WHITE RIBBONERS MEET

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Mrs. Tomlinson Speaks On the Necessity of Effecting Political Action—Oratorical and Musical Contest at Night Session.

Looking back on a year of activity and progress, the county organization of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held its annual convention at the Presbyterian church, of Dunellen, which is included in the Union county body, yesterday, and started on a new twelvemonth under most promising conditions. The attendance was large, eighty delegates being present at the afternoon session. All the towns in the organization, Plainfield, Elizabeth, Rahway, Westfield, Cranford and Dunellen, were represented. There are eight unions, Elizabeth and Rahway having two each.

The convention opened at 10 o'clock, with the crusade psalm. Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson, of this city, the president, was in the chair. The secretary, Mrs. T. C. Bodine, of this city, was at her desk. Mrs. Ramsey Blair offered the prayer. Mrs. W. W. Casselberry extended the greeting of the Dunellen union, and Mrs. W. W. Casselberry, of the Presbyterian church, and E. C. Dutcher, of the Methodist church, extended the greeting of the churches. Mrs. D. D. Irving, of Cranford, made the response.

Mrs. E. A. Parse, of this city, was made chairman of the resolutions committee. After the organization of the committees and some other bits of routine business, Mrs. Tomlinson presented her annual report as president. In part, Mrs. Tomlinson said:

"Given a society of Christian women with world wide organization, praying unceasingly, planning wisely, working with tireless energy toward the abolition of the liquor business, and its twin infamy—the house of shame—but never reaching the goal. It necessarily follows that to their inspired intelligence must come the thought, 'Why are our prayers unanswered? Why are we unsuccessful? Why do men and women, boys and girls still rush headlong into perdition by way of the saloon, in spite of all our prayers, in scorn of all our tears?'"

"Pursuing the matter to its logical sequence, woman found herself in the realm of politics; for politics is the science of government, and the liquor traffic is permitted—nay—licensed and fostered by government, which is but the will of the sovereign voter registered at the ballot box and expressed by statute. Then woman, with her purpose fixed against the deadly foe; her feet swift and fearless in stern pursuit; her heart hot with indignation, and sore with grief determined to follow wherever her enemy leads, and smite him in his lair, halts short of victory to hear the imperial voice of government declare that the saloon is the protégé of law and licensed to prey upon the home; its work of destruction is as lawful as her own pure love; and so in spite of all her prayers and tears, her passionate appeals and her brave endeavors, the rum power entrenches itself behind the ballot box, whither she is forbidden to come, although immigrants in our land only a few days can have the privilege of citizenship, and a Christian nation will have it so. Impelled by the voice of God, the W. C. T. U. has stood at the parting of the ways and said to the Christian voter 'this way leads to home protection, righteousness and peace, and that way leads to home desecration, the dominance of sin and the destruction of my people. In God's name choose the right. All reformers must suffer for their convictions, 'twas ever thus, and I sometimes query whether there would not be a greater number among that class now, if the paths were easier to tread, and there were no lions in the way, but the battle is not to the strong alone; it is to the vigilant, the active, the brave.'"

"One of the great hindrances to reform is that so many Christians say 'We cannot mix religion with politics.' Why not? If politics is the science of government, and if politics is built and established in righteousness and truth, what higher standard can we possibly attain to or hope for? If our politics in country, State and nation is not built on the highest platform of truth and morality, whose fault is it? Who is responsible? The citizen is the monarch of the ballot box, and who is the citizen? Not woman surely for she is deprived of casting her vote for God and humanity and can only use her influence, and many times that is very little; for many men will not cast their ballots as their wives

MR. MURPHY CHAIRMAN

Former Governor's Selection as State Committee Head Approved.

ANNOUNCEMENT TODAY

State Committeemen In Session at Trenton—Fort to Speak in Union County.

Former Governor Franklin Murphy, of Newark, was appointed chairman of the Republican State committee at a meeting held at Trenton today. His name was suggested by former Justice J. Franklin Fort, the party's gubernatorial candidate, and it met with unanimous approval. Mr. Murphy will open his headquarters at Newark at an early date.

Mr. Fort assured County Chairman Frank H. Smith, who held the proxy of former County Chairman Hamilton F. Kean at the State committee meeting that he would deliver as many speeches in Union county as desired, and would render all possible assistance in this district. Mr. Murphy announced that he would hold himself subject to the orders of the national committee, and had received assurances that speakers of national importance would help in New Jersey's campaign.

Failing in his ambition to become chairman of the State committee, the Governor is said to have endeavored to secure the appointment of Senator Bloomfield Minch from his home county as member-at-large, in order to have a staunch friend on the committee for the next three years, in the event of himself not being returned from Cumberland county next year, when all the county members' terms expire.

David Baird was not in accord with this plan and insisted that the South Jersey member-at-large ought to be Senator William J. Bradley. Congressman Henry C. Loudenslager, of Gloucester, considered himself the man and said so, but David O. Watkins, present county member from Gloucester, would not stand for Loudenslager, and as an easy solution of the problem the candidate is believed to have determined on a personal appointment and selected Senator Robbins, of Burlington, the county in which Mr. Fort was born.

KATZENBACH ACCEPTS; DODGES EXCISE MATTER

DEMOCRAT ADMITS SEEKING NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR.

Former Mayor Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr., of Trenton, was formally apprised of his nomination for Governor by the Democratic State convention at noon yesterday. The ceremonies took place in the Colonial room of the Trenton House, which was thronged with Democratic leaders from all over the State, as well as numerous local friends and admirers of the nominee. Former State Chairman William B. Gourley, of Paterson, as chairman of the convention which nominated Mr. Katzenbach, made the notification speech.

After thanking the committee, which consisted of the chairman of each county's convention delegation, for the honor, he frankly confessed that he had sought the nomination, but had made no pledges or promises, he said, of political preferment, if successful. He said the platform as adopted meets with his approval. Declaring that the issue to be determined is good State government, he said nothing of the excise question.

Funeral of W. H. Miller.
The funeral service of William H. Miller was held from the late home on Park avenue yesterday afternoon, and was private. Rev. Charles E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. There was present a delegation from the Elizabeth Lodge of Elks, of which Mr. Miller was a member, and the pallbearers were members of that lodge. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes.

Loot Out For Frost.
Householders who care anything about their flowers and plants are cautioned to be on the lookout tonight for a light frost. Weather Prophet John Neagle received word today that there is likely to be a slight frost in exposed places in the interior. There has been a decided change in the temperature during the past forty-eight hours, the thermometer registering 65 degrees this morning.

Secretary Robbie Recovering.
Secretary Kenneth Robbie, of the Y. M. C. A., is recuperating after a week's illness at Norwich, Mass. He will return to his desk next Monday. Philip Van Arsdale is in charge of the office during his absence.

FORT REAPPOINTS KEAN

Union County Statesman One of Four Members-at-large of State Committee.

SOMMER ALSO NAMED

Franklin Murphy and Samuel K. Robbins the Other Two Appointees.

John W. Griggs, as chairman of the State Republican convention which nominated John Franklin Fort for Governor last Thursday, announced yesterday, in accordance with custom, the four men selected by the candidate to serve as members-at-large of the Republican State committee, one of whom the candidate designates as chairman.

The four notified by Mr. Griggs of their appointment, and each of whom, it is said, has agreed to accept the position tendered are: Franklin Murphy, of Essex, Frank H. Sommer, of Essex; John Kean, of Union, and Samuel K. Robbins, of Burlington.

As soon as the names of the members-at-large were formally announced, Candidate Fort said he had tendered the position of State chairman to former Governor Murphy, and that State headquarters would be opened in Newark as soon as the necessary preliminary arrangements were completed.

While the nominee refuses to discuss the manner in which he arrived at his selections, it is understood that each of the four was named without suggestion or solicitation on the part of any person or persons, with the exception of Sheriff Sommer, whose name was presented as the choice of the "New Idea" wing of the party in preference to others who had been suggested.

DEDICATION EXERCISES AT FAITH CHAPEL

ADDITION TO EDEFCIE CAUSE FOR THANKSGIVING.

Under the auspices of the Baraca Class and the Philathea Women's Bible Class, the commodious new addition to Faith chapel was dedicated, last night. There was a large attendance of members of both classes and friends and the entertainment and social features were greatly enjoyed.

The program was opened with an address of welcome by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Mussion, who also congratulated the organizations upon securing such well-adapted quarters for their meetings. He spoke of the phenomenal growth of the Baraca Class and the more recently organized Philathea class as well as the Junior Baraca Class, of which L. W. Randolph is the teacher. Mr. Mussion is the teacher of the senior Baraca Class and U. B. Crane teaches the women's Bible class.

The musical program included vocal selections by a quartet comprising William Holmes, Mrs. A. J. Stiglitz, Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson, accompanied on the piano by Howard Case. There were also soprano solos by Miss Léila Druse, accompanied by Miss Florence Dickerson, while William Holmes gave several solos, and Whitney Frazee gave cornet solos.

Other addresses were made by L. W. Randolph, U. B. Crane and William Drake. After the program all adjourned to the new addition, where refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed. The chapel was elaborately decorated for the occasion with flowers, while large streamers bearing the names of the Bible class organizations occupied a prominent place. The members were congratulated upon their excellent work and the fact that they have in so short a time secured the needed class rooms.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS

Silbert to Erect Large Building on East Front Street.

BUYS FROM MARSHALL

Acquires 47 Feet Front Adjoining Hotel Waldorf—To Build a Three Story Structure.

An important realty deal was effected today when Marcus Silbert, the Park avenue jeweler, purchased H. W. Marshall's valuable property on East Front street, just east of the Hotel Waldorf. It has a frontage of forty-seven feet and a depth of about 180 feet. The buildings are among the few old structures now remaining in the business section. The stores are now occupied by Cyrus Boice, as a cigar store, while the other store is used as a pool room and barber shop.

Mr. Silbert plans to tear down the old buildings and erect a handsome modern structure three stories in height. He will occupy one of the stores himself. Owing to the lateness of the season he will not begin to build before next year.

U. B. Crane, of West Front street, has purchased the property on the east adjoining the remaining portion of this old property, while Dr. Albert Pitts recently purchased the remaining portion of this old property, extending from that of Mr. Crane to George Finger's new one story building. This means that eventually the property will be improved with modern buildings which will greatly improve that part of East Front street.

A CHRISTIAN WORKER

Husband Killed in Civil War—Daughter of English Clergyman and Mother of Capt. Edwards, of Cranford.

She was a native of Maidstone, England, where she was born in 1826. She came to this country when a young girl and later married Captain George Edwards, who lost his life in the Civil War. He went to the first as captain of the First New York Volunteer Engineer Corps and died in battle.

Mrs. Edwards was a woman of exceptional character and her entire life up to the time that health prevented was devoted to Christian effort, and she was always doing good. She was a member of Grace church.

FREEHOLDERS HOLD THEIR CLAM-BAKE

COUNTY CHAIRMAN AND OTHER POLITICIANS ATTEND IT.

The first annual clambake of the Union County Board of Freeholders was held yesterday at Bender's Hotel, Roselle. The entire membership of the board, excepting Freeholder Darby, of Mountainside; Freeholder Swain, of Summit; Freeholders Morrow and Donohue, of Elizabeth, and Dr. F. W. While Freeholder J. Logan Fay, of Elizabeth, was chairman of the committee in charge, Freeholder George Cladek arranged the "bake" and personally supervised it. Others who assisted included Freeholders Hulskemper and S. R. Ryno, clerk of the board, while Fred Bender was proprietor of the hotel, who did all in his power to make the outing a success.

After the dinner the freeholders adjourned to the hotel bowling alleys, where a hotly contested game was rolled between teams captained by J. Hervey Doane and Thomas Pierson. Freeholder Doane's team won out by a score of 1,390 to 1,289.

JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT

IN WRIGHT VS. SMITH.

Former Senator Ignored Assemblyman's Suit for Slander and Decree Is Entered.

On motion of William Mayo Atkinson, counsel for Assemblyman Edward H. Wright, Jr., in the latter's suit against James Smith, Jr., for $100,000 damages for alleged slander an interlocutory judgment was entered upon the records of the Circuit Court at Newark yesterday. It is now up to a jury to assess the amount of damages.

Mr. Atkinson said that the summons had been served August 16, and the return day was September 23, but the defendant had failed to file a plea of demurrer within the time required by law. Under the circumstances the lawyer had had judgment given the plaintiff by default.

The work of putting a top dressing on Somerset street, between the bridge and Jackson avenue, has been completed and the thoroughfare presents an attractive appearance.

NOMINATE MR. STEENGRAFE

South Plainfielder on Middlesex Republican Ticket for Assembly.

THE COLBYTES LOSE

Steengrafe the Only "New Idea" Man to Win—Mr. Fort's Ring-Speech.

J. Franklin Fort, the Republican candidate for Governor, addressed the Middlesex Republican county convention at New Brunswick yesterday. It was his second campaign speech, and he was greeted with cheers. The "New Idea" men submitted a reform platform, but it was voted down, 60 to 46. Dr. Frank D. Crowther, former Assemblyman, of Perth Amboy, was named for surrogate; Edwin McKeag, for city attorney; William Stults, of Cranbury, and Archibald Steengrafe, a "New Idea" man, were named for the Assembly.

Other nominations were: For freeholders, Frank H. Pownall, of Jamesburg; J. E. Montgomery, of South Amboy; George S. Bunting, of Piscataway; William Stacey, of Perth Amboy, and A. L. Mundy, of New Brunswick. For mayor of New Brunswick, Theodore Whitlock. Mayor Drury W. Cooper refused a renomination.

In his convention speech Mr. Fort said: "The keynote of the campaign is harmony. We are more united today than we have been in the last three years. Up our way everything is a love feast. There is no controversy and everybody is happy. Last night at a meeting at East Orange Colby and Sommer and Dalrymple and the rest of the regulars and 'New Idea' men all stood shoulder to shoulder and pledged for the success of the campaign."

"And why not? This grand old Republican party is big enough for all. It is grand enough and courageous enough to meet any issue. If it is right it will stand for it, and if it is wrong it will throw it out and stand for that which is right and just."

"If by your votes I am elected Governor, the door of the executive chamber will be opened to every Republican in the State of New Jersey, and there will be no back door. Every man who is a Republican and supports the principles of the Republican party will stand on an equal footing with every other Republican, and every man, be he Democrat or Republican, will get the same hearing and receive the same consideration on any question of State policy."

"Let us go into the campaign in a broad, catholic spirit. United, let us stand together, and by thus doing achieve success, not only that the Republican party may win—no, that is too low a motive—but to see that some good may come through victory to the whole State."

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Caro B. Gano Is Now "Sweet Sixteen."

Miss Caro B. Gano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Gano, of 170 Grove street, celebrated the sixteenth anniversary of her birthday last night by an informal gathering of friends. Covers were laid for ten. The home was attractively decorated. Golden rod and ferns were used in the parlor, and the color scheme in the dining room was red and white. A feature was a red and white birthday cake, which occupied a place in the center of the table, surrounded by sixteen candles.

Miss Gano was generously remembered by her friends, receiving a large number of gifts, including a collection of post cards from far and near. Guests were present from Annandale, Raritan and this city.

The bearers were A. L. Cadmus, William H. Shotwell, Theodore J. Pruden, Myron Heath, Louis Heath and Walter Heath. The burial was in the North Plainfield cemetery.

James E. Church, delegate to the national convention of the National Protective Legion, recently held at Buffalo, will give a report of the gathering at the meeting of Plainfield Legion in the Coward building tomorrow night. Among the interesting things he will describe will be the imitation of 1,000 persons in one class in the presence of about 5,000 members of the order.

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

GOLF.

The annual championship and the handicap of the East Jersey Golf League will be decided tomorrow and Saturday at the Canoe Brook Country Club. The championship is open to all members who have played three or more match games on teams, eight to qualify at eighteen holes medal play on Friday morning. In this there will be a prize for the low score, a runner up prize and a prize for the beaten four of the first round. There will also be a cup open to all and similar minor prizes, eight to qualify. The eighteen-hole handicap will be on Saturday afternoon, for a low gross and three net score prize, but no player may win more than one prize. The par of the Canoe Brook course is 74. The new rule is made that no one by virtue of his handicap may beat the par of the course, so that all net scores of 74 or better will be considered a tie and will be played off. On the tournament committee are A. W. Maine, Jr., T. W. Maley, Jr., and F. W. Baldwin.

Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday the Metropolitan District Advertising Men's Golf Club will hold a tournament at the Dunwoodie Country Club. There will be "eight dandy prizes," to quote the circular, for handicap foursomes and singles. Besides there will be lawn tennis on six courts for prizes, with music and a little entertainment on the side. The Dunwoodie Country Club extends all privileges to the players and visitors, so that a sociable time is expected. The entertainment committee for the advertisers will be E. E. Calkins, F. J. Ross and S. K. Evans, and the tournament committee W. C. Conklyn, W. C. Freeman, W. J. Ryan, J. C. Cook and W. H. Beers.

In the way of open golf there will be the third annual tournament of the Philadelphia Cricket Club on tomorrow, Friday and Saturday and Ira L. Williams and A. W. Tillinghast are trying to "get some of the fast ones from the outside over for the cup competitions." Four sixteens will qualify for the St. Martin's and three more cups, besides the usual minor prizes. Entries should be sent to the club by tomorrow.

Professionals will meet in a thirty-six-hole match race on Saturday at the Marine and Field Club, the first special contest at the course since the open tournament of 1899 in which W. J. Travis beat H. S. Bowns in the final. Aleck Smith and Dave Hunter will be opposed to Herbert Strong and George J. Bouse, the latter the promising young homebred who is the club's professional.

A competition for a cup has been arranged at the Baltusrol Golf Club for members who have a handicap of twenty or more and who have never won a prize at Baltusrol. The qualifying round will be on Saturday, sixteen to keep on at handicap match play. If there are thirty-two or more entries there will be a cup for a second sixteen.

The Montclair Golf Club will hold an invitation tournament on Friday and Saturday, October 11 and 12. The best thirty-two will qualify into four eighths on Friday morning. The eighths will play at scratch Friday afternoon. The semi-finals will be played on Saturday morning and finals on Saturday afternoon. All matches will be eighteen holes. An eighteen-hole handicap will be played on Saturday, open to all invited guests and Montclair members. Handicaps will be limited to ten strokes. Prizes will be given to the lowest score in qualifying round, to winners of each eight, to runnerup in first eight and the lowest gross and net scores in the handicap.

Tomorrow the third annual seniors tournament will be held at the Apawamis Club. It will be a thirty-six-hole medal play handicap over the full course, for two gross and two net score prizes, with additional prizes for the net score of the morning and afternoon. To be fifty-five years of age or over is the condition of entry.

Charles D. Thom, of the Lenox Golf Club, holds the best record for the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club course, a 66, which breaks all previous records. Six were the greatest number of strokes taken on any one hole, the ninth, and he had a number of 3's.

An open golf tournament for women will be held at the Essex County Country Club, October 15, 16, 17 and 18. Although the programme giving the details has not as yet been printed, it may be said that the contestants will qualify in eights, the preliminary round being at eighteen holes medal play. Only one round in the tournament proper will be run off each day, and this will give ample time for a number of side attractions such as driving, approaching and putting competitions and a mixed foursomes.

It is several years since the women have competed in an important tournament at the club near West Orange. Back in 1902 Mrs. E. A. Mance won the metropolitan title there and during that tournament, Mrs. Charles T. Stout, then Miss Genevieve Hecker, made a remarkable round of 77. But since then the course has been lengthened considerably.

Show Day, Thursday, Sept. 26

It sounds commonplace to say that Newark has never seen a greater show of millinery than the one we are making this week. It is a stereotyped claim, but we would like you to satisfy yourself of the truth of this statement by seeing the magnificent display of imported and American Millinery which is being made in our show windows and in the Millinery Salon.

Perhaps credit is not due to us for the splendid display. It may be due to the remarkable effects produced in the hats this season—they are so big, so gorgeous.

It puzzles some people to know why so many of the hats are so immense in size. They wonder where the milliners got their inspiration for the creation of such showy headgear.

It is said that Lewis, the famed Parisian milliner, lacking in ideas, strolled into the galleries at Versailles and the Luxembourg and Louvre, and there studied the hats of those who were court and social queens in the days of long ago—then came the inspiration which has borne fruit in the big hats that are to be the vogue this season—that is why we see so much of the type of hat that was worn during the reign of Louis XVI., and we imagine that the automobile has had its influence on the hat fashions—hence the tendency of the brims to droop, making the wearing of veils easy.

Some of the rich hats shown are worthy a word today, especially those we have imported direct from Paris.

A hat of remarkable proportions and great beauty is one by Georgette, of purple satin faced with purple velvet, with large brim, high crown, a wreath of black cut ostrich completely encircling the crown, the top surmounted with a pompon of cut black ostrich and white marabout. At first glance you would not imagine the hat could easily be worn, but there are plenty of women on whom it will look graceful and becoming. The price is $95.

A Green French Felt Hat by Crozet has an immense green ostrich plume flowing from the right front to the back, where it falls gracefully over the brim; a rich gold buckle of great size ornaments the right side. The price is $40.

One hat has a Napoleonic turn to the brim and shows a solid black velvet surface in front on the turned-up underbrim. It has a high crown covered with white moire silk. The hat is bedecked with three beautiful standing plumes of ostrich in gray and black, and there is a large cut jet buckle ornamenting the back. It is an imported creation by Aylwin. From every point of view it is a beauty, and it will cost you $40.

Very rich, indeed, is this hat by Georgette—of myrtle green taffeta silk, surrounded with a double choux of sedulid velvet, and surmounted with a large bird of paradise, making a wonderful show. This hat is marked $75.

One of the richest hats in our most notable collection is one by Cargiere made of elegant apricot velvet lined with wine colored satin. It has twelve graceful ostrich tips, running from cream to apricot, standing around the brim. Expensive? Yes, but beautiful, indeed! $85.

Marix & Cie send us a hat of green satin beaver with high crown, surrounded with a novel, fluffy ruching of black maline edged with green maline, with large bird with red breast and immense, graceful plume of green shading to purple—a very remarkable conception, indeed; decidedly original and very beautiful. Price $45.

The exhibit of Costumes, Tailored Gowns, Evening Wraps and Waists is eliciting most extravagant praise. Some surprise is expressed at the ability of any Newark store to sell such elegant apparel, but those who are surprised are those who have not yet awakened to the fact that a Greater Newark has been born and that it has a store that measures up to the highest metropolitan standards.

the national champion, the decision of the joint committee to substitute the old-fashioned two-ball foursomes for the four-ball affairs at the tricity matches to be held at the Country Club of Brookline on October 25 and 26 may cause some awkward complications. This is due to the various makes of balls now on the market.

It is a fact that the rubber core no longer has a monopoly, and to become convinced of this it is only necessary to visit any open or invitation tournament where a hundred-odd amateurs are competing. Different kinds of cores are now turned out, and there is one ball which is used quite extensively that has no core at all. The latter acts differently on the green from any of the others. When a golfer becomes accustomed to one certain ball he is loath to change, and the contention of Travers is that unless the pairs are made up of players using the same ball there is likely to be trouble. This is, of course, a new situation, a product of the times, and something that would have been practically impossible in the old days of the solid gutty.

The outlook is bright for a strong golf team at Princeton this fall. Four members of last year's team are in college. Besides Captain R. Peters, Jr., '08, there are W. T. West, '08, who did excellent work this summer in the amateur championships; H. J. Van Dyke, '08, and D. Roberts, '09. A number of other good men who have had experience are also eligible. Among these are W. S. Heyniger, '09, and C. W. Hunt, '09. The members of last year's freshman class, who are now eligible to play on the university team, include F. H. McAdoo, who was runner-up in the invitation tournament last spring; T. Atkinson, C. G. Ballin and A. G. Van Dyke. There will be the usual fall tournament for the college championship, beginning the latter part of this week, and one for freshmen later on in the fall.

A special meeting of the Eastern Professional Golfers' Association will be held on Monday morning at the Astor House to make final arrangements for the championship at the Country Club, Brookline, October 29 and 30.

FOOTBALL.

There is as much trouble in getting the name of Brides, of Yale, spelled right as there was with Lynah, of Cornell, a few seasons back.

Seven veterans of last year's eleven are gone from the University of Minnesota squad, three of whom were stars.

Lieutenant Hackett, prominent as a halfback at West Point and later as a gridiron referee, has gone into business in Pittsburgh.

Macklin and Regan are expected to do the punting for Pennsylvania this season and to make the Quakers stronger in that department than last year.

They are having their troubles at Swarthmore. Captain Krueger is laid up with typhoid fever, and Coble, the giant pivot man, is on the hospital list with an injured ankle. Coble is one of the best centres in the football arena.

Soldiers' Field has the best device in the country for enabling spectators to keep track of plays and players; it being the number system gotten up by Melville Webb, and one that would be appreciated on other fields.

The football managers at Yale and Princeton—Foster and Wheeler, respectively—are both Hill school products.

Carl Flanders, whose coaching was a big help to the Indians last season, has joined the gridiron faculty at New Haven.

A drying apparatus has been introduced in the Yale gymnasium which will dry wet football fogs quickly. This sort of weather requires two driers.

Bert Waters, Edgar Wrightington, Carl Marshall and Jack Hollowell, former football stars at Harvard, are tennis enthusiasts and were out on the courts together at Longwood the other day.

Stein, one of the Syracuse University backs, has done some accurate passing of from thirty to forty yards in practise. If he gets away with a forward pass or two of that length in the Yale game the Ellis will be hoist with their own petard.

THE STATE COMMITTEE.

In reappointing United States Senator John Keah as a member-at-large of the Republican State committee, Gubernatorial Nominee Fort has done a praiseworthy act. To no single man in the State do the Republicans owe so much for their success in Union county as to that eminent citizen of Elizabeth. This can not be said of his fellow-townsmen, Congressman Charles N. Fowler, whose term as a committeeman-at-large will soon expire. The representative of the Fifth district had no claims worthy of the slightest recognition. The general regard in which he is held in his own county was amply demonstrated when he last ran for re-election as an absentee member of the Federal House. The marble man, whose name recalls to mind that beautiful free public library in Elizabeth, lost his own county, a Republican stronghold, and came within a few hundred votes of being defeated in what is under normal conditions a solid Republican district. There are plenty of better men who might be named in his place, and among the number is Charles J. Fisk, who is the avowed candidate of the regular leaders for the position.

The proposition to erect a J. O. U. A. M. home is a splendid one. The order is the strongest fraternity in Plainfield, and is a factor for good in the community. A structure of its own would not only be a desirable building improvement, but would be a monument to that prosperous and excellent organization.

The Elizabeth Times speaks of "Jim" Martine, the victim of a party's ingratitude, as a warrior of a dozen campaigns. The farmer-actor had taken part in nearly three times that number before the editor of the Times was born.

It is to be expected that the Democrats "in convention assembled" at Elizabeth tonight will "view with alarm" and "arraign with indignation."

Candidate Katzenbach should have an intimate knowledge of corporations. In the hour of need, he appeared to have no better friends.

Bryan wants to be President, but then he is no different than the rest of us. Don't we all want something we know we can't get?

An accident in the press room was responsible for a two hours' delay in the delivery of yesterday's issue of The Daily Press.

William R. Hearst says he doesn't want to be President. What a terrible blow to the nation!

Who instructed Frank Katzenbach to ignore the liquor problem in his speech of acceptance?

Yes, Constant Reader, it's Frank Silence Katzenbach.

POLITICAL NOTES

The selection of ex-Governor Murphy is taken as forecasting a desire on his part to become a candidate for the United States Senate upon the expiration of Senator Kean's term in 1910. It is no secret that Governor Murphy has been ambitious to represent the State in the United States Senate.

It is expected that the State committee will meet at the Democratic headquarters in the Fuller building, Jersey City, Friday, for the purpose of arranging dates for Mr. Katzenbach's appearance in the various counties. Mr. Katzenbach will not wait for such action before beginning his campaign, however, as he has decided to start active campaigning today, when he will attend the Gloucester county convention at Woodbury, the county seat. Tonight Mr. Katzenbach will be the guest of the Democrats of Union county at a meeting in Elizabeth. It is likely that he will deliver addresses at both places.

Tomorrow Frank S. Katzenbach, the Democratic nominee for Governor, will attend the State fair at Mt. Holly. J. Franklin Fort, the Republican nominee, will also be present at the fair. It will be the first time since their nomination that the two candidates will have appeared together in public.

The fact that two of the candidates mentioned in connection with the Democratic nominations for the Assembly have withdrawn from the race, has not dampened the ardor of the members of the party in the county and they are more zealous possibly than ever. The county convention will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in Turn Hall, Elizabeth. There will be plenty of good music and an abundance of enthusiasm. James E. Martine will address the convention in the absence of Frank S. Katzenbach, the gubernatorial nominee. There are plenty of candidates for every office, and no trouble is anticipated in nominating a strong ticket.

Mr. Katzenbach cannot possibly be made stronger by any attempt to show that Mr. Martine was weak. Mr. Martine has shown his strength in Union, Morris and Warren counties. Mr. Katzenbach has yet to demonstrate his strength outside of the city of Trenton and we believe if his fool friends will not muss things up for him he will do it. Hunterdon County Democrat (Democratic).

Robert Abbott, of Yale, is spending a few days in town with his parents previous to returning to college. Miss Sarah Smith, of Cranford, who has been spending several days in town with relatives, has returned home.

Alfred W. Dunavan and E. A. Laing, who are making a tour of the Thousand Islands, Montreal, Quebec and other points of interest, are expected to arrive home today.

Mrs. Sarah M. Tomlinson, of Chicago, has leased the extensive property at Madison avenue and Sixth street from F. H. Smith and will conduct a high class boarding house.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

"Around the Clock" comes to the New Plainfield theatre this afternoon and night with the clever comedian, Billy Ritchie, at the head of a very capable company of comedians, singers and dancers.

Carson Bradford, the young Southern actor, who is supporting Edward Saxon in the revival of "Sol Smith Russell's" greatest success, "Peaceful Valley," is a member of one of the wealthiest and most prominent families in Tennessee. He is an enthusiastic motorist and carries his White Steamer with him throughout the country. It has a special place in the baggage car which is used in carrying the production.

Mr. Bradford has driven motor cars through thirty-seven States and has made the trip from coast to coast six times, which is something of a record. Wherever possible—that is to say, wherever the roads are in passable condition and where the jump is not too long—he rides from town to town in his car during the tour.

He holds several speed records, the most notable being that between Dayton, O., and South Bend, Ind. He covered the distance, 300 miles, in eight and a half hours. This was considered a wonderful performance at the time that it was made—something over a year ago—and his name is widely known throughout the automobile world as a consequence. Mr. Bradford is an actor of exceptional talent, with a marked personality and an infectious flow of good spirits.

"Peaceful Valley" is to be the offering at the theatre on Friday night. It is being presented on a lavish scale, and the revival is proving to be a most successful one, not only from a financial standpoint but from an artistic one as well.

Tomorrow night at the New Plainfield theatre D. W. Robertson will give another of his moving picture entertainments, introducing all the latest subjects in life motion pictures, scenes of travel, pictures mysterious, novel and interesting. Among the most sensational of all the moving pictures will be "Ski Jumping in Norway," "The Betrothed Nightmarc," "The Yawner," "A Trip to Niagara Falls," "The Old Mashers" and other attractions. New illustrated songs and special program of entertainment will be given in addition to the moving pictures.

JAMESTOWN'S JERSEY DAY

Governor and Other Officials
Will Be at Exposition on Oct. 17.

STATE'S FINE BUILDING

James T. MacMurray One of the Commissioners and Miss Little An Attache—The Exhibits.

The New Jersey State day exercises at the Jamestown exposition will be held Thursday, October 17. Governor Stokes and his staff, together with the State officers and invited guests, will leave on a special train for the exposition Tuesday, October 15. City Clerk James T. MacMurray, one of the New Jersey commissioners, will be among the party. Wednesday will be given up to general sightseeing at the exposition and on Thursday morning the formal exercises will be held at the reviewing stand and a review of the troops on the grounds will be tendered the governor. A card reception will be given for the governor during the afternoon and the party will return to their homes that evening. The program is also expected to include a banquet at the Chamberlain Hotel at Old Point. Miss Edith Little, of this city, is one of the principal attaches at the New Jersey building.

New Jersey's Building.
Colonel Lewis T. Bryant, secretary of the New Jersey Jamestown commission, is enthusiastic over the figure New Jersey cuts at the exposition. He has just had printed some photographs of the New Jersey building there, which is the finest structure the State has ever erected at an exposition.

Colonel Bryant says that "this building is built somewhat along the lines of the structure which was used at both the Columbian exposition, at Chicago, and the Louisiana Purchase exposition, at St. Louis. It now stands at Sea Girt, where it is used as the governor's headquarters at the State camp there, having been transferred from the St. Louis exposition. The location of the building is considered very attractive, as it has an unusually large plot of ground, which has been sown with grass and contains a number of beautiful flowers, it being generally considered that the grounds of the New Jersey building are superior to any others at the exposition. The building fronts on a park, and looking across the park we have a beautiful view of Hampton Roads, and the Chamberlain Hotel in the distance."

The State's Exhibits.
In addition to the building, the State has made exhibits in the States' Exhibit palace, where you will find a display from the State museum, consisting of specimens of our game and other birds, the animals which inhabit the State and also good specimens of fishes which inhabit our waters.

"The mosquito exhibit, which was prepared by Professor John B. Smith, the State entomologist, is also exhibited in this building, and, as usual, is attracting a vast amount of attention. It gives numerous specimens of the various breeds of mosquito which are propagated in the State, showing them from the larvae period to the mature mosquito. Then, by means of transparencies and also the actual ingredients and methods used in the extermination, the system of exterminating the pest is very aptly demonstrated. It is one of the most complete and scientific exhibits of its kind ever prepared in this country."

"Across the aisle from this exhibit is a comparative school exhibit, which in itself is unique in this line. Professor S. R. Morse has preserved specimens of various exhibits made by this State during past expositions, and they are displayed for comparison as between those expositions and new work which has been prepared for the Jamestown exposition. Work is there found from the Centennial exposition, which was held in Philadelphia in 1876, and from all the various expositions which have been held from that date to the present time."

"A small section is assigned to the summer and winter resorts of the State, in which the State simply supplied space and cabinets, and the resorts which cared to participate furnished the photographs and literature for distribution. Among the resorts represented are Atlantic City, Asbury Park, Long Branch, Wildwood, Belmar and Lakewood."

"In the Social Economy building New Jersey has a very comprehensive exhibit of the institutions maintained by the State and also the departments of health, banking and insurance, good roads, bureau of vital statistics and the Industrial Art school at Trenton."

Mr. Lee's Historical Exhibit.
"In the fireproof History building New Jersey has prepared, under the direction of Francis B. Lee, a historical exhibit of considerable note. He has not simply gone into old manuscripts, but demonstrates by the use of maps the progress of the State from the days of its early settlement up to the present time, showing the early location of cities, Indian tribes, religious influences throughout the State, the progress in the War of the Revolution, giving the points and and mothers might wish, so her influence is lost in these cases upon the desert air. May God hasten the time when women will be classed with sane people and her rights restored to her. Until then may the men arise in their God given right and powers and demand a righteous government.

"Hold more public meetings. It keeps our work before the people. Observe the Red Letter Days, and see how they will inspire renewed hope and courage. Hold social meetings. Invite to them those you especially want to win. Do not be discouraged if the people do not come. Invite them again. Hold membership contests. I wish that each union would strive to have an increase of twenty-five members next year. See if your teachers are teaching the right books in your schools relating to temperance. Hold teachers' receptions that we may come in closer touch with them. Let us work against cigarettes. Have a series of medal contests. There is nothing better for a sentiment maker. Hold mothers' meetings, and invite the mothers not belonging to the union. Keep plenty of good literature and pass it at your meetings. There are so many good leaflets, to be obtained in Chicago from Miss Gilbert. After every business meeting send a report of the work done during the month to the daily papers."

The other important features of the morning session were the reports of the secretary and treasurer, and the election of officers. The secretary reported a membership of 521, a gain over last year. There are 85 honorary members, and 286 members of the Loyal Temperance Legion, the junior branch of the work. The treasurer received $303 during the year, and expended $270. The financial condition of the organization is highly satisfactory.

The officers were all re-elected. They are: President, Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson, Plainfield; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. L. Rarick, Dunellen; recording secretary, Mrs. T. C. Bodine, Plainfield; treasurer, Mrs. Mary T. Cox, Cranford; honorary vice presidents, Mrs. Scriven-Stoddard, Elizabeth; Miss Julia A. Barker, Rahway.

After noontide prayer, adjournment was for lunch, which was served in the basement of the church. The afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock, with scripture reading and prayer, by Mrs. J. L. Manning, of Dunellen. Most of the afternoon was taken up with reports from county superintendents on the different departments of the work. The reports were presented as follows: L. T. L. Secretary, Miss May Howlett, Plainfield; Work Among Foreigners, Mrs. L. Ussing, Cranford; Medical Temperance, Mrs. A. F. Schmidt, Elizabeth; Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. D. D. Irving, Cranford; Sunday-school Work, Mrs. F. R. Baker, Westfield; Literature, Miss Emma L. Starr, Westfield; The Press, Mrs. L. H. Noe, Elizabeth; Medal Contests, Mrs. E. R. Fuller, Rahway; Anti-Narcotics, Mrs. C. W. Scott, Elizabeth; Evangelistic and Alma-house, Mrs. Anna M. Hammer, Westfield; nUermented Wine, Mrs. Scriven-Stoddard, Elizabeth; Soldiers and Sailors, Mrs. M. C. Dobbins, Plainfield; Prison and Jail, Miss E. J. Keron, Elizabeth; Sabbath Observance, Mrs. M. Winter, Plainfield; Purity and Mother's Meetings, Miss Julia A. Barker, Rahway; Railroad Men, Motormen and Firemen, Mrs. E. A. Parse, Plainfield; Flower Mission, Miss M. L. Underhill, Rahway; Social Meetings and Red Letter Days, Mrs. M. F. Francis, Elizabeth; Legislation and Petition, Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson, Plainfield; Christian Citizenship, Mrs. H. W. Smith, Elizabeth.

Miss Howlett's report on the Legion was particularly interesting. Good work has been done; a gain of fifty members was made, and a colored legion formed in Rahway. Plainfield made the banner gain, adding 35 new members; the total membership here is 65. Miss Howlett made a strong plea for co-operative effort among the members to advance every department.

The convention adjourned for supper at 5:30 o'clock. The evening session was largely devoted to a musical and oratorical contest. Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson won the oratorical prize, with an address on the work, and Miss Orrel L. Wrench won the music prize, with a song, "The Sister's Prayer." Each received a silver medal.

Martin B. Stutsman will resume his studies at the New York University Law School in New York tomorrow.

John Vallant, of Myrtle avenue, and George Endicott, of Park avenue, have returned to Lawrenceville school for the fall and winter term.
