

TAX FOR THE HOSPITAL

Special Election to Decide

COMMON COUNCIL ACTS

One-Third Mill On Dollar the Proposed Tax—Messrs. Daniel and Tolles Oppose

The question of allowing the voters of Plainfield to decide whether they want to be taxed one-third of a mill on the city's total valuation for the support of Muhlenberg Hospital was raised by Councilman George P. Mellick at the October meeting of the Common Council, last night. That member called up the petition, presented several months ago, which asked that the voters of Plainfield be given the opportunity to settle the question at an election. The petition provides that the question be voted on at the coming general election to be held November 5.

Immediately after its presentation, Mr. Tolles, chairman of the finance committee, arose to protest. He said that its adoption would mean an ever-increasing debt on the city for as the valuation of the city increase in proportion will the amount to be given the hospital through a tax increase. He referred to the fact that the city is now giving the hospital $1,000 a year for the care of indigent poor, yet he did not believe that the number of such cases averaged more than six or eight a year. Besides he did not think that such a vote as proposed would be a fair test. He did not want to be understood as antagonistic to the hospital for he was always willing to contribute his share.

In support of the proposition Mr. Mellick said that it would not be a question of voting money by adopting the provisions of the proposed resolution, but simply giving the voters a chance to decide the question. He had been importuned time and again to secure the adoption of the measure by people who want to contribute to the hospital by such a method. Mr. Mellick added that last year the hospital had given $4,000 worth of services free to persons unable to pay for treatment there. In speaking of the matter later Mr. Mellick quoted some interesting figures. He said that for the year ending June 1 last, the receipts were $22,300, including $4,800 given by the Union County Board of Freeholders; $12,000 from private patients and ward patients who pay and $16,800 from miscellaneous sources of income, leaving a deficit of $15,500, which has to be raised each year through efforts for charity, such as the carnival and other forms of entertainment.

The tax of one-third of a mill on every dollar received from taxes would give the hospital $6,600, still leaving $9,000 to be raised by persons who are actively interested in the hospital.

In stating his position, President Daniel said that while he considered the hospital a quasi public institution that he would vote against the proposition as in the first instance on the grounds that he did not like the way the law was framed, in his opinion it would not be a fair test, for aside from the question as to the legality of the act, the failure of a person to vote against the question would be construed as a vote in favor of it. In reply Mr. Mellick added that while the phrasing of the law was unfortunate, it was not considered serious enough to prevent the operation of it. He believed that all the voters would be fully informed as to what to do on election day.

Mr. Montgomery also spoke in favor of the proposition, adding his word of praise for the hospital for what it has done in the past and urging generous support on the part of the city. When the vote was taken, President Daniel and Councilman Tolles voted in the negative but the resolution was adopted.

In the City Court.
On complaint of Mrs. Susie Oarlock, of Johnson avenue, Mrs. Josie Lombardi, of the same street, was arraigned in the city court this morning. Mrs. Oarlock claimed that Mrs. Lombardi had assaulted her in the course of a neighborhood quarrel and that she still suffers from the blows. The defendant denied the charge and the testimony became so conflicting the magistrate sent both women home with a warning to behave themselves.

Dr. A. H. Lewis to Speak.

CITY WANTS BETTER CONTRACT WITH P. S. C.

LIGHTING COMMITTEE TO NEGOTIATE WITH CONCERN.

Acting in accordance with a motion offered by Chairman Montgomery, of the light committee, the Common Council at its October meeting, last night, authorized the committee to enter into negotiations with the Public Service Corporation with a view to obtaining the best contract possible for lighting the city. He referred to the high voltage maintained in overhead wires throughout the city and to the fact that the lighting bills for this year have not as yet been paid. His motion provided that a report be made at the November meeting of the Common Council.

Owing to some differences between the city and the P. S. C. payment of all the city light bills have been withheld until such time as a more satisfactory contract could be made. Mr. Montgomery believes that the company is now ready to meet the city half-way in an effort to amicably adjust the matter, hence his motion authorizing the committee to take such action as it deems best.

It is the intention of the committee to secure if possible the placing of all electric light wires underground in the business section of the city.

OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. J. Denison Spicer Reach Fifty Years of Married Life.

CELEBRATE THE EVENT

Drs. Lewis and Shaw Make Remarks—Letters From Bishop Vincent and Dr. Main.

Surrounded by relatives and friends to the number of about 125 Mr. and Mrs. J. Denison Spicer celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at their home on West Fifth street, last night. There were many features that combined to make the event one of unusual interest to the couple, as well as their guests. One thing that added to the pleasure was the presence of Mrs. Sarah J. Tittsworth, of this city, and Nelson Blackford, of New Market, the bridesmaid and best man at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Spicer fifty years ago.

Congratulatory remarks were made by Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis and Rev. George B. Shaw, the latter pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church with a response by Mr. Spicer. Dr. Lewis spoke especially of the happily married life of Mr. and Mrs. Spicer and of the high esteem in which they are held. Mr. Shaw, while not able to speak in a reminiscent way, referred to his pleasant and cordial relations with the couple. In responding Mr. Spicer was reminiscent, recalling interesting incidents of the early days.

Many congratulatory letters were received and read by David E. Tittsworth. These included pleasant words from Bishop Vincent, a former neighbor; Rev. Dr. Main, dean of Alfred University and Rev. Dr. Edwin H. Lewis, of Chicago, son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Lewis. Others letters were from Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Florida, Louisiana, and Seattle, Washington. In connection with the readings of the letters Mr. Tittsworth read some original verses, dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Spicer. At the same time he presented the couple with a purse of $360 in gold, a golden oak sideboard and other gifts. The purse was from members of the Seventh-day Baptist church, who were present in large numbers, and other friends. The presentation was a complete and happy surprise. At the conclusion of the very informal program and a prayer by Mr. Shaw, the company joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Mr. and Mrs. Spicer were married fifty years ago yesterday at the home of the bride, who was Miss Elizabeth F. Ross, daughter of Austin F. Ross, in New Market. Rev. Halsey H. Baker, who died in January last, was the officiating clergyman, being at that time pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church, New Market. Mr. Spicer was then a resident of Westbury, N. Y., and he and his bride did not move to Plainfield until 1865.

He started in business here in 1866 and for thirty-two years was engaged in the manufacture of sashes, blinds and other materials used in building, with Joseph A. Hubbard, the firm name being Spicer & Hubbard. The mill at Madison avenue and West Third street was occupied during that partnership. Several years ago the firm dissolved and it was Mr. Spicer's intention to continue the business when he was seriously injured by a fall in the yard of Bolce, Runyon & Co. Since that time he has lived in retirement.

During their residence in Plainfield Mr. and Mrs. Spicer have been active members of the Seventh-day Baptist church, and for many years Mr. Spicer was the clerk of the church.

The guests present last night came from Rhode Island, New York, Brooklyn, Metuchen, New Brunswick, Trenton, New Market and this city, and included about twelve persons who attended the wedding at New Market. Mr. and Mrs. Spicer have two children, Miss Ida Spicer and Arthur J. Spicer, both of this city.

Theodore Vroom.

Theodore Vroom, at one time considered one of the most expert sign painters in the country, died at his home on East Front street, yesterday afternoon. He had been ill for the past year. He came to this city from Somerville twenty years ago. He was fifty-three years of age and leaves a widow, one daughter, Mrs. G. A. Alexander, and three sons, Hervey, Roy and Warren Vroom. The funeral will be held at the W. C. T. U. rooms on Madison avenue tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be at Somerville.

Assistant Postmaster Martin and Mrs. Martin will return this week from a two weeks' stay at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Jessie Harkins, of DeKalb avenue, has returned after spending three weeks at Pine Hill with her cousin, Miss Brownell.

NEW FIREMEN APPOINTED

Major Fisk's Recommendations are Confirmed by the Common Council.

NEW BUILDING LINE

More Lights in Various Districts—Money Borrowed For Brick Pave Improvement.

Vincent Carroll and Martin Connaughton were appointed permanent members of the fire department, and William Jaeger a call man, by Mayor Fisk, at the October meeting of the Common Council, last night, and the appointments were confirmed. Mr. Jaeger was formerly a driver for the chemical engine, but resigned recently to accept another position. However, he desired to continue as a member of the department.

For the purpose of assisting W. R. Codrington and Walter Manning, who are erecting a new building on Watchung avenue, near the railroad, and ching avenue, near the railroad, Mr. Ginn introduced an ordinance establishing a new line between Fourth street and Crescent avenue, and East Sixth street, which will permit the new building to remain where it is. The new line permits for sixteen feet from the curb, a twelve foot sidewalk and four feet for an area. The ordinance was adopted on two readings and a public hearing will be granted at the November meeting.

This matter has been under consideration for some time, the owners seeking relief from the possibility of being compelled to tear down the front of the building and set it back on the establishing line. President Daniel and Councilman Hibbard voted against the ordinance.

On motion of Mr. Tolles, a resolution offered at a previous meeting providing for the borrowing of $3,000 on account of the brick pavement work, was reconsidered and then voted down, so that a new resolution for $10,000 might be substituted. The first resolution did not meet with the approval of Corporation Counsel Marsh, and another one was drafted and passed. The $10,000 includes payments for two months.

The light committee had a long inning in securing many additional electric lights. Mr. Montgomery, the chairman, although not always sure of each location succeeded in getting all the lights he asked for.

One asked for is to be located on West Third street, between Madison and Central avenues, where one was supposed to have existed. The chairman will investigate the matter and if the city has been paying for a light which has not been in service the matter will be adjusted with the Public Service Corporation. Other lights secured by the committee include one on Belvidere avenue, one on West Third street, three on Putnam avenue, between Hillside and Woodland avenues.

Strong objection to the granting of so many lights was offered by Mr. Tyler, but Mr. Ginn and Mr. Mellick favored the lights, especially those asked for on Putnam avenue, where, they stated, there is considerable traffic and many new houses are being erected.

These lights, in a majority of cases were petitioned for. The residents of Woodland avenue asked for one as that thoroughfare, and a similar petition was received from Christian Frederickson and others for lights on Leland and Berkeley avenues. These petitions were referred, but those received from Clifton Wharton, Jr., on Belvidere, and H. H. Pennoyer and others for one on West Third street opposite West End Tabernacle, and the one for Martine and Evergreen avenues were promptly granted. Councilmen Tyler and Hibbard voted against the lights for Putnam avenue.

THREE WESTFIELD HOMES ENTERED BY BURGLARS.
Ransacked Room in W. H. Siebert's Home Where Corpse Reposed in Casket.

A daring band of thieves invaded Westfield at an early hour this morning and secured $1,000 worth of plunder in three homes. One of the places entered was the residence of W. H. Siebert, of Lawrence avenue, whose wife died Sunday. The burglars ransacked nearly all the rooms in the house, including the one where in the casket rested. They secured several hundred dollars worth of silverware, jewelry and clothing.

At the home of Clark R. Swaney, on Highland avenue, $200 worth of silverware and clothing was taken and at the residence of Eugene Hanford, Dudley avenue, the loot included $50 in money, silverware and clothing. Hanford is the Republican leader in Westfield.

The police were acquainted with the facts and are working up several clues obtained.

$250 Damage By Wind.
The heavy wind which accompanied this morning's downpour of rain caused the smashing of a $250 plate glass window at Scheuer's grocery. An awning rod was jerked from position and swung directly into it.

Peaches, grapes and seasonable fruits at Neuman Brothers. A nice assortment will be shown tomorrow.

AUDIENCE STOPS PLAY

"Mr. Bluebeard" Was a Sad, Sad Affair and the Gallery Got Wise.

CURTAIN RUNG DOWN

Manager Connaughton Refused to Allow Continuance of the Show When Handclapping Became Enthusiastic.

Growing weary of the amateurish actions of the cast, last night's audience at the New Plainfield theatre took to "kidding" the members of the "Bluebeard" company and interrupted the progress of the performance. By vigorous handclapping and stamping of feet they made it impossible for the actors and actresses to go on with their lines and the disturbance brought Manager Connaughton from his private office. He immediately ordered the curtain lowered and refused to allow the show to proceed.

"Mr. Bluebeard" was originally produced by Klaw & Erlanger and has had big runs in New York, Chicago and other places. It has evidently been sold about, however, from one manager to another and it is now in the possession of Miss Donna Seymour, who backed the production booked for this city and appeared in the cast. It was represented to Manager Connaughton as a performance worthy of his house but it was evident after the first act, last night, that the company wasn't any too good and that it hadn't been regular at rehearsals. The show dragged along until the opening of the last act when a succession of "breaks" started the "kidding" and continued applause.

An alleged comedian sought to render Eddie Foy's song, "And They Say He Went to College," from "The Orchid" and was helped out or hampered by a dozen chorus girls. The singer became badly mixed in his lines and the girls got in each other's way. When the first couple of choruses were passed out the gallery was seemingly enthusiastic. An encore got still longer applause and when the stage people sang all they knew everybody called for more. The first part was repeated but still the audience clapped and then the realization came that the applauding was not the genuine sort.

In speaking of the matter today, Manager Connaughton regretted that the company had been allowed to go on and declared that he would have cancelled the date if he had known the show was not up to the standard of the house. Business kept him in his office during the early part of the evening and it was not until his attention was attracted by the noisy applauding that he realized the show was in disfavor with the audience. He immediately called for the performance to stop and would have refunded the patrons' money but for the fact that the usual settlement had been made with the company's treasurer. The latter was not to be found when search was instituted.

The members of the company are still in town and it was said today that Miss Seymour had taken her departure without stopping to advance any salaries. The show was booked for Wilmington, Del., tonight and after that the important cities through Pennsylvania. The original production of "Mr. Bluebeard" was appearing at the Hippodrome theatre in Chicago at the time the fire and panic occurred in which 600 lives were lost.

NEW YORK MAN GETS $68,000 BOND ISSUE

ONLY TWO BIDS AND OFFER OF A. B. LEACH IS ACCEPTED.

Contrary to expectations only two bids were received at the October meeting of the Common Council, last night, for the $68,000 worth of sanitary sewer bonds. One was from the Plainfield Trust Company for $50,000 worth of bonds and the other from A. B. Leach, of New York, for the entire issue. The bonds were awarded to A. B. Leach at the exceptionally low bid of $100.04. The bonds are 4 1/2 per cent, interest-bearing bonds and are dated May 1, 1907. They will run from 1908 to 1941.

The bid of the Plainfield Trust Company was $100.07 for $50,000 worth of the issue and the long term bonds were desired. Altogether, this bid was not considered as favorable as that of the New York firm which offered to take them all for $100.04. The few bids and low price bid is considered due to the unsettled condition of the investment market even in high grade securities and bonds, such as Plainfield offered. There is a general depression in financial circles and those who have money to invest are withholding it in preference to putting out while the market is in such an uncertain condition.

CITY SCHOOLS TO HAVE WOMAN TRUANT OFFICER

SUPT. MAXSON WILL USE TACT, NOT FORCE, TO BRING UP ATTENDANCE.

The small boy who has heretofore been neglecting his golden opportunity for education in the city public schools is soon to have the blessing of the Three R's at least forced upon him by law, and his little sister, too, will be unable to "stay home and help" during school hours. For Superintendent Henry M. Maxson is soon to appoint a woman officer, and one and all must attend school, at least for the term required by law each school year.

At the meeting of the city board of education last night, Dr. Maxson brought up the subject of irregular attendance at the schools, and in some instances lack of attendance by children under fourteen years of age, whom the law requires shall spend at least a few months of each year in school. At a meeting of the board some time ago, the power of the appointment of such an officer had been given to Dr. Maxson and last night he announced that he would shortly announce his appointment.

To the surprise of the board, the woman officer to be chosen will be a woman. Dr. Maxson said last night that he did not believe such an officer required so much of the makeup of a police officer as the quiet influence of work in the home. The appointee will be chosen on account of ability in this way, for Dr. Maxson believes that a great deal more can be accomplished by tactful work of a philanthropic nature in the home than by the display of the force of law.

FINANCIAL SESSION OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

City School Fathers Order Payment of Big Budget at Short Board Meeting.

Routine business was summarily transacted at the regular meeting of the city board of education held at the high school last night. Bills to the amount of about $1,000 were ordered paid. This is an extensive budget because of the fact that much of the amount is carried over from the summer months, when it was necessary to have considerable repairing done to local school buildings. Repairs to the amount of about $1,500 have been made during the summer on the Whittier school building. Books and supplies were a large item.

A report from the city tax collector showed $1,550.78 on hand and the report of the custodian of schools showed a balance of $5,700.34. Leander N. Lovell was the only member of the board absent.

Removing Telephone Poles.

The street gang employed by the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company removed three more large poles on Front street, yesterday, being another move to clear the business section of poles and wires. One of the poles taken down yesterday stood at Front street and Park avenue, and was of the tallest in the city. For several months it had been out of us, the wires being placed underground at that point. The other two poles removed were on East Front street.

LEMON STARTS A FIGHT

TWO ARRESTS MADE

Trouble Occurs At North Avenue Station As Aftermath to the "Mr. Bluebeard" Incident.

Mistaking Philip L. Berry, a New York business man, and two women friends for members of the "Bluebeard" troupe which appeared at the New Plainfield theatre, Clarence Angelman, of East Fourth street, and an unknown Scotch Plains youth, hurled lemons and insults at the trio as they were waiting for a train at the North avenue station last night. Snarling under the indignities, Mr. Berry remonstrated with the young men only to be struck at and assaulted. He was faring badly at the hands of his attackers despite the feeble attempts of the women to help him when Patrolman Dennis O'Keefe appeared on the scene.

The Scotch Plains youth noted the approach of the officer and fled through the East Fourth street park of the station but Angelman and the New Yorker were arrested. City Judge William N. Runyon was hunted up and obligingly consented to hold a "night court" in order to allow Berry and his friends to get home. Angelman denied throwing the lemon but admitted that he had defied Berry to do anything about it when he politely asked who it was that had done it. He also admitted knowing the Scotch Plains youth, who he said had propelled the acid fruit, but could not tell his name. The complaint against Berry was dismissed and Angelman's case was continued until tomorrow morning with instructions that he must produce the unknown young man in court.

In giving his testimony before the magistrate, Berry said that he and his friends, Mrs. Elfreda Nixon and Miss Marie Brownlee, had been at the theatre and waited after the performance to speak to some friends in the cast. After leaving the playhouse, he noticed that they were followed by a tough-looking youth who leered in an insulting way at Miss Brownlee. The young woman wore a stylish tailor-made gown and an auto veil and her general appearance was very attractive. It was evident that the follower mistook the three for theatrical people and Berry at first was inclined to treat the matter more as a joke than otherwise. When the North avenue station was reached they had a short time to wait before the arrival of the 11:28 train and they began walking up and down the platform.

Berry noticed the persistent follower had been joined by another young man and now and then caught a remark reflecting on the "Bluebeard" performance. The leering also continued and he was just on the point of remonstrating when one of the two youths hurled a lemon at him as they were facing away. Berry turned quickly on his heel and walking back asked:

"Who threw that lemon?"

"I did," Angelman replied, and as the New York man came closer he added, "what are you going to do about it?"

He asserted that all he said was "Well, that's a pretty nice thing to do," when Angelman struck at him and the mix-up followed. Mrs. Nixon and Miss Brownlee saw the two men attack him and appealed to both to desist and also attempted to get between the aggressors. The first real help to Berry, who was pretty well battered, came from John Campbell, the bowling alley proprietor, a witness of the attack. He corroborated the New Yorker's testimony in its essential details. Angelman denied absolutely that he had hurled the lemon but admitted that he made an attempt to set Berry right when he sought the thrower.

The New Yorkers started for home on the 2:17 train, Berry carrying a blood-stained collar and a rueful smile.

Brick Work Progressing.

If the Public Service Corporation completes its underground work on Somerset street today, Contractor C. M. Meeker will begin at once his work of laying concrete foundation there for the brick pavement. The electrical work has held up at that point and yesterday his gang was put to work on Park avenue removing the macadam. The brickmen expect to begin today or tomorrow cementing and rolling the pavement on Park avenue, which after a few days will be ready for traffic.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

"The Woman in the Case," with Miss Helen Grantly and a capable company of players, will be Manager Conlinhan's offering at the New Plainfield theatre tonight.

There is no question about the complete success of "About Town," that great musical hit which comes to the New Plainfield theatre tomorrow night. As in all productions by the Sam S. and Lee Shubert company (Inc.) nothing is lacking that artistic skill can devise or money procure. It has music of the good opera calibre; music that will have a lasting place; songs that thrill with their tunefulness, and a chorus that has never been surpassed either in beauty or wealth of voice. "About Town" can honestly be accredited as one of the musical and positive hits of the past season, as it remained at Low Field's Herald Square Theatre, New York, for six consecutive months and was popular in Boston for four months. The book and lyrics by Joseph Herbert, and the music by Melville Hubbell form an entertainment of the most enjoyable kind. Then there are a number of song hits, among which are "Tom, Dick and Harry," "William Tell," "I Think I Oughtn't Auto," "Dinner Time," "A Little Class of One," "In Amsterdam," "Fickle Maid," "The Pickadilly Crawl," and "Deutschland." The cast which is headed by that clever and jolly comedian, Dave Lewis, contains many well known farceurs and musical entertainers, among which are Charles Prince, Dick Temple, Bert Western, Nellie Miles, and an exceptionally fine Miles, and an exceptionally fine chorus. In all the company is said to contain seventy people.

One of the most complete and effective presentations of "East Lynne" which has ever been sent on tour will be given at the New Plainfield theatre next Thursday night by Joseph King's New York company.

The company, scenic equipment and accessories are all up to the standard required for an artistic presentation of the favorite old drama. The engagement is for one night only, and seats can be secured at these special prices.

The attraction at the New Plainfield theatre next Saturday afternoon and night will be that dainty, piquant and petite little artist, Grace Cameron, who is surrounded by a metropolitan company of artists and a monster production.

The play, "Dollie Dimples," is founded on Miss Cameron's great success bearing the title during the run at the Casino, New York city, of Fred C. Whitney's "Piff Paff Puff" and after the song "Dollie Dimples" which gained its popularity through Miss Cameron's unique rendition. Miss Cameron is meeting with great success in her role of "Dollie" and the play, which is the work of the eminent dramatist and composer, C. Herbert Kerr, is said to be meeting with unqualified success wherever it has appeared.

At no time within recent years has cash played so important a role in the great merchandising drama. The store that buys for cash and sells for cash these days is the store that can best afford to give real values and the store to which you should turn. There is hardly a manufacturer who has not felt the effects of the tight money market, and many are so pressed for funds that they are willing to convert their made up stocks into cash at any cost. As the great Bamberger store is essentially a cash concern—buying for cash—and selling for cash—we have succeeded lately in securing many concessions and are now ready with a big yearly sale in which we shall offer some of the best values ever known to the trade.

ACKERMAN'S CIVIL SERVICE.

A third and final attempt will be made by the State Senate on Friday to have a civil service law put in effect in New Jersey, the Upper House's committee, of which our model representative, Mr. Ackerman, is chairman, having framed a bill that surpasses any similar measure now in force elsewhere. On two repeated occasions the present Senate has attempted to make such a law, but at both times it has been circumvented by the Democrats in the Lower House who are playing practical politics.

The proposed measure embodies the salient features and strong points of not only the Colby and Thompson measures but the Federal Act as well. It has been framed after much hard labor on the part of Mr. Ackerman and his colleagues on the committee, Senator Gebhardt, of Hunterdon, and Frelinghuysen, of Somerset. Mr. Gebhardt is the minority member, while Mr. Frelinghuysen, the author of the pure food and auto laws, is the additional Republican factor. This trio has endeavored to show the good faith of the Senate by trying for a third time to have such a measure made into a law.

If the bill becomes law, the proposed Civil Service Commission will have power "To prescribe, amend and enforce rules and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of the act. All rules so prepared or amended shall be subject to approval or rejection by the Governor; provided, however, that if the Governor shall not return to the commission a rule or amendment within ten days from the time the same may have been submitted to him, with his approval or rejection thereof, then such rule or amendment shall become effective as though approved by the Governor."

It will also be empowered "To make investigations, either sitting as a body or through a single commissioner, concerning all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the provisions of this act, and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder, concerning the action of any examiner or subordinate of the commission and any person in the paid employ of the government of this State or any municipality that may hereafter adopt the provisions of this act, and in the course of such investigations each commissioner and the secretary shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations and to take testimony."

The civil service of the State of New Jersey, and of the municipalities thereof when and as they may adopt the provisions of this act, will be divided into the unclassified service and the classified service. "The unclassified service shall not be subject to any of the provisions of this act, and shall include the following classes: All officers elected by popular vote; all officers appointed by the Governor, with or without the advice and consent of either or both branches of the Legislature; all officers appointed by either or both branches of the Legislature; all officers in charge of elections or whose duties relate to the preparation for elections or to the returns thereof; all heads of departments of the State government, and the municipalities thereof that may adopt the provisions of this act, and their deputies or first assistants; all law officers of the State or of any municipality thereof that may adopt the provisions of this act, and their legal assistants, who must of necessity be attorneys or counsellors-at-law; all officers and persons in the militia; all superintendents of teachers and instructors in the public schools and State institutions, and members of all Boards of Education. The classified service shall include all persons in the paid service of the State or the municipalities thereof that may adopt the provisions of this act, not included in the unclassified service."

PICTURE TALK ON VENICE

Prof. Van Laer's Interesting
Description Before Monday Afternoon Club.

SOME SUPERB SCENES

City of Sunshine and Canals the Subject at Women's Meeting

At Casino Yesterday.

In all the history of the Monday Afternoon Club, it is said no lecturer has ever been greeted with so large an audience as that which gathered yesterday afternoon at the Casino to listen to Professor van Laer on "Picturesque Venice." The talk was illustrated with stereopticon views and Mr. van Laer, who is an associate of the National Academy of Design, New York, exhibited many beautiful pictures of the famous buildings in Venice as well as views of the Grand Canal and some of the smaller canals.

"See Paris and die," was an oft-quoted remark, said the lecturer, but he would advise the traveler not to die after a sight of Paris, but to see Venice and then he would not want to die. Venice was described by him as all sunshine, all restfulness and all enjoyment. There was no dust, no beating of horses' hoofs, no rattling of wheels or cars, no jangling of bells, no trolleys and no automobiles. "Fortunate is the traveler," said Mr. van Laer, "who first sees Venice with a background of sunshine." This dreamland he described as mapped and charted, and the first view was a map of Venice showing the great number of islands, separated by canals, the principal of which was the Grand Canal, extending in a great curve through the heart of the city and the piazzas or open areas, almost every one of which is adorned with a fine church or palace.

Mr. van Laer showed many pictures of the square of St. Mark's, the centre of the history of the patron saint under whom Venice grew to wealth and power. In this square was also the Campanile or famous bell-tower of St. Mark's, from the top of which the view was superb, with the Italian Alps at the North and the sea and all the beautiful city lying at the South. An ascent of more than 200 feet, he said, was necessary to get this view, the ascent being by an easy inclined plane and not a stair. This Campanile fell in 1902, but the work of rebuilding it has begun. Having stood 800 years or more, the lecturer hoped it would stand 800 years more, or longer.

Adjoining the church, views were shown of the Doges Palace. Mr. van Laer said of many of these buildings, they were object lessons in municipal architecture on account of their regularity and symmetry. Many exquisite decorations of these palaces were exhibited, the walls and ceilings being decorated by Tintoretto and other celebrated painters.

The two granite columns Monoliths brought from Tyre in the twelfth century were among the interesting views exhibited. One of these was crowned with the winged lion of St. Mark and the other with the statue of St. Theodore, the first patron of the republic. Between these columns was formerly the place of public execution.

A number of beautiful churches, exquisite in design and elaborate in decoration were shown by the lecturer. Some of these were built to avert the ravages of the plague and some for different orders of monks. Among these were the churches of St. John and St. Paul.

The celebrated Bridge of Sighs was another Venetian sight full of interest, but Mr. van Laer said it belonged to the seventeenth century. Among other views shown were the bridge of the Rialto, the centre of commerce and trade, the gondolas and gondoliers, the palace where Robert Browning died and which is the home of his artist son, the House of Desdemona and the Bronze Horse, which adorned the triumphs of Nero at Rome.

Most interesting of all were the many beautiful pictures of St. Mark's, which is the centre of Venice itself. Standing before the Altar, the lecturer said, we are awed, subdued, but satisfied.

On account of the occupation of the Casino by the fair for the hospital, October 21, the meeting of the Club for that date will be held in the Congregational church.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The Lehigh officials were well pleased with the trial trip in the automobile which will now run on schedule time. It is the opinion of the public that two automobiles will be required to accommodate the traffic between here and Plainfield. Every Saturday night crowds of people are seen wending their way toward Plainfield to shop. Now the query arises how will the auto take care of the trunk and parcel traffic?

The complaint of Mr. Pyatt against five South Plainfield boys for malicious mischief will have a final hearing in Judge Smith's court tomorrow night. A lawyer from Plainfield, will be counsel for the boys. An interesting time is anticipated, as some of these boys have been paroled in the hands of Constable Reilly for the past year.

An entertainment will be given in the Baptist church this evening by the Ladies' Aid Society. There will be a spelling match, recitations, and music, after which refreshments will be served.

There was a rehearsal last evening of the play, "Our Jim," soon to be given in Washington Hall.

Mrs. Peter Johnson is recovering from a severe illness.

CONSIDER MANY PETITIONS

Big Batch of Routine Business Occupies Time of the City Fathers.

REPORTS PRESENTED

Raceway Cleaned—P. S. C. Requests

Tax Exemptions—

Building Permits.

Aside from the more important happenings at the October meeting of the Common Council last night, there was a great amount of routine business that made the session a long one. Harry Warren, recently appointed a special patrolman, got tired of the job and resigned that he might return to the employ of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company. The resignation was accepted.

Mr. Tyler reported back the petition of Health Officer L. R. Thurlow regarding the matter of cleaning the raceway between Tier's pond and Watchung avenue, stating that the water-way had been cleaned.

The Central Realty Company and others, owners of property on Evergreen avenue, asked the Common Council to accept that thoroughfare as all the legal provisions have been complied with. The matter was referred to the street committee.

In a petition Mrs. Eleanor Williams, of West Seventh street, complained about what she termed a gross error in a sewer assessment on property on Darrow avenue owned by her. She claimed that she had previously paid one assessment and had only been allowed exemption on 113 feet of property. The matter was referred.

The Public Service Corporation informed the Common Council that it had placed one electric light at Denmark road and Dixie Lane and two in Pruden's Alley, as ordered.

The Public Service Corporation asked for permission to make openings on East and West Front street, East and West Second street, Madison avenue and Watchung avenue to extend the underground electric light connections. The matter was referred to the street committee.

Building Inspector T. O. Doane reported that during September twenty-three building permits were granted, and City Engineer A. J. Gavett reported the granting of twenty-two sewer permits during the same period.

The attention of the Common Council was directed by City Engineer Gavett to certain culverts placed on East Second street and West Fourth street by the Public Service Corporation, which have caused a stoppage of surface water, and he requested that the company be instructed to remedy the trouble. The matter was referred to the street committee.

H. G. Adams, clerk of the District Court, reported the receipts for September to be $97.55, the expenditures $27.25, leaving a balance of $70.30.

In response to petitions from N. H. Saxton and others and C. C. Yeager, one four-way hydrant was ordered placed on West Eighth street, 600 feet west from Monroe avenue, and the city line, and one four-way hydrant at Hunter avenue and West Fourth street.

The sum of $100 was appropriated to employ additional clerical help in the office of Tax Collector J. W. Murray, Jr., in getting out the tax bills, according to a resolution by Mr. Tolles, and other resolutions by the same member, and adopted, provided for the borrowing of $3,000 for the fire fund, and the appropriation of $500 to employ an expert accountant to examine the books and accounts of the city for the years 1906-1907.

Mr. Tolles offered another resolution adjusting an error in the assessment of property in Highland Park, owned by Chandler W. Riker, it being stated that the assessment has been paid.

In response to a petition from Ida B. Hunt, her offer to redeem property on Prospect avenue, for $790, having secured equity in the same, was accepted, and she will be given a deed for the same. This is in accordance with provisions of the Martin Act, under which the city held the property.

An ordinance was introduced by Mr. Ginna establishing the building line on Madison avenue, between West Fourth and West Seventh streets, eighteen feet from the surface line, with a ten-foot sidewalk and eight foot area. It was adopted on two readings and ordered advertised.

It was agreed that when the meeting adjourned it be to meet on Monday night, October 14.

BOYS RIDE TRAIN ROOFS 24 DAYS

TWO YOUTHS ARRIVE AT CHICAGO FROM BUTTE, MONT., AFTER REMARKABLE TRIP.

TAKEN TO JUVENILE COURT

Assert Lurching Was Fierce at First—Coach Tops Give View of "Swell Guys" Inside—Prisoners Are 16 and 15 Years.

Chicago.—Two boys from Butte, Mont., who traveled the entire 1,500 miles to Chicago, by clinging to the tops of passenger trains as they rushed along at 60 miles an hour, were taken before the juvenile court and told a remarkable story of long "hike" which lasted 24 days. The boys are Elmer Johnson, 16 years old, and Emmet Burke, 15 years old. They were taken up by Detectives Maher and Abbey.

"Yes, we rode the tops," said Johnson, who declares that he would now rather ride on the outside of a train than on the inside. "We left Butte on July 20 and was all the time coming. Emmet wanted to come, so one night we packed up some lunch and went down to the yards."

"A Northern Pacific train was just about to leave. We tackled the blind baggage, as that is the only car you can climb to the top on. It has a big wheel on the side. I gave Emmet a boost and then climbed up myself. We lay down on the vestibule top until it pulled out. At first we were scared and hung on for dear life. The lurching on top is something fierce and we almost got pitched off going round curves."

"From the blind baggage we would sometimes crawl back to the Pullmans on the rear. There are always lots of pipes on the tops of a Pullman a fellow can hold to. We could peek in through the ventilators and see the 'swell' guys sitting in there smoking and chewing the rag. Every once in a while a waiter would come in with a tray full of 'booze' and then they would all take a drink and laugh."

"Toward the end we got so we would crawl back to the Pullmans when the train started and look in at the people," continued the recount. "Sometimes we would get over the dining car, and, gee! that grub would smell good."

"Coming down from Denver there was lots of slick-looking folks. In one of the cars there was a young-looking lady. She was awful thin and pale. There was a young 'guy' with her. I guess it was her husband. When we stopped at a water tank I heard him say: 'Wait till I get you home, Bess, and you will get better when you see your ma and pa. You'll get strong again and we can go to shows and have good times again.'"

"The lady says, 'Do you think so, Jim? Sometimes I think that I will never be well again.' The young 'guy' got up saying he was going back to get a drink of water. He looked like he was crying to me. Soon after that the 'conductor' saw us at the next stop and made us get down. He said he would 'knock our blocks' off if he caught us on top again."

"We stayed in that town 'bumming' grub until the next night, when we got one of the Burlington fast trains. Maybe we didn't go some. We had to hold on tight on that train for fair. Sometimes the train men would see us just as the train was pulling out, but too late to get at us."

"We could only ride at nights, because the trainmen could see on the top in the daylight. We would have to be careful, even at night, when we would reach a big station. When we saw the lights of a town ahead we would crawl over on the dark side and crouch down so they could not see us."

"We rode the Northern Pacific to Billings and then took the Burlington to Alliance. From Alliance we went to Bridgeport and from there into Denver. From Denver we took the Union Pacific and worked into Kansas City. At that city we struck the Chicago & Alton and came into Chicago."

EXEMPTS HOLD REUNION

Former Fire Fighters Talk of "Old Days" While Round the Festive Board.

"The old days" in the history of fighting fires in this city formed the topic for discussion in the speeches given around Ted Cleveley's banquet board when the Plainfield Exempts Firemen's Association gathered to celebrate their twentieth anniversary last night.

The members first gathered early at their rooms in the Coward building. There the roll was called, showing seventy-one active members, of which nearly fifty were present. The history of the organization was read by Guillermo Thorn, a charter member. President V. W. Nash was in charge of the meeting.

E. T. Humphreys, of Nutley, secretary of the State Exempts Association, gave an address before the organization and presented life membership badges to V. W. Nash, D. W. Littell, W. A. Woodruff, E. M. Laing, J. O. Cranston and Guillermo Thorn, of the Plainfield exempts, and David Bodine, of the borough exempts. The badges are heavy gold medals, and are awarded to those exempts who have served three consecutive years as delegates to the State convention. Mr. Humphreys spoke of the plaid held by D. W. Littell in the association and in the State organization as president. He is now serving as chief executive of the State organization for the third time, and will be urged to accept re-nomination.

Other speakers were D. W. Littell, president of the State organization; V. W. Nash, president of the local association; Nicholas Snyder, of Trenton, treasurer of the State organization; V. W. Nash, Jr., attorney for the State organization; Charles H. Hand, Chief Wagoner, of the North Plainfield fire department; L. B. Woolston, and L. E. Barkeley.

MAY NOT ALLOW P. S. C. TO LAY DOUBLE TRACKS.

City Fathers About Evenly Divided On Proposition.

The Public Service Corporation petitioned the Common Council, at the October meeting, last night, for permission to rearrange and double track its line on Watchung avenue and East Front street, between the Watchung avenue "stand" and Somerset street, and the matter was referred to the street committee. No action was taken on the petition at that time, but it is believed that it will come up again, possibly at the adjourned meeting to be held Monday night. This action was foretold by The Daily Press several days ago.

The company has for some time been anxious to double track its line between the points named, and are now particularly so before the brick payment is laid along that thoroughfare. It the Common Council should grant permission to make the improvement it would mean a revenue of $5,000 to the municipality, as the company's share of the expense of laying the pavement. Under the present conditions the city would receive but one-third of the cost of the improvement from the company.

It is understood that a majority of the property-owners on East Front street and Watchung avenue favor the improvement, and have been working for it. Among those who are said to want the extra tracks are Woodhull & Martin and Dr. Albert Pittis, who own considerable property on East Front street.

The members of the Common Council took a recess during the evening to consider the petition, but after a discussion lasting more than an hour, it was found that there were not sufficient votes to grant it. It is said that Councilmen Tyler, Hibbard, Mellick, Ginna and Daniel were among those who opposed the granting of the petition. Realizing the strength of the opposition those who favored the improvement did not attempt to force the issue at the time.

Under the existing ordinances it is not necessary for the company to secure the consent of the property-owners, the matter being left entirely in the hands of the Common Council. It was agreed, however, that under no circumstances must the brick pavement work be held up by reason of any improvements contemplated.

Abram Van Cleef a Benedict.
Miss Laura V. Brokaw, of East Fifth street, and Abram Van Cleef, of Elm place, were quietly married Saturday afternoon by Rev. A. E. Finn, at his home. Mrs. John B. Lant, sister of the bride, and several other relatives were present. They will reside on Elm place.

Approaching Wedding.
Announcement is made of the approaching wedding of Arthur Garret Beekman, of this city, and Miss Anna Frances Durling, of Harkling, which will take place Wednesday afternoon, October 16, at the home of the bride.

Another Storage Vault.
On account of the increasing business, especially in storage, the City National Bank is having an additional vault built in the basement of the institution. It will be 18x20 feet square and will adjoin the present vault.

MILK ANALYSES HAS PROVED BENEFICIAL

Milk analyses by health officers of the city and borough show that the milk supplied by local dairymen is free from injurious disease bacteria than before the present system of dairy inspection was put into effect. The work of analysis is done by Leon Thirlow, of the city Board of Health, and Frank Dencklau, of the borough. Samples of milk from local milk dealers are secured and analyzed and the tabulated result of such analysis is posted in the office of Tax Collector George F. Brown, on Somerset street. At the meeting of the Borough Board of Health, last night, the present system of milk analysis was commended and the practice of posting the results of the analysis was endorsed.

Mr. Kenney read a paper before the Board in which he alluded to "certain conditions touching upon the public health or nerves, covered by rules that cannot be enforced except by diplomacy." He enumerated a number of these conditions, and urged consideration by citizens for their remedy. He alluded in the paper to the badly kept crosswalks, which instead of forming dry passages across a street in the rain, give the water a chance to gather where they are sunken, with the result that in many cases they cannot be used. He also alluded to the uneven laying of sidewalks, where pools could gather on sunken flag stones and make wet feet a certainty to the pedestrian. In this connection he spoke of water confined on lawns by abutting flag stones and the unsanitary results. Outhouses of ramshackle appearance were also discussed, and the paper dealt at length with the carelessness of tenants in the matter of disreputable looking backyards.

Match Head Starts Fire.
A still alarm called part of the fire department to the home of Hibbard Masters on West Seventh street at 8.15 o'clock. A servant had gone to the furnace room and in striking a match, part of the head flew into a basket of excelsior. A blaze started that spread to the first floor beams and filled the house with blinding smoke. The firemen found the family trying to carry Mr. Masters from the second floor. He recently suffered a paralytic stroke and has been helpless. Chief Jennings and Patrolman George Dobson took charge of Mr. Masters' removal and carried him to the home of William M. Stillman. The fire gave the department an hour's fight and caused a loss of about $100.

Mrs. Mary Metz.
Mrs. Mary Metz, widow of Henry Metz, of Detroit, died this morning at the home of her son-in-law, Rev. J. P. Taylor, of West Seventh street. Heart trouble was the cause. She was 89 years old. She is survived by three daughters and two sons; Mrs. Charles B. Whitney, of Chicago, formerly of Detroit; Mrs. J. P. Taylor and Miss Annie Metz, of this city; Howard Metz, of Chicago and Charles A. Metz, of New Rochelle, N. Y.
