

GO ABROAD TO SETTLE ESTATE

Mrs. Caroline Lincoln and Miss Anna H. Tyler Remembered in Will.

BEQUESTS OF $300,000

Plainfielders Left Yesterday for Paris Where They Will Take Charge of Affairs—Deceased Was Known Here.

Mrs. Caroline T. Lincoln and her sister, Miss Anna H. Tyler, of this city, to whom was left the residuary estate of Mrs. Allen Frances Evans, estimated in value to more than $300,000, left yesterday on the Steamship Amerika for Paris, for the purpose of settling up the estate.
Mrs. Evans died in Paris on March 17, having lived in that city for several years. She was a sister of the late Dr. Thomas W. Evans, the American dentist, who died in 1897, leaving more than $5,000,000.

Mrs. Evans gave each servant in her employ $100 for every two years of service and left $1,000 to Josephine de Brown, for missionary work in Paris, and $1,000 each to the Anglo-American Y. M. C. A. and the McAll Mission, both of Paris.

The American Episcopal church of Paris received $5,000 and Larz Anderson, former Ambassador to Japan, received $1,000. About fifty bequests ranging from $1,000 to $10,000 were left to relatives and friends, while the residuary estate goes to Mrs. Lincoln, Miss Tyler and Miss Helen Schauffler, the last named another relative, and in addition they also received $50,000 outright. John C.
Stevens, another relative is left $25,- 000. Mrs. Lincoln, Miss Tyler and Mrs. Schauffler were cousins of Mrs.
Evans.

MR. SHOEMAKER AND MRS. DUMONT AT HOSPITAL DANCE

Under the auspices of the Womans Auxiliary of Muhlenberg Hospital, the last big dance of the season will be held tonight at Columbus Hall, for the benefit of the hospital.
Everything possible will be done to make the evening a pleasant one.
The Knights of Columbus have given the use of the entire ground floor of their building for the comfort and convenience of the guests, so that there will be smoking and lounging rooms for those who do not care to dance all the time. Mueller's orchestra has been engaged, and music will be continued until 1:30, and as a special feature Edward LaPorte and Miss Ethel Hudson have offered to give an exhibition of the Maxixe, at a quarter before eleven. At 11:15 a particularly pleasing exhibition will be that given by Rex Shoemaker and Mrs. Morris J. Dumont, who will show some of the newest dances, including the Maurice Tango.

Ice cream, cake, lemonade, cigars and cigarettes will be on sale. Tickets at one dollar may be obtained at the door.

EXHIBIT OF CANAL PICTURES.
Miss Hartridge announces an exhibition of photographs of the Panama Canal by Miss Edith H. Tracy to be held at the Hartridge School, today, tomorrow and Monday, from 2 until 6 o'clock.

E. W. OVERTON WEDS MISS MARY L. DAY

Rev. Dr. Haldeman Performs Ceremony at Hotel Marseille, New York.

Miss Mary Louise Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Day, formerly of this city, and Edward White Overton, son of Mrs. E. A. Overton, of North Plainfield, were married at the Hotel Marseille, New York city, at 6 o'clock last night, by Rev. Dr. F. W.
Haldeman, pastor of the First Baptist church, New York. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of guests, including relatives and friends from New York and distant points, as well as Plainfield.

The bridesmaid was Miss Adelaide Gilles, of New York, and DeWitt Brokaw, of North Plainfield, was the best man. The ushers were Frederick S. Overton, brother of the groom; Edward Sutter and Stewart Simmonds, of this city, and David Pond, formerly of Plainfield.

The bride was gowned in white satin trimmed with point lace. She carried a shower bouquet. The bridesmaid wore a gown of yellow satin, trimmed with lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses. A reception followed the ceremony after which the couple went south on a wedding trip. They will reside in New York, where Mr. Overton is a Customs House broker, succeeding his late father, E. A. Overton.

P. H. S. ORGANIZATION PLANS BIG MOVEMENT

High School Club Will Cooperate with Civic and Commercial Organization.

Students taking the commercial course of study in the Plainfield High School met this morning, and affected the organization of a Commercial Club, which in the future will be a permanent department of the school's work. The objects of the newly formed club are to cultivate an acquaintance with the Alumni so that the latter body may assist students in securing positions; to learn modern office requirements, study current trade conditions and to prepare to fill positions acceptably; to get in contact with local civic and commercial bodies in order to learn their functions and methods; to investigate the advantage of higher education (both literary and commercial); to study the literature of commercial work and to cultivate a fraternal spirit and devise plans of mutual helpfulness.

The following officers were elected, President, Miss Lottie Mendel; vice president, Miss Helen McKillop; secretary, Miss Margaret Keating; corresponding secretary, Miss Beside Levine; treasurer, Miss Hilda Lane; membership committee, the Misses Jose Davidson, Annie Murphy, Ruth Dehant and Violet Sutton; committee on constitution and by-laws, the Misses Jane Brower, Margaret Pombs, Margaret Peterson, Ada No-le. Twenty-eight names were entered as charter members of the club.

It was decided to get into communication at once with various local civic organizations, such as the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce.
Business men will be invited to file their office requirements through this organization so that High School students will be better able to fill positions upon being graduated from the institution.

YOUTHFUL BURGLARS AT SO. PLAINFIELD

Joseph Harrington and Thos.
Flannington, of Newark, Get Into Trouble.

Joseph Harrington and Thomas Flannington, both of Newark, were arrested before Justice P. F. Kaine, at South Plainfield, this morning, on a charge of entering the home of William Miller, on Hancock avenue, yesterday, taking a quantity of eat-ables and a sweater belonging to Mr.
Miller's daughter, and leaving the house in disorder. After an examination, Justice Kaine turned the prisoners over to the Newark authorities, who informed the justice that the boys had had records.

Harrington is ten years old and Flannington four years his senior.
Mrs. Miller went to Perth Amboy at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving the key to the house in an old kid glove in the back entrance way. Her daughter was away at school, leaving the house vacant. On coming home to dinner, members of the family discovered everything inside the house in disorder and reported the matter to Mr. Miller, who is an engineer on the Lehigh Valley Railroad. He in-turn reported the matter to the South Plainfield authorities and Detective Everhardt of the railroad company set out in search of the burglars. The two lads were found some distance away along the railroad and brought back to the village. They made a confession before Justice Kaine, explaining that they had given the sweater to an Italian.

PETITION GRATIFYING TO STREET COMMITTEE

Councilmen Believe That it Marks the Beginning of Permanent Pavement.

The Councilmanic street committee met last night when several matters of importance were discussed.
The committee expressed its gratification over the receipt of a petition from residents of West Third street, between Plainfield avenue and Liberty street, asking that a permanent pavement be laid there. The committee believes that this will be an incentive for other property-owners to take a similar step, assisting in the proposed work of extending permanent pavements throughout the city.
The councilmen believe that the example set will be a good one.

The petition calls attention to the fact that West Third street is rapidly becoming a business thoroughfare, and cites the fact that the cost of the improvement will be less if done now than if it is delayed. These names appear on the petition: Abram Kunzman, S. F. Kline, Nathan Ger-shenson, Thomas Cantor, Louis Fay, Isaac Strager, A. Rosenthal, Morris Rabinowitz, I. Levine, Morris Farman, Morris Velinsky, Nathan Lewis, Ognatz Trenbovatsky, Harry and Annie Siegel.

The committee also conferred with representatives from the plumbers union regarding house connections for sewers, and a petition from residents of East Second street, asking for sidewalks was also received.

MISS ALPHERETTA BIRD SUGGUMBS TO LONG ILLNESS

Miss Alpheretta C. Bird, aged 20 years, eldest daughter of Mrs. Mary Bird, of 140 West Front street, died early this morning, following a long illness. She was an active member of Grace M. E. church and Sunday-school, and a devout Christian. The home is doubly saddened by reason of the fact that the young woman's mother recently returned from Muhlenberg Hospital, where she underwent treatment, and her condition has been made worse by the recent bereavement.

Besides her mother, Miss Bird is survived by two sisters, the Misses Geraldine and Marian Bird, and a brother, Charles E. Bird. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

on the Welfare of the Child, being conducted under the auspices of the National Congress of Mother and Parent-Teacher Associations, opened at Washington on Tuesday, and will continue through Monday of next week. Among the speakers who addressed the gathering Thursday, was Dr. Maximilian P. Grossmann, of this city, when he spoke on "Sane Eugenics." Mrs. William Sandford and Mrs. G. Stuart Simons are in attendance.

STAMP THIEF HELD IN BAIL FOR TRIAL

Charles Hankerson Will Have to Face the Grand Jury—Stole From Employer.

Slentling on the part of Detective Sergeant Flynn got Charles Hankerson, a nineteen-year-old colored youth, into some more trouble yesterday afternoon, and the boy is now held a prisoner in the county jail awaiting the action of the Grand Jury as the result of an order made by City Judge W. G. DeMeza, before whom he was arraigned in the city court this morning. Hankerson has been under police surveillance as a "born crook" for the past two years and the climax to his career of crime came yesterday afternoon, when he was apprehended by Flynn.

During the past few weeks, Albert Levine, proprietor of the Sanitary Cleaning Company on West Fourth street, has been missing hundreds of trading stamps from his place of business and so informed the police several days ago. Inquiry on the part of Flynn revealed the fact that Hankerson was employed there as an errand boy and he immediately placed the youth under arrest. Cross-examining on the part of Flynn brought a confession from the youth in which he gave the whereabouts of 5,900 green trading stamps marked with Levine's identification mark.

The boy was arraigned before Judge DeMeza on a charge of petty larceny and held in $100 bonds to await the action of the Grand Jury.
He has been in the toils on several previous occasions for robbery, his last arrest having been the result of a year's work on the part of Flynn when he was placed on parole.

AMATEUR STARS IN 'THE ARRIVAL OF KITTY'

Miss McGee and Miss Browne Display Talent in Comedy Club Play.

The presentation of "The Arrival of Kitty," by the Comedy Club of Plainfield on the evenings of April 30 and May 1, will bring before the public two amateur actresses of a talent equal to that of the amateur stars of other years. They are Miss Elizabeth McGee and Miss Eva Gregg Browne.

The roles are of about equal importance, but call for strikingly different talents. Miss Browne takes the part of "Jane," an ingenue, who has accepted "Billy Baxter," Brown Rolston, but is prevented from marrying him because of the plotting of a mercenary uncle (Alison Abbott).

Miss McGee plays the title role, that of a celebrated light opera star, flashy, brilliant, gay. They have caught the spirit of the play, spectacles of rehearsals say. Both have had experience before. Miss Browne has taken leading parts in the plays of the Girls' College Club, of Plainfield, and so cleverly that the managers of the Comedy Club gave her this leading part with full confidence which has been more than justified.

Miss McGee has often carried the audience away with her contagious spirit in various parts before Park Club audiences. Their active participation in the Comedy Club plays greatly enlarges its range of talent.
Tickets for "The Arrival of Kitty" are now on sale at the Plainfield Theatre and are selling rapidly.

ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE OF REVOLVER INJURES TWO

Mrs. Edward Shuerwig, of South Plainfield, is detained at her home there as the result of an accident in New York a few days ago, where she went to meet her husband, who is chief of the Berlin of the Hamburg-American line. Upon leaving her husband to return home, Mrs. Shuer-wig requested her husband to let her have one of two revolvers he had, explaining that it would afford some protection to herself and children during his absence.

Mrs. Shuerwig in instructing his wife how to use the revolver, which he thought was empty, accidentally discharged it. The bullet just grazed Mrs. Shuerwig's temple and inflicted a painful wound in her husband's finger. The wounds were promptly dressed. Mrs. Shuerwig is now under the care of a physician.

STIGMAN ARRESTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Warrant Sworn Out in U. S.
District Court for Apprehension of Local Man.

Arrested by Detective-Sergeant Flynn, at 131 East Front street, last night, on a bench warrant sworn out before Judge Haight, of the United States District Court, Louis Stigman, a clothing merchant, was taken to Newark, this morning, by United States Deputy Marshal A. L. Denny, where he will be arraigned today.
He is held on two warrants charging him with the concealment of assets when he went into bankruptcy a short time ago. Charles Stigman, a brother of the prisoner, is also wanted in the case and he will be arrested as soon as the authorities can ascertain his present whereabouts.

The indictments allege that Louis Stigman, who conducted the "Surprise Store" on West Front street, purchased a quantity of stock costing several thousands of dollars, which "went in the front door and out the back," being taken to the store of his brother in New Brunswick. Charles Stigman, proprietor of the latter store, in the meantime was conducting fire sales and disposing of his brother's stock at cut prices. The frauds are alleged to have been committed last September and the apprehension of Stigman was brought about as the result of action on the part of the creditors who are represented by Reed & Hetfield and William A. Newcorn, of this city.

REFUGEES REACH VERA CRUZ FROM MEXICO CITY; VILLA FRIENDLY

Rebel Chieftain Said to Have Reassured Americans—Rioting In Mexico City Results in Death of Two Americans.

Two Americans were killed in anti-American riots in Mexico City this morning. The British subjects are uniting to defend themselves.

General Villa is reported friendly in telegram received at Washington, and said to have stated that United States "need have no care."

Two trainloads of refugees from Mexico City have arrived at Vera Cruz.

Charge O'Shaughnessy is expected to arrive in Vera Cruz this afternoon.

Vera Cruz has assumed aspect of city waking from a dream. People throng streets and bands are playing.

No volunteers called as yet.

Battleship Louisiana has arrived at Vera Cruz and landed 700 men and two aeroplanes. By tomorrow a force of 6,500 men will be on shore.

250 wounded Mexicans are in one hospital.
American dead now number 17.

Washington, April 24.—Further confirmation of the friendly attitude of General Villa was conveyed to General Scott, assistant chief of staff of the army, in a telegram from Dr.
C. E. Husk, manager of a big American mining interest in Mexico. The telegram read: "Just had interview with Villa. Wishes to salute you affectionately and says you need have no care."

A conference report on the bill for the organization of volunteer forces in time of war or threatened war was adopted by the Senate today, without a debate.

Washington, D. C., April 24.— President Wilson is expected to appear to Congress again within the next few days to ask it for even broader powers than have been conferred on him. This, it is conceded in official circles, would mean actual war, stripped of all quibbles and with the foolish diplomatic mask that only partially conceals the real state of affairs removed.

The temper of Congress today is such that the permission will be quickly forthcoming to employ all the force and wealth of the United States in teaching Mexico that its long series of insults, outrages and contemptuous treatment of this government and its citizens must end. In the future the southern republic will be held strictly accountable. The lesson to be taught it will be such that it never may forget. The killing of more Americans in Vera Cruz has aroused reaching the government from every section. If a call for volunteers were issued today fully a million men could be rallied to the colors in an incredibly short time. The southwestern states alone, it was said, could furnish more than half this number.

The decision of the administration to shut off the exportation of arms and to dispatch troops to the aid of the marines and bluejackets came like a bolt from the blue last night.
It was regarded today as being virtually a unilateral declaration of war.
For the ordering of the army to foreign soil can be construed as nothing short of an opening of actual hostilities.
Employment of the Navy and the use of landing parties of marines can be explained on the ground that an emergency existed; the ordering in of troops is an acknowledgement that the breaking point has arrived.

General A. L. Mills, chief of the military division of the War Department, was an early caller at the War Department today. He reported that the adjutant generals of the various States were hurrying in their reports as to strength, availability and readiness of the militia. That a call will be issued, probably today, for the militiamen to stand in readiness for an immediate call was evident. Enlistments in the National Guard are being rushed, and General Mills expressed the opinion that full complement in the regiments of all the States would be the result.

The order calling out the militia will probably not be issued until President Wilson goes to Congress with his request for permission to take off the velvet glove and use the mailled fist in earnest. But warnings that such a call from the duty is imminent will be sent immediately to all the States. The situation existing with reference to the constitutionalists is causing the State Department anxiety. Whether the ancient feud and long time hatred existing between the Carranzalists and General Huerta will be strong enough to prevent a reconciliation of the two factions, is a question that Secretary Bryan would like to have answered. Until this relationship is established, the situation will be more or less nebulous.

President Wilson is showing plainly the effects of the severe strain under which he is laboring. Secretary Bryan is a sick man, and his friends are making no effort to conceal their concern.

Washington, April 24 (From A. J.
Rourke, correspondent of Central News)—It was officially stated today that the number of dead among the American forces in the fighting here is now seventeen. The condition of three of the wounded is critical and the conditions of two grave. It is estimated that the number of dead among the Mexicans is one hundred and fifty and the number wounded is placed at three hundred.

(By Albert J. Rourke, Correspondent of the Central News.) Vera Cruz, April 24.—Reports received from Mexico City indicate that violent demonstrations have started there against the Americans who still remain and that the United States flag was trailed in the dust this morning, in the streets and trampled on by the infuriated Mexicans, who are being urged to do so by men and women making inflammatory speeches on the street. Two American were killed during the rioting, according to reports.

So bad have the conditions become that it is reported that the British subjects in Mexico City have combined for mutual protection and have erected a strong compound around the consulate, arming themselves and preparing to resist any effort to attack them.

Communication with Mexico City is still much interrupted, and messages are delayed for hours.

Anxiety regarding the safety of Americans in Mexico City was relieved here by the arrival of two trains containing refugees bound for the United States. One train contained five hundred passengers, and the other three hundred. The latter left Mexico City on Wednesday night, and after frequent delays occasioned by being held up by Federal troops in search of two American newspaper men, finally reached this city at 6 o'clock this morning. The other train got in during the night.

Charge of Affairs O'Shaughnessy was not on either of these trains, but is expected to arrive here tonight.

Vera Cruz is like a city waking from a dream. Realization that the Americans do not intend to follow the custom of the Mexicans and kill and destroy property has given almost a gala aspect to things, and bands are playing on the streets, which are thronged with people.

Every seat and berth in the ten coaches and sleepers was occupied, chiefly by Americans, anxious to return to the United States in the transports provided by the government which await them in the harbor.

Persons aboard the train said even two days ago the attitude of Mexican populace in the capitol was menacing, and that United States troops are necessary to protect American citizens and property.

"La Opinion" publishes this morning a six page description of the fighting in the streets and the bombardment by the guns of the vessels, entitled "Vera Cruz's Tragedy."

Senor Jose Toust, agent for the Ward Line, has arrived here from Tampico. He reports that all was quiet there when he left, with the

MISSIONARY SOCIETY'S SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Women of First M. E. Church Enjoy Pleasing Program in Honor of Event.

Observing the silver anniversary the members of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. church, met in Vincent chapel, yesterday afternoon, and enjoyed a special program. There were about sixty members and guests present, with past officers and district officials. Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, the pastor, offered prayer and extended greetings to the society, after the meeting was opened by Mrs. J. Hervey Doane, the president.

Among the interesting features was the reading of a report by Mrs. Maurice E. McGrath, secretary, which covered a quarter of a century of work. The report was not statistical, being more of a resume of missionary effort. The society started with a membership of forty-nine and at present it is seventy-two. Mrs. L. M. French, former treasurer, read interesting letters of congratulation from absent and former members.

During the afternoon there were short addresses by Mrs. C. C. Woodruff, conference secretary; Mrs. John McNaughton, conference treasurer; Miss Helen Carlton, of Elizabeth, district president, and Mrs. Isabelle Miller, of Westfield, who gave reminiscences. Another pleasing feature was the singing of Miss Hope Irene Miller, who gave two numbers interspersing the addresses.

VILLA'S POSITION A FRIENDLY ONE

"Mexico Has Enough Trouble," Says Rebel Leader.

FIRM STAND AGAINST WAR

NOT SEEKING WAR, SAYS GENERAL VILLA.

Juarez, Mexico, April 24.—When Pancho Villa arrived here he made this statement: Mexico has trouble enough of her own and is not seeking a war with any foreign country, certainly not with the United States. I have come to the border for the purpose of conferring and seeking the advice of some of my good American friends, and I believe that my visit to the border at this time will mean more friendly relations between the Mexican people and the American people. Say for me that we want no war, are seeking no war and wish only the closest and most friendly relations with our neighbors of the north.

Juarez, April 24.—Pancho Villa arrived in Juarez and immediately announced that he wanted no war with the United States or any foreign country. "Mexico has troubles enough of her own," said Villa, "without seeking a war with a foreign country, especially the United States. I have come to the border for the purpose of conferring and seeking the advice of some of my good American friends, and I believe that my visit to the border at this time will mean more friendly relations between the Mexican people and the American people. Say for me that we want no war, are seeking no war and wish only the closest and most friendly relations with our neighbors of the north."

Villa's presence here, and his statements, which have been issued without qualification and with absolute frankness in contradiction of Carranza's position, have caused the belief that he and Carranza have at last broken over matters of policy and that Villa has taken the destiny of his revolution in his own hands. It is believed that he has come to the border to learn the facts, to talk with his American friends and to let the American people know just how he feels without the use of diplomatic messages.

Break in Rebel Camp.

A man who is closer to Villa than any other member of his staff is authority for the statement that Villa and Carranza have at last broken and that Villa has taken charge of the revolutionary affairs as the first chief and commander in chief. This could not be confirmed, as no one dares to approach Villa on the subject in Juarez, and he has repeatedly declined to discuss the relations of himself and Carranza. In a supplementary statement issued Villa said:

"It is inconceivable that two nations which have been as friendly as the United States of America and the United States of Mexico should go to war over the irresponsible acts of a drunkard. Should such a calamity occur the Constitutional forces will give Americans every guarantee, and I will see to it personally that all are escorted to the border and are not molested en route. I hope the American people will not think for a minute that the drunkard usurper Huerta is in any sense the Mexican people or their representative, and I am here to dispel any such thought. We had great times at Torreon and San Pedro, but we are going to have bigger ones yet."

Villa would neither affirm nor deny the reported movement of rebel troops from Chihuahua to Juarez. He brought fifty men in his bodyguard.

WANT $142,000,000 AT ONCE.

Daniels' Request Indicates That Long Conflict Is Expected.

Washington, April 24.—That the government is convinced that the present operations will be extended, and probably continued indefinitely, is indicated in the determination of the leaders to make immediately available the entire appropriation of $142,000,000, carried in the pending naval appropriation bill. This bill in its present form provides for expenditure on July 1. At the instance of the secretary of the navy, Chairman Padgett of the naval committee has decided to ask that the appropriation become available at once. It is likely that as a result of the war movements the measure will be rushed through.

REBELS CAPTURE MONTEREY

Take Hundreds of Prisoners—Dynamite Business Buildings.

Matamoras, Mexico, April 24.—Dispatches from Monterey say General Pablo Gonzales and his force of Constitutionalists obtained complete possession of the city. Several hundred federalists were captured. Hand to hand fighting went on all day in the heart of the town. Many of the principal business buildings were wrecked by dynamite.

GOVERNOR AMMONS.

Colorado Executive In Charge of Militia Fighting Miners.

RAID UNITED STATES EMBASSY

Mexican Troops Seize All the War Munitions.

Mexico City, April 24.—A military guard of men from the Ninth cavalry regiment has been placed on duty at the American embassy.

As a result the arms and ammunition that were stored at the embassy were removed, as with a military guard they were regarded as unnecessary.

Machine guns and ammunition have been stored at the American embassy by this government for use in the event of an attack by a Mexican mob.

The Ninth cavalry is a Mexican regiment, and the seizure of the arms and ammunition by the Huerta troops carries much significance in view of the large number of Americans still left at the Mexican capital and exposed to attack by Mexican mobs.

Plainfield, N. J., April 24, 1914.

CITY OF CHURCH GOERS.

Plainfield takes a pride in the large proportion of church goers in the city, especially on Sunday mornings. Probably no other community in the State has so large a number of regular communicants in all denominations. Everything tending to stimulate large congregations is a benefit to the city, and is bound to promote a civic pride in religious activities. In fact the Daily Press believes Plainfield would rank with the topmost if it were possible to learn what city in the State or in the country has the greatest average church attendance in comparison with its population.With all its many other activities —in business, beauty, welfare and comforts for its citizens—this city would feel a great pride in holding the crowded church record for the State. It would be a title that would be a recognized tribute to the churches, to the pastors and to the citizens. It would attract attention and be a drawing power to win the envy of cities, both pagan and religious.A church-going city is a good and substantial community. It is a proof of aggressive church methods as well as proof of good citizenship. It means that churches and sermons are attractive and are doing good; that they are a factor in the community not only in religious but in material activities.It takes aggressive, business-like methods to fill a church just as it takes such methods to fill a mercantile store or a factory. Only by such methods was church attendance stimulated on "Go to Church" Sundays over the country recently.
These methods included church advertising and it is not strange that once having tried this method of publicity, many of the cities continued their religious ads.

CLEAN UP AND PAINT UP.

In a number of cities throughout the country "Clean-up and Paint-up" campaigns are being waged at this time of the year. While Plainfield is perhaps not in need of such a campaign, it might be well for every householder to perform this work on his own initiative, and in his own neighborhood.The slogan has a fine, healthy sound to anyone who is interested in making the city better and pleas-anter to live in, and it should claim the attention of every well-meaning citizen. Here are some of the things which everyone can do in little personal clean-up campaigns:

Exterminate the mosquito.

Swat the fly.

Clean streets and alleys.

Clean basements and cellars.

Eliminate weeds.

Make yards beautiful.

Paint houses, garages, barns and fences.This is a matter for the attention of every householder. It isn't just a thing for the city to have said that "George can do it," but it is up toevery individual to get behind the movement and push. There is no way to estimate the good that can be accomplished for Plainfield. Every citizen should do his little bit to make his neighborhood more beautiful.For activity in spreading their propaganda the men politicians must take off their hats to the women on both sides of the suffrage question.
If there is anything on either side of the question which the average person does not know, it is because they have not taken the trouble to read the papers, or attend the meetings which have been held, not only in this city, but everywhere else.
Next week the local suffragists are going to be on the job every day, ending up by publishing the edition of the Daily Press on Saturday. Not to be outdone the anti-suffragists will publish a supplement to this paper on Saturday, May 23.Dr. Raphael Yood has written the editorial for tomorrow night's Daily Press. In it he contrasts health rulings in the city and borough, and shows why it would be much better to have a standard system for both places. It gives another angle of the advantages to be gained by consolidation.

THE FORUM.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

There is a growing sentiment in favor of Saturday half holidays for workers, especially during the summer months. Already the men in most of the trades have acquired this boon—the painters, plumbers, masons, carpenters, tanners, as well as the men employed in offices. In factories the half holiday is almost universal, even where the employees are women not protected by the unions.
Naturally the stores have been slower to join this general movement, although in New York and Newark and the larger cities, the custom is generally observed. Even in Plainfield some of the merchants close their stores at noon on Saturdays during the summer, and others are willing to do so during August if the plan could be generally adopted.The proposed plan is that, during August, the stores should close at noon on Saturdays, keeping open on Friday evenings instead of Saturday evenings. At a recent meeting of the "People's Forum" in the Washington School, the plan was warmly endorsed by many of the leading merchants of Plainfield, who expressed themselves heartily in favor of trying the experiment provided it was generally adopted.Petitions are being circulated, asking the merchants to try the plan this year, and pledging the signers to assist in making it possible by doing their shopping, as far as they can, on Fridays during August.What do the readers of the Daily Press think of the scheme? Is it an experiment that deserves the support of the citizens of Plainfield? A frank discussion in the columns of this paper will do much to indicate the general feeling in this matter, and will help to arouse public opinion.Very truly, KATHARINE F. BALL,
Chairman of the Civic Committee of the College Club.

April 23, 1914.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

In reply to the criticism of Muhlen-berg Hospital, contained in a letter signed by Mr. W. H. Rogers, of Watchung, published in the Press of April 23, I wish to assure Mr. Rogers that the Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital are most regretful that the hospital is not prepared to meet every demand upon it, and certainly deplore the fact that he had the distressing experience which he described, and which could have been avoided had he or Dr. McGrath, of Stirling, taken the precaution of telephoning to the hospital or to any of the Plainfield physicians connected with the hospital, before taking his sick child on the three mile journey to Plainfield.Many hospitals, similar to ours, have no facilities to care for contagious cases. "Old Muhlenberg" had no such facilities. At present there is one isolation pavilion capable of caring for infectious disease at a time. When Mr. Rogers asked to have his child admitted three cases of scarlet fever were in the isolation pavilion: their declining to admit this patient suffering from diphtheria was due to a condition over which the management of the hospital had no control. Had the child with diphtheria been taken into the ward with the three cases of scarlet fever, further infection to the child might have resulted.Your readers will, I am sure, see the justice and wisdom of a rule which made it necessary to decline Mr. Rogers' request.GEORGE P. MELLICK, President, Muhlenberg Hospital,
Plainfield, N. J., April 24, 1914.

WILL RETIRE AFTER LONG POLICE SERVICECaptain Frederickson and Wife Plan to Spend Summer in Denmark.Captain Christian Frederickson, who has been connected with the local police department for the past twenty-four years, has informed the Councilmanic police board that he intends to retire May 1 under the State pension law. The fact that Chief Kiehl is now in the West having gone to Chicago for "Ice Wagon" Connors, who is believed to have robbed Ernest R. Ackerman's home, will probably delay the captain's retirement until his return.Captain Frederickson came to Plainfield forty-two years ago and for nineteen years he was employed at Jimmersons' brick yards in the Netherwood section. He made most of the brick used in the construction of the Netherwood Hotel. In May, 1890, he was appointed to the local police department as a patrolman, and a few years later was made captain.
Two years after entering the police service the captain narrowly escaped being killed in capturing a burglar.
He got his man.The captain holds probably the best record of any man in the department. Not once during his long service has any charges ever been preferred against him. He and his wife are now planning to spend the summer at the former's native home in Denmark, and when they return will live in retirement, the captain devoting his spare time to his chickens and fruit-growing industry.ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEARNorth Plainfield Parent-Teacher Organization Winds up the School Term.The annual meeting of the North Plainfield Parent-Teacher Association was held yesterday afternoon, the yearly election of officers taking place at that time. The following were chosen to serve during the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Matthew H.
Ewart; second vice president, Mrs.
Allen Laing; secretary, Mrs. William L. aylor treasurer, Mrs. Judd Stuart. The first vice president, according to the constitution, is the supervising principal of the North Plainfield High School. Mr. Vosseller's retirement will necessitate the appointment of a successor in the fall.The meeting yesterday was the final one of the school term, the association having adjourned until September. During the last session the organization awarded the monthly attendance banner to Miss Helen K.
Ray's class in the borough High School, that division having maintained the best mark during March. The association organized one year ago with sixty members, has now increased its roster to 150, according to reports submitted at the meeting yesterday, and all departments are in a flourishing condition. The retiring officers were given a vote of thanks following the installation of the new board.

giving evidence of the pressure to which he is subjected, and his chief trouble is that he cannot sleep. He spent the night in his office in the Navy Department, catching such sleep as he could on a sofa wrapped up in an army blanket.Washington, April 24.—Orders for the charter of two additional ships at Galveston, to be immediately fitted with stalls for horses of field artillery, were given by Secretary Garrison today. "This may delay" the sailing of the brigade already embarked at Galveston, as it is planned to have all of the ships leave together. The two new transports will be fitted to sail before midnight.The administration is anxious to avoid a call for volunteers until Gen.
Villa's attitude is officially known.Representative Fitzgerald, chairman of the House Committee on appropriations, was a caller at the White House today, and consulted with the President regarding probable methods for raising funds.President Wilson, on recommendation of Secretary Lane, today withdrew approximately 15,700 acres of land from Utah for use of the Utah National Guard.The Treasury Department has wired collectors of customs to hold until further orders all arms and munitions of war passing through their ports, destined to points in Mexico.This is in furtherance of the embargo on arms which was announced last night.Washington, April 24.—By ordering the first division of the torpedo flotilla division to convoy the six transports at Galveston to Vera Cruz, the naval strength on the East coast of Mexico is increased by five destroyers. These ships have been in reserve at Galveston, but have quietly been preparing for service. Sentiment expressed today by Secretary Daniels, thought to reflect the attitude of the administration, were strongly proconstitutionalistic in character.The War Department today estimated the Mexican Federal soldiers in Mexico at 42,701. At Tampico there are 5,800 and at Vera Cruz only 900.Washington, April 24.—$200,000

Smart Clothes at Sensible Prices

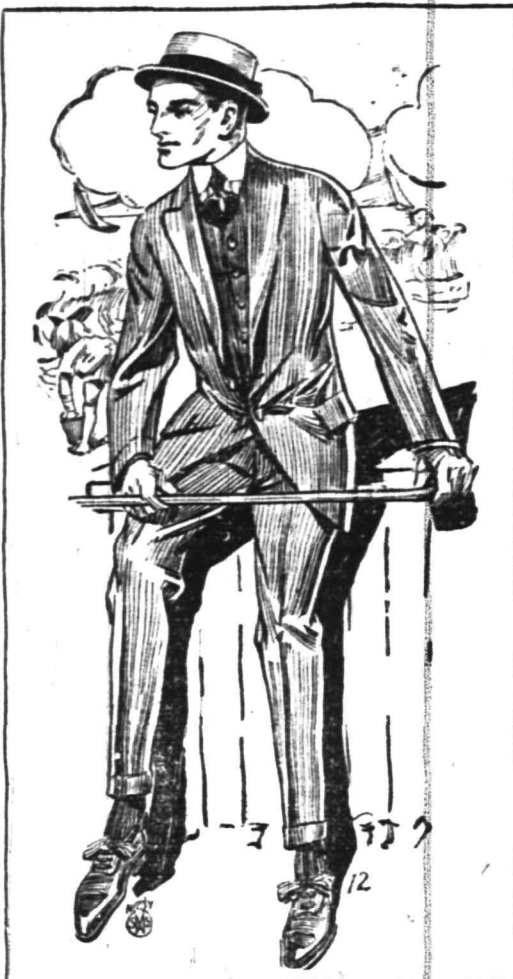

No man or woman should buy clothes on the sole consideration of price, but there is wisdom in buying clothes at modest prices that have both style and economy to commend them.

Adelberg clothes are very reasonable in price, but we do not advocate their purchase on that account.

We recommend Adelberg clothes primarily because they offer you the simple elegance of lines that are easy and a style that is easy to behold.

Just as no sensible woman marries for money (although there is no harm in loving where the money is) so, too, no sane person buys clothes just because they are cheap, but is wise enough to demand WITH THE PRICE "STYLE, LINES, FIT and POISE."

THESE ARE ADELBERG QUALITIES—PRICES VERY SENSIBLE.

Important Purchase of Women's Silk Frocks for Dancing and Other Occasions

New Low Prices, $18.75, $22.50, $29.50, $32.50, $35

Twenty styles in the collection—interestingly new and fresh from the work-rooms—all inspired by French models.

Toilets a pouf Butterfly sashes Side pointed over skirts Touches of frosted silver

Gold brocaded chiffon Small corsage bouquets Skirts with long lines Surplice draperies

Organdie collars
Scalloped tunics
Ruffles of malines

Made of printed crepe de chine, satin, charmeuse, rich chiffon taffeta and brocaded crepe. Majority of the styles we have sold in our stocks this Spring at much higher prices. One a charming dance frock of charmeuse, now offered at $18.75, has been duplicated by us several times for bride's maids. Another dress has a Roman striped bodice and overskirt over charmeuse which has surprising distinction for a $22.50 gown.

That is the Story of the Entire Collection

All were made to sell at far higher prices. The group at $29.50 is most surprising. The group at $32.50 offers many models of rich distinction. The models at $35 are no less excellent. Some of the materials cannot be duplicated by the maker. Other models remain from orders. Because ours is one of his largest accounts he has turned the entire collection over to us.

Most women will probably decide to take two or three of these gowns. It is one of the best and lowest priced collections we have ever been able to offer so early in the season. The dresses are new enough to have most of their fashionable season ahead of them. All colors—black, white, blue, rose, tango, green and other favored shades of the season. Special exhibition and sale throughout the Women's Gray Salons tomorrow, Saturday, Second floor, Old Building.

FORMER PET LINEUP
IN OPENING GAME

Cliff Randolph May Twirl for Driscoll at Brunswick Saturday Afternoon.

When Dave Driscoll's New Brunswick team lines up against the T. A. B. nine, of Elizabeth, on the Recreation Park diamond in the opening game of the season next Sunday afternoon, the aggregation will have a number of former local players in the lineup and the array of material is very similar to that which represented Plainfield here two years ago in the Central New Jersey League race.

Included in the array of talent that the wily leader has gathered together is Eddie Stallings, playing the left garden; with Joe Harter in center and Wally Cosgrove in right. Dave will grave the initial sack, Eddie Craig will perform at the midway, Lou Hartman is down for short, and Dalton will cavort around the difficult corner. Cliff Randolph, Andy Coakley and Jimmy Clinton are the twirlers mentioned by Driscoll as possible workers in the opener with the local boy a popular choice.

CONNIE MACK AFTER PETS' STAR PITCHER

Harry Jennings, Who Brought Flag to Plainfield, Being Sought by Athletics.

Harry Jennings the young college prenom who got his first foothold in semi-professional baseball while a member of the Plainfield Club of the Central New Jersey League last fall, is being sought by Connie Mack, of the Philadelphia Athletics, as the result of the remarkable feat he turned last Saturday, in shutting out a rival nine without a hit or run.

Sam Kennedy, veteran scout for Connie Mack, has been trailing the youngster since his great performance and it is understood that he made him an offer in Philadelphia, Thursday, following the Rutgers-Penn contest.

During the coming summer Jennings intends to twirl for a team in the New Brunswick Factory League, but overtures on the part of a big league manager such as Connie Mack will probably cause him to change his mind. He is a junior at Rutgers and if he keeps up his present record he will no doubt be one of the leading twirlers during the coming season. He made his debut as a pitcher last season at Rutgers, where he was the second string slab artist. After the college closed for the summer recess he took up semi-professional ball and pitched a number of games in this city and Brunswick.

JENNINGS WILL TRY TO DUPLICATE FEAT

Local Heaver Who Twirled No-hit, No-run Game Last Week Pitches Tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon the second home baseball game of the season will be staged in New Brunswick when Rutgers meets Union on Neilson Field. Although defeated by the University of Pennsylvania, Wednesday, the Rutgers nine played excellent ball and held Pennsylvania to two scattered hits. Harry Jennings, the Scarlet pitcher, gained a notch in the hall of fame last week by twirling a no-hit, no-run game against R. P. I., and will work against Union. Jennings shows promise of developing into the best slabman that ever represented Rutgers and has proved an enigma to visiting batsmen.

It is probable that Twing, the first baseman and star hitter of the team, will be eligible Saturday. Twing has been unable to play because of scholastic deficiencies but will take a special examination this week. In case he is permitted to don a uniform, Browning will go behind the bat and Acken will be shifted to right field.

P. H. S. TENNIS TEAM OPENS WITH A WIN

Woodbridge High School Yields Three Out of Five Matches.

The Plainfield High School tennis team opened its season with a victory yesterday afternoon over Woodbridge High School by three matches to two. Woodbridge defeated Plainfield in one of the singles, but lost the doubles and the other singles.

Dall easily defeated G. Throckmorton in his first set, but had to play hard to win his second. Van Deventer won his first set in easy style from H. Throckmorton, but lost the next two by close margins. Only one set was played in the doubles and Plainfield won that in easy fashion.

Summary: C. Dall defeated G. Throckmorton, 6-3, 7-5; H. Throckmorton defeated P. Van Deventer, 6-3, 4-6, 7-5; C. Van Deventer and C. Goodrich defeated H. Throckmorton and C. Brown, 6-3.

JEFFERSONIANS WILL PLAY HOPE CHAPEL LEAGUE TEAM

Hope Chapel will open its baseball season tomorrow afternoon on its own grounds when the Jefferson Democratic Club will try conclusions with the Sunday-school ball tossers. The "HomeRulers" have an unusually fine array of talent to pit against the leaguers and the Hope Chapel crew will probably be extended to the limit in order to come out on top. Laskoski, who held the Monroes to two bingles last week, will work for the Jeffersonians with Joe Morley on the receiving end. Hope Chapel will probably have Dick Schott in the box with Luthman doing the catching.

RETURN BOWLING MATCH SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT

The Elks' bowling team and the pinners representing the Park Club will meet in the second match of their inter-club series on the latter's alleys tonight. The first game, rolled on the Elks' alleys, was won by the Park Club woodsplitters and the antlered tribe is primed to even up matters in the three-part series.

A large crowd of rooters, in which will be intermingled many of the feminine shouters, will view the engagement tonight, both clubs having instilled a large amount of interest in the camps of their cohorts.

The Elks team will have to make a change in its lineup, as Chief Kieley will be out of the city, and Ed Laing will take his place. The lineup of the two teams will be as follows: Elks—Biatz, Laing, Stout, Nash and Campbell; Parks—Barlow, Long, Lyman, Mulford and Bail.

ROD AND REEL

There is good reason for having the closed season on black bass in the spring. Bass do most of their spawning in April and early May, and at that time of year are lying close inshore, especially in lakes, where they seek beds of rushes in which to lay their eggs. As the female fish are ravenously hungry at this time of year, and are also so near inshore, it is a very simple matter for the caster, standing on the bank, to catch numbers of bass if the water is at all stocked. It is manifestly taking the fish at a tremendous disadvantage, and were there no law, conditions would mean the destruction of many millions of wild spawn. Also the fish are at spawning time of rather poor quality for food.

Conditions at Moosehead Lake indicate a rather late opening of the fishing season there, the ice in the lake at Kineo being now 28 inches, solid and blue, on top of which is a blanket of snow, varying in depth from three to five feet, which must disappear before the ice begins to waste or weaken. The usual opening date at Moosehead is May 10, but the fishermen there expect the season to be a week or more later this year. It is said that a late opening means better fishing.

Flounders, two and three at a trip, to the number of four hundred, were taken last week at Duck Point, Jamaica Bay, by fishermen, fishing at high tide with bloodworm bait.

It is now unlawful for any person to place, for the purpose of decoying water fowl to be killed, any wild rice or other grain on the waters of any bay or stream, or on any feeding grounds where wild water fowl can be killed. Senator William Read, of Camden, introduced and passed the bill in the interest of conservation, as he knows from experience that such methods are unsportsmanlike and should be stopped. The senator is a prominent gunner and knows the situation from experience. Then, to help the good cause along, Senator Read passed a bill, which is now a law, prohibiting person or persons from drawing any seine under the ice for fish. In many of the waters of South Jersey the perch gather in schools of thousands under the ice, and fishermen, by an ingenious net arrangement, draw them out at a time when they are preparing to spawn. Still wishing to help the sportsmen, Senator Read introduced

"SPORTDOM TIPS"

Baseball will reign in its full glory hereabouts tomorrow afternoon, the first complete program of the season being ushered in by local and suburban managers. Plenty of the diamond sport is on tap in every section of the city and baseball galore will take possession of the sporting situation at that time. While we have Sunday school, public school and factory teams cavorting about the lots Plainfield is still without a representative combination and present circumstances indicate that the city will be unrepresented for some time to come. Baseball performances of every calibre are on tap tomorrow afternoon and the lover of the popular outdoor pastime will be able to get his first real taste of America's National game.

One thing looks pretty certain in baseball at the present time in this section and that is that there will be no Sunday exhibitions around these diggins. Scotch Plains enthusiasts appear to have breathed their last in the Sunday sport and without this burg as a baseball resort we need look no further for that particular brand of competition. Several of those who have kept the sport alive in that village for the past decade have passed their age of usefulness and they have at last consented to take a back seat and give someone else a chance to pick up the managerial reins. There is no one visible at the present time, however, who wants to promote the Sunday pastime and we hold out no hopes for the lover of this phase of the game.

In VanDeventer the Plainfield High School baseball faction has certainly unearthed the "find" of the season. The left gardener has established a reputation for himself as a fly catcher and swat-smith. Heretofore his fellow schoolmates were willing to acknowledge that they "didn't know it was in him," but since being given a regular berth he has more than proven his worth to the aggregation. In two games he has smashed out hits that were double deckers and has also made some wonderful catches.

Tomorrow afternoon on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, the University of Pennsylvania will stage one of the most wonderful athletic carnivals ever seen in this country. Here will be seen in action on one field 2,500 athletes from as far west as California and as far east as London, England—grammar school boys to world's champions. The competitions will start at 1:25 p. m. with the grammar school relays. At 1:25 the high school boys will go on, and one hour and five minutes later the preparatory schools will have their fling. At 3:30 the "class" events for college teams will get under way, and the one, two, and four-mile intercollegiate championship races will be run after 4:20 p. m.

The presence of the Oxford University team in the four-mile race will be enough in itself to pack the stands that surround Franklin Field. Here will be seen for the first time in America Arnold N. S. Jackson, the long striding Briton, who upset the Yankee milers at Stockholm in 1912. The four-mile title looks easy for the Oxford quartet, the members of which in form should average 4:25. The one and two-mile championships, however, are going to furnish desperate racing, and there's no such thing as forecasting the winner in either of these races.

dle West was opened here today. The stables at the Kentucky Racing Association track are filled with some of the best thoroughbreds in the country and a record-breaking meet is predicted. Racing will continue each day of the week, with the exception of Sunday, until May 7.

RECORD FOR HOPPE.

Willie Hoppe broke the world's record for a high run at the Hotel Astor, New York, last night, when he clicked off 393 points in the sixth inning of his match with George Slosson, in the tournament for the 14-1 balkline championship. Hoppe ran out his 400 points in eleven innings, while Slosson was scoring 79.

MEASLES GET MEREDITH.

Philadelphia, April 24.—"Ted" Meredith, the Olympic half-mile champion, who was expected to be the mainstay of both the one and two mile relay teams of the University of Pennsylvania in the annual relay championships tomorrow, was stricken with German measles yesterday and will be in quarantine for weeks.

ELIZABETHS SIXTH.

Atlantic City, April 24.—The Elizabeth Reds' five-man team of Elizabeth tied for sixth place in the standing of the ten high teams in the five-man team event of the National Bowling Association tournament last night, with a total score of 2,805.

FULL LIST OF DEAD MARINES.

Vera Cruz, April 24.—The following is a correct list of the dead and wounded up to date:

J. F. Schumaker, cockswain, Florida.

C. Poinsette, seaman, Florida.

D. A. Haggerty, private, Utah, Eight company.

S. Marton, private, Prairie, Sixteenth company.

R. Percy, private, Utah, Eighth company.

L. O. Fried, ordinary seaman, Arkansas.

W. I. Watson, ordinary seaman, Arkansas.

F. P. De Lowry, seaman, New Hampshire.

A. F. Stream, ordinary seaman, New Jersey.

C. A. Smith, ordinary seaman, New Hampshire.

C. G. Deball, gunner's mate, New Jersey, Third company.

Frank Devorick.

D. J. Lane, seaman.

E. H. Frohlichstein, ordinary seaman.

E. C. Fisher, ordinary seaman.

Washington, April 24.—The Fifth brigade at Texas City was ordered aboard transports to proceed to Vera Cruz at once. These are the first United States army troops sent to Mexico.
Three regiments were ordered from San Francisco to the Mexican border.

One artillery regiment at Fort Riley,

President Wilson is expected to go before congress within forty-eight hours and ask for authorization to call 400,000 volunteers.

The situation is so serious it is feared the regular force of the United States will be inadequate to cope with it.

President Wilson issued a proclamation restoring the embargo on arms and ammunition intended for all forces in Mexico. Collector of the Port Zack Cobb of El Paso seized a consignment of ammunition intended for Francisco Villa.

Late reports from Rear Admiral Badger announced that three more sailors were killed and twenty-three wounded in the desultory fighting of the last twenty-four hours at Vera Cruz. That brings the total of Americans killed in the three days to fifteen and the number of wounded to sixty-eight.

Tampico Situation Grave.

The situation at Tampico is causing the gravest anxiety. Federals and Constitutionalists are reported to have combined.

The transport Hancock has been ordered to return to that port at all speed.

President Wilson would not reply directly to General Carranza's threat to begin war if American troops were not withdrawn from Mexican soil, but orders of great significance were issued at Washington.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels announced the formation of a special squadron to be commanded by Rear Admiral Winslow. This will be made up of light draft war vessels capable of going close inshore. It will leave New York on Sunday.

Senor Algara, the Mexican charge at Washington, received his passports from Secretary Bryan.

Announcement was made that Charge O'Shaughnessy will leave Mexico City as soon as possible. He has turned American interests over to Brazil. Where Brazil has no consular representative France will act.

The Hamburg Nachrichten, semi-official paper of the German government, editorially attacks President Wilson with great bitterness. It accuses him of hypocrisy in veiling a desire for territorial aggrandizement under a pretense of altruism.

War is on, and yet there is no war.
Diplomatic relations between Mexico and the United States have been severed, and the regular troops have been ordered to Vera Cruz to back up the bluejackets and marines on Mexican soil. But in the technical language of diplomacy merely "a condition of hos-

Charge Algara, who has represented ilities exists." The fine distinction between war and "a condition of hostilities" is that war does not end until a treaty of peace has been concluded.

At night President Wilson, yielding to the urgent importunities of military and naval advisers, consented with seeming reluctance to the dispatch of a part of the regular army from Galveston to Vera Cruz.

The embargo against the shipment of arms and ammunition into Mexican territory has been put in force again, but without the issuance of a presidential proclamation. More troops have been officially given of allying apprehension and "to relieve the tension."

The government is momentarily expecting news of a declaration of war by President Huerta and the Mexican congress. Huerta's action in directing that Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge d'affaires in the City of Mexico, receive his passports forthwith is believed to be preliminary to such action. But President Wilson still insists that the hostile movement ordered by him affects only General Huerta "within the territory he controls" and that "the feeling and intention of the government" are based upon "a genuine friendship for the Mexican people and a profound interest in the re-establishment of their constitutional system." The quotations are from a statement issued by the president in the course of the day.

Bluejackets Guard Roads.

Vera Cruz, April 24.—As a precaution against night attacks large bodies of marines and bluejackets have been sent into the sand hills surrounding Vera Cruz.

The marines have intrenched themselves, and field guns have been placed in position in preparation for any attack that might be made. Major Smedley Butler is in command of the marines posted at the outskirts of the city. It is not believed that the Mexicans will attack.

General Maass is reported to be waiting orders from General Blanquet, secretary of war, before taking any action in regard to the developments at Vera Cruz.

"Snipers" continue firing from different parts of the city despite the efforts of the marines and bluejackets to clear them from the housetops.

Paymaster Kimber of Admiral Cradock's British fleet was slightly wounded by a Mexican sharpshooter. Kim-ber was on the deck of the Essex, the admiral's flagship, at the time. His wound is not serious.

Flag Lieutenant McCandless of Admiral Badger's staff captured a Mexican gunboat attempting to take 250 soldiers off a transport which had just arrived outside the harbor. McCandless accomplished the task with out-puting but the launch of the battleship Arkansas, which is armed with one one-pounder gun.

When the launch in charge of Mc-Candless appeared near the gunboat the Mexican soldiers lined the rail armed with rifles. These were pointed at the approaching launch, but it kept right on until McCandless, disregarding the rifles and the command to halt, climbed to the deck of the gun-boat and placed it under American control.

The Ward liners Mexico, Guantanamo and Espesanza are ready here to take off American refugees from Vera Cruz.
It was expected that some of the Mexican prisoners would be placed on one of the boats kept here for that pur-

The fire department of the borough was kept busy yesterday afternoon, when two small fires resulted in still alarms. The first to occur was at Dr. J. H. Cooley's sanitarium, where a blaze started in the laundry of the institution. The damage was slight.

The second call followed shortly afterward, the blaze this time being at the home of Guy D. Peck on Park place. The fire started with a basket of waste paper and had worked its way up the wainscoting. The damage here amounted to $25.

LATENT TALENT TO BE DISPLAYED AT CIRCUS

Prof. Bombistino, Peerless Bare Back Rider, is Local Man Without Equal.

Plainfielders will undoubtedly be much surprised when they learn of all the local talent, of the kind that makes circus stars, that is to be found in this city. There will be a chance given everyone to see just what skillful acrobats and riders the city possesses, however, when the circus is given on May 4 for the benefit of the open air school. Unfortunately most of the young men who are to take part are very modest about having their names used, and insist upon traveling under non-de-plumes. That is why it is only possible to announce at this time that Professor Bombistino, the greatest bareback rider in the world, is really a resident of this city, and will positively appear only twice this season, once at the matinee and once at the evening performance for the benefit of the open air school.

Professor Bombistino does stunts that no one else ever attempted, and probably never will attempt again. He challenges anyone to equal the tricks which he will perform on May 4, and which he probably cannot duplicate again himself. He has kindly consented to let his real name be known, at a later date, so that the Plainfield public will not be kept in continual darkness as to its local talent.

Tickets are being sold by the members of the school committee, and reserved seats can be procured at the Daily Press office. The boxes are about gone, but a few are still available for both afternoon and evening performances. While the show is not the greatest on earth, it will be the greatest that Plainfield has ever had, because of the local participants.

Thirty-four years of success as an amusement purveyor to the American public is a record of which any man might well be proud, and that is the record of Frank A. Robbins, who will bring his "All-Feature Show" here for the school benefit. Starting while yet a very young man, with the smallest kind of a wagon show, he has gradually developed his business until today he is putting on the road a show, which while not the largest, is fully up to any in the features presented. Every year for thirty-four he has improved his equipment, and searched all over the country for star acts, and those which will be seen this year eclipse any in the past. It has always been the custom of this successful circus man to give the public just what he advertises that he will, and his reputation for keeping his word has become so great that he is able to return to the same town year after year, a thing which has been found impossible by other circuses. In addition to strengthening his show he has increased his menagerie and parade this year.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

STATE BOARD HEARS APPEALS.

Elizabeth, April 24.—The State Board for the Equalization of Taxes, sitting here, heard several appeals and reserved decision in all of them. The Western Union Telegraph Company, which has two appeals from assessments in Middlesex county, withdrew one. This was an assessment on its properties in Raritan township. The other Western Union appeal, in which decision was reserved, was on an assessment for wires, poles and other properties in Woodbridge township. A reduction from $27,000 to $8,450 was sought. Charles Heckel, of Mountainside, sought a reduction of $700 on the assessment on twenty-nine acres of land in Mountainside. The only individual appeal from Middlesex county came from Charles Straub, who sought a reduction of $5,700 on a $9,000 assessment for 115 acres of land in Sayreville. Decisions in the appeals are expected next Tuesday, when the board members confer.

Of Interest to Women and the Home

NEEDLEWORK

By MARGARET LAWRENCE

A SIMPLE DESIGN OF WREATHS AND BOW-KNOTS FOR A NIGHTGOWN.

A well made hand-embroidered nightgown is often a luxury for the average person, for they are very expensive when bought ready to wear, but the woman who is handy with a needle may have any number of them. A slip-over nightgown is very easy to make, having only a seam under each arm. This may be made of batiste, nainsook, long cloth, cotton crepe, China silk or crepe de chine. A gown made of any of these materials may be embroidered with pattern No. 14271, which may be developed in heavily padded solid work and eyelets. The scalloped edge should be well padded, so as to keep its shape when laundered, and the material should not be cut away from the scallops until after this has been done. This prevents the material from shrinking up inside of the scallops, which would cause the latter to pull away from the gown. Mercerized cotton should be used for embroidering the cotton materials, and filo silk for the crepe de chine or China silk. By omitting the bow-knot in the front, this design may be adapted to a front-closing nightgown.

Guaranteed, hot-iron transfer pattern can be supplied to readers upon receipt of price, 15 cents.

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

6909

In children's clothing the tendency is to keep them simple, to have them hang easily from the shoulders so that there shall be nothing to hamper the freedom of action, and at the same time to have them as pleasing as possible. There is nothing that makes a child, especially a girl, more self-conscious or unhappy than the knowledge that her frock is ill fitting or ugly.

No. 6909 is a pretty, long waisted design with a plaited skirt, a set-in sleeve and an attractive collar in bib effect which may be used or omitted as desired. Serge, wool crepe, or one of the heavier cottons or linen may be used with this design.

For a little later in the season one of the new flowered crepes would be very smart.

To make this dress for a child of eight it requires 2 1/2 yards of 42 inch material.

The pattern is cut in 5 sizes; 2 to 10.

This Is a Perfect Pattern.

Be sure to state right size, passing the tape around the widest part of the breast well up under the arms.

It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

The STORY of WAITSTILL BAXTER

CHAPTER IX.

A June Sunday.

IT was Sunday in June, and almost the whole population of Riverboro and Edgewood was walking or driving in the direction of the meeting house on Tory hill.

Church toilets, you may well believe, were difficult of attainment by Deacon Baxter's daughters, as they had been by his respective helpmates in years gone by. When Waitstill's mother first asked her husband to buy her a new dress, and that was two years after marriage, he simply said: "You look well enough. What do you want to waste money on finery for, these hard times? If other folks are extravagant that ain't any reason you should be. You ain't obliged to take your neighbors for an example, take 'em for a warnin'!"

"But, Foxwell, my Sunday dress is worn completely to threads," urged the second Mrs. Baxter.

"That's what women always say. They're all alike, no more idea of savin' anything than a skunk blackbird. I can't spare any money for gewgaws, and you might as well understand it first as last. Go up attic and open the hair trunk by the window, you'll find plenty there to last you for years to come."

The second Mrs. Baxter visited the attic as commanded, and in turning over the clothes in the old trunk knew by instinct that they had belonged to her predecessor in office. Some of the dresses were neat, though terribly worn and faded, but all were fortunately far too short and small for a person of her fine proportions. Besides, her very soul shrank from wearing them, and her spirit revolted both from the insult to herself and to the poor dead woman she had succeeded, so she came downstairs to darn and mend and patch again her shabby wardrobe.

Waitstill had gone through the same experience as her mother before her, but in despair when she was seventeen she began to cut over the old garments for herself and Patty. Mercifully there were very few of them, and they had long since been discarded. At eighteen she had learned to dye yarns with yellow oak or maple bark and to make purples from elder and sumac berries; she could spin and knit as well as any old "aunt" of the village and cut and shape a garment as deftly as the Edgewood tailors, but the task of making bricks without straw was a hard one indeed.

She wore a white cotton frock on this particular Sunday. It was starched and ironed with a beautiful gloss, while a touch of distinction was given to her costume by a little black sleeveless "roundabout" made out of the covering of an old silk umbrella. Her flat hat had a single wreath of coarse daisies around the crown, and her mitts were darned in many places. Nevertheless you could not entirely spoil her; God had used a liberal hand in making her, and her father's parsimony was a sort of boomerang that flew back chiefly upon himself.

As for Patty, her style of beauty, like Cephas Cole's, had to be toned down, rather than up to be effective, but circumstances had been cruelly unrelenting in this process of late. Deacon Baxter had given the girls three or four shopworn pieces of faded yellow calico that had been repudiated by the village housewives as not fast enough in color to bear the test of proper washing. This had made frocks, aprons, petticoats and even underclothes for two full years, and Patty's weekly oburgations when she removed her everlasting yellow dress from the nail where it hung were not such as should have fallen from the lips of a deacon's daughter. Waitstill had taken a piece of the same yellow material, starched and ironed it, cut a curving, circular trim from it, sewed in a plaited crown, and, lo, a hat for Patty! What inspired Patty to put on a waist ribbon of deepest wine color, with a little band of the same on the pale yellow hat, no one could say.

"Do you think you shall like that dull red right close to the yellow, Patty?" Waitstill asked anxiously.

"It looks all right on the columbines in the Indian cellar," replied Patty, turning and twisting the hat on her head. "If we can't get a peek at the Boston fashions we must just find our styles where we can."

The various roads to Tory hill were alive with vehicles on this bright Sunday morning. Uncle Bert and Abel Day, with their respective wives on the back seat of the Cole's double wagon, were passed by Deacon Baxter and his daughters. Waitstill being due at meeting earlier than others by reason of her singing in the choir. The deacon's one horse, two wheeled "shay" could hold three persons with comfort on its broad seat, and the twenty-year-old mare, although she was always as hollow as a gourd, could generally do the mile, uphill all the way, in half an hour if urged continually, and the deacon, be it said, if not good at feeding was unsurpassed at urging.

Aunt Abby Cole could get only a passing glimpse of Patty in the depths of the "shay," but a glimpse was all.

"Do you think you shall like that dull red right close to the yellow?"

ways enough for her, as her opinion of the girl's charms was considerably affected by the forlorn condition of her son, Cephas, whom she suspected of being hopelessly in love with the young person aforesaid, to whom she commonly alluded as "that red headed baggage."

"Patience Baxter's got the kind of looks that might do well enough at a tavern dance or a husking, but they're entirely unsuited to the Sabbath day or the meetin' house," so Aunt Abby remarked to Mrs. Day in the way of back seat confidence. "It's unfortunate that a deacon's daughter should be afflicted with that bold style of beauty. Her hair's all but red. In fact, you might as well call it red when the sun shines on it. But if she'd ever smack it down with bear's grease she might darken it some, or anyhow she'd make it lay slicker. But it's the kind of hair that just matches that kind of a girl—sort of up an' comin'." Then her skin's so white and her cheeks so pink and her eyes so snappy that she'd attract attention without half tryin', though I guess she ain't above makin' an effort."

"She's innocent as a kitten," observed Mrs. Day impartially.

"Oh, yes, she's innocent enough an' I hope she'll keep so. Waitstill's a sight han'somer, if the truth was told, but she's the sort of girl that's made for one man and the rest of 'em never look at her. The other one's cut out for the crowd, the more the merrier. She's a kind of mantrap, that girl is! Do urge the horse a little mite, Bartholomew! It makes me kind o' hot to be passed by Deacon Baxter. It's missionary Sunday, too, when he generally has rheumatism too bad to come out."

"I wonder if he ever puts anything into the plate?" said Mrs. Day. "No one ever saw him that I know of."

"The deacon keeps the Thou Shalt Not commandments pretty well," was Aunt Abby's terse response. "I guess he don't put nothin' into the plate, but I s'pose we'd ought to be thankful he don't take nothin' out. The Baptists are gettin' ahead faster than they'd ought to up to the Mills. Our minister ain't no kind of a proselyter. Seems as if he didn't care how folks got to heaven so long as they got there. The other church is havin' a service this afternoon side o' the river, an' I'd kind o' like to go, except it would please 'em too much to have a crowd there to see the immersion. They tell me, but I don't know how true, that that Tillson widdler woman that came here from somewhere in Vermont wanted to be baptized today, but the other converts declared they wouldn't be if she was."

"Jed Morrill said they'd have to hold her under water quite a spell to do any good," chuckled Uncle Bert from the front seat.

"Well, I wouldn't repeat it, Bartholomew, on the Sabbath day, not if he did say it. Jed Morrill's responsible for more blasphemous jokes than any man in Edgewood. I don't approve of makin' light of anybody's religious observances if they're ever so foolish," said Aunt Abby, somewhat enigmatically. "Our minister keeps remindin' us that the Baptists and Methodists are our brethren, but I wish he'd be a little more anxious to have our society keep ahead of the others."

"Jed's 'bout right in sizin' up the Widdler Tillson," was Mr. Day's timid contribution to the argument. "I ain't a readin' man, but from what folks report I should think she was one o' them critters that set on rocks bewilderin' an' bedevilin' men folks out o' their senses—syreens, I think they call 'em—a reg'lar syreen is what that woman is, I guess!"

"There, there, Abel, you wouldn't know a syreen if you found one in your baked beans, so don't take away a woman's character on hearsay." And Mrs. Day, having shut up her husband as was her bounden duty as a wife and a Christian, tied her bonnet strings a little tighter and looked distinctly pleased with herself.

"Abel ain't startin' any new gossip," was Aunt Abby's opinion, as she sprang to his rescue. "One or two more holes in a calander don't make much difference—Bartholomew, we're certainly goin' to be late this mornin'; we're about the last team on the road," and Aunt Abby glanced nervously behind. "Elder Boone ain't begun the openin' prayer, though, or we should know it. You can hear him pray a mile away, when the wind's right. I do hate to be late to meetin'. The elder alters takes notice; the folks in the wing pews allers gapes an' stares, and the choir peeks through the curtain, takin' notes of everything you've got on your back. I hope to the land they'll chide and keep together a little mite better'n they've done lately, that's all I can say. If the Lord is right in our midst, as the Bible says, he can't think much of our singers this summer."

"They're improvin', now that Pliny Waterhouse plays his fiddle," Mrs. Day remarked pacifically. "There was times in the anthem when they kept together considerable well last Sunday. They didn't always chide, but there, they chided some! We're most there now, Abby, don't forget! Cephas won't ring the last bell till he knows his own folks is crossin' the common!"

Those were days of conscientious churchgoing, and every pew in the house was crowded. The top was cushioned and covered with red velvet, surmounted by a huge gilt edged Bible. There was a window in the tower through which Cephas Cole could look into the church and while tolling the bell could keep watch for the minister. Always exactly on time, he would come in, walk slowly up the right hand aisle, mount the pulpit stairs, enter and close the door after him. Then Cephas would give one tremendous pull to warn listeners on the steps, a pull that meant, "Parson's in the pulpit!" and was acted upon accordingly. Opening the big Bible, the minister raised his right hand impressively, and saying, "Let us pray," the whole congregation rose in their pews with a great rustling and bowed their heads devoutly for the invocation.

Next came the hymn, generally a that day one of Isaac Watts'. The singers, fifteen or twenty in number, sat in a raised gallery opposite the pulpit, and there was a rod in front hung with red curtains to hide them when sitting down. Any one was free to join, which perhaps accounted for Aunt Abby's strictures as to time and tune. Jed Morrill, "blasphemous" as he was considered by that acrimonious lady, was the leader, and a good one too. There would be a great whispering and buzzing when Deacon Sumner, with his big fiddle, and Pliny Waterhouse, with his smaller one, would try to get in accord with Humphrey Baker and his clarinet. All went well when Humphrey was there to give the sure keynote, but in his absence Jed Morrill would use his tuning fork. When the key was finally secured by all concerned, Jed would raise his stick, beat one measure to set the time, and all joined in, or fell in, according to their several abilities. It was not always a perfect thing in the way of a start, but they were well together at the end of the first line, and when, as now, the choir numbered a goodly number of voices and there were 300 or 400 in the pews nothing more inspiring in its peculiar way was ever heard than the congregational singing of such splendid hymns as "Old Hundred," "Duke Street" or "Coronation."

Waitstill led the troubles, and Ivory was at the far end of the choir in the basses, but each was conscious of the other's presence. This morning he could hear her noble voice rising a little above, or perhaps, from its quality, separating itself somehow, ever so little, from the others. How full of strength and hope it was, her voice! How steadfast to the pitch! How golden its color! How moving in its crescendo! How the words flowed from her lips, not as if they had been written years ago, but as if they were the expression of her own faith! There were many in the congregation who were stirred, they knew not why, when there came to be only a few "carry-ing the air" and they could really hear Waitstill Baxter singing some dear old hymn, full of sacred memories, like—

While thee I seek, protecting Power, Be my vain wishes stilled, And may this consecrated hour With better hopes be filled.

"There may be them in Boston that can sing louder, and they may be able to run up a little higher than Waitstill, but the question is, could any of 'em make Aunt Abby Cole shed tears?" This was Jed Morrill's tribute to his best soprano.

There were Sunday evening prayer meetings, too, held at "early candle-light," when Waitstill and Lucy Morwill would make a duet of "By cool stream's shady rill," or the favorite "Naomi," and the two fresh young voices, rising and falling in the tender thirds of the old tunes, melted all hearts to new willingness of sacrifice.

Father, whatever of earthly bliss Thy sov'reign will denies, Accepted at thy throne of grace Let this petition rise.

Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free,
The blessing of thy grace impart,
And let me live to thee.

How Ivory loved to hear Waitstill sing these lines! How they eased his burden as they were easing hers, falling on his impatient, longing heart like evening dew on thirsty grass!

The Scotch Lassie Was Much Admired.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—The Fairies' Beautiful Big Masquerade Ball.

"YOU haven't told us a story about the fairies for ever so long, daddy," said Evelyn.

"Yes; that's true," agreed Jack. "Won't you please tell us one this evening?"

"Let me think," said daddy. "Did I ever tell you about the masquerade ball they gave?"

"No," said Evelyn. "Do tell us about it."

"You know," continued daddy, "a masquerade ball is a very special kind of ball, for at it every one dresses up in fancy costume so that no one will know who it is."

"The fairies thought it would be such fun to have a masquerade ball. They spoke to the fairy queen about it, and she was just as enthusiastic. 'I think it would be splendid,' she said. 'Let's have it tomorrow evening at 8 sharp.'"

"The next night promptly at 8 all the fairies gathered together. And such costumes as there were! There were witches, wisecracks, dunces, dominoes, Japs, jesters, milkmaids, mermaids, clowns, cowboys, princes, kings, queens, soldiers, etc. They were to wear masks till supper time."

"But one fairy seemed to be the center of admiration. She was a little Scotch lassie. She wore a velvet jacket and a plaited plaid skirt. Her little legs were bare, and on her feet were black velvet slippers with shiny buckles on them."

"The fairies talked to one another in queer disguised voices, so no one would be able to recognize them by their voices. The little Scotch lassie didn't speak at all, but she danced the highland fling, and it completely fascinated all the fairies."

"At last supper time came, and they all eagerly watched to see who every one was, and especially the little Scotch lassie. And who do you suppose it was?"

"Could it have been the queen?" asked Evelyn.

"Yes, indeed; that is just who it was. They all at once said, 'Fairy queen, you've taken the prize.'"

"But I can't accept my own prize," said she.

"You must," said all the fairies, "for you are perfectly marvelous."

"Well, that's a funny thing to offer a prize and then to keep it. But anyway, I can divide it, as it is a box of sugar plums."

"Goodie!" they all cried.

NEW JERSEY'S OPPORTUNITIES

Dr. W. L. Saunders Addresses the Jersey City Chamber of Commerce.

VALUE OF EDUCATION

Harbor Commissioner Tells of State's Interest in Water Front Development in and About Hudson County.

"New Jersey's Interest in Water Front Developments in and About Hudson County," was the topic of an interesting address made by Dr. William L. Saunders, of North Plainfield, before the Jersey City Chamber of Commerce, last night. Dr. Saunders is now a member of the New Jersey Harbor Commission, and having made a close study of conditions in and around New York harbor, which affects Jersey City and adjacent territory, his remarks last night were timely and well received. Dr. Saunders said:

"There is no subject of such great importance to the future industrial welfare of New Jersey as the development of its waterways. No other State than ours is so richly endowed by nature in the things that give opportunity for industrial progress along the lines of manufacturing and transportation.

"A station or nation becomes great in proportion as its people are educated and enlightened. It becomes rich and prosperous in proportion as its people take advantage of that which Nature has laid out before them for use, by culture and development. Our sister State, Pennsylvania, is strong and prosperous because its people at an early date saw the importance of developing its internal resources, its coal and iron mines and its manufactures which grow and prosper around places where raw material and transportation are at hand. Michigan has its mines of copper and iron, Illinois its great coal fields, its farms and its waterways, Southern California its climate and its oil fields, Alabama its marvelous deposits of coal, iron and limestone, located practically in the same spot; Florida has its orange groves and its winter resorts, and New Jersey has its natural waterways and its railroads.

"Out State is very small in area, one of the smallest in the Union, and yet there are only half a dozen States that produce more in manufactured products than we do, and I am told that the last census shows that with one exception New Jersey grew more in manufactures than any other State.

"There can be no doubt about the value of every State and Nation of its manufactures. England became the most powerful nation of the world through the wealth of her mines which built up works, the productions of which were loaded on her ships and transported to every country in the world. We must not forget that the English merchant marine is the direct result of her strength and volume in manufactured products. Having the goods to sell, and with her works located at or near tide water, she naturally built ships and through those ships created an exchange of trade which gave her influence, power and wealth.

"New Jersey is to the United States what Liverpool, Sheffield and Manchester are to England, and Hudson county, it seems to me, is in its natural advantages and its opportunities the greatest county in the State.

"Let us see about this: Hudson county has a waterfront on upper New York Bay and the Hudson River of about 15 miles on a straight line. It has a waterfront on Newark Bay of about 7 miles, about 3 miles on the Kills, 9 miles on the Hackensack River and 7 miles on the Passaic River. It is the eastern terminus of practically all the great western railroads, having terminal facilities on its waterfront for nine railroads, the aggregate extent of which is nearly thirty thousand miles. In addition to this there are seven steamship lines running into the territory of this county. I doubt that any State or any country in the world can show such opportunities. I use the word opportunities advisedly because, it seems plain that the conditions in and about Hudson county for manufacturing and transportation developments are ripe for enormous progress.

"When we realize that nearly 50 per cent. of the American shipping commerce is done in the port of New York and that our exports of manufactured products have now reached the enormous figure of nearly one thousand five hundred million dollars per annum and that just in proportion as we find foreign markets for our goods shall we need terminal facilities and that manufacturers everywhere try to locate their shops near their greatest markets, one may easily prophesy that the land of New Jersey, and particularly that in and about Hudson county, is from every standpoint of efficiency the best for manufacturing industries.

"We seldom realize that water transportation is the cheapest transportation in the world, that in the world's commerce the cost of transportation is next in importance to the cost of manufacturing. We have here a great labor market, we are connected by rail and by water with the main sources of raw materials and supplies, and if our rivers and harbors are conserved and improved to accommodate both the railroads and the manufacturers we shall see a condition of industrial activity in this neighborhood such as exists today in no part of the world.

"We have given, it seems to me, too much thought in our struggle for the world's markets to the question of the price of labor and too little thought to other things of greater importance. My observation in travel has convinced me that in those countries where labor is cheap and the least growth. The Japanese, with all their skill and ability, have never been able to compete in the cost of manufactures. China and India are not, and probably never will be, great manufacturing centers. You may say that this is because they are too far away, yet they have ocean transportation, which is the cheapest kind of transportation, for it is a fact that a ton of freight may be carried across the Atlantic Ocean for the same cost as we transport it now from New York to Newark Bay by wagon or from New York to Baltimore by steam railroad.

"The opening of the Panama Canal is going to do many things, but there is one thing which it will surely do and that is open up the gateways of commerce for American products in Central and South America. Just as the prosperity of the English industries created ships are we likely to develop this highly efficient means of transportation, and if the rivers, harbors and shore lines in and about Hudson county are put in proper condition New Jersey will receive the full measure of profit and prosperity from those resources with which she has been so richly endowed by Nature."

TWENTY MORE DIE IN COLORADO RIOTS

Miners Marching to Attack Militiamen.

Trinidad, Colo., April 24.—One thousand strikers, who swept over the southern coal fields from Delagua to Rouse, leaving the smoking ruins of eight great coal properties in their wake and adding possibly an additional score to the present death list of twenty-six, are preparing for battle with the 350 militiamen being hurried into the war zone from Denver.

The troop train is due in Trinidad early. The town is in a furor of excitement.

The fate of the district in effect hangs in the balance. Carried away by a sense of power and by lust for revenge, the strikers have interposed themselves along the lines of the Colorado Southern and Denver and Rio Grande railroads and are awaiting the approach of the troops.

Campfires gleam along the ridges, and at Aguilera, scene of the burning of the Empire mine property, 500 men are gathered for what it is supposed will be the first concerted attack. By virtue of the fighting the strikers hold possession of all the country between Ludlow, where 100 men and two machine guns under Major Hamrock are stationed, and the coal camp at Rouse, twelve miles south of Walsenburg, to which fugitives from the burning camps taken by the strikers have fled.

At a late hour Rouse was reported to be completely surrounded, and 200 men who hold the camp with their rifles and a machine gun were preparing for an immediate attack.

BRAZIL TO REPRESENT U. S.

South American Envoy Will Be in Charge of Embassy.

Washington, April 24.—Secretary of State Bryan announced that at the request of this government the Brazilian legation at Mexico City should take charge of the archives and effects of the American embassy in that city and represent the United States there diplomatically. Also in such sections of Mexico as seem necessary the Brazilian government will assume charge of the archives and effects as well as the duties of the consular representatives of the United States. In cities or towns where Brazil has not consular representatives France will act for this government.

Secretary Bryan acknowledged, however, that no definition had yet been made as to which consular offices would be turned over to Brazil and which American consuls would remain in Mexico.

ORDER REBEL ARMS HELD UP

El Paso Will Halt Shipment of 150,000 Rounds of Ammunition.

El Paso, Tex., April 24.—Acting on instructions from Washington, Colonel C. S. P. Hatfield, commanding the Second cavalry brigade at Fort Bliss, notified Collector of Customs Zach L. Cobb to prohibit the exportation of arms and ammunition to Constitutionalists or other persons through the El Paso port to Juarez or through the El Paso customs district at any point.

The Constitutionalists have a shipment of 150,000 rounds of ammunition due to arrive and also have orders for 1,500,000 cartridges en route to El Paso from a factory.

ALMOST SEVERED HIS HAND WITH AN AXE

Wadsworth Johnson, of Berkeley Heights, who is tax collector for New Providence township, almost severed his left hand in an accident at his home, yesterday morning. He was chopping wood with an unusually keen axe and a sudden slip caused the blade to catch him on the back of the hand. The deep gash inflicted severed an artery which spurted great quantities of blood until Mrs. Johnson applied a tourniquet.

Dr. McGrath, of Stirling, was called and found it necessary to insert ten stitches to close the wound. Although Mr. Johnson will be unable to use the hand for many weeks, no serious results are anticipated.

DECLARES 300,885 WILL BE JERSEY CITY'S POPULATION

Jersey City, April 24—That Jersey City has, or will have July 1, a population of more than 300,000, was the assertion of Clerk James S. Lynch, of the Hudson county Board of Health, yesterday. The latest figures given out by the government census bureau, showing its estimate of the Jersey City population to be 293,000, led the county health board to give out its figures for publication.

Mr. Lynch, on behalf of the board, gives the estimated population as of July 1, 1914, at 300,885. The population of the city, according to the national census taken in 1910, was 267,779. Incidentally the population of the county is estimated by the county health board to be 620,121, as against 537,226 for 1910.

This is made up of the 300,885 in Jersey City, and the following figures for the other towns and cities in the county: Bayonne, 67,513; Hoboken, 75,253; West Hoboken, 42,206; Weehawken, 14,619; Union Hill, 24,876; West New York, 19,551; North Bergen, 19,030; Guttenberg, 6,604; Kearney, 23,430; East Newark, 3,490; Harrison, 16,000; Secaucus, 6,364.

RAHWAY VALLEY RAILROAD

LEASE APPROVED BY BOARD

Trenton, April 24—Subject to the correction of a clerical error, the Board of Public Utility Commissioners has signified its approval of the proposed lease of the line of the Rahway Valley Railroad Company to the Rahway Valley Company, from March 1 last to March 1, 1917. This is, in effect, although upon somewhat different terms, a continuation of the present lease, which has been in effect since February 27, 1909.

Under the existing lease, the Rahway Valley Company paid $16,000 to the Rahway Valley Railroad Company last year, in addition to all taxes, assessments and rates charged against the leased property. Under the extended lease it is proposed that instead of a fixed sum the lessor company is to receive all the net earnings of the valley company. In computing these, all taxes, assessments and rates paid are to be considered a part of the operating expenses.

In approving the proposed lease the board distinguished clearly between the conditions existing between the two companies and those between the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company and the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad and their prospective lessees, to which sanction was refused.

In the present case both companies are New Jersey corporations; the proposed lease is for a limited term not involving an attempt to effect a sale under the guise of a lease; sanction of the lease will not lay the basis for a claim that the State's power of regulation has been impaired, and no ground is provided for the contention that approval of the lease is tantamount to a determination that the lessee is entitled to exact rates to meet a fixed rental.

TO ISSUE PERMITS FOR SHORE IMPROVEMENTS

New Jersey Harbor Commission Makes That Decision at Special Meeting.

The big industrial developments upon the shore front at Camden, Bayonne, and the northern end of Hudson county, reported to the New Jersey Harbor Commission caused the commissioners to have a special meeting at the State House yesterday to complete plans for the issuance of permits for all shore front improvements.

Under the law creating the Harbor Commission, which was signed by Governor Fielder two weeks ago, no development of any kind can be undertaken upon any navigable stream within the borders of New Jersey unless plans and specifications for the improvement have first been filed with the harbor commissioners and approved by them. Inquiry has already been made of the commissioners by several shore front owners who have in contemplation the erection of large industrial plants upon the Delaware river, upon the New York Bay and upon the Hudson river.

Two large concerns had let contracts for improvements before the signing of the Harbor Commission Act, and the commissioners will undoubtedly approve of the plans and permit the construction work to proceed as soon as application for permits is made. The plans already having been approved by local authorities. Chief Engineer B. F. Cresson, Jr., submitted to the commission a comprehensive program for the filing of applications and issuance of permits, which he had worked out with President J. Spencer Smith and Secretary E. A. Ramson, Jr. Suggestions for strengthening the plan were made by Commissioner Charles S. Boyer and W. Parker Runyon and were adopted.

All shore front owners applying for permission to construct improvements upon navigable waters must under the ruling of the commission file with their application an abstract of their title to the land which they seek to improve and also proof of the fact that they have secured riparian grants from the State. The officials of any municipality in which a private improvement is contemplated will be notified of the application for a permit, and will be given ample opportunity to be heard if there be objection to the character of the improvement or its location. The commission has provided ample safeguards to prevent the seizure of public lands at street ends or elsewhere by private interest.

The commissioners carefully considered the question of the possible necessity for hasty action in case of emergency and provided for the issuance by any one commissioner, such permits to be good only until the next meeting of the commission by which time plans and application in regular form must be filed with the commission.
