HAVE YOUR CIRCUS TICKETS READY

That Will Be the Cry of Well Known Plainfielders On Monday Next.

YOUNG WOMEN USHERS MAY CHARGE 10 CENTS

No One Can Escape Vigorous People
Who Will Aid Open Air School
Benefit—Clowns and Performers
Galore in Big White Top.

Local participants will be seen in every part of the big tent which will cover the Frank A. Robbins circus here next Monday, when two performances are to be given for the benefit of the open air school on Muhlenberg place. Every place about the show where a local man or young woman can be used will be occupied by Plainfielders intent upon doing what they can to aid the worthy cause. Charles H. Lyman has agreed to act as announcer, and from the time that he first calls the attention of the audiences to the opening act, until the show closes there will be something going on with Plainfielders as the actors.

At the front door the tickets will be taken by George M. Holstein and Leslie R. Fort, while James Boyd Potter and Tax Collector William R. Townsend will mount a high stand in front of the tent to try to dispose of what reserved seat tickets may be left after the advance sale closes at the Daily Press office on Monday afternoon. Inside the entrance A. E. Force in the afternoon and Herbert E. Parker in the evening will sell reserved seat tickets to those who have escaped the vendors outside. Allen E. Beals and William S. Tyler will take tickets at the reserved seats at the matinee and F. E. Mygatt and Owen Fleming will relieve them in the evening. They will have as ushers to assist them at one performance or the other John J. Carthy, Dr. Edward S. Krans, Harry W. Marshall, Howard Lapsley, City Judge William G. DeMeza, President Jeffery of the Board of Trade, Samuel Rothberg, Edward C. Hardingham and David B. Doyle.

Taking tickets at the boxes will be either C. B. Tyler, Lewis G. Timpon, Dr. B. Vandt, Hedges or H. A. Robinson, and they will have as ushers to assist them several well known young society women, including Misses Gertrude Butler, Marlon Snyder, Marion Lorraine, Leila Hedges, Amy Holstein and Ruth Timpon.

Outside the side show tent Lewis M. Booth and Dr. H. D. Corbuser will hold forth, assisted by many others to describe the attractions which will be found within.

The all important task of selling peanuts, red lemonade, popcorn and the other things without which no circus is complete, will fall upon a number of boys, those doing the work in the afternoon being Dick Williams, Judson Blake, Harold Condit, John Hannan, William Morrell, Irving Willse, Heyward Erickson, Russell Tomlinson and Reginald Bulky.

As has been told before a number of Plainfielders will participate in the show as clowns and in other ways, but modesty has prevented many of them from permitting their names to be used. Maximus, head of the local physical culture school, will do the principal home act, and the others will work under the leadership of Warren Ackerman, Reginald Rowland and "Pete" Phillips.

The seat sale yesterday and today has been lively, and all of the center seats in the first four rows on each side of the ring, at both performances are now disposed of. There are still many good seats left, however, as 640 are provided for each performance. These will be on sale at the Daily Press office for the matinee until noon on Monday, and for the evening performance until 6 o'clock, unless, of course, all are disposed of before those hours. But two boxes for the matinee and four for the evening performance remained out of the 48 this morning.

The children of the Open-Air School will attend the show in a body in the afternoon, occupying a box which will be especially prepared for them.

The street parade will leave the show grounds at West Front street and Grant avenue shortly after 10 o'clock in the morning, and will go through Grant avenue to either Fourth or Seventh street, and down one of those thoroughfares to Park avenue, to Front street and back to the show lot. It cannot be determined whether the Fourth street or Seventh street route will be used until the circus arrives in town on Sunday.

EIGHTH ANNUAL BALL.
The eighth annual ball of the Owl Club will be held tonight at Saengerbund Hall, the borough. The organization has extended invitations to various social clubs of this and nearby towns.

SHOW NECESSITY OF EXTENSION

Question of Fare Raised at Hearing Before Public
Utilities Commission.

Belief that Trolley to South Plainfield Would Not Pay on a Five Cent Fare Basis—Another Hearing on May 14.

It was the general opinion that the representatives of the Plainfield and South Plainfield Boards of Trade and other Plainfielders from this vicinity that appeared before the Public Utilities Commission at Newark, yesterday, in the interest of an extension of the trolley to South Plainfield, made a strong impression in showing the needs of the improvement. The hearing, which was concluded about 2 o'clock, was adjourned to Thursday, May 14, at the same place when the Public Service Corporation, as well as those who are in favor of the extension will have another opportunity to be heard.

There did not seem to be any question among the Plainfielders as to the necessity of the extension, but a question on the part of the commission put to William Jeffrey, the local witness of the day, asking him whether he thought the extension would pay on a five cent basis seemed to be significant. Mr. Jeffrey said that he was not prepared to answer that question, the only concern being to have the extension made. He thought it was a matter of after consideration, that of fixing the rate of fare.

Mr. Jeffrey thought that if the line would not pay on the basis of a five cent fare, it might be made ten cents until such time as the business would warrant a five cent fare. All of the witnesses who testified at the hearing seemed to leave no room for doubt as to the necessity of the extension. A. M. Morrell, representing the Spicer Manufacturing Company, made an excellent witness. He pointed out the improvements made by his company at South Plainfield, and the fact that auto-buses were now employed to carry the employees back and forth to Plainfield. He expressed the opinion that the trolley would receive a substantial patronage from employees of the works.

The hearing brought out the fact that the people interested in the extension have no quarrel with the Public Service Corporation, but that their only desire is to secure up-to-date transit facilities, which any live community was likely to seek. Mr. Jeffrey pointed out the fact that people were gradually being compelled to move out of the thickly populated sections into the country and the trolley would be a big help in developing this country district.

WILL BORROW $500 FOR PENSION FUND

Captain Frederickson Will Receive $675 a Year After June 1.

Members of the Pension Commission met last night and decided to grant a pension of $675 a year to Captain Frederickson, of the local police department, who will retire permanently June 1. Frederickson has made application for a pension and is entitled to one-half of his present salary, having served the city for twenty-four years and being "sixty-three years of age."

In order to provide for such a pension it was necessary to borrow $500 from the city and this amount will be turned over immediately to the Pension Commission for the fund. At present the commission is without money and various schemes were discussed last night for the raising of a sufficient amount to carry on the work. No definite decision was arrived at and it is probable that another meeting will be held in the near future, at which time some steps will be taken for a benefit affair of some kind.

Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed attended the meeting and offered suggestions to the commission. Those at the meeting were Patrolman Arthur McGinley, City Treasurer William F. Arnold and DeWitt C. Ivins.

AMUSING FARCE WELL RECEIVED

"The Arrival of Kitty" Show by Plainfield Comedy Club is Laugh Provoking.

Brown Rolston, Disguised as Woman, Creates Ridiculous Situations, Which Keep Audience in Continuous Laughter During Three Acts.

"The Arrival of Kitty," presented by the Comedy Club, of Plainfield, at the Plainfield Theatre last night, was the broadest laugh-provoking farce ever presented by the well-known local dramatic organization. Throughout three acts the large audience laughed at the antics of the players, and evidenced their approval in no uncertain manner at the more clever bits of acting.

In "The Arrival of Kitty," the Comedy Club members have opportunity to display their talents in presenting a farce, as never before, and that they succeeded was attested by the peals of laughter which greeted the players in their more than satisfying efforts last night. There has probably never been an opportunity presented to Plainfield theatregoers to witness such a continuous display of mirth provoking incidents as was the case last night, either by amateur or professional talent. And the play really has a plot, although there are no villains to make things unpleasant. From the first rise of the curtain, displaying the office of a summer hotel in the Catskill Mountains, which is more famous for high prices than for competent service, until it drops at the close of the last act, the players were constantly creating ridiculous situations.

As is usually the case, there is a love affair. "Jane," an attractive young woman, in love with "Bobbie Baxter," is taken to the hotel by her uncle, William Winkler, and her aunt of uncertain age, also named Jane. (Continued on page 2.)

RUMORED CHANGE IS WITHOUT FOUNDATION

Father Hogan, Formerly of St. Mary's, Will Not Take Charge in Borough.

Since the resignation of Father Daniel P. Hogan from St. Mary's parish in this city and the appointment of his successor, numerous rumors have been going the rounds in North Plainfield to the effect that the former St. Mary's assistant will take charge of the work at St. Joseph's church as assistant to Father William H. Miller, who is at present in ill health. Efforts made to confirm the reports at the rectory last night resulted in a complete denial of the story of Father Miller's assistant who represented him in an interview.

The fact that Father Hogan was being considered for such a position in St. Joseph's parish was emphatically denied and it was further stated that Father Miller would continue to take full charge of matters in his parish for the present at least. According to information received from the rectory the rumors are erroneous and Father Miller's assistant expressed a wish that something be done to curtail the false information that is going the rounds.

PLAINFIELD TRUST CO. OFFERS NEW WAR MAP

In spite of the fact that the situation in Mexico is now somewhat brighter, the attention of the world will continue to be focused on that country for some time to come and those who wish to have an intelligent idea of the progress of events will be glad to take advantage of an offer of our progressive banking institution, The Plainfield Trust Company, to give them, free of charge, a new war map of Mexico. This map is indexed, shows the distance between given points, railroad routes, and the location of United States fortifications. It also contains tables giving the relative army strength of the world's great powers, and the cost of maintaining their armies and navies, etc., together with an illustration showing the types of vessels in the United States navy.

A cordial invitation is extended by the company to call at its office for one of these maps.

DOANE HAS BEEN CHIEF 26 YEARS

Veteran Fire Fighter Will Celebrate Golden Anniversary in Spring of 1915.

Established April 9, 1887—Taken Over by the City in 1887—Veterans of Service—Second Assistant Position Abolished.

Twenty-six years ago today Thaddeus O. Doane was appointed chief of the Plainfield fire department and since that time the local fire fighters have been led by an efficient, reliable and thoroughly popular commander. During the many years he has served the city, Chief Doane has proven his worth in this particular capacity and has become recognized as one of the best department directors in the State. Known in New Jersey and many other parts of the country because of his knowledge of fire fighting the local leader has been called upon on numerous occasions to lend his services in the establishing of departments in other cities and has introduced many modern improvements into the Plainfield department.

He is the personal friend of every man in the fire corps and is respected by all for his honest straightforward dealings with those under him. He has kept Plainfield abreast of the age by introducing timely suggestions for adequate equipment and he has never ceased working for the welfare of the community in supplying the necessary fire protection.

Few there are who have chanced to find out about today's anniversary for the veteran fire fighter speaks seldom of his long service. Next spring will mark the fiftieth anniversary of his connection with the local corps and it is probable that some fitting celebration will be arranged to commemorate the golden anniversary.

While he completes twenty-six years of service in the capacity of chief today, this means only twenty- (Continued on page 2.)

R. C. DOERINGER WEDS MISS COLE

Rev. J. Y. Brook Officiates at the Home of the Bride's Parents.

A RECEPTION FOLLOWS

Large Number of Guests Witness the Marriage of Popular Young Couple—Bride Receives Many Beautiful Gifts.

Miss Edna Maude Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cole, of Leiland avenue, and Russell C. Doeringer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Doeringer, of Vine street, the borough, were married at 7:30 o'clock last night, at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. J. Y. Brook, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, in the presence of about 150 guests, including relatives and friends from this city and out-of-town.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, trimmed with lace, and carried white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Adelaide G. Cole, as maid of honor, whose gown was of pink crepe de chine, trimmed with lace. She carried pink roses and sweet peas. Miss Eva B. Doeringer, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid. She wore a gown of pink satin and carried pink roses and sweet peas. Charles Doeringer, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, while George Cole and Clifford Cole, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

The Mendelssohn Wedding March was played by Naylor's orchestra as the bridal party entered the parlor. The bride was given in marriage by her father. After the ceremony, congratulations were offered and a wedding supper was served. Later in the evening the couple left on a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside on East Front street in a house recently built by the bridegroom. The bride received many beautiful gifts.

The house was attractively decorated for the affair, pink and white being the prevailing colors. There was a profusion of roses, carnations, greens and spring flowers arranged throughout the parlor, dining-room and hall. During the supper, Naylor's orchestra gave a popular program and later furnished music for dancing.

Both the bride and bridegroom are active workers in Trinity Reformed church and Sunday-school, of which they are members, and they are both popular. Mr. Doeringer holds a position with the Plainfield Trust Company, where he is highly esteemed.

SUPT. MAXSON ON SCHOOL TAXES

Principal of High School Compares Increases With Other Department Expenses.

Says That Schools Really Do Not Do as Much to Raise Tax Rate as Increases in Some of the Other Departments.

Dr. Henry M. Mason, supervising principal of the Plainfield public schools has prepared an interesting article on the relation of the schools to the tax rate in this city, and it is reprinted herewith for readers of the Daily Press. He says:

It is quite the fashion, when the tax rate rises, to exclaim, "Oh, those public schools!" Possibly some of you have made the same exclamation. Did you also say, "Oh, those streets!" "Oh, that police department!" "Oh, that fire department!" If you did not, why did you not? They are as much responsible for the rise in the tax rate as the schools are.

Take last year, for instance. The tax rate went up 19 points. The school maintenance rate went up only 2 1/2 points, city and light 4 1/2 points, county 5 1/2 points, fire department 1 point, and school bonds, because of the large issue of the High School bonds that year, went up 2 1/2 points. Or, to express it another way, the school maintenance rate increased 7.6 per cent., city and lights increased 11 per cent., county increased 19 per cent., while the fire tax increased 7.5 per cent., almost exactly the same as the school maintenance increase.

It is rumored that the tax rate next year is going up considerably above 200. If you hear anybody say anything about the schools, as responsible for that increase, please investigate and see how much of it really is due to increase in the school rate.

If the city valuation increases as it did last year, the school maintenance will increase about as last year. (Continued on page 2.)

WILLIAM G. BESLER CHOSEN PRESIDENT

Plainfielder Now Head of New Jersey Central Railroad System.

William G. Besler, of this city, who has been vice-president and general manager of the New Jersey Central, for several years, was today elected president and general manager, at a meeting of the directors in New York.

Charles F. Hubert was elected president of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Railroad.

Mr. Besler came to the New Jersey Central several years ago from the Reading system, where he was associated with the late George F. Baer. It is expected that other changes will follow in the New Jersey Central.

SMELSON IS ROBBED WHILE HE SLEEPS AT THE SWITCH

Fifty minutes' sleep between the hours of one and two this morning cost Samuel Smelson, the West Front street restaurant proprietor, eighty-five cents and no end of trouble. After serving "ham and" to a trio of colored men who came to his place of business shortly after midnight this morning, Smelson fell asleep in a chair near the cash register and when he woke up the register and contents were gone.

He immediately notified Patrolman Martin Flatley, who was near at hand at the time, and after a short search the policeman and Smelson located the cash register in an alley near by. The contents had been taken and the thieves had disappeared. It is the supposition of the police that the customers took the register from the counter as they went out and had ample time to get away with cash before the owner woke up.

TO ADDRESS SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.
James J. Jeffreys, of Philadelphia, who addressed the County W. C. T. C. Institute at the Park Avenue Baptist church, addressed the public school children of Cranford, this morning. Mr. Jeffreys will make short addresses on Sunday before the Sunday-schools of the Temple, Park Avenue and First Baptist churches.

TAX RATE WILL BE $2.09 AT LEAST

Councilman's Finance Committee Finally Passes on Budget.

County and School Tax to Be Fixed Later—List of Departments Requiring More Money—Plans to Purchase Another Fire Engine.

After weeks, in fact, months of careful consideration, the Councilmanic finance committee met last night with Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed, City Treasurer W. F. Arnold and Mayor Percy H. Stewart, and finally passed upon the various amounts to be raised here for local purposes. This had to be done at the present time for the tax ordinance must be introduced at the May meeting Monday night.

The whole budget cannot be passed at this time for the reason that it is not known what the local schools or the county will require. That will not be determined before the middle of May, but in order to allow the Council to borrow money for expenses in advance of the collection of taxes the ordinance must be presented on Monday.

While it cannot definitely be determined now what the tax rate will be for the coming year, it is known that it will be at least $2.09 per hundred and probably more. This big increase is not due so much to local increases for the city departments, but to school and county requirements.

The actual increase for local purposes will be about $20,000, which is represented by an increase of $4,000 for police; $6,000 for streets, $5,000 for fire, which will probably include a new auto engine for the Netherwood section; $5,000, the first payment on the joint sewage proposition for land; $1,500 increase for the Public Library; $5,000 for new assessment maps, required by the State; while the interest on sewage bonds goes from $12,500 to $18,000, being an extra $5,500. There is also an increase of $1,000 for the poor department, included in which is $500 for the anti-tuberculosis work.

The Hennessey bill, which was passed, reduces the amount the State can appropriate for schools and increases the amount municipalities must raise, which will effect Plainfield. Dr. Henry M. Maxson, superintendent of schools, stated last week that he thought the schools would require $225,000 for the coming year. This is unofficial and cannot be determined until the board of school estimates passes on the budget. It is the general belief that there has not been any big increase in valuations here, although substantial progress is being made in equalizing assessments. The members of the new Board of Assessors are giving their salaries amounting to $1,600, to the city this year, agreeing to give their services in the interest of the city.

While the Council would like to grant the many requests from various sources for appropriations, it feels that it cannot possibly do so in view of other increases demanded. Therefore the appropriations for playground and recreation work will have to remain the same as last year. The finance committee has pared all appropriations down to the lowest possible figure.

HAD FACE BURNED IN AN EFFORT TO PUT OUT FIRE

In an effort to extinguish a fire caused by a hover in the second story of the barn in the rear of her home, 1129 West Front street, Mrs. Douglas C. Lorentz had her face burned and hair and eyebrows singed yesterday afternoon. After throwing water on the flames, Mrs. Lorentz notified neighbors who in turn telephoned the fire department of the fire.

When the firemen arrived in the territory in which the blaze occurred, only meagre information being given as to the location of the fire by the excited woman who notified the department, some trouble was experienced in finding the house. Mrs. Lorentz finally made her appearance and an investigation conducted by Chief Doane revealed the fact that the flames had been put out with little or no damage resulting.

—Included among the vegetables offered by Neuman Brothers at their Watching avenue market tomorrow will be asparagus, green peas, lima beans, cauliflower, French artichokes and endive, cucumbers, rhubarb, Boston head lettuce, green and wax beans, celery, egg plant, beet greens, spinach, summer squash and radishes. HURRY CALL SENT O'SHAUGHNESSY

Mexican Charge in Mexico Ordered to Washington at Once.

Battleship Louisiana Sent Away From Vera Cruz in a Hurry With Destination Unknown—Agala Fear for Americans in Mexico.

(By Telegram to The Daily Press.)
Washington, May 1.—Nelson O'Shaughnessy, charge d'affairs of the American embassy at Mexico City, has been summoned here to confer with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. He is now at Vera Cruz, where he has been since his hurried departure from the Mexican capital on the snapping of the strained relations between the two governments.

Although Secretary Bryan today denied that the sudden determination to call Mr. O'Shaughnessy into consultation held any significance, it was generally believed that the administration is about convinced that the peace negotiations are not getting along as rapidly or with as good prospects for success as had been expected. It is known that Mr. O'Shaughnessy was ordered to remain at Vera Cruz, prepared to return at once to Mexico City as soon as the peace negotiations had progressed to a point where they would be aided by a personal representative of this government. The sudden change in plan is explained by the administration on the ground that more intimate knowledge of the detailed situation is sought. This Mr. O'Shaughnessy, by reason of his long service in Mexico City, his intimate knowledge of Mexican affairs and the close relations he had with General Huerta, is recognized as being in an especially favorable position to give.

No date for Mr. O'Shaughnessy's departure from Vera Cruz was set, but he will leave there on the first vessel sailing for the United States, and will hurry direct to Washington. Whether or not he will return has not been determined.

The peace negotiations are proceeding in much the same manner that they have since the diplomatic representatives of Brazil, Argentina and Chile undertook their task. Aside from admitting that they are making "satisfactory progress," they decline to discuss either their plans or hopes. Secretary Bryan, the only official of this government who is kept acquainted constantly with the progress of the negotiations, also maintains a sphinx-like silence.

It is known, however, that the mediators are disappointed in the refusal of Carranza to cease hostilities pending the overtures for a lasting peace in Mexico. The resumption of the campaign against Huerta by the fiery Villa has served to complicate their work, although they have gained their main point in inducing this government and Huerta not to commit any overt acts until negotiations resulted either in success or failure.

The chief question of interest to observers of the mediators work is the time limit President Wilson will place or already has placed on the negotiations. It is generally believed that the administration will not listen to any program that promises to be long drawn out. When the hour arrives at which the President believes some evidences should be shown of a nearing settlement, he is expected to demand the fixing of a time limit beyond which the mediators must not go.

CONGRESS PREPARED.

Washington, May 1.—When Congress met today it was prepared to take immediate action to make available at once the army appropriation bill carrying $101,000,000 for the use of the fighting branch of the government.

Washington, May 1.—Protests from owners of mines and smelters in Northern Mexico against the army embargo on arms and munitions began to pour in on the State Department today. Many of the institutions are idle because of the order.

(From A. J. Rourke, Central News Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, May 1.—Just before midnight last night, the Battleship Louisiana hurriedly steamed away. It is believed that her destination is Tampico, where conditions are most grave. A number of the Louisiana's crew had been acting as a beach patrol and they were suddenly recalled. A launch from the Louisiana steamed full speed toward the shore and picked up the men, leaving the beach deserted. There was much signalling between the flagship, the shore stations and the other warships. Despatch boats were kept busy going from Gen. Funston to Rear Admiral Badger's ship.

Plains & Fanwood.

It is barely possible that there will be a new postmaster at the Fanwood postoffice, as it has now become a fourth class office and therefore comes under the Civil Service examination. Miss Carrie Bettman, the present postmistress, is ineligible to take the examination, but it does not look as if the position was sought by any one as the returns are very little. If no one passes the examination Miss Bettman will probably be the postmistress, as a postoffice will have to be maintained here anyway. Miss Bettman has held the position for many years and it would be with regret that residents of the borough would see her lose her office. The Civil Service examination for the position of postmistress at the Scotch Plains postoffice will be held on June 20. The examinations will be held in Plainfield. Miss Dunn, who has been the postmistress for a number of years, will probably secure the place again as no one has expressed the intention of going after the job.

The utility cake and candy sale that was conducted by the Women's Guild of the Episcopal church at the home of Mrs. Richard Tull on North avenue, yesterday afternoon, was a great success. The sale was between the hours of 2 and 6 and was attended by most of the women of the borough. Besides the cake and candy table there was the "tilly table," at which aprons, towels, etc., were sold. A good sum was realized and will be for the benefit of the church.

Everything is in readiness for the sketch entitled "The Village School at Blueberry Corners" to be presented by the young people of the Methodist church in Excelsior Hall, this evening. It pictures a typical country school of fifty years ago, and some of the careers by the "pupils" is sure to bring to mind the school days of the grownups. At the end of the affair light refreshments will be served.

A minstrel show for the benefit of the local Boy Scouts will be held in the Parish House this evening at 8 o'clock. All of the latest songs will be sung and a lot of jokes have been secured for the occasion.

Owing to the fact that several local events are scheduled for this evening the regular meeting of the Fanwood Field Club that was to have been held has been postponed. Notice will be sent to the members when the meeting will be held.

Loftus Hollingsworth, of Johnston's Drive, is entertaining his son, Albert Hollingsworth, of Buffalo, N. Y.

The annual dance of the Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company was held in the firehouse last evening. Forty couples enjoyed the dancing until a late hour, music being furnished by a Plainfield orchestra. Refreshments were served at the termination of the affair.

Master Kenneth Storr has returned to his home at Station Park after an extended stay with his grandparents in Bound Brook.

Rev. John Wade led an interesting meeting of the Epworth League in the Methodist church last evening. "Mrs. Florence Maybrick's Fifteen Years in an English Prison on False Charges" was Mr. Wade's subject, who vividly pictured the unjust imprisonment of Mrs. Maybrick for crimes she never committed. At the same time Mr. Wade contrasted the difference between the English prisons and those of our own country. The attendance at the meeting was unusually large, owing no doubt to the topic up for discussion.

The interior of the Walsh cottage, at Park avenue and Second street, which was damaged by fire a short time ago, has been repaired and the dwelling is again occupied by Samuel Nutman, the tailor.

The safe and sane Fourth of July is becoming more and more popular in this place as the years go by and it is seldom that the sound of fire crackers is heard. A movement has been started to have a celebration similar to the one of several years ago and have foot races, bicycle races, greased pig chase and other events with prizes as a reward to winners. The annual baseball game between the married and single men will be a sure event anyway, and it will not be long before the old-timers will be practising for the game.

For the first time since the local Board of Education has been sending graduates of the grammar school to Plainfield High School, there will be no boys in the graduating class of the school this year. There are only two in the class, those being the Misses Ethelyn Walker and Emily Garder.

S. E. Oslin, of Brooklyn, who is the general contractor for the fifteen room house that is being erected on Midway avenue for James Minzeback, of Richmond Hill, is pushing the work forward as fast as possible and will have the dwelling finished by the last of July. Will Sands, of this place, has the sub-contract for the electrical work.

Bound Brook.

A very delightful affair was given at the Annex Hotel on Wednesday night, when the retiring postmaster, William B. R. Mason, gave a farewell dinner to the employees of the Bound Brook postoffice. Those who enjoyed the affair were Postmaster Joseph V. D. Field, Assistant Postmaster George V. Connell, William W. Smalley, David Hastings, Runyon Field, Howard L. Moore, Postoffice Inspector C. A. Larabee, of Plainfield; John W. Reed, Randolph Mason, E. Wood, R. P. O. clerk Clarence Duryee, Harry R. Giles, Harry S. Johnson and James P. Hoffman, clerks in the Bound Brook postoffice; Carriers Danford F. Todd, Joseph A. Skillman, Roy Rinehart and William Bollinger; Rural Carriers James V. N. Polhemus and Charles P. Sebring; Sub Carriers Elwood W. Stryker, Harry J. Eick, Benjamin H. Giles and John H. Sebring, Jr.; Special Delivery Messenger Peter Gregory. Landlord Jacob Maurer served an excellent menu, after which Mr. Mason told of the many changes and advancements in the postoffice of Bound Brook that have taken place during his twenty-one years of service as postmaster, and introduced the new postmaster, Mr. Field, who spoke on the subject, "Why I Am a Democrat." Mr. Field said he had been following the Democratic party for thirty-eight years, but this was the first plum that had dropped his way. Mr. Hastings gave a short talk on "How it Felt to be a Bull Moose," and William W. Smalley gave an interesting talk on the subject, "When Women Vote." Mr. Larabee gave a talk on his work and congratulated Mr. Field on his appointment, after which "America" was sung. Mr. Mason was given a pleasant surprise, when Carrier Joseph A. Skillman presented him with a handsome Morris chair, as a token of appreciation from the employees of the Bound Brook postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Campbell, of Greenbrook, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter born on Wednesday morning.

St. Paul's gymnasium class will hold its closing dance in the parish house on Monday evening, May 4, at 8:30 o'clock. The former members wishing to attend will please notify Mrs. J. Grandville Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Clark have returned to their home, "Clarkhurst," on the river road, after spending a few weeks at Atlantic City.

The postmastership of the local postoffice was transferred to Joseph Vandorn Field yesterday.

Albert Jackson has returned to Waterloo, Iowa, after visiting his mother in East Bound Brook.

Harry H. Murphy, of Flushing, L. I., was a recent guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Murphy.

Mrs. Frank Whitney has opened a grocery store at Greenbrook in the building recently vacated by Frank Ryan.

Edward Wood and family are removing from West High street to the LaTourette house on Maple street, South Bound Brook, today.

William Beardsley, of Somerville, has taken possession of his new house at Beechwood Heights.

John Archibald, of Yonkers, N. Y., is spending a few days with Percy Hendricks on the river road.

Somerville

The following children attended the West High street kindergarten every school day during April: William Ianson, Francis Morgenroth, Stewart Packer, William R. Sutphen, Jr., Lester Voorhees, John Ely, Stewart Kenney, Jr., David C. Jeffcott, William F. Wissel, Alfred B. Cline, Bernard Rosania, John Van Fleet, Jr., Edwin V. Talsted, Frances K. Huff, Theresa Hoch, Claire O'Donnell, Louise C. Neumann, Lena Mauro, Marian L. Kugler, Marian Hockenbury.

Miss Anna E. Miller left today for a week-end visit at Atlantic City. The trustees of the Somerville Athletic Association met last night for organization. President Charles C. Kenyon presided. The committee will be announced at the next meeting of the association, May 12.

The repair gang is again at work making improvements to the trolley line through this place.

Mrs. Ella Krause, of this place, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Charlotte Justine Krause, and Emmet J. Shaughnessy, of Worcester, Mass., the ceremony taking place yesterday. After a brief honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Shaughnessy will reside in one of the new houses in Richards park, on East Main street. Mr. Shaughnessy has a lucrative position in the woolen mill at Raritan.

Judge Daniel H. Beekman has been trying criminal cases this week in Newark, assisting Judges Osborne and Martin.

Former State Senator L. A. Thompson and family returned home yesterday from the south. They will go to Lake Hopatcong shortly to spend the summer months.

Miss Phillips, of Plainfield, is spending a few days with Dr. E. R. Graft.

Mrs. Lloyd W. Hoaglund is visiting friends in Philadelphia. The Rev. William B. Robeson of the A. M. E. Zion church of this place, is attending the annual conference of the church now in session in Jersey City. Rev. Mr. Robeson has done very effective work during his pastorate here and is greatly beloved by his congregation. They have sent a request to the conference that he be sent back to this charge. The Redfern Athletic Association held a pleasing dance last night in Germania Hall, which was very well attended.

The Armory of company M was crowded last night, the attraction being the "society circus," given for the benefit of the company. Following the program of stunts, dancing was indulged in.

Watching.

The members of the Watching choir were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Spier, on Hillcrest road, last evening. After the regular practice all enjoyed a Chinese concert, given by a seven-piece orchestra. Among those present were the Misses Agnes Manty, Theresa Schmidt, Gladys Sullivan, Sadie Boderheime, Flora Bodenheimer, the Messrs. Edward Bodin, Clarence Schmidt, LeRoy Herrmann, Thomas C. Feath, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Spier.

Mrs. M. Bodin and daughter Miss Beatrice, who have been the guests of Mrs. Bodin's son, Francis E. Bodin, of Mountain Boulevard for several months have returned to their home in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Hippolyte Texier and Mrs. William Gordon, have been visiting in Union.

Mrs. A. Cass, of Hillcrest road, is entertaining her sister and nephew, Mrs. and Mr. Jess, of Chicago.

Joseph Poggio, the proprietor of the well-known Rose Hill Farms, on Sterling Road, has installed a large acetylene plant. Mr. Poggio is making extensive improvements before opening his boarding house.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard G. G. Moldenke returned yesterday to their home, Castle Elmore, on Valley road, after a six weeks' trip abroad. Dr. Moldenke lectured at conventions in London and Rome.

Frank Probst and daughter Miss Augusta, of the Washington House, have returned home from a short stay in New York.

Rev. De Young, of Rutgers College, will preach in Wilson Memorial Union church, Sunday morning and evening.

MISS CARLETTA MANN BRIDE OF HENRY LEWIS

Miss Carletta Mann, daughter of Charles G. Mann, of West Fourth street, was married to Henry W. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis, of Arlington avenue, last night, by the Rev. F. D. Tildon, of Bethel chapel. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Urby, 610 East Third street, intimate friends of the couple, and was a quiet affair, only the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom being in attendance.

The bride was given in marriage by William R. Douglas and the couple were unattended. Both are well known in this city where they have been lifelong residents and were educated in the local public schools. They are members of Bethel Chapel Sunday-school class and are prominent in the work of that institution. The bridegroom is employed in William L. Smalley's butcher shop on Park avenue and among the numerous gifts received by the couple was a substantial check coming from Mr. Smalley. The couple will reside for the present at 318 Arlington avenue.

REV. EDWARD RALSTON HAS ACCEPTED THE CALL

Rev. Edward Ralston, of Piermont, N. Y., has accepted the call of the Netherwood Reformed church, the call being made about a month ago. Mr. Ralston will succeed Rev. Royal A. Stout, who left the local charge to accept a call to the Green Hill Presbyterian church of Philadelphia.

Since the pulpit of the Netherwood church has been vacant, Rev. C. W. F. Atlee has acted as supply, and he will preach his last sermon on Sunday. Mr. Ralston will be present at the mid-week prayer service on next Wednesday evening, and will occupy his new pulpit on Sunday, May 10.

HOSPITAL BOARD AND CITY OFFICIALS CONFER

President Mellick Says Solution of Contagious Disease Problem is Being Sought.

President George F. Mellick, of Muhlenberg Hospital Board when seen by a Daily Press reporter this morning, discussed the question of additional room at the hospital for the care of contagious diseases. There has been more or less talk about the subject by people about town as a result of two letters which have been written to the Daily Press by W. H. Rogers and A. C. Pleydell, in which they asked for an explanation as to why more than one contagious disease could not be handled at the same time, and the Board of Governors of the hospital have taken the matter up in earnest to try and solve this difficulty.

Mr. Mellick said that the question of limited capacity in the contagious ward has given the Governors serious concern, and they are now at work on a plan which it is hoped will help the matter materially. The Board of Health, Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed, Mayor Percy H. Stewart and the hospital authorities have all been in consultation, and it is probable that ways and means will be provided by which the matter can be handled economically to both the hospital and the city.

It has been proposed that the city erect a contagious disease building, which the Board of Health can demand under the law, at some point near Muhlenberg Hospital. Mr. Mellick said this morning that if this were done the Muhlenberg authorities would be willing to assume the administration of it, provided Corporation Counsel Reed can find anything in the law which permits such action. He said that it would entail a great additional burden upon the hospital management, but that the Governors would be glad of the opportunity and willing to do the work, in spite of the extra trouble.

It is probable that the whole matter will be solved in such a way, and within a short time, that there will be no trouble experienced in case two contagious diseases requiring hospital treatment should break out in the city at the same time. In addition to the proposed city isolation hospital the Board of Governors are now in consultation with builders to devise some plan by which more than one kind of contagious diseases can be accommodated at the present buildings, without seriously interfering with the work of other branches of the hospital.

SHORT ADDRESSES MARK SESSIONS OF INSTITUTE

The annual spring institute of the Union County W. C. T. U. was brought to a close last night, when the major portion of the program was devoted to the work of the young peoples' departments of the county. Several short addresses covering the various lines of work among the young people were delivered by Mrs. Lucie Rising, Miss Anna Sherwin, Heber M. Cullerly, Miss Caroline Borton, Miss Harriet O. Mattison, James Dunwell, Robert B. Butler and Miss Clara L. Karner.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor of the Grace M. E. church, the borough. During the course of the evening, instrumental music was rendered by Miss Lyle Edelle Smith, Miss Edith Hamilton and Mrs. C. T. Dunwell.

PROCTOR'S PICTURES. Feature "movies" scheduled to appear at Proctor's today include "The Vanity Case," "The Star Boarder," "Cupid's Incognito," "Going Some," and other new feature films. "The Fatal Wedding" is on the bill for tomorrow.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON OF SESAME CLUB AT HOME OF MRS. FOSTER

The annual luncheon of the Sesame Club was held yesterday noon at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Foster, of West Seventh street, all of the twenty-five members being present. The guests were received by Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Frederick M. Genung, president of the organization. During the luncheon they were grouped around small tables, attractive place cards indicating the seating. Miss Moyer read an Irish play after luncheon, which was much enjoyed by those present. The annual election of officers will be held at next week's meeting.

The Young Friends' Association will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hutchenson, this evening, at 8 o'clock.

Plainfield, N. J., May 1, 1914.

TO PRESENT BOTH SIDES.

As has been announced several times the Daily Press tomorrow night will be in the hands of the local Equal Suffrage League. A large number of special articles have been prepared, under the able leadership of Mrs. E. J. Feickert, president of the State League, who will act as editor-in-chief. The usual Saturday editorial will be contributed by Mrs. Feickert, and excellent special articles, many of which do not deal with suffrage, but with women's activities in Plainfield, will be prepared by leading women of the community. All of the news matter with the exception of the sporting page will be prepared by the women, and if the customary newspaper style is not followed in the handling of the articles, it will be understood that it is because the editorial staff for the day is not accustomed to news writing.

The edition tomorrow will have a much wider circulation than usual, five thousand copies being printed. All regular subscribers will be served, and a group of attractive young newsgirls will sell the superfluous copies on the street, and at the suffrage meetings to be held in city park in the late afternoon. A number of advertisements have also been solicited for this edition, the work being done by women.

There has been much care in preparation for the edition, and some of the contributors to tomorrow's paper are persons of prominence whose statements are always of interest.

The Daily Press, however, does not intend to let the suffragists have everything to say, and the other side is preparing, with as much interest, to publish a special supplement on Saturday, May 23. At that time the local Association Opposed to Suffrage will furnish the editorial staff, and under Miss R. A. Lawrence, who has been a frequent contributor to the columns of the Press on the subject, the anti-suffrage promise that they will have an edition equally as interesting as that of the pro-suffrage. The Daily Press has always striven to give all sides of any question all of the space which they may wish in its columns, and the members of both the pro- and anti-organizations are going to have their full say before the month of May is past.

A LESSON FROM AUSTRALIA.

The government of South Australia is seeking to make country life there as attractive as possible in an effort to equalize urban and rural population. Suffering from conditions similar to those in the United States, the state there has seen an over-supply of workmen in the cities and a decided shortage in the rural districts. The Australian government has not tarried in seeking a correction of the situation and Washington may learn something from it as to prompt and effective action in economical and industrial affairs.

Speaking recently at the opening of a new railroad built by his government to develop and better farm life, the South Australian premier promised a campaign of railroads and waterworks (irrigation) to aid the farmer. Railroads and waterworks, he said, go hand in hand toward development of the country. Farmers are the backbone of the state; therefore parliament must make the life of those living in the country more bearable. The government proposed to make the taxation on the farming community as low as possible in order that farmers can get such conditions that they will be able to carry on their industry untrammelled by outward disturbances. In connection with this policy, South Australia is forging ahead rapidly, as an agricultural nation. Public utilities are being used extensively to this end. Meanwhile, New South Wales has appointed a government engineer to act as an advisory officer to visit irrigation areas and private irrigation farms and to assist the owners in arriving at the best method of utilizing the land and the water. This officer's services are given free of cost by the government to those who care to consult him and should result in bringing irrigation efforts in the country to a high plane of success.

The Australian and sister governments are going further than any other governments in the world to encourage and actually and practically aid their farmers. Our own government can learn something from them along the line of effective action in improving rural conditions and increasing rural production.

Superintendent Henry M. Maxson of the public schools, in a statement published in our news columns today has some very pertinent things to say about the relation of the Plainfield public schools to the city tax rate. He shows that if we expect to continue to have such a splendid school system as is now to be found in Plainfield, and the number of pupils increases as rapidly as at present with the teachers receiving deserved small increases in salary each year, the people may expect the school proportion of the tax rate to go up slowly. We do not believe that anyone wants to see the Plainfield school efficiency deteriorate in the slightest degree, and know that all will read what Dr. Maxson has to say with much interest.

THE FORUM.

Editor Plainfield Daily Press:

All Suffrage speakers, and I may add in fairness, most anti-Suffragists, avoid personalities, from motives of good taste as well as good sense. I am obliged to depart from this policy in regard to Mr. John Matthews, because of his uncalculated attack upon me at a public meeting in Plainfield at which I was not present. Regretting the necessity for doing so I will answer as briefly as possible the statements made in his letter in last night's Plainfield papers.

I repeat that he was not a fair debater because he used his first period of the debate in Cranford for a rebuttal speech, and presented his arguments for anti-Suffrage in his second speech, when I would have only five minutes in which to answer him.

Woman Suffrage has passed the experimental stage. Wyoming has had it for forty-five years, Colorado for over twenty and Idaho for nearly twenty and six other States for periods ranging from a year and a half to over fifteen years. The best proof that it has worked well is that men are in the majority in all the equal Suffrage States and could easily have disfranchised the women if they had not been pleased with the results of their voting.

I am glad to learn that Mr. Matthews voted for the age of consent bill in 1913. It has been reported by quite unprejudiced persons that he has defended the defeat of that bill by the New Jersey Legislature, and he certainly tried to excuse its defeat at Cranford. He also referred to what I had said about Delaware's low age of protection law (Mr. Matthews says it is seven years), when I was showing that in the South where there is a great deal of chivalry and very little Woman Suffrage agitation, the laws for women and children are noticeably poor, and he claimed that in making the age of protection so low the State of Delaware undoubtedly expected the "natural protectors" of the girls to take care of them—implying that Suffragists did not wish to trust the fathers of young girls, but preferred to have them protected by law. New Jersey does not furnish copies of its Legislative proceedings to interested persons, as does the United States Government, and Mr. Matthews knows how difficult it would be for me to "turn to pages 205-206 of the minutes of the Assembly." If they are easier of access to him he might have discovered that Assemblyman Kirkpatrick did not vote for the Suffrage resolution either in 1913 or this year.

One statement of Mr. Matthews' at Cranford, to which I did not refer in my previous letter because of my dislike for personalities was his claim that he was only elected to the Assembly by a majority of 1,500 votes. (This was said to show that he did not stand with the political bosses of the county.) In reply I quoted from the Legislative Manual the statement that Mr. Matthews had 2,518 votes more than his highest opponent. He thereupon said he was not responsible for the wording of his biography in the Manual, although he gave the facts to Mr. T. F. Fitzgerald, the publisher, and added, "Mr. Fitzgerald gets his figures for the Manual from the newspapers and they are not strictly accurate, as a matter of fact my majority may have been as much as 1,600."

As the Suffragists use the Legislative Manual as a handbook, I was surprised and annoyed to learn that it was compiled in such a slipshod manner, and I wrote Mr. Fitzgerald, quoting Mr. Matthews, and asking if the figures given in the Manual were merely approximate and not absolutely accurate. His reply under date of April 25 speaks for itself:

"With reference to Mr. Matthews' statement about the Legislative Manual, he is entirely mistaken when he says I obtained my information from the newspapers about his vote when he was elected Assemblyman. I always receive my data from official authority as to statistics, etc., and concerning biographies directly from the legislators themselves. Mr. Matthews furnished the information about himself, and as it appears in his biography. The election results I get from the office of the Secretary of State so that they are official. His plurality of 2,581 is absolutely correct, as it may be seen on the files of the Secretary of State. By writing to that office it will be verified."

The State Suffrage executive office will be opened at 309 Park avenue, Plainfield, the first of next week, and this letter may be seen there by anyone interested.

I did not say that the Suffragists intended to work to defeat Mr. Matthews if he runs for the New Jersey Senate, but that we would feel safe in leaving him to public opinion.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON TO SPEAK IN THIS CITY

The Dunbar Social and Educational Club, one of the organizations which are being conducted under the auspices of the Public Recreation committee, are arranging for Booker T. Washington's appearance in this city on May 12. Mr. Washington will address a gathering of local colored people on that date at Washington School at three o'clock in the afternoon.

A committee composed of Miss Alice Maynard, Mrs. Alexander Stills, and Mrs. Walter Linn are arranging for the decorating of the school auditorium. A committee of seven, headed by Nathan Poilard, will wait on Mr. Washington when he arrives in the city. The Dunbar Club will hold its regular meeting tonight. Mr. Washington will speak in the evening at the Crescent avenue church. Mayor Percy H. Stewart will preside.

Sergeant Block Gets Telegram
From Secretary of War
Garrison.

Members of the Y. M. H. A., of this city, were stirred to action this morning when Sergeant Maurice B. Block, of Orchard Place, received a telegram purporting to come from the secretary of war reading as follows:

"Recruit the Hebrew men of your city. Have them prepared for immediate service in Mexico."

The letter came as a reply to one sent to the United States war authorities several days ago by Block following a meeting of the Y. M. H. A. A resolution was passed at that time to offer any assistance that might be needed by the United States in Mexico and Block was authorized to so inform the secretary of war. The offer was evidently graciously received and the reply, while not altogether unexpected, came as a big surprise to Sergeant Block and his would-be soldiers this morning, for they had little or no idea that the resolution of such a small organization as the local one would attract so much notice from the member of the President's cabinet.

Block is rounding up his friends in the city today and it is understood that all those who attended the meeting at the time the resolution was passed will be requested to take the course in war maneuvers which the sergeant is at present drawing up. Morris Abrams, of West Front street has donated his large auditorium for the purpose of holding drills and it is understood that a local tailor has been granted the contract for the making of uniforms.

When interviewed this morning, Block said that he anticipated little trouble in rounding up several hundred of the members of the association and will put the raw material through some stiff drilling prior to the arrival of the order to "Shoulder arms and proceed to the front." Although Block would not permit himself to be quoted in the matter it is understood that he is having some trouble in inducing a number of those who were at one time enthusiastic over the proposition to sign articles to be right on deck when the crucial hour rolls around.

Block says that he will march his troops to South Plainfield where they will be in camp along the Lehigh Valley railroad tracks to await a special train for the conveyance of troops to the Mexican border. Block says he will take every precaution to see that his men are among the first to go to the front when the call comes.

MRS. LOUISE BRANDON

PASSES AWAY IN ELIZABETH

Mrs. Louise Brandon, wife of the late Matthew H. Brandon, died this morning at her home 331 Maple street, Elizabeth, after a lingering illness of one year. She was born in Pittsburg, Pa., coming to Plainfield several years ago. Mrs. Brandon moved to Elizabeth four years ago and was a resident of that place up to the time of her death. She is survived by two sons, Harry K. Gordon and Bertram H. Brandon, both of Elizabeth. The funeral will be held at the late home and will be private. Interment will take place in Hillside Cemetery, this city.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

TOPIC AT FORUM

Geo. M. La Monte, Julius F. Van Riper and Alexander Millar Speak.

Arguments in favor of Woman Suffrage were presented last night at the People's Forum under the auspices of the Recreation Committee in the Washington School. The speakers of the evening represented three neighboring towns, George M. La Monte, of Bound Brook; Julius F. Van Riper, of Westfield, and the chairman, Alexander Millar, of Plainfield.

In opening Mr. Millar briefly outlined the effect of woman's vote on the liquor traffic, and referred to the April election in Illinois when the women closed 947 saloons. It was pointed out that women generally voted for local option rather than for prohibition, but that their vote must undoubtedly be counted on the side of temperance.

In replying to a recent article by Mr. Matthews, claiming that there had been no results of Woman Suffrage in Colorado, Mr. Millar cited the following laws for which the women are directly responsible: Juvenile court, an industrial school for girls, preventing child labor during terms of school, increasing age of consent of girls, establishing pure food bureau and many others.

Mr. LaMonte referred to his school days in Plainfield, and paid a glowing tribute to Miss Bulkley, who in those days presided over the High School. He contrasted the old system of government under which the strong became stronger and the weak weaker with the new ideal of bringing out the greatest usefulness of each individual whether weak or strong. He stated that there are at the present time 6,000 children in industry in the State of New Jersey, a number greater than the whole population of North Plainfield.

"We have not yet realized all our dreams of good government," he said, "and we never can realize them without the woman's vote."

"SIBERIA" SUNK; LOSS UNKNOWN

Big Pacific Ship On Japanese
Rocks—Had Distinguished Passengers.

Washington, May 1.—The Pacific Mail steamer, Siberia, is believed to have foundered early today off Tansui, Formosa, according to a dispatch to the State Department from United States Consul Williamson, at that place. The vessel's distress calls were heard for some time and just as help was being sent, suddenly ceased.

Word of the disaster was received from Consul Williamson in a brief dispatch as follows:

"Formosa government informs me that the Siberia signalled immediately for aid from lat. 22.40; long. 121.10 early this morning. Vessels sent from Karenko Island will take six hours to reach the scene, near Kabaso Island, six miles off Daeio. Fear Siberia foundered."

Tokio, May 1.—The Japanese warship Kanto Maru, U. S. Battleship Minnesota, and British monitor Minotaur are the vessels that heard the "S. O. S." distress signals of the Siberia, and relayed them on to land stations by wireless, are speeding to the rescue of the Pacific Mail steamer, reported sinking off the coast of Formosa.

An unconfirmed despatch from Tai-Tai-Fu, capital of Formosa, says Capt. Zeeder had beached the Siberia on a small island, six miles south of the mainland. The despatch said nothing of the safety of the passengers.

George W. Guthrie, American Ambassador, when he learned of the peril of the Siberia, asked that a Japanese warship be sent to her aid and the Kanto Maru then was dispatched.

It is reported the Siberia is carrying eighty salon passengers.

The Japanese Navy Department made public the following dispatch: "The Governor-General of Formosa cables that a Japanese cruiser is on her way to the Okinawa Islands off the island of Kishiu, reports that the Pacific Mail steamer Siberia met disaster this morning in longitude 121.00 east, latitude 22.40 north. She sent repeated signals of distress which finally became indistinct and then stopped. No details of the disaster are known. The Kanto Maru has been ordered to the scene."

A dispatch from Nagasaki says the Siberia is sinking. No details of the steamer's plight are given. A dispatch received here tonight from the capital of Formosa conveyed the alarming intimation that Chinese pirates may have had something to do with the reported disaster to the liner. Mrs. John B. Rentiers, wife of the newly appointed British consul at Manila is aboard the Siberia.

Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison, wife of the Governor-General of the Philippines, is a passenger on the vessel.

WANT MORE TROOPS IN COLORADO STRIKE

Governor Ammons Today
Asked Secretary of War to Send Reinforcements.

Denver, May 1.—Governor Ammons announced today that he had telegraphed to Secretary of War Garrison, suggesting that more Federal troops be sent to Colorado for service in the northern strike district. He was advised that Major Holbrook who is in command of the troops in the southern strike district had telegraphed to the War Department for more men and horses for the cavalry, and for permission to move the troops now at the Chandler mine in Fremont county to the Trinidad district. Major Holbrook is convinced according to the government that he is not in a position, with his present force to control the Ludlow district and also protect Trinidad and Walsenburg, and at the same time send any more men to the northern districts.

The miners on strike in the southern district are going to decide by vote whether or not they will surrender their arms to the United States government. The leaders have declined to give Major Holbrook any assurance that the arms will be turned over. A mass meeting is being arranged for this afternoon to take the vote.

JOHNNY JONES CARNIVAL FOR KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS IN JUNE

After a conference with the advance agent of the Johnny J. Jones carnival which appeared here last year under their auspices, the Knights of Columbus carnival committee last night decided to re-engage the Jones aggregation, the biggest on the road in this country today, to appear here during the week, beginning June 8. The carnival is not only the largest, but the best appearing that ever comes into this part of the country, and the Knights of Columbus can assure their friends a varied program of entertainment during the week mentioned.

Roosevelt's Nephew to Consult Him In Spain and Attend Kermit's Wedding

THEODORE DOUGLAS ROBINSON, nephew of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and former assemblyman from Herkimer county, N. Y., now chairman of the Progressive state committee, is on his way to meet his uncle in Spain during the latter part of April. Colonel Roosevelt will arrive in Spain from South America with his son, Kermit, at this time. Mr. Robinson has a double mission—to confer with his uncle on political matters and to attend the wedding of Kermit Roosevelt and Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, which will take place in Madrid.

Miss Willard is the elder daughter of the American ambassador to Spain, Joseph Edward Willard, and she is very popular in the social circles of Madrid, being endowed both with beauty and personal charm. Ambassador Willard, who was appointed by President Wilson, comes of an old Virginia family and was formerly lieutenant governor of that state. He was captain of the Third Virginia regiment, United States volunteers, in the Spanish-American war and was aide-camp on the staff of General Fitzhugh Lee in Cuba.

Miss Willard made her social debut in Richmond two years ago and became a reigning belle. She spent considerable time at Hot Springs, Va., and here she met Miss Ethel Roosevelt, now Mrs. Richard Derby. The young women became fast friends, and later Miss Willard visited the Roosevelts at Oyster Bay and so met Kermit Roosevelt. She was a guest at the Derby-Roosevelt wedding in New York last winter. Soon after this event Kermit Roosevelt sailed for Brazil, where he has been engaged in engineering. At that time the romance between the Virginia girl and the son of the former president was little suspected. The engagement was revealed in personal letters received by friends in Richmond, to whom Ambassador Willard wrote from Spain.

Kermit, second son of Theodore Roosevelt, is twenty-four years of age. He was graduated from Harvard, his father's alma mater, in June, 1912, and has proved himself to be a chip of the old block. As a hunter of big game and a true sportsman, he has made records on which his father commented with considerable pride. In the big African hunt of 1909 Kermit displayed great daring, courage and skill. The young man has a remarkably cool nerve, which he evidenced by photographing a live lion at close range when he was armed only with his camera.

He is an expert horseman, and on Aug. 27, 1908, he saved Mrs. Frank Hilton and her two young sons from serious injury by capturing a spirited team of runaway horses in a spectacular feat of horsemanship. This incident occurred at Oyster Bay. He also displayed his gentlemanly qualities on a train at Burlington, Ia., in 1905, by surrendering his comfortable lower berth to an aged couple and climbing into an uncomfortable upper compartment. Out in Sioux Falls, S. D., he passed up an opportunity for rare good hunting rather than kill buffalo that were fast becoming extinct.

It is understood that after the wedding the young couple will take up their residence at Sao Paulo, Brazil, where the bridegroom to be will resume his vocation as an engineer.

The political mission upon which Mr. Robinson is bent is to discuss with his famous uncle when he meets him regarding the stand to be taken by the New York state Progressives on the liquor question. It is said that Mr. Robinson will advise Colonel Roosevelt to advocate the optional local prohibition bill now pending in the New York legislature. The bill has the support of the Anti-saloon league.

DESCRIBES SCENES IN VICINITY OF MEXICO

Mrs. Harry S. Potter Writes
An Interesting Letter to Her Parents.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. William A. Woodruff, of East Second street, from their daughter, Mrs. Harry S. Potter, of El Paso, describing the excitement of last Thursday, when rumors to the effect that General Villa had returned to Juarez, just across the river from the Texas town. In speaking of the excitement of the day, Mrs. Potter refers to the wild rumors which so easily excite the population of El Paso.

Indications last Thursday, when the letter was written, pointed to another engagement at the Mexican city. The American artillery, which worked its way through the streets of El Paso on the run, finally rested on the hill residential section of the city, somewhat to the rear of the Potter home. This move placed the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Potter in the direct line of fire between the American artillery on one side, and the Mexican troops on the other.

An interesting description of the encampment in front of the City Hall and the working of the wireless apparatus from the roof of the Court House was also given. The expected trouble from the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, however, did not materialize, and the residents of El Paso were once more able to rest easily. Mr. and Mrs. Potter are both safe unless activities along the border are resumed. Mr. Potter is connected with a public utility concern operating a trolley line from El Paso to Juarez.

WAR NEWS

A trainload of refugees from Mexico City arrived at Puerto Mexico this morning. They were transferred to the transport Hancock, in Monterey Harbor.

Engineer Eugene Hilton and traveling engineer Mitchell of the Mexican National railways are missing. It is believed that they have been arrested at Soledad by General Maas. Mitchell is said to be an Englishman.

Washington, May 1.—More than 1,500 Americans are virtually held prisoners in Mexico City, according to a despatch from Consul Canala, at Vera Cruz, to the State Department today. The last train from the capital reached the coast Wednesday, and the refugees are marooned. Admiral Craddock, the British naval commander has been asked to use his good offices in providing for their safe conduct to the coast.

The report from Consul Canada came as a distinct surprise to the State Department, who had believed that only a comparatively small number of Americans remained in the Mexican capital, and that those were residents of long standing, who refused to take advantage of the opportunity to get out of the country. It is believed that the American colony has been recruited largely by refugees from the surrounding country, who were seeking to get to Vera Cruz through the capital. The action of the authorities in asking the cooperation of the British naval forces in aiding the stranded Americans has the approval of the department. In the present inflamed condition of Mexico, more harm than good would be done were an American relief party sent to convey the refugees to Vera Cruz or some other coast town. This the British are able to do without arousing animosity.

REBELS ARE ACTIVE.

El Paso May 1.—"On to Tampico" is the slogan of the rebel army. A conference held Thursday night in Jimenez, Chihuahua, between General Villa and his generals resulted in the formation of military plans for wresting central Mexico from Huerta's troops. Apparently the Constitutionalists are not going to let any armistice between the United States and Huerta stand in the way of immediate resumption of the campaign against Saltillo, Tampico, San Luis Potosi and Zapatecas. Last night Roberto Pesquerias, diplomatic agent of the rebels said, "We are not going to sign any armistice which involves a cessation of hostilities against Huerta, but will continue using our best efforts to overthrow him, and set up a Democratic government." General Carranza has not yet made any official statement on the armistice proposition, but Pesquerias is generally believed to express his views. General Villa returned to Chihuahua this morning.

ORIGINAL SKETCHES ARE WELL RECEIVED

Boy Scouts Made a Big Hit in Their Entertainment in the Presbyterian Church.

Presenting sketches and a complete program full of original ideas in the rooms of the church last night, the boys of the First Presbyterian church, principally those interested in scoutcraft, entertained a large and thoroughly appreciative audience. The affair was given under the direction of Miss Hammond's Sunday school class and as a result the amateur performers netted a sum estimated to reach $18.

The first part of the program consisted of a piano solo, rendered by Miss Edith Shotwell; recitation, Miss Ruth Hammond; vocal solo, Miss Adele Texier; recitation, Miss Georgia Ricker; vocal solo, Miss Marie Jorlie Searing. An original miniature sketch entitled, "Caught Unawares," and introduced as a pathetic scene, a minstrel was full of pathos of the side splitting variety and the entertainers drew rounds of rapturous applause from their audience. The characters were "Slate," the Jack of Diamonds, John Causbrook, leader of Wolf Patrol; "Jefferson Jackson," Woodrow Wilson Washington Brown, Charles E. Rice, leader of Eagle Patrol; "Archibald Maranduke," Sylvester Siewide de He, Stockton Barr, Wolf Patrol; "Comedy Ike," George Patterson, Wolf Patrol; "Sleepy Sam," John Patterson, Wolf Patrol; "Constitutional Sam," "Him Behind the Scenes," "Harold Zeek, Leader of Beaver Patrol; "Blundering Captain Raiser," "Deputy Commissioner A. V. Searing, Jr.

The actors then introduced an original song which was one of the brilliant features of the program. It was entitled "Dig Down Deep" and depicted incidents connected with the collection for the boy's work.

The second part of the program included a vocal solo by Miss Dorothy Huntman; piano selection, Miss Helen George; recitation, Miss Hazel Selby; vocal solo, Miss Ruth Sadler; recitation, Miss Marion Wean, "The Revival of Tim," a humorous sketch was then given by the scouts. The characters in this production were "Tim," Herbert Penny, of Raven Patrol; "Chief of the Ambulance Corps," Thomas P. Fitch, leader of the Raven Patrol; the ambulance corps included Donald Wean, Charles Eaton, Clayton Ballentine, Edmund Valdorf, and Harry Hannigan, all of Raven Patrol.

FRANKLIN COUNCIL INITIATES THIRTY-ONE CANDIDATES

A class of thirty-one local candidates and two candidates from William G. Holton Council, of Dunellen, were initiated by the degree team of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., at the regular session of the lodge last evening. Over three hundred members of the order from Orange, Newark, Elizabeth, Somerville, this city and other nearby towns were in attendance. Short fraternal addresses were made by State Vice-Councilor Von Minden, of New Market, and Past State Officers Wakefield, of Newark, and LaRue, of Bound Brook. This initiation brings the membership of Franklin Council up to four hundred and eighty-nine. There are already sufficient applications on hand to have another class initiation at some time next month, the date to be announced later.

ENFORCING AUTO LAWS.

Trenton, May 1.—Declaring that the State must have the co-operation of all the local authorities, if the automobile laws are to be properly enforced, State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Lippincott today sent a letter to each of the twenty-one County Prosecutors, requesting them to use their efforts to bring about this co-operation in their respective counties. Commissioner Lippincott shows that while the State Motor Vehicle Department is responsible for the work of regulating automobile traffic, the County Police and Municipal Police are equally charged with the work of regulating not only motor vehicle traffic, but all other road traffic.

COUNTY BOARD ORGANIZES.

Elizabeth, May 1.—The Union County Board of Equalization of Taxes met here today and elected John J. Collins as president and John R. Connelly as secretary. Both of the officers are from Elizabeth. The only important item of business was to raise the salary of the secretary from $1,200 to $1,500 a year.

JOHN A. CANNON.

John A. Cannon, at one time a resident of this city, died at his late residence of Burnett street, Newark, on Tuesday. He was a member of Halcyon Lodge, No. 82, I. O. O. F., and of U. B. of C. and J. of A., No. 308. The funeral services will be held at his late home tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be made at Evergreen cemetery.

NEW BRUNSWICK H. S. HERE.

The North Plainfield High School baseball team will meet the team from New Brunswick on Hyde Oval tomorrow afternoon, for the second time this year. The first meeting resulted in the first defeat of the season, for the locals and they are out tomorrow for revenge.

ROD AND REEL

A fisherman friend in Cape May county tells us that the weather is much warmer down there than it is in this section and that the codfish and ling left those waters several weeks ago. He also said that the bluefish were expected along the breakwater in another ten days, and the weakfish will shortly follow them.

The flounder fishing is very good and the eels are taking the bob in great shape. The latter are hungry after the winter sojourn in the mud and they greedily take the bunch of worms at a rush, while a little later they will refuse the bunch and look for the smaller bait on a hook. The flounders are biting well in the Shrewsbury river, and all other places where the bottom is clean.

The surf fishermen are expected to open their season along the shore from the Highlands to Corson's Inlet, Sunday. The first Sunday in May is their opening day, even if there are no fish about, but quite a few of them think that the striped bass might be lurking along the shore, as the water is getting warmer every minute, and while the bass are a cold weather fish, they look for the warm spots in the spring.

FOR BANTAMWEIGHT TITLE

London, May 1.—In a bout advertised as for the world's bantamweight championship, Charles Ledoux of France and Johnny Hughes, of London, are to meet for 20 rounds in Cardiff tomorrow. Ledoux has held the French title, but his bouts in England and on the occasion of his visit to America several years ago did not stamp him as a world's champion. Hughes is a veteran of the London ring and stands at the head of his class. The meeting at Cardiff will be the third time that Hughes and Ledoux have faced one another in the ring. In their first bout Hughes lost on a foul in the second round and in the second he lost a close decision on points.

INSTITUTES A SUIT TO RECOVER ON NOTES

Trenton, May 1.—George J. Tobin, of Plainfield, who was secretary of the Vacuum Engineering Company, of New York, has been made defendant in a suit in the Supreme Court, brought against him by Frankland Briggs, of Newark, administrator of the estate of the late United States Senator Frank O. Briggs, of Trenton. The plaintiff is the son of the late United States Senator. The suit is brought to recover $15,500 on a series of promissory notes.

The notes were drawn to the order of Mr. Tobin and Senator Briggs, and were executed by Mr. Tobin as secretary and D. H. Whitten, assistant treasurer of the Vacuum Engineering Company. In the declaration filed in the Supreme Court, it is stated that the company failed, and that the notes were not paid. Senator Briggs having to pay the whole amount. Senator Briggs died May 8, 1913, and his son was made his administrator. The notes represented loans of money made to the company by Senator Briggs.

ANNUAL MEETING OF KING'S DAUGHTERS ON MAY 7

The annual meeting of the City Union of the King's Daughters will be held in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, Thursday afternoon, May 7, at 3 o'clock, and it is urged that all members of the organization be present. There has been an impression that the meeting was to be held on May 6, which is incorrect, the date May 7, being considered the best for a number of reasons.

At the meeting two-minute reports will be presented by the secretaries of the various circles and officers for the coming year will be chosen. There will be other interesting features of the meeting, including a discussion of plans for the summer work.

TAPS FROM THE GAVEL.

M., at Junior Hall; and Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., at the Babcock building.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M. will confer the Fellow Craft Degree on three candidates on May 12, and the Entered Apprentice Degree on two candidates on the evening of May 26. At the meeting of the former date, the report of the committee on the question of raising funds for a local Masonic Temple will be discussed.

Lodges of the order of the Knights of Pythias of this district will run an excursion to Atlantic City on the first day of the golden jubilee of the order, May 14. The train will leave this city at 7:15 in the morning of that date.

Fire Chief T. O. Doane.

CHIEF FOR 26 YEARS

six years as permanent chief, for this appointment came to him following the establishment of a paid department in this city. He first enlisted as a fire fighter in the year 1865 and has been active ever since. In 1870 he was second assistant chief. Previous to 1888, the fire matters were under the control of a Board of Fire Commissioners, elected by the property owners, and both city and borough fire matters were under the same jurisdiction.

The first step toward taking over the fire department by the city was in 1887, as the result of a man refusing to pay his fire tax. In order to collect it the local authorities seized his horse and buggy, but he replied the rig and carried the case to the courts. There it was declared that the method of collecting fire tax was unconstitutional, because tax-payers are assessed for maintenance of a department which could cover only a part of the city and borough with its protection. When the department found itself without funds from a tax the next step was to turn the equipment over to the city. This included the fire houses, wagons and whole outfit.

At that time the department was made up of five companies—three steamers, Gazelle, No. 1, still in use; Plainfield Engine No. 2, which was sold a number of years ago; and Warren engine No. 3, still in use in the borough. There was also a hook and ladder operated at that time by the Zephyr Truck Company, and Alert hose wagon owned by that company. When the Plainfield and North Plainfield departments separated the borough bought a portion of the equipment and many of the old relics may still be found in the headquarters on Somerset street.

The first Board of Engineers under the present regime twenty-six years ago comprised T. O. Doane, as chief; Thomas Lyness, as first assistant; and Eugene Laing, as second assistant. In 1890 Lyness dropped out and Laing was made first assistant and James H. Martin, former postmaster, was made second assistant. Laing served in this capacity for two years and finally retired and Martin automatically succeeded him. John Murray, of West Fourth street, was at that time appointed as second assistant, and served the local department for sixteen years in an efficient manner. He was appointed first assistant to Chief Doane in 1902 when Martin retired, and acted in this position until 1906 when he resigned. During Mr. Murray's regime Andrew Jennings was second assistant and he automatically succeeded him. When Mr. Murray dropped out it was decided to abandon the office of second assistant because of conflicting conditions that presented themselves at that time as a result the present department has no second assistant nor has there been any need felt for one.

Under the old volunteer system Chief Doane was elected in 1876 with Jacob Kriny as first assistant, and B. Frank Corriell as second assistant. He was re-elected in 1877 and was succeeded in 1878 by Mr. Corriell for one year. At the elections in 1879, however, Doane was again chosen with Andrew L. Carney as first assistant, and James G. Van Winkle as second assistant. Chief Doane was then succeeded by W. H. Voorhees, F. W. Vail, A. L. Carney, A. D. Jennings, Augusta Saltzman, and J. Erwin Waters, when he was again elected chief in 1888 and has held the office ever since.

The Plainfield fire department dates back to the days when the Revolution was still fresh in the minds of some Plainfielders. On April 9, 1827 it was first organized, and named the Engine Company of Plainfield. The first hand engine used in the local department was bought on that date for $219 in New Brunswick. Simon Randolph, a former truckman who was well known hereabouts in his time was paid two dollars for hauling the new equipment over from that place.

The last of the old company's charter members was William C. Ayres, who died a number of years ago. Besides his name the names of the following appear on the old roster: Ira F. Randolph, Ely Ayers, Benjamin Stelle, Zachariah Webster, Peter M. Boice, James C. Ayers, Laing Webster, Samuel Stelle, James Leonard, Thurston Manning, John Edgar, Jacob R. Boice, W. W. Parker, Linday Vail, Edmund Webster, Joel Wilson, James M. Martin, Nathan Laing, John Stanford, Lewis Craig, Elisha Runyon, Eden S. Webster, J. R.

Dunn, Randolph Marsh, Jonathan M. Kinsey, Jackson Pound, John H. Coward, Samuel Vail, Isaac M. Maxwell, Ephraim E. Randolph, Jacob Manning, Simon T. Randolph, John W. Craig, Robert Anderson, James J. Ayers, Abijah Titus, W. S. Webster, Silas B. Deeds, Elias Kirkpatrick, W. Dunn, Cornelius Boice and Ural Cary.

The first chief under the city fire department was John Rosell who was appointed in 1867. He was succeeded successively by Theodore F. French, J. F. G. Frazer, Jeremiah Van Winkle, W. H. Voorhees and John Channler up to the time Doane was appointed in 1888.

The present fighting squad is made up of forty-nine individuals classed as follows: One chief, one assistant chief, four captains, eighteen firemen and twenty-five callmen. William Addis, one of the callmen, is acting captain of truck No. 1. The equipment consists of three motor driven vehicles, all of which are housed in the headquarters on East Second street. The equipment is distributed as follows: Headquarters, hook and ladder truck No. 1, automobile pumping engine, automobile combination wagon, chief's auto and supply wagon; No. 4 house in Netherwood steamer and combination wagon; No. 1 house on West Second street, hose wagon; No. 3 house on West Fourth street, combination wagon.

MAXSON ON SCHOOL TAXES

which was less than three points. If the valuation of the city is not increased as last year, of course the rate will be higher. If money is granted for a new school, the interest on the bonds for three fourths of a year will increase the tax about one point. But just study the different parts of the tax rate, when it comes out, and see for yourself how much of the increase is due to the schools.

According to figures given Mr. Clay by the Board of Education, the school budget for next year will probably be about $225,000.00, which is an increase of about $15,000 over the budget for this year. $7000 of that increase is for new teachers to meet the growth in the schools, $6000 is for the normal increase in teachers' salaries. The best school systems have a regular salary schedule, the beginner receives a minimum salary to which a definite increase is added each year, until the maximum is reached. This draws the best teachers to the city and holds them. Plainfield adopted such a system three or four years ago. When most of the teachers reach the maximum, this item of increased cost will decrease. $1,000 of the increase is for janitor service, coal, etc., for the enlarged High School. For the rest of the school maintenance, no increase is asked. We hope to economize enough to meet the increased needs in those lines caused by the increase in the number of pupils, but we can not economize in teachers. School expenses must increase just as all other expenses increase, with the higher cost of living.

In 1904 the schools cost was $118,092.00. Now government statistics show that in the past seven years, the cost of living has gone up 60 per cent, so that if the schools had not grown at all, they should now cost $188,947. But the schools have increased in numbers from 2961 pupils to 4017, an increase of 35 per cent. Allowing for this increase the schools should have cost, in 1912-13, $255,000. They cost only $190,000.

Possibly you will be surprised when I tell you that the local school tax rate is only 6.5 points higher than it was ten years ago. It is true that the state school tax has increased, but this is not due to anything done in Plainfield, and the increase does not bring Plainfield any more money. The State school tax money consists of two parts: money appropriated by the Legislature from the General Treasury, and money raised by the tax itself. The amount of these two must be equal to 1 1/2 mills for each dollar of ratables in the state. If the grant from the Treasury is large, then the money raised by the taxation is small, and the State school tax rate goes down. If, however, the money appropriated by the Legislature is small, then the money raised by taxation is large, and the rate of the State school tax goes up. Ten years ago, the grant from the General Treasury was over $1,000,000.00 and the State school tax rate was low. Since then the Legislature has found other uses for that $1,000,000.00 and the grant from the General Treasury has been reduced to a minimum. This has raised the State tax rate from 8.3 points in 1904 to 26 points last year, but the increase in rate has brought no more money into Plainfield.

I have in my office a tabulation of the city tax rate which I have kept since the year 1899, showing the number of points given to each item in the city budget. A study of this sheet shows that in 1899 the school tax, including both the local school and the State school rates, was 36.3 per cent. of the total city tax rate. Last year, these two items, with school bonds added were only 37.9 per cent. of the total city rate. That is, the proportion of the city tax rate which goes to school purposes has increased but little during these years, and until the new high school was undertaken, it was actually less than 11 years ago. Comparing the school tax with that of the other city departments, this table shows that in 1899 eleven points of the tax rate were devoted to fire; last year, that item took about 18 points, which means that in 14 years the part of the city tax devoted to fire protection has increased 63.3 per cent. The city and lights item took 32 points in 1899, last year, it took 34.4; i. e., the expense for that department has increased 42 per cent. in that time. The local school tax took 32.5 points in 1899; last year, it took 45.1 points, an increase of 40 per cent. about the same as "city and lights."

Now, I do not wish to be understood as criticizing any of this increase. I believe that it is all justified and necessary for a progressive city. All the city expenses must increase, not only on account of the growth, but also because the cost of living has increased. I simply wish to impress the fact that the schools are not responsible for all the increase in the city tax rate, and should not be made the scapegoat.

FARGE WELL RECEIVED

Jane. Here Benjamin Moore arrives and is to marry the younger Jane before 6 o'clock on the day of the action, in an effort to save a fortune which will be lost if the marriage does not take place. Winkler is in love with Kitty Benders, a notorious actress, but as Aunt Jane abhors the stage, he has concealed the fact from the rest of his family. He receives a letter from Kitty, saying she is coming to the hotel to see him, and the letter falls into the hands of Bobbie Baxter, whom Winkler is determined shall not marry the younger Jane. In an effort to force Winkler's consent to the match Bobbie dresses as Kitty, and the situations created may well be imagined, especially after the real Kitty arrives on the scene. Adding to the comedy are Ting, a bellboy who has been left in charge of the hotel during the proprietor's absence, and Sam, a colored porter of the type usually found in summer hotels who arrived, of course, Bobbie marries the younger Jane, and the others find mates before the action is completed.

The action of the play all occurs in the hotel office, the three acts being supposed to be timed as late morning, early afternoon and almost evening of the same day.

Upon Brown Rolston falls the hardest work in the part of Bobbie Baxter, and he is especially successful when disguised as Kitty. Mr. Rolston, while a member of the Princeton Triangle Club, frequently portrayed female parts, but he probably never excelled the work which he does in "The Arrival of Kitty." In make-up, manner, and even in voice he deceived even the members of the audience when he first appeared on the stage as the red-gowned actress and when he and Miss Elizabeth McGee, who played the part of the real Kitty in an accomplished manner, were both on the stage, it was confusing to tell which was which.

Alson M. Abbott, as William Winkler, a sporty old gentleman, who wished to conceal that fact from his sister, because he hoped some day to inherit her money, gave a finished interpretation, such as he can always be depended upon to do. Mrs. Abbott played Aunt Jane, and her ability to take character parts is so well known to local friends of the Comedy Club that any praise given would not do her work justice. Miss Eva G. Browne as Jane looked and acted the part of an attractive young woman, and read her lines in a manner which left nothing to be desired in carrying out the plot. The difficult character part portrayed by Frederick W. Goddard, as Benjamin Moore, an elderly and inebricated individual who fell in love with all of the women in the cast before finally agreeing to marry the homely aunt of uncertain age, scored a hit, which indicates how pleased local people are to see him again in a Comedy Club show.

Not a little of the comedy work fell upon Rosewell G. Rolston, as the bellboy, and manager for the time being. Mr. Rolston's ability has gained for him an enviable reputation in Plainfield, and he added much to the success of the play by his interpretation. Donald A. McGee, as the colored porter, both in make-up and dialect, filled the place so capably that his very presence on the stage created almost continuous laughter. Miss Monica Sharrette, in a small part proved very acceptable. It might be truthfully said that probably never before has a performance by the club presented a better balanced cast than is the case in "The Arrival of Kitty."

The performance will be repeated tonight, when it is expected that a large audience will greet the players. The officers of the Comedy Club are Brown Rolston, president; Harry L. McGee, vice-president; Dr. F. E. DuBois, secretary; Leslie R. Fort, treasurer; Alson M. Abbott, business manager; and Henry C. White, stage manager. The officers, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lyman, Mrs. Harry L. McGee and William T. Pelletier form the executive committee, and the club has an active membership of forty, and over one hundred associate members.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which clogs and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your aches; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Adv.

BUNSWICK ADOPTS FIRE LAW.

New Brunswick, May 1—By a vote of 8 to 3 the Common Council has adopted an ordinance for a paid fire department in which the age limit of members is from twenty-one to forty years. Volunteer and exempt firemen are to have the preference when the appointment of firemen is made. The size of the department is limited to not over forty-two men and the ordinance goes into effect July 1. The old ordinance made the age limit from twenty-one to thirty-five years, and did not give volunteers the preference. The firemen now in the service bitterly opposed this. The market commission reported in favor of buying the Amelia Ross property in Burnet street at a cost of $5,000 for a public market. It would be used two days of the week for farmers to sell their produce and for a playground other days. The commission asked $1,200 for maintenance, and said it would get this back in privilege fees. The report was referred to the finance committee.

NOTES FROM LABOR FIELD

Pittsburg barbers have been granted a wage increase and a shorter workday.

The Georgia State Federation of Labor gained thirty-eight new unions last year.

The United Mine Workers of America paid out $1,209,796.93 in strike benefits during 1913.

The workers employed in the textile mills of Rome, Ga., went on strike recently for recognition of the union.

The Texas State Federation of Labor will hold its seventeenth annual convention in El Paso, beginning June 5.

One thousand garment workers employed in the Pittsburg district have won a reduction of four hours in their work week.

Recent reports show that the labor unions of Germany increased their membership more than 150,000 during the past year.

The Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America paid out $141,888 in death benefits last year.

The claim is made that the labor bureau in Los Angeles has filled more positions in three months than any similar bureau in the country.

Union carpenters in Danville, Ill., recently went on strike for a 10-cent increase in wages, from forty to fifty cents an hour.

James M. Lynch, former president of the International Typographical Union, advocates the policy of naming arbitration boards before the time arises when they are needed.

Abolition of discrimination against women by obtaining an eight-hour workday for all women employees in Illinois is urged by Oscar F. Nelson, chief factory inspector of that State.

Boston Cigarmakers' Union has voted to keep in good standing any member who may enlist for the war in Mexico, and to see that the family of any member is not in want while he is away.

In an effort to better the conditions of the workers in the Government printing office in Washington, the largest printery in the world, local unions everywhere have been asked to urge their congressmen to support the demands made by the workers.

The Central Labor Union of Washington, D. C., has made a formal protest against the employment of non-union and foreign labor in the construction of the great Lincoln Memorial which is about to be erected in one of the parks in the national capital.

The trade unions in New York city have decided to fight prohibition on the ground that if it were universal it would render idle hundreds of thousands of people directly and indirectly employed through the liquor traffic. The Central Federated Union in New York has decided to circulate all the central labor unions throughout the country, asking them to join in opposition to prohibition laws in the State legislatures and in Congress.

FINANCIAL CAMPAIGN.

A parish meeting was held Wednesday at the Church of the Heavenly Rest when a campaign was organized to raise funds for the purpose of paying off the remaining indebtedness on the rectory. The following were appointed captains of teams: Juan Babcock, J. A. Maynard, Mrs. Juan Babcock, Miss Alice Foster, Mrs. James Sutton, Mrs. W. B. Granatt and Ralph Ludgate, the last for the boys of the parish. The campaign will continue until June 15.

FOURTH ANNIVERSARY.

The fourth anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. E. W. Roberts, as head of the Shiloh Baptist church, was held Tuesday evening when the members of the congregation tendered him a reception. The church auditorium was well decorated with flowers. A musical and literary program occupied the major portion of the evening. Greetings were presented by pastors of various churches in this city, Westfield, Cranford and Rahway.

APPROACHING WEDDING.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Lillian Cohen, of Brooklyn, and Jacob Abrams, of this city. The ceremony will take place in Brooklyn, June 14, and the couple will live at 646 West Front street, which property has just been purchased by Mr. Abrams.

Mrs. Gabriel Reid Maguire, wife of the pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, is in Newton Centre, Mass., attending the annual session of the Northern Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Baptist church. She will have a part in the program.

ROOSEVELT NOW ON JOURNEY HOME

Has Successful Expedition In South America.

SUFFERING FROM BOILS.

Has a Nine Hundred Mile Journey to Coast Before Taking Steamer to New York—Arrives at Manaus From the Jungle.

Manaos, May 1.—Colonel Roosevelt arrived here from his expedition through the hitherto unexplored portion of Brazil. He was greeted with an enthusiastic reception. The colonel and the members of his party came on board a steamer sent to meet them by the governor of the state of Amazonas.

Colonel Roosevelt was suffering from boils, but was not seriously affected, although they caused him much inconvenience and made it impossible for him to stand up. He was in excellent spirits. All the other members of the expedition were in excellent health.

Colonel Roosevelt, with Kermit Roosevelt and Colonel Rondon, chief of the Brazilian mission which accompanied the expedition, took up their quarters at the International hotel. The former president intends to leave immediately for the United States.

The journey made by Colonel Roosevelt and his companions was carried out under particularly favorable conditions. The party explored the river Castanha, which was renamed the river Roosevelt. The river Duvida, or "River of Doubt," was found to be unquestionably the river Gyparana. The party followed this river from the end of the telegraph line to its junction with the Madeira, a distance of about 630 miles.

The results of the expedition are considered here to be of splendid service to Brazil and to science.

Had Been Ill.

Madrid, May 1.—Colonel Joseph E. Willard, the United States ambassador to Spain, whose daughter is to marry Kermit Roosevelt, received a cablegram from Colonel Roosevelt, dated Manaos, Brazil. The dispatch stated that all had arrived safely, but that Colonel Roosevelt was suffering from a slight illness.

New York, May 1.—The first news was received by Mrs. Roosevelt in a cable dispatch from Manaos by way of Rio de Janeiro. Frank Harper, Colonel Roosevelt's private secretary, who for a time was with the colonel on his South American trip, but returned to this city about a month ago, made the first announcement that Colonel Roosevelt had been heard from at the Outlook office.

"Mrs. Roosevelt has received a cable from Colonel Roosevelt saying that he has arrived at Manaos with his party safe and in good health and that the expedition has been a great success," said Mr. Harper.

As far as Mr. Harper knew there was nothing in the message received by Mrs. Roosevelt regarding her husband's illness. But a message received by W. Emlen Roosevelt, his uncle, left no doubt on the subject. Mr. Roosevelt declined to make the text of the cable message public, but it was learned that it contained, among other things, this language:

"Have had hard trip. Have been pretty sick, but am better now. Kermit all right."

REPORT NEW BECKER FUND.

Systematic Levy on Cafe Owners is Charged.

New York, May 1.—Still another of the many reports preceding the second trial of Charles Becker was current, to the effect that a systematic and persistent effort was being made to "hold up" prominent Broadway cafe and hotel owners and managers of a number of gambling houses and certain members and ex-members of the police department for contributions to the fund to be used in Becker's defense. District Attorney Whitman would not deny that the details of such a "canvass" had come to his ears, but he declined to discuss it.

One prominent cafe owner, whose place of business is in Becker's old district, was asked for a $500 contribution. He is said to have met the request by saying with a touch of irony:

"I'm a good man to come to for a contribution when the Rosenthal murder put me out of business, ain't I, though?"

The "canvass" is said to receive its most vigorous backing in the district which Becker formerly controlled as police lieutenant.

CLEVELAND TO CHANGE TIME.

Cleveland, O., May 1—Cleveland's decision to change from central standard to eastern standard time was put into effect today, and it is expected that for a while at least it will be a case of "confusion worse confounded" for the people. The change is the result of a campaign that has been waged for a long time by the business interests of the city. Under the new arrangement the factories and shops will begin work an hour earlier in the morning and close an hour earlier in the afternoon, thus giving the employees the benefit of an additional hour of daylight after work. Much confusion is expected to follow the change, however, since the postoffice department, most of the railroads, the express companies and numerous other concerns have decided not to conform to the new time change because it would necessitate a complete rearrangement of their schedules.

SCENE OF EXPLOSION.

Mine in Eccles, W. Va., Where 120 Were Killed.

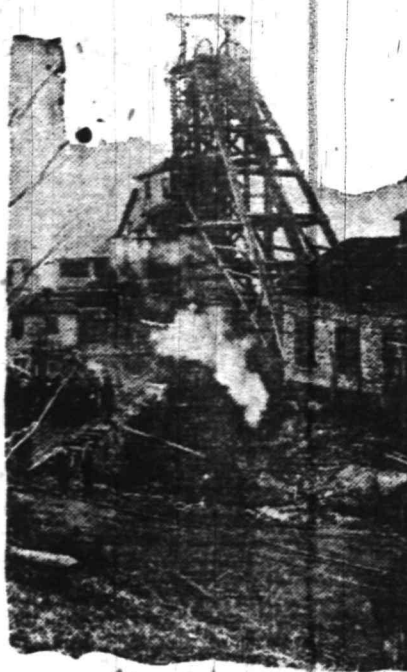

Photo by American Press Association.

Rescuers penetrated to the bottom of mine No. 5 of the New River Collieries company at Eccles, W. Va., and found five bodies. The victims were piled in a heap—dead from suffocation. Wading in water knee deep in places, the rescuers then began to explore all portions of the mine to find others of the 120 victims of Tuesday's explosion. The rescuers carried canny birds in cages as gas barometers and piled axes to cut their way into lumber and debris as they proceeded.

New York next autumn.

"The Rabbi and the Priest" is the title of a new play by Bertha Cassell, which is to be produced next season by Walter Has. Harry First will create the role of the rabbi, and Julian Le Estrange will be the priest.

Members of the cast selected to support William Farnum in the coming revival of "The Shepherd King" include Robert McWade, Edward Mackay, George L. Thorne, George Harris, Virginia Hadley and Evelyn Marlowe.

E. H. Southern gives as the reason for his decision to retire from the stage after two more seasons that the health of Julia Marlowe, his wife and co-star, will not allow her to continue in Shakespearean performances, and he cannot give these plays without her co-operation. It is expected that Miss Marlowe and Mr. Southern will reside in England after their retirement from the stage.

BOOST PLAINFIELD

The State Trust Company wants everyone in this city and surrounding country to join it in boosting Plainfield.

Say a good word for your city—be enthusiastic—make others know that your city is steadily growing in population. Make them know how beautiful an healthy it is, and what its many advantages are.

And last, but not least, when traveling, register from Plainfield instead of New York. It will help your city and do you no harm.

This is a good time to begin. Will YOU co-operate?
