

REV. MR. SHAW RESIGNS

Pastor of Local Seventh-day
Baptist Church Accepts a Call.

LEAVES ON JANUARY 1

Will Take Charge of Church at North Loup, Neb., Vacated

By Rev. Dr. Gardner.

Rev. George B. Shaw, who has been pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist church for five years, has resigned, the same to take effect December 31, to accept the call to the pastorate of the denomination's church at North Loup, Nebraska, recently vacated by Rev. Dr. T. L. Gardner, who today assumes the duties of editorship of the Sabbath Recorder, succeeding Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis.

The resignation was read at the church services Sabbath morning by Asa F. Randolph, clerk of the church, and there was not only general surprise among those present, but deep and sincere regret that Mr. Shaw has decided to leave. A special church meeting has been called for Sunday night to consider the resignation.

Mr. Shaw, previous to coming to Plainfield, was the pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, New York, where he performed a good work. During his pastorate in Plainfield he has accomplished much for the denomination and has been instrumental in building up the church and increasing its activities. Soon after Rev. Mr. Gardner was called from the pastorate of the North Loup church to the editorship of the Recorder, there were rumors that that church intended calling Mr. Shaw as a successor to Dr. Gardner. The call was finally made but Mr. Shaw said that he would not give his answer until after due deliberation. The North Loup church is a large and important one and offers a field for greater activity and usefulness. The Plainfield church has no idea who will succeed Mr. Shaw here.

MRS. BAKER BURIED.

Funeral Services of H. H. Baker's Widow.

The funeral service of Mrs. Cynthia Baker, widow of Rev. H. H. Baker, was held from the late home on East Fifth street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends, including many of the older residents of the city.

Rev. George B. Shaw, pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church, of which Mrs. Baker was a member, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, was in charge of the service. Mr. Shaw read the Scripture lesson and Dr. Lewis made a few remarks concerning the long and exemplary Christian life of Mrs. Baker. The burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Dr. Gardner Assumes Editorship.

Rev. Dr. T. L. Gardner, formerly pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church at North Loup, Nebraska, who resigned to accept the editorship of the Sabbath Recorder, succeeding Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, entered upon his new duties today. He will have full charge of the Recorder. Dr. Lewis resigned to be able to devote more time to advancing the interests of the denomination through the publication of books and other special literature.

Sentence Suspended.

Dominick Papetti, arraigned on complaint of Mrs. Mary Green, who said his children were allowed to annoy her and her children, promised Judge Runyon in the city court this morning, through Lawyer John P. Owens, to keep the little Papettis in order. Sentence was suspended.

MR. AND MRS. DUNHAM
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS WED

FRIENDS PRESENT PUNCH BOWL TO THE COUPLE.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dunham, of Madison avenue, who on Saturday celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding, were happily surprised at their home in the evening by a large company of relatives and friends from the Seventh-day Baptist church. The affair was a total surprise, the couple not having the slightest intimation of it. During the evening there were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Dunham a handsome silver punch bowl and ladel and several pieces of cut glass.

The presentation speech was made by O. S. Rogers and responded to by Mr. Dunham on behalf of his wife and himself. A feature of the celebration was an informal program of music, including several vocal solos by Alfred A. Williams, of Denver.

Colo., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Tisworth.

Mrs. Dunham was a native of Central New York, but was residing in Plainfield, when Mr. Dunham met and married her. They have lived here ever since. Mr. Dunham is a civil engineer of repute, having performed work in all parts of the country. He was also a city and county engineer. Both he and his wife are active in the affairs of the Seventh-day Baptist church.

JEWISH NEW YEAR'S IS BEING OBSERVED TODAY

SOMETHING OF THE DAY AND ITS OB-SERVANCE BY THE FAITHFUL.

With three curiously intoned blasts of the shofar or ram's horn, the Jewish New Year was ushered in at twilight last evening. Services began at the Synagogue Children of Israel, New street, and will continue all day. The Plainfield Hebrews are observing the day generally.

The stores of Jewish merchants throughout the city will be closed all day in honor of the advent of the New Year.

At the synagogue prayers are recited by the cantor or chanted by the choir, and the congregation voices its thanks for the blessings of the last year.

The Jewish New Year is observed in accordance with the injunction: "And in the seventh month on the first day of the month, shall ye have a holy convocation; no servile work shall ye do; a day of blowing the cornet shall it be unto you."

The cornet mentioned in the Bible is the ram's horn or shofar, and is used in all Jewish synagogues on the new year. In the orthodox synagogues the man who has this duty must be an exceedingly religious Jew. He must not have shaved his beard. He must not have committed any offense which would bar him from this sacred office. If he has done such a trivial thing as smoking a cigar on the Sabbath he would be barred.

When he is ready to blow the shofar, he covers his head with the tallith, a silken cloth, and takes his stand at the altar, beside the rabbi, and at certain places in the course of the prayers blows the solemn sounds. The congregation does not look toward him when the piercing and fantastic notes of the shofar reverberate through the synagogue.

W. L. GLENNEY WINS CUP

Defeats D. H. Barrows in Scratch Trophy Play at the Country Club.

RESULTS ON SATURDAY

Willson Gets First Honors for Golf
Committee Cup and Burke

For Greens Cup.

In the final play for the Scratch cup at the Plainfield Country Club on Saturday, W. Lester Glenney displayed the best form and by playing the better golf defeated Dudley H. Barrows, 6 up and 4 to play. The match was not quite as close as expected, but the contestants at times played a brilliant game.

E. T. Willson with a net score of 79 won first honors for the Golf Committee cup, while Dudley H. Barrows with an 82 finished second and W. Lester Glenney with an 84 received one point for the trophy. As some of the crack players are putting up a fast game, the Golf committee is adding strokes to their scores. The cards returned for the Golf Committee Cup were as follows:

E. T. Willson, 89, 10-79; Dudley H. Barrows, 80, plus 2-82; W. Lester Glenney, 82, plus 2-84; Charles A. Stover, 93, 9-84; Stuart H. Patterson, 94, 10-84; Frank O. Reinhardt, 82, plus 3-85.

C. C. Burke, Sr., won first honors for the Green committee cup with a net score of 78, while J. P. Murray finished second with a 79 and C. P. Hamilton was third with an 80. Although playing in Class B for this trophy, J. P. Murray is a Class A player in all other events. The scores:

C. C. Burke, Sr., 88, 10-78; J. P. Murray, 91, 12-79; C. P. Hamilton, 100, 20-80; Hugh F. Fox, 95, 14-81.

The initial play for the Autumn cups, Class A and B, was also an event of interest. According to the rules governing this competition two players must qualify each Saturday this month for match play in October. In Class A on Saturday, E. T. Willson and J. P. Murray qualified with a net score of 79. In Class B, C. P. Hamilton qualified and A. E. Barclay and L. H. Gates were tied and this must be played off to determine who shall be the second player to qualify.

These scores were returned in Class A:

E. T. Willson, 89, 10-79; J. P. Murray, 91, 12-79; Hugh F. Fox, 95, 14-81; Dudley H. Barrows, 80, plus 2-82; W. Lester Glenney, 82, plus 2-84; Charles A. Stover, 93, 9-84; Stuart H. Patterson, 94, 10-84; Frank O. Reinhardt, 82, plus 3-85. Class B—C. P. Hamilton, 100, 20-80; A. E. Barclay, 100, 15-85; L. H. Gates, 110, 25-85.

There was a large field out at the Park Golf Club on Saturday, when play was continued for the President's, Golf club and September cups. Low score were the rule and as the season progresses the rivalry grows intense. Charles B. Morse still leads in the competition for the President's and Golf club trophies. He won points for each on Saturday with his score of 97, 16-87.

R. V. Carpenter was low net player on Saturday. His score of 75 gave him first honors for the President's and September cups, while he was tied with Rev. C. L. Goodrich with a gross score of 101 for honors for the Scratch cup.

R. V. Carpenter, 101, 26-75; W. V. Byard, 97, 11-86; C. B. Morse, 97, 10-87; Reuben Knox, 103, 15-88; J. B. Betts, 119, 30-89; Louis K. Hyde, 105, 15-90; Charles A. Reed, 103, 11-92; Rev. C. L. Goodrich, 101, 9-92; E. A. Lyons, 118, 24-94; Dr. H. K. Carroll, 104, 7-97.

HEPTASOPH CONVENTION.

Will Be Held Here Tomorrow Night;
Banquet Afterwards.

Prominent Heptasophs from all over the State will gather in this city tomorrow night. The convention of the order will be held here.

The session will begin at 8 o'clock. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, who has been prominent in the order for years, and is a member of the supreme body, will call the meeting to order. It will be followed by a banquet.

One Drink That Led On.

James O'Rourke, arrested Saturday night at Park and Crescent avenues for drunkenness, was arraigned before Judge Runyon in the city court this morning. He said he hadn't tasted whiskey for two years up to Saturday, but that illness caused him to take a drink and he couldn't control the appetite it aroused. He promised to swear off again, and Judge Runyon suspended sentence.

J. P. Humble Retires.

Joseph P. Humble, one of the oldest merchants of the borough, having conducted a grocery store for thirty-three years, has retired, selling the business to Wiggins & Hurley, of Philadelphia.

BUDDING ARCHITECT
ACTS AS OWN LAWYER

AND IS SUCCESSFUL, THE COMPLAINT AGAINST HIM BEING DISMISSED.

Accused of cruelty to a horse and reckless driving, Joseph Miller, Jr., a young man employed as an architect's assistant, was arraigned before Judge Runyon in the City Court this morning. The complaint was dismissed. Miller conducted his own case with the aplomb of a practicing lawyer.

Acting Roundsman F. S. McCarthy placed Miller under arrest after 1.30 o'clock yesterday morning, on West Front street, after Arthur Robinson had reported him for reckless driving and cruelty. The policeman considered the horse's condition sufficient to warrant the arrest on the cruelty charge. After the arrest the roundsman located Walter Sheets and John Smith, motorman and conductor of a trolley car with which Miller was said to have raced to and from Bound Brook.

The trolley men testified that a buggy was driven recklessly before and beside the car from Dunellen to Bound Brook and back to this city. Miller aroused the ire of the witnesses by his mode of questioning, but he established the fact that they could not identify him as the driver. He denied driving recklessly, and an employee of the Plainfield Cab Company, from whom he hired the horse, testified that the animal showed no sign of having been abused. That wiped out the case against Miller.

GUEST IS MISSING AND JEWELRY GONE

WOMAN SAYS THAT SHE BELIEVES SHE WAS CHLOROFORMED.

Jacob Clark, a tailor, of 102 Broad street, Elizabeth, was searching in New York Saturday for Louis Sott, of Chicago, a supposed friend, who disappeared Saturday. When he disappeared Mrs. Clark says she discovered that more than $400 worth of her jewelry had vanished. The missing articles are a gold watch and chain, with four diamonds inserted in the watch cover; a diamond shirt stud, a diamond earclip, a gold ring with an agate stone, and a gold ring with an amethyst stone.

Sott, who is twenty-two years old, was studying law in Chicago. Mr. Clark, who has a brother living in that city, met the young man last year in Chicago while he was on a visit there. He took a fancy to the law student, and invited him to visit his home in Elizabeth.

Sott arrived on Thursday afternoon. Mr. Clark did not notify the police at Elizabeth but started at once for New York city to put the police there on the case. Both Mr. and Mrs. Clark believe that the young man has started back for Chicago. Mrs. Clark informed a reporter that she never slept so soundly in her life as she did Friday night, and did not awaken until nearly 6 o'clock Saturday morning. She had a queer feeling in her head when she awakened and believes that she was chloroformed. The bureau where the jewelry was kept is in a corner of her sleeping apartment.

Too Swift for Tommie.

Thomas M. Muir, of The Daily Press staff, who is touring the west, met with an accident while in Chicago, last week, which put him to lots of trouble. He was enjoying a sightseeing trip of the Windy City aboard a cable car and not being accustomed to this means of street transit, fell off. As a result he was obliged to visit a tailor shop before proceeding on his journey.

A Split Trolley Rail.

Employees of the Public Service Corporation found a split trolley rail on West Front street, between New street and Plainfield avenue, last night, and a watchman was placed at that point to warn motormen to be careful in running over the damaged rail. This morning a gang of men was sent to the place and replaced the damaged rail with a new one.

Will Marry George L. Babcock.

Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, who has been spending the summer at Watch Hill, R. I., returned to Plainfield Saturday, en route for Alfred, N. Y., where tomorrow night he will officiate at the wedding of Miss Ruth Stillman, of that place, and George L. Babcock, of West Eighth street. A number of Plainfield relatives and friends will attend the ceremony.

Board Will Meet Thursday Night. The Plainfield Board of Education will not meet tonight owing to the absence of the president, Dr. J. B. Probasco. The meeting will be held Thursday night.

TOMORROW'S PRIMARIES

Real Struggle in the First and Fourth Wards to Attract Attention.

THE POLLING PLACES

Where the Battle of Ballots Will Be Fought—Equivalent to An Election.

In two wards tomorrow the New Idea and regular Republican organizations will engage in the second battle of the war started a year ago. The fight will be in the First and Fourth wards. In the Second and Third, where the Colbyites were victorious a year ago, they have been left in undisputed possession of the field.

Interest in the wards where the voters will have to choose between two tickets. In the Fourth, the Colbyites have drawn their lines for a determined effort to wrest the ward from the leadership of Factory Inspector Andrew McCardell. They stand as the endorser of Assemblyman Perkins in his effort to secure a renomination. They will make themselves felt, but those in a position to forecast say the regular forces have the victory in hand.

In the First ward, the New Ideas do not appear to have gained much strength since last year, when their ticket was overwhelmed. They have opposed Isaac B. Hill to Councilman William L. Gloak, whom the organization has renamed. They have workers and will try to keep the organization men "on the job."

The primaries will open at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and votes will be received until 9 o'clock at night. Voters who have not registered may do so at the polling places while the primaries are open. The polling places will be located as follows:

FIRST WARD.

First District: At No. 174 East Front Street.
Second District: At No. 545 East Third Street.

SECOND WARD.

First District: At No. 327 Watchung Avenue.
Second District: At No. 699 South Avenue.

THIRD WARD.

First District: At the Casino, West Seventh Street.
Second District: At Neumann's barn, corner Spooner Avenue and Essex Street.

FOURTH WARD.

First District: At No. 204 West Second Street.
Second District: At No. 672 South Second Street.
Third District: At No. 921 West Third Street.

Werts Picks Child for Governor. Morrisstown, Sept. 9.—Former Governor Werts was in this city yesterday talking politics among his friends and declared that Francis Child would be the Democratic nominee for Governor. Whether or not Mr. Werts came in the interest of Judge Child, he didn't say, but it was plain to those who talked with the ex-Governor, that he wanted the Morris County Democratic delegation to keep in mind that Mr. Child should receive its support at the State convention. Mr. Werts spent most of the day driving through the streets of the city and calling upon his old-time political associates. A prominent Democratic leader said last night that the Morris County delegation would support the candidacy of Mr. Child.

Mrs. Bridget Murray.

Mrs. Bridget Murray, widow of Patrick Murray, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Smith, 435 Spooner avenue, with whom she lived, as a result of an accident about a month ago. At that time she fell down stairs and received a deep cut in the head, requiring fourteen stitches. The injury together with the nervous shock to the system caused death. Mrs. Murray was a native of Ireland, but had lived in this State fifty years. She is survived by four daughters and two sons. The funeral service will be held from the house tomorrow morning at 8.30 o'clock and from St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Mary's cemetery.

Church Team Defeats Harrison A. C.

The Holy Cross baseball team defeated the Harrison A. C. Saturday afternoon on the Cricket Field, by a score of 17 to 6. This contest ends the season for the Holy Cross church team so as to give them time to practice for the football season.

Miss Ada Dennis, of East Second street, returned home Saturday from Bloomsbury and Phillipsburg, where she has been visiting relatives.

Miss Lavinia Ish and Miss Isabelle Hutchinson, of Prince William County, Virginia, are guests of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Chambliss, of Central avenue.

NEW IDEA'S ATTACK ON COUNCILMAN BUXTON

HE EXPLAINS HIS STAND ON SEWAGE PLANT LOCATION.

Campaign capital is being made by the New Idea people of the stand taken by Councilman Herbert Buxton, in opposing the installation of a garbage disposal plant in that ward for the purpose of defeating him for re-election to the Common Council. Mr. Buxton, who has been named as a candidate for ward councilman, admits the charge and explains his action by declaring that he did so for the good of his constituents. The fourth ward, he says, already has the poor farm, the isolation hospital and the sewage disposal beds and in his opinion that is enough for that section. His argument is that all these plants are of an undesirable nature and that to burden the ward further by placing within its territory a garbage plant would seriously effect realty values. Consequently, he declares that the last named plant should be located elsewhere. The report is also current that the New Idea leaders in other wards have arranged to have some of their men go over to the Fourth to help defeat Buxton.

Councilman Herbert Buxton.

Friends of Buxton say that there has never been a more zealous representative from the Fourth. During his incumbency, they say, he has succeeded in obtaining more improvements in the short space of time than has ever been acquired in a life period. Many streets have been macadamized through his efforts, numerous new lights and fire alarm boxes added. Furthermore, the district, it is declared was never so well attended to in the street sprinkling line as since he took office. For a long time he has endeavored to get West Third street macadamized between Madison avenue and Clinton avenue. In this he has met with strong opposition among the city fathers but he is sanguine that the improvement will be brought about at an early date.

CITY CAN NOW USE
SEWER WORK MATERIAL

CLAIM OF FOUNDRY COMPANY AGAINST MORGAN SETTLED.

The attachment case of the Warren Foundry and Machine Company against Peter Morgan, the sewer contractor, in the Union County Circuit Court, has been settled, the plaintiff receiving its claim in full with interest to date. This has entailed a great deal of work and the settlement permits the city to go ahead and use the materials on the ground for the sewer work. Reed & Codrington represented the Warren Foundry and Machine Company.

There are two applying creditors, the Loizeaux Lumber Company, whose claim is about $1,700 and E. T. Hand, who has a claim of $109. They have received about 47 per cent on account of their claims, and the balance is held pending the completion of the contract. The claim of the Warren Foundry and Machine Company was $7,600.

The question of settling the claims for labor remains unsettled. This is in the hand of the city treasurer and it will largely depend on the amount left after other claims are paid as to how much the Italian laborers will get. Codrington & Swackhamer is looking after Mr. Hand's interests.

Perkins Still Fighting.

Assemblyman Randolph Perkins today denied a story sent out from Elizabeth to the effect that he had quit in his effort to get a fourth term in the Legislature. He says he is in the fight to the finish and has no intention of withdrawing.

Hugh G. Baldwin Engaged.

The engagement is announced of Hugh G. Baldwin, of West Seventh street, to Miss Gladys Adams, of New York. No date has been set for the wedding.

AGED CONTRACTOR DEAD

John Chandler Succumbs Following Third Stroke of Paralysis.

AT SEVENTY-TWO YEARS

Member of Mecca Temple—Survived
By Four Daughters—Masonic Funeral.

John Chandler, aged seventy-two years, one of the best known citizens of Plainfield, died at 8:45 o'clock, last night, at his home, 508 Watchung avenue, following a third stroke of paralysis, earlier in the day, which rendered his entire body helpless. It was thirteen months ago that Mr. Chandler suffered the first stroke, affecting the right side. In July he had a second slight stroke, but yesterday's attack was so severe that he failed rapidly. He had been noticed by the family that during the past six months he gradually grew weaker and his death was only a question of a short time.

Mr. Chandler was born at Liberty Corner and removed to Plainfield when a young man, where he continued to reside, with the exception of a few years spent in the west. He learned the carpenter's trade when a young man and became one of the best known contractors in this part of the State. He built a great many of the business blocks and fine dwellings in the city and borough. The last big contract held by him was that of the Babcock building, Plainfield's largest business block. A few years ago the building was partially destroyed by fire and afterward rebuilt.

Especially in Masonic circles was Mr. Chandler well known. For many years he was active in the local lodges. He was a thirty-second degree Mason, being a member of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., Jerusalem Chapter, No. 24, R. A. M., Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., of this city; Mecca Temple, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles Mystic Shrine, the Consistory and the Scottish Rite. He was a past officer in the local Masonic lodges and at times held offices in the State organization. He was also a member of the First M. E. church.

Surviving are four daughters, Miss Emma Chandler, Miss Lillian Chandler, Miss Fanny Chandler and Mrs. John F. Auten.

The arrangements have not been completed for the funeral, but it will no doubt be in charge of the local Masonic bodies.

PLAINS SCHOOLS READY.

Opening in Suburban Village Tomorrow Morning.

The public schools at Scotch Plains will reopen tomorrow morning after the summer vacation. The corps of teachers reported today and everything is in readiness for the resumption of school work. Two new faces will be found in the corps of teachers this year. Miss Smith, of Cranford, having been engaged as a successor to Miss Ingraham and Miss Lent, of Palmyra, N. Y., will fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Hogan, which was tendered two weeks ago. Miss Hogan expects to be married the latter part of the month.

Although identified with the school but one year, Miss Hogan made many friends and was highly esteemed. Both of the new teachers have had several years experience and come well recommended.

Fisk Fake Story Victim.

Famished for a "beat," another paper on Saturday came out with a double-headed story announcing the serious illness of Mayor Charles J. Fisk at Woodstock, Vt., and of the rush of Dr. B. Van D. Hedges to the bedside. The rumor was current on the streets on Saturday morning but its authenticity was denied by a member of the family. Displaying one of its usual characteristics, the paper in question however served its readers with one of its "features." The truth of the matter is that Mr. Fisk has a slight cold and the visit of Dr. Hedges had no connection with his illness, the physician merely accepting a social invitation to the Fisk family residence.

U. S. Uniform An Ad.

Wearing the full uniform of a regular officer of the United States army, not even omitting the sword, Lieut. Stanley Lewis, of the Arizona Rangers, popped into The Daily Press office with his autobiography setting forth his heroic achievements and winding up with the fact that the subject is an annex to a colored show giving a performance here today. The hero says he is a guest of the boss of the show.

Philip Vroom, principal of Public School, No. 2, Bayonne, spent Saturday with his sister, Miss Wilhelmina Vroom, of West Fifth street.

Start life afresh. Borrow from us to pay the several you owe and make payments in keeping with your income. By so doing you keep your credit good. Ease up the pressure on yourself and have a chance to "turn around" in other things needed for the family.

An Illustration
One of our clients owed $48 between four people. His salary is $14 weekly; rent $12 monthly. To have paid $2 weekly to each creditor, combined with rent, would have left only $3 per week to meet expenses, buy clothing, etc.—an impossibility you will agree. He borrowed $50, paid all his creditors, made his future credit good, if ever needed; pays his rent, the loan payments, and has $9 each week to use as his judgment dictates.

MORAL:—Do likewise and avoid worry. Come in and we will talk it over with you, or drop a postal and a confidential representative will call on you.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

And now comes "the best educated chorus girl on the stage." She is Anna Mooney, of Marie Cahill's "Marrying Mary" company, which will be seen at the New Plainfield theatre, September 11. Her friends put forward the claim for her, because of an essay which she wrote for the Cleveland Leader and which won honorable mention in a competition, including hundreds of girls.

Eldredge and Meakin will this season manage and direct the tours of several high class attractions, chief among which is Alberta Gallatin in the Western play, "Judith of the Plains."

the Plains," and Reginald De Koven and Harry B. Smith's famous comic opera, "The Highwayman." Miss Gallatin will appear here tomorrow.

Low Kelly plays the "dope fiend" in Hap Ward's musical farce, "Not Yet Hit Soon," which will be seen here Thursday. Kelly is said to be one of the best of the many who have essayed this style of role. All his work is with "Casey," a purely imaginary being who is ever at his side.

William Collier, who will be seen at the local theatre in "Caught in the Rain," on September 13, was at once time a call boy at Daly's theatre. Mr. Collier has many reminiscences of Augustin Daly, who was the first manager to introduce into his plays real money, real doors, and, in cases where a dinner was required on the stage, real food was brought from the nearest restaurant. In these respects, Collier has followed carefully in Daly's footsteps.

"Red Feather," which will be seen at the New Plainfield theatre, September 14, is a reversion to straight opera, the music by Reginald De Koven, book by Charles Klein, and lyrics by Charles Emerson Cook. Mr. Cook's lyrics are singular and clever and Mr. De Koven's music is always satisfactory. There are at least a dozen musical numbers. For the prima donna role Manager Joseph M. Galtes has engaged Miss Cheridah Simpson.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE IS AGAINST COLBYITES.

Superintendent Burke Takes Exceptions to Their Attitude on Local Option.

State Superintendent J. Frank Burke, of the Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey, is opposing the "new idea" men now because of their attitude on the local option question in the State. He is trying to get the co-operation of ministers throughout the State, and has been conducting his campaign by letter.

To this end a letter has been sent to the ministers throughout the State calling attention to Colby's Sunday local option plank, speaking of it as "the most vicious part of the Blahm bill, of unholy memory," and stating that the men "who stand for this thing should be rebuked at the primaries next Tuesday."

Another letter has been sent to every minister in Essex county asking them to preach on the political situation, giving a plain and emphatic statement of the case. Many replies have been received stating that the request will be complied with.

W. Maxwell Burke, of the league, stated Saturday that there was no ill feeling between Colby and the league although his brother had had a conference with the Senator and failed to convince him of the evil of local Sunday option. Burke said that the league would not support the "new idea" in the next election while it supported the local option plank. He said that the league considering getting up an independent ticket, but that this step has not yet been decided upon.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

Christian Alliance Workers Hold Annual Conference at Y. M. C. A. 6

The annual prayer conference of the workers of the Christian Missionary Alliance of New Jersey opened at the Y. M. C. A. this morning. Workers from Newark, Jersey City, Elizabeth and more distant points in New Jersey, as well as some from Staten Island, which is included in the territory, are attending the gathering.

A session for workers only was held this morning in one of the parlors, and another closed meeting will be held this afternoon. A public meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. U. rooms on Madison avenue tonight. The session this morning was presided over by Rev. J. D. Williams, the State superintendent, whose home is in Brooklyn.

Lunch was served at noon, and supper will be served at 5:30 o'clock.

Academy's Last Year.

St. Gabriel's Academy, in the borough, opened this morning for the fall and winter term, with a bright outlook for the future. There is enrolled a music class of thirty-five and the number of pupils in the other departments is thirty-two. There are now being formed special classes in vocal music and painting, and those wishing to join should make application next week. Arrangements have also been made to do china firing. This will be the last year at the present academy as next June the graduates will unite with those from St. Joseph's Academy, of Bordentown, at commencement exercises to be held at the new Mt. St. Mary's College.

St. Mary's Opening.

St. Mary's Parochial School was re-opened today for the fall and winter term with a full attendance of pupils. Many improvements have been made at the school and both teachers and pupils start the school work with considerable enthusiasm.

A quantity of phosphorus started a small fire at the Manufacturers' Brass Foundry on North avenue, at 6:58 last night. One extinguisher put out the blaze.

THE FORUM.

As to Mr. Iremonger.

Editor, The Daily Press:

"Some publicity has been given to the story that Mr. E. E. Iremonger, who has represented the Second ward on the Republican City Executive Committee, had been turned down by the 'New Idea' organization. In justice to Mr. Iremonger and the 'New Idea' organization the actual facts should be given to the public."

"As a member of the Executive Committee of the Second Ward Branch of the 'New Idea' organization, I was present at a meeting of that body when the sub-committee on nominations made its report. Based on this report the Executive Committee made suggestions which were duly approved at a meeting of the ward branch. When it came to candidates for the city committee the sub-committee for nominations presented Mr. Iremonger's name but explained that he was out of town, that they did not have his address and had been told that he would not return until after the time when the nominating petitions had to be filed. There was a universal sentiment in favor of his return to the City Committee if he cared to go. Personally remembering that he had resigned from the Executive Committee of the Second Ward Branch owing to the pressure of other duties, I feared that we would have difficulty in persuading him to serve for another year. While we were discussing how to reach him and whether or not he would be willing to serve it was suggested that as certain members of the committee were appointed in any event it would be a simple matter to appoint him in the event he was willing to go. Then there would be no question about getting his acceptance on the nominating petition. The point was raised as to whether he would take any offense at being appointed instead of being elected but considering the circumstances, we did not for a minute think it possible."

"The attempt on the part of some of our good friends of different political ideas to spread the story that this was intended as a deliberate slight to Mr. Iremonger is ridiculous. I voice the sentiments of all the members who were present that evening when I say that it was furtherest from our thoughts to do anything but fully recognize Mr. Iremonger's services and recommend his return to the City Committee, provided he cared to go."

"CHARLES B. MORSE."

[For Mr. Morse's benefit it should be stated that had the coterie in the Second ward, which decided who should be nominated, made any effort to get Mr. Iremonger's address it could easily have been obtained. The address was published in the newspapers and could not only be gotten at their offices, but from Mr. Iremonger's friends, neighbors and business associates as well as from the secretary of the city committee. Mr. Morse possibly is not aware that the appointment of any additional members to the committee after the election is purely discretionary with that body and that it is far from certain that the New Idea nominating coterie could insure his appointment in such a manner. Before questioning the story, which is admitted by the members present when Mr. Iremonger resigned to be entirely correct, it might have been well for the author of the communication to have had a talk with Mr. Iremonger, himself. It is not too late now for him to get the capable ex-chairman's opinion of the affront offered him by his former political friends.—Editor.]

Bars Public Drinking Cups.

Bloomfield, N. J., Sept. 9.—The town council has accepted the fountain offered to this town by the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The fountain will be useless, however, as the board of health will not allow cups to be put there for drinking purposes, asserting that cups at public fountains breed disease. The fountain, which is quite ornamental, will be erected near the business center.

EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS BY MISS CAROLINE HALL

AT NEWPORT; INVITATIONS SENT OUT
BY MRS. JULIA WARD HOWE.

Invitations to an exhibition of paintings by her granddaughter, Miss Caroline Minton Hall, who is a daughter of Mrs. Florence Howe Hall, have been sent out by Mrs. Julia Ward Howe. The exhibition will be held at Newport, in the Dupont house.

The paintings are all of unusual caliber. The portrait of Mrs. Julia Ward Howe is an excellent likeness and attracts special attention. The figure is life-size and shown three quarters length and the portrait is characterized by great dignity of mien and bearing. The young artist received the inspiration for it when she saw her grandmother in the pulpit of Channing Church on Hospital Sunday, a year or two ago.

In the hallway hang four paintings, three of which have been exhibited in the salon of the Societe Nationale des Beaux Arts in Paris. The painting called "The Torrent" will be for many the most attractive of the collection, as it shows nature in one of her dark hours. The deep rich coloring of the tree, and the flash of the white torrent dashing between the sombre sides of the land, have a real quality. In this same vein is "The Storm Cloud." One feels the threat of the coming storm in the cloud; the moment of silence before the tempest breaks in the air. The picture takes a strong hold on the imagination.

Miss Hall took the first prize for drawing (silver medal) at the Delecluse Academy in 1903 and exhibited at the salon of the Societe Nationale des Beaux Arts in 1905 and 1906. To Angers, one of the best exhibitions of the French provinces, she sent by special request her picture, "The Wooded Vale." This was also shown at the spring exhibition of the New York Academy of Fine Arts, and is now at the summer exhibition of the Worcester Art Museum, also by special invitation. Her work has been seen for several years at the exhibitions of the American Woman's Art Association of Paris. Miss Hall was secretary and treasurer and afterwards vice president of this organization. Wherever her work has been shown, whether in this country or in France, it has received commendations from the press. She expects to make her winter home in New York.

TESTING BULLS WITH AUTOS.

How Mexican Learned Whether Animal Was a Fighter.

That the automobile can be used with great success in determining the courage of young bulls intended for the bull ring has been demonstrated by Pedro Fernandez Somelera on his Ildro hacienda in this state. The novel experiment was made a few days ago with a 22-horsepower car, says a Guadalajara letter in the Mexican Herald. On all haciendas where fighting bulls are raised the young animals are "tested" with a view to determining their future fitness for the bull ring. Those that prove their courage are marked and left to grow up for future contests. Up to this time the tests have been conducted by men on horseback, armed with pikes like picadors. But Mr. Somelera, who is an enthusiastic motorist, this year decided on an innovation by introducing the motor car in place of the horsemen. Accordingly, after the young bulls had been herded into a large corral, the machine was driven into the enclosure. The occupants were armed with the usual pikes. The experiment proved an exciting success. Several of the young bulls charged the machine at mad speed, and it was only by clever driving that the car and its occupants were kept clear of the horns of the surprised and apparently indignant animals. The bulls that attempted to mix with the automobile have been credited with exceptional bravery, and they are expected to bring fame to the San Ildro hacienda by their future performances in the bull ring.

NOW THE PORCELAIN HOUSE.

New Invention May Make It a Building Material—Advantages.

The use of porcelain has long been known in China, but is now likely to make its appearance in western countries, and we are assured that the porcelain house is one of the possibilities of the near future. It is made practicable by the invention of a method of making large sheets of porcelain about an inch thick, which has the strength without the bulk of an ordinary brick built wall. Among its advantages is rapidity in building. With sheets of porcelain a good sized house can be constructed in a few days. It is damp proof, too, and is, of course, kept clean at the cost of very little labor. Colored glazes take the place of wallpaper, and pictures can be painted instead of being hung on the walls. Again, it is easily portable. A porcelain house can be taken down when the owner desires to move and re-erected on another site. When it comes, these advantages, combined with its cheapness, are bound to make it popular.—Montreal Standard.

Smokestacks in Italy.

In Italy every important city, except only Rome, is now surrounded with a ring of chimneys in full smoke. The government exempts from taxation a "zone" of factories around each town. The traveler's first view of Venice as he crosses the lagoon comprises 13 smoking chimneys; the moon, seen from the Lido, rises from a filthily thickened horizon; Verona has a bouquet of active chimneys near her station; Brunelleschi's dome at Florence and the quaint tower of her Palazzo Vecchio stand aloft against a horrible brown sky; the former orange gardens of Genoa are deep in dirt, grime and "fog" for the making of soap. When Rome, too, has lost her limpid horizon there is one Rome lover, at any rate, who will go there no more.

Nothing Else to Do.

Several teachers who were assigned to the city playgrounds were discussing the amusing and diversified ambitions of the tots in their charge as to what they hope to be when they "grow up." A teacher told of one little girl who in all sincerity gave her a reply that was not likely to make her vain. "Would you like to teach children when you become a young lady?" was the question. "No'm," was the emphatic reply. "What would you like to do?" persisted the teacher. "If I am pretty I'll be an actress," came the answer. "But suppose you are homely?" asked the teacher. "Well, then, of course I'll have to be a teacher," said the child.—Philadelphia Record.

Power of the Waves.

The power of waves, says M. Broun in La Nature, is the sum of two efforts, one dynamic and due to the orbital movement of the water particles, the other static, and dependent on the height of the center of gravity of the mass raised above its normal position. Theory and observation seem to show that the total power of waves is divided equally between these static and dynamic effects. If a body of water meets the wall of a structure there is a shock, and this is most violent at the water surface, diminishing with the depth. At the moment of meeting jets of water rise sometimes to very great heights.

WOMAN FLAGS TRAIN; SAVE HUNDRED LIVES

RAILROAD CAMP COOK HEARS
CRASH OF BRIDGE ABUTMENT AND WARNS ENGINEER.

St. Louis.—Through the quick wit and prompt action of a woman in flagging the Santa Fe's "California Limited" early the morning at Hart, Mo., as the heavy train was about to plunge through a damaged trestle, the lives of over a hundred passengers were saved, and what might have proved one of the most disastrous railroad catastrophes of a number of years averted. The woman to whom so many owe their lives is Mrs. Minnie Hartshull, of Ethel, Mo., a cook for a railroad camp near Hart.

According to passengers who were awakened soon after 3 o'clock in the morning to make the transfer across the creek at Hart the "California Limited" had left Kansas City in the evening nearly two hours late and was running at a high rate of speed to make up time into Chicago. At Hart a trestle of considerable length spans a small river at a height of about seventy feet. The tracks approach the trestle on a curve, thus obstructing the view of the engine men.

Down the Track.

As the heavy train consisting of eight or nine Pullman cars with their sleeping occupants approached the bridge and was less than half a mile from it a lantern light was seen waving down the track by the engineer.

The first intimation that passengers had that all was not right was the grinding shock of the airbrakes. Thus aroused they hurried out of the coaches and found the engineer and trainmen conferring with a woman. She explained that the abutment which supported the trestle on the western side had fallen in and that the tracks and trestle work were merely hanging. Train officials and passengers who went ahead to the bridge found her statement true and shuddered at the thought of their near escape from a death plunge to the creek bottom.

Passengers saved by the woman formulated a set of resolutions, which were sent to the president of the road, asking for a proper reward for Mrs. Hartshull. A collection was taken up and presented to her.

GIRL RIDES WITH DEAD LOVER.

Discovers Corpse, Gets in Buggy with Body and Drives Aimlessly.

Detroit, Mich.—Crazed at finding her fiancé, George Ott, sitting dead in his buggy, a quarter of a mile from the depot where he was to have met her, Miss Rose Hogan was found driving aimlessly in the buggy beside the corpse a short distance from the Ott home at Indian Town. She is threatened with a complete nervous collapse.

Miss Hogan had gone to visit her sweetheart's parents. Ott had written that he would meet her at the depot with a carriage and drive her to his parents' home—several miles out. When she alighted at the station there was no carriage in sight, and, after waiting a few minutes, the girl started to walk in the direction of the Ott farm, hoping to meet him on the way. Some distance down the road she found the carriage motionless, the horse quietly standing and the young man sitting back in the seat with the lines in his hands. She called to him, and receiving no answer, came close to the buggy. Then she discovered that he was dead and that blood had streamed down his face from a bullet wound in his head.

The girl climbed into the buggy beside the dead man, took the lines and started to drive to the Ott home with the lifeless form. On the way the situation temporarily unbalanced her mind and when found by a farmer near her journey's end she was nearly out of her mind.

Kisses "Cute" Man; Fined $3.
Pittsburg.—Because she kissed a man who "looked just too cute" last evening, Mrs. M. Kierney, aged 30, black-eyed, rosy and dimpled, was fined $3 and costs by hard-hearted Mayor Coleman of McKeesport. Mrs. Kierney blushing paid the fine and promised that it wouldn't happen again. Mrs. Kierney was on a street car when she saw the "cute" man sitting in a corner. She said she couldn't resist the temptation of throwing her arms around his neck and kissing him.

CLINTON AVE. IS DOWNED

After Winning 16 Straight Local Team is Defeated by Scotch Plains.

BY JOHNSON'S WORK

Westfield Pitcher Does Great Work

—The Score of the Game

Was Six to Three.

With Johnson, of Westfield, in the box, Scotch Plains won from Clinton Avenue in an exhibition game at Crescent Oval, Saturday afternoon. The score was 6 to 3. It was Clinton Avenue's first defeat in seven games.

Things broke right for the suburbanites all through the game. They got three hits less than the West Enders, and made one more error, but they wrenched hits at opportune times, and the Clinton Avenue errors were of much help. And there were more than a few times when they fielded superbly, choking off the hustling Clinton Avenuers on their merits.

They belted the ball hard in the first go, and their luck started coincident with the whacking. Baldwin hit to right and the ball rolled in a perverse fashion that gave him room for a gallop to second. Mehafeey followed him with a bang that stretched itself in the same lucky fashion. Two runs were scored before the inning closed, and they landed another in the third.

In the latter inning Baldwin collided with Jack Martin at second and put the little shortstop out. Jack woke up after five minutes of dreaming, composedly chewing his wad of gum, and declared himself fit to go back in the game after an inning of recuperation. Just to show that a good man cannot be permanently held down he banged out two doubles. He retired in the eighth to get back a little more of his lost wind.

Clinton Avenue scored one run in the fourth, but the suburbanites added two to their tallies in the next session, and the Plainfielders couldn't overhaul them. They made one or two bids for a better grip on the game, but the hits necessary to the clinch were not poled out.

DUNELLEN TOO HARD

FOR SCOTT A. C. NINE.

Can't Hit Suburban Boxmen; Lose By Score of 4 to 2.

The Dunellen Field Club defeated the Scott Athletic Club, of this city, on the Dunellen diamond, Saturday afternoon, by a score of 4 to 2. Scott couldn't hit and Dunellen could, wherefore the difference in the score. The Dunellen boxmen wouldn't allow the Scott batters to do anything profitable until the eighth, when two bases on balls off Russell and a hit did damage.

Somerville Defeats Champions.

With Ray Egner, the famous twirler from Trenton, in the box, the West Ends, of Somerville, defeated the High Bridge team, Saturday afternoon. The feat of winning from the champions of Hunterdon county was largely due to the fine work of Egner. The contest went eleven innings and Somerville won by a score of 2 to 1. Egner fanned fourteen batters and he allowed but two hits. The West Ends got four hits off of Kraft.

Miss Ethel Clarkson, of Orchard place, is visiting relatives at Westfield.

Y. M. C. A. TEAM DEFEATED

Loses Well Played Game With

Bound Brook on Latter's

Grounds.

SCORE, TWO TO ONE

Both Nines Did Great Fielding—

Shaw Showed Up Well

At Shortstop.

The Y. M. C. A. nine lost a fast, close game to Bound Brook in the canal village Saturday. The score was 2 to 1 and the struggle was as pretty and as earnest as the figures indicate. The Laurels had a relapse to the form they used to dream about, and garnered a brilliant victory.

It was the best league game Bound Brook has witnessed. Y. M. C. A.

played fast and hard, but the plucky youngsters in the other camp would not give way and beat back the invasaders at every threatening move.

Both sides fielded to the limit.

There were twenty-seven assists and only three miscues. Shaw, at short-field, went after everything within reach and got away with stops that looked good enough to make big leaguers take notice, and Jim Scott, in center, made hair-raising catches of line drives that had all the earmarks of extra-base welts. It was such a lovely game all the way through that the Y. M. C. A. players chortled over it as much as if they had won. As a matter of fact, when nine play for the sport's sake and not for revenue, it really doesn't matter who wins a game like this Bound Brook affair. Still it is a grain of additional pleasure to get away with the long end of the score, and it is up to us at this juncture to raise our hats gracefully to the Laurels.

We have treated them with levity at times and may do it again, but we know them for good sports with a following of the kind it is a pleasure to have in the stands, and we say that as swiftly as we give way to the josh opening when it offers itself.

The Laurels scored their two runs before Y. M. C. A. tallied. In the fourth

Harney hit to right, and advanced on sacrifices by Grimes and Bollinger. With two strikes on Hawk, Schoonmaker dropped a ball and Harney raced in. Hawk fanned. In the seventh, with one down,

Hawk scratched his way to first. Shaw sacrificed, and Bowlby rose to the occasion with a smashing two-bagger. Matthews struck out.

Y. M. C. A. scored in the next inning. Hubbard made first on an error, and R. Schoonmaker laced out a three-bagger. Hubbard, winded, failed at the plate, but Craig scored Schoonmaker with a sacrifice, third to first.

Pond went out by the same route.

ROME AND HER SKEETER

Judge Fort Tells How Ancient

City Was Rid of Her

Mosquitoes.

WAGED MALARIA WAR

Employers Must Give Quinine to Employes or Be Fined—The Methods Enforced in That Capital.

Newark, Sept. 9.—Among the interesting mementoes of his trip abroad, brought back by Justice J. Franklin Fort, is a pamphlet describing the hygienic campaign against mosquitoes and malaria which has been successfully waged in Rome during the past ten years. The author of the pamphlet is Dr. Luigi Egidi, a graduate of the University of Rome and a practicing physician in that city.

Dealing principally with the campaign against malaria, in which the mosquitoes which plagued the inhabitants of the city for many generations were exterminated as a side issue, Dr. Egidi says:

"On December 23, 1900, a law was passed, providing for what is known as Government quinine. It is a well known fact that quinine is a specific remedy against malaria. Thanks to the legislative enactment providing for the furnishing of quinine by the Government, the absolute good quality and purity of this drug is guaranteed. This quinine is sold at a reasonable price, so as to enable the poorest to procure it; and it is to be found everywhere, even in the remotest localities where there are no chemists.

"It has been demonstrated that when persons living in malarial-infected regions have taken, during the dangerous season of the year, a single daily dose of quinine, they have been almost invariably immune from the disease. For this reason the law of November 2, 1901, obliges all employers, municipal authorities, corporations, contractors, landowners, etc., to distribute quinine gratis to people working or living in malarial regions both as a prophylactic and curative remedy. The law prescribes a fine, ranging from 100 to 1,000 lire ($20 to $200) for the non-observance of this rule, and also for indemnities to workmen or employees in case of death from malignant fever where culpable negligence on the part of the employer in failing to furnish the quinine can be shown.

"Lastly the law compels landowners in malarious territories to remove all the local causes of the infection, by draining the stagnant water or filling in the ditches, which it is well known are the breeding grounds for the infection-distributing insects."

Justice Fort says that while the number of deaths due to malarial fevers was approximately 12,000 ten years ago, there was not a single death from fever in the city of Rome last year.

Practically the same methods of ridding Rome of malaria and mosquitoes as those which are described above and adopted throughout rural Italy, prevail. Dr. Luigi, in his pamphlet, assures the reader that conditions have changed since Hawthorne published in his "Marble Faun" years ago, that "if you come hither in summer and stray through these glades in the golden sunset, fever walks arm in arm with you and death awaits you at the end of the dim vista," and affirms that Rome is now non-malarial.

This was due largely, he goes on to state, to the fact that stagnant pools, breeding places of mosquitoes which carried the disease, have been filled in and the creation of further nuisances of this character prohibited by law.

Eleven events were run off in the program of sports, and some handsome prizes were distributed. The committee in charge was made up of A. A. Cannon, G. K. Frank McInerney, chairman, D. B. Doyle, J. King, T. Dunphy, J. Carty, J. M. Conway, E. Harding, P. Cogley, A. E. Kenney.

Deathbed Will.

John C. Morris, who died at his home in Piscataway township on Wednesday afternoon, August 21, made his will on his death bed but a short time before he died. Mr. Morris is reported to have been wealthy, his estate being variously estimated as worth from $50,000 to $100,000. He leaves it to be divided equally among his children and grand-child, share and share alike.

Platform Ideas.

James E. Martine and S. S. Swackhamer have written their views on the desirable kind of a platform for the Democrats in compliance with a request from Chairman Robert S. Hudspeth, of the Democratic State Committee. Swackhamer's is a flowery essay, but Jim has summed his ideas up briefly, making them look like a Colbyite primer.
