JOINS THE MILLIONAIRES

F. S. Ruttman, a Local High School Graduate, Digs Up Wealth in Mexico.

HE HAS THE TIN

Owens Only Mine on the Continent and Will Get $680 a Ton for His Metal—Tells of His Fortune.

Private letters received from Mexico indicate that Ferdinand S. Ruttman, a graduate of the Plainfield High School in the class of 1875, and who later graduated at the Columbia College School of Mines in the class of 1880, has become a millionaire. He has been in Mexico for the last eight years, except for a few visits to his old home, and for two years he has not ventured north.

The reason for Mr. Ruttman's long absence became known yesterday, when advices were received telling the story of his explorations in Mexico and his discovery of mines that have already made him a millionaire.

Mr. Ruttman, who is one of the prominent mining engineers of the country, being a member of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, and of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, was left with a modest fortune on the death of his father, who was a successful New York merchant. His bent of genius was toward useful discovery, and his professional education in New York's famous technical institution gave him added incentive to pursue it, while his independence financially afforded him the opportunity to go ahead with the drawbacks that come to equally ambitious but less fortunate prospectors.

In starting out Mr. Ruttman found that the mountain ranges of the United States had been well exploited. There were all kinds of mines in operation almost everywhere in the country where there was a chance to operate a mine. He decided to become an explorer and sought nearby Mexico as a field for his operations. Mexico is a sealed book to most Americans, and even enthusiastic prospectors and engineers have hesitated to penetrate this land of ancient Spanish romance and hidden treasures of which there are so many legends. The difficulty of exploration, the physical hardships that would have to be overcome were more attractive than otherwise to the Columbia College man. With him he associated Edmund J. Evans, a Pittsburgh man, who will share with him in the honor of being one of the two tin kings of the country—and with tin at $675 to $680 a ton and coal at $6 a ton it can readily be seen that being a tin king is better than being a coal king, especially as the supply of coal kings is much larger than the possible output of tin operators.

With his associate he has acquired control of a large section of mining territory in the State of Durango, and in the State of Zacatecas. There are about twenty mines which are rich in copper, silver and lead in the territory, but of all of them Mr. Ruttman attaches more importance to the tin mine. His reason is in a way sentimental. There is only one other tin mine in the Western Hemisphere that is commercially profitable. That mine is in Bolivia, South America. Its ore assays for very much less than the Mexican discovery, which yields from 20 to 40 per cent. metallic tin right along, and is producing some specimens that run up to 60 per cent. The lowest percentage so far obtained is 20, and the famous Cornwall mines only show about 1 per cent. It is a question with mining engineers whether this tin mine will not be the greatest in the world, as it is now the greatest in the Americas.

The effect commercially will be to give Americans supremacy in the tin market. This country's manufacturers are now dependent on foreign sources of supply, except for some small quantities that come from Alaska. There is no import duty on the commodity, so that except for the longer haul on the railroads the discovery is of as much importance to the tin plate industry as if the mine had been discovered within the confines of the United States.

At present the tin used by American manufacturers is imported from England, Australia and the Dutch East Indies. The permanence of supply, the possibility of "corners" and the increasing demand for tinware have all contributed to worry the tin plate manufacturers. The discovery of an adequate supply of the most valuable of the non-precious metals within reasonable reach and controlled by Americans will do much to relieve that anxiety, especially as the discovery was made by an engineer who is already satisfied with his financial condition and who would not be likely to disturb trade conditions.

BAPTIST WOMEN GATHER

East New Jersey Association's Foreign Missionary Society in Session.

AN ALL DAY MEETING

Mrs. B. J. Shreve and Miss Dimock Make Addresses—Lunch—Lecture Is Served.

The semi-annual meeting of the Women's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of the East New Jersey Baptist Association, is being held in First Baptist church, today, with a large attendance of delegates from the association churches. Mrs. William T. Lumbar, of Newark, president, is in the chair.

The morning session convened at 10 o'clock with devotional exercises. Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the church, gave the address of welcome, to which Mrs. Lumbar responded. The business session was chiefly routine. Miss Julia Shinn, formerly of this city, but now one of the secretaries at the headquarters of the Baptist Board in Boston, gave a talk on her work in Burma, India and China from which she recently returned. The chief thought of her address was the willingness of the women in these countries to make large gifts for merit, and when they are converted they make great sacrifice.

"Our New Literature," was the subject of a delightful address by Miss Elizabeth Dimock, who used a novel method of introducing the Baptist missionary literature. This was done through the use of catch phrases taken from popular advertisements. The morning session closed with an interesting talk by Mrs. B. J. Shreve on the topic of "Education." The Baptist Educational Society seek to train young women for work on the foreign mission field, to be trained nurses, medical missionaries, and it was of this work that Mrs. Shreve spoke. She referred to the fact that Miss Bertha Mills, of Paterson, has just completed a course of training at the Elizabeth General Hospital for the profession of trained nurse and is now completing her course of study at the "Hazelton House," Boston, preparatory to going to a foreign field.

The afternoon session convened at 2 o'clock, and was taken up with several addresses by women prominent in the foreign mission work of this denomination.

YOU GUESS HER NAME AND SHE WILL BE YOURS

BRIDE DOLL GORGEOUSLY ARRAYED TO BE GIVEN AWAY.

Among the numerous coming events "The Gathering of the Clans" to be held at the Casino for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital, is probably the most talked about. There will be no end to the attractions, and one of the features will be the booth devoted to dolls. Mrs. Dorsey W. Hyde is the chairman of the committee in charge and there will be a fine array of dolls of every description, including the wonderful bride doll. Everyone will have an opportunity to guess her name and the lucky one will gain possession of her.

Mrs. Hyde's committee is as follows: Mrs. Harry Borden, Mrs. Harry Williams, Mrs. John Drayton, Mrs. Thomas Bakewell, Mrs. Theodore D. Wilson, Mrs. Evans Tracy, Mrs. William Griscom, Mrs. Jacob VanDeventer, Miss Mabel Pierson, Mrs. William Bache, Miss Mary Breck, Mrs. Francis DeLacy Hyde and Mrs. Louis K. Hyde.

The "cycle of fun" will delight the children. There will be fortune telling, where one can learn his or her fate by the vibration method, which is superior to the crystal reading. Ducrot, the wonderful wizard; Speedon, the cartoonist; Al. Baker, the magician and Mme. Sticku, the clever palmist, will be present to entertain both young and old. The entertainment every afternoon for the children will be well worth seeing. Three performances will be given, at 3:30, 4:15 and 5 o'clock. The admission for children will be ten cents and fifteen cents for adults.

Visitors to the show will surely want to see the "Wondergraph," which will be for sale. This is something entirely new and will please the children as it makes many designs, no two alike.

Stole Barber's Tools.
Frank Brown, colored, was arrested by Detective Sergeant Flynn, this afternoon, charged with the theft of some barber tools from a Central avenue shop. He will be arraigned tomorrow morning.

ARGANUMITES CELEBRATE

Banquet at Truell Hall Marks 25th Anniversary of Plainfield Council.

STATE OFFICERS TALK

Ringling Speeches Follow Fine Dinner—Big Crowd On Hand to Join In Demonstration.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary, last night, at Truell Hall, with a banquet and speeches by several grand lodge officers, including Grand Regent Harry R. Ward, of Jersey City. The success of the council was reviewed with considerable pride, the organization being one of the oldest and most progressive in the New Jersey jurisdiction. It was noted that notwithstanding the trouble incident to the raising of the rates, the council had lost but a few members and since then it has been increasing.

The members held a short meeting in the council room, after which they adjourned to Truell Hall, where under the direction of Mrs. J. R. Truell an excellent dinner was served. The dining hall was elaborately decorated with Royal Arcanum colors, purple, red and gold. The hour being late when the dinner started, it was necessary to begin the speechmaking before it was concluded to allow the grand lodge officers to get away in time.

The grand lodge officers present were Grand Regent Harry R. Ward, of Jersey City; Vice-Grand Regent C. A. Colyer, of Bayonne; Grand Treasurer W. C. McKeever, of Rutherford; Grand Guide Samuel Drummond, of Bound Brook; Grand Secretary R. H. Alberts, of Hoboken; chairman state of the order, R. P. Van Zandt, of Jersey City; Supervising Deputy N. H. Regar, of Jersey City; Supreme Representatives J. D. Beach, of Bayonne and Daniel S. Horton, of Somerville. Each one was called upon to say a few words, which they did and Plainfield Council was congratulated heartily for the showing it has made in the past quarter of a century. Regent William R. Townsend, of Plainfield Council, was toastmaster and although he did not make a speech his witticism in introducing the others was enjoyed.

Perhaps, the most interesting part of the speech-making was the historical sketch of Plainfield Council given by Grand Secretary R. H. Alberts. He stated that the council was instituted October 4, 1882, in Knights of Pythias Hall, by Past Grand Regent E. B. McDowell. The charter list numbered twenty-five which was increased to thirty-one within three months. The total receipts during the first three months amounted to $297, from which $100 was expended for the charter, $48.96 for current expenses, $29 for benefits, a total of $178.96, leaving a balance of $218.04. The sum of $95.75 was paid into the women's and orphans' beneficial fund.

The first secretary of the council was Edward E. Anthony, who remained a member for twenty-three years. Since institution the council has paid into the widows' and orphans' fund the sum of $126,570.98. There have been forty deaths and 107 members have been suspended. Thirty-two members have withdrawn to join other councils and there was one final withdrawal. One member was expelled.

Mr. Alberts said that although the order lost 50,000 members when the rates were increased, today the membership is 241,000 and $100,000 is being paid in every month into the fund for widows and orphans. Mr. Alberts after giving the sketch of the council dwelt earnestly on the cardinal principles of the order and urged every member to stand loyally by it and do all in their power to increase the membership.

Following the speeches by the grand lodge officers, a short address was made by Rev. Edward Love, one of the older members. During the banquet each guest received a souvenir in the shape of a metal ash tray bearing the insignia and colors of the order. The affair was a success in every detail, which was largely due to the efforts of the committee in charge, consisting of Armstrong Mulford, Wheaton S. Lowry and Fred K. Pope.

Prior to the banquet an informal reception was held in the ball room, when an opportunity was given the members to meet the grand lodge officers. Fred K. J. Pope also favored the guests with several baritone solos. At the conclusion of the banquet many remained for a social half-hour.

Steam Roller Mired.
The city steam roller, while trying to make the turn from West Fourth street to Park avenue, early this morning, became mired in a soft spot of earth and it required the combined efforts of a large gang of men to place the roller on solid ground.

ACKERMAN'S MEASURE

IS PASSED BY SENATE
CIVIL SERVICE BILL GETS A SOLID VOTE.

The New Jersey State Senate this afternoon passed the Ackerman Civil Service bill. The vote was unanimous. Senator Colby made a ringing speech in favor of the Union county statesman's measure and the Democrats were solid for it. The bill now goes to the House.

In presenting his bill, Senator Ackerman said incidentally that on two previous occasions civil service bills had been passed during the present session by the Senate but that they had been killed in the House. He gave the assemblymen credit for defeating the legislation purely on its merits. The new bill, he said, embodied the features of the Colby, Thompson and Hillery bills and had been carefully prepared after consultation with recognized authorities and after studying the provisions of other similar measures in force elsewhere. He believed that the House would give the new bill the utmost consideration and added that it was up to the Senate to fulfill its obligation to the people by using every endeavor to get a civil service bill on the statute books.

The Best Investment.
The Union Building and Loan Association, one of the most progressive in the State, makes this kind of an investment the safest and best for the wage-earner or any person of moderate means. Attention is called to the advertisement of the association in another part of the Daily Press announcing the opening of a new series on Monday, October 14. Through an error the name of "The Home Building and Loan Association" appeared in the Daily Press of yesterday, for "The Union Building and Loan Association." The office of the association is 146 Park avenue, and J. V. E. Vanderhoef is the secretary.

Punish "Black Hand."
Eighteen members of the New Castle, Pa., Black Hand gang, two of which were caught in this city, were arraigned in court yesterday and sentenced to terms in prison aggregating seventy-one years. They ranged separately from three to ten years, the two leaders who were bagged in Plainfield getting the maximum penalty. There are others awaiting trial who will probably get severe penalties as they are the ones who were implicated in the several murders committed by the gang.

Church Delegates Coming.
Rev. Walter Roe and Rev. Frank Wright, the latter an Indian, representing the Reformed church in the Indian work in Oklahoma and the Indian territory, will make a visit East soon and they have arranged to speak in Trinity Reformed church on Wednesday night, October 30. They will no doubt meet a large audience and in return they will speak encouragingly of the good work among the Indians.

Old Resident Returns.
William A. Preston, who twenty years ago resided on Seventh street, near Monroe avenue, and who has ever since been abroad, returned to this city on Wednesday to visit friends. Mr. Preston has been practicing law in Paris for several years and is arranging to remove his offices to New York. His father was at one time president of the New York Produce Exchange.

Surprised On Her Birthday.
Relatives and friends of Mrs. Sophie Stahl, of Grove street, to the number of twenty-five, informally "dropped in" on her last night, tendering a most enjoyable surprise. The occasion was the seventh birthday of Mrs. Stahl, and several of those who came brought gifts. At the conclusion of an enjoyable social evening, refreshments were served.

Matinee at Hope Fair.
The first "matinee" of Hope chapel's Industrial Fair was held this afternoon and was attended by a large number of school children. Special attractions were provided for their amusement, one of which was a Punch and Judy show. The attendance last night continued good and indications point to a record-breaking crowd tonight.

Men's Club Active.
The Men's Club of Grace Episcopal church will meet at the bowling alleys, the Casino, Monday night, and as there is considerable business of importance a full attendance is desired. At the November meeting the committee on entertainment is planning to give a series of living pictures.

Bright boy can get position as messenger by applying at Postal Telegraph office.
—A special big display of fruits and vegetables at Neuman Brothers' tomorrow. Make sure you see it as there will be lots of good things included.

WEDS NEW YORK LAWYER

PLANS FOR PLAYGROUND
the Bride of William Whitwell Robison.

MANY FRIENDS PRESENT

Rev. Dr. A. T. Atterbury, of New York, Officiates—Bride's Daughter of Alexander Johnson.

Miss Euphemia J. Johnson, daughter of Alexander Johnson, of Grant avenue, and William Whitwell Robison, of New Rochelle, N. Y., were married at 7 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's father in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends from New York, New Rochelle, Nyack, N. Y., and this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Anson T. Atterbury, pastor of the Park Presbyterian church, New York.

The bride was gowned in white satin, trimmed with real lace. She also wore a tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Lillian McCabe, of New York, as maid of honor, who wore a gown of pink messaline, trimmed with gold lace. She carried white chrysanthemums. Miss Dorothy Hall, of New York, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white silk and carried a basket of flowers. The best man was Charles D. Robison, of Nyack, N. Y., a brother of the groom, and the ushers were Clark M. Spoor, of New Rochelle, and Herbert M. Johnson, a brother of the bride.

An effective and pleasing part of the affair was a vocal duet by Miss Louise Hill, soprano, and Miss Ella Hopkins, contralto soloist at St. Bartholemew's church, New York. They sang a selection entitled "Love." Just previous to the playing of the wedding march by Prof. Suhr's orchestra. The bridal party remained in waiting until after the singing and then as the wedding march was being played entered the parlor, where the ceremony was performed. The ushers led the way, followed by the flower girl, maid of honor and the bride, accompanied by her father, who gave her in marriage. The groom and best man entered from another room, all meeting the officiating clergyman in the parlor.

Following the ceremony the couple received the congratulations of the guests and then supper was served. Later the couple left on a wedding journey, and upon their return they will reside on Grant avenue with the bride's father.

The home was attractively decorated for the wedding, there being a profusion of pink and white chrysanthemums. These were used with good effect in the parlor, the reception hall, while in the dining room the table was garnished with roses.

The bride received a wealth of wedding gifts, including silverware, cut-glass, furniture, linen and many other articles. She has been a resident of this city but a comparatively short time, moving here from the metropolis. The groom is engaged in the practice of law in New York. He was graduated from Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y., in the Class of 1900, and from the New York Law School, Class 1902.

Sutterlein Secures Bail.
After remaining in jail since his arrest Wednesday night, Augustus Sutterlein secured his release this morning. The $250 bail imposed by Judge Runyon was produced by his mother. The police yesterday secured the shawl that Sutterlein took from a trolley car but John O'Neill, who helped to get away, is among the missing. He evidently got wind of the fact that he was wanted and "dusted" out.

Lecture on Egypt.
Wednesday night, October 23, Dr. Charles E. Moldenke, the well known Egyptologist, will deliver his third lecture on Egypt for the benefit of St. Peter's Lutheran church on Grove street. This will conclude his discourses on the land of the Pharaohs. The lecture will be illustrated with many of his own photographs. The theme is: "In upper Egypt and Nubia, from Thebes to Wady Halfa."

Sunday-school Teachers' Meeting.
An adjourned teachers' meeting of the Sunday-school of the First Baptist church was held in the lecture room last night. Besides the routine business transacted, resolutions were drafted and adopted in recognition of the valuable services of Mrs. Edith Cairns Wightman as superintendent for eight years of the Junior Department and expressing regret at the severing of her connection with the school on account of removal to New York.

Miss Grace Johnson, of Duerr street, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Miller and niece, Miss Grace Miller, in Illinois, for the past two months, is expected home today.

LANDSCAPE ARTIST INSPECTS

Site for City's Proposed Park.

MRS. MALI AT WORK

President of Improvement Association Originates Idea—Mr. Brinley Favorably Impressed.

Plainfield's small boy will have a playground if the plans of the city authorities do not miscarry, for a scheme is now being considered to convert the city's unused grounds in the West End into a recreation park for the youngsters. The tract to be improved for this purpose includes the North-East corner of West Front street and Rock avenue, having a frontage of 400 feet and running back to the brook. It is opposite the poor farm and septic beds. The plans include the removal of the isolation hospital to another locality for it is proposed to improve the entire tract on the side of the street where it stands.

In company with Mayor C. J. Flisk, who is said to be in hearty favor of the idea, John R. Brinley, of New York, a member of the firm of Brinley & Holbrook, landscape artists, visited the site this morning. When seen by a Daily Press reporter later, Mr. Brinley was enthusiastic over the scheme. He said that it would make an ideal spot for such a park and its improvements could be brought about at a reasonable expense. Mr. Brinley's ability as a landscape artist is to be seen at the Bronx Botanical Gardens in New York, which he laid out.

Mrs. Pierre Mali, president of the Plainfield-North Plainfield Town Improvement Association, originated the idea and is its warmest advocate. She says that for a long time there has been great need of a place for boys to play and that the present condition of the proposed site is a disgrace to the city. If improved in the manner she suggests will present a pleasing sight to one who enters the city's limits from the west.

The proposition will be considered by the Common Council at an early date.

DEATH ENDS CAREER OF "UNCLE JOHN" TINGLEY

WELL KNOWN DUNELLEN RESIDENT DIED AT HIS HOME TODAY.

John T. Tingley, better known for a radius of twenty-five miles about Plainfield as "Uncle John," died today at his home in Dunellen. He had been ill for several months past and there were several times when it was thought he could live but a few hours. For the last few days he had been sinking slowly and the end came early this morning. Peritonitis is ascribed as the cause of death.

"Uncle John," as everybody, both young and old, called him, was born at Dunellen seventy years ago and was the son of Joseph Tingley, an old Piscataway settler. He learned the butcher's trade when a youth and at one time conducted a market on West Front street, in later years known as the Coriell place. Retiring from this line of business, he took up market gardening at the Dunellen homestead and continued it successfully until his health failed. Since then he had visited all the markets in Plainfield, Elizabeth, New Brunswick and other places at regular intervals, to file the saws and other implements. His coming was always awaited with pleasure as he kept up a continual flow of witticisms while at work and was never at a loss for a new story.

He leaves a wife and two sons, Ulysses G. Tingley, of Pittsburg, and John Tingley, of Bound Brook; also three daughters, Mrs. William Clawson, of South Plainfield; Mrs. Elmer GaNun, of North Plainfield; and Mrs. Jacob Byers, of South Bound Brook. Mr. Tingley and his wife celebrated their golden wedding a short time ago.

The funeral will be held at the late home, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Observed Sixteenth Anniversary.
The sixteenth anniversary of the founding of the chapter of Epworth League was celebrated at the Monro Avenue M. E. church, last night. The program included a number of selections by Prof. Martin A. Korff's orchestra and an address by the pastor, Rev. E. E. Roberson, who reviewed the history of the chapter in an interesting way. Refreshments were served after the program.

Ralph P. Bache, formerly of this city, but now manager for the Colorado Springs Light and Power Company, is visiting friends in town.

MONTGOMERY, SUYDAM AND RANDOLPH FOR COUNCILMEN-AT-LARGE, VOTE 15 TO 12

REGULARS TRIUMPH
New Idea Tries in Vain to Get Control—Organization Solid for Runyon and Lovell, Renominated.

An attempt on the part of the New Idea faction to overthrow the 15 to 12 majority of the regulars by the disqualification of two or three of their delegates proved unsuccessful, and the regulars' ticket was ratified by the party at the Republican City Convention held last night. The fight was over the candidates for councilmen-at-large, and the names of Francis L. Montgomery, of the Second ward; Charles Randolph, of the Third ward, and Harry B. Suydam, of the Fourth ward, as the choice of the regulars, appear on the ticket where the New Idea faction would have had R. Henry Depew, of the Second ward, and Duncan W. Taylor, of the Third ward. William N. Runyon, for city judge, William F. Arnold, for city treasurer, and Alexander N. Lovell, for member of the Board of Education, received the unanimous endorsement of both factions.

The attempt to secure the balance of power as conceived by the New Idea delegates was based on a legal technicality. It was alleged that in several cases where proxies appeared for the elected delegates among the regulars, the legal method of electing the proxy by vote of the other delegates of the district had not been employed, but that the original delegate had appointed his own proxy. But the last home of the New Idea faction to name councilman candidates was lost early in the convention, where Stephen H. Higham, chairman of the committee on credentials, reported that the credentials were correct and there were no contests. The endorsements throughout were unanimous by wards, the six delegates of the First and the nine of the Fourth, being the regulars, and the six from the Second and the six from the Third representing the New Idea faction.

Previous to the meeting there was a gathering of politicians of both factions at the Casino, the regulars confident of their power and the New Idealists planning their challenge of credentials under the leadership of C. W. V. Moy. City Chairman W. S. Anglemann called the meeting to order at shortly after 8 o'clock. Judge W. R. Codrington was elected to the chair, Frank P. Stone was made convention secretary and read the formal call. On the motion of Howard C. Tracy, the chairman appointed Stephen H. Higham, A. W. Matthews, Amos Andrews and C. W. Runyon as a committee to investigate the credentials of the delegates, and Mr. Tracy, Dr. H. H. Lowrie, Alvah Carey, David B. Martin and John Cary as a committee to frame rules for conducting the convention. Upon the report of these committees, Judge Codrington was elected permanent chairman, Clarence Goss and Boardman Tyler appointed to assist the secretary and the making of the ticket formally begun.

According to the committee's rule that the nominations be by wards, Amos Andrews, as chairman of the first district, First ward, nominated Charles Randolph and Francis L. Montgomery as candidates for Council and the choice was endorsed by the entire ward. Chairman Tracy, of the first district, Second ward nominated R. Henry Depew, the second district endorsing him. In a somewhat lengthy speech, in which he said he favored home rule in the choice of a candidate by the voters in the ward from which the nomination was made, George W. V. Moy, of the first district, Third ward, nominated Duncan W. Taylor, in opposition to Mr. Randolph, from the same ward. Stephen Higham seconded the nomination in behalf of the second district. Chairman A. W. Matthews of the first district, Fourth ward, nominated Harry B. Suydam as councilman candidate, and the other districts had no nominations. When the voting was done by calling the roll by wards, the chairman of the First and Fourth wards together cast their fifteen votes for Messrs. Randolph, Montgomery and Suydam, while the Second and Fourth wards supported Messrs. Taylor and Depew with their twelve votes.

In the naming of a candidate for City Treasurer, Amos Andrews announced when called on for a nomination that the First ward would give way to the Second ward. Mr. Tracy then nominated William F. Arnold, whose candidacy was endorsed by the entire convention and for whom the chairman cast a formal ballot of endorsement. In the nomination for city judge, the regulars again "gave way" and Mr. Tracy for

Those Splendid Watson-Made Light Overcoats Are Reduced

A sale of Watson-made Lightweight Overcoats right in the middle of the season. It's almost unbelievable, yet the Weather Gods have made it necessary.

This is the story: We have by far too many of these lightweight overcoats on hand, and, as it is against the policy of the Watson store to hold any over, it becomes necessary to name these prices. Here are two sample values:

$20 Overcoats

$15.00

Materials are Oxford, Vicunas and Brown Mixed Cheviots, in mostly three-quarter lengths, some silk lined, the perfect collar and lapels easily place this in the $30 custom-tailored class.

$15 Overcoats

$12.00

The medium length models are numerous, and the Watson tailors gave full expression to the styles. The patterns are exclusive in unfinished worsteds and cheviots.

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The complaint of Mr. Pyatt against Jessie Terrill, George Pace, Harry Hamlin, Thomas Duffey and Harry Soffield for malicious mischief during a masquerade given at Mr. Pyatt's home, was heard in Justice Smith's court last evening. Isaac Runyon, of Plainfield, was counsel for the boys while Mr. Pyatt defended himself. After hearing both sides, it was decided that the evidence was not strong enough for conviction and the case was set aside, with only good advice, and a severe reprimand from the Judge.

The candidates of the Republican party met Hon. Judge Fort, candidate for Governor at R. B. Manning's store, and gave him a hearty welcome, and a warm reception. He arrived there five minutes earlier than scheduled and many were disappointed upon arriving too late to find he had been and gone.

There will be an entertainment in Washington Hall of moving pictures this afternoon and evening. Admission, adults 25 cents; children 15 cents.

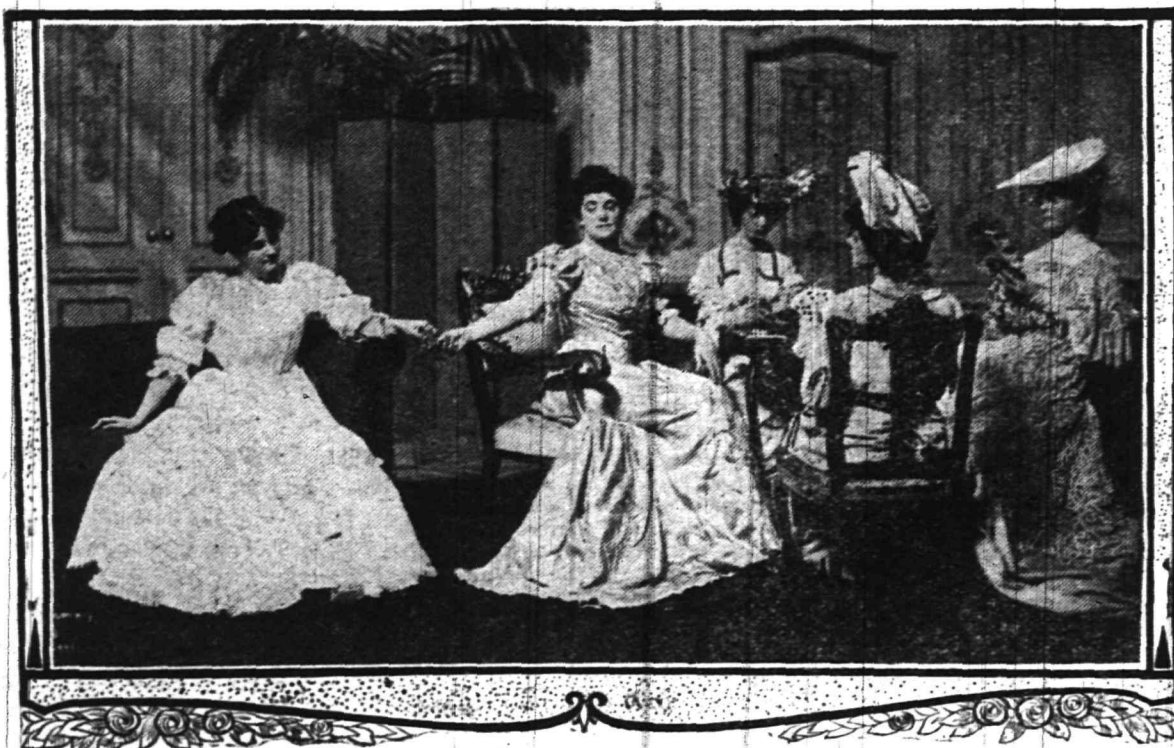

Mrs. Oscar Thorne is recovering from a severe attack of lumbago.
Mrs. W. E. Smith spent yesterday in Newark shopping.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The local ball season closes tomorrow afternoon, when the home team play the Rahway Giants on the local diamond. Manager Frenz will present the same lineup that has represented the home team in the Inter-City League. Game will be called promptly at 3.30.

The Public Library room looks very neat with the new furnishings, Librarian William Van Valkenburg has made several changes in the arrangement, the larger room being used exclusively as a reading room, the books being in a room entirely by themselves.

Tomorrow marks the closing day of Elizabeth "Old Home Week." Weather permitting an automobile parade will be held. Tonight is the Mardi Gras, one of the principle events scheduled for the week.

H. C. Smith, who has been a member of the Orange Field Club football team for a number of years, is playing with the Dunellen eleven this season.

Several of the local firemen attended the Fireman's Parade held at Somerville yesterday.

Rev. T. Moore-Smith leads the weekly prayer-meeting tonight at the Baptist church.

The Misses Jahns, of Park avenue, have been entertaining out of town friends.

James Corona is visiting friends in New York for a week.

DUNELLEN.

Judge Fort did not need to come to Dunellen to get votes. The Dunellenites are solid for the Republican candidate for governor and turned out in force to meet him yesterday morning. The members of the automobile party were introduced to the members of the crowds gathered at the postoffice corner by Henry S. Garretson and Constable Robert Pierce, of New Market. Mr. Fort was cordial to all, heartily greeting all those introduced to him. He only stayed ten minutes, but when the auto whisked away there were plenty of Fort buttons adorning coat lapels and a marked increase in Fort enthusiasm, which is destined to last till voting time.

Work on the new front to be built to the postoffice block was begun yesterday morning. Rimmer, Apgar and Cruzen being the contractors. A. A. Gray, the owner, will have the cornice of the building taken off, the first floor exterior on the North avenue side entirely made new, and five plate glass windows, six by eight feet, installed, making a "plate glass front" similar to the appearance of the bank. The postoffice is to have three windows, two in front and one on the side, and two windows will be used in the adjoining store. The improvements are to cost $800 and, with a force of seven men at work, should be completed in two weeks.

COPPERHEAD SNAKES

GIVE HUNTER HARD FIGHT

MADE REPEATED ATTEMPTS TO BITE HIM BEFORE THEY WERE KILLED.

Beating through the underbrush of a heavy woods in the Passaic Valley, yesterday, Robert Rogers, the well known Berkeley Heights baseball enthusiast, encountered a hair-raising experience with two copperhead snakes. Despite the lateness of the season, the reptiles were unusually active and it was only after a hard fight that both were dispatched.

Rogers was in search of woodcock when he suddenly came upon the snakes and one coiled itself about his right leg before he fully realized their proximity. Knowing the deadliness of their bite, he was very much frightened but kept his presence of mind and sought to prevent it from striking him while he released its grip. The other remained on the ground, darting at him again and again but failing to sting him. After leaping about for several minutes, the huntsman succeeded in getting the reptile uncoiled from his person and blew its head off with a shot from his gun. The other one suffered a similar fate in short order.

Rogers has had many a fight with snakes but he declares yesterday's battle to be the worst of all. The experience so unnerved him that he gave up the hunting trip and returned to his home. The copperheads were each about five feet in length.

PERSONAL.

James H. Huntington, of Pearl street, is detained at home with heart trouble.

Miss Carolyn Combs, of Linden avenue, has gone to York, Pa., to visit friends for the rest of the month.

Miss Julia G. Shinn, who after seven years' successful service as a missionary in Burma, is temporarily acting as corresponding secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Board at Boston and who addressed the all-day missionary meeting in the First Baptist church today, was the guest of Mrs. George H. Bachelor, of West Seventh street.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

Brokaw's creamery on East Front street is the place to get strictly fresh milk, cream, butter and eggs at popular prices.

John Winzenried, of Lee place, is a reliable man to engage to do your carting and trucking of all kinds. His charges are all right.

A. H. Elander, the sanitary plumber of Watchung avenue, is ready to do any kind of work in his line. His charges are reasonable.

If you have not ordered your winter supply of coal yet do so at once and give the order to Bolce, Runyon & Co., of Park avenue. The coal is the best and prices the lowest.

In preparing for the winter take a look at the fine line of goods at "The White Store," on West Front street. Every department is filled with seasonable goods from ready-to-wear dresses to the most stylish millinery. It will be to your advantage financially to trade at this store.

Will Open Park Avenue Monday.

The brickmen began yesterday afternoon the work of cementing the brick pavement on Park avenue, and it is expected that this will be finished today. After that a half-inch of sand will be thrown over the surface. It is the intention of City Engineer Gavett to throw the avenue open for general traffic on Monday, unless rain should interfere. Contractor Meeker resumed the work of laying the concrete foundation on Park avenue, this morning, and he hopes to complete this in time for the brickmen to go right on without much delay.

An Unfortunate Interruption.

"And what happened?"
"A tire blew up, and then he couldn't think of anything else."

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

DIAMOND DUST.

The windup of the local season will occur tomorrow at Crescent Oval, when the Clinton Avenues will play a double-header. The first game will be called at 2 o'clock with Scotch Plains and the second at 4 o'clock with the Y. M. C. A.

Physical Director Listman, of the Y. M. C. A., expects to receive the Inter-City Amateur League pennant in a few days and arrangements will be made to present it to the champions, the Clinton Avenues. It is regretted that plans could not have been made to have all the teams of the league in attendance when the pennant is presented, but this seems impossible.

FOOTBALL.

Coach Hutchins, of the Wisconsin eleven, has devised a play in which the whole line takes part, called the pinwheel. The hope is that it won't fizzle out.

The game scheduled for today between P. H. S. and N. P. H. S. has been called off by the borough eleven. The players were not able to get ready for the contest, but hope to meet the Plainfield eleven in the near future.

The Orange Field Club is getting ready for an active season and a strong schedule is being prepared, which includes some of the strongest teams in the State.

The next two games to be played by the Navy are of a distinctly different nature from the two that have been played and will go much further toward establishing the Navy's strength. Vanderbilt is to be played tomorrow and Harvard the following Saturday. In consequence, the practice takes on additional zest and seriousness. The Navy has been through the fire of hard games with Princeton, one of them being a victory over Nassau, and therefore won't be at all overawed by the Cambridge eleven. To find a quarterback was one of the early season problems at Annapolis, but the showing of Lange in that position makes the powers that be very hopeful that the question of finding a worthy successor to Norton has been answered. The Navy's chief rival, West Point, has had no brilliant quarterback since Daly's day, but has a steady, heady player in Mountford, and one who has the advantage of being a seasoned campaigner.

GOLF.

Somewhat out of the ordinary is an invitation tournament for women golfers of the Metropolitan Golf Association district. It will be held over the course of the Essex County Country Club at West Orange, where Mrs. Manfee beat Mrs. Stout for the metropolitan championship some years ago. All entries for the coming tournament should be sent to Mrs. E. F. Sanford, 12 West Seventy-second street, Manhattan. The play will be on October 15, 16, 17 and 18, with a varied programme to bring forward golfers of the scratch or higher handicaps.

Apropos of the rules, revisions and the British fear of American innovations, Field treats at some length in an editorial on the fundamental differences between the golfers of the two lands. We are iconoclasts, it would seem, and too much given to analysis. Even to play over all the best holes and hazards now being arranged by C. B. Macdonald will be in the minds of the British conservatives, an instance of snatching a fearful joy. The conclusions of the essay are:

"Britons are less anxious to start acute problems and to bustle restlessly in search of unsatisfying solutions. We play the game much in the same condition that our forefathers handed it on to us, and out of it we contrive to extract a vast deal of enjoyment for the body and repose for the spirit. British golfers have not yet been educated to drag to the front the extracting analytical side of athletics and to study every phase of the game as if it ought to be made the absorbing business of a life's serious study. We are fonder of it as a relaxation in the open air and the sunshine, as an inspiring foil to the care and humdrum sorrows of the ordinary working day. But those who have watched the many American golfers who have been lately in our midst and welcomed with cordiality on all our links could not fail to be struck by the settled methods of their play according to a system of training carefully thought out and scrupulously applied in all its details. The majority of them played the game really well and with even more than British ardor, but withal there seemed to be an absence of that insouciance which is so marked a feature of the British holiday golfer when he finds himself at the seaside.

The American player always seems to be thinking of a catchword in the chain of his previous study before he plays the next shot, to be always mentally on guard lest he has forgotten some trifling detail which shall throw the whole of his system out of gear. The British player, on the other hand, is more devil-me-care more intent upon the fun to be got

A Few Advantages of the Square Pot

Patented

Found only in Boynton Furnaces

Ashes can't clog at sides and hinder heat radiation. Cinders can't collect to obstruct combustion.

No raking required, as the revolving grate-bars have a uniform motion, cleaning as well at the corners as in the middle.

Burns less fuel for every degree of heat than any other form of fire-pot.

Has large, deep, square ash pit.

In none other but Boynton Furnaces will you find this wonderful Square Fire Pot—in none other do you get these great advantages.

Every Boynton Furnace is scientifically constructed of the finest materials; simple in design, light and strong at every joint—practically trouble proof.

The one perfect solution of the heating problem is to get a Boynton Square Pot Furnace. Sold by all steam fitters, plumbers and tinmiths.

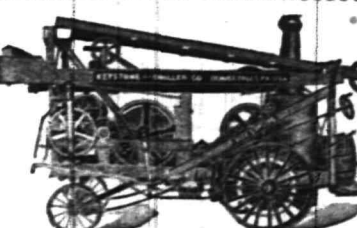

There are BOYNTON heating plants of all kinds. Ask about our Round or Sectional Boilers for steam or hot water. Also ranges.

out of the game at the moment, less careful of his style, more anxious to enjoy the passing benefits of the relaxation. On the one side elaborate care to apply principles carefully thought out beforehand; on the other side, a certain amount of careless, buoyant recklessness, which is joyfully expressed as long as the ball is fairly well hit. That seems to mark the distinction between American and British golf.

PERSONAL.

Burton P. Hall, of Netherwood has returned from a couple of weeks' vacation from business.

Miss Laura Woodbury, of Lynn, Mass., who has been the guest of friends here, has returned home.

Mrs. George Dufford, of West Front street, who has been visiting relatives at Middle Valley, has returned home.

Charles W. Eoff, Jr., of Crescent avenue, and George Egel, of the borough, have returned from a trip in the Catskills.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Chambliss, of Central avenue, are entertaining their daughter and granddaughter from the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cahoon are stopping at Truell Hall for the present. Later they expect to occupy a new home which Mr. Cahoon contemplates building.

George Vanderhoff, of West Front street, who has been detained at home some time with blood poisoning of the right hand, has sufficiently recovered to return to business.

Bogart Conkili, who suffered a painful injury to his nose in the game of baseball between the Elks of Plainfield and Somerville, on Saturday, is able to be out again and has returned to business.

Women's Dress and Women's Homes

On a morning walk an Englishwoman said to the writer in one of our western cities especially given over to the national passion for dress: "Any countrywoman of mine dressed as that woman is, or that, would be in her carriage. She would return to a substantial home, the door would be opened by a man in livery, every item of her environment would match the elegance of those furs, that frightfully expensive hat, that very sart broadcloth walking suit, whereas the chances are you see I've been keeping my eyes open) that she came in a street car and will go home in one. She lives either in tiny lodgings—I beg your pardon, flat—and will open her front door with a pass key, or else she lives in one of the suburban towns in a very trumpery sort of little house which does not in the least match those furs or that hat. And a slovenly 'slavey' attends the door when the rings for admittance." "Or, what is much more likely, her daughter or her mother," added the American.—Anna A. Rogers in Atlantic.

Hit Him With the Text.

"On a visit to Scotland I went to the old United Presbyterian kirk at Savoch," said a clergyman, "and I heard a good story about a former minister. His name was the Rev. David Caw, and he was very diminutive, standing only about five feet two inches. He led to the altar a strapping, handsome lass some five or six inches taller than he, and her name was Grace Wilson.

"The Sunday after the wedding he got a neighboring minister to preach for him, so that he could sit with his bride on the first Sunday. The minister was a good deal of a wag, so Mr. Caw made him promise faithfully that he would not allude in his sermon to himself, his bride or the fact of the marriage. So he promised that in his sermon he would make no allusion of that kind whatever, but Mr. Caw nearly sank through the floor when the text was given out—Ephesians III, 8, 'Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this Grace given.'

Quite a Difference.

"I am afraid you are not so strong as you used to be, John," said a fond wife to her husband. "I think it is about time you were getting some insurance on your life."

"Insurance on my life! What are you talking about? I am as healthy as ever I was. Insurance, indeed!" "Well, dear, I only mentioned it, you know, out of respect to yourself. I thought you were failing."

"And what in the world put it in your head that I am failing? Me failing? Why, I am as strong as a horse and can run up these flights of stairs without taking a breath." "Well, that may be so, but I am afraid you are deceiving yourself." "Deceiving myself! Goodness gracious, woman, what do you mean?" "Don't be so impatient. What makes me think you are failing is this: When you were courting me you could hold me on your knee for three hours; now you cannot hold the baby on your lap three minutes." —Pearson's.

The Two Views.

"Say, pa, what's the difference between an optimist and a pessimist?" "An optimist, Johnnie, thinks the times are ripe; a pessimist thinks they are rotten."—Harper's Week.

"How are the meals at your hotel?"

"Pretty good."

"That means pretty bad, eh?"—Exchange.

BOROUGH SEWERS ARE
AGAIN BEING AGITATEDSPECIAL COMMITTEE CIRCULATING PETITION AMONG PROPERTY OWNERS.

Borough Tax Collector George F. Brown, as member of the North Plainfield committee to bring the matter of sewerage to the borough, has completed a list of tax payers of the borough, together with the location of their property and the amount of their assessment as a step toward the holding of a special election to vote on the question of installing a sewerage system in the borough. In order to legally have such an election to vote on the question, it is necessary for the owners of more than half of the assessed value of borough property to sign the petition now in the tax collector's office, and if a sufficient number of property owners sign, the committee will appeal to the borough council for a day to be set aside to vote on the question.

Certain members of the sewer committee appointed after the dissolution of the committee of fifty, are agitating the matter of sewerage the borough; and in order to bring the matter to a head, its members are circulating copies of the petition among the property owners across the brook. The committee consists of Ex-Councilman Charles A. Lee, William G. Debele, George F. Brown, A. E. Kenney and J. V. E. Vanderhoef. Several copies of the list have been made, and the committee will shortly hold a meeting at which time each member will take upon himself the work of securing a certain number of the largest property owners for the purpose of securing their signatures to the petition for special election. In this way the work will be completed most quickly and it is possible that the election will be held November 5.

FRANKLIN COUNCIL'S
20TH ANNIVERSARYJR. O. U. A. M. MEMBERS HAVE A BIG TIME.

Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., celebrated its twentieth anniversary in Junior Hall, last night, in an informal way. There were guests from Plainfield, Somerset and Benevolent Councils, Jr. O. U. A. M., who enjoyed a program presented by a trio of professionals from New York. The numbers included impersonations and selections on all kinds of musical instruments.

A feature of the evening was a short patriotic address by Rev. E. E. Roberson, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church. He congratulated Franklin Council for its twenty years of success in promoting the cardinal principles of the order. After the program refreshments were served under the direction of the good and welfare committee of which Roy DeCamp is the chairman.

Franklin Council was instituted on October 6, 1887 with a charter membership of nearly fifty. Today the membership is 357 and is constantly increasing. One new member was elected last night and several propositions will be received at the next meeting. The council has been very successful financially and otherwise and is today the oldest among the councils of that order in the city.

REPUBLICANS NOMINATE

The New Idea faction named Judge William N. Runyon for re-election. The nomination was formally voted on by wards, receiving unanimous endorsement. Leander N. Lovell was nominated as New Idea candidate for member of the Board of Education by William Taylor. The regulars named no candidate and the nomination was ratified by formal vote.

Previous to adjournment, Judge Codington appointed Amos Andrews, Howard Tracy, Stephen Higham and C. W. Runyon as a committee to fill vacancies which might occur before election. This was on motion of Mr. Andrews that one member of the committee be chosen from each ward.

In one of his letters, Mr. Ruttmann explains his silence. It is a personal letter to a Princeton College man who was a classmate with him in the Columbia School of Mines. Briefly, when he had penetrated the wildernesses of Mexico and found what he sought he kept his own counsel until he had made absolutely sure that his efforts had been successful. He has gone so far with the tin project now that the pig metal will soon be in the market for sale, "just," as he remarks, "as a farmer would offer his products." There will be no stock company exploitations and no notoriety or publicity if Mr. Ruttmann can avoid it.

In this letter he says that as there is no longer any reason for keeping the secret of his discovery he presumes it will become public and authorizes the recipient of the letter to make public the statement that it will be useless for others to invade the region in which he has prospected, as he has held the secret until he could arrange so there would be no competitors digging into his veins or starting litigation or doing other things that have at times made mining a source of trouble in Montana and other mining States.

Mexican miners get $1 a day, or 50 cents American money, which will hardly tempt residents of the United States. There is practically nothing else in the Durango wilderness for Americans, who are good at anything, and he feels that this fact ought to be made prominent in anything that may be published about his discovery.

This is an extract from one of the new tin millionaire's letters:

"My long tour of engineering duty does not seem to have been without result. As you know, I came to Mexico to find gold and silver, but I have discovered something quite as good in a way. Outside of Alaska, which is only desecrated part of the year, there is no tin produced in the United States. One of the mineral properties which I have discovered yields an assay from 20 to 40 per cent. metallic tin, while the average ore from Cornwall is only 1 per cent. and that is one of the chief sources of supply for the American tin plate industry. Some pieces of ore have been assayed as high as 60 per cent., but the lowest is so much higher than other mines produce than this one is undoubtedly a bonanza.

"It may interest you to know that the ore occurs as cassiterite, and the hitherto rare mineral durangite is quite plentiful in the ore. Free gold and silver are found in the ore, which is taken from granitoid rock composed chiefly of quartz and a pink-colored felspar. Topaz also is found associated with the ore, a significant fact. At the location of this mine the igneous overflow has been eroded, laying bare the outcrop of the granite.

"On either side of this property the trachyte and diorite rock rises in precipitous cliffs for hundreds of feet, showing the depth to which the granite is covered at this point, or, to make it plainer to you, except for the denudation of the overlying igneous rock at this point this exceptional deposit might have remained undiscovered for centuries to come."

A Big Attraction.
Mortimer M. Theis' newest musical comedy, "The Two Islands," which holds the boards at the New Plainfield theatre tonight, is one of the best attractions booked for the present month. The principals have been selected from among Broadway's best known singers and dancers and the chorus is said to be a "Blue Ribbon bunch." The production is handsomely staged and costumed and is replete with comedy and good music.

"Squire Hand Acts As Cop."
William Jerolomon, a well known borough resident, was arraigned before Judge Runyon, this morning, charged by Justice Hezekiah Hand with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The justice claimed that the defendant had made a nuisance of himself on the street and he had steered him to police headquarters. Sentence was suspended with a lecture.

BISHOPS' LAW MUST STAY SAYS NOMINEE

ASSEMBLYMAN CANDIDATE WANTS NO EXCISE CHANGE.

It has remained for Adolph Steengrafe, Jr., of South Plainfield, to become the first candidate of the Republican party in the present campaign to make an unequivocal declaration on the excise situation. Mr. Steengrafe is a candidate for Assembly in Middlesex county and he declares that he wants the people to know just where he stands on the questions that will confront the next Legislature.

"You just put it in as big type as you want that if elected I will never vote to make any change in the Bishops' law as it is on the statute books today. It's there and it's going to stay there if it depends on my vote. I stand firmly on each and every plank in the Republican platform and I won't beat around the bush. I'll not only stand by them but will fight for their fulfillment. Furthermore, I'll uphold Mr. Fort in everything he does or wants to do."

Installed As Pastor.
Rev. R. A. Mark, who was admitted to the ministry by the Elizabeth Presbytery last week, was installed as pastor of the Woodbridge Presbyterian church, last night. Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, of this city, acted as moderator. Rev. Mr. Mark was the candidate whom was called upon to preach a sermon for his admission was decided upon and gave an excellent discourse.

PLAINFIELD LIBRARY NOTES

Best books of 1905, taken from an annotated list of 250 books published in 1905; selected by the Book Board of the New York State Library and recommended to the Public Libraries of the State. Part One.

Ringwalt, R. C.—Briefs on public questions.

States 25 timely social, political, and economic questions, defining their issues and providing affirmative and negative briefs and references.

Lodge, Sir O. J.—Life and matter. Brief work in controversial form, intended to provide an antidote against the speculative and destructive portion of Haeckel's materialistic philosophy and to confute "the idea that the specific guiding power which we call 'life' is one of the forms of material energy."

Gladden, W.—New Idolatry. Papers protesting against present commercial spirit in government, education and religion, and discussing ethics of money getting and spending.

James, G. W.—In and out of the old missions of California.

Treats fully history, architecture, interior decoration and relics of the 21 Franciscan missions, with a general discussion of their founding and work with Indians. One hundred and forty-two excellent photographic illustrations.

Sociology.

Wells, H. G.—Modern Utopia.

Portrays an improved and progressive world state, with a common language, on a planet the physical counterpart of this. The form is fiction, but the social theme is worked out along the lines of modern scientific and philosophic thought.

Adams and Sumner.—Pabor problems.

Although a textbook, much new material on profit sharing and co-operation is presented. To those who would know the facts and catch the spirit of the labor movement, this book is heartily recommended.

Kelley, F.—Some ethical gains through legislation.

Reviews conditions as to child labor, the sweating system and relations of women to the franchise, with special reference to recent legislation and judicial decisions, and formulates improvements immediately necessary. Author a member of Illinois bar, secretary of National Consumers League and pioneer settlement worker.

Child Labor.—(Annals of the Amer. Acad. of Pol. and Soc. Sci.) Papers by Florence Kelley, Jane Addams, J. G. Brooks, Samuel Compers and nine other social workers, discussing physiological and psychological effects, attitude of organized labor, parental responsibility, the ideal law, labor in coal mines, southern cotton mills and glass factories.

Richardson, D.—Long day. Absorbing record of the experiences of a young country girl without money, friends of training, in her struggle to make a living in New York factories and workshops.

Coman, K.—Industrial history of the United States.

Traces economic evolution from question of land tenure in colonial times to present day industrial problems. Maps, charts, marginal references and bibliography.

Jernigan, T. R.—China in law and commerce.

Probably the best practical volume for all who have practical relations or business with the Chinese.

Education.

Javal, E.—On becoming blind. By a French physician who became blind at 61. Discusses occupations, personal hygiene, walking, use of tandem bicycle, typewriter, watch, reading and writing Braille, etc.

Washington, B. T., ed.—Tuskegee and its people.

Chapters on school by school officials and 17 autobiographic sketches by graduates in as many callings.

Sage, E. and C.—Occupations for little fingers.

Raffia, coarse sewing, paper cutting, clay modeling, weaving, beadwork, etc. Illustrations show the stages of the work.

Natural Science.

Duncan, R. K.—New knowledge. First popular exposition of the new (1905) scientific discoveries, including simple explanations of the theories concerning gaseousness, radioactivity, atomic disintegration, inorganic evolution, etc.

Harwood, W. S.—New creations in plant life.

Of much popular interest for its descriptions, and photographs illustrating results of plant breeding, but sharply condemned by authorities in horticulture and agriculture for unscientific, extravagant and misleading statements concerning Mr. Burbank's achievements.

Long, W. J.—Northern trails.

Tales of unfamiliar animals of Labrador and Newfoundland, marked by high appreciation of animal intelligence and pervasive consciousness of the beauty and mystery of mountain, river and plain.

Mayer, A. G.—Seashore life.

Non-technical descriptions by a scientific authority of sponges, jellyfish, mollusks, etc., of Atlantic coast. One hundred and nineteen remarkably good halftones, ill. from photographs of specimens.

Peckham, G. W. and E. G.—Wasps social and solitary.

Describes instincts, degrees of sensitiveness to color and sound, habits of nest building, housekeep-

Fall Suits and Overcoats

Of Striking Characteristics

Our success in the designing and making of distinctive apparel for men and young men has not come by mere chance. It's the outcome of careful study and untiring effort.

Our snappy models with refined individuality command the admiration of the younger element, while our garments of modest dignity appeal to the older and more conservative men.

In both Suits and Overcoats the Fall fabrics show a great variety of patterns—browns, grays, blues and greens—ranging from very quiet and staple effects to extreme designs.

"Londoncut" Suits, $15 to $25. Sack Suits, $12 to $30.

Fall Overcoats, $12 to $35.

$5, $6 and $7 Sample Shoes, $3.85

For Men and Women.

About 785 pairs of Salesmen's Fall Samples made to retail at $5, $6 and $7. All leathers and a style to please most every taste. The Women's are made over M. & B. Tru-Tred lasts.

Useful Arts.

Call, A. P.—Freedom of life. Miss Call's third book of little sermons preaching the "gospel of relaxation" to the nervously exhausted.

Bashore, H. B.—Sanitation of a country house.

Popular handbook applying elementary principles of sanitation to location, surroundings, water supply and waste disposal of country homes, with a chapter on the summer camp. Author, Inspector for State Board of Health of Pennsylvania.

Saint Maur, Mrs. K. V.—A self-supporting home.

Enthusiastic and extremely optimistic account of author's 10 years' experience in running a 12 acre farm. Groups work and suggestions chronologically by months and discusses the raising of poultry and pheasants, breeding of pet cats and rabbits, care of bees, cows, gardens and orchards. Illustrated from photographs.

Fine Arts.

Mach, E. R. O. von.—Handbook of Greek and Roman sculpture.

Not a handbook in the ordinary sense, but a descriptive catalogue of 500 well chosen plates and 45 text illustrations. Description and discussion of each work preceded by a note giving the material, place, date and discovery if known, museum or collection where preserved and some bibliographic information. Index and bibliography.

Caffin, C. H.—How to study pictures.

Beginning with Cimabue, the author selects from each period in the history of art two painters of different schools and reproduces one picture by each for comparative study. Both individual genius and the continuity of artistic tradition are suggestively treated. Well within grasp of beginners in art study.

Cox, Kenyon.—Old masters and new.

Twenty-two essays in art criticism, ranging from Perugino to William Blake and present day painters and sculptures.

Haslack, P. N., ed.—Book of photography.

Useful, up-to-date book, written from the standpoint of actual experience. A. L. A. Booklist.

His Threat to a Conductor.

Some time ago a man at Ypsilanti, Mich., became crazed on the subject of hypnotism and was sent on a Michigan Central train to an asylum. When the conductor asked for tickets the crazy man began telling of his hypnotic powers.

"I'll hypnotize you," he said.

"Fire away," replied the conductor.

The man made several passes before the conductor's face.

"Now you are hypnotized," he said.

The conductor looked the part as best he could.

"You're a conductor," the hypnotist said.

"That's right," replied his victim.

"You're a good conductor," went on the hypnotist.

"Right again," said the conductor.

"You don't smoke, drink or swear at passengers. You are honest. You turn in all tickets and money you collect from passengers. In fact, you do not steal a cent."

"That's right," assented the conductor.

The hypnotist eyed him a moment, then said:

"What an awful fix you'd be in if I left you in this condition!"—Kansas City Star.

A Corporal's Lesson.

During the Revolutionary war the captain of a little band of soldiers was giving orders about a heavy beam that they were endeavoring to raise to the top of some military works which they were repairing. The weight was almost beyond their power, and the voice of the superintendent was often heard shouting at them. An officer not in military costume was passing and asked the superintendent why he did not render a little aid. The latter, astonished, turned around, with the pomp of an emperor, and said, "Sir, I am a corporal!"

"You are, are you? I ask your pardon, Mr. Corporal," and, taking off his hat, he bowed, saying, "I was not aware of that."

Upon this he dismounted and pulled until great drops of perspiration stood on his forehead. When the beam was raised, turning to the little great man, he said, "Mr. Corporal, when you have another such job and not enough men send for your commander in chief and I will gladly come and help you a second time."

The little corporal was thunderstruck. It was Washington who thus addressed him.

Lights Out!

An irascible sergeant, going his nightly round of the barracks in order to make sure that all lights had been extinguished, noticed that a window was illuminated. He roused the occupants of the room. "Put out that light," he ordered, "and be quick about it!"

"But it's moonlight," explained a private.

"I don't care what it is," roared the sergeant; "put it out!"—London Graphic.

Mother and Son.

Mother—Now, you sit down in that chair and be good for ten minutes. Son—I don't want to. Pa'll be home in ten minutes, and I'll have to be good anyway.—Judge.

4 Wholesale Clothiers'

Entire Stocks to be Sold by Us at About  $\frac{1}{2}$  Manufacturers' Cost.
THEY HAD TO RAISE CASH AND CAME TO US.

Although wholesale clothiers have been doing an immense business during the past three months and have shipped Fall and Winter Merchandise East, West and South, some of them find themselves in a "Tight Place," Pushed for Ready Cash. They have received very scant remittances up to now, besides they couldn't raise money on account of the tight money market. Their wealth is on their books—ready cash is what they require. In their trouble they came to us, knowing our capacity to handle large stocks for spot cash if the merchandise was attractive in price.

We offered them less than half the usual manufacturers' prices, and they refused positively to accept our ridiculously low offer until last Monday, when a conference of all four makers was held at our Twenty-third street store, New York, and

Costly Monotony in Dress.

Our clothes are all alike, and this monotony has led to unlimited extravagance. What has not been done to make the eternal pinafore frock look original? New elaborations are invented daily, each one more expensive than the last, but nobody is deceived. It is still the old pinafore, only a little madder, a little dearer every day.—London Graphic.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

Mortimer M. Thiese's new musical comedy, "The Two Islands," will be presented at the New Plainfield theatre tonight. The play will go direct from this city to the Circle theatre New York, for a long run.

Laughter, smiles, tears, show-girls, comedians, tuneful, musical, dramatic situations, elaborate costuming and scenic display, are all promised local theatre-goers when Broadway's favorite comic opera star, Grace Cameron, makes her appearance in C. H. Kerr's latest, biggest and best success, "Little Dollie Dimples," which is now in its second year of great success, at the New Plainfield theatre tomorrow afternoon and night. This piece cannot be termed a "musical comedy," nor is it hardly after the style of the old-fashioned comic opera, but is classed more in the line of a musical drama. Miss Cameron whose voice is that of the lyric or coloratura as well as a dramatic soprano, will be heard to great advantage in the various solos and finales, which are far better, musically speaking, than the average musical comedy or comic opera affords.

Miss Grace Cameron, at New Plainfield Theatre, Saturday Afternoon and Night, Oct. 12.

If you enjoy a really dainty, tuneful and artistic musical production, "Woodland," which Henry W. Savage will present at the New Plainfield theatre next Tuesday night, will surely please you. This delightful musical play, which has been termed a "fantasy of the forest," is by Frank Pixley and Gustav Ruders, the authors of "The Prince of Pilsen" and "Kind Dodo," is original in them and has not a dull or tiresome moment. A strikingly beautiful singing chorus and a large and well balanced orchestra lend to the appeal of this beautiful musical play.

Laura Burt and Henry Stanford, for several years playing leading business for the late Sir Henry Irving, have been engaged to co-star in the London and New York success, "The Walls of Jericho," which will be at the New Plainfield theatre next Thursday night. Alfred Sutro, the author of "The Walls of Jericho," before its production, had for many years been struggling to gain recognition as a dramatic author. Play after play was ejected until he hit upon the idea of presenting to the British public a picture of the doings of the social world, which he called, "The Walls of Jericho." From the first this play met with great favor and enjoyed popularity for over two years at the British capital. Later it was brought to America and presented in New York, where its success was just as emphatic and secure.

Mr. Alex. Newman, local manager for King's, the clothiers, corner Market and Halsey streets, Newark, has again shown his aggressiveness and business acumen, he having induced his firm to inaugurate one of the greatest clothing sales ever heralded in or about Newark. Four reputable clothing manufacturers, whose names for various reasons are withheld, but whose merchandise will readily be recognized by good dressers, needed ready money and came to King to dispose of their stocks for a cash consideration. The deal was gigantic but was an opportunity not to be cast aside. King purchased the combined stocks at 40 cents on the dollar. Every garment is new and up to date and would easily bring regular prices. Mr. Newman at once saw the possibilities presented, and urged the sale that commences Saturday morning, October 12, at 9 a. m., at their Market and Halsey street store, Newark. The entire stocks will be sold at a close margin giving their patrons clothing at half the actual cost of manufacturing. The merchandise comprises all the new fall suits and overcoats for men, young men and children. It will certainly pay you to visit King before purchasing your winter outfit. Sale will start Saturday, October 12, at 9 a. m.

MANAGER COUNIHAN'S NEW THEATRE OPENED

With every seat in the house occupied and standing room at a premium, Manager William J. Counihan's New Majestic theatre at Perth Amboy was opened last night. The Low Fields' show "About Town," which appeared here Wednesday night, was presented as the initial attraction and gave every satisfaction to the audience. The patrons included many of Mr. Counihan's Plainfield friends who journeyed over by auto and carriage to aid in giving the house a proper "send-off." Perth Amboy's officials were in evidence at the performance and the mayor made an opening address previous to the rise of the curtain. He congratulated the people of the city on their possession of a handsome play-house playing standard attractions and wished Mr. Counihan every success in his newest enterprise. Following the close of the show, the city officials, several New York theatrical managers and a dozen well-known Plainfielders were guests of Mr. Counihan at a banquet. The affair took place in the Packer House and was the occasion for several informal speeches.

The New Majestic is built somewhat on the lines of the Plainfield theatre and has a slightly larger capacity. It stands on Madison street, a short distance from the New Jersey Central station and is in an ideal location. Michael L. Shannon, who was formerly advertising manager for the local house, will be resident manager, and Leonce Texier, also a member of the Plainfield staff up to the present, will be treasurer.

"CENTRAL PARK"

Was Is Will Be

IT WAS, only about a year ago, just a pretty farm. IT IS to day the finest building site in Plainfield, with broad avenues macadamized their entire width, concrete curb, sidewalks, trees, gas, electric light, in fact all improvements. Nearly $100,000 expended in new and handsome dwellings, now ready for the market.

WHAT IT WILL BE we hardly dare predict, with contracts out for even more extensive improvements and twelve more handsome residences.

Central Park is that beautifully situated tract bounded by Park, Prospect, Hillside and Thornton Avenues.

Firemen Parade.

Somerville's fire department conducted its bi-annual inspection and parade yesterday. Twenty companies were in line with various apparatus and the number of marching men was close to 1,000. Colonel Nelson Y. Dungan was grand marshal. Among the notables in line were the Exempt Firemen's Association of New York, 100 strong, accompanied by the Sixty-ninth Regiment Band, and the old globe trotter, Harry Wilkes, thirty-two years old, hitched to a high-wheel sulky.

Neuman Brothers continue to receive large consignments of fruits and vegetables. Don't fail to see the big assortment that will be shown tomorrow.

WINNER MIDAS IS EX-PATTERN BOY

SUPPOSED MILLIONAIRE LEAVES
GOLDEN TRAIL OF HOPES DEFERRED.

BANK ACCOUNT FAILS SUDDENLY

"Jack West" Known by His Parents
as Jacob Wollinsky Creates Furore at St. Joseph, Mich.—High Roller Pro Tem.

Chicago.—The original "hallroom boy" has come to grief. His two fancy vests really ought to go to the cleaner, but when a chap buys a good town like St. Joseph, Mich., and a maze of diamonds down at little old Gotham, he shouldn't be blamed if his dollar bills are all gone.

That is just what has happened to "Jack West," whose parents always called him Jacob Wollinsky, because Wollinsky happened to be their name.

Wollinsky sounded good enough for the youth when he was drawing "$20 per" as a bookkeeper in the pattern plant of a fashion publishing company when he married a pretty little girl who wasn't a bad pattern herself. But the name was far too vulgar for a man with a mysterious mine of a million.

So when Wollinsky came buzzing back from Goldfield, Nev., with two dazzling vests and a bundle of bills he assumed a name more fitting to his station—"Jack West." Not that "West" rhymed with "vest," but that Wollinsky didn't sound at all musical to the aesthetic ears of the whilom pattern boy.

Meanwhile Miss Shapiro, the girl who had married the pattern boy waited out on Taylor street and wondered what had become of her beardless husband. Now she is playing the part of Mrs. S. Holmes, detective, and following the littered trail of the youth who left her love eight months ago.

"West" arrived at St. Joseph, Mich.,
a few days ago and began operations by buying up the town. Word soon spread that "Scotty" had come, but when questioned "West" told his new acquaintances to perish the thought.
He even intimated that he might en-rage the cowboy Croesus as his valet before he was through spending money.

St. Joseph accepted "West" and his fancy vests without further investigation. True they couldn't find him in

"Jack West."

Bradstreet's but then fortunes move fast these days at Goldfield.

It was particularly noticed, however, that none of the bellboys at St. Joseph were staggering under the burden of "Jack West's" tips. But the meteoric millionaire had gone when this was discovered and his dupes decided dumbness would be discreet and nursed their injured feelings in silence.

"West" next went to New York, where he began negotiations for the purchase of the Egyptian obelisk in Central park. He said he thought the shaft would well serve the purpose of marking the entrance to his gold mine in Nevada.

The urbane Gothamites began to pay homage to the supposed incipient Rockefeller. He was free to stroll among the luxurious mural decorations of the exclusive restaurants along the "Great White Way."

But suddenly it was discovered that "Jack West" was after all only an ex-pattern boy. That his bank account consisted only of a few hard-earned bills now completely exhausted. And that the debonaire bon vivant was a high roller only pro tem.

Exit "Jack West" with fancy vests.

Child's Remarkable Escape.
London.—A child of 4 has had a remarkable escape from death on the line between Clacton-on-Sea and Colchester, having fallen from a train while it was traveling at thirty miles an hour. Mrs. Readwell was journeying to London with her three children, when the carriage door flew open and her little boy, Alfred, fell on the line. Promptly pulling the communication cord, Mrs. Readwell had the train stopped, and a number of passengers proceeded along the railway to search for the child. To their astonishment they met the child walking along the line toward them, and subsequent medical examination showed that he was not dangerously injured.
