Professor Joffa is an authority on nuts and other riches of food. He has been a scientist connected with the University for thirty years. He is to resign soon to take the more lucrative post of chief chemist for the State Board of Health. He is to act as expert for the Board in its campaign against food adulteration throughout the State.

Lynching Spirit Grows.

New York, Aug. 6.—Two more attempts at lynching came to light yesterday, following charges made by girls against Italians. One of the cases was in Williamsburg, the other in Staten Island. Stirred to action, Acting Police Commissioner O'Keefe demanded that five hundred additional policemen be appointed at once to work exclusively on the particular crimes now stirring the city.

Woman's Eye Scratched Out.

Mrs. Thomas B. Gerard, of Wood Glen, near Changewater, has lost the sight of her right eye by a cat's scratch. She saw a strange cat enter her house a day or two ago, and endeavored to drive it out. The cat ran in a bedroom and sprang upon the bed. When Mrs. Gerard attempted to catch the animal it jumped at her face. In addition to the loss of her eye, Mrs. Gerard is suffering from severe lacerations of the face.

When buying your supplies of groceries The nearer the producer and consumer can be brought together by avoiding all the intermediate exchanges or transfers possible, the better it will be for producer and consumer, and better for all mankind, because a hundred exchanges can add nothing to the real value of an article, although it may add many hundred per cent. to its price.

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The announcement in last night's Press that Taylor Mahaffey, the popular third baseman of the local league team, had accepted an offer from the Amersand team of Saranac Lake, N. Y., came as a surprise to the local fans. While it was known that Taylor had considered several offers to join faster company still it was hoped that the locals would be able to hold him for the balance of the season. Mahaffey was one of the most popular men on the team. His stick work will be missed by the locals, but while Scotch Plains loses him, he has the best wishes of all and there is no doubt but what he will make good.

Much depends on Saturday's game with Clinton Avenue, which will be played on the local diamond. If Clinton Avenue wins the race for the pennant will practically be over as they will have a clear lead of two games. The game the home team is putting up should give them a fair chance to do the trick and give them a set-back in the race.

Miss Laura Boornmann entertained her class in the Baptist Sunday-school at a lawn party at her home on Westfield road yesterday afternoon. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in games, after which refreshments were served.

Rev. Mr. Arthur and family, of Jersey City, are spending several weeks at Mrs. F. N. Flanders. Mr. Arthur is pastor of the North Baptist, one of Jersey City's largest churches.

Mrs. Charles Backer, of Netherwood avenue, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Jahn, of Park avenue.

Andrew Reilly, who has been visiting relatives in Washington Valley, has returned to his home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harper, of Front street, have been entertaining relatives from Bound Brook.

Mrs. Robert Walpole was the guest of relatives in Newark yesterday.

LAKE HOPATCONG.

Elmer Ackor, Arthur Humble, Edgar George, Charles Steiner, John Steiner and George Force were guests Sunday at Camp Um-ta-ra-ra, which is under the supervision of Stryker Hoagland and Carl Steiner, of North Plainfield.

Carl Steiner is entered in the swimming race of seventy-five yards, on Saturday. Carl is almost certain of winning one of the prizes, as he is considered one of the best swimmers in the Plainfield Y. M. C. A.

Stryker Hoagland, of North Plainfield, and Robert Benninger, of Brooklyn, are making strenuous efforts toward winning a prize next Saturday in the canoe races.

Camp Ram's Horn, under the management of Jack Hall and Tom DeMeza, is flourishing and the "broad smile" of each guest indicates that they are well fed.

E. Arthur Janke, of Ninth street, and Arlington avenue, won second prize for the best decorated launch in Saturday's regatta.

H. A. Bird is doing the lake with a view camera. He succeeded in landing a "chromo" of Camp Ram's Horn.

F. T. Woodhull has entered his new launch in the boat regatta on Saturday.

Truman Blyden was among the Plainfielders who spent Sunday at the lake.

Roosevelt and Bryan.
Politics are beginning to warm up and hosts of presidential candidates are already in the field, but it doesn't seem to us as if the presidential nominee is of half as much interest to the majority of Plainfield people just at this moment as the fact that seasonable footgear for men, women and children can be bought at VanArsdale's "Watermelon Cutting" at a big discount from regular prices. Save a few pennies now and you will have more money to bet on the results of the next election.

RESENTENCE SCHUYLER TO HANG AUGUST 30

ASK FOR SPECIAL SESSION OF PARDON BOARD FOR MURDERER'S CASE.

John E. Schuyler was sentenced by Supreme Judge John Reed yesterday afternoon, at Flemington, to hang August 30, for the murder of Manning Riley. Schuyler was to have expiated his crime June 28, but was granted a stay when the case was presented before the court of errors and appeals, which body refused to grant him a new trial.

Schuyler was brought in the court room closely guarded by a squad of constables and Deputy Sheriff Dilts. He was not handcuffed, and walked with a firm, quick step, taking a seat beside his counsel. His hair was carefully combed, and he wore the same natty suit he had on during the trial. He was unmoved throughout the ordeal, and sprang to his feet quickly when Judge Reed said: "Stand up, John."

His features indicated abject illiteracy, and the stolid indifference with which he received his sentence was commented upon by those who have crowded into the court room.

After sentence he talked with his counsel a few minutes, and walked back to his cell with a firm step. He made no comments upon the sentence, other than proclaiming he was innocent of the crime for which he must hang.

The regular meeting of the court of pardons will not be held until November, but Schuyler's counsel will ask the Governor to summon the body to listen to an application to have his sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

Bomb Thrown at Revivalist.
Greenwich, Conn., Aug. 6.—Incited by a story that Henry Spilkins, an itinerant Portuguese evangelist, who has been holding Pentecostal revival meetings composed largely of white people in the vicinity of Pawtucket, was practicing mesmerism on a white woman, a mob burst into the house of Alvah Wood, a white man, where Spilkins was discoursing Sunday night, and threw a bomb containing a dangerous liquid, dispersing the meeting and wounding Spilkins. Though no one was seriously injured, many were shaken up, burned and lacerated.

Plainfield in the Olden Days...

Re-printed from
The Constitutionalist

From the issue of August 23, 1869:

"Two narrow escapes from kerosene explosions were experienced in our city. In both cases, the lamps were discovered to be blazing from the top of the chimney, and the wicks charred to the fluid, and liable to explode the next instant. In one case the lamp stood within three feet of a bed, where reposed sleeping children. Providentially the danger was discovered in time, by the parents entering the room, and the lamps extinguished. Had it not been discovered in time, we might have to record a serious tragedy. Too much care cannot be exercised in the use of kerosene oil nowadays."

"The 2nd nine of 'Centrals' played a match game of baseball with the 'Niagaras,' of Scotch Plains, and were defeated by a score of 31 to 16. The return game will be played on the grounds of the Centrals on Friday next."

"The special train conveying the Presidential party over the Central R. R. last Thursday, made the unprecedented time of 1 hour and 43 minutes from Easton to Jersey City, stopping 6 minutes at Somerville and 1 minute at Elizabeth. They didn't stop here."

"Ulysses the Great passed through our city on Thursday last. The cannon boomed, the depot was draped, and a goodly crowd of loyal citizens were in attendance to give him a welcome. After waiting patiently for 3 hours, the great man was whisked past the depot like a meteor, never stopping to shake hands with his friends, or even accept a small basket of fine peaches and cigars which was to be presented to him. A telegram, however, was thrown from the passing train, stating that the train was one hour and a half behind time and could not stop at Plainfield."

"The sound of the 2d Presbyterian church bell strikes upon the ear like the fall of a watermelon from a third story window."

"Our worthy friend, S. H. Smith, met with a disagreeable accident on Friday afternoon last. It seems that Smith, as real estate agent, was showing a New Yorker some land in the vicinity of the city, and had hired a horse and carriage of Mr. P. H. Stryker to convey them to the property in question. On returning to the depot they found they were some minutes in advance of the arrival of the 2:45 train to New York, and the New Yorker expressed a desire to look at another piece of property nearby. A freight train was shifting cars across Peace street and the carriage occupied by Smith and his companion was so near to them that there was not room to go forward and turn, and Smith told the New Yorker, who was driving, to back around and they would get out. Instead of doing so, he attempted to drive and turn, and the consequence was that he turned so short that the carriage was upset, spilling the occupants into the street; the horse, taking fright, started off on a run, breaking the shafts and harness, and slightly tearing the curtains. The horse was secured in a short time, uninjured. The New Yorker was badly scared, but beyond a few slight scratches and a liberal coating of the dust (with which our city abounds at present) was not injured. Mr. Smith was slightly bruised about the shoulders."

FRIDAY. THE 13th

By Thomas W. Lawson

There was a silence, and then I heard an indescribable fluttering rush that told as plainly as sight could have done that a woman had answered her heart's call. Looking up involuntarily, I saw a sight that for a long moment held my eyes as if I had been fascinated. It was Bob bowed forward with his face hidden in his hands and beside him, on her knees, Beulah Sands—her arms about his neck, his head drawn down to her bosom. "Bob, Bob," she said chokingly. "I cannot stand it any longer. My heart is breaking for you. You were so happy when I came into your life, and the happiness is changed to misery and despair, and all for me, a stranger. At first I thought of nothing but father and how to save him, but since that day when those men stole his heart, I have ters sought to get into the faces of their worshippers who, kneeling before Christ, tried to send to Him, through their eyes, their soul's gratitude and love. I stood as one enthralled. Slowly and as reverently as the living lover touches the brow of his dead wife, Bob bent his head and kissed her forehead. Again and again he drew her to him and implanted upon her brow and eyes and lips his kisses. I could not stand the scene any longer. I started to the corridor door, and then, as though for the first time either had known I was within hearing, they turned and stared at me. At last Bob gave a long, deep sigh, then one of those reluctant laughs of happiness yet wet with tears.

"Well, Jim, dear old Jim, where did you come from? Like all eavesdropbeen filled with, oh! such a longing to tell you, to tell you, Bob—" "What? Beulah, what? For the love of God, don't stop; tell me, Beulah, tell me." He had not lifted his head. It was buried on her breast, his arms closed around her. She bent her head and laid her beautiful, soft cheek, down which the tears were now streaming, against his brown hair. "Bob, forgive me, but I love you, love you, Bob, as only a woman can love who has never known love before, never known anything but stern duty. Bob, night after night when all have left I have crept into your office and sat in your chair. I have laid my head on your desk and cried and cried until it seemed as though I could not live till morning without hearing you say that you loved me, and that you did not mind the ruin I had brought into your life. I have patted the back of your chair where your dear head had rested. I have covered the arms of your chair, that your strong, brave hands had gripped, with kisses. Night after night I have knelt at your desk and prayed to God to shield you, to protect you from all harm, to brush away the black cloud I brought into your life. I have asked Him to do with me, yes, with my father and mother, anything, anything if only He would bring back to you the happiness I had stolen. Bob, I have suffered, suffered, as only a woman can suffer."

"Bob, Forgive Me, But I Love You, Love You, Bob."

She was sobbing as though her heart would break, sobbing wildly, convulsively, like the little child who in the night comes to its mother's bed to tell of the black goblins that have been pursuing it. Long before she had finished speaking—and it took only a few heart-beats for that rush of words—I had broken the power of the fascination that held me, had turned away my eyes, and tried not to listen. For fear of breaking the spell, I did not dare cross the room to close Beulah's door or to reach the outer door of my office, which was nearer hers than it was to my desk. I waited—through a silence, broken only by Beulah's weeping, that seemed hour-long. Then in Bob's voice came one low sob of joy:

"Beulah, Beulah, my Beulah!" I realized that he had risen. I rose, too, thinking that now I could close the door. But again I saw a picture that transfixed me. "Bob had taken Beulah by both shoulders and held her off and looked into her eyes long and beseechingly. Never before nor since had I seen upon human face that glorious joy which the old mas-pers, you have heard no good of your self. Own up, Jim, you did not hear a word good or bad about yourself, for it is just coming back to me that we have been selfish, that we have left you entirely out of our business conference."

We all laughed, and Beulah Sands, with her face a bloom of burning blushes, said: "Mr. Randolph, we have not settled what it is best to do about father's affairs."

After a little we did begin to talk business, and finally agreed that Beulah should write her father, wording her letter as carefully as possible, to avoid all direct statements, but showing him that she had made but little headway on the work she had come north to accomplish. Bob was changed being now; so, too, was Beulah Sands. Both discussed their hopes and fears with a frankness in strange contrast to their former manner. But there was one point on which Bob showed he was holding back. I finally put it to him bluntly: "Bob, are you working out anything that looks like real relief for Miss Sands and her father?"

"I don't know how to answer you, Jim. I can only say I have some ideas, radical ones perhaps, but—well, I am thinking along certain lines."

I saw he was not yet willing to take us into his confidence. We parted, Bob going along in the cab with Miss Sands.

Two days afterward she sent for us both as soon as we got to the office. "I have this telegram from father—it makes me uneasy: 'Mailed to-day important letter. Answer as soon as you receive.'"

The following afternoon the letter came. It showed Judge Sands in a very nervous, uneasy state. He said he had been living a life of daily terror, as some of his friends, for whose estates he was trustee, had been receiving anonymous letters, advising them to look into the judge's trust affairs; that the Reinhardt crowd had been using renewed pressure to make him let go all his Seaboard stock, which they wanted to secure at the low prices to which they had depressed it, in order that they might reorganize and carry out the scheme they had been so long planning. Judge Sands went on to say that the day he was compelled to sell his Seaboard stock he would have to make public an announcement of his condition, as there could be no sale without the court's consent. His closing was:

My dear daughter, no one knows better than I the almost hopelessness of expecting any rest from your operations. But so hopeless have I become of late, so much am I reliant upon you, my dear child, and eternal hope so springs in all of us when confronted with great necessities, that I have hoped and still hope that you are to be the savior of your family; that you, only a frail child, are through God's marvellous workings to be the one to save the honor of that name we both love more than life; the one to keep the wolf of poverty from that door through which so far has come nothing but the sunshine of prosperity and happiness; the one, my dear Beulah, who is to save your old father from a dishonored grave. Dear child, forgive me for placing upon your weak shoulders the additional burden of knowing I am now helpless and compelled to rely absolutely upon you. After you have read my letter, if there is no hope, I command you to tell me at once, for although I am now financially and almost mentally helpless, I am still a Sands, and there has never yet been one of the name who shirked his duty, however stern and painful it might be.

When I handed the letter back to Miss Sands, she said:

"Mr. Randolph, let me tell you and Mr. Brownly a little about my father and our home, that you may see our situation as it is. My father is one of the noblest men that ever lived. I am not the only one who says that—if you were to ask the people of our state to name the one man who had done most for the state as a state, most for her progressive betterment, most for her people high and low, white and black, they would answer, 'Judge Lee Sands.' He has been, and is, the idol of our people. After he was graduated from Harvard, he entered the law office of my grandfather, Senator Robert Lee Sands. Before he was 30 he was in congress and was even then reputed the greatest orator of our state, where orators are so plentiful. He married my mother, his second cousin, Julia Lee, of Richmond, at 25, and from then until the attack of that ruthless money shark, led a life such as a true vanced until his investment showed over 50 per cent. profit. It is not right for us to make this money. No man in America should make over legal rates of interest and a fair profit on an investment, that is, an investment of capital pure and simple, particularly in a transportation company, where every dollar of profit comes from the people who patronize the lines. I have worked it out on every side, and it is not right; it would not be legal if the people, who make the laws for their own betterment, understood their affairs as they should."

"He was always writing to the Wilsons to conduct the affairs of the Seaboard so that there would be remaining each day only profits enough to keep the road up and the wharves in good condition and to pay the annual interest and a fair dividend. And when the Wilsons came to our house to lay before him the offer of Reinhardt and his fellow plunderers to pay enormous profits for the control of the seaboard, he was indignant and argued with them that the offer was an insult to honest men. It was he who advised the trusteeship control of the Seaboard stock to prevent Reinhardt from securing control. I sat in the library when he talked to the elder Wilson and the directors."

"He appealed directly to John Wilson to make an effort to stop the growing tendency to use the people as pawns to enslave themselves and their children. He said some man of undoubted probity, standing, and wealth, some one whom the people trusted, must start the fight against these New York fiends, whose only thought is to roll up wealth. And he told John Wilson he was the man, since he had great wealth, honestly got by his father and grandfather; no one would accuse him of being a man would map out for himself his Maker granted him the privilege. You would have to visit at our home to appreciate my father's character and to understand how terrible this sorrow is to him. Every morning of his life he spends an hour after breakfast with my dear mother, who is a cripple from hip disease. He takes her in his arms and brings her down from her room to the library as if she were a child. He then reads to her and he knows good books as well as he knows his friends. After he takes mother back to her room, he gives an hour to our people, the blacks of the plantation and his white tenants throughout the county. He is a father to them all. He settles all their troubles, big and little. Then for hours he and I go over his business affairs. Every afternoon from four to five he devotes to his estates and the men and women for whom he acts as trustees. He has often said to me: 'We have a clear million of money and property, and that is all any man should have in America. It is all he is entitled to under our form of government. Any more than that an honest man should in one way or another return to the people from whom he has taken it. I never want my family to have more than a million dollars.' When he went into the Seaboard affair, he explained to me that it was to assist the Wilsons—they were old friends, and he acted as their solicitor for years—in building up the south. He discussed with me the right and advisability of putting in the trust funds. He said he considered it his duty to employ them as he did his own in enterprises that would aid the whole people of the south, instead of sending them to the north to be used in Wall street as belting for the 'System' grinder. These fortunes were made in the south by men who loved their section of the country more than they did wealth, and why should they not be employed to benefit that part of the country which their makers and owners loved? I remember vividly how perplexed he was when, at the beginning, the Wilsons would show him that the investments were returning unusually large profits.

"It is not right, Beulah," he said to me one morning after receiving a letter from Baltimore to the effect that Seaboard stocks and bonds had ad-hypocrite, seeking notoriety, and his standing in the financial world was so old and solid that it would have to listen to him. I remember how emphatically father said: 'I tell you, John, even the discussion

CHURCH HELPS EVADE LAW.

Sells Saloon-keeper Land Beyond the 200-foot Limit.

Members of the Hebrew Congregation of the People of Truth, in Trenton, are involved in a quarrel over the sale of a tract of land to David Aroniss, a saloon-keeper, for the purpose of defeating the provisions of the State liquor law, which prohibits the establishment of a bar within two hundred feet from a house of worship.

Aroniss desired to open a new saloon on Union street, but measurements showed that his property was only 195 feet from the congregation's synagogue.

To overcome this obstacle he purchased fifteen feet front from the lawn of the place of worship, making the synagogue line 210 feet from the proposed saloon. There was considerable opposition in the congregation to the making of the sale, but it finally went through.

Now Harris Fiestal, one of the members, declares that Aroniss has agreed to give the property back to the synagogue as soon as he secures his license, and that the sale has been made solely for the purpose of defeating the provisions of the law.

A CRUISING SALOON.

Two Elizabeth Men Coining Money in Arthur's Kill.

If the profits netted on Sunday are a fair average for future earnings, two men have hit upon a novel scheme to become speedily prosperous, and to the strict enforcement of the Bishops law they will owe their good fortune. The newly discovered mine is a floating bar.

Since the advent of the tight Sunday in Elizabeth its inhabitants have taken a marked liking to crabbing in Staten Island Sound. Nothing is nothing like crabbing under the hot sun to beget a thirst. This two Elizabeth men knew and decided to go to the relief of the thirsty. They got out Sunday a trusty yacht and in it stored two dozen kegs of larger and installed an improvised bar.

PEARY READY FOR TRIP.

Explorer Expects to Leave for North Within a Week.

Commander Robert E. Peary, who left Portland, Me., yesterday for New York, where he will complete preparations for his polar expedition, stopped at Boston a shore while yesterday afternoon and told briefly his latest plans.

He said that he had already been delayed three weeks and it might take another week before he could start from New York. He expects that the new boilers just installed will permit the ship to make considerable faster time to the North than before. The trip from New York to Sydney, C. B., will be made without a stop.

Joe Doyle, the slow delivery pitcher of the New York Americans, is no easy mark in stick work, as many pitchers have learned. He hits the ball hard and makes his share of pinch hits.

The Detroiters are by far the most popular visiting team that plays at American League Park, New York. Among other things, Jennings' coaching is enjoyed because it is bright and there is nothing offensive or personal in it.

The Y. M. C. A. nine will practice hard this week. The players have not given up the pennant chase and will work to win all remaining games trusting to a Clinton Avenue slump.

Arrangements are being made for a game between the Newark News and local newspaper men's nine, in this city.
