GOD BLESS THEM, SAYS CLERGYMAN

Rev. George A. Warner is With the Good Fellows Heart and Soul.

Now it might be considered highly disrespectful to refer to a man of the cloth as the 'candy kid,' but Good Fellow says he just can't help it. Rev. George A. Warner is 'all to the 'candy kid' in his opinion, when it comes to a big heart placed in the right place. When Good Fellow's was first published last year, it was the first to respond. That no surprise; neither was it a surprise to find in Good Fellow's mail morning the following letter in which we ask the writer's pardon making public without permis-

Holy Cross Rectory, Plainfield, N. J., Dec. 13, 1910.

Dear Sir:—I was glad when I opened my mail last night to see that Good Fellow is in evidence again this Christmas. There is much ground to believe that the churches cannot cover and that the children would fare but poorly if not at all in the Christmas feast were it not for Good Fellow and his corps of other red blooded, and enthusiastic helpers. It was my good pleasure to visit some houses last year where Good Fellow had been. The joy and good cheer which he had brought was still in evidence, so that I said then and do now—God bless Good Fellow and all of his kind in the work they do in blessing the little ones so beautifully on the Christmas birthday.

"G. A. Warner."

In the same mail was an application from another who joins the ranks of the Good Fellow by promising to make twenty-five poor little tots happy on Christmas morning. One good little girl promises to take care of a less fortunate little girl. And so it goes. Last Christmas, the Good Fellows made more than 500 poor little ones joyous on Christmas day. What are they going to do this year? Watch this paper each day and you'll see!

TO THE "GOOD FELLOWS" OF PLAINFIELD

TO THE GOOD FELLOWS OF PLAINFIELD:

Just about this time last year I told you my story. You listened to it—did more—you followed its spirit out in a bang-up style. I'm not claiming any credit for my story; I'm claiming credit for knowing that there are many Good Fellows in this fine old town of ours—royal chaps who don't do much preaching but when it comes to doing a good turn, well, they're there with the goods. This is no sermon that I'm handing you, it's a heart-to-heart talk with men with red blood in their veins, and here it is off last year's reel:

Last Christmas and New Year's eve you and I went out for a good time and spent from $10 to $200. Last Christmas morning hundreds of children awoke to an empty stocking—the bitter pain of disappointment that Santa Claus had forgotten them. Perhaps it wasn't our fault. We had provided for our own; we had also reflected in a passing way on those less fortunate than our own, but they seemed far off and we didn't know where to find them. Perhaps in the hundred and one things we had to do some of us didn't think of that heart sorrow of the child over the empty stocking.

Now, old man, here's a chance. I have tried for the last five years and ask you to consider it. Just send your name and address to The Daily Press—address Santa Claus—state about how many children you are willing to protect against grief over that empty stocking, inclose a two-cent stamp and you will be furnished with the names, addresses, sex, and age of that many children. It is then up to you, you do the rest. Select your own present, spend 50 cents or $50, and send or take your gifts to those children on Christmas eve. You pay not a cent more than you want to pay—every cent goes just where you want it to go. You gain neither notoriety nor advertising; you deal with no organization; no record will be kept; your letter will be returned to you with its answer. The whole plan is just as anonymous as old Santa Claus himself.

This is not a newspaper scheme. The Daily Press was asked to aid in reaching the good fellow by publishing this suggestion and to receive your communication in order that you may be assured of good faith and to preserve the anonymous character of this work. The identity of the writer of this appeal will not be disclosed. He assumes the responsibility of finding the children and sending you their names and guarantees that whatever you bestow will be deserved.

Neither you nor I get anything out of this, except the feeling that you have saved some child from sorrow on Christmas morning. If that is not enough for you then you have wasted time in reading this—it is not intended for you, but for the good fellows of Plainfield.

Perhaps a twenty-five cent doll or a ten cent tin toy wouldn't mean much to the children you know, but to the child who would find them in the otherwise empty stocking they mean much—the difference between utter disappointment and the joy that Santa Claus did not forget them. Here is where you and I get in. The charitable organizations attend to the bread and meat; the necessities; you and the rest of the good fellows furnish the toys, the nuts, the candies; the child's real Christmas.

GOOD FELLOW.

The Daily Press, one year ago, investigated the "good fellow" who wrote the above, looked him in the eye and put it in O. K. on the plan. The cold blooded, blasphemous representative who saw him wrote: "He made me feel, personally, that it would be really worth while in satisfaction to carry a little happiness to some children who otherwise wouldn't get any on Christmas eve." "Good Fellow" is not a professional philanthropist, he takes a drink, and even goes out at night with the boys for a mild good time—but he has taken care of from fifteen to twenty children a year in Plainfield. He said that a year ago last Christmas day he wished he had curtailed his holiday joy-making with the good fellows even more than he did, so that he might have had more money to gladden childish hearts.

The Worthy Grand Master of the lodge of Good Fellows has laid his plans for securing names through the Charity Organization Society.

This is how you can join the lodge of Good Fellows. Write a letter to "Santa Claus," care of The Daily Press, something like this:

I live at No. Street. I will be Santa Claus to 6 children. John Jones.

The letter will go to Santa Claus. He will indorse on your letter the names and addresses of six children. That letter will be remailed to you. Then you get busy. That's all. Come on in, good fellows.

BORO POPULATION 6,117 INCREASE 22 PER CENT

E. Dana Durand, director of the thirteenth census, today announced at Washington, D. C., that the population of North Plainfield borough is 6,117, as against 5,099 for the twelfth census, taken ten years ago.

The population of Dunellen borough for the thirteenth census is 1,960 as against 1,239 for the twelfth census. The eleven census gave Dunellen borough a population of 1,060.

The name of the winner of the $5 gold piece offered by The Daily Press for the nearest correct guess of the borough's population will be announced tomorrow.

Director Durand stated today in a telegram that the figures for Plainfield will be announced in all probability tomorrow.

North Plainfield's gain is 22.1 per cent. The percentage of gain in the city, according to unofficial reports is considerably greater.

MRS. JOS. KAMPMAN'S FUNERAL TOMORROW

The funeral service of Mrs. Annie K. Kampman, widow of Joseph Kampman, who died at her home on Madison avenue, Sunday, will be held at the late home tomorrow and will be private. Rev. John Sheridan Zelle, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Kampman was a member, will officiate and the burial will be in the family plot at a Bethlehem, Pa., cemetery.

Mrs. Kampman was born at Waterloo, N. Y., and after her marriage removed to Boston, where Mr. Kampman had offices at treasurer of several of the Gould railroads. After Mr. Kampman's death about twenty years ago, Mrs. Kampman removed to this city.

Mrs. Kampman was a woman of exceptional sweetness of character and was beloved by all who enjoyed her acquaintance. Mrs. Kampman is survived by two daughters, Miss Carol Kampman, of this city, Mrs. Harold Marshall Pitman, of Chicago; also a sister, Mrs. George L. Yost, of California and a brother, Harry B. Salkeld, of this city.

Detective-Sergeant and Mrs. John J. Flynn, of West Front street, are the parents of a young son, born to them Sunday night.

SATAN ON THE MARCH

A Personality Who Knows no Mercy, a Monarch Without Soul.

HE STARTS ON THE WIND.

Invades the Home, the Factory, Store and Church—Sleepless, Never Tires—Luther's Vision.

In his sermon on Sunday evening Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, took for his text Job. 1-7, "And the Lord said unto Satan, 'Whence comest thou.'" Pastor Maguire drew a picture of God upon His throne listening to the reports of his angels whom he had sent to the ends of space to note the progress of the worlds of the firmament, and among those to report last was Satan who answered saying: "From going to and fro in the earth and from walking up and down in it."

"This report of the devil was characteristic of him then as it would be today," said Mr. Maguire. "He is jumping from place to place, from home to home, from factory to factory and from store to store as well as from church to church seeking out those whom he thinks will fall for his sophistries. He is a monarch who rules somewhere, notwithstanding the belief of those who say there is no such thing as a devil. If there is no such a personality how is his work carried on?"

"He goes on his march, as St. Paul says, on the wind of which he is the prince. He works his way in the conditions of the atmosphere. He breathes on the winds and they become the whirlwinds of death and destruction. There would be no need of cemeteries if it were not for Satan. There would have been no death. He contaminates everything. The church is locked six days in the week and the saloon is doing a good business for the devil."

"Perhaps he is most insidious in the domestic circle—setting the husband against his wife and the wife against the husband until he has them seeking the divorce courts. He tempts the man by showing him a butterfly of a woman and drawing invidious comparisons between his wife and the butterfly. To get the wife started against her husband the devil tells her that the husband is neglecting her and that he thinks more of his own comforts than of hers. Oh, he is subtle and quick to take advantage of the weak. I tell you that one of the greatest causes for divorces today is that we are raising an army of girls who neither know how to cook or sew. A man's heart is readily reached through his stomach. But the woman too often lets the devil stir the soup, while she is gadding about at her club or playing cards. Dr. Lanham, the world's greatest student of economics affecting the home says this and I believe he is right."

"The young man is led away by the devil whispering to him that he ought not to be tied to his mother's apron strings. But let me tell you, young man, that you are never more noble looking than when you are standing beside your mother, wiping the dinner dishes. It is better that you be thus tied than to be coiled in the devil's whip. Here is another way the devil works. In the factory he goes to the proprietor and whispers: 'You are not getting enough out of your capital; you are the owner, your money is invested, why don't you get more for it? Reduce the men's wages, that's the way to do it!' Then he makes his way into the shop where the men are working for a mere nothing and tells them they are not getting enough money for their work. 'Strike,' he says. Then follows terrible times. The factory is put to the torch, families are rendered homeless and destitute and the evil looks on laughs in glee at what he has wrought."

"In the mercantile establishments it is the same. The clerk behind the counter is tempted to pocket his employer's money. He falls and Satan adds another victim. The young woman, envious of the dress and automobile and other possessions of her sister, asks how it is done and learning, adds to the devil's total another destroyed soul who later seeks shelter at one of the Salvation Army homes for herself and child. D. the pity of it. Listen, the time is coming when the rule of gold will give way to the golden rule, but Satan will reap his quota of lost souls until that time comes. Give heed to the voice of the Master as it whispers to you in the solemn watches of the night. Remember that Satan's only mission is to destroy souls, and to create disputations and envelope the world in misery. He has millions of agents who are tireless and never sleep. He works even in church while I am talking to you, but don't let him get

ELECT ULRICH SECRETARY.

Committees to Suggest Seal and Motto—Arrange for Some Good Addresses in the Near Future.

It was decided at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce's directors last night to lease rooms in the Frost building at a monthly rental of $50 and to expend $200 in furnishing them. D. J. Carney, Herbert Schuldenfrei and B. F. Coriell were appointed a committee for the purpose.

Former Judge John Ulrich was elected secretary, his compensation to be fixed by the incoming board. President Babcock, secretary Ulrich and treasurer Laing were named as a committee to submit a design for a corporation seal for the organization and the secretary and Mr. Carney were selected as a committee to suggest a motto.

The secretary and treasurer were instructed to file bonds in $1,000 each and the secretary was ordered to obtain stationery.

After a discussion of annexation and consolidation, reported in another column, former Mayor Alexander Gilbert, a vice-president, was invited to address the chamber on "The New York Clearing House; What It Is and What It Does." He is chairman of that institution. Mr. Saunders, the other vice-president, was asked at the same meeting to speak on "Panama," a subject he has made a study.

CHARITY ORGANIZATION SOCIETY TO MOVE

The Charity Organization Society which has grown to proportions of work necessitating better facilities for its handling, has engaged an office in the Babcock building, from December 15 and will in the future conduct its affairs from that office. The officers will not move into the new office until after Christmas as the holidays are an especially busy time and moving would interfere with projected plans. The old office and building on West Front street which has been the home of the society for so long has been sold to B. F. Tallamy, who will take possession later.

"It has been decided," said Miss Holly this morning, "that a wood-yard is not a necessity now and that if it should become necessary in an emergency one could be provided by arrangement with one of the local dealers. It is not generally known, perhaps, that the society is now doing the work which in larger cities is conducted by the Children's Aid and S. P. C. C. societies. The enforcement of the attendance law in the schools and the periodical medical examination of pupils, the application of the probation system and the development of the playground movement have increased the opportunities for usefulness of the society."

"The Society appears to have established itself in the confidence of the people as an agency which is competent and ready to assist them and the work has developed along lines which demand a centrally located office which will enable us to keep in closer touch with the city officials. Co-operation with the hospital, tuberculosis camp and the health department makes the work more thorough and comprehensive. Over 5,000 visits were made last year by the executive secretaries and friendly visitors, double the number of the preceding year. But the usefulness of the society must be measured by its resources."

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Porter, of West Front street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marion Porter, to George L. Bartour of New York. The wedding ceremony will take place at the Hotel Astor, New York, on Wednesday evening, December 28, and will be witnessed only by members of the two families. Mr. Bartour is a silk importer. Miss Porter has many acquaintances throughout the city but for several years past has been living in New York.

A New Year's Dance.

Invitations have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fleming and their daughter, Miss Barbara Fleming, of Park avenue, for a dance to be given on Monday evening, the second of January, at nine o'clock, at the Park Club.

FRIENDSHIP COUNCIL JR. O. A. M. OF NEW MARKET CELEBRATES TWENTIETH BIRTHDAY.

Friendship Council Jr. O. A. M. of New Market Celebrates Twentieth Birthday.

ENTERTAINMENT AND DANCE.

Organizations Home Filled to Capacity with Members and Friends

—Has Had a Splendid Growth.

In celebration of the twentieth anniversary of its organization, Friendship Council, No. 81, Jr. O. U. A. M. of New Market, conducted appropriation ceremonies and an entertainment in its hall, last night. The affair was attended by more than 250 members and friends and proved to be one of the most successful observances of the kind ever held in the village. The gathering included several State officials of the order among them State Councilor William B. LaRue, of Bound Brook.

The hall was lavishly but tastefully decorated with flags and bunting. There was also a large electric display bearing the numerals "1890-1910." The decorations were arranged by W. T. Piddington and D. W. Moody and were the cause of much admiring comment.

The council first assembled in regular session at 7 o'clock for the transaction of business after which the anniversary was commenced. The fore part was devoted to an entertainment during which addresses were made by Councilor R. P. F. Von Mindon who was in charge of the ceremonies. State Councilor LaRue, State Councilor's secretary William Miers, of Trenton, William L. Coriell, Friendship's first councilor and several others. About thirty members were presented with past councilor badges by Mr. LaRue. The addresses were interspersed with selections by Taylor's orchestra, of six pieces. Feature numbers in the entertainment were provided by the Elks quartet, of Plainfield, composed of William Tallamy, Harry Blimm, Jack Todd and William Smith. There were also monologues, songs and stories contributed by Tom Muir, of Plainfield, assisted by William H. Pope. All the numbers were well received. At the close of the entertainment refreshments were served and the floor was cleared for dancing. It was kept up until an early hour this morning.

The observance was arranged and in charge of a committee composed of William Van Nuis, chairman, O. E. Meeker, David C. Ward, W. T. Piddington, Jr., J. E. Pipe, and Foster Soffel.

Friendship Council was organized on December 12, 1890, with twenty-seven charter members, of whom twenty are still living, since then it has enjoyed a steady growth, the membership now numbering 158. The council owns Friendship Hall, free and clear and has a very satisfactory financial balance.

The past councilors who received badges were as follows: William L. Coriell, C. S. Day, J. R. Dunham, C. E. Kelly, W. J. Nelson, Geo. W. Day, H. S. Garretson, M. R. Dayton, Edison Davis, C. T. Rogers, W. F. Randolph, David Lawson, O. Nelson, H. J. Piddington, Foster Soffel, Z. P. Osmun, J. M. Dayton, Mm. Van Nuis, J. E. Meeker, A. E. Curtiss, Charles Clark, F. F. Randolph, C. K. Kellaway, D. C. Ward, J. D. De Graff, Wm. T. Piddington, C. B. Carman, Wm. T. Piddington, Jr., A. M. Johnson, James E. Pine and O. E. Meeker.

The charter members of Friendship Council were as follows: Charles S. Day, William Winkler, Phillip G. Mitze, James Day, James R. Dunham, John Stein, Edward Schenck, Wm. G. Giles, C. H. Ward, M. J. Whitford, Wm. T. Brokaw, H. S. Garretson, David Blackford, Ambrose Ryno, Abram Van Arsdale, D. C. Ward, A. E. Nelson, A. G. Nelson, B. D. Pizle, Wm. Waglow, D. W. Lawson, D. C. Fulton, George W. Coriell, Wm. J. Davis, Fred C. Ward, S. R. Tittsworth and Wm. L. Coriell.

Congregational Men's Club.

Under the auspices of the Men's club of the Congregational church, this evening, John M. Whitton, who recently made a trip through Alaska, will tell about it to the members and their friends. Mr. Whitton is an interesting talker and his subject is one which will entertain and instruct. A social hour and refreshments will follow the speaking.

Will Chase the Hounds.

The Watchung Hunt Club will hold its mid-week chase tomorrow afternoon, meeting the hounds at 3:30 o'clock at the kennels. On Saturday the hounds will meet at the Westfield railroad station at 3:30 o'clock.

JOHN Y. MOWREY DEAD AFTER 2 YEARS' ILLNESS

John Y. Mowrey, aged sixty-nine years, died this morning at the home of his son, William G. Mowrey, on Jefferson avenue, following an illness of two years with pulmonary trouble. He was born in Hunterdon county, and had lived here twenty-eight years. He was a carpenter by trade.

Mr. Mowrey's wife died on October 3, as the result of burns received from the ignition of gasoline fumes, while cleaning a bed at her home on West Front street. He is survived by a mother, Mrs. Mary Mowrey, of Glen Gardner; five brothers; also three sons, John, Frank and William Mowrey and one daughter, Mrs. Christopher Bock, of this city.

The funeral service will be held at the residence of William G. Mowrey, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the burial will be in the family plot at Bound Brook.

NORTH PLAINFIELD IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY MEETING

W. DeLa Anderson, president of the North Plainfield Township Improvement Society in a speech before the members last night advocated the direct primaries and said that now that the people had accepted the fact he believed it only right that the society should go on record as favoring it and also that they are opposed to having the result of the last election set aside. Mr. Anderson said that the Improvement Society Company had been formed and first payment on the Texier's Mill property made.

He urged the cutting of extravagance in the county and State management and the building up of the woodland acreage, saying that he for one would gladly furnish land and cottages to desirable people on terms that would enable many desirable people to take advantage of them. He also asked for contributions for a Christmas tree for the children of Wilson Memorial chapel.

Sheriff Mobus reported that it was feasible to have any number of deputies appointed to act as policemen. George Schmidt reported that the request of the society for publication of tax duplicates had been granted and steps had been taken for the establishment of the township lines. Charles Sebring asked for two lights near his mill where an automobile accident had occurred. A resolution relating to Mr. Anderson's suggestion regarding primaries was ordered drawn up for transmission to the Governor, Senators and Assemblymen. The question of taxation will be taken up at the next meeting.

MRS. E. A. VARS' FUNERAL SERVICE IS LARGELY ATTENDED

The funeral service of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Vars, widow of Nathan Vars, was held at the home of her son, Alexander W. Vars, on Webster place, at 2:30 o'clock, yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. H. N. Jordan, pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, New Market, of which Mrs. Vars was a member for many years, officiated. He spoke of the faithful Christian life of Mrs. Vars and of her devotion to her home.

There were many beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends. The burial was in Hillside cemetery and the bearers were Andrew J. Gavett, John Y. Wilson, Jesse Burdick, A. H. Burdick, James R. Dunham and Lewis T. Tittsworth.

Miss Elizabeth Schuck rendered two solos on the violin, Rubenstein's Melody in F, and Gypsy Mazurka by Gabriel-Marie. The prize pupils for the month of November were Roswell E. Bohn and Miss Sarah L. Schuck.

Under the auspices of the Women's Guild of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, a successful Christmas social and Japanese tea was held in the parish house, last night.

COMMERCE CHAMBER FOR CONSOLIDATION

Directors Applaud, Speech of Mr. Saunders and Will Start Campaign.

That the consolidation of Plainfield and North Plainfield should be effected without delay was the argument made by former Mayor William L. Saunders at a meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, last night. The fulfillment of this obligation by the people of the two municipalities for their mutual interests, should be followed, he declared, by action on the part of the Legislature making the borough's territory a part of Union county.

So favorably was his speech received that the directors planned at once to give the chamber's support to the proposition. That there be no further procrastination, it was decided to start the campaign at the next meeting of the body. Mayor Saunders and former Mayor L. V. F. Randolph, whose expressions were published in these columns some days ago, have been invited to speak on the subject at that time.

Mr. Saunders' speech follows: Eight years ago the problems which confronted us were not as pressing as at present. Political conditions are different, there is more independence of thought and a greater disposition to sacrifice personal interest to the public welfare. I shall not rake up past history, except call attention to the fact that after the consolidation battle was over and a period of 5 years had elapsed a joint committee, representing the Council of Plainfield and the Council of North Plainfield, passed a resolution recommending the appointment of a commission by the governing bodies, said commission to consist of two citizens of Plainfield and two of North Plainfield, who should have the power to select a fifth member, who should be a citizen of Plainfield. This commission was appointed and instructed to examine into the advantages and disadvantages of consolidation, on May the 6th, 1907, a report was made and signed by every member of the commission, namely, Alexander Gilbert, Floyd T. Woodhull, Mason W. Tyler, Charles W. McCutchen, Elston M. French. The following is the recommendation of this commission:

"The recommendation of the Commission therefore is that your honorable bodies cause to be prepared a bill for shall provide for both consolidation and annexation, to take effect only after a majority of the legally authorized voters of both municipalities shall have voted in favor of the same at a regular or special election held for that purpose."

Action was not taken upon this recommendation because the time was not opportune from a political point of view. By this I do not mean that it was because the legislature was Republican but because the leader of the majority, Senator Frelinghuysen, was a power in the legislature and had shown a strong disposition to oppose any act which might lead to annexation. There is now on the statute books of the State a bill known as Assembly Bill No. 155 of the Laws of 1902. The title of this bill is as follows:

"An act to unite and consolidate the municipal corporations known as inhabitants of the city of Plainfield, in the county of Union, and Mayor and Council of the Borough of North Plainfield."

This is a referendum bill, namely, it becomes effective only on approval by the people of both municipalities at a special election. The bill upon which the election was held in 1902 was known as the annexation bill, namely to provide for a change in county lines only, and after the negative vote cast at that time this annexation bill was repealed.

The condition we are in at present therefore is that in order to provide the proper machinery a new annexation bill should be presented to the legislature. It has been claimed that a mistake was made eight years ago in voting on the annexation referendum first. Perhaps this criticism is well taken. In any case, my view would be that any future action by the people should be taken first upon the question of consolidation; that is, municipal union, and that the question of change of county line should be acted upon only after the people had decided whether or not they wished to unite these two governments.

It seems reasonable—it is certainly in line with precedent, that a people as closely related as the people of this city and borough, and

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The anniversary celebration conducted by Friendship Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of New Market, is an evidence of the hustling proclivities of the organization. The affair was one of the most successful of the kind ever held in the village and was greatly enjoyed by the large gathering. The dancing after the entertainment continued until 3 o'clock this morning.

At the annual meeting of the Dunellen Board of Trade, Friday night, it is expected that the first delivery of the booklets describing the borough will be made. Through the efforts of the board an article on Dunellen's advantages, illustrated with pictures of officials, appeared in yesterday's New York Herald.

William T. Pittington, Jr., of New Market, is the owner of a 1911 model "E. M. F. 30," automobile purchased recently through the A. C. Thompson agency, of Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Kaufman, of Rahway, were the guests of relatives in the borough over Sunday.

The Y. M. E. C. will meet tonight at the home of Miss May Day, of Dunellen avenue.

Charles Doty, of the borough, has engaged in the cab business in Plainfield.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The Baraca class of the South Plainfield church was gratified beyond its expectations at the success both socially and financially of the entertainment given on Saturday night.

Mrs. Saronis is quite ill with an attack of grip.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The postponed dance of the Bachelor's Club will be held tonight in the hall. The committee have not spared expense or work to make this, the club's holiday dance, the best the club has yet held.

From the number of mysterious packages which are arriving in town it looks as though the Plains residents are doing their Christmas shopping early.

H. S. Fullerton, who sold his farm in Washington Valley to the Board of Freeholders for a tuberculosis home, will remove shortly to Plainfield.

you napping. His power is limited, God's power being greater, but even so you must get the vision that Luther had and thus make your assurance doubly sure.

"Luther saw in his vision Satan approaching him and trembling at the sight. 'Look,' said the arch fiend, 'here is a book showing your sins. Everyone you have committed in your life. The page is black. How can you hope to square this account? Give up the struggle and follow me.' Then later there appeared to Luther the angel of the Lord who also showed him the book with the account of his sins, but across the page was the legend 'They were all atoned for at Calvary.' Luther was convinced and saved.

"So, I tell you, especially you young people, if you listen to the voice of Satan and follow his advice you are lost. But if you will accept the bread of life with the promises of God, that through His son your souls shall be saved to the uttermost, you will live to bless the day you made the right choice and spend an eternity with your heavenly Father."

Travel Club Journey.
The travel club of the Congregational church, which is made up of the younger members, enjoyed a trip to Winchester, England, last night, under the chaperonage of Rev. and Mrs. Charles L. Goodrich at the parsonage. Several of the young people told of the different points of interest including the Cathedral, the haunts of Isaac Walton and historical anecdotes intensely interesting to those who have never visited the place where English history began. The evening was greatly enjoyed.

Henry R. Halloway, of East Seventh street, who underwent a very serious operation at Muhlenberg Hospital a few days ago, is reported as improving slowly.

H. E. Tallman of Roselle Park, who was admitted to Muhlenberg Hospital the past week for an operation, is improving and will return home within a short time.

voting by a majority to become united in one government, should be entitled to go to the legislature and demand that the county lines be changed so as to accommodate these changed conditions. What stronger appeal can be made to a legislature than to ask aid in removing obstacles which affect the health, happiness and prosperity of a people whose interests are at stake? Political expediency should never be allowed to raise barriers against home rule. A county line is a political expedient, an imaginary line only, drawn for the purpose of separating and grouping the people of the State whose interests are mutual. The history of every State shows county line changes. Originally New Jersey was divided into three or four counties only, and there would appear to be no serious reason why the line which is a barrier between Plainfield and North Plainfield should not be changed in the interests of the people who are on the spot.

Why should there be a referendum vote on this question of change of county line? This vote to be reasonable should include everyone in the county from which a section is to be taken. This, of course, would make it out of the question to change a county line. The people of Raritan and Somerset are not likely to give up anything which they own because it is going to help somebody in North Plainfield. But why should the people of Raritan and Somerset stand in the way of what affects our local conditions? There is really no reason except selfishness and political expediency. If the people of Plainfield and North Plainfield vote yes on municipal consolidation why should they be expected to pass judgment upon the question of county line change? This is really the function of the legislature.

My suggestion would therefore be that a bill be prepared providing for a change in the county line, taking North Plainfield from Somerset county and putting it into Union, this bill to take effect only after the people affected, namely, Plainfield and North Plainfield, had voted affirmatively on the question of consolidation.

There are several live statutes providing the machinery for joining these two places as for instance.

"An act concerning consolidated cities and annexed municipalities and townships and portions thereof," page 152 of the Laws of the Session of 1900.

Also Revised Statutes of New Jersey, Volume II, page 2245, where there is an act as to the assumption of collections, etc., of annexed territories to cities. If these laws do not provide sufficient machinery others should be passed. There is nothing difficult about this—the main question being whether the people really want to consolidate or not. If they do let us have complete consolidation.

I should like to hear some reasons against this proposition. It seems useless to spend time and money on an argument in a case so apparent. Plainfield and North Plainfield are not like New York and Brooklyn, they are not like Orange and East Orange and South Orange. The mountains on the north and the railroad on the south confine the borough of North Plainfield to a growth following the railroad and hugging Plainfield as a saddle hugs the back of a horse. The main artery of the city, Front street, is within a stone's throw of the dividing line. The back yards of the Front street properties reach to the brook which separates us. We of North Plainfield cannot patronize North Plainfield shops because many of us are too far away and must follow lines of least resistance. Front street is nearer. We are contributing daily to the prosperity of Plainfield without receiving any return. The shopping district of Plainfield is concentrated and the income to the city treasury is increased because six thousand alien people patronize city industries.

The position of North Plainfield geographically makes our future hopeless for growth and prosperity without consolidation. Some of the finest residential land in New Jersey has lain dormant for almost a generation. It cannot be claimed that this is because we have no sewers. Plainfield property showed substantial growth before the sewers were installed.

In all this matter of sewers, water works, lighting, etc., how much easier it would be, and how much more practical it is for us to act together and not separately. As ex-Mayor Randolph has said, "We should get married first and then put our house in order."

Yours truly,
 W. L. SAUNDERS.

Deserted in the Cold.

"Deserted at 8 o'clock in the morning, shivering with the cold and partly intoxicated Mary Demmus, of Paterson, was found screaming by Roundsman Higgins and brought to police headquarters for safekeeping. The young woman was at the top of a pair of stairs over the Eastern Bottling Company and was raising such a row that the neighborhood was disturbed. Judge Runyon this morning took a lenient view of the matter believing that Mary had been punished sufficiently and allowed her to go advising her to behave better in the future.

A charge of disorderly conduct, fighting and assault was made in the city court this morning by Christian Glocker against Charles Rau, of New York. The row took place yesterday afternoon in Glocker's saloon and it is likely that counter charges of assault and battery will be preferred by Rau. The case was put off for a week by Judge Runyon at the request of counsel for both parties. William G. DeMeza represents Rau and Walter Hetfield is looking after Glocker's interests.

AN ORDINANCE

To Establish Street Numbers for Parcels of Real Estate in the City of Plainfield. The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That the several parcels of real estate fronting on the streets, avenues, roads, lanes and alleys of the City of Plainfield shall be numbered and each of said parcels shall be known and designated by the number or numbers indicated on the official tax maps of said City, adopted by resolution of the Common Council February seventh, nineteen hundred and ten, and on file with the Collector of Taxes, and entitled as follows: "Block Assessment Maps of the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, First Ward, 1909," "Block Assessment Maps of the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, Second Ward, 1909," "Block Assessment Maps of the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, Third Ward, 1909," "Block Assessment Maps of the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, Fourth Ward, 1909," all made by F. J. Hubbard, Civil Engineer, and said maps are hereby adopted as the official maps of the City of Plainfield for the purpose of establishing street numbers; and the numbers shown on said maps are hereby established as the proper numbers of said parcels of real estate respectively.

Sec. 2. That the owner of every dwelling house or store which now fronts upon any of the public streets, avenues, roads, lanes or alleys of said city, on which the proper number is not now placed as hereinafter specified, shall within sixty days after this ordinance goes into effect, cause the proper number of such dwelling house or store to be placed in figures in some substantial manner in some conspicuous place on the front part of such dwelling house or store so as to be plainly visible from the sidewalk, and in default of compliance herewith, shall be liable to a penalty of five dollars for each and every offense.

Sec. 3. That the owner or owners of every dwelling house or store that may hereafter be erected within the limits of said City, shall, within thirty days after the completion thereof, cause the proper numbers of such dwelling house or store to be placed in figures in some substantial manner in some conspicuous place on the front part of such dwelling house or store so as to be plainly visible from the sidewalk, and in default of compliance herewith, shall be liable to a penalty of five dollars for each and every offense.

Sec. 4. That to enable the owner or owners of any parcel of real estate fronting on any of the streets, avenues, roads, lanes or alleys of said City to ascertain the correct number thereof, it shall be the duty of the Collector of Taxes, upon application made to him, to allow such applicant to inspect said official maps and said official maps shall also at all proper times be open to the inspection of the public at the office of the Collector of Taxes.

Sec. 5. That in case the owner of any lot or lots shall at any time desire to renumbering thereof he shall be at liberty to apply to the Common Council by petition, which petition shall be accompanied by a properly prepared map showing the changes desired, and clearly showing how the numbers for the entire block would stand in case such renumbering is ordered. The applicant shall present with his said petition proof by affidavit that a copy of said petition together with notice of his intention to apply to the Common Council has been served upon all of the owners of property fronting on the said block published in all the daily newspapers of said City at least ten days prior to date of presentation of such petition, and thereupon the Common Council may, in its discretion by resolution order said block to be renumbered in the manner specified in such petition, or in such other manner as they may deem best. THINK GALLAGHER MAY BE MENTALLY UNSOUND

The third and probably the last examination by alienists for the State of James J. Gallagher, who shot Mayor Gaynor, took place Sunday afternoon at the Hudson County jail. The physicians subjected the prisoner to mental and physical tests for over two hours. The alienists were Dr. William J. Arlitz, of Hoboken; Dr. John D. McGill, of Jersey City; Dr. George H. Sexsmith, of Bayonne, and Dr. Frank Cotton, of Trenton. In addition to the State's alienists there were present Dr. John J. Reilly, of 59 West Forty-fourth street, New York, and expert for the defense Alexander Simpson, of Jersey City, Gallagher's counsel, and Prosecutor of Pleas Pierre P. Garven. It is the opinion of the alienists that Gallagher is not sane.

The doctors took turns in asking Gallagher questions, and Dr. Reilly, at the request of the State's alienists, also participated in the quizzing.

"If a man stole your watch would it be right to kill him?" asked Dr. McGill of the prisoner.

"That depends on what kind of a watch it was," replied Gallagher. "If it was a cheap one, no; if it was a good watch, yes."

The doctors asked the man several questions for the purpose of learning from him his idea of his own importance and this is one reply they received: "Daniel O'Connell wasn't any more to Ireland than I was to the New York Dock Department."

Gallagher told the doctors that he considered himself quite a politician, having turned two campaigns in New York by his speeches.

The prisoner failed in several memory tests and gave several indications that his brain was weak. On Thursday last there was taken from Gallagher's spine a sample of serum which is being subjected to test by Dr. Cotton with the idea of ascertaining the condition of his brain.

After the examination Doctors Arlitz, McGill, Sexsmith and Cotton had a talk with Dr. Reilly, who expressed the belief that Gallagher was not sane. The State's alienists will file a report of their conclusions with Prosecutor Garven. If they certify that Gallagher is crazy an application will be made to Justice Swayze for the appointment of a lunacy commission to determine officially of his sanity. If they inform the prosecutor that Gallagher is sane he will be tried on December 20 before a struck jury.

ANGRY AT CENTRAL RAILROAD.

Breach of contract was charged against the Central Railroad of New Jersey at a meeting of the United Singers in the Kruger Auditorium, Newark, Sunday.

A party numbering 104 members of the Newark singing societies made the trip to Washington last Wednesday on a special train chartered by the United Singers on the occasion of the Steuben monument dedication ceremonies. When it came time to return it was found that instead of leaving Washington by special train at 11:30 Wednesday night, as per schedule, cars set apart for the Newark singers were attached to a regular train scheduled to leave Washington at 12:10.

Protests against this change in the arrangements proved unavailing, and the Newarkers reached Newark at 7:55 Thursday morning. Members of the excursion party, who lost a half day's work in consequence, were directed at Sunday's meeting to place any claims for reimbursement in the hands of Secretary John J. Piemenik.

WANTED RED CROSS SEALS BEFORE SHE DIED.

A man walked up to a Red Cross Christmas Seal booth in New York a few days ago, and after fumbling around till he found a dollar in his pocket, asked for a hundred seals. He seemed to want to say something, and the chance being given, he told how these greetings were to be put on some letters, cards, and little packages his wife was to send out this Christmas.

"She told me to be sure to get them," he said, "and so I came here before going to the shop, for it's the last Christmas she'll have a chance to remember those she loves. The doctor says she may hold out till after New Year's but her cough's so bad now I don't much think she will."

Then he turned quickly and hurried away.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church will hold its annual meeting this afternoon.

The Sunday-school of the Park Avenue Baptist church met last night to begin the rehearsals for the Christmas entertainment, which will be elaborate, as usual.

S. S. Swackhamer has been invited to make an address before the Men's Club of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, at its next meeting the latter part of the month.

"Ineffective Service and the Power that Changes It," will be the subject of the prayer-meeting at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, tomorrow night. The new hymn books, "Hymns of Worship and Service," will be used for the first time at this meeting.
