If J. H. Green, Jr., of 609 West Seventh street will call at this office he will receive the five-dollar gold piece offered for the person who came nearest to predicting the actual population of North Plainfield. Mr. Greene's guess was 6,180, and, as published yesterday the actual population according to the 1910 ensus is 6,117. Mr. Greene was therefore only 63 out of the way. Several others guessed in the 6,000 class, but none came as near the correct total as Mr. Greene. Miss Elsie Horn, of 317 Park avenue, was close up having put her guess at 6,050, or within four of the winner's approximation. Next to Miss Horn was Mrs. M. C. Sutphen with a guess of

One guess of 6,100, within seventeen of the actual number, was submitted by a reporter for The Daily Press, but as no one on the paper was eligible to the contest his guess was thrown out. Working successfully a clever advertising dodge, the "Yankee Circus Company" succeeded Saturday in getting a big house to see a pretty poor show in . Washington, N. J. Members of the company impersonated during the day a stage-struck girl who had run away from home, a devoted brother seeking her her, and two detectives who had succeeded in locating her as the leading lady of the company. It worked beautifully, and when the 'brother' was persuaded by the manager to permit his "repetant sister" to appear just once more at the evening performance, Washington fell for it and stormed the box office in a rush to buy tickets for the performance at which "the fifteen-year-old girl" was to appear.

The company drifted into town Friday night. The manager waited until the bills were posted Saturday morning and then he had three of his troupe visit the office of Justice of the Peace J. B. Lindaberry. One took the role of a devoted brother and the other two gave the name of a private detective firm in Jersey City and claimed to be detectives. The "brother" stated that he was

John D. Stiffens of Hoboken, and that on December 3 'his sister, Miss Anna Stiffens, fifteen years old, had run away from home to join a show troupe. By the aid of the detectives he had located the missing sister in Washington and he swore out a warrant for her arrest and also for the arrest of the manager of the show for enticing her from home, Constable Charles Carling was given the warrant, and great care was taken to have the arrest made known to the employes of the factory where the constable is employed when not on official business for the district, It was also pay day at the factory. The girl was arrested at a hotel and taken before the justice of the peace.

There the "brother" pleaded with er to leave the company, even if it did leave the troupe without one of their best actresses. The "brother's" pleading and the fatherly advice given by the aged justice, who was an innocent party to the advertising scheme, melted the young girl's heart and with a flood of tears she promised to give up the stage and eturn to her Hoboken home at once.

She had large black eyes and dark hair and was decidedly attractive. She admitted to the justice that she was only fifteen years old. With the aged magistrate's fatherly advice ringing in her ears the girl left the courtroom with her "brother" and the detectives.

Then the manager pleaded that he "brother' allow the sister to remain for the evening performance and not break up the show. Of course, the consent was given, and t was noised around that the pretty brunette would be on the stage. Long before the performance began there was a rush at the box office and the house was soon filled, the audience not knowing it was a clever advertising scheme. The "child actress" was really about twenty-three years old, and the detectives and brother were better actors in the courtroom than they were on the stage. The troupe left yesterday morning to repeat the trick in some othertown. This was probably the same company which Mr. Sanderson would not allow to perform at the

Although it is admitted by Manager McGraw, of the Giants, that "Rube" Marquard, the $11,000 pitching marvel purchased from Indianapolis several seasons ago, has failed to meet the expectations, there is no chance of him being disposed of to the Philadelphia Athletics, in accordance with a suggestion by Catcher Paddy Livingstone, of the world's champions. Livingstone caught Marquard at Indianapolis, and it was largely through his work that the elongated twirler flashed across the baseball horizon. Livingstone is convinced that Marquard has not been handled properly by McGraw, and says that were he with the Athletics, with himself to catch, "Rube" would be a tremendous winner.

Patsy Flaherty, the left-handed twirler who has seen service in the big show with Chicago American League and Boston, Pittsburg National League teams and Louisville club, is in New York to find out whether the Brooklyn club intends to give him a trial next season. Patrick expects to be presenter with his release in a few days, and when declared a free agent will go to Horace Fogel, president of the Phillies, and ask for a job. Flaherty worked for the boss of the Quakers for three weeks last season on trial and never received a cent of

The annual meeting of the New York State League will be held at Albany, N. Y., during the third week in January. The batting and fielding averages are now nearly completed and will be ready for publication soon. Right Fielder William Kay, of Albany, again leads the league in bat-

It is understood that McGraw will make very few changes in his reguar team next season, being satisfied with the material. He may add another pitcher or two and an additional catcher, but otherwise the aggregation will remain about the same as last year.

It is now supposed that the New York sporting writers, with a few exceptions, will tout Chase as the greatest manager-player known to history. As a matter of fact a few of the writers have succeeded in swelling the player's head until it is doubtful whether a hat can be found to fit him. It is the opinion of experts that Chase will be a failure as manager. His act in deserting the Yankees and going to the Pacific Coast is still fresh in the minds of the fans and the "wonder of all ages" can be counted upon to do something just as freakish if things don't suit

"In a stroke competition a competitor missed the ball on the first tee. While addressing the ball for the second stroke the ball fell off the tee. The competitor replaced it and drove off, counting two strokes played from the tee. Is this correct?'

Answer-Rule 2 (1) refers to a all which is not in play. The competitor having made a bad stroke, his ball was in play. If the competitor grounded his club when addressing the ball for the second time, he incurred a penalty of one stroke, see Rule 12 (4), because the ball moved, and he should then have played the ball from where it lay. Provided he conformed to the conditions laid down in Stroke Rule 11 (1), he could tee the ball under a penalty of two strokes. If he did not conform to Stroke Rule 11 (1) the competitor is disqualified.

"On the day of a competition a competitor, before starting, rolled two balls toward the hole with his hand on two occasions. He had no club. Should he be disqualified under Stroke Rule 4 (2)? It is argued that, as no club was used, the rule cannot be applied."

Answer-The competitor's action is plainly contrary to the spirit of Stroke Rule 4 (2), and the rules of golf committee recommends that the competitor be disqualified.

Alaska, its history, beauty and wealth, was the subject of the story told in a fascinating way by John M. Whiton, before the members of the Men's club of the Congregational church, last evening. The address lasted for an hour or more and it was followed by a social time at which refreshments were served.

Mr. Whiton spent nine weeks in our most northern possession last sumer and in addition to the entertaining account of his own experiences the club listened to descriptions of its features and possibilities. OH, DEAR!

She took a course of First Aid to the Wounded, and, after long and anxious waiting, the street accident she had earnestly wished for took place. It was a bicycle picnic; the man had broken his leg; she confiscated the walking stick of a passerby, and broke it in three pieces for splints; she blushingly took off her underskirt for bandages, and she was enthusiastically chered by the crowd. When all was completed, she summoned a cab and took her patient to the hospital. "Who bandaged this limb so credtably?" inquired the surgeon.

"I did," she blushingly replied. "Well, it is most beautifully-most eautifully done," said the surgeon, "but you have, I see, made one little mistake."

She felt terribly self-conscious. "You have bandaged the wrong leg," he said quietly.

Getting Away.

"Haven't you forgotten something, sir?" asked the anxious waiter, as the thrifty guest prepared to depart without bestowing a tip. "No, I think not. Here's my hat and here's my cane. I don't think I have forgotten anything." "But you've forgotten me," said the waiter in exasperation.

"Not at all," answered the other "I saw you standing ther all the time. Bon soir, garcon; bon soir."

OFFICIAL MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS.

The adjourned meeting of the Union County Board of Freeholders was held November 18, 1910, at 2:30

Roll call showed the following members present: Director Cady, Freeholders Adams, Crane, Darby, Doane, Garrison, Gruener, Hall, Haviland, Jones, Krouse, Meisel, Perry, Randolph, Smith, Thompson and Absent-Jensen, Martin and Swain

On motion of Freeholder Wilbur the reading of the minutes of the meeting of November 3 was dis-

COMMUNICATIONS. John N. Cady, Director of the Board of Freeholders, Summit, New Jer-

My Dear Sir-Confirming our verbal acceptance of the Washington avenue and Edgar road connection, Union County, on October 13, 1910, I hereby notify you, and, through you, the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County, that the said road has been completed to our entire satisfaction, and is therefore accepted upon the part of the State.

Very truly yours, FREDERICK GILKYSON, Commissioner

On motion of Freeholder received and placed on file. Hon. Benjamin King, clerk of the Board of Freechlders, Union County, N. J. Dear Mr. King-We are in receipt of your communication of November 4, and desire to thank you and the Board of Freeholders for their prompt and just action in the matter brought before them, concerning St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Our doors are always open to the worthy poor of Union county and any recommendation from a freeholder will receive prompt and respectful attention, but you can see the injustice of this case, in that a physician sent the patient to a specialist for his opinion; the hospital up to this time, never entered into the case at all; then when it came to the part of hospital, the patient took a private room of his own free will. Then after all debts were incurred a letter from a freeholder was brought forth,

As business men, we know you will agree with us, that if they intended to take advantage of anything of this kind, they should have brought their letter at first, and then made arangements accordingly, a method which certainly would have been just and agreeable to us.

Thanking you again, we remain Gratefully yours, BOARD OF MANAGERS, ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL. On motion of Freeholder Wilbur received and placed on file. COMMITTEE REPORT. Gentlemen—Subject to confirma-tion of this board, I have closed negotiations with P. J. Ryan for the purchase of 25 Rahway avenue, the last of the three buildings in Rahway avenue not owned by the county, and which this board at its last meeting instructed the County Attorney to bring condemnation proceedings to acquire for the sum of $5,500. Very truly yours,

N. R. LEAVITT, County Collector. On motion of Freeholder Jones received and placed on file. NEW BUSINESS.

By Freholder Krouse: Resolved, That the County Collector be and he hereby is authorized to pay to the owner of the premises, 25 Rahway avenue, in the City of Elizabeth, the sum of five thousand five hundred dollars, upon the receipt of a deed from the said owner to the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, for said premises; said premises to be purchased by the county for said price, subject to taxes for the year 1910; further Resolved, That the County Attorney proceed with the search of the title to said premises at once. Fur-

Resolved, That the matter of the disposal of the buildings on the premises in Rahway avenue be referred to the Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings with power to sell them. Freeholder Smith moved the adeption of the resolution which on roll call was unanimously adopted. The following bills were read and en motion ordered paid. ELECTION BILLS.

A Merry Christmas, Truly Where There's a Victrola

An instrument that renders brass band and orchestral music, an instrument that sings with the voice of the prima donnas of the grand operas, an instrument that is just as capable of accommodating an evening party with a sonata, an oratorio or a bit of George Cohan's rag, is certainly up in the front row of things givable at Christmas time.

The Victrola IS THE MARVEL OF THE AGE.

As a music-maker it has no peer, and as a source of pleasure in the home it is simply unrivaled, for all the family, from silver-haired grandmother down to prattling youngsters, find this flow of music good for the soul and all find equal delight in it.

Think—think a long while—and you will hardy conjure anything that will more surely "fill the bill" than the Victrola.

YOU CAN BUY THE VICTROLA AT $10 A MONTH.

Freeholder Jones moved to adourn which was carried. The director declared the board adjourned till December 1, 1910, at 2:30 p.m. BENJAMIN KING, Baseball men from all parts of the United States, as well as many from Canada and Cuba, are gathered in New York, or on their way to that city, to be present at the gatherings of the moguls this week.

Within the next three days the club-owners of the three leaguestwo of them major-will meet in annual convention, elect officers, discuss amendments to the rules and map out their plans for the season of 1911.

Two of the leagues-the National and the Eastern-will elect presidents. In the American, "Ban" Johnson still has nineteen years to serve of a twenty-year term at $25,000 a year. Thus far there has been little talk of any opposition to "Tom" Lynch, president of the Nationals, but there is no telling what will happen in the old organization. Ebbets, Murphy and Fogel are counted anti-Lynch men, and the change of owners of the Boston club may make some difference, though none is apparent. Stanley Robison, of the St. Louis club, will come to the meeting in a receptive mood. Robison is a baseball politican of the old school. He is not committed either way, as far as Lynch is concerned, but he says he has a long string of grievances against the umpires, and is also an advocate of the 168-game schedule. That another fight for this unusually long championship season will be made there seems to be little doubt. Ebbets is confident that he can swing Robison, Murphy and Fogel with him, thereby causing a deadlock.

Although President Johnson has announced that the American League meeting will be short, it is understood that the younger organization is ready to advocate a change in the playing rules, calculated to increase batting. The American League men never advocated the foul strike rule adopted by the National League in 1902, but they were forced to accept the rule in the interest of harmony and in obedience to the provisions of the national agreement. The league will vote in favor of the proposition to reduce the number of called balls from four to three, or to increase the number of strikes from three to four, either rule being calculated to increase the hitting by curtailing the power of the boxman. But before these changes can be made in the playing rules the consent of the National League must be obtained, and that, of course means friction. Aside from these rule changes the American League men say they will transact very little business of importance. No feuds exist among them and the utmost harmony prevails.

When a thought flashes across the intellect does it effect any molecular changes in the cellular or muscular tissues composing the material substance of the cerebral mass, or does it operate merely in the realm of the spiritual ego, thereby leaving no trace subject to detection or classification in the domain of substantiality?

TO THE "GOOD FELLOWS" OF PLAINFIELD

TO THE GOOD FELLOWS OF PLAINFIELD:

Just about this time last year I told you my story. You listened to you did more-you followed its spirit out in a bang-up style. I'm not claiming any credit for my story; I'm claiming credit for knowing that there are many Good Fellows in this fine old town of ours—royal chaps who don't do much preaching but when it comes to doing a good turn, night, was taken ill and was unable well, they're there with the goods. This is no sermon that I'm handing you, it's a heart-to-heart talk with men with red blood in their veins, and here it is off last year's reel:

time and spent from $10 to $200. Last Christmas morning hundreds of Dundon at the Hotel Kensington. children awoke to an empty stocking—the bitter pain of disappointment that Santa Claus had forgotten them. Perhaps it wasn't our fault. We had provided for our own; we had also reflected in a passing way on those less fortunate than our own, but they seemed far off and we didn't know where to find them. Perhaps in the hundred and one things we had to do the fine tea and coffee sold by the some of us didn't think of that heart sorrow of the child over the empty firm. and ask you to consider it. Just send your name and address to The Daily Press—address Santa Claus—state about how many children you are willing to protect against grief over that empty stocking, inclose a two-cent REGISTERED AGENTS FOR stamp and you will be furnished with the names, addresses, sex, and age of that many children. It is then up to you, you do the rest. Select your won present, spend 50 cents or $50, and send or take your gifts to those children on Christmas eve. You pay not a cent more than you want to pay-every cent goes just where you want it to go. You gain neither notoriety nor advertising; you deal with no organization; no record will be kept; your letter will be returned to you with its answer. The whole plan is just as anonymous as old Santa Claus himself.

This is not a newspaper scheme. The Daily Press was asked to aid in reaching the good fellow by publishing this suggestion and to receive your communication in order that you may be assured of good faith and to preserve the anonymous character of this work. Neither you nor I get anything out of this, except the feeling that you have saved some child from sorrow on Christmas morning. If that is not Shoulder Pork Chops, enough for you then you have wasted time in reading this—it is not intended for you, but for the good fellows of Plainfield.

Perhaps a twenty-five cent doll or a ten cent tin toy wouldn't mean Loin of Jersey Pork, much to the children you know, but to the child who would find them in 1b the otherwise empty stocking they mean much—the difference between utter disappointment and the joy that Santa Claus did not forget them. Link Sausage, Here is where you and I get in. The charitable organizations attend to the lb bread and meat; the clothes; the necessaries; you and the rest of the good fellows furnish the toys, the nuts, the candies; the child's real Christmas. The letter will go to Santa Claus. He will indorse on your letter the names and addresses of six children. That letter will be remailed to you. Then you get busy. That's all. Come on in, good fellows?

DEPOSITS OF NON-RESI. DENTS IN NEW YORK SAVINGS BANKS TAX. ABLE AT THE DEATH OF THE DEPOSITOR.

Deposits of non-residents in New York Savings Banks are subject to a New York State inheritance tax at the death of the depositor. Both convenience and expediency should prompt residents of Plainfield to keep their savings account here. 4% interest is paid in our Special Department. Out of town accounts collected free of expense. This is an opportune time to arrange for the transfer of such account without loss of interest.

FURS

For Christmas Gifts at Special Prices At 178 East Front St., Plainfield

This is the place where you are sure of getting your money's worth. All my furs are guaranteed, good quality for good wearing and just what people want to give for Christmas gifts.

I was in town last year and intend to stay right here and do business always with you. This being a fact I do not want to get any advantage over you.

Buy your furs here, real furs at a real fur store, when you wish to give presents to your real good friends.

I sell at manufacturer's prices and thus save you the middleman's profit.
