TO FIND BEST ATHLETE

City High School Boys to Compete for Daily Press
Gold Medal.

AN INTER-CLASS MEET

Many Entries In Annual Fall Track Meet to Be Held at Driving Park.
Friday.

High school boys will compete for track honors at the Plainfield Driving Park, Friday afternoon, when the athletic championship of the school will receive a gold medal and the class winning the most points will receive a silver cup. Medals and ribbons will be offered to the place winners in each event.

This meet, which is an annual affair, has stirred a good deal of interest among the city high school boys, and there are many entries for each event. The main interest centers in the individual champion of the school, won last year by Chauncey Murphy. Several of the boys are entered in all the events, so that Murphy will have a hard rub to hold the title again this year. The winner of the most points in the meet will receive a gold medal as individual champion of the school. This medal offered by The Daily Press.

Next in interest to the winning of individual honors, class spirit has brought a bunch of entries from boys who want the silver cup, offered by another paper to the class getting the most points in the meet, to go to their class. First place in an event will count five points, second place three, and third place one point. The point winners are pretty evenly distributed among the four classes, though the seniors have a slight advantage. Class spirit will bring a big turnout of boys and girls to the field to cheer in each event and the title will be contested point for point.

As an interclass meet, this event has always been a success and in the competition this year, some high school records ought to be broken. The school has a bunch of men who will show up well in the sprints and an especially good showing will probably be made in the jumps, for there are a string of promising entries. An annual feature will be the tug of war for class championship, between eight men teams. The seniors will pull the juniors and the sophomores the freshmen; the winners of these two pulls will pull for the championship. Another special event is the 60-yard dash for boys of sixteen years or under. There are several fast short-distance fellows among the school freshmen who ought to make this event a close one.

Aside from the individual championship medal and the cup for the class winning the most points, bronze medals have been offered to first place winners by various tradesmen of the city. Ribbons will be given to second and third place competitors. The bronze medals will be offered by the American Steam Laundry, M. C. Van Arsdale, J. W. Gavett and the People's Credit Clothing Company.

Presented Picture to Miss Sayer.

The feature of the social and marshmallow roast held in Vincent chapel last night under the auspices of the Epworth League of the First M. E. church, was the presentation of a handsomely framed picture entitled "A Little Child Shall Lead Them," to Miss Phoebe E. Sayer, one of the prominent and active members, who leaves Plainfield tomorrow for her home in Illinois. The presentation was a surprise and Miss Sayer was unable to make any response for a few minutes. The rest of the evening was given up to an informal program of games, while the roasting of marshmallows furnished amusement for all. Miss Helen Whitney, as chairman of the social committee, was in charge of the affair, assisted by the other members of her committee.

Chief Doane Entertains.

Battalion Chief McDermott, accompanied by the superintendent of the fire alarm system and a private of the Newark Fire Department, were guests of Chief T. O. Doane, yesterday. They made a tour of inspection of the department houses and expressed great surprise over the up-to-date equipment here. They declared that in proportion to the size the department compared favorably with the one in Newark.

Firemen's Association to Meet.

The annual meeting of the Firemen's Mutual Benevolent Association of New Jersey will be held in Paterson on Monday. There will be a meeting in the morning, a parade in the afternoon and a banquet in the evening. Captain William Townley, of the local fire department, and a member of the association, will be among the delegates from here.

PRAISE FOR BISHOPS' BILL

Presbyterian Synod Adopts Report Laudatory of the Excise Laws.

SCORE PHILIP DAAB

Disapprove of His Bill Legalizing
Sunday Baseball—Resolutions Passed.

Praise for the Bishops' bill was given in formal manner by the New Jersey Synod of the Presbyterian Church in session at Atlantic City, yesterday, the report lauding that measure being followed by unequivocal resolutions. Plainfield pastors of the denomination as well as laymen from here are in attendance and the action on the excise situation is said to have met with their hearty favor.

The report, in part, was as follows:

"We have reached the time when it is no longer necessary to argue that it is right to 'Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy,' but while men and women have the liberty to do right they seek license to do wrong from a lax public opinion. Stiffen this public opinion and the same result will occur that we are noting in the many investigations into flagrant evils in public and corporation life.

"The enforcing of the 'bishops' bill' has accomplished much and wherever it has been enforced it has been highly effective in keeping the saloon closed on the Lord's Day. The keeping of this law has produced a strong sentiment for the keeping of other Sunday laws. Many places throughout our State have brought honor upon themselves by closing various business houses on the great day.

"We especially recognize the good result for a little while of the concerted effort here in Atlantic City. In the preparation of this report each presbyterial chairman was asked to assist by offering suggestions and by stating the condition in each presbyterial. A single reply was received and that is gladly quoted. Speaking of the effect of a concerted effort by the pastors of a community he says: 'It is another case of United we stand, divided we fall.' The public officials fear a united church sentiment, but have a contempt for the spasmodic utterances of an unorganized few.'

"Then this presbyterial chairman tells how the prosecutor stopped Sunday baseball in one of the towns, when appealed to by all the ministers, though he personally was in favor of the game on the Lord's Day.

"A very bold insult to the Christians of our State was offered at Trenton this year when Mr. Daab, of Hudson county, fathered a bill in the House which would permit Sunday baseball in cities of the first class. The bill was killed by the narrow margin of 28 to 27. This daring effort last March should make us alert to frustrate a possible repetition of the offense. Had this bill passed the House your committee on Sabbath observance would have been unusually busy at once."

The following resolutions were submitted among others:

"One—That the committee on Sabbath observance be directed to send a communication to each pastor in our synod about March 15 calling upon him, in the name of the synod, to preach a sermon on the subject of the strict observance of the Lord's Day, some time during the month of April, 1908.

"Two—That we most heartily commend and warmly indorse the work of the American Sabbath Union and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, national organizations, in their efforts to preserve in its purity the Christian Sabbath.

"Three—That, in harmony with the general assembly resolutions No. 10, we urge our churches to take an offering at the time of the Sabbath observance sermon next April for the work of the American Sabbath Union."

Moderator W. W. Hollaway, of Dover, named Leander N. Lovell as a member of the committee on minutes of the General Assembly.

Lecture on Mexico.

FOR COURT NOT FOR JURY

Court Decides Matter at Issue in Schorb Case Is Question of Law.

IN EJECTMENT CASE

Tenant Holding from Year to Year
Gets But a Day's Notice—
Lawyers to Submit Briefs.

The ejectment suit of Mrs. Carry L. Schorb and Mrs. Josephine A. Mason against Henry Haurand, was called in the Circuit Court at Elizabeth, this morning. The court decided that the case is a question of law and after dismissing the jurors, instructed counsel for both the plaintiff and defendant to prepare briefs to be submitted within the next ten days, after which it will hand down a decision. Francis J. Blatz is counsel for Mr. Haurand, while Moles & Morton, of Jersey City, represent the complainants.

The case is an old one, having been a matter of dispute for some time. The complainants together with Mrs. Minnie Schorb claim life interest in the property, which is now occupied by Mr. Haurand and that upon their death it is to go to their children. Mr. Haurand made a lease with Mrs. Elizabeth Schorb under date of 1897, which was for five years. Mrs. Schorb died in 1899 and the property went to her husband, John Schorb, Sr., for life. Mr. Haurand continued possession under the old lease. On December 31, 1906 Mr. Schorb died and under the terms of the will the property went to the two complainants and Mrs. Minnie Schorb. During January, February, March and April of this year Mr. Haurand continued as a tenant and paid his rent to the owners. He is still in possession of the property.

The question of law to be decided is whether or not a tenant, holding over from year to year and who is not served with a three months' notice, is entitled to possession under the terms of the original lease. In this case the tenant was given one day's notice. Another question to be decided is the rights of the executors in the matter. John Schorb and Mrs. Josephine A. Mason, his sister, are the executors. Under the terms of the will the property was to remain intact for a period of ten years. Although Mrs. Minnie Schorb, wife of William Schorb, has an interest in the property, she declined to become a party to the suit.

MORE FAILURES MAKE MONEY MARKET UNEASY

Panicky conditions in the money market, started by the run on the Knickerbocker Trust Company yesterday, continued today and the Westinghouse Manufacturing and Electric Company went into the hands of a receiver at shortly before noon. The stock broke 53 points, but the amount of the liabilities cannot be learned. A run was started on the Trust Company of America at 11 o'clock today and more than a thousand of the largest depositors were in line when the bank opened for business. The company has eleven millions in specie to meet the demands of the depositors and it is believed that the run can be checked.

All stock broke heavily at the opening of the market today. Consolidated Gas fell thirteen points and Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Reading, Southern Pacific and other railroad stocks broke from seven to ten points apiece in the first hours of trading on the floor. All stocks weakened, from two to fifty-three points.

Some men confided to their neighbors their opinions as to what institutions offered the securest depositories for their funds. A prosperous looking depositor, who might have been a professional man, announced to the next in line that he came from a New Jersey town. "I know something about the banks in my town," he said. "I know the officers and directors personally, and am going to take my money there." The man in question came from Plainfield.

Will Assume Charge of Gold Mine.

Thomas Hanna, of East Fifth street, who recently resigned his position with the banking house of Hervey Fisk & Sons, will sail for Venezuela where he will assume charge of a gold mine in which Freeholder S. P. T. Wilbur and other Plainfielders are interested. He will be accompanied by eight men who are experienced in all forms of mining.

HIS FAMILY IN ITALY
WILL RECEIVE $1,375

The widow and two little children of Raffaele Caruso were yesterday awarded a verdict for $1,375 against the Central Railroad Company for having caused his death at the Pond Tool Company's yard a year ago last summer. The strange part of the case was that the widow and children who will get this money have never left Italy. The railroad company would not admit the marriage until it was proved by an eye witness.

The company denied liability and insisted that the Pond Tool Company was responsible for the death of Caruso, and that the railroad company was not to blame in any way, and also that Caruso was himself negligent. The jury decided the other way. The amount of the verdict was calculated by ascertaining the actual loss in dollars and cents, the law not allowing any compensation for pain or sorrow or loss of association.

Craig A. Marsh was counsel for the widow and children, and Messrs. Faulks, of Lindabury, Depue & Faulks, and W. A. Barkalew, counsel for the Central Railroad Company.

JERSEY'S JR. O. U. A. M.
GAINS 4582 MEMBERS

At the annual convention of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of New Jersey, which is being held at Trenton today and tomorrow, the report of State Council Secretary Miers shows that there are 294 councils, the same as last year, one new one having been instituted and one old one suspended. During the year there were admitted by initiation 4,532 new members, 492 were reinstated, 159 were admitted by card and 36 were admitted by dismissal certificates. During the same time 153 members withdrew, 1796 were suspended, 407 died and nine were expelled. The total membership at the close of the fiscal year was 46,873.

During the fiscal year the receipts from weekly dues amounted to $422,276.55, and the total receipts from all sources were $628,474.91. The councils paid out for sick benefits $103,987.12; for funeral benefits $118,262.09; for funeral benefits on account of deaths of wives, $62. The total amount paid out for all purposes was $260,587.98, a gain for the year of $27,886.93.

The total worth of the subordinate councils is $832,805.36, a net increase of $82,639.25 for the year. The councils of this state during the year paid to the funeral benefit associations a total of $115,000.98 and received from these associations $100,727.30.

There is a gain in membership in every county in the state except Ocean, that county having lost thirty-six members. Atlantic county, with nine new members, made the smallest gain, and Essex, with 829, made the largest gain. The 207 deaths were the largest number of any year in the history of the order.

Rubenstein Wins Semi-Finals.

In the semi-final round of the boys' championship tennis tournament of the city high school, Moses Rubenstein won from George Durar after three sets on Briggs' court yesterday afternoon. Durar took the first set 6-4, the second went to Durar, Rubenstein will meet Clarence Bromfield for the school title this afternoon. The winner will receive a silver cup, offered by the high school athletic association.

Work on New Building Resumed.

Work has been resumed on Manning and Coddington's new building on Watchung avenue, near the railroad. Operations were temporarily suspended until the question of the building line could be settled by the Common Council. That body established a new line between Fourth street and Crescent avenue, allowing the line upon which the building was started to remain as it is.

SITE FOR NEW CITY HALL

Friends Society Buy Property to Take the Place of One Municipality May Get.

HAND HAS OPTION

Mayor Fisk Does Not Know of Intention On Part of City to Buy the Big Tract.

Papers were signed last night in an important property deal whereby the Friends' Religious Society becomes the owner of the residential properties on East Second street, occupied by John McKeon and the one adjoining on the east. The property was purchased with a view to having a place to move the Friends' Meeting-house, which now stands at Watchung avenue and East Third street, in case that property is sold to the city.

Charles H. Hand, the real estate broker, has had an option on the Watchung avenue property for the past three months, it being understood that the city might purchase it as a site for the proposed new city hall. Mayor Charles J. Fisk when questioned as to the probability of the city taking such action, declared today that as far as he knew the city has no intention of purchasing the land in question. It is known that plans have been under discussion for some time looking toward the purchase of a suitable piece of ground upon which a city hall could be built. Efforts have also been made to get a site for the proposed new police station. It is possible that the city hall and police station might be combined. If the right kind of a property can be secured within a figure which the city is willing to pay.

Charles Peterson, the florist, who occupies ground on Watchung avenue, adjoining that of the Friends' Society, and which he leases from the society, has just signed another five year lease, and if the city has any idea of securing the property it would not be able to get possession of it within that period, as Mr. Peterson intends to remain there under the terms of his lease.

DR. GROSSMAN SPEAKS ON CHILD'S EVOLUTION

Before more than a hundred teachers from public and private schools of the city and borough, Dr. Maximilian Grossman gave the first of his course of lectures on children's mental development as related to their school studies at the city high school yesterday afternoon. Aside from local educators, there were teachers from Westfield, Dunellen and other near-by places. The subject of the lecture was "The Mathematical Evolution of the Child."

Treating his theme from a rather philosophical and suggestive standpoint, Dr. Grossman pointed out that the teaching of arithmetic today is not based at all on the scientific development of a child's mind. Arithmetic, as he asserted, is not a separate subject, but rather represents the mathematical element in all subjects, in reference to accuracy and verifiable truths in all fields of education. The mind of a child occupies the same stage in its development as does the various epochs in the development of a race, and the speaker pointed out that this should be considered in mapping out elementary mathematical courses.

"I believe in the use of the elementary calculating machines, similar to those used by the ancients, to make the work as far as possible strictly objective," said Dr. Grossman. "They should be used in the primary grades and partly in the grammar grades, and the teacher should not expect the idea of rationalizing until they reach the high school age." Dr. Grossman emphasized two distinct sources of number conception, that of space, rather than magnitude, in a counting succession, and the ratio or comparison idea developed by measurement.

DEMOCRATS HOLD RALLY

Swackhamer and Somerset
County Candidates Spel-

PLAN MASS MEETING

Senator Silzer and Others to Speak
On State Issues On Tuesday Night In Saengerbund Hall.

North Plainfield Democrats gathered in force at the first party rally of the campaign held in the Democratic headquarters at 80 Somerset street, last night. The affair was of the nature of a voters' smoker, and the county and borough candidates were present with few exceptions. Walter L. Linbarger, the party leader, was chairman of the meeting, which was informal, and enthusiasm in the fall campaign was roused by informal speeches by the candidates and boroughites prominent in the interest of the party.

Charles Allen, the party candidate for Assembly, was unable to be present as expected, for he was called to Chicago. William J. De Mond, the party candidate for re-election for surrogate, and Frank Ross, candidate for sheriff, were present and both made speeches on the coming campaign which won them applause. De Mond said that the fight would be a hard one, but that united action by the voters at the polls could secure a party victory. Katzenbach's campaign posters adorned the walls and the candidate was discussed by the speakers in reference to his stand on the liquor question. Horace Coddington, of Somerville, secretary of the Somerset County Democratic Committee, was present, and in a speech which roused much enthusiasm, called for the support of the gubernatorial and county candidates at the polls.

The local speakers included former Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer and William J. Conroy. They talked of organization among the borough Democrats for the support of the county as well as of the local candidates. The individual borough candidates on the ticket were discussed informally, and the consensus of the meeting seemed to be in their support. It is planned to have the headquarters open every night till Election Day, and a series of talks by men prominent in Democratic politics in the borough is being arranged. The meetings each evening are to be informal.

Senator George Silzer, of Middlesex county, will address a special mass meeting of borough Democrats to be held in Saengerbund Hall next Tuesday. Among the other speakers of the evening is former Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer.

Gift Appreciated.

One of the pleasant features of the diamond jubilee of the First M. E. Church was the presentation to the Sunday school of the fine large painting from Rev. Henry M. Simpson, of Elizabeth. The picture was painted by Mr. Simpson especially for the occasion and is an accurate portrayal of the Holy Land as seen from the crossroads of a ship out in the Mediterranean sea. Geographically the picture is correct in every detail and is valued highly by every member of the church and school. The presentation came as a great surprise as Mr. Simpson had given no previous hint of his intentions.

No Complaint Was Made at Court.

Lewis Moon, Adeline and Lillie Cuff and Florence Babbitt, who were arrested by Marshals Pope and Kieran of the borough force for fighting Monday night, were dismissed when they faced Recorder Dooliver at the session of court last night. Complaint was to have been made by William Mowry, a neighbor on Jefferson avenue, but he did not put in an appearance until nearly 8 o'clock. The prisoners were held in the courtroom until 7.30 and dismissed because no one appeared to press the complaint.

Panhandler Tackles Chief Kiely.

Thomas Colgate, whose appearance belied relationship to the soap-making family, was arraigned in the city court, this morning, on a charge of vagrancy. He was panhandling about the business streets yesterday and made the mistake of picking out Chief Kiely for a touch. He gave Phillipsburg as his place of residence and Judge Runyon allowed him thirty minutes in which to be well on his way to that place.

Converted Jew to Speak.

Samuel A. Hurwitz, a converted Jew who has charge of the Christian Mission to the Jews in Newark, will speak at the Rescue Mission on Madison avenue, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. He will speak especially to the Jews and they will hear the address in Hebrew. To those who cannot understand Hebrew Mr. Hurwitz will speak in English.

ACKERMAN DEFENDS
AMERICAN SABBATHArguing from a Humanitarian Standpoint Senator Tells of the Evils of the Late Continental Sunday.

EUROPE REFORMING

Treat Charge Has Come About in Many Continental Countries
Says World Traveler and Political Student.

State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, who is said to be the closest student of current political subjects in the New Jersey Legislature, sounds an alarm against the tendency for the so-called Continental Sabbath. In an interview today, the Senator reviews the situation in Europe, showing the baneful influences of the old "liberal" Sunday observance—or its non-observance—and the effect of any modification of the Bishops' law permitting Sunday selling.

"The increasing demand by the thinking electorate for the observance of the American Sabbath," said Senator Ackerman today, "is not the result of the contraction of intellect of the narrowness of vision or of the blindness of bigotry.

"The tendency of the times hitherto has been to drive ahead without regard to the milestones of sentiment and wisdom which have been placed along the pathway of our progress for our safety and guidance.

"I have heard it reliably stated that more people are now working seven days each week than at any previous time in our history.

"The idea of forcing people to labor without a day of rest is not sound from either an economical or humanitarian point of view. Who can successfully challenge this statement? The thoughtless clamor for a so-called liberal Sunday, which open liquor saloons, simply adds to an already existing evil and in my opinion is largely the result of a selfish desire for profits regardless of its effect in reversing the time-honored policy of the good old State of New Jersey. There would be more logic for Sunday opening of grocery stores and meat markets than there would be for open liquor saloons.

"Does it not appear reasonable that successful agitation for open Sunday saloons will be followed in other lines of work and industry? The final result would bring all the miseries and privations of the late Continental Sabbath. The words 'late Continental' are used advisedly because the old regime is passing away and that very rapidly. From observations during repeated trips abroad I know this to be a fact. Why not profit by this experience? Recently the French Chamber of Deputies passed a law, with but one dissenting vote, to protect the workman and to give him a day of rest. Contrast this action with the days of the old Bourbon Monarchy of a hundred years ago which wanted to entirely abolish the Sabbath!

"The present European Sabbath cannot now be regarded as the same old wide-open noisy day that it used to be. In fact even the London Sunday does not appear to be regarded any longer as the only standard of law and order. It appears strange that travelling Englishmen loudly complain that Paris has undergone a great change and that for gayety on that day they must go elsewhere.

"Reforms regarding Sunday observance have progressed steadily throughout Europe and embrace France, Italy, Switzerland, Spain and Portugal—in the last the new laws went into effect July 1, 1907.

"Does it not appear odd that Europe, which has suffered from the evils of an open Sunday, should be held up as an object lesson of merit by those who wish to destroy the American Sabbath—in the interest of personal profits and are not the profits simply for those who really own the liquor store? Is it not a fact that the reputed proprietor in many cases is merely an agent? Is it not a fact that he has been driven to the last ditch in many cases by the mortgagee who insists that he shall slave and labor seven days and nights each week? Who will deny these facts?

"Investigation will show that even the bartenders and in many cases the individual owners would vigorously —Somerville Gardens, which has been the scene of great activity for the past six weeks, laying out streets, and putting the property in shape for sale is to be placed on the market Sunday, October 27, and W. C. Reeves & Co., brokers for the owners, will run a free special train from Jersey City to Somerville, and as an inducement to the early buyer, they are going to let the first 175 of these lots go at $12 each, on easy payment plan. As this property is only two blocks from the trolley, and six minutes walk from Somerville station, and Somerville has a population of over 8,000, with abundance of stores, schools, churches and all city improvements. It looks as though lots for $12 each, in a city of this size, so close to the trolley and station, is a rare opportunity to secure a big bargain.

One of our clients owed $48 between four people. His salary is $14 weekly; rent $12 monthly. ## The Right Stuff

The shape of a suit depends on the stuff that is put into it. Without the necessary "backbone" of haircloth and high-grade canvass, a coat will soon wilt and become as shapeless as a boiled jelly-fish.

There are many cheap imitations of this "backbone" but nothing else will keep the front of the coat perfect in its shape, the lapels smooth, the collar close-fitting.

Every Watson suit is made right, regardless of expense. That doesn't mean high price, however, for we cut out the middleman's profit and sell DIRECT TO YOU.

At $15 we offer remarkable value, in popular brownish, olive and smoky gray shades.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

The Kirke La Shelle Company's production of "The Virginian," as dramatized from Owen Wister's immensely popular novel of the same

W. S. Hart as "The Virginian," at New Plainfield Theatre tonight. name, will be presented at the New Plainfield theatre tonight, with W. S. Hart in the title role, assisted by a notable array of dramatic talent.

So much interest is being taken in the forthcoming presentation of "Lena Rivers" at the New Plainfield theatre next Saturday afternoon and night that the assumption seems warranted that the sale of seats will be unusually heavy. The success of the play has been of unusual proportions. In fact, none of the book made plays of the last three seasons has had so great a measure of success and the work possesses many lasting qualities which guarantee it life for many years. Miss Blanch Crozier, who heads the cast, made a very close study of "Lena Rivers," and before the production of the play went to Frankfort, Kentucky, and Slocumville, Mass., and visited all the scenes mentioned in the book. Great care was taken in giving the play the necessary atmosphere, and the production is a complete one. The first act scene is an exterior and a very pretty one, laid in the hills of Massachusetts. The last three are taken to the South and in three scenes are pictured the manners and life of that section so dear to all our hearts. Miss Crozier is supported by a cast of twelve artists, including Julia Hurley, May Barton, Bernice Belknap, Miss Beulow, Paul Case, Paul Frero, O. Howland and others.

Edward German, the celebrated English composer who wrote the music for the comic opera, "Tom Jones," Robert Courtneidge, one of the librettists, who produced the piece at the Apollo theatre in London, and A. M. Thompson, co-author, have come to this country to make the American production for Henry W. Savage. This is an unusual distinction and shows the great care Mr. Savage is bestowing on this piece. He has engaged an especially selected company, headed by Louise Gunning, VanRensselaer Wheeler, William Norris and Gertrude Quinlan. Also several English singers and actors have been brought over for "Tom Jones." The chorus is conspicuously efficient, as the music of "Tom Jones" is of a quality that calls for brilliant vocalization. The comedy of the opera is quaint and effective. Among the prominent theatrical offerings of the season none exceed in interest the production of "Tom Jones." It will be at the New Plainfield theatre October 31.

Our Specialty Hats.

Two great features of our Millinery Shop are the hats we sell at $4.75 and $7.75—hats that in many stores would cost you as much again and which will pass even before critical eyes as worth much more than we ask you for them.

There is a reason why we can make such splendid hats so cheaply. Having an enormous demand for them, selling them by hundreds, we anticipate our needs by purchasing immense quantities of materials for trimming. Then we keep our workers busy from the beginning of the season to the end so that they learn to produce the hats with exceptional rapidity, bringing down the cost to us all around.

The window show we have been making at $4.75 has astonished a great many people, who marveled, not only at the beauty of the styles and colors, but the diversity of treatment. We bring out effects in these cheap hats that make them distinctive and pretty.

The trimmings, while not of the most expensive sort, are good and serviceable.

About 300 of these up-to-date, low cost hats are now in stock, so that all who come may choose a hat that looks for all the world like an $8 or $10 one for only

$4.75

Just a grade better are the artistically trimmed hats which you would not need to be urged to pay $12 to $15 for. These we sell at $7.75

There is a wide variety of these as well as others at higher prices, running from $9.75 to $95.

Pianos for the Economical

You Can Buy One for $5 a Month.

It should not be imagined that because we represent such high-grade instruments as the Hardman, Kranich & Bach and Gabler that we do not sell the more moderately priced instruments. We have two particularly good low-cost makes which we believe are by odds the best instruments on the market selling at such low prices.

New Hahne & Co. Pianos, $250.

$10 First Payment and $6 a Month Thereafter.

Hensel Pianos, $250.

$10 First Payment and $6 a Month Thereafter.

Spencer Pianos, $185.

$10 First Payment and $5 a Month Thereafter.

There are those who do not wish to invest a great deal of money in a piano—some for pecuniary reasons alone; others because the introduction of a piano into the home is somewhat of an experiment. A good many people who have just begun giving children music lessons are not sure that the musical talent of the children is sufficient to justify a large expenditure for a musical instrument. They desire to first see if the child develops into a musician and whether the piano is sufficiently fascinating to it to make it worth while educating it and giving it a high-class instrument to perform upon.

To these the Hahne & Co., Hensel and Spencer Pianos will appeal strongly, for they are excellent, tuneful instruments in which the musical qualities are first-class and the durability remarkable. In general appearance and finish they cannot be equaled for the money.

Not only for those experimenting are these low-cost pianos useful, but they are especially good for use in public places, in dance halls, clubs and the like, where hard usage is often given.

We make it extremely easy for any one to buy either of these pianos.

The Hahne & Co., or Hensel will cost you $250 and you can secure it by paying only $10 down and $6 a month thereafter.

The Spencer will cost $185, which may be paid $10 down and only $5 a month thereafter—merely a fraction more than rental would cost.

TESTED AND PROVEN.

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Plainfield readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. John Driscoll, of 217 Grant avenue, Plainfield, N. J., says: "Several years ago I made a statement for publication regarding the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills, and said statement still holds good in every particular. If I were to make a single change in it, it would only be to make it stronger, for during the past few years I have known many people to use Doan's Kidney Pills, and have yet to hear of a case in which the remedy failed to do the work it is claimed to do. My own case was a dull aching pain in the small of the back and sides. It clung to me incessantly and hard work seemed to increase it. I was subject also to hard backaches, and spells of dizziness when stooping. I was generally weak and depressed. I tried plaster and used many different remedies without finding relief, and was finally led to get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Randolph's pharmacy. I began using the remedy, finding, at length, the relief I have described in the testimonial given for publication in 1898."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Travis has announced his team as follows: Jerome D. Travers, Archie Graham, Findlay S. Douglas, Walter J. Travis, George T. Brokaw, Robert Abbott, Archie Reid, John M. Ward, Fred Herreshoff, A. M. Robbins and Marshall Whillatch.

Boston will have J. G. Anderson, A. G. Lockwood, W. C. Chick, P. W. Whittemore, H. H. Wilder, Richard Kimball, Hugo R. Johnstone, Templeton Briggs, G. H. Crocker, J. G. Thorp, T. G. Stevenson, C. T. Crocker, Jr., Percival Gilbert, Malcolm Stanton and R. H. Daniels.

Philadelphia—W. P. Smith, Dr. Simon Carr, H. W. Perrin, H. B. McFarland, A. W. Tillinghast, J. W. Watson, E. A. Service, R. E. Griscom, F. O. Horstman, H. J. McCurdy, W. T. West and George Cooke.

New names on the New York team are Abbott, Robbins, Brokaw and Whillatch. On the other hand, Howard J. Gee, Dwight Partridge, C. J. Sullivan, C. B. Macdonald and J. G. Batterson have been dropped. The absence of Partridge may surprise a good many, especially as the Yale player won his match a year ago defeating Gilbert. In the four-ball affair during the afternoon Partridge also figured on the winning side. The ignoring of Max Behr is also a matter of general comment.

While the team might be strengthened, it is undoubtedly a strong one and quite capable of putting up a great fight against the winner of the Boston-Philadelphia match. On paper Boston looks to have an unusually formidable team, and few will be surprised to see the Bay State combination defeat Philadelphia without much trouble.

FOOTBALL.

Princeton has run her total of points away beyond the 200 mark and is easily ahead of all the rest in scoring. Her nearest competitor is Pennsylvania, who is eleven points shy of 200, with the Indians having one less point than the Pennsylvanians. Yale stood still last week in the point of accumulation, as did West Point, but both of these teams have a clean slate of the other side of the scoring question. Yale, West Point, Amherst, Dartmouth, Exeter and Tufts in the East have not been scored on, and in the West Michigan has blanked all of her opponents.

Princeton's total of 237 is the equivalent of 39½ touchdowns, or within a fraction of eight touchdowns a game. That is exceptional scoring and the sort to give future opponents grave pause. The Tiger scoring has been evenly distributed throughout the five games, showing more or less sameness in the strength of the opposing teams and steady ground gaining by Nassau. The ideal schedule for a team would be that which provided graduations from game to game that would temper gradually increasing severity of test with one or two opportunities to ease up after a particularly trying game. For instance, Yale gets a comparatively easy game after the West Point battle, but the change from Holy Cross was too pronounced. From 52 points in one game to another which yields no points is a suddenness of variety in the strength of opponents calculated to bother any team.

Yale's schedule for the first month found one extremely easy game sandwiched in with three stiff ones, the scores by Yale in the four games coming in this order: 11, 18, 52 and 0. Harvard's point record has not consisted of such a sweeping swing from one extreme to the other, the Crimson's points having been made in this order: 5, 20, 33, 18 and 6. Schedule, however, are largely guesswork, for nobody can foresee what an opponent will bring forth. The Lafayette eleven, like Princeton, has made double figures in every one of its games, and with one exception there has been noticeable sameness in the number of points made against opponents. Lafayette's totals having been made in the following order: 22, 21, 43 and 21.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH.

In an interview fraught with common sense and sound logic, State Senator Ackerman "takes the bull by the horns" on the question of excise legislation and Sabbath observance, speaking from personal knowledge on the effect of the so-called liberal Sunday, which, until very recently obtained generally on the continent of Europe. It is the economic as well as the humanitarian standpoint that appeals to the Union county legislator, whose thorough comprehension of the subject upon which he speaks has been gained by many years of careful study while traveling in foreign parts.

That the senator is right, when he declares that there would be more excuse for Sunday opening of meat markets and grocery stores, no reasonable man will gainsay. Nor will he when the argument is advanced that Sunday selling of liquor would be followed by other lines of work and industry. This natural consequence has been witnessed by Mr. Ackerman on the continent, where, until but a short time ago, shops of retail merchants and in many instances manufacturing plants, were running wide open seven days in the week. The condition was particularly noticeable in Paris, Madrid and other large cities. Not until the workers themselves arose in revolt, however, did the governments act, the general change of sentiment being so strong that the officials were compelled to move for an American Sabbath. For instance, last spring all the big stores in the heart of Paris were open on Sundays; now every one of them is closed up tight. Humanitarianism furnished the keynote of the solution.

In referring to the subject from an economic viewpoint, the Senator very correctly declares that the retail liquor dealer is not altogether responsible for the agitation in favor of Sunday selling. In many, many cases, the saloons are really owned by the breweries and the handful of men who control such plants are really chargeable with the offence of advocating a condition similar to the "late Continental Sabbath." Were the average saloonkeeper, however, his own free agent, almost to a man he would be Mr. Fort's most enthusiastic supporter in his fight for the Bishops' law. One does not have to go outside our city to find that every owning saloonkeeper is glad that the Bishops' law is on the statute book and that he would oppose any modification of its provisions.

Mr. Fort's position on this subject is known to every man, woman and child in the state. He has nothing to hide and refuses to be a party to any deception to the public although the platform on which he stands is silent on the subject of the prelates' measure. Where Mr. Katzenbach stands nobody knows; apparently not even Katzenbach himself. Why he thus hides his views from the public is not understandable and unless he comes out clearly in favor of the Bishops' law or as an advocate of the so-called liberal Sabbath, he is doomed to ignominious defeat for the American people do not admire a man who is afraid of his own convictions.

THE BILL BOARD.

The campaign against the billboard is on in earnest in New Jersey, according to the Elizabeth Journal, which gives the following review of the situation:

"The crusade against the billboard is at last reaching a point, in this section of the State at least, where something definite seems likely to be accomplished. By the action of the Committee on Public Places and Amusements, of the Common Council, of Newark, all theatrical managers will be obliged in the future to submit to the members of that committee on a certain day of each week all the posters they intend to put out. In other words, Newark proposes in the future to carry on an intelligent plan of supervision as contrasted with the hap-hazard scheme endured by most of the towns and cities in this State. The good sense shown by this neighboring city of ours is well brought out by the reasons given for the action which has been taken. Evidence has been presented in the Juvenile Court, for one thing, that the posters which have been put up exert a strong influence on the minds of the young.

"In Jersey City, following the move made against the indecent poster by St. Bridget's Holy Name Society, the billboard has become a campaign issue. Mayor Fagan, urged to action by the Catholic clergymen, has taken a lively interest in the poster agitation. The result is, the Chief of Police has announced that he will arrest the theatrical managers causing such posters to be placed on the billboards of the city. In the future precinct commanders will be held personally responsible for all the indecent displays in their particular fields. It has been the custom of the advertising agents of the Jersey City theatres to submit the posters to the Chief of Police for his sanction, but it is admitted by the chief that many of them he never saw at all. But in the future this unimportant and dangerous way of meeting a practical problem will not prevail. The posters will all be carefully inspected, which is another encouraging sign of awakened interest in the regulation of the billboard.

"The interest in the problem is by no means confined to Newark and Jersey City. The Plainfield-North Plainfield Town Improvement Association plans to have a taxation scheme introduced at the next meeting of the Common Council. The idea is in Plainfield, apparently, to banish the billboard entirely, if possible, in order to bring about what is becoming more and more popular in this country—the city beautiful.

"In an article on 'The Crusade Against the Billboards,' by Clinton Rogers Woodruff, first vice president of the American Civic Association, printed in the Review of Reviews, this writer shows that the agitation in New Jersey is only a part of a larger movement which is spreading persistently throughout the country. He says: "The billboard certainly is not gaining in popularity. The revolt against the objectionable use of billboards is spreading day by day. They are being attacked in various ways and the lawmaking an taxing powers are being resorted to to control, and, if possible, eliminate them. A goodly number of bills were introduced in the recent sessions of the State Legislatures along the lines suggested by the American Civic Association to give the local authorities power to license and tax them; but all have been defeated because the billboard promoters were, for the time being, stronger, and better organized; but the people, who are the real opponents of the billboards, are only awakening to their responsibilities in the premises."

DEFENDS AMERICAN SABBATH

rously resent any attempt to repeal the Bishops' law because it gives them privileges and opportunities for rest and social pleasure which they had not previously enjoyed. The State Constitution declares among other things in defining the rights of the people the benefits of pursuing and obtaining safety and happiness. The pursuit of safety and happiness when applied to society as a whole is more complete in the observance than in the desecration of the Sabbath. The Republican candidate for Governor has clearly defined his position regarding the Bishops' bill and so have the candidates for Assembly from Union county. Should they not receive the support of all in favor of upholding the high standard of civility and righteousness?

Former Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. W. L. Mauldin, of Greenville, S. C., have returned home after a visit with Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Chambliss, of Central avenue.

Mrs. George Whitley, formerly of West Fifth street, has returned from Beverly, Mass., where she spent the summer, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitley, of Essex street.

RAT DOES THAPPEZ ACT.

Walks Telegraph Wire, Beest by Sparrows Until the End.

A gray rat walking along an electric wire 30 feet above the ground for many blocks furnished a novelty on West Baltimore street. The feat, which exceeds that of any trick rat ever exhibited in a show, would seem a dream of the imagination but for the fact that the spectacle is absolutely vouched for by thousands of persons who watched the strange sight from six o'clock until eight. Beest by a number of English sparrows, which seemed to take a fendish delight in attacking the badly handicapped rodent, he at times varied his steady gait along the wire by acrobatic performances calculated to ward off the attacks of the birds. He would sit up on his haunches on the slender wire, no larger than a lead pencil, and reconnoiter before continuing his hapless journey from pole to pole. After a most gallant fight for life, which deserved a better recognition under the rules of fair play, the unfortunate animal was finally knocked from the wire at Carrollton avenue and Baltimore street and dispatched by a dog. Just how the rat got on the wire in the first place has not been satisfactorily explained, but it is thought that a dog chased him somewhere—some persons say as far east as the neighborhood of Howard and Baltimore streets—and forced him to run up a pole.—Baltimore Dispatch to Washington Post.

WHEN A "HUNCH" HELD GOOD.

Chinese Laundry Ticket Suggested a Bet on "Wing Ting."

Kay Spence, a well-known horseman of Mexico, Mo., won $1,000 at the Louisville, Ky., race meeting a short time ago as the result of a "hunch." Mr. Spence has a large breeding stable of "runners" near Mexico, and attends all the big racing events in the country. Not long since he was in Louisville and entered the betting ring to see what odds were being offered on the various entries. He found that Joaquin was the favorite at even money, and pulled his wallet from his pocket, intending to bet on that horse. His attention was attracted by something that fell from his wallet to the ground, and he stooped and picked it up. It was a Chinese laundry ticket. He looked at the "books" again and found that there was an entry with a Chinese name, Wing Ting, at ten to one. That settled it, for he considered he had received a "hunch" that could not be overlooked. Wing Ting won handsily. Needless to say, those who backed the favorite considered Spence the seventh son of the seventh son.—Kansas City Star.

The Blessedness of Giving.

The tremendous beneficence of Carnegie and Rockefeller are having the effect, we are told, of giving the small-try philanthropists cold feet and scaring them out of the game, until it comes to pass that the man who has only the beggarly $100,000 or so, to bestow, evinces a decided disposition to buy fun less expensive, if likewise less intense with his money. This goes to suggest that philanthropists are but flesh and blood, after all, and hanker not to enter in a race where they are to be not only beaten but distanced at the post. The widow's mite is unexceptionable, of course, and it seems a pity that nobody hears the widow's name thundering down the ages.—Puck.

Satisfied as It Was.

A Richmond (Va.) minister not long ago was asked to perform a marriage ceremony by a young negro couple, says Harper's Weekly. As he had employed the groom for a year or two, he consented, knowing what prestige would come to the couple by reason of having been married by a white minister. At the appointed time the happy pair arrived and the ceremony proceeded. "Do you take this man for better or for worse?" the minister asked. For all her shyness the bride spoke up bravely. "No, sah! ah don't," she said. "Ah'll take him jest like he is. If he was ter get any better, I'd 'fraid he'd die; an' if he was ter get any wuss, ah'd kill him myself."

He Had 198 Chances.

Gov. Stuart of Pennsylvania said in Harrisburg of a bill that he opposed: "This bill, at first glance, is full of promise and enthusiasm and hope, but it is naive. It is like the young man of Kensington who proposed for the hand of the millionaire's daughter. 'Well,' said the millionaire, frowning thoughtfully, 'what are your prospects? Is there any chance of promotion in your business?' 'Any chance?' cried the young man. 'Well, I should say so. Why, we employ 200 men, and my job is next to the lowest in the establishment.'"

That Law Again.

For miles and miles the through passenger train had plodded along in the wake of the slow freight. The travelers grew irksome and even petulant. "Conductor," says one of the boldest of them, "why do you not get that freight to take a siding while we go by?" "Under the Hepburn law," explains the conductor, sadly, "we are not allowed to pass anything."—Success Magazine.

Where He Was Known.

"Who is this fellow Rush who spoke of?" "Oh, he's a well-known chauffeur." "A well-known chauffeur?" "That's what I said!" "Why, I never heard of him." "Well, you would if you were a court clerk, like I am!"

Terrible Revenge.

Manville (much excited)—He ruined me in business. He smothered my good name. He flitted from me the girl I loved; but at last, ha! ha! I am revenged!

Neate—Good gracious! What did you do?

Manville (hissing through his set teeth)—I recommended him to spend his holidays at the seaside lodgings I had last year, and he's going to do it.

TOO SHORT-WAISTED.

Lady—Good morning. I left my bathing dress here yesterday by mistake; may I have it, please?

Bathing Man—This the one, miss?—The Tattler.

The Latest.

Rounder—Wedderly wasn't at the stag party last night, was he?

Rounder—No. He was storm-bound.

Rounder—Why, there wasn't any storm last night.

Rounder—Oh, yes there was. His wife had a brain storm.—Chicago News.

Her Best Recollection.

Mrs. Lapsing was explaining the nature of the injury sustained by Johnny when he fell off the back porch.

"It's a wonder he ever went through it alive," she said. "The doctor says he came mighty near fracturing his jaw-joint. You know that's the bone next to the Medullion obligato."—Chicago Tribune.

Modern Improvements.

Fire Insurance Agent—I fear I must charge you extra rates. You burn kerosene oil here, I see.

Mr. Subub—Yes, but we run no extra risk—no risk at all. The kitchen is separate from the house, and there is a skylight in the roof big enough for the servant girl and the cookstove to sail through without hurting anything.—N. Y. Weekly.

Believed.

Physician—Your boy will pull through all right. He has a wonderful constitution.

Mr. Tyte-Phist—I am glad to hear it, doctor. In making out your bill, of course, you will not make me pay for what his constitution has done in pulling him through.—Chicago Tribune.

Slight Mistake.

First Stranger—Excuse me, but you are a physician, I believe?

Second Stranger—You are mistaken, sir.

First Stranger—But I overheard you say you followed the medical profession.

Second Stranger—And so I do. I'm an undertaker.—Chicago Daily News.

Keeping the Peace.

Citizen (breathlessly)—A lot of roughs are rioting down street, smashing windows and clubbing inoffensive citizens.

Policeman—Been smokin' opium, I'm thinkin'. I'll run around and pull a Chinese laundry.—N. Y. Weekly.

At the Slide Show.

Ballyho—I can't seem to scare up a crowd. All our attractions are too old.

Museum Manager—Let's get up an eating contest between the two-headed girl and the elastic-skinned man.—Cleveland Leader.

Aero Club Note.

Bacon—You say Santos-Dumont never smokes when he's up in his balloon?

Egbert—Never; but when he comes down the first thing he likes is to be helped to alight.—Yonkers Statesman.

All Right.

"What does McDobbs call his series of pictures of the moonshiners of the Kentucky mountains?"

"Studies in still life, I believe."—Cleveland Leader.

Boynton Square Pot Furnaces

The many acknowledged disadvantages of the old-fashioned round fire pot have been entirely overcome in the patent Square Pot—an exclusive feature of the time-tried Boynton Furnaces.

First of all, the grate bars are of equal length and motion, extending under the whole layer of ashes, making clearance quick and complete. No place to clog; no choking; no poking. Solves problem of perfect combustion. Ash pit is square—cleanest, best draught, handiest.

With the square pot there is greater ease of operation, more radiating surface, more economy of fuel, than in any other construction known. Your plumber, steam fitter or ironmith will show you.

There are BOYNTON heating plants of all kinds, for about our Round or Square Boilers for steam or hot water. Also ranges.

Football and General Sports

BOWLING.

Frank O. Ball, captain of the bowling team at the Park Club, expects soon to announce the members of the first team which will take part in the Central Journal Bowling League tournament. The tournament will start about November 1. Owing to an injury to his foot it is doubtful whether Alex. Mila will be able to roll on the team for the present.

FOOTBALL.

Drop kicking was rampant in Saturday's games, there being nearly a score of them the Minnesota and Pennsylvania State teams each making two and winning on that account. With a crack drop kicker at Pennsylvania State, a good one at the University of Pennsylvania, another good one at Carlisle and two skillful ones at Swarthmore the State of Pennsylvania comes near to having a monopoly of drop kickers. An 11 to 11 score in one game and an 18 to 17 result in another were among the pot-pourri of happenings on Saturday.

SHORT SPORTS.

Scholastic football on Hope common today—the two local high schools, city and borough, are rushing the pigskin.

Rubenstein, who won his match with Harold Durar in the semi-final round of the high school boys tennis tournament yesterday, will meet Laurence Bromfield in the finals for the school title at Briggs court this afternoon. Bromfield plays a hard, placing game, using strokes, while Rubenstein depends a good deal on cutting the ball.

Paul Collier and Ted Gavett, two of the members of last season's five, were in the line-up for the Y. M. C. A. in the game with the Baptist church team Monday night. They showed up in good form.

Leal's school boys have no football team this season, but have got right to work with basketball and are holding regular practices in connection with their class at the Y. M. C. A. Duke and Brown are the only members of last year's team in school, but the six weeks practice before the season opens will round some of the material into shape.

A special class for teachers of city and borough schools is being formed at the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Eleanor Van Tuyl, manager of the girls' high school basketball team has arranged a game with the girls' team from the Westfield high school, to be played in the city school gymnasium a week from today. It will be the first game of the season for both teams.

Armstrong's Bowl Rarities. The Armstrong Bowling team will roll a match series with the Rarities on the Plainfield Academy alleys tomorrow night. Ed. Britton will captain the local men. The Armstrongs will play a return match with the Rahway five in this city next week.

(Other sports news on page three).

Y. M. C. A. Boys to West Point. The first of the series of outings for the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. will be a week from Saturday. At this time, twenty of the boys, in charge of Boys' Secretary L. A. Soule, will go to West Point for the day. The party will see the cadets play football and will be present at the afternoon parade.

Grand Sir Herald Visits. Grand Sir Herald Horace J. Martin, of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, spoke to the members of White Cross Castle, at Whitehouse last night. The lodgesmen turned out in force in his honor and a reception was held. Eagles from Calton and Annandale were present.

The working building a new storage vault in the basement of the City National Bank is about completed. The vault is much needed owing to the increased demands for a place to store valuables.

"CENTRAL PARK" Was Is Will Be

IT WAS, only about a year ago, just a pretty farm. IT IS to day the finest building site in Plainfield, with broad avenues macadamized their entire width, concrete curb, sidewalks, trees, gas, electric light, in fact all improvements. Nearly $100,000 expended in new and handsome dwellings, now ready for the market. WHAT IT WILL BE we hardly dare predict, with contracts out for even more extensive improvements and twelve more handsome residences. Central Park is that beautifully situated tract bounded by Park, Prospect, Hillside and Thornton Avenues. Lots selling rapidly—Prices very low—Great investment or speculative opportunities. ### SUE MAYOR FOR LIBEL.

Orange Executive Said to Have Made Serious Charges.

Alderman Daniel G. Bury has instructed his lawyer, City Counsel William A. Lord, to start suit in libel for $10,000 damages against Mayor Isaac Shoenthal, of Orange, and Alderman Harry W. Berryman has instructed Mr. Lord to take up the case, and may take similar action. The two aldermen charge the Mayor with libelling them in a speech which the latter delivered in the 5th ward last Friday night, in which the Mayor charged that Republican members of the Common Council attempted to molest the city out of $900 in the purchase of a new fire truck. It is alleged by the plaintiff that the Mayor's language was defamatory, and that he conveyed the impression that the Republicans had profited financially by the fire truck transaction. Both Bury and Berryman are members of the fire committee.

Mayor Shoenthal said yesterday afternoon that he was not aware that he said anything libellous in his speeches, and added that he expected to keep on talking and telling the people of conditions which he knew of. "This sort of thing only advertises the campaign, and it is a good thing to arouse interest," concluded the Mayor.

BIG FAIR ENDS TONIGHT

"Gathering of the Clans" Will Terminate With Many Special Attractions.

WORKERS ALL JUBILANT

Attendance Last Evening Eclipsed Previous Records and the Receipts Were Correspondingly Large.

Enthusiasm of the all-wool-and-a-yard-wide variety was very much in evidence at the "Gathering of the Clans" last night. The attendance was much larger than on previous occasions and where the crowd is there's always sure to be "something doing." All of the many attractions, both indoors and on the grounds, did a rushing business all evening and the way the receipts swelled the grand total was a joy to the promoters of the big fair. The booths in the Casino proper were besieged with eager buyers and the outfits of many were greatly depleted before the rush subsided.

The balm atmosphere caused a good part of the crowd to devote most of the time in taking in "The Cycle of Fun" and the numerous attractions did a land-office business. The "hot dog specialists," Lew Timpson and Harry Hall, didn't have time to ballyhoo for patronage it came so fast and they had to summon volunteers to slap on the mustard and hand out their wares. Judging by the dimes that jingled into their cash box there will be an awful scarcity of "muffs" for the next ten weeks.

The Gold Medal minstrels played to S. R. O. in the large tent and they put on extra numbers in celebration of the agreeable condition of affairs, speaking atmospherically. Harry Blinn introduced a dancing specialty that sent waves of applause to the top of the center pole and Harry Messersmith made good with a new monologue, "Twenty-five rooms in our House." Tonight the troupe will put on a double bill and they promise a lot of good stuff that has never yet been handed over the footlights.

At Edward Lutzenberger's watch booth, the attendants worked overtime handing out the pocket clocks to lucky guessers and "Queen Lilly," the mite of a horse, was viewed by large crowds. The cane rack, Foxy Grandpa and the flap-jack tent were also borne along on popularity's wave.

On the Casino stage, the pantomime tableaux, "The Comedy of Ation," were again put on at 10 o'clock and they were very much enjoyed by the big gathering.

Tonight marks the close of the fair and everybody interested is making preparations to receive the banner attendance. It will be the last opportunity Plainfielders will have to enjoy the many attractions and at the same time add their mite to the hospital fund as no "carry-over" is contemplated. Everything on the booths will be disposed of and it will be well worth the visit alone to hear the auctioneers entice the change from the people's pockets.

Accidentally Shoots Chum.
Roselle Park, Oct. 23.—Adam Hohenstroeder, fifteen years old, living at Westfield avenue and Maple street, was accidentally shot, Monday night, by a playmate, Alexander Jack. They had an air gun, which Jack discharged while pointing the weapon at his companion. The bullet entered young Hohenstroeder's leg, inflicting a bad wound. Dr. Pierson, who is attending the lad, fears blood poisoning may result from the wound.

Funeral of Mrs. Lewis.
The funeral of Mrs. Mary Stowers Lewis was held at the home of her son-in-law, D. F. Ginn, of Watchung avenue, yesterday afternoon. It was conducted by Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelle in the presence of a gathering of relatives and friends. During the service two selections were rendered by a quartette composed of Miss Grace Carroll, Miss Etta Rabert, Elmer D. Cutting and Judge William N. Runyon. The body was afterward sent to Binghamtown, N. Y., where interment will be made today.

Defamation Suit Off.
The suit for $10,000 damages for defamation of character which Jennie Grotty, a servant, has instituted against Simeon A. Cruikshank, and which was to have been tried this week, in the Union County court has been put off for the term. It is reported that the case is not likely to be tried, that it may be settled before another date is fixed.

Fire Drill In Borough.
Superintendent Krebs, of the borough schools, sounded the fire signal on the bells at the Somerset street school this morning at about 11 o'clock. The building was emptied of pupils in about a little over two minutes. There was no confusion.

Rev. Mr. Craig Cannot Attend.
Rev. Mr. Craig, who was expected to speak at the prayer-meeting at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will not be able to attend and the regular service will be held.

—The Sesame Club will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Ross, 403 East Seventh street.

PATENT "MEDICINE."

"Sadie Bailey Fowler" Puts Spell on Penns "Cons."

There is an ancient founded tradition in Rahway, handed down from the native Indian tribe, of a Sadie Bailey Fowler who made "good medicine." Alderman "Jim" has long been one of the devotees of this has-been, and he has inoculated his fellow conductors with the cult.

"Things went wrong all the way from Philly, and being a little skittish about the Hudson meadows, I thought it good policy to stop over and consult the spirit of Sadie Bailey Fowler, particularly as I knew the disturbing influence of 'Jim' was then commencing with 'Hughey'."

—Neuman Brothers did a big business in Bartlett and Sickle pears today. Tomorrow they will have a new lot of an especially nice variety in their big fruit display.

LAST CHARCOAL RELIC IN JERSEY AT BUENA.

At Buena, formerly Buena Vista, in Atlantic county, is to be seen the last relic in southern New Jersey of the charcoal mill. How many hundred years ago it was built no one knows. It was last used in 1870. For a century before Atlantic City or Vineland was founded charcoal burning was the principal industry of that county.

To this day marks of the old kilns are to be seen throughout the pine section. To this old mill all the coal that was ground in South Jersey found its way. When ground and sifted, it was carted by ox teams to Philadelphia and used in whisky distilleries.

The wheel of the old mill was made of stone bound by iron, in which are cogs to correspond to the cogs in the circular basin constructed to catch the dust of the coal. Round and round this basin trudged the horse that furnished the power.

Old residents say lean horses became fat in a few months after breathing in the dust of the coal. Farmers often loaned their animals long enough to get them fat.

There was also something about the dust that preserved the wood, for the old frame still partly hangs together, although lighter parts have long since decayed. Relic hunters have carried away some of the wood. The mill was built of the best material, mortised and tenoned. So far as known no nails were used.

Miss Phebe E. Sayer, who has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. James R. Joy, of the borough, for some time, will leave tomorrow for her home in Illinois, where she will remain for an indefinite time.

A meeting of the Protestant ministers of Middlesex county has been held at New Brunswick for the purpose of considering the matter of dropping the score or more of ex-cases where the indictments pending have not yet been tried. Nearly two-score of hotel keepers were indicted through evidence obtained through the detectives of the Law and Order League in 1906. In one case a conviction was found. The prosecutor thinks it will be difficult to convict the remainder, but the ministers, it is said, do not take the same view.
