SUN A MIGHTY MAGICIAN

Declares Rev. W. B. Wallace in Lecture at Park Ave.
Baptist Church.

A REAL SUNSHINE MAN.

Brooklyn Divine Dimmed Radiance of Electric Lights—"Look on the Bright Side," He Says.

There was no need to wonder what caused the radiance which dimmed the electric lights inside and out of the Park Avenue Baptist church, last night. The cause was inside. Rev. W. B. Wallace, pastor of the Baptist Temple in Brooklyn had just finished his lecture on the "Sunshine Man" and it was the reflected brilliance of Dr. Wallace's talk shining in the faces of his audience which caught up the beams of light and radiated them all about. Nobody could have listened to the lecture and left the building with anything else in his heart than gladness because of having been able to absorb some of the diffused sunshine.

Dr. Wallace began by saying that the sun was a mighty magician making winter hide and bringing joy and gladness in the place of gloom and sadness. His influence on the world is like the influence wielded by some men's lives, all for the good. He said that there were three distinct attributes to the sunshine man—first, charity in not criticizing others; second, looking always on the bright side of life, and third, brightening life for others. He contrasted the sunshine man with the fellow who is never happy unless criticizing his neighbor; the man who is always dissatisfied with what he has; the fellow who imagines himself happy while separating a Damon from a Pythias or a David from his Jonathan. He declared that the "Critic Brewer" causes more heartaches, headaches and misery than the whiskey distiller or the saloon keeper.

Dr. Wallace suggested the reading of 1 Corinthians, Chapter 13, as a remedy for the ills of the pessimist and all others who are enshrouded in the gloom that wont come off. "The sunshine man," he said, "has a habit of putting himself in the other man's shoes and always remembers that he might have done worse under similar circumstances than the other fellow did if as well. The sunshine man does not criticize his fellows. He takes the beam out of his own eye before he attempts to take the mote out of his brother's eye, and he realizes that kindness and love accomplish more than kicks. He looks on the bright side of life and keeps silent about his own sorrows. He understands the law of compensation and demonstrates how it is that worry never accomplishes anything. He has the philosophy which forces a smile instead of a frown and he is the man the world loves."

"The sunshine man seeks to gladden the hearts of others. He takes as his motto, 'Look up, not down; forward, not backward; out, not in; and lend a helping hand.' Gladstone, Abraham Lincoln and Miss Helen Gould are included in the category of sunshine people."

The lecturer gave several concrete instances in anecdote of the workings of sunshine and repeated poetry of classic authors to further impress the thoughts upon his audience. This is one of the brief couplets:

"If I knew the box where the smiles were kept,

No matter how large the key and strong the bolt,

I would try so hard 'twould open to me.

Then over the land and sea broadcast,

I'd scatter the smiles to play,

That the faces of children would hold them fast.

For many and many a day.

"If I knew a box that was large enough

To hold all the frowns I meet,

I would go to work and gather them in

From nursery, school and street,

Then, holding and folding I'd pack them in

So they never would get free

And I'd hire a giant to drop the box

To the depths of the deep, deep sea."

Rev. St. John Fitch was introduced as chairman of the evening by Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, the pastor. The lecturer and Mr. Fitch were schoolmates in Canada and during the interval between Dr. Wallace's arrival and the lecture both spent some happy reminiscent moments together. A large audience listened to the lecture, and frequently interrupted the speaker with applause at some telling point.

BOY CAUSE OF STRIFE
TO MR. AND MRS. KLINE

The long deferred hearing in the action brought by Mrs. Rose Kline against her husband, Edward Kline, for the support of their eleven-year-old son, William, was brought before Judge William N. Runyon this morning in the city court. Mrs. Kline was represented by Winfield S. Anglemann while Judge-elect William G. DeMeza looked after Mr. Kline's interests.

The trouble between the couple has been of long standing and the Charity Organization Society has had Miss Maybelle Phillips investigate the circumstances relative to the boy, who it was alleged could not attend school for lack of suitable clothing. The boy, who is the bone of contention, appeared to have been well fed and clothed despite the allegation of the mother to the contrary. Judge Runyon ordered a temporary lull in the strife between the aged couple, and left the case to be settled through the intervention of the society, the father and the mother. Mrs. Kline demanded money for the support of the boy which it appears her husband is unable to furnish from his income derived from an occasional day's work with contractor Keeler.

Mr. Kline is seventy years old while his wife confesses to being about fifty.

WARREN CHAPEL HOLDS
SUCCESSFUL SUPPER

The fair and supper held at Warren chapel, yesterday afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the Missionary and Aid Society, was a great success. The chapel was thronged throughout the afternoon and evening, and 200 suppers were served during the appointed hours. The chapel was elaborately decorated for the occasion and the various tables and booths also presented an attractive appearance, representing different holidays.

Mrs. A. V. D. Honeyman, president of the society, acted as cashier, while Mrs. J. W. Gavett, Mrs. J. O. McKelvey, Mrs. John Green and Mrs. Gibson Smith comprised a special committee having general direction of the affair. In the evening there was a fine program of music by Martin A. Koiff's orchestra. The decorations were the work of Theodore J. Martin. The reception committee comprised Mrs. Charles Holstein, chairman; Mrs. Summers, Mrs. Schenck, Mrs. VanWert and Miss Gulick. This was the supper committee: Mrs. John Snyder, chairman; Mrs. Higgins; Mrs. Johnson; Mrs. VanWert; Mrs. Wilson; Mrs. Bodine; Mrs. McCroghan; Mrs. Boe; Mrs. Windham; Mrs. Hoffman; Mrs. Fahn; and the waitresses were the Misses Demarest, Hoagland, Newmiller, Stiglitz, Wheeler, Story, Bunker, Smith, Farlee, Higgins and VanDenberg.

The tables and those in charge follow:

Fancy—Decoration Day—Mrs. Benjamin Moore, chairman; Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Frazee, Mrs. Chamberlin, Mrs. Fenton, Mrs. Myer, Mrs. Parving, Miss Sargeant, Books and stationery—Lincoln's Birthday—Mrs. William Demarest, chairman; Mrs. George Demarest, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Glides, Mrs. Story, Mrs. Rankin, Apron—Labor Day—Mrs. Bishop, chairman; Mrs. Kline, Mrs. Hoagland, Mrs. Ely, Mrs. Martin, Miss Valentine. Children's table—New Year's Day—Mrs. William Bacon, chairman; Mrs. Brokaw, assisted by the Misses Green, Glides, Hoagland, Stewart, Ackerman, Smith, Martin, Bodine, Brokaw, Ruth Martin, Bacon and Bunker.

Candy table—Washington's Birthday—Mrs. John Schenck, chairman; Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Seader, Mrs. Pope, Mrs. Windham, Miss Swain, Miss Squier, Miss Coddington. Cakes and preserves—Thanksgiving Day—Mrs. A. J. Stiglitz, chairman; Mrs. Randall, Mrs. Newmiller, Mrs. Sharp, Mrs. Kline, Mrs. Woodland, Mrs. La-Tourette, Miss Tyler. Ice cream—Mrs. Vincent Burner, chairman; Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Whitely, Mrs. VanWinkle, Mrs. Gulick. Clothes line and wonder packages—Mrs. R. O. Stewart, chairman; Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Taynor.

Announcement.

At the expiration of the lease of J. Weinberger & Co. at 202 West Front street, Mrs. Max Weinberger, wife of the former proprietor, will reopen the store as an up to date clothing and gent's furnishing store. Mrs. Weinberger has been a resident of Plainfield for 15 years; she will conduct the business along the same lines as her husband.

NETHERWOOD PASTOR WED
Marries Miss Ellen Peterson, of Vineland.

TO TOUR THROUGH THE SOUTH.

Reception to Be Held on Completion of Newly Built Parsonage—Home for Christmas.

Before a large number of members of the church of which he is pastor and many invited friends and guests, Rev. Royal Arthur Stout, pastor of the Netherwood Reformed church, married last evening Miss Ellen Surran Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Peterson, of Vineland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. T. Pockman, D. D., of New Brunswick, in the Netherwood Reformed church, at 7:30 o'clock.

The bridesmaids were two cousins of the bride, the Misses Ida and Bertha Davis, of Vineland. The best man was George Walter Stout, a brother of the groom. The matron of honor was Mrs. A. A. Cozzens, of New Brunswick, a sister of Mr. Stout. The ushers were A. A. Cozzens, of New Brunswick, and Rev. Leonard Appeldoorn, of Kalamazoo, Mich. Donald McKinney, of Rutgers College, presided at the organ, playing Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal couple approached the altar and the wedding march from Lohengrin which was beautifully sung by Mrs. Cozzens.

There was no reception after the ceremony this function being deferred until the completion of the new parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Stout departed for a trip through the southland and will return in time for the Christmas festivities.

The bride was attired in white lace over Brussels net empire with train, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride robes. The matron of honor wore a blue silk princess gown and carried a bouquet of huge pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore empire gowns of pink satin with chiffon sashes and tulle vests and carried white chrysanthemums.

The groom presented the ushers with stick pins and to the bride a pearl necklace. The bride's gift to the matron of honor was a silver mesh bag while to her bridesmaids she presented gold crescent pins with pearl settings. A handsome gift to the couple came from the bride's father. It was the skin of a deer shot by him this fall and specially prepared for the occasion. The couple received numerous other beautiful and useful gifts from members of the congregation and relatives which will be shown at the reception after the completion of the parsonage.

Rev. Mr. Stout was ordained and installed pastor of the Netherwood Reformed church on Friday, May 27, last after his graduation from Rutgers Theological Seminary. The installation being conducted by the Newark classis and Rev. Dr. Pockman delivering the sermon.

Under Mr. Stout's careful guidance the new church has prospered and grown in membership and the indications are that prosperity will continue to follow the effects of its young minister.

Preceding the wedding the bridal party were entertained at dinner at The Plainfield, by Mrs. Berrien.

PLAINFIELDERS WIN HIGH
HONORS IN FRUIT RAISING.

Henry Baldwin Drake and Walter Rittenhouse, formerly of this city, who are engaged in fruit raising in Colorado, have won further honors in an exhibit of some apples at the National Horticulture Congress at Council Bluffs, Iowa. They received first and second premium and a cash prize on a plate exhibit of the Stayman Winesap.

This means a great deal for the young men as Stark Brothers Nursery, originators of the variety and all the growers in America, including the northwest, tried for the prize, but Messrs. Drake and Rittenhouse carried off the highest honors. The ribbons and the apples are now on exhibition at Armstrong's drug store.

Frank Hale's Funeral Tonight.

The funeral of Frank E. Hale, who died suddenly Monday night, will be held at his late home on Grove street at 7 o'clock this evening. The service will be in charge of Rev. J. O. McKelvey. The interment will take place tomorrow at New London, Conn. Members of the local Spanish-American War Veterans Camp will attend the service in a body.

G. A. R. to Elect Officers.

Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will meet Tuesday night, December 13, for the annual election of officers. A full attendance is desired.

"GOD'S CATHEDRAL" PLAN
MAY BE FRAUDULENT

What the "contributors" to "God's Cathedral" may think of "Bishop" Theodore Homer Geisel, of Basking Ridge, may develop later, but it is inferred that there will be a wild scramble for the dollars sent to a man by that name as soon as the scheme by which the money has been secured is given the publicity it deserves. The self-styled bishop, it would seem, has been collecting not only names, but dollars for the founding of a huge, cathedral to which he has given the name mentioned above, and it is alleged that his brother who is the real rector of a real church in Basking Ridge, is highly indignant at his relative for entering into a scheme which on its face appears fraudulent.

The project for the new cathedral, Mr. Meisel is alleged to have said, is to erect the edifice which will be non-sectarian with seats all free and to be built at Washington. There in a huge volume will be inscribed the names of "angles" who have contributed money in memory of deceased relatives. Mr. Geisel proposed to raise $1,800,000 in this way, but it is doubtful now whether the scheme will succeed owing to the publicity given to it.

HOSPITAL SUNDAY
DATE IS CHANGED

The question of changing "Hospital Sunday in the Churches," from the last Sunday in December to a Sunday in February, was discussed at a meeting of the Plainfield Ministers' Association, at the home of Rev. C. L. Goodrich, on West Seventh street, yesterday afternoon. The matter was brought before the ministers by George P. Mellick, chairman of the finance committee of the hospital board. He explained that during December the people are busily engaged in preparations for the holidays and are not so ready and willing to contribute to the needs of the hospital, as at other times in the year.

It was further explained by Mr. Mellick that about $6,000 more than is received is needed each year for the work of the hospital and it is believed that if a Sunday in some other month is designated as the time for receiving the offering, a larger sum will be realized. The matter was thoroughly discussed and it was decided by the ministers to recommend to their churches that a Sunday in February be designated for the purpose. At all events the annual offering will not be received on the last Sunday of this month. There were several ministers absent yesterday and they will be acquainted with the action of the association.

After the business session there was a social hour during which refreshments were served. The association will hold its next meeting on Thursday, February 9, at the home of Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelle. The program will be announced later.

ALLEGED MURDERER;
ELECTION REPEATER?

Thomas Williams, the negro from Asbury Park, who has been a prisoner in the Freehold jail, incarcerated under suspicious of being the murderer of Marie Smith, the little school girl at Asbury Park, on November 13, was held in $2,000 bail, today by Judge Willard P. Voorhees in New Brunswick. This followed the statement by Prosecutor Applegate that the man had been guilty of felony in that he voted twice at an election under the name of Thomas E. Morris.

W. Lester Glenney and C. Ames Brooks, of this city, representing a society, which has taken interest in Williams, sought to secure his release on the charge of murder, claiming that it had not been showing that he had anything to do with the murder. Edward Cashion, warden of the Freehold jail, appeared at the hearing and testified to the fact that Williams had been found guilty of felony. It is doubtful whether Williams will get bail.

Oh, You, Joseph.

The current issue of the Billboard, the theatrical weekly, has the following to say in its correspondence notes of a well known Plainfielder: "Joseph Lane, advance man for 'Silver Treads,' was in town today arranging for the appearance of the production at the Lyric next week. Joe is looking fat and sassy and had the usual cheerful smile for his old friends."

Miss Clyde Burnet will lead the meeting at the Plainfield Rescue Mission tonight at 8 o'clock.

REVOLTS AMONG NATIONS

Germany, England and The United States Affected

by Crises.

SAYS MISS J. E. NICHOLS.

In Lecture Before Large Audience

At Hartridge Auditorium—

President's Dilemma.

Miss Janet E. Nichols, of Washington, D. C. gave the second talk in her series of nine on current history yesterday afternoon in the Hartridge auditorium before a large and appreciative audience. She took as the topic the reasons for the revolt, unrest and changes along progressive lines in the three great Saxon countries, the United States, Great Britain and Germany. In each of these three great and progressive countries there is revolt of the common people against special privilege in one form or another.

Dwelling first on conditions in Germany Miss Nichols said that the Reichstag's hysterical outburst on its reassembly in Berlin last week and the revolt of the press and the entire German nation against the Kaiser's Konigsberg speech of August 26, in which he claimed for himself Divine right to rule, gave rise to two interesting points. First that any modern day ruler could be found to describe himself as the Kaiser had done in the following words: "Considering myself as the instrument of the Master regardless of passing views and opinions I go on my way." And, second, in view of all that the Kaiser has done and is doing to promote the welfare of his empire, that the German people should have been so incensed at his assumption of Divine right. Eight years ago such words would have passed unnoticed thereby proving the immense step towards democracy made by present day Germans.

Turning to the revolt in England we find the common people pitted against special privileges in the form of social position as unduly exercised by the House of Lords. The parliamentary elections now in progress in England hinge on the question of restricting the power of the House of Lords to veto liberal measures and money appropriations. Should the Liberals be returned to power Mr. Asquith, the prime minister, proposes to curb this power by passing into law any liberal measure which after three times obtaining the endorsing vote of the House of Commons is for the third time rejected by the House of Lords.

"One of the most dangerous situations which has ever confronted the English people is the question of Irish home rule. Ireland split into the two factions of Protestant North of Ireland and Catholic Southern Ireland, is at war with herself on this question. Feeling runs very high and should Catholic Ireland as she hopes, obtain home rule or Protestant Ireland get her wish in preventing home rule there are sure to be stirring times and our sympathies certainly go out to England in her present crisis.

In the United States the struggle is one between the people and special privilege in the form of trusts, financial corporations and the great moneyed interests. At the present moment the contest wages hot over the nominations by the President to the Supreme Court, the most influential body in the United States and President Taft whose nominees must be satisfactory not only to the Progressives of his own party, but also to the Democrats, is in an unenviable position. The Progressives standing for the people in opposition to capital are at present in a position to swing the vote when need be by siding either with the Republicans or the Democrats as the fight against the moneyed interests requires. In the opinion of many, President Taft himself would have been the ideal nominee for the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, but as the nation has already forestalled his usefulness along that line by making him President other names must be submitted to Congress. No name meets with greater approval than that of Governor Hughes, who although never a judge in actual position, is at this time specially fitted to hold the office of Chief Justice in that he has never, through years of experience as judge, obtained that bias towards the moneyed interests which would make any nominee for that office unacceptable to the people.

"As an example of the power of the Supreme Court the case of the New York Bakers Improvement bill to better the sanitary conditions in bakeries which was reversed by the Supreme Court after passing Congress and obtaining the President's signature was cited. This was the decision which Mr. Roosevelt criticized in his Ossawatimie speech and

ONE HUNDRED M. E.'S
INSPECT POND PLANT

One hundred members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, in which City Clerk James T. MacMurray is prominent, were in town this afternoon. They are holding their annual convention in New York and on Mr. MacMurray's invitation they suspended business for the day to visit the Pond Machine Company's big plant here, of which the city clerk is general manager.

Arriving in special cars attached to the flyer stopping here at noon, the engineers were conveyed to the works in automobiles. They were received by Mr. MacMurray and Col. R. C. McKinney, president of the company. After an exchange of pleasantries, luncheon was served, W. W. Warnock being the caterer. George Westinghouse, of Pittsburgh, Pa., as president of the society, congratulated Mr. MacMurray for his executive ability in bringing the plant up to its excellent state of efficiency. Former Congressman W. W. Wiley, of Newark, the society's treasurer, and Prof. F. R. Hutton, the secretary, also had some kind words for the manager, after the shops had been thoroughly inspected. The engineers returned to New York in special cars attached to the 2 o'clock train.

VISIONS OF GRAND CANYON AT LECTURE

The beauty and wonders of the Grand Canyon of Colorado were portrayed through words and pictures by Nat. M. Brigham at the Washington School auditorium, last night, before a large audience. The lecture was the first of a series under the auspices of the Board of Education, and proved a great success. Mr. Brigham displayed 150 views, a majority of them being among the finest yet seen here. They gave a faithful representation of the indescribable beauty and wonderful formations to be found in this world-famous centre of America.

Mr. Brigham is a delightful speaker and his descriptive powers are such that he holds the close attention of his audience. His description of the Grand Canyon itself, giving figures as to its depth, length, as well as that of the main trail leading through it, gave all a clearer idea of this wonderful place never to be forgotten.

There were many present who have visited the Grand Canyon and there was double pleasure for them in a review of the whole scene so familiar to them. It is the intention of the board to give a series of such entertainments during the winter and last night's attendance should prove encouraging. A noticeable fact in connection with the lecture, was that the presentation of a picture of Roosevelt, failed to bring forth applause from even a single person. The audience sat perfectly silent while the picture of the former President was on the screen.

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Brigham gave a short illustrated lecture on the "Indians," before the children of the Washington School, and it proved enjoyable to everyone present.

WHITES DEFEAT REDS IN MEMBERSHIP CONTEST.

Winning members for the Probascio Bible class has been the most strenuous work done by the old members for some time and resulted in a victory for the "White" brigade, who defeated the "Reds" handily. As a result the Reds will entertain their opponents at dinner some time in January at which the guests will be joined by the new members.

The Bible class held its monthly meeting last night in the Y. M. C. A. parlors with thirty-six members present. After the business routine had been disposed of the young men enjoyed games, music and a general good time, including a roaring fire in the big old fashioned fire place. Dr. Norman H. Probasco is the teacher of the class.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Saturday; slowly rising temperature; light variable winds.

Maximum, 34; minimum, 11.

Gold Fob for Mr. Day.

William F. Day, chief of the City Club, and a veteran of the Civil War, was thanked by the members of the club last night, at their meeting, for the manner in which he has conducted the culinary operations during the past months. The club presented Mr. Day with a handsome watch fob, bearing the emblem of the G. A. R. on the reverse side and suitably engraved on the obverse. The meeting and banquet were held at Bilmm's Hotel in North Plainfield.

WILSON FOR
J. E. MARTINE

Governor-Elect in Letter to

Public Says His Administration Must Keep Faith

With the People and

They Don't Want

Smith.

Woodrow Wilson, governor-elect of New Jersey, gave out last night a signed statement, in which he declared himself in positive terms in favor of the election of James E. Martine, Democrat, of Union county, to the United States Senate to succeed John Kean, Jr.

Doctor Wilson in equally positive terms declared himself opposed to the election of former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., who, although he has made no formal announcement of his candidacy, is anxious for the honor. For some time the governor-elect has been holding conferences with Democratic members of the legislature and urging upon them the wisdom of electing Martine.

Doctor Wilson refrained from making any public statement until the present time, hoping that Mr. Smith would announce his retirement from the field. Doctor Wilson called upon Mr. Smith at his home in Newark on Tuesday night and personally urged him to retire. It is understood that Mr. Smith declined to do so. His lieutenants in Newark today announced that Smith must be regarded as a candidate.

The statement in full reads: "The question of who should be chosen by the incoming Legislature of this State to occupy the seat in the Senate of the United States which will presently be made vacant by the expiration of the term of Mr. Kean is of such vital importance to the people of the State, both as a question of political good faith and as a question of genuine representation in the Senate, that I feel constrained to express my own opinion with regard to it in terms which cannot be misunderstood. I had hoped that it would not be necessary for me to speak, but it is.

"I realize the delicacy of taking any part in the discussion of the matter. As Governor of New Jersey I shall have no part in the choice of a Senator. Legally speaking, it is not my duty even to give advice with regard to the choice, but there are other duties besides legal duties. The recent campaign has put me in an unusual position. I offered, if elected, to be the political spokesman and adviser of the people. I even asked those who did not care to make their choice of Governor upon that understanding not to vote for me. I believe that the choice was made upon that understanding, and I cannot escape the responsibility involved. I have no desire to escape it. It is my duty to say, with a full sense of the peculiar responsibility of my position, what I deem it to be the obligation of the Legislature to do in this gravely important matter.

"I know that the people of New Jersey do not desire Mr. James Smith, Jr., to be sent to the Senate. If he should be he will not go as their representative. The only means I have of knowing whom they do desire to represent them is the vote at the recent primaries, where 48,000 Democratic voters, a majority of the whole number who voted at the primaries, declared their preference for Mr. Martine, of Union county. For me that vote is conclusive. I think it should be for every member of the Legislature. Absolute good faith in dealing with the people, an unhesitating fidelity to every principle avowed, is the highest law of political morality under a constitutional government. The Democratic party has been given a majority in the Legislature, the Democratic voters of the State have expressed their preference under a law advocated and supported by the opinion, of their party declared alike in platform as in enacted law.

"It is clearly the duty of every Democratic legislator who would keep faith with the laws of the State and with the avowed principles of his party to vote for Mr. Martine. It is my duty to advocate his election, to urge it by every honorable means at my command."

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The musical and literary entertainment given by the Epworth League in the Methodist church, last night, was a most enjoyable affair but was very poorly attended. The committee was greatly disappointed as the program was made up of first class talent. Those appearing were A. Story, of Lincoln; violin selections, Fred Tallamy, of Dunellen, tenor soloist; Miss Rodenbaugh, contralto, and Miss Carrie Dawes, soprano, of Westfield; J. Matley Gangloff, of Dunellen, impersonations; Miss Mabel Ising, of Dunellen, soprano, and Mrs. Edward Krnic and Miss Lillian Kennedy, piano duets. All the numbers were well received. Mrs. Edward Krnic was chairman of the committee of arrangements and is entitled to much credit for the artistic success of the entertainment.

H. Nickolaysen, of the borough, started yesterday on the Scandinavian steamship "Hillegallow" for his former home in Germany. He will be away about six or eight weeks. A delegation of friends saw him off at the Hoboken pier.

Dr. Peter W. Brakeley was able to be out yesterday for the first time since Election Day, having been confined to the house by illness.

Henry Vogel, of Dewey Park, is confined to his home with an injured ankle, received by falling beneath his delivery wagon.

Former Mayor William A. Wyckoff is now considerably improved from his recent severe illness.

The Y. M. E. C. will meet next Tuesday night with Miss Ruth Day, of Dunellen avenue.

The annual meeting of the Dunellen Board of Trade will be held next Friday night.

PLAIN AND FANWOOD.

The scholars and a number of friends of Drake's Business College of Plainfield held a delightful dance, last night, in Excelsior Hall. During the evening supper was served and a most enjoyable time was had, dancing being continued until the 1 o'clock car for Plainfield.

The annual election of officers of Fireside Council, No. 715, of Westfield, was held last night at the semi-monthly meeting of the Council. A number of the local members were present.

The body of William H. Clark, who died at his home at Newark, Sunday morning, will be interred in the family plot in the Baptist cemetery here.

this afternoon.

The members of All Saints' Episcopal church will hold a big bargain sale this afternoon and tonight in the Fanwood fire house. Supper will be served.

Miss Francis Squiers, of Rahway, is spending the week with her sister, Miss Harriett M. Squiers, of Front street.

John Van Orden and Walter Mellick have been drawn from the township as members of the January petty jury.

Charles Eller, of Forest avenue, has been entertaining relatives from New York for a few days.

Miss Anna Sullivan, of Front street, has returned from a visit with friends in Plainfield.

WESTFIELD.

The Westfield Board of Education has called a special school election to be held Thursday, December 22, to vote appropriations to purchase a school site and erect a new school-house, the total to amount to $65,000. This meeting was necessary for the reason that at the last special election directions how to vote were printed on the ballot. This the attorney-general ruled invalidated the ballots and made a new election necessary. It is not likely that there will be any change in the vote on the subject.

Funeral services of Mrs. Catherine Alpers, mother of Mayor Augustus L. Alpers, were held at the late home, Dudley avenue, yesterday afternoon at 4:45. Mrs. Alpers was in her eighty-second year, and is survived by five children. She had been a resident of Westfield since 1876.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

OUR ENTIRE SECOND FLOOR DEVOTED TO THE SALE OF DOLLS AND TOYS.

OUR MESSAGE TODAY is so very important, we hope you will not put this down until you have read every line. Why wait until the very last hour before you make your Xmas purchases? Think of how much more satisfactory it is to select your gifts leisurely and carefully. Think of the larger and better stocks you have to select from when making purchases early. Think of how much better and more satisfactory service we can render you, if you purchase early.

Aside from the wisdom of shopping early we must mention a word about the thoroughly complete stocks you will find here, and the remarkably good values, we are offering. During no season of the past have we been able to assemble holiday stocks, toys and dolls which approached those of the present season in completeness or desirability. The values offered continue to demonstrate the value giving supremacy of this store and in a way which has influenced hundreds of people to patronize us who have heretofore bought elsewhere. Our daylight toy department on the second floor is a beehive of activity daily. The stocks of dolls and toys are intensely interesting and attractive; bring in the children; let them amuse themselves. THIS TOY BAZAAR IS OPEN FOR THEM.

Tell the little ones that Santa Claus will be here every afternoon beginning next Monday; let them come in and tell him what they want for Xmas.

We add a list of items suitable for giving; check off such as you care to inspect and visit our store, and make purchases early. It's the wisest and most profitable thing you can do.

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

The presence of surveyors on the line of the West Jersey Railroad has revived a rumor that the road is to be double tracked from Newfield to Millville.

Caught in machinery, William Perkinson, thirty-two years old, of Fifth and Walnut streets, Camden, had his left arm badly torn Wednesday afternoon, and was cared for at the Homeopathic Hospital.

Isaac Sheppard, of Greenwich, has been stricken with paralysis and cannot survive. He was found unconscious on the kitchen floor of his home, where he lived alone. He is seventy-four years old and for many years was keeper of Cohansey Light-house.

The cadets of the Wenonah Military Academy, Major John R. Jones commanding, assisted Battery B, Field Artillery, Captain S. G. Barnard commanding, in the annual sham battle and dance at the Third Regiment Armory, Camden, last evening.

Robbers who entered the home of William D. Brown, a manufacturer of skirts and suits at Fifth and Pine streets, Camden, early Wednesday morning, walked into the room where the manufacturer was sleeping and carried away a pair of trousers containing about $50.

Bad teeth among the poor of Camden are to be looked after at the Homeopathic Hospital every Wednesday and Friday mornings, beginning today, under the direction of the Southern Dental Society. The work is in line with a general movement all over the United States.

The Burlington Council has passed ordinances providing for two bond issues, one for $35,000, to cover the remodeling of the city hall, take up maturing bonds and to pay for water main extensions and improvements to city wharves; the other, of $16,000, for educational improvements.

Announcement is made that Rev. Harvey W. Chollar, pastor of the Baptist church at Oak Lake, Pa. has decided to accept the call to Grace Baptist church, Trenton, succeeding Rev. Dr. J. C. Killian, who, with his wife, is now engaged in mission car work in the West.

Seamen expect to make some Christmas cash out of the wreck of the three-masted schooner Wishard, near Atlantic City, which went to pieces Tuesday and scattered in the sea 5,000 oak railroad ties, which, it is said, are worth $1 each. They are being piled up at various points on the beach.

In observance of the forty-eighth anniversary of the battle of Fredericksburg, December 13, 1862, about two hundred of the survivors will hold a reunion at Atlantic City Tuesday next. The Twenty-fifth New Jersey Volunteers, a regiment recruited chiefly from that section of the State, will be represented.

Mrs. John Gardner, wife of Representative Gardner, of Atlantic City; Miss Elizabeth Thompson and Miss Sarah Doughty have arranged for the erection of the Chestnut Neck battle monument, for which the State appropriated $5,000, and have given the contract to a Pleasantville firm.

A suspender buckle saved the life of Thomas Dawson, a milkman, at Hackensack, when he was mistaken for a burglar and shot over the heart by George Glatz, a young college student, who is at home for the Christmas holidays. The bullet struck the buckle, flattened and dropped to the ground.

William Jackson, of 970 Broadway, Bayonne, was before Recorder Mara, of that city, Wednesday, charged by his landlady, Mrs. Lizzie Roberts, with failing to pay any board for six years. Jackson said he had been adopted by Mrs. Roberts and worked for her. The hearing will be resumed later.

The deadlock in the Cape May Council over the election of a member to fill the vacancy caused by the recent resignation of James J. Doak, who was slated to be appointed Mayor or to succeed F. J. Melvin, elected sheriff, was broken Tuesday evening, after six ballots, by the election of W. S. Shaw, Republican, over Pilot Samuel Bailey, Democrat.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Junior Mission Band of the First Baptist church will meet this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The Baptist Boys' Battalion will meet at the First Baptist church this evening for the weekly drill.

Arthur M. Harris is the chairman of the Christmas entertainment committee of the First Baptist church Sunday-school, and an unusually attractive affair is being planned.

The Young People's Association of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will meet this evening in the chapel for Bible study in three classes under Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelle, Miss Anna Runyon and Richard Boardman.

Miss Alice M. Delcher, of Watchung, is spending the winter in New York.

George L. Turney, of Watchung, has returned from a visit with Newark relatives.

Mrs. Henry Allen, of Watchung, who has been in a hospital in New York for the past three months, has returned home.

WELL DONE, WOODROW WILSON

Some few days ago, the Philadelphia North American, probably the most fearless and persistent foe of political bossism, drew attention to the fact that the New Jersey senatorial situation put Governor-elect Woodrow Wilson to his first real test in public life. The whole country, attracted by the unusual personality injected into New Jersey's government by the election of a distinguished scholar to the Governor's chair, has been watching and waiting to see how the problem would be handled and disposed of by this untried man. It was conceded that there was no way possible for him to dodge the issue. The campaign pledges of the party and the candidate compelled him to face his duty squarely.

That the Governor-elect has measured up to his obligations to the people is most gratifying not alone to his personal admirers but to the people generally. His statement, issued yesterday, is clear, concise, unequivocal and convincing, when he says, "I know that the people of New Jersey do not desire James Smith, Jr., to be sent to the Senate," he not only tells the exact truth but he throws down the gauntlet to the boss of his party. He has kept his promise. During the struggle for election he placed himself on record in a debate carried on by letter by declaring that he would not be influenced or dictated to by Smith or any other self-asserted leader, but that he, and he alone, would be the leader and that the people would be his masters.

Mr. Smith refuses to withdraw. He must now be forced out by the Legislature as a candidate and by the Democratic party as a dictator. So far as the Governor is concerned, this fate awaits him. The handwriting is on the wall, placed there by the Governor-elect and the Democratic members of the Legislature, cannot, dare not, let it remain unheeded. "Absolute good faith in dealing with the people, an unhesitating fidelity to every principle avowed, is the highest law of political morality under a constitutional government." These are the words of Dr. Wilson and the expression constitutes his guide in public life. The will of the voters as expressed at the party primaries will be carried out. A new era has dawned in New Jersey's politics. Thank God for Woodrow Wilson!

READ THE WATER REPORT!

Copies of the report of the expert on the water problem may be had tomorrow at the city clerk's office. It contains 162 octavo pages, interspersed with several maps, topographical grade lines and tables of figures. On the average there are about 400 words to a page, which means that Mr. Fuertes has told his story in about 65,000 words. The

POPULATION IS 2,537,167

State's Big Increase Since Last Census When Total Was 1,883,669.

UNION COUNTY'S IS 140,197.

In Somerset County 38,820; In Middlesex County 114,126—Somerset's Gain Is a Trifle Over 5,000 In Ten Years.

Union county has a population of 140,197, according to announcement made by the census bureau at Washington, D. C., yesterday. This is a gain of 41,044 since the twelfth census taken ten years ago. Then the total number of inhabitants was 99,153. In 1890, there were but 72,467 inhabitants.

The entire population of the State, according to the thirteenth census, given out yesterday, is 2,537,167, as against 1,883,669 a decade ago. This is a gain of 653,498 since 1900. The census taken in 1890 showed that New Jersey had 1,444,933 inhabitants.

Middlesex county's population, according to the new census, is 114,126. The twelfth census gave it 79,762 and the eleventh census showed that there were 61,754 people in the county.

Somerset county has 38,820 inhabitants, having gained 5,872 in population in ten long years. Then its population aggregated 32,948. The eleventh census gave it 28,311.

A Simple Program.
Nothin' to do but listen,
Nothin' to do but wait,
And patiently hear with attractive ear.
What the statesmen have to state,
Nothin' to do but watch 'em
As they gather in strength once more,
To lead the way and to have their say
As they've done so often before.

Nothin' to do but cheer 'em,
Nothin' to do but smile,
As they set the sail to each passin' gale
And steer the ship in style—
Nothin' to do but shake 'em
When Fortune is not so fair,
For gratitude never was the mood
Of republicans anywhere.
—Washington Evening Star.

To Remove Mildew.
If kid-gloves have become spotted with mildew they should be placed in a bottle with a lump of ammonia about the size of a walnut, cork the bottle tightly and leave them for a short time, when the mildew spots will quite disappear. If left too long, however, the ammonia will rot the stitches; so they must be watched. An air-tight box will do equally as well as a bottle.

Young Folks on Straw Ride.
The Misses Anna Warnock, of Craig place, and Lucille Ewart, of Fairview avenue, gave a delightful straw ride party for eighteen friends last night. The trip was to Springfield and back with a stop at Westfield on the return for refreshments. Mrs. Margaret Wilson, of Grove street, accompanied the young folks as chaperone.

A Washing Hint.
It is not generally known that a slice of lemon put into the copper when boiling clothes will make them beautifully white, and take all the stains out of pocket handkerchiefs and children's dresses. Cut the lemon with the rind into slices, and let it remain in the boiler till the clothes are ready to come out.

Gave a Banquet and Dance.
The Nonpareil Social Club, colored, held its annual banquet and entertainment at the Plainfield Dancing Academy, last night. The affair was largely attended and proved to be enjoyable. After the excellent dinner was served there was dancing and an informal entertainment.

Kidney Beans in Brown Sauce.
Set the beans to soak over night. In the morning rinse and cook till a little tender. Put on in hot water. Make a thickening sauce with the water from the beans, a tablespoonful of butter and one of flour to a cup of liquid. Brown the flour, then add the butter, creaming the two. Add to the water and thicken. Pour in the beans. Serve with croutons of toast bread in small squares as a luncheon dish, or as a vegetable with meat.

Among the specials at Neuman Bros. for tomorrow will be a large assortment of apples, Florida oranges and choice grape fruit. The prices are right.

LOYAL DAUGHTERS

SUCCESSFUL TEA AND SALE

Under the auspices of the Loyal Daughters Circle, of the King's Daughters, a successful tea and sale was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stuart H. Patterson, 1006 Park avenue. Despite the fact that many other affairs were being held, the tea and sale was well patronized and about $75 was realized. Mrs. J. A. Peterkin is the president of this circle and all the members assisted.

Those in the tea room were Mrs. J. A. Hassell and Mrs. H. B. Smith, while those who assisted were Mrs. Walter Cahoon and Miss Helen Patterson. Those in charge of the utility table were Mrs. S. H. Patterson, Mrs. Burton Hall, Mrs. J. P. Gibson, Mrs. W. M. Alling and Mrs. A. W. Ransome. At the candy table were Mrs. E. J. Allen and Mrs. F. W. Carlisle. Mrs. L. W. Alling was in charge of a preserve table. Another table devoted to Porto Rican drawn work was in charge of Miss Louise Patterson and Miss Helen Patterson. Subscriptions for a magazine were received by Mrs. Perrine, Mrs. E. E. Ironmonger and Mrs. W. W. Coriell presided at the cake table.

PASTOR'S AID SOCIETY

HANDKERCHIEF SALE

One of the most beautiful displays of Japanese embroidery, cloisonne and satsuma seen in this city in many a day was that exhibited at the sale of cake, handkerchiefs, etc., held in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon by the Pastor's Aid Society. Beautiful examples of the finest kinds of silk doilies, exquisitely embroidered in flower designs; silk kimono, and other objects of art all of which were sent from Japan especially for this sale by a missionary of this church. The booth was in charge of Miss M. B. Abbott and was largely patronized.

The occasion was the annual Christmas sale and the total receipts were gratifying to the committee. The cake table committee reported the sale of every bit of their wares and the results at the handkerchief table were almost as good. Fifty dollars was realized. Those in charge were: Cake, Mrs. W. W. Dunn, chairman; Mrs. H. A. Pope, Mrs. A. E. Hoagland, Mrs. Charles Hummer, Mrs. George Balthazier, Mrs. David Boice, Mrs. Anna Diman and Mrs. A. V. Searing, Jr. Mrs. L. A. Hummer, chairman of the handkerchief table, was assisted by Mrs. C. McKillop, Miss Dorothy Ball, Mrs. J. L. Brower, Miss A. L. Cadmus and Mrs. Fred Lounsbury.

Tea was poured by Mrs. J. D. K. Young, assisted by Mrs. Percy Dayton, Mrs. H. A. Schaffus, Mrs. John Johnston and Mrs. John Martin.

A Reunion.
The third annual reunion of the students' society of Drake's Business College of this city was held last night in Excelsior Hall, Scotch Plains, the affair being attended by about one hundred pupils and their friends. The evening program opened with an address by C. W. Fogarty, principal of the school, after which two laughable sketches were presented, entitled, "The Simple Life," and "The Parson and the Tramp." Dancing was then enjoyed until 1 o'clock in the morning, there being an intermission at midnight for supper. The committee in charge of the affair comprised H. J. Armstrong, C. W. Fogarty, W. G. Yaeger, I. A. Henry and Miss L. McInerney.

Robison—McBride.
Miss Della McBride, of Martinsville, and Alvah Clark Robison, of Whitehouse, were married yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Munger, 201 Watchung avenue, by Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor of Trinity Reformed church. Howard Robison, a brother of the groom was best man and Miss Mary Crater, of Martinsville, was bridesmaid. The couple will reside at Whitehouse.

Will Serve Light Meals.
The Young Women's Christian Association will serve soup, tea, coffee, sandwiches, etc., also a simple supper for the young women remaining down-town during the evening. This will give them a home-like place to get a reasonable supper. The dining-room will be open from 5 to 7 o'clock, beginning Thursday, December 15, to December 24, and any young women are invited to take advantage of this opportunity.

ARCANUMITES ELECT AND HEAR ADDRESSES.

Plainfield council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, elected the following officers at its meeting, last night: Regent, H. W. Satterfield; past regent, H. N. Holder; vice-regent, H. A. Todd; orator, George M. Christian; secretary, L. V. P. Wilson; treasurer, D. W. Little; collector, Edward T. VanWinkle; warden, Abram Devine; sentry, Charles L. Smith; trustee for three years, Albert I. Little. The installation ceremonies will be held on January 26.

Brother Wilson, regent of Corinthian Council, Newark, and Brother Benjamin supreme alternative representative, also of Newark, were in attendance and after the election made brief addresses relating to the order.

Sentence Suspended.
Paul Richter, who was accused of shooting firearms within the city limits on Thanksgiving Day, was given a suspended sentence this morning by City Judge Runyon.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS.

Fiske O'Hara, the favorite Irish singing comedian, who comes to the Plainfield theatre, tomorrow afternoon and night, has for a vehicle this season Theodore Burt Sayre's great play of a hundred years ago, "The Wearing of the Green." In this play Mr. Sayre has seen fit to change his locale to Dublin during the dark days following the execution of Robert Emmett, and taken for his central figures those unknown patriots who died but of whom we never hear. The story of the play tells of one O'Regan, a singer, who following a quarrel with the manager of a concert hall, refuses to appear, and to fill the vacancy the manager seeks Phil Fitzgerald, an unknown. Phil grasps the opportunity to appear in public, but his efforts, owing to lack of experience, fails to please the listeners, and his hours as a public singer are filled with vicissitudes the likes of which no singer of the present day is likely to encounter. At the time in which the play was written, in Dublin, it was high treason to sing "The Wearing of the Green" and the familiar song was fast dying out, when, like a shot from a clear sky, bold Phil Fitzgerald, with no thought of the consequence, surprises his listeners by singing the contraband song and from the moment becomes the popular hero. The play abounds in thrilling situations and interesting episodes. During the action of the play Mr. O'Hara will render the following songs: "The Wearing of the Green," "Nora McManara," "An Irishman's Toast," "Eyes of Irish Blue" and "My Queen is a Colleen."

The desire to see "Three Twins," the musical comedy that had New York city talking for fourteen months, is so great that it is a foregone conclusion that all of the seats for the engagement will rapidly leave the box office once they are placed on sale. "Three Twins" will be the attraction at the Plainfield theatre next Tuesday night, and will introduce Clifton Crawford and the original New York cast who have helped to make this musical comedy one of the biggest successes of the past twenty years. It has given unalloyed pleasure to audiences as large as the theatres could hold in every city in which it has been presented.

Miss Lillian T. Smith, of Mahwah, has been visiting her sister, Miss Caroline M. Smith, of Watchung.

Elmer V. Ackor, a student at the Polytechnical Institute, Troy, N. Y., has been visiting relatives here for a time.

EAT AND GET THIN.
This is turning an old phrase face about but modern methods of reducing fat have made this revision possible. If you are overweight and also averse to physical exertion and likewise fond of the table and still want to reduce your excess flesh several pounds, do this: Go to your druggist (or write the Marmola Co., 988 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich.) and give him (or send them) 75 cents. For this modest amount of money the druggist will put you in the way of satisfying your ambition for a nice, trim, slim figure. He will hand you a large case of Marmola Prescription Tablets (compounded in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription), one of which you must take after each meal and at bedtime until you begin to lose your fat at the rate of 12 to 16 ounces a day. That is all. Just go on eating what you like, leave exercising to the athletes, but take your little tablet faithfully and without a doubt that flabby flesh will quickly take unto itself wings, leaving behind it your natural self, neatly clothed in firm flesh and trim muscles.

SPORTS

News and Notes

BASEBALL.

Whispers from the Pacific Coast have it that the Cubs are to be torn bodily apart by Frank L. Chance, the "Peerless Leader," and the rusty castings of the once great machine are to be replaced by bright new steel work. In other words, Chance is to make a wholesale shift in the present line-up of the Cubs. Naturally, Chance is going to play first base, notwithstanding that he is slowing up like all the other veterans of the club. Evers will be back on his job at second and Tinker will move over to third and shove Steinfeldt out of a job. Heiney Zimmerman will probably be given a chance to see what he can do at shortstop, while the only job in the outfield that is now sure is said to be in centre, where Solly Hoffman is king peg.

This means that Sheckard and Schulte will probably be turned adrift with Steinfeldt, the three S's of the machine being due to figure in trades providing any club is willing to give live players for them. The boxmen, too, are to get a shaking up. "Old King" Cole, McIntire and Brown are said to be the only slabmen sure of their jobs. Over-all, Richie, Pfeister, Weaver and Foxen are on the market if any club will have over anything in the pitcher line for the aforementioned Cubs.

There will hardly be any change in the catching department notwithstanding rumors to the contrary. Archer is to be the first catcher of the band, with the once great Johnny Kling acting as the understudy, with Needham the third man of the corps.

Two more Phillies sent in their signed contracts Tuesday. Fred J. Wilhelm, the southpaw secured from Canton, O., said to be a second Rube Waddell, both as a pitcher and an eccentric individual, sent the following with his contract: "I received both your letter and contract today and I thank you. I will show you my appreciation in the spring and during the season of 1911."

Charles Steve Girard, secured from York, and in whom Manager Doolin has great confidence, wrote: "I received your letter and contract and return the latter herewith signed. Am pleased with the inducements you offer me and will certainly work hard to earn them. I know you have a good team for next season and I want to be a great help to your team."

According to Garry Herrmann, the official scorers for the National League next year will be selected from Detroit, Cleveland, Washington and a smaller city, while the American League staff will be picked from Pittsburgh, Brooklyn, Cincinnati and a city not in either league. The scorers will be paid $2,500 and there will be some lively hustling to get these jobs. Of course, the scheme has not yet been adopted and they may hesitate awhile before paying out $20,000 a year for scoring.

Russell J. Hazard, of Watchung, has been visiting friends at Sag Harbor, S. I.

Edgar, J. G.—Heroes of England.
Yonge, Charlotte M.—Little duke, or Richard the fearless.

GINGER CAKES.
Half pound flour, three ounces butter, two ounces sugar, quarter pound golden syrup, half ounce ground ginger, quarter teaspoonful milk, two eggs, half teaspoonful carbonate of soda.

Mix together dry ingredients in bowl.
Cream butter and sugar, beat eggs. Add these to bowl.
Still beating, add syrup and milk. Half fill deep-dished patty pans, bake in a quick oven fifteen minutes.

LEMON CHEESECAKES.
Short slightly sweetened pastry, one lemon, half pound loaf sugar, two eggs, two ounces butter.
Line patty tins with paste.
Rub sugar upon well-cleaned lemon rind to get essence, put into a saucepan with butter, eggs and strained juice of lemon.
Stir gently over stove until thick as honey.
Fill patty pans, bake fifteen minutes.

Jersey-fopped Skirts.
The petticoats made with Jersey tops are more generally known this season than last. They not only have unusual wearing qualities, but fit so admirably over the hips that they are a positive aid to the fit of the gown itself. These skirts of course, have silk linings. The economical person will have several silk linings for the single top; a series of buttons or a little beading being the means of attaching the ruffle into place.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

To Harry E. Hayden and John C. Myers.

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the twenty-second day of November, Nineteen Hundred and Ten, in a cause wherein William F. Fruehauf is complainant, and you Harry E. Hayden and John C. Myers are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of said complainant, on or before the twenty-third day of January next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed to foreclose a mortgage executed by Harry E. Hayden to William Frederick Fruehauf, dated August twenty-ninth, Nineteen Hundred and Seven, covering lands in the City of Plainfield, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey, and you the said Harry E. Hayden are made defendant because you executed the said mortgage, and you the said John C. Myers are made defendant because you have since taken a deed for the premises covered by the said mortgage and claim to be the owner in fee of the mortgaged premises.

Dated November 25, 1910.

How I Got Mixed In a Love Affair

May heaven keep me from getting mixed in other people's affairs, especially love affairs! Ever since I brought Len Richmond down on a visit and introduced him to my cousin, Myra Dacher, I have regretted having done so. Len is an excellent fellow, rather inclined to look upon every incident or episode seriously and in a matter of fact light. I would as soon think of cracking a joke to an owl. Myra is a good girl, but nature did not endow her with average beauty. Indeed, she is homely.

I lost my parents early and was brought up by my aunt, Eliza Dacher, being beholden to her and her family for everything I had till I came of age. Therefore when I brought Richmond home and saw what were at least to me unmistakable signs that Myra had fallen in love with him and that he was not likely to return her devotion I felt as if I had committed a crime. True, there was nothing against her but her homeliness, for she was a fine character and had a winning way with her. Len, too, was not handsome. He was a lean, red headed, freckled chap, with a long neck and sloping shoulders. But nobody looks for beauty in a man.

He was conscientious as a mule. One day he came to me with a long face and said he wished to consult me about a very important matter. We were sitting on the porch, the doors and windows all open, and he spoke in a low tone. He told me that he had reason to suspect that I considered a foregone conclusion that he had unintentionally won Myra's heart and that he could not possibly return that love for the sole reason of her homeliness.

What was I to do? The only course for me was to convince him that his reason was no reason at all. Then if his inclination moved him toward the girl all would come out right.

"Len," I said, "I have heard that the best marriages follow from diversities between the man and the woman. A quick tempered woman should have a long suffering husband, an impulsive man a woman of self control, a homely wife." I paused. Dare I utter the thought I had in mind? Then I blurted, "A good looking husband."

Len said nothing for several minutes. Nor did I. I was waiting to see if he would swallow the dose.

"You mean," he said modestly, "that I should not marry a beautiful woman."

"That's exactly what I mean."

Then he cut me to the quick. "I have always felt perfect confidence," he said, "that anything coming from you is absolute truth. No other being could make me believe that I am anything more as to looks than an average man."

I winced, but the happiness of two people was at stake.

"Average!" I said. "Average by no means expresses it." I took conscious comfort in the fact that his appearance was far below the average.

Len intimated to me that my cousin's homeliness should not stand in his way if he felt inclined to make her his wife. He did not speak to her, however, at the time, and I fancied he was waiting for the spirit to move him. He came down again in a month and made his proposal. He came to me immediately after having done so and surprised me by telling me that he had been refused.

"And what do you suppose," he added, "is her reason?"

"I can't conceive," I replied.

"She says that I have every requirement to please her fancy save one. I begged her to tell me what that one deficiency is, and she at last said that she had always fancied homely men. I wouldn't do."

"You don't mean it!" I exclaimed, aghast.

"Yes, and she added: 'Now, there's my cousin. For looks he'd suit me exactly.'"

The hot blood rushed into my cheeks, then suddenly rushed out again. Then I wanted to laugh. It didn't take me long to discover a reason for this singular apparent coincidence. While Len and I had been talking on the porch the mix had been listening at an upper window.

Richmond stood looking at me ruefully, giving no evidence whatever that he had even the faintest glimpse of the truth.

"Len," I said, "if I were you I'd go home and think no more about it. After all, it would be rather hard for you to pass your life with a homely woman. Besides, everybody nowadays says that marriage is a failure. It doubles our sorrows and halves our joys."

I didn't succeed in getting any comfort into him, but he went home all the same, and I turned my attention to Myra.

I am one of the fellows who marched up San Juan hill in Cuba, but it was nothing to going to my cousin to try to undo what I had done. For every word I spoke she sent back an answer like a Mauser bullet. At last, losing my temper, I said:

"You'd better take me. You say I'm homely enough to suit you."

What did she do but turn her head away from me and stare at the floor.

Great heavens! Had I been barking up the wrong tree? Had she been using Richmond for a fool? Anyway, here was a beautiful broad road out of the dilemma. I brought up a regiment of Cupids and poured a rattling volley of love pellets at her that broke her down entirely.

And, now I am engaged. I wonder what the dickens I'm to say to my friend Richmond. And what about marriage doubling our sorrows and halving our joys?

S. HUNTER HALSEY.

Plainfield in . . . The Olden Days.

Re-printed from
The Weekly Constitutionalist

July 24, 1873.

Mr. Frank C. Green, one of Plainfield's rising young men, has recently been admitted as partner into the firm of D. C. Green & Son, dealers in Gent's Furnishings Goods, Hats, Caps, Valises, etc., 156 Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J., where he will at all times be pleased to see his many friends and acquaintances.

On Tuesday afternoon last William Harding, aged about fifteen years, son of Mr. John Harding, employed at the depot in this city, took a train for Dunellen, the train not stopping at the station, William took a leap from the platform of the car and striking on his head was severely injured. It was thought at first that he could not live, but we learn that he is slowly recovering.

We learn that it is the intention of L. L. Compton to immediately commence the construction of a brick barn on the site of his old one recently burned, also to erect commodious workshops adjoining the same. It is also rumored that he will have the grounds in the rear of his handsome store, laid out in artistic style as an ice cream garden.

"Cannot something be done to prevent young ladies from being insulted on our streets at night?" asked a Cincinnati paper. There can. Just have the girls' mother tuck her into her little bed about 8 o'clock in the evening and lock the door on her.

A large and select party of citizens of this city proceeded to Chimney Rock, situated near Bound Brook, on Thursday last, and there "picnicked to their hearts content. The day was pleasant, the music, under the direction of Frazee, excellent, and nothing occurred to mar the festivities of the occasion. The party returned at an early hour, arriving in time to escape a severe shower which soon after passed over this city.

Street Commissioner Wilson did a good thing when he cleared Cherry street and the macadamized portion of Front street which goes to show that he wishes the public to be in perfect health.

July 17, 1873.

On Wednesday forenoon last two little boys each about five years of age, one a son of Chas. Wilcox, and the other Bertie, a grandson of Samuel C. Peck, were in a boat in the Wepowaug river, below the dam, the former trying to scull, when he lost his balance and fell in, the water being about four feet deep. His companion was greatly frightened, but had sufficient presence of mind to catch him and hold him until assistance arrived. It was a gallant act for the heroic little fellow. The brave little fellow above mentioned is a son of S. C. Peck, Jr., of this city.

A decided improvement is being made around the grounds known as "Lover's Dell," in North Plainfield. A stone wall five feet high has been built along the water front for a distance of some 200 feet and the high bank terraced and neatly sodded. The work is under supervision of S. O. Horton.

A Youthful Incendiary.
On Monday last, a young lad, aged 11 years, nephew of a gentleman residing on Fourth street, attempted to fire the barn of his uncle five different times during the day. A close watch being kept upon him after the first attempt, his efforts were frustrated. He gave as his reason for his attempts at incendiarism that his uncle had scolded him and he wanted to get even with him.

J. S. Cutter will commence immediately to remove the old stone building now used by him on Front street and erect in its stead a handsome brick edifice, three stories in height. The lower floor will be divided into two stores, one large one for his own use, and a smaller one to be rented. While his new store is being erected, Mr. Cutter may be found under Pope Bros., Dry Goods Store, on Somerset street.

TO "CLEANSE" TATTING.

Tattooing cannot be properly washed to look as good as new, for it is almost impossible to restore the picots to their natural shape. Soak the pieces in gasoline and while wet dust them with cornstarch. Wrap them in a clean towel and leave them for several hours. Beat the towel lightly, lift out the lace and shake it free of starch. Press the picots into shape and iron lightly on the wrong side.

No Time for It.
Singleton—Do you believe in the old adage about marrying in haste and repenting at leisure?
Wedderly—No, I don't. After a man marries he has no leisure.—Smart Set.

The Old Market Wagon

figured in an interesting incident recently, when the discovery of the "Missing Will" in the wagon cover was made just in time to halt an administrator's sale and prevent the eviction of two aged legatees.

Very dramatic—but expensive for the estate and most inconvenient for all concerned. It would have been better to have left the Will in a Safe Deposit Box in the first place.

BROKAW'S CREAMERY.

No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.

Shop Early is the General Cry Before Xmas

But in order to do so, a person must be prepared and the average workingman's family struggling from week end to week end in life's hard strife, find it almost impossible to set aside a dollar for Xmas cheer and at the eleventh hour force themselves to spend money needed in other channels of necessities.

IT'S NOT SO HERE!

You don't have to wait until the last moment to shop here. Money need not worry you.

Your credit is good and you can fulfill your many Xmas wants without inconvenience to your pocketbook. Get at once what you need in wearing apparel for yourself or any member of your family and pay for it after Christmas.
