CELEBRATION OF Y. M. C. A.

Elaborate Exercises to Mark
40th Anniversary of a Prosperous Institution.

THREE DAYS' EVENT

Addresses to Be Made from Local Pulpits—Mass Meeting
at the Theatre.

In commemoration of the foundation of the Young Men's Christian Association in this city forty years ago, an anniversary celebration will be held at the association for three days, beginning Saturday, October 26. The program as arranged by the committee appointed at the last meeting of the directors includes an anniversary banquet, special association services and special services in the local churches. J. H. Manning, formerly general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in this city, is in charge of the anniversary as chairman of the general committee, and, serving with him are A. B. Beers, W. D. Murray, Curtis M. Thorpe, Dr. Norman H. Probasco and George M. Rittenhouse.

Alexander Gilbert, at whose home the meeting was held October 28, 1867, which resulted in the formation of the local association, will preside as toastmaster at the big banquet which will mark the opening of the celebration Saturday night, October 26, in the association auditorium. Mr. Gilbert was the first president of the Young Men's Christian Association when formed in this city. It is expected that about 150 members of the association prominent in its life and growth will be present on this occasion, among them several of the charter members of the association in this city and a big delegation of former officers and members. Men of prominence in association work in the state will also attend.

The committee in charge is trying to arrange for Y. M. C. A. speakers to occupy local pulpits on Sunday, October 27. These men are to be association officers from the various state associations and from New York. The services, which will be held in the morning, will be a feature of the celebration, but the list of Y. M. C. A. men and the churches at which they are to speak has not yet been completed. Sunday afternoon there is to be a big men's mass meeting at the New Plainfield Theatre. This will be held at 4 o'clock and there will be speakers of prominence in local and state work and special music. The details of this meeting have not yet been completed.

David E. Titworth, one of the early vice presidents of the local association will be the speaker at the concluding meeting of the anniversary, to be held Monday evening, October 28 in the auditorium. This is the exact anniversary of the foundation of the local association and the life and growth of the work in this city. A historical review of the association will be given at this time.

Among the men of prominence in Y. M. C. A. work of other cities, who will be in this city during the three days' celebration and will take part in the meetings and services are George A. Warburton, of New York, C. W. Dietrich, of Brooklyn, William Knowles Cooper, general secretary of the association at Springfield, Mass., Rev. Dr. Johnston, of Rutgers College, Mr. Tinsdale, of Brooklyn, A. E. Marling, of New York City, and L. E. Hawkins, of Newark.

PAINTERS HOLD A PICNIC.

Baseball Game Feature of the Program Arranged.

The members of Local No. 480, Painters and Paperhangers, held an informal picnic at the home of John E. Mathews, Rockview and West End avenue, Saturday afternoon. A feature of the affair was a baseball game played between teams representing the shops of J. C. Hansen and Charles Conover, the latter winning out after a hot seven inning struggle by the score of 5 to 4. The batteries were H. Hansen and Curtis for the Hansen shop and Trotter and Voorhees for Conover's.

Following the game refreshments were served and an hour was spent by various ways. The committee which arranged the gathering comprised John Mathews, Andrew Love, Jr., and Wilbur Voorhees.

The ability displayed by some of the baseball players has resulted in a movement to have a team representing Local 480 in the field next season. The unions at Elizabeth, Rahway, New Brunswick and other places have nines and a series could be arranged with them.

Emulates the President.

Lieut. Sidney N. Towle, of Boston, has returned from a two months' sojourn at Trull Hall. Mr. Towle, who is vice president of Expert Systematizing Company of New York and Boston, intends to spend two weeks hunting moose in the woods of Maine.

CITY FATHERS TO PAY
$500 FOR SOME ADVICE

In its efforts to secure an advantageous contract with the Public Service Corporation for street lighting, the members of the Common Council believe that it should have the services of an expert electrical engineer. With that purpose in view, Mr. Tyler, at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council, last night, offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling for an appropriation of $500 or as much of that sum as would be needed to employ an electrical engineer that he might advise the council as to what it may desire.

Mr. Tyler said that while the Public Service Corporation is fully informed as to its business, the members are not so thoroughly conversant on the subject of street lighting and other features of the electrical business pertaining to this department. For that reason he recommended the employment of an engineer.

FORT COVERS SOMERSET

"Uncle Joe" Frelinghuysen
Guides Him Through Populous Rural County.

DINES AT SENATORS

Candidate Again Discusses the Bishops' Law, Which, He Says, Simply Prevents Violations of Law Unseen.

The trip of J. Franklin Fort yesterday was through Somerset, a truly rural county. Most of the way was past telegraph poles that had vines growing upon them almost to the wires, and nearly all of the horses passed had to be led to the side of the road while the autos went by. Business was scarcely begun when Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, which had been sent to East Orange for the candidate, pulled up in front of the North Plainfield fire house. It was quickly surrounded by children not yet ready to go to school, who stopped to lay in a supply of campaign buttons. Mr. Fort's car was joined there by the other two which were to help carry the party accompanying him throughout the day.

Nearly the whole county ticket made the journey, and every member of it was called on for a few words at almost every stop. Mr. Fort himself spoke no more than five minutes in any one place, until he arrived here tonight. In most cases he confined himself to a statement of the political situation. He only once referred to the Bishops' bill, that time at Millstone, when he said that his audience knew how he stood on the question, as he had declared himself without reserve. At Gladstone, where he arrived in the middle of the afternoon, he again referred to the stand he had taken in various matters. He stated that he did not wish to keep any of his beliefs from the voters.

"I will tell you anything you care to know about how I stand on any question, either in public or in private," he declared.

The trip was one of the most successful since the tour began. Only in Middlesex county have there been such large gatherings. The arrangements for yesterday were carefully planned and carefully carried out. Twenty minutes being allowed to each town. When the twenty minutes were up speech-making was stopped and the caravan got under way again. The county committee was in charge of the itinerary and introduced the speakers.

Hunterdon County, where Mr. Fort goes tomorrow, will have a shorter schedule, with fewer towns on the list. Most of the day will be devoted to visiting the employees of the factories at their work.

Although he had stated in a speech at New Brunswick on Thursday night that the expression of his views there on the excise question would be his last utterance of the kind this year, Mr. Fort tonight opened the subject again in his speech here in Germania Hall. The talk was listened to with marked attention by the big audience, and a storm of applause greeted each point.

The stage was crowded with the county candidates and men of prominence in the district who had followed the candidate in his trip through Somerset county today. They were former Senator Charles A. Reed, Assemblyman W. W. Smalley, up for re-election, James A. Metz, candidate for surrogate; Congressman Ira Wood; Charles Fleischman, who has been with the campaigners for four trips; Assemblyman Alfred N. Barber, and Robert Kay, nominee for sheriff. A. G. Anderson acted as chairman. Mr. Fort, who had dined at the home of Senator Frelinghuysen, at Raritan, entered half an hour after the meeting opened, with former Governor Franklin Murphy, who had come down as a surprise. Mr. Fort was loudly cheered when he came forward after his introduction. The nominee discussed the Bishops' law which he said simply violations of law unseen and makes for civic righteousness.

Miss Margaret Goddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Goddard, of East Ninth street, will be one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Annie Pierce Hallock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waverly West Hallock, of Lefferts place, Brooklyn, and Arthur Loomis Harmon, also of that city. The wedding will take place in Holy Trinity church, Brooklyn, Saturday afternoon, November 2.

College Honors for Stutsman. Martin B. Stutsman, of East Sixth street, has just been chosen vice president of the Senior Senate at New York University. The members of this society, which has to do with the government of the student body, are chosen from the senior class, and membership in the senate is a high college honor. Stutsman has also been chosen secretary of the student Y. M. C. A. at N. Y. U.

SLEEPING SEXTETTE
BAGGED BY DETECTIVE

Receiving a tip that Vanderbilt Raymond, a Scotch Plains youth who was indicted for burglary last January and has since been a fugitive from justice, was in hiding in a barn at Scotch Plains, County Detective Gelatian went to the place early this morning.

He made his way to a loft, but instead of finding Raymond the lone occupant of the building, he found it occupied by four young men and two young girls, his quarry being one of the former. The sextette was wrapped in slumber and Gelatian slipped away in order to secure assistance in getting them all. Their arrest was accomplished without any trouble and they were taken to Westfield.

Arraigned before Justice Toney at that place later in the day, Raymond's companions described themselves as Frank McNair, Oliver Peel, James Keiderling, Jessie Vail and Mary Howard, all of Plainfield. The three young men were fined $2 each on a charge of vagrancy and the girls were committed to Elizabeth to appear before Judge Atwater. Raymond was also committed.

It appeared later that of the young men, Peel is the only resident of Plainfield, the others residing at Scotch Plains. The Howard and Vail girls live here and are known to the police.

EGENOLF WASN'T WANTED

His Presence at Democratic Conference Here Causes
a Stormy Scene.

AT CHILLY MEETING

Democrats Refuse to Sit In Caucus
With Egenolf After Wordy War
In Which Mr. Staats
Scores Him.

Accompanied by a delegation of forty well known county seat Democrats, General Dennis F. Collins and Peter Egenolf, of Elizabeth, came to this city last night for the purpose of conferring with local members of the party over the existing political situation. They were met by the Plainfield leaders, with a few exceptions, and the entire party adjourned to the Hotel Kensington for the confab. While nothing was given out as to what line of action had been adopted, the reporters were informed that it had been definitely decided to hold the city convention tonight. It will be held in the office of Walter L. Hetfield, Sr.

The fact that Peter Egenolf was in the delegation that came from Elizabeth resulted in a chilly feeling coming over several of the Plainfield Democrats. Egenolf, who is a member of the State committee from Union county, is looked upon by them as the man who played James E. Martine false in the gubernatorial convention. They have no hesitancy in declaring they have "no use for him" and they showed it when it became known that the "political assassin" was in the party. They refused absolutely to sit in the hotel parlor with him, although it had been their intention to take an active part in the conference. No amount of argument on the part of their confederates could make them alter their determination and they remained in the office downstairs while the session was on.

As the committeemen were about to enter the parlors of the Hotel Kensington, J. A. Staats, the proprietor, who is a local Democratic leader, spied Egenolf and turning on him sharply shouted: "What are you doing here?"

"You run a hotel, don't you?" retorted the Elizabethan.

"Well, I do but not for such men as you," hotly replied Staats.

A big crowd gathered about the two men as Egenolf is alleged to have said: "You better be careful; I'm on the grand jury."

"I've run a straight legitimate house for twenty-seven years and you can't fool with me if the people of Plainfield know it. I have no fear of you even if you are on the grand jury. The rest of the grand jury are not like you. I won't sit in a meeting if you are allowed to go into that room."

"I'll have some more to say," shouted Egenolf.

Egenolf entered the conference and Staats turned on his heels and with others declined to enter the conference room.

Egenolf, it is said, had nothing to say during the discussion, but all the time he got black looks from Plainfielders who were present.

Mr. Martine said today that he was not responsible for Egenolf's presence. "That man is a traitor to his benefactor and to the Democracy of Union county," said Mr. Staats, today, who is a warm admirer of Mr. Martine.

At the convention tonight, the Democrats propose to name a candidate for the city judgeship and three for councilmen-at-large. Walter L. Hetfield, Sr., is slated to oppose Judge Runyon's candidacy but no names have been mentioned in connection with the councilmanic nominations.

Doctors' Society to Meet.

The Union County Medical Society will meet at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon at 8.30. Dr. T. H. Tomlinson will read a paper on "Food Adulteration" and there will be reports by various local physicians on the study of various diseases. Dr. Livingston, of Elizabeth, as president of the society, will be in charge of the meeting. Dr. B. Van D. Hedges is vice president of the organization, of which many local physicians are members.

Woman to Lecture. Miss Emily Cramp Taylor, of Philadelphia, will begin her series of lectures on "The Crimes of the Christ," at the Young Women's Christian Association rooms, this afternoon. This course was given in July at Silver Bay and consists of four lectures, which Miss Taylor will give in Plainfield on four successive Tuesday afternoons.

The boys' championship in tennis singles, P. H. S., were continued yesterday when Lawrence Bromfield defeated Leonard Rubenstein, 6-1, 6-1; Houston Durar defeated Winford Dorothy, 6-4, 6-0, and George Durar defeated Jack Todd, 6-1, 7-5.

MISS DRAKE STILL AWAY;
HER MOTHER COLLAPSES

No news of Miss Elsie Drake, who left town two weeks ago with Thomas P. Davis, her fiancé, who has a wife and family in Liverpool, England, has been received by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Newton Drake, of Somerset street, since the letter sent from Washington, D. C., last week. Miss Drake wrote to her father, asking to be forgiven, and Mr. Drake wrote to her to come home again, saying that he would receive her as his daughter and urging her to leave Davis.

Mrs. Davis is in a state of nervous collapse at her home today. The shock of the news of Davis' wife and family in England has proved too much for her, and the suspense of waiting for her daughter's return has brought on the collapse. Neighbors say there will be trouble if Davis returns to North Plainfield.

TALKS ENTERTAININGLY
ON TRAVELS ABROAD

Under the auspices of the Men's club of the First Baptist Church, the members and their friends enjoyed a pleasing program at the first fall meeting of the organization, last night. William Holmes sang two baritone selections in his best voice, and Miss Blossom Randolph rendered violin selections in a delightful manner.

The greater part of the evening was occupied with a charming informal talk by Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelle, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, who related many interesting incidents about his European tour last summer. Dr. Zelle spent several months touring the continent and England. He told of the cathedrals visited on the trip and of the services he attended. His description of a visit to Westminster Abbey was full of interest.

FRELINGHUYSEN'S RETORT.

Tells Colby X-Ray Has Shown a Perfect Condition of Liver.

In the debate in the closing hours of the Legislature on the public utilities bill, when Senator Colby remarked: "I am afraid that some members of this Senate are too white-livered to vote right," Senator Joseph Frelinghuysen, of Somerset county, answered:

"I want to say to the Senator from Essex that my liver has been exposed to the X-ray examination and was found to be healthy and full of good, red corpuscles, and I will make bold to say that, compared with mine, the liver of the Senator from Essex would be like the white frosting on an angel cake."

Senator Frelinghuysen underwent an operation for appendicitis several months ago, and the Senators enjoyed the allusion immensely.

Russo Under $500 Bond.

Leonardo Russo, who slashed Geo. Schuck in the leg and arm with a razor as the result of a fight on West End avenue Friday, was held Justice Snape under $500 bond to await the action of the grand jury at the hearing last night in the borough court. The case was postponed from Saturday afternoon, when Schuck was proved to be too badly hurt to appear in the case. John P. Owens is counsel for the state and Russo retained V. W. Nash, Jr. Bond had not been turned up to noon today.

Green Gets Twenty Days.

The power of the law fell heavily on Maze Green, who was arrested Saturday night by Chief Marshal Weiss of the borough force, in a noisily intoxicated condition on Somerset street. Recorder Dolliver had been faced by Green before, and the man had a bad record. He was sent to jail for twenty days, and Chief Weiss took him to Somerville this afternoon. Green says he lives in Elizabeth, but always gets drunk in the borough.

Men's Club Members Bowl.

The best attended meeting in the history of the Young Men's Club of Grace Church was held at the Casino last night, when the members, apt together informally and spent the evening in bowling. There were about forty-five present, many of whom spent the evening on the alleys. Enthusiasm is strong for the formation of a team. Another meeting is being planned to be held at the Casino within a few weeks.

BIG CONSIDERATION
FOR 2 TRACK PERMITP. S. C. Gives $5,000 and New Double Truck Cars on All Lines for Concession.

CITY FATHERS ACCEPT

Mayor Fisk and Councilmen Mellick Champion P. S. C.'s Cause Declaring Improvement Will Mean Better Service.

Permission was given to the Public Service Corporation to double track its line from West Front and Somerset street, through East Front street and Watchung avenue to Fourth street, at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council, last night, in response to a petition presented a week ago. Councilman Buxton, Mellick, Montgomery, Charles C. Randolph, Frank Randolph and Tolles voted to grant the petition and President Daniel, Councilmen Ginna, Gloak and Tyler voted in the negative. Bound new double truck trolley cars on every local line and $5,000 in cash for permanent payments are the consideration given by the P. S. C. for the double track permit.

The request of the Public Service Corporation was not granted until after considerable discussion in which Mayor Charles J. Fisk, Councilmen Tyler, Gloak and Mellick took part. According to the usual form, Mr. Ginna presented the map showing the proposed improvement, together with the proposed contract between the company and the city which states definitely what the company will do in return for the privilege of double tracking its line. The principal feature of this contract is that the company agrees to pay one-half the cost for the brick paving on East Front street and Watchung avenue, which now under way, which makes the company's share about $5,000. The company also agrees to use the grove rail, which with the brick pavement will make an absolutely smooth surface.

The petition of the company was presented at the regular October meeting a week ago, but was laid over until last night, when after offering the map to be filed, Mr. Ginna, chairman of the street committee, offered a resolution providing that the petition be granted after strict compliance with the terms of the contract on the part of the company, as well as the city. This resolution was adopted by the vote stated.

Prior to taking action on the petition, President Daniel gave those present an opportunity to speak for or against the granting of it. There was a lengthy petition presented, signed by ninety per cent. of the property owners on East Front street and Watchung avenue, protesting against the granting of the privileges asked for, and another one from Dr. Albert Pittis, representing the Pittis estate, owning 115 feet, favoring the improvement. In response to the invitation, J. Fred MacDonald stated that the remonstrance signed by himself and a majority of the property owners expressed his sentiments, while Dr. Pittis spoke in favor of double tracking the line.

At this point Mayor Charles Fisk asked for the privileges of the floor to give, as he expressed it, the essential reasons why the petition should be granted. He said that he was not there to speak for any one individual or faction, but in the interest of the people of Plainfield. "It is well known that the congestion of traffic on Watchung avenue, as well as at Front and Somerset streets, is a matter of serious consideration," said Mr. Fisk. "I have made a close study of the situation and have come to the conclusion that something must be done to relieve this congestion. It cannot be done unless the city is willing to help the Public Service Corporation to some extent. I brought the matter to the attention of the company and told the officials that something must be done to relieve the congestion of traffic. I was informed that the only way this could be done was through the double tracking of the line on East Front street and Watchung avenue."

"After some effort the traffic men of the company investigated the matter and reported to me the result which was substantially as I am telling you now. I am of the opinion that now is the time to make the improvement. There will be less tearing up and blocking of the streets and the double tracking and brick paving can be completed before winter sets in."

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Rev. W. W. Casselberry, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, is a candidate on the Prohibition ticket for assemblyman. His name was put on the ticket at the convention of the party held last week and will be on the ballots election day, Nov. 5. Dr. Casselberry has always been opposed to liquor selling in the borough and it is through him that the complaints about alleged violations of the license law were brought to the notice of the authorities. He has also taken a decided stand in the matter of Sunday selling of confectionery and soda water in town. It is believed that the local candidate will make a strong run, for several clubs have pledged their support. James L. Manning, of this town, is the candidate for county surrogate on the same ticket.

One of our clients owed $48 between four people. His salary is $14 weekly; rent $12 monthly. To have paid $2 weekly to each creditor, combined with rent, would have left only $2 per week to meet expenses, buy clothing, etc.—an impossibility you will agree. He borrowed $50, paid all his creditors, made a future credit good, if ever needed; paid his rent, the loan payments, and has $9 each week to use as his judgment dictates.

Hallowe'en

Though Hallowe'en has been celebrated by some people for centuries, until recently the only aid to its fun were the Pumpkin Lanterns, the apple, the cabbage stock, the smoky candle, and such other homely things, a belief in ghosts and a strong imagination. Then it was celebrated only in the country.

Nowadays it is the occasion for many novel entertainments in the home of all classes—and the earth is drawn on to supply new designs on the old ideas. We have them Domestic, German and Japs. SPORTS HERE AND THERE

GOLF.

The Park Golf Club team will play a match with the Middlebrook Country Club team on the borough course, Saturday afternoon.

There will be a surfeit of golf in the metropolitan district this week. College players are, of course, interested in the annual Intercollegiate Golf Association championship tournament, which is to start at the Nassau Country Club, today, and continue throughout the week. The women are also provided for in the four-day open tournament scheduled to begin today at the Essex County Country Club, near West Orange, while on Friday and Saturday a two-day open competition for men will claim attention at Baltusrol.

In selecting Nassau this year the collegians have departed from their usual custom of going to Garden City but the chances are that they will have no cause to regret the change, as the Nassau Club has arranged for the comfort of the visitors. It will give a smolder tomorrow night.

Syracuse University has made application for membership in the association, and will probably be admitted at a meeting this week, but not in time to compete this year. Entries for the coming tournament have already been received from Yale, Harvard, Princeton and the University of Pennsylvania, while Cornell, Columbia and Williams are yet to be heard from.

Both team and individual honors were won by Yale last fall, and as the Blue has practically the same players to draw upon again its chances on paper look unusually bright. The only prominent player lost by Yale through graduation is W. E. Clow, Jr., who won the individual title. On the other hand, there are Robert Abbott, a former intercollegiate champion; Ellis Knowles, Dwight Partidge, runner-up to Clow last year; W. I. Howard and B. Merriman. In addition to these, W. H. Lyon, C. E. Van Vleet, Jr., and A. H. Swords from a trio of excellent substitutes.

Harvard has several good men in H. H. Wilder, T. Briggs, W. Hickox and H. McCall, while Princeton can call upon W. T. West, Ralph Peters, Jr., F. H. McAdoo, H. J. Van Dyke, D. Roberts and C. Ballin. Some of the collegians are already practicing over the Nassau course, and as the latter is in its usual excellent condition low scoring will undoubtedly prevail. Today and tomorrow will be devoted to team matches, and then the individual part of the program will claim attention for the remainder of the week.

It is expected that some forty-odd women will compete at Essex County this week. Prominent among those who have entered are Miss Fanny Osgood, of Boston, former eastern champion; Miss Kate Harley, of Fall River, and Miss Julia R. Mix, of Englewood. There will be an eighteen hole medal play qualifying round today, contestants to qualify in two eighths. Side attractions in the way of driving, approaching and putting and Scotch foursomes will fill out the program.

There is a possibility of the favorites being brushed aside by some of the entrants from distant parts. For instance, Miss Meeker, of St. Augustine, who has entered, is said to be a strong player, and two others who have greatly improved their game are Miss Ruth Milne, of Albany, and Miss Ay the course has been changed and Van Nostrand, of Watertown. Since the women played last at Essex County lengthened considerably.

TENNIS.

The City High School boys' championship in tennis singles were continued Saturday afternoon, when George Dugar beat Winaford, 6-4, 6-0; Ludlow VanDeventer beat Guyon Fountain, 6-4, 7-5, and Howard Runyon won from H. C. Hubbard by default.

MANY SERVICES MARK END OF CELEBRATION

Services tomorrow, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings with special services morning and evening next Sunday, will mark the concluding week of the celebration of the diamond jubilee of the First Methodist Church. An "Auld Lang Syne" historical and social meeting will be held at the church this evening. James W. Jackson, president of the church board of trustees, presiding. There will be addresses by Rev. G. H. Whitney, Rev. A. H. Tuttle, Rev. C. B. Mitchell, Rev. Jesse L. Hurlbut, Rev. J. B. Van Meter, Rev. C. R. Barnes and Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, former pastors of the church, will speak, as will J. M. Meeker, presiding elder of the Newark district, who was at one time a supply here. The addresses will be of a reminiscent and historical nature, and at the conclusion of the service, the Ladies Aid Society of the church will tender a reception to the congregation in Vincent Chapel.

Wednesday Rev. Daniel Halloran, presiding elder of the Elizabeth district, will preside at a Good Fellowship meeting to be held in Vincent Chapel in the evening. There will be addresses by pastors and laymen of the three local Methodist churches and love feast tickets will be distributed as souvenirs, according to the ancient custom. The church brotherhood will give a special celebration banquet Thursday evening in Vincent Chapel. The collation will be served at 7 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. Geo. Edward Reed, president of Dickinson College, will give a lecture on "Enthusiasm and Enthusiasts" at a special educational meeting to be held Friday evening. Superintendent James R. Joy, of the Sunday school, will preside. At the morning service next Sunday, an offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the anniversary. Bishop John H. Vincent will preach at the morning service, and Rev. William F. Anderson, corresponding secretary of the Board of Education, Freedman's Aid and Sunday schools, will be the speaker.

Y. W. C. A. CLASSES WILL HAVE BIG ENROLLMENT

The evening class in cooking at the Y. M. C. A. held its first meeting, last night, with seven present. This is a class in instruction in plain cooking, and Miss Francis Bosworth, of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, is the instructor of the class. The meetings will be held once a week. This morning a class in chafing dish cookery was held at the association. Ten members were present, and Miss Boswick in charge. This class in fancy cookery is popular and will meet weekly.

A class in dressmaking, taking up shirtwaist and skirt making at the start, will meet for the first Friday night. The course will continue ten weeks and fifteen have been enrolled already; a second section of seven additional members is to be formed. Fifteen of the young women members of the association have entered the gymnasium class to be held each week in the new association gymnasium Monday, Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week. Miss Margaret E. Mosher is the instructor of this class, which met for the first last night. Owing to the fact that the work on the gymnasium has not yet been completed, physical culture could only be discussed at the meeting last night. The gymnasium will be ready for the use of the class next week. Five association members have joined the swimming class, which will meet for the first next Thursday. Arrangements have been completed for the use of the pool at the Y. M. C. A. building for this class, which will meet in the morning.

Special classes in religious work will be held Tuesday afternoons and evenings, beginning today. The afternoon classes will consist of a course of four lectures on "The Crises of Christ." Miss Emily C. Taylor, of Philadelphia, will deliver the lectures. The evening classes will be a series of lessons taken from the gospel of St. Matthew. Miss Colton, of this city, will be in charge of this class.

The P. S. C. Gets Privilege of Laying Conduits—Sidewalks to Be Laid Short-

There was a batch of small business considered at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council, last night, most of it being left over from the regular October meeting. The resignation of William Yeager, as a member of the fire department, was accepted. Watson Whittleton asked that a sewer assessment levied on property owned by himself and another party be equitably adjusted. The matter was referred. A copy of the county ratables was presented and ordered filed.

On the recommendation of Councilman Ginna, the petition of Jacob Sachar, of Clinton avenue, asking the city to establish a pipe line across his property to carry off surface water, was refused. Mr. Ginna also filed a map of the Public Service Corporation showing certain streets through which it desires to lay conduits and later he offered a resolution, which was adopted, giving the company permission to do this work on East and West Front streets, East and West Second streets, Park, Madison and Watchung avenues.

The petition of the Central Park Realty Company asking that Evergreen avenue be accepted as a city street, was granted on the motion of Mr. Ginna, an ordinance being adopted on two readings and ordered engrossed to conform to the usual custom.

Mr. Montgomery, chairman of the light committee, reported on the matter concerning the absence of a light on West Third street, referred to at the previous meeting. He presented a letter from the P. S. C., which stated that the light mentioned had been moved to West Third street and Madison avenue in 1904 at the request of a member of the Common Council. The matter will be attended to. The company stated that a list of every street light in the city is being compiled and a report will be submitted.

Regarding the petition of Christian Frederickson and others for lights on Leland avenue, between Berkeley avenue and Cushing road, Mr. Montgomery moved that a light be placed on that thoroughfare every 300 feet. Upon investigation he found that there are no lights there and he believed that the citizens to be entitled to them.

In support of the motion Mr. Gloak said that he investigated the section referred to on Sunday and was convinced that the lights should be erected. Mr. Tolles was of the opinion that more definite knowledge as to the number of lights to be erected should be given and Mr. Tyler said that he did not favor the motion, because there are a number of places in the city similarly affected and he thought the whole matter should be considered at one time. When the vote was taken, President Daniel and Councilmen Tolles and Tyler voted against it, but the seven votes in favor granted the petition. The petition of Clifton Wharton, Jr., and others for a light on Woodland avenue, between Park lane and Ravine road, was also granted on motion of Mr. Montgomery. Councilmen Tolles and Tyler voted against the motion. Another petition for a light on East Ninth street, between Watchung avenue and First place, was withheld until another meeting.

At the suggestion of Mr. Tolles the city clerk was instructed to notify the owners of the building that they must supply heat for the Common Council rooms, according to the provisions of the lease. There was no heat in the room last night and the members were obliged to adjourn to the Mayor's office.

A resolution which was offered by Mr. Ginna and adopted, provided for the laying of sidewalks in certain streets of the city, where the property-owners have failed to comply with the ordinance. When the Common Council adjourned it did so to meet on Monday night, October 28.

Firemen Drill For Parade.
In preparation for the firemen's parade to be held at Perth Amboy Thursday, the members of Warren Engine Company were out for a drill last night. The borough company turned out more than thirty strong and went through drill maneuvers under the command of Bert Bodine, at one time foreman of the company. It is probable that he will be at the head of the North Plainfielders in the parade Thursday, and at that time there will be nearly forty men in line. The appearance of the men as they drilled on Somerset street called forth much favorable comment.

GRANT 2 TRACK PERMIT

The trolley company has consented to undertake the improvement, although not anxious to do so.

"After an investigation I find that there will be plenty of room for wagons and automobiles on East Front street and Watchung avenue and as there will be only one car on the tracks at a time at any one point, it will not interfere with traffic. It will greatly improve our trolley service and prevent the holding up of cars at Watchung avenue and on West Front street, where the single track begins. It will enable the company to operate its cars on a correct schedule. The Public Service Corporation wants to improve its service here and I hope that the resolution will prevail. If the men who signed the protest were here now I believe that I should convince them that the improvement will be for the best interest of Plainfield. I want every member to vote for the best interest of the city, and if I were a member of this body I would vote for the resolution because I believe it will be the best thing possible for the greatest number of people.

The atmosphere in the council chamber being too cold for the comfort of the members of the Common Council, President Daniel suggested that an adjournment be taken to the Mayor's office. This was done and the argument continued.

In opposition to the proposed action of giving the company further privileges, Councilman Tyler declared Mayor Fisk to be an interesting and persuasive person. He also had the same opinion of the Public Service Corporation officials.

"They argue well," said Mr. Tyler, "but I have carefully weighed the arguments in this matter and I don't think that the city should give the company additional privileges in perpetuity without adequate compensation. Those who favor the proposition say we will have better service, but this is not adequate. Our sins against the city are sins of the past. The company are getting rights that will be of enormous value to them and it is not right or fair to the city to give them away, simply on the promise of better service. Let the company pay for these rights according to the proportionate future value. Once these rights are given away we can never get them back.

"On the other hand I don't believe that we will get the better service. It will only relieve the congestion of trolley traffic coming east from Dunellen and North Plainfield. Between Watchung avenue and fourth street and East Second street there will still be a single track and the relief will only come at one end of the line in the city. By giving such rights away we may lose even greater advantages than the promise of better service and for these reasons I shall vote against the resolution.

Another member who opposed the resolution was Councilman Gloak. He recalled three years ago, when he was chairman of the street committee and the same matter was before the Common Council. He said that the question was thoroughly considered and it was the belief of the committee that the company should be willing to pave the street from curb to curb for the privilege of double tracking. Mr. Gloak said that he was still of that opinion and would vote against granting the petition unless the company was willing to pave the entire street.

In support of the resolution Mr. Mellick said that he was convinced that the people who use the trolley are most unhappy over the present service and while some property owners have their own ideas on the subject he believed the improvement would be for the best. He concurred in what Mayor Fisk had said, that it is a question that concerns the people of the entire city. He declared that good trolley service cannot be given unless the city is willing to lend its aid. He expressed faith in the Mayor, who has made a close study of the proposition and he believed that what he said was right.

Referring to the Public Service Corporation, Mr. Mellick said that he felt sure the company would do the right thing and that the granting of the petition would cement the ties of friendship between the city and the company. The company offers advantages and it has the right to expect the square deal. Mr. Mellick added that the corporation counsel had informed the members that the city can enforce its rights and if necessary resort to the adoption of an ordinance. He thought no mistake would be made in passing the resolution.

After Mr. Mellick's remarks, the vote was called for and the resolution was passed. There were four officials of the Public Service Corporation present, Col. Hine, Farley Osgood, J. J. Gettings and L. D. H. Gilmour, the latter the assistant counsel for the company.

After the meeting Mr. Gilmour informed a reporter for The Daily Press that the company would be ready to begin work inside of forty-eight hours and that it would not interfere with the brick pavement on East Front street or Watchung avenue.

HARTJE SCANDAL BARS GIRL FROM SCHOOL

Miss Ida Scott, of Pittsburg, sister of Mrs. Augustus Hartje, has been temporarily suspended from Miss Dana's seminary for girls at Morris-town, N. J., where she has been enrolled as a pupil since the opening of the present school term.

It was explained at the school yesterday that this action was taken because of the sensational allegations concerning the girl's connection with the divorce proceedings.

Miss Scott left the institution on Saturday in company with a relative from Pittsburg. It was not until the statement was made public that Miss Scott's love letters to her sweetheart in Pittsburg had been sold that the school authorities were aware that the Miss Scott referred to in the divorce proceedings was the pupil in the seminary.

Hot Bowling Match Tonight. John Campbell's alleys on East Second street will give the scene of a hot team match tonight between the fast Ironsides and the "undefeated" Amrights. The latter team claims the city championship and the Ironsides have asserted it can't be held by them as long as they are in the field, consequently some awful plinishing is looked for. The teams will be composed as follows: Ironsides, Kiely, Voehl, Blatz, Nann and Willett; Amrights, Britton, Campbell, Radin, Skelly and Meyer. A big crowd of rooters will be on hand to keep up the enthusiasm.

To Meet New York Champs. The local Y. M. C. A. nine has arranged for a game with the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A. team, to be played at Crescent Oval Saturday afternoon. The Brooklyn team holds the baseball championship of Greater New York. The game will be called at 3:30.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

In "Woodland," which Henry W. Savage will bring to the New Plainfield Theatre tonight, the authors, Pixley and Luder, have chosen a theme which affords a splendid chance for poetic and picturesque treatment, and that the piece has been one of the most pronounced of hits is not surprising. They have gone to the forest for their characters and made them all birds, evolving a dainty story dealing with the adventures of the feathered tribe. It is an idyllic conceit and its employment has furnished something entirely new to the American stage. The production has been made on a lavish scale and the scenic effects are said to be magnificent, the costumes elaborate. Musically, "Woodland" is declared to be Mr. Luder's most ambitious and impressive work.

It should be remembered that "The Walls of Jericho" is not a religious play. Its title has led many a theatre-goer to believe that he is about to behold a biblical play of an extremely sombre nature and that its very thought was deeply religious. This is not the case. "The Walls of Jericho," which is Mr. Alfred Sutro's first great success, as it is his first brilliant play, pictures the smart set of London, and the many evils of excessive indulgence in bribe, whisky, among other things. The tendency of modern society women to gamble and to neglect their homes and children is vividly set forth in language that is at once choice, strong and graceful. This is a play with a purpose splendidly portrayed. That the play is great and popular is proved by the fact that it ran for two whole seasons in London, and a whole season in New York. It will be at the New Plainfield Theatre Thursday night.

Herbert Kelcey and Edna Shannon, who occupy an affectionate place in the esteem of theatregoers who are always sure to revel in artistic acting, will doubtless command deserved consideration at the New Plainfield, next Friday night, on which occasion these firmly established co-stars will offer, under the direction of Ernest Shipman a drama in four acts, entitled "Bridge" and which is from the pen of the distinguished English authoress, Alice Ramsey.

The play deals in no small measure with a game, which of late years has become immensely popular in society, and the story told amidst such surroundings, is said to be one of absorbing interest, involving the experiences of a young girl who on the death of her father is forced to live with an aunt whose manner towards her is anything but conducive to peace of mind.

COPYRIGHT, 1901, BY ROBERT HOWARD RUSSELL.

"I stumbled as though I had been hit in the face, and fell back into one of the chairs on the sidewalk. I tore off the wrappings and spread out the diamonds on the cafe table; I could not believe they were real. I twisted the necklace between my fingers and crushed it between my palms and tossed it up in the air. I believe I almost kissed it. The women in the cafe stood up on the chairs to see better, and laughed and screamed, and the people crowded so close around me that the waiters had to form a bodyguard. The proprietor thought there was a fight, and called for the police. I was so happy I didn't care. I laughed, too, and gave the proprietor a five-pound note and told him to stand every one a drink. Then I tumbled into a fiacre and galloped off to my friend the Chief of Police. I felt very sorry for him. He had been so happy at the chance I gave him, and he was sure to be disappointed when he learned I had sent him off on a false alarm.

"But now that I had found the necklace, I did not want him to find the woman. Indeed, I was most anxious that she should get clear away, for if she were caught the truth would come out, and I was likely to get a sharp reprimand, and sure to be laughed at.

"I could see now how it had happened. In my haste to hide the diamonds when the woman was hustled into the carriage, I had shoved the cigars into the satchel, and the diamonds into the pocket of my coat. Now that I had the diamonds safe again, it seemed a very natural mistake. But I doubted if the Foreign Office would think so. I was afraid it might not appreciate the beautiful simplicity of my secret hiding-place. So, when I reached the police station, and found that the woman was still at large, I was more than relieved.

"As I expected, the Chief was extremely chagrined when he learned of my mistake, and that there was nothing for him to do. But I was feeling so happy myself that I hated to have any one else miserable, so I suggested that this attempt to steal the Czarina's necklace might be only the first of a series of such attempts by an unscrupulous gang, and that I might still be in danger.

"I winked at the Chief and the Chief smiled at me, and we went to Nice together in a saloon car with a guard of twelve carabinieri and twelve plain-clothes men, and the Chief and I drank champagne all the way. We marched together up to the hotel where the Russian Ambassador was stopping, closely surrounded by our escort of carabinieri, and delivered the necklace with the most profound ceremony. The old Ambassador was immensely impressed, and when we hinted that already I had been made the object of an attack by robbers, he assured us that his Imperial Majesty would not prove ungrateful.

"I wrote a swinging personal letter about the invaluable services of the Chief to the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, and they gave him enough Russian and French medals to satisfy even a French soldier. So, though he never caught the woman, he received his just reward."

The Queen's Messenger paused and surveyed the faces of those about him in some embarrassment.

"But the worst of it is," he added, "that the story must have got about; for, while the Princess obtained nothing from me but a cigar-case and five excellent cigars, a few weeks after the coronation the Czar sent me a gold cigar-case with his monogram in diamonds. And I don't know yet whether that was a coincidence, or whether the Czar wanted me to know that he knew that I had been carrying the Czarina's diamonds in my pigskin cigar-case. What do you fellows think?"

CHAPTER III.

SIR ANDREW rose with disapproval written in every lineament.

"I thought your story would bear upon the murder," he said. "Had I imagined it would have nothing whatsoever to do with it I would not have remained." He pushed back his chair and bowed stiffly. "I wish you good night," he said.

There was a chorus of remonstrance, and under cover of this and the Baronet's answering protests a servant for the second time slipped a piece of paper into the hand of the gentleman with the pearl stud. He read the lines written upon it and tore it into tiny fragments.

The youngest member, who had remained an interested but silent listener to the tale of the Queen's Messenger, raised his hand commandingly.

"Sir Andrew," he cried, "in justice to Lord Arthur Chetney I must ask you to be seated. He has been accused in our hearing of a most serious crime, and I insist that you remain until you have heard me clear his character."

"You!" cried the Baronet.

"Yes," answered the young man briskly. "I would have spoken sooner," he explained, "but that I thought this gentleman"—he inclined his head toward the Queen's Messenger—"was about to contribute some facts of which I was ignorant. He, however, has told us nothing, and so I will take up the tale at the point where Lieutenant Sears laid it down and give you those details of which Lieutenant Sears is ignorant. It seems strange to you that I should be able to add the sequel to this story. But the coincidence is easily explained. I am the junior member of the law firm of Chudleigh & Chudleigh. We have been solicitors for the Chetneys for the last two hundred years. Nothing, no matter how unimportant, which concerns Lord Edam and his two sons is unknown to us, and naturally we are acquainted with every detail of the terrible catastrophe of last night."

The Baronet, bewildered but eager, sank back into his chair.

"Will you be long, sir?" he demanded.

"I shall endeavor to be brief," said the young solicitor; "and," he added, in a tone which gave his words almost the weight of a threat, "I promise to be interesting."

"There is no need to promise that," said Sir Andrew. "I find it

PETIT JURORS DRAWN.

Will Serve for Two Weeks Beginning Monday.

The drawing of the petit jurors to serve for two weeks beginning Monday next, took place before Judge
Atwater, at Elizabeth, yesterday.
Those from Plainfield are as follows:

Plainfield—John C. M. Van Dyke,
Charles Suhr, Theodore La Rue,
Louis J. Van Alstyne, John McKeon,
Hugh R. Knox, Samuel S. Dayton,
Joseph A. Haines, Clarence E. Field,
William S. Campbell, Charles H. Ray-
bert, John L. Brower.

The trial of Circuit Court cases began yesterday morning before Judge
B. A. Vall. Before a jury was sworn Judge Vall announced that action upon an application recently presented by Louis F. Yadowski for permission to change his name, would be postponed one week and John J. Hurley, Henry A. Rath and William Miller were appointed by the court as commissioners of sewer improvements in Elizabeth.

The first case for trial yesterday was that of William A. Harrison against George A. Hennecker, on contract, but owing to the serious illness of an important witness it was laid over until later in the term, and the case of Hippolyte A. De Raismes, of Elizabeth, against the North Jersey Street Railway Company substituted.

Mr. DeRaismes, the plaintiff, who is represented by Lawyer James C.
Connolly, sues the company to recover $1,000 damages as the result of an accident which occurred on the evening of April 28 last, while an automobile owned by him was being given a trial trip on Newark avenue.
When the auto neared the crossing of the Lehigh Valley Railroad tracks across Frelinghuysen avenue, the machine ran into an excavation which had been made by the trolley company between its tracks, with the result that the occupants were thrown out and the machine wrecked.

Plainfield Women in Golf Match.

The third and last of the district team matches under the auspices of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association, was decided yesterday afternoon at the Essex County Country Club. There were eleven players on a side, and the B team, captained by Mrs. S. S. Lefferts, of Englewood, won by a score of 4 to 10. This makes two victories for the B team. In the absence of Miss Elsa Hurlbut, who is abroad, Mrs. E. F. Sanford, of the home club, had charge of the other team. Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, who headed the A team, defeated her opponent, by 3 up by default, and Miss

Maud Van Boskerck was 2 up on her opponent, Mrs. C. W. Park.
