WILSON WHIRLWIND TOUR CITY FATHERS DISPOSE

Governor - Elect to Dash Through State in the Interest of James E. Martine.

Dr. Woodrow Wilson will start out on January 4 as the Governor of New Jersey on a whirlwind dash through nearly all the counties of the State in an effort to crush every chance of the election of James Smith, Jr., of Newark, to be United States Senator. At the same time he will with all the force and eloquence at his command, attempt to convince the newly elected legislators that James E Martine, of this city, having received the majority of votes in a primary election held to give the people a chance to express their choice of a man for the Senatorship, is the person who ought to be sent to the national capital.

gene N. Foss, of Massachusetts, to bring about the defeat of Senator Lodge, and all of his preparations presage a battle that will attract national attention, his friends said last night.

Although it has been known since Smith who aims to succeed John man Joseph P. Tumulty, of Jersey City, he announced his program.

From now until the first of the year, the Governor-elect announced, he will grant audiences to all men who wish to see him with reference to his determination, and he will what sentiment he finds, he will make himself heard and felt on the subject from Bergen to Cape May.

In the letter the Governor-elect Mr. Martine as against Mr. Smith, and he declares he will exhaust every honorable means to keep Mr. Smith from becoming Senator John Kean's successor.

Democratic Assemblymen-elect in New Gersey are in sympathy with Dr. Wilson and that he will have a substantial following. Mr. Smith, however, is not without support in important localities. Robert Davis, the Democratic leader of Hudson county, came out in his favor in an open letter. Hudson county has thirteen representatives in the Legislature, and it is believed by some Democrats that these, with support from the Essex county delegation, a large part of which is already pledged to Mr. Smith can select Mr. Martine's

TO ALL GOOD FELLOWS! RUSHMORE'S STOREHOUSE

"And Only the Master Shall Praise Us" for What We do for His.

Have you ever seen little noses flattened against a big plate glass window in front of the big stores on Front street on a cold day around Christmas? Did you ever see that picture by D'Auber showing a rag- Chief Doane gave the recall. ged little urchin standing amid the falling snow flakes on Christmas eve watching the dancers at a children's party in a pretentious house on "the" avenue? Well, if you have seen these things don't you think it would be a fine thing if such possibilities could be awerted in our town? That's what Good Fellow has been rying to secure and he is thankful that already more than four hundred little folks will not have to look in their, stockings in vain on Christmas morning. And it will be Sunday, too. This thought came in a letter of one of the lodge's members this morning: "I will gladly take care of five children on Christmas this year. Last pate in the good work personally, along side were also burning. There the rear of the first freight. Minebut I managed to see to it that three were cared for, I am increasing the about the yard and for a time a sernumber to five this year because I feel that I have been blessed more than the year before" Now then, if one has the feeling of greater blessing why not pass it along? Last year every worthy child in Plainfield was taken care of at Christmas time and there were then more than five hundred in the city. So you can readily figure out how many are still to be provided for.

This morning among other things there came a 10-pound box of candies which Good Fellow will see gets to the proper destination. Evidently it was bought by a Good Fellow doing his or her Xmas shopping for it came tertainment provided by the commit- by express. The donor's name is not known, but we bet he or she was happy when he bought and paid for that big box of sweets. This Good Fellow may rest assured that the candy will be distributed as he would wish and that it will gladden the hearts of many a poor little child. There is a treat in store for the children of the Day Nursery and the Children's Home. On Tuesday afternoon these little ones will be entertained with moving pictures and refined vaudeville at Proctor's as guests of one of the Good Fellows. All members of last year's club who have not yet subscribed to the Good Fellow plan of giving as the master would want him to ought to do so now as tomorrow will be the last has been prepared at the Bryant day upon which the appeal for the poor children will be made.

IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

A large storehouse filled with bales of excelsior and located in the yard of the Rushmore Dynamo Works at South avenue and Berckman street, caught fire shortly after midnight this morning and gave the city department a long fight in the bitter cold. The alarm was turned in at 12:50 and it was 4:30 when The damage is placed at $1,100, of which $800 is on the building.

The origin of the fire has not been determined but Samuel Rushmore, the owner, believes it to have been incendiary. TO THE "GOOD FELLOWS" OF PLAINFIELD

TO THE GOOD FELLOWS OF PLAINFIELD:

Just about this time last year I told you my story. You listened to -you did more-you followed its spirit out in a bang-up style. I'm not claiming any credit for my story; I'm claiming credit for knowing that there are many Good Fellows in this fine old town of ours—royal chaps who don't do much preaching but when it comes to doing a good turn, well, they're there with the goods. This is no sermon that I'm handing you, it's a heart-to-heart talk with men with red blood in their veins, and here it is off last year's reel:

Last Christmas and New Year's eve you and I went out for a good time and spent from $10 to $200. Last Christmas morning hundreds of children awoke to an empty stocking—the bitter pain of disappointment that Santa Claus had forgotten them. Perhaps it wasn't our fault. We had provided for our own; we had also reflected in a passing way on those less fortunate than our own, but they seemed far off and we didn't know Perhaps in the hundred and one things we had to do some of us didn't think of that heart sorrow of the child over the empty stocking.

Now, old man, here's a chance. I have tried for the last five years and ask you to consider it. Just send your name and address to The Daily Press—address Santa Claus—state about how many children you are willing to protect against grief over that empty stocking, inclose a two-cent stamp and you will be furnished with the names, addresses, sex, and age of that many children. It is then up to you, you do the rest. Select your won present, spend 50 cents or $50, and send or take your gifts to those children on Christmas eve. You pay not a cent more than you want to pay—every cent goes just where you want it to go. You gain neither notoriety nor advertising; you deal with no organization; no record will be kept; your letter will be returned to you with its answer. The whole plan is just as anonymous as old Santa Claus himself.

This is not a newspaper scheme. The Daily Press was asked to aid in reaching the good fellow by publishing this suggestion and to receive your communication in order that you may be assured of good faith and to preserve the anonymous character of this work. The identity of the writer of this appeal will not be disclosed. He assumes the responsibility of finding the children and sending you their names and guarantees that whatever

You bestow will be deserved.

Neither you nor I get anything out of this, except the feeling that you have saved some child from sorrow on Christmas morning. If that is not enough for you then you have wasted time in reading this—it is not intended for you, but for the good fellows of Plainfield.

Perhaps a twenty-five cent doll or a ten cent tin toy wouldn't mean much to the children you know, but to the child who would find them in the otherwise empty stocking they mean much-the difference between utter disappointment and the joy that Santa Claus did not forget them. Here is where you and I get in. The charitable organizations attend to the bread and meat; the clothes; the necessaries; you and the rest of the good fellows furnish the toys, the nuts, the candies; the child's real Christmas. GOOD FELLOW.

The Daily Press, one year ago, investigated the "good fellow" who wrote the above, looked him in the eye and put its O. K. on the plan. The cold blooded, blase representative who saw him wrote: "He made me feel, personally, that it would be really worth while in satisfaction to carry a little happiness to some children who otherwise wouldn't get any on Christ-"Good Fellow" is not a professional philanthropist, he takes a drink, and even goes out at night with the boys for a mild good time he has taken care of from fifteen to twenty children a year in Plainfield. He said that a year ago last Christmas day he wished he had curtailed his holiday joy-making with the good fellows even more than he did, so that he might have had more money to gladden childish hearts.

The Worthy Grand Master of the lodge of Good Fellows has laid his plans for securing names through the Charity Organization Society. This is how you can join the lodge of Good Fellows. Write a letter to "Santa Claus," care of The Daily Press, something like this:

I live at No .-- Street. I will be Santa Claus to 6 children. John Jones. The letter will go to Santa Claus. He will indorse on your letter the names and addresses of six children. That letter will be remailed to you. Then you get busy. That's all. Come on in, good fellows.

GOLF.

The new home of the Baltusrol Gold Club will be formally opened to members and their friends on January 2. Music will be furnished from noon to 6 o'clock, and the nineteenth green is sure to be more popular than the first, or third, or tenth. The gathering, according to Louis Keller, the secretary, will be a combination of an inspection of the new home and a New Year's party.

Menagerie golf is one of the latest of Pinehurst attractions, and it is so named because of the terms applied to the point system of scoring, both the aggregate and best ball being based on bogie. One below bogie, "canary," counts one, and two below, an "eagle," counts two. above is a "skunk," and a ball in the pond a "frog," each counting minus one, while three above, an "elephant," is minus two.

There was a special meeting of the Fox Hills Golf Club at the Hotel Knickerbocker Tuesday night to onsider the advisability of raising the dues from $50 to either $60 or $75 a year. The increase is said to be imperative in order to meet the greater expenses that will be incured during the coming season. One of the proposed improvements is the piping of the greens. The annual meeting will be held next month.

NUGENT SUBPOENAED IN CAMDEN ELECTION CASE.

Newark City Counsel James R. Nugent has been summoned to appear today before the Camden County Grand Jury to give testimony in connection with the investigation now being made into the alleged election frauds in the city of Camden. ing by mail. The subpoena directs Mr. Nugent to produce "certain affidavit or paper written alleged to be signed by one Samuel Flick and sworn to before one Harry Fisher, and any other paper, writing or statement alleged to have been made by the said Sam-uel Flick."

Purcell, July 17, last, conspired with his father, Patrick O'Brien, to get him to Newark, while the furniture was being taken away. A Newark van, it is said, by neighbors crated the furniture away.

FARMERS VOTE DOWN MARTINE RESOLUTIONS.

Resolutions indorsing the Senatorial candidacy of James E. Martine were promptly tabled at the meeting of the Somerset county Agricultural Society at Somerville Saturday. The resolutions were offered by William H. Rogers, of North Plainfield. In the discussion which followed their introduction, it was argued that politics had no place in the affairs of the society.

Professor H. I. Lewis, of the State Agricultural College, at New Brunswick, spoke on winter dairying. He advocated a system of herd testing by which the productive qualifications of each cow could be ascertained. This could be done by a combination of the farmers in each township at a cost of not over a dellar a cow a year, and it would be of great advantage. He urged the farmers to sell their cream and feed the milk to pigs, etc., on the farm in order to save the productiveness of the soil.

The directors chosen are these: Beminster Township, A. C. Nevius and William C. Lane: Bernards, Charles L. Roberts and Thomas Bouglass: Branchburg, Francis D. SEEKS BRIDE WON BY CORRESPONDENCE

Paterson, Dec. 21.-Seeking to discover the present whereabouts of the bride he won through a corre spondence matrimonial agency, T. Martin, of Pomona, Cal., has asked a local lawyer to find Emma Benward Martin. The girl, he says, was formerly employed in a local silk mill. She has a sister, Mrs. F. D. Simmerson, of Clifton, but Mrs. Simmerson declares she knows nothing about the matter. The last she saw of her sister was when the girl left for California to marry Martin.

Martin writes that he is sixty years old and weighs 233 pounds. His bride, he asserts was thirty-seven and weighed 215. They "made a nice pair," he declares. In a newspaper clipping describing her departure it is stated that she left the Martin home a few days after the wedding. In a note she explained she "could not live on bread, jelly

Notwithstanding this the company's hopes were still high, for, while they all bought morning papers rapidly to get the opinions of the critics, when they had read them there was an almost unanimous outburst, "What does he know about it anyway?"

The third day there was considerable excitement, for word had gone round that the "big man from New York" was coming up to look over the piece, and that meant surely that they would soon be "back on Broadway." During the performances there was no talk about anything but how the big man was taking it. reports being brought back between acts by the treasurer of the company,

At the little supper parties into which members broke up that evening there was a great content, whether it was over the more liberal spread of the principals in the restaurants of the main botel or over the beer and cheese of the stage carpenter and the minor actors. Once more they would be getting home; once more they would be back on their beloved "thoroughtare of the theaters;" once more they would be before the public to which they loved to play, and, of course, the financial end of it the fact that they could

It was a bitter blow for Dora Fullerton. Hardly over twenty, she had fought out what to her was a great resolution and discouraging conditions, Her mother she had never known. Her father, a kindly but academic man, had never quite seemed to understand her, while his sister had insisted that all of her improper instincts were those of her mother, who, like herself, had longed for a stage career against the opposition of her husband and to the disgust of her sister-in-law. As far back as she could remember Dora had been accustomed to being told by her aunt that everything she had liked to do was the wrong thing. If as a child she was rebellious over a household edict she was told that she had the hasty temper of her mother; if she spoiled a frock it was a slipshod habit of her mother that she had inherited: if she took a mild, childlike fancy to some boy she had her mother's frivolous disposition, and Aunt Cornelia was always with her to drive home bet belief that the girl had no individual en other than an inherited one, with

Cushions FOR MORRIS CHAIRS

Perhaps you do not know that we sell cushions separately; that is, you do not have to buy a morris chair frame, but you can buy the cushions alone. It may be that you have had a morris chair in use for a long while and the cushions have become worn and otherwise shabby, and if such is the case you can buy a new set and have your morris chair make a better apeparance. Mr. Man might like new cushions as a gift for Christmas. Why not surrpise him?

We have them in various kinds of coverings, such as plain green, plain red two-tone stripes, figured and flowered effects. They are all made with corded edge, nicely tufted, rounded corners and shapely in every detail; filled with cotton.

They can be had for immediate delivery.
