NEED GREATER SEATING CAPACITY

Plainfield Schools Operated Under a Disadvantage at the Present Time.

PART-TIME CLASSES

State Law Requires Educational Facilities for Every Child Applying—Urgent Demand for Another Graded School to Meet Enrollment.

The announcement that the Board of Education will ask for the funds to build another graded school has given rise to a good deal of discussion in the city as to the present condition of school accommodation.

Comparatively few people realize that for the past year Plainfield has been operating its schools under a big disadvantage, owing to the fact that there has not been enough seats to accommodate the pupils.

The State law requires that the Board shall give educational facilities to every child applying, and the school population of Plainfield is increasing about half as fast again as the general population due to the fact that within the past twenty years Plainfield has constantly been receiving new inhabitants who come from New York city or other large commercial centers in order to get the advantage of suburban life. Many of these new comers are young married people who are largely influenced in settling in Plainfield by the fact that our school facilities are unusually good, consequently it has been a constant scramble on the part of the School Board to keep up with the demands of this increasing school population.

In 1901 the schools registered 2,697 pupils; last year, they registered 4,017. That makes an increase of 1,320 in the 12 years. During this time there has been added a net seating capacity of only 770. When we comply fully with the State law which requires us to put retarded children into special classes we shall have to reduce our present seating capacity for normal pupils by 50 more. In the last 12 years the pupils have increased about 600 more than we have increased the seating capacity, and the schools have many more classes than school rooms.

There are at the present time 11 classes in the city without class rooms, to say nothing of the 250 pupils in the High School that come only afternoons because the seats are all occupied in the morning. These extra classes are provided for by doubling up with other classes, dividing the use of a room between two classes. This means that 30 classes, or about 1,200 pupils, are accommodated because of lack of school accommodations. It inevitably involves some loss to the children, and very much unpleasantness and inconvenience to the mothers in the homes who have to prepare two midday meals instead of one on account of their children having different school hours. Next fall there will be 4 more classes to be added to the 14.

When the High School addition comes into use next Fall, it will at once relieve the High School pupils, and by using the Stillman School as a temporary relief and transferring pupils from various schools, we shall relieve part of this overcrowding, but there will still remain 8 classes for which there will be no class room. The Stillman building which will be emptied by the transfer of the grammar grades to the High School, will have all the rooms taken up by the children transferred from other schools. This building is not suitable for ordinary class room work. The floor area of the class rooms is but 24x20 feet. According to State requirements, we should not have more than 28 pupils in each of these rooms. The ceilings are 9 feet instead of 12 and the ventilation is imperfect. It is not practicable to alter the building so as to make it suitable for regular school rooms. The State Inspector would have condemned the building for regular class use if he had not understood that it was to be vacated for ordinary school use at an early date. For these reasons, the classes transferred to it should not be kept there more than a year, and a new building is imperatively needed for their accommodation at the earliest possible date. The Stillman School, while not suitable for regular class room work, can be made of great value for work with the special classes of defective pupils which cannot number more than 15 pupils each.

The transfer of the Grammar classes to the High School will fill the new building. If the High School goes on increasing as it has in the past, a year from next fall two or three of these grammar classes will have to be sent away from the High School, and unless a new school building is erected at once, there will be no place to send them. We shall have to begin again the process of doubling up classes in some of the

WILL "THOROUGHLY DISCUSS" QUESTION

Democratic Club Meets Tonight to Thresh Out Naming of Postmaster.

Although it was reported that the Plainfield Democratic Club, last week, decided to allow United States Senator James E. Martine to name the postmaster for Plainfield, without further suggestion on its part, a special meeting of the club is announced for tonight for the purpose of "thoroughly discussing" the matter. Just what is hoped to be accomplished by this action cannot be learned, but at any rate it is proposed to "discuss" the matter.

It is said that the club has given formal endorsement to four candidates for the office, and the selection of any one of the four would be agreeable to the club and its followers. Inasmuch as Senator Martine stated last week that the appointment would be made within a week or ten days, anxious ones have been expecting news of the election any day. It is believed that Mr. Martine has made up his mind who he will recommend for the job, but he has carefully avoided giving anyone the slightest intimation as to who is to get the plumb.

Additional interest was aroused in the postmastership fight today, when it became known that a petition is being circulated favoring the appointment of Mr. Reville as postmaster. This petition has been quite widely circulated and contains a large number of names, it is said.

Just what bearing such a petition could have is hard to understand at present, especially in view of the fact that following the investigation of the old charges against Mr. Reville, it was announced that the charges were sustained and according to authentic information, Mr. Reville was eliminated as a possible candidate.

In view of the attitude taken by the postal authorities in the case of Mr. Reville, it is the opinion among many people that he would not be considered eligible for the office of postmaster. The belief is still held here that Alvin E. Hoagland is likely to get the appointment, in fact many of the leading Democrats in the city concede the fact. It is known that several of the "57" candidates have already visited Washington and called on Senator Martine, but the latter, according to report, has not given the office-seekers any encouragement.

MISS HENRY WILL TELL OF WORK IN THE SOUTH

Miss Margaret E. Henry, who is to speak tomorrow evening at the monthly missionary meeting of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, is an interesting personage, and will tell of the work of Maryville College among the mountaineers of the South. Miss Henry knows whereof she speaks in describing conditions among these people, for she herself was one of them and has lived among them.

Miss Henry was at one time a missionary in Japan under the Presbyterian Board, but being obliged to give up that work on account of illness has since been representing Maryville College as field secretary. All who are privileged to hear Miss Henry will doubtless be profited and will want to hear her again.

WILL TREAT WITH PROPERTY OWNERS

New Commission Takes Up Madison Avenue Widening Project.

LISTEN TO ARGUMENTS

Affected Owners Present Their Side of Case at Preliminary Meeting in Council Rooms—Adjournment Taken to June 2.

J. Fred MacDonald, chairman; Albert H. Atterbury, secretary; and A. E. Smith, the recently appointed commissioners in the matter of assessing benefits and damages for the proposed widening of Madison avenue, held their first meeting in the Common Council rooms last night, for the purpose of treating with property owners. Not much was accomplished, the work being of a preliminary nature.

William Newcorn was present to represent the estate of Samuel Dreier; J. Henry Crane represented Wadley & Goodenough; Robert Newton Crane represented owners of two or three small properties, while Henry DeMott and William Mills were present to look after their own interests. Edward Ryder was the representative of the Gillies estate and the Public Service Corporation was also represented.

During the informal discussion little that was new was brought out. Mr. Newcorn informed the commissioners that he was having plans, estimates, etc., prepared to show to what extent the Dreier estate would be damaged and what little benefit would be derived from making the improvement. These plans will be presented at a future meeting of the commission.

The other property owners and representatives present reviewed chiefly the same arguments offered at previous meetings, the majority of them being opposed to having their property taken for the improvement unless a more liberal allowance was made in the way of benefits. Mr. Mills was one of those who favored the widening and is willing to abide by the decision of the commission, believing that it will be a great improvement to the property.

The Public Service Corporation is willing to give the necessary land for the widening in front of its property, provided it is not assessed for benefits. The arguments of J. Henry Crane, Robert Newton Crane and Henry DeMott were practically the same as made at a meeting of the Common Council several weeks ago. The commission did not express any opinions last night, it being its duty to simply listen to what the affected property owners had to say. The next step for the commissioners will be to go over the property for the purpose of assessing benefits and damages which will be contained in a subsequent report to be presented to the Common Council. An adjournment was taken last night to Tuesday night, June 2, when further progress will be made in the work undertaken.

PETIT JURY PANEL DRAWN BY COMMISSIONERS

Jury Commissioner Russ and Sheriff W. B. Wright, yesterday drew another petit jury panel of sixty members, the third of the term. The members of this panel will begin service next Monday and continue for two weeks. A fourth panel will be drawn June 8, and will serve for the remainder of the term.

Among those drawn from this end of the county are Charles F. Feller, Jr., Fanwood; Ambrose A. King, Westfield; Edmund D. Young, Percy S. Brown, William B. Ackor, Joseph Brown and Daniel J. Courain, of this city; Harry P. Robinson, Fanwood; George McVoy, Fanwood township; Horace B. Guerin, New Providence.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The meeting scheduled for last evening in the interests of a colored Y. M. C. A. at the Mt. Olive Baptist church, was postponed for the time being, although it was planned to have a meeting called for Wednesday evening, June 3.

LAND QUESTION MAIN POINT IN DISPUTE

Think Tentative Agreement Has Been Reached at Niagara Falls Conference.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 26.—Undoubtedly the land question is the main point at issue between the various parties to the Peace Conference and the one which will occupy most of the time of the mediators and delegates. Undoubtedly, also, some sort of an agreement, tentative, of course has been reached upon it. Commissioner Da Gama this morning, with a smile on his face, as though pleased that something definite had been accomplished announced that a statement on the land question would be issued later in the day. This concealing of the main point of many discussions is what has given pleasure to President Wilson, satisfaction to the mediators, and gratification to the American delegates. Also definite formulation of a concrete plan means that, after nearly a week of constant conferences and conversations, a real start in the formal negotiations can be made and actual discussion of at least one important matter can be taken up in full and formal debate.

AGAIN CHANGE ORDERS FOR MOVING OF FLEET

Washington, May 26.—Although officials insisted the move had no significance, an overnight order rescinding previous plans for the withdrawal of a division of the fleet now lying off Vera Cruz caused some speculation today. It was believed events that were less hopeful had prompted the administration to reconsider its proposal to call north several of the battleships now steaming in the tropic sun in Mexican waters. This, however, was vigorously denied. It is known, however, that the position of General Funston's force is not regarded as being especially a happy one. Until the Mexicans disclose an intention to cease mobilizing men and guns near the American lines the warships will probably remain with their full force of blue jackets and marines.

In case re-inforcements are needed for the troops now guarding Vera Cruz the several thousand men on board the ships would be necessary for immediate call until more troops could be rushed from Galveston on board the army transports now massed there. The sailors, in a sense, are veterans and, having landed before and being acquainted with the town and its approaches, would be invaluable.

While the health of the sailors is excellent, according to reports reaching the Navy Department, Secretary Daniels is desirous of giving as many of them as possible an opportunity to return to a cooler climate. This will be done at the earliest possible moment, but not at the present moment, it was declared.

TABLET IN MEMORY OF MRS. M. C. EDGERTON

Bronze Memorial Erected at Day Nursery in Honor of One Who Aided Work.

In memory of Mrs. Mary C. Edgerton, a handsome bronze tablet has been placed in the Day Nursery on West Front street, the work having been done by Grove Himmans of this city. The inscription reads:

"Erected by the Trustees
In Recognition of The Generosity of
MARY CLOSSE EDGERTON
Who, by her bequest, materially assisted the King's Daughters in the purchase of this Day Nursery."
This is the second tablet of the kind placed in the Day Nursery by the Himmans Bronze Works, the first having been set some time ago as a memorial to Mrs. T. J. Mumford, Mrs. A. M. Most was chairman of the committee which had charge of the work of erecting the tablet. Mrs. Edgerton in her will left a number of bequests to local charities besides this Day Nursery.

RUNAWAY BLOCKS RAILROAD TRAFFIC

Horse Runs Down Tracks From Grant to Clinton Ave. Before Being Stopped.

JUST MISSED EXPRESS

William Kerwin's Act Prevents Destruction of Bivona Brothers' $500 Show Rig—Spirited Steed Escapes Injury in Wild Flight.

One of the most exciting runaways that has occurred in the city these many moons, stirred up a portion of the West End this morning, and incidentally interfered with traffic on the New Jersey Central. The terrorized horse not only traversed a long stretch of area, but got on the railroad tracks, running along one of them for nearly a mile. It barely escaped being struck by an express and held up a freight train for ten minutes before getting transferred to its proper sphere. Despite the wild flight, neither horse nor vehicle suffered any noticeable injury.

The rig, which is valued at $500, belongs to Bivona Brothers, of North avenue, Westfield, and is used by them to peddle fish about town. It is a very showy affair, being all in white, wagon and horse included. It attracts attention everywhere and has been a big advertisement for the business. The brothers were busy delivering in the vicinity of Third and Liberty streets shortly before 10 o'clock this morning, leaving a colored boy to watch the outfit. Something frightened the horse; it bolted suddenly and so did the pickaninny, the latter's move being impelled by the sudden jerk. He landed in a confused heap in the roadway.

The frightened animal continued west on Third street through Muhlenberg place to South Second street, and thence to Grant avenue where it entered the driveway heading to the Grant Avenue station. It skirted the south and west ends of the depot proper and swung on the tracks just as the 9:55 Philadelphia express swept by toward Plainfield. Station Agent Hoffman was attracted by the clatter, but rushed out too late to head off the white streak.

The fence separating the east and west bound tracks compelled the horse to turn west. The roadbed is flush with the rails in front of the station and by the time the still terrorized animal got headed straight the who-is had gotten into the east-bound passenger track and were securely held. Over the ties the rig went bumping along past the full length of the Pond Tool Works to the storage yard near Clinton avenue. There William Kerwin, an employee, heard the racket and looked over the fence to investigate. As soon as he realized the danger the rig was in he leaped the fence. By running hard, he managed to climb in the back of the bouncing wagon and brought the now winded horse to a stop just as the engineer of an east-bound freight halted his train on the Clinton avenue bridge.

The section gang in charge of Henry Lewis chanced to be working nearby, otherwise it would have been a proposition to get the rig back to the street. One man led the horse while the others lifted the wagon bodily from between the rails and up an embankment. It was then taken across the old Clinton avenue baseball grounds to South Second street, where Patrolman Tobias Nolan took charge until the arrival of the owners. An hour later the rig was making rounds as though nothing had happened.

FUNERAL OF MISS MC HARDY.

The funeral services of Miss Wilhelmina McHardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McHardy, of Johnston avenue, were held yesterday afternoon from the home of the parents at 2 o'clock. Rev. Evans C. Conover, pastor of the Temple Baptist church, officiated. Interment was made at Hillside cemetery.

RAFFAEL CARUTENTIO GETS A HEAVY FINE

"Speak-easy" Proprietor to Pay $100, Beside Getting a Jail Sentence.

Adjudged guilty of violating the sixth section of the city ordinance by keeping a resort for the purpose of buying or drinking spirituous or fermented liquors, Raffael Carutentio, of 836 South Second street, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and serve thirty days in the county jail following a hearing in the city court before City Judge W. G. DeMeza last night.

John Kelley and John Boyle, two frequenters of the resort, who resisted arrest when the place was raided, were also found guilty. Kelley was sentenced to serve sixty days in the county jail and Boyle was given the option of paying a fine of $10 or going to Elizabeth for a period of forty days. John Lyons, Michael Gartland, Patrick Kiely, who were arrested when the place was "pulled" Sunday afternoon, by Sergeant Higgins, Chief Kiely and Patrolman Hendrshot, turned city's evidence and as a result were allowed to go with a suspension of sentence.

Carutentio's place was raided by the police shortly after noon Sunday. Several bottles of beer he is alleged to have had on sale being confiscated in the round-up. Testifying for the prosecution, John Lyons and Michael Gartland said that they had purchased intoxicants from the proprietor Sunday morning and had paid him for the goods received. John P. Owens, who represented the defendant, entered a plea of not guilty on behalf of his client and filed several exceptions to the court procedure. Following the sentencing of the defendant the latter's counsel announced that preparations would be made at once to carry the case to the higher courts.

Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., prosecuted the case on behalf of the city and the sixth section of the city ordinance claiming that a violation was apparent inasmuch as Carutentio had dispensed intoxicants. Although the city ordinance provides for a fine of $100 or a sentence of thirty days in the county jail for guilty offenders at the discretion of the city magistrate, a Supreme Court ruling given recently makes the combination of this sentence obligatory.

$40 IN FINES FOR ACTS OF ROWDYISM

Seven Men Attacked Small Boy in Netherwood Section Saturday.

Taking advantage of a sixteen-year-old boy and committing acts of rowdyism in the east-end section of the town last Saturday afternoon, cost Henry Clarkson and Charles Lundstrum $20 apiece when arraigned before City Judge W. G. DeMeza in the city court yesterday afternoon. Clarkson, Lundstrum and five other young men between twenty and twenty-five years of age, were playing ball in a lot near Leland avenue when Henry B. Groesbein, of Newark, a small boy, went by and someone yelled "Get him." A scuffle followed in which the boy had his coat torn off his back and was treated to a general drubbing.

The youths admitted that they had a case of beer in the lot while playing ball and were feeling "pretty good" as the boy went by on his way from the Netherwood station to his brother's home on George street street where his mother is an invalid. It has been his custom to visit his parent over the week-end and he was on the way to the house when the attack occurred.

Clarkson and Lundstrum were singled out by the complainant as the ringleaders of the attack and were adjudged guilty and fined by the court.

CURTIS FORCED TO RETURN SUIT TAKEN IN A "SWAP"

Appearing in the city court this morning to answer to a complaint charging him with forcing Ernest Whitney, a sixteen-year-old boy, to exchange a new suit for a sailor's uniform in a barn, Sunday afternoon, George Curtis of 823 George street, entered a plea of guilty and was let go following a severe reprimand dealt out by City Judge W. G. DeMeza. The youth was recently discharged from the navy and claimed that the Whitney boy, who is an invalid, agreed to "swap" suits with him.

After suspending sentence on Curtis, who is an old offender, Judge DeMeza instructed him to return the clothes confiscated, Sunday afternoon. The change was made in court.

EARLEY MATTER TO BE DROPPED

Present Incumbent Appointed for 1914-15 at a Salary of $1,400.

INCREASE IN BUDGET

Financial Provisions for Next Year Made at Boro Board of Education May Meeting Last Night—Lengthy Opinion From State Board.

Members of the North Plainfield Board of Education at the May meeting in the Somerset School, last night, decided to drop the Earley controversy and re-engage Albert Earley as principal of the North Plainfield High School for another year at a salary of $1,400. Mr. Earley's re-appointment means that he will head the borough institution for ten years as it will bring him under the tenure of office act. He will be immune from dismissal for that period of time unless charges of incompetency can be proven against him.

The budget for the coming year amounting to $27,500 was adopted at the meeting. This sum is between $500 and $600 more than last year. With the May meeting the term of Dr. A. H. Dundon as school physician terminated and his application for re-appointment was accepted. Dr. Roger Cooley was also a candidate for the position.

Supervising Principal Arthur Vossler presented a list of twenty-five high school seniors and requested that the Board authorize the graduation of these providing they pass the specified examinations. No official list of the 1914 graduates can be obtained at this time inasmuch as the pupils will have to pass the required tests in order to qualify for graduation. The class is made up of nine boys and sixteen girls.

J. Brognard Betts, assistant commissioner of education, submitted a lengthy report on the Early question. It was said that the Board's reasons assigned for his dismissal were not sufficient to sustain its action. The opinion stated that the desire to evade the tenure act provisions was not sufficient cause to warrant the dismissal of a teacher and that further charges would have to be brought before Mr. Earley could be removed.

"DUTCH" IDES PAL IS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Arrested Near Clinton Avenue This Morning by Railroad Detectives.

"Dicky" Dunn, reputed to be a highwayman and bail jumper, and Charles Wies, a companion, were arrested on the Central Railroad track near Clinton avenue, this morning, by Detectives Laverett and Hiney, who found them riding on freight cars. This is the second time that Detective Hiney has taken the well-known criminal into custody when Dunn recognized his captor he made no effort to get away. He is well known for his ability to elude the officers of the law and has many times escaped after being caught.

Arraigned in the city court this morning before Judge DeMeza the two prisoners were remanded back until tomorrow morning for trial on a charge of trespassing on the railroad. Meanwhile an investigation is being conducted by the detectives.

"Dicky" Dunn is at present wanted by the police of Bayonne for highway robbery and representatives from that place will come here this afternoon to make arrangements for his removal to Bayonne. He is a former member of the notorious "Dutch" Ides gang which operated in this vicinity until several years ago when the ringleader was shot and killed in Waverly when he was discovered acting suspiciously in a freight station by two policemen.

Cleanliness Isn't Next to Godliness;
It Is Godliness!

Civilization starts in the home. It then extends to the community and then the entire country.

No home is healthier and happier than it is clean; no community is healthier or more prosperous than it is clean.

"Clean-up Week" is a nudge to negligence to take a care lest civic inertia should set in and do for this city what it has done for every city in history that failed to recognize its first duty—the duty of cleanliness.

CALLS SESSION TO DECIDE HIS FATE

Paterson's City Clerk Thinks He'll Remain.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Accused of Knocking Down Registrar of Vital Statistics—Mayor Suspended Him and Board of Aldermen Sustained Suspension—Obtained From Supreme Court Writ of Certiorari.

Paterson, N. J., May 26.—Wallace R. King, president of the board of aldermen, directed City Clerk T. Simpson Standeven to call a special meeting of the board for tonight to decide whether or not Standeven ought to be thrown out of his job.

Mr. Standeven issued the notices, but as one of the aldermen has died and another is in a hospital not more than nine can attend, and counsel for Standeven insists that a two-thirds vote of the full board is necessary to remove his client, Standeven has three friends among the nine.

The city clerk is charged with assault and battery, having knocked down Charles S. Gall, registrar of vital statistics, on May 13. Mayor Fordyce suspended Standeven, and the board of aldermen sustained the suspension, but Standeven obtained from Supreme Court Justice Minturn a writ of certiorari taking the board's action to the supreme court for review and giving back his job to Standeven while the argument is pending.

Fearing that the supreme court would not uphold the summary suspension of Standeven, the aldermen decided to have a trial and to give him a chance to state his side of the case.

DOESN'T LIKE JAIL LIFE.

Tries to Avoid Warrant Which Awaited Him When He Left Cell.

Morristown, N. J., May 26.—Determined that he was not going to spend another season in the county jail, Patrick Darcy of Mount Hope, who just finished a one month sentence for disorderly conduct, started for the tall timber when he saw Constable Oscar Jennings hiding behind a tree on the courthouse lawn with a warrant for Darcy's arrest on a charge of larceny. "Stop him," yelled the constable as Darcy ran up Court street. James Beam, a Bonton lawyer, attempted to do so, but Darcy broke away from him and turned down Ann street. District Court Clerk Harry Zwenger, Jail Keeper Edward Carroll and Deputy Sheriff Thomas E. Love joined in the chase and after pressing a passing auto into service captured Darcy on Miller road. When taken to the police court Darcy's only complaint was that he did not like the accommodations of the county jail. He was committed to await the action of the grand jury.

WEDS IN DEATH HOUSE.

Longa, Who Goes to Chair Today, Married in Jersey State Prison.

Trenton, N. J., May 26.—With less than twenty-four hours to elapse before going to his death in the electric chair at the state prison here, Raffael Longa of Elizabeth was married in the death house to Maria Maranca, also of Elizabeth. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Polombi, assistant pastor of St. Joachim's church of this city.

Longa is to pay the death penalty for having killed Antonio Nygliare in Elizabeth in 1912. In 1899 Longa and Maria Maranca were married in Italy by a religious ceremony, but there was no civil wedding, and therefore the marriage was not valid. They have several children, and Longa wished to leave his property to the woman and their offspring.

HOMES AT SMALL COST.

Need of better housing for families in moderate circumstances was the cause of a discussion among a group of Plainfield business men yesterday afternoon. It was stated by a well-known merchant that until within the last few months not a house had been erected in this city, which would give decent living accommodations at a reasonable figure. He said that employees in his own store were compelled to pay higher rent than they could really afford in order to have their families live comfortably.

There is no disputing the fact that the problem of better housing facilities at the lowest possible cost consistent with necessary standards of sanitation and conveniences, in an accessible part of the city, is one which is absorbing more and more attention here. The solution would seem to lie in the construction of small houses at a cost reduced to the lowest figure by standardization of plans permitting low rentals or minimum selling prices. Architects and builders in many cities, as well as better housing advocates and big employers, have been giving the matter
close attention.

The result has been the formation and incorporation of several large building companies devoted entirely to the construction of low-priced model homes for organizations, housing companies, employers and others interested in housing improvement.

One of these companies is said to make a practice of constructing four standard types of workers' homes, the cheapest of which, consisting of three rooms—living room, bedroom and kitchen—with sink of running water and toilet costs approximately $750. The cheapest house with bath contains five rooms and costs $1,500, while prices range on up to $2,575 for a six room house with bath and all modern conveniences.

One of the house types is a bungal-ow with a large living room, two double bedrooms and kitchen. It is also provided with a large front porch and small rear one. Constructed of hollow tile, the inside surface furnishes walls which do not require plastering. A cooking range heats the entire house. Each bungalow has a centre chimney, toilet, soapstone washtub and sink.

Another type is a five-room two-story house with living room, dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms and bath. A cemented cellar and hot-air furnace are furnished. Still another type is a six-room house with three bedrooms. Good closets are provided in all the different types.
It is declared these houses can be built to rent with a profit, at from $6 to $19 per month. This would seem to contradict the assertions that better housing facilities mean higher rentals. There is a rich field here for some wide-awake realty promoter.

Swatting flies is as much a part of the cleanup and paintup campaign as any other feature. The prevention of more flies breeding by doing away with places where they can breed, is much more important than the actual work of killing the parent-flies. As the Municipal Journal in a recent issue said, the killing of flies is of little permanent benefit. So long as the people leave food available for them, and breeding places in the shape of manure, garbage, and piles of old decaying matter, nature will see to it that a sufficient supply of flies are on hand to clean up after careless humans. Those who have studied the subject say that one pair of flies which are permitted to live can in one season bring forth enough ancestors to give full sized swarms to cities like New York or Chicago. So during a cleanup week, be sure even if you do not get time to do anything else, that you remove all possible breeding places for the pests. Not until all stagnant ponds are drained,

and every bit of decaying garbage
and manure is removed, can there be any hope for a flyless town.

The American Flag Association has sent a circular to officials and others urging proper observance of flag day, which falls on June 14, a Sunday, suggesting that the exercises be held in the schools on June 15. It is particularly appropriate to observe this day this year, because of the present situation bordering on war with Mexico. The stars and stripes have come to possess new beauty for friendly eyes and new terror for the foes of liberty, and of law and order and of lawful government.

The Board of Trade trustees have done their share toward stimulating interest in the Plainfield Fourth of July celebration. A $25 cup has been ordered to be used as a trophy in one of the races which have been arranged for that day. Many of the wealthy citizens of the city could help this safe and sane observance of the day by donating similar cups, thus making the athletic meeting more interesting to Plainfielders.

Plainfield merchants will close their stores on Saturday of this week, Decoration Day. Several of them feel that this will be a hardship as this day is always the busiest in the week. The people of Plainfield can show that they appreciate the patriotism and the interest displayed in the welfare of the city, by patronizing
the stores on Friday and Friday night.

It was inadvertently stated in this column last night that the Civic Committee of the College Club had requested the Plainfield merchants to close their stores all day during the month of August. The Club members have only asked that the stores be closed at noon on Saturdays during August.

WELL KNOWN METHODIST
MINISTER PASSES AWAY

Rev. W. F. Randolph, a retired member of the Newark Methodist Episcopal Conference, and a brother of Rev. Dr. D. B. F. Randolph, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E.
church, died Sunday afternoon in a sanitarium at Amityville, L. I. He was the father of Rev. Herbert F.
Randolph, of Montclair, formerly pastor of Grace M. E. church, the borough.

Mr. Randolph leaves a widow and another son, who resides in Bernardsville, and a daughter, Mrs.
John Garey, of Elizabeth. The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock
Tuesday afternoon, in the Methodist Episcopal church at Port Jervis, N.
Y.

Mr. Randolph entered the ministry in 1863, joining the Wisconsin Conference. In 1867 he united with the New Jersey Conference and in 1882
he was transferred to the Newark Conference, where he served various churches until 1904, when he retired from active service.

SEEK TO RECOVER INSURANCE.
Elizabeth, May 26.—The case of The Brotherhood Realty Company
of Plainfield, vs. The Union and National Fire Insurance Company was begun this morning in the Circuit Court before Judge Spear. The plaintiffs seek to recover $5,000 insurance on a row of apartments on plosion after the meter had been robbed. The defendants claim that they are not responsible for damage

SUGGEST A "SAFE AND SANE" FOURTH

Proctor and Sanderson Offer
Playhouses for Appropriate Celebration.

The management of the two Proctor & Sanderson theatres in this city, has offered the use of the playhouses
on July 4, for any "Safe Fourth" exercises that may be arranged by a committee which Mayor Percy H.
Stewart may name. It is suggested that the Front street house may be used in entertaining children with an appropriate program of "movies," while the Second street auditorium
may be used for a program of short addresses by public officials and other prominent men on patriotic topics, together with the reading of the Declaration of Independence, and other features which may be properly introduced on such an occasion.

Whether this plan is followed or not, many of the prominent men of the city realize that something should be done toward a celebration of this kind, as long as local ordinances prohibit general street celebrations.
Several of the merchants and business men have expressed themselves
as being favorable to having Mayor Stewart appoint a committee of citizens to arrange for a program of events aside from athletic events which are already being cared for by the management of Parker Field.

FINE PRESENTATION
OF OUTDOOR PLAY

Dr. Garfield to Address Hart-ridge School Students
June 5.

The bi-ennial outdoor play of the Hartridge School was given Saturday afternoon in the large grove at Oakwood on Plainfield avenue, before seven hundred people. At 4.30 o'clock the overture of Mendelssohn's music started the procession of actors, attendants, fairies and hunters under the sun's glorious rays and shadows.

The costumes were designed by the art teacher, Miss Robinson. The dances were in charge of the physical culture director and the children were trained in their incidental songs by one of the vocal instructors. Mrs. Rockhaven, Mrs. Charles Lewis and an orchestra played the Mendelssohn score to which the dances were set.

The play was admirably given and perfect in every detail. The characters of Nick Bottom and Quince were especially well done and the difficult parts of the lovers, Demetrius, Helena, Hermia and Lysander showed excellent study and careful training.
The commencement exercises of the school will be held in the Hartridge Auditorium, Friday, June 5, at which Dr. Harry Garfield, president of Williams College, will be the speaker.
Miss Hartridge and the graduating class will give a dance the same evening.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY
GIVE MINSTREL SHOW

An entertainment, entitled "Way Down South," in which there was a rendition of old-time "darker" songs,
was given at the Park Avenue Baptist church on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Young People's Association. The entertainment took the form of a minstrel show, with Walter Weber and Fred V. Mills acting as end men.

Among those who took part were
the Misses Marjorie Robinson, Hazel Hyatt, Edna Mowen, Ora Bush, Elizabeth Mills, Martha Casner, Walter Weber, Fred V. Mills, Irving Pratt, Joel O'Mear, Howard Palmer, with George E. Hall as interlocutor. William N. Runyon was the pianist and Herman Kling the electrician. Refreshments were served.

NEED MORE SEATS

other school buildings, with all the inconvenience and unpleasantness which this means.

If a new twelve room school building is begun this summer and reaches completion in the fall of 1915, six classes from the Franklin School,
and three classes from the Bryant School can at once be transferred to it. This will leave four vacant rooms in the new building to which can be transferred four of the grammar school classes in the High School, thus permitting relief for that building which will then be crowded. But in the fall of 1916, a year after we get the new building, we shall still be just as crowded as ever, and in addition to the half time classes in the Lincoln School, there will undoubtedly be such classes in the Washington, the Irving, and the Jefferson; and although a new building is erected this summer, another will be needed within two years. There is no escape from the erection of a new building every year or two, unless the city ceases to grow.

In deciding where shall the new school be located, the Board has been influenced by the fact that since the Franklin School will have seven classes next fall, for which there are no rooms, and the Bryant School will have three classes, the new building must be so located as best to relieve the crowding in these two schools. It should therefore be about equally distant from both schools, in order that the children from neither school should have to walk a long distance. It ought also to be located so as to shorten the distance for children that come from the edge of the city. These conditions indicate that the building should be south of the railroad and if about equally distant from the Bryant and Franklin Schools it would be located almost exactly where the Board have bought a lot on Evergreen avenue.

PORTLAND, ORE., MAN LIKES NEW JERSEY

D. M. Taylor Here on a Visit
—Also Well Pleased With Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Taylor, of Portland, Oregon, arrived in this city a few days ago to spend a short time with Mrs. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan C. Pennington, of Liberty street. Mrs. Taylor was formerly Miss Laura Pennington, and though she has been in Plainfield only at intervals during the past ten years, she still retains a large circle of acquaintance with which she is renewing old ties.

She was graduated from the Plainfield schools and later was a graduate nurse from the Long Branch Hospital.

Mr. Taylor, who is a native of Indiana, in conversation with a Daily Press reporter yesterday, said he had never been in the extreme East before, but it has been a revelation to him. New Jersey, he averred, is the finest State he has seen since leaving the Pacific Coast. He also declared Plainfield to be as an attractive city of the size as any it has been his privilege to visit. He and his wife left Portland on April 9 and proceeded to southern California, thence to Mexico and by easy stages journeyed on to Plainfield via the southern route.

New York was included in a special trip and the Oregonian, seeing it for the first time said: "New York is a great city and the largest in America. It might some day be the largest in the world if it was not for Portland, which is the fastest growing municipality in the country."

Mr. Taylor has read and heard considerable about Plainfield's coming high tax rate for 1914 and expressed surprise that it was causing so much adverse criticism.

"The rate in Portland," he said, "is $4 per $100 with an assessment ration much the same as here. It is rather high, that is true, but we believe in having things in our town and the people are willing to pay for them."

Mr. Taylor is engaged in the real estate business in Portland, and in this capacity keeps a close watch on civic affairs. He is very optimistic as to the future of the place, asserting that its phenomenal growth is bound to continue. The opportunity is there for the right sort of people, he said, and Portland is getting them.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will spend part of this week at Asbury Park and Atlantic City. They will commence the return trip early next month, proceeding over the northern route, and making stop-overs at Niagara Falls, Yellowstone Park and other places of interest.

PERSONAL.

READY TO TAKE UP BIG ISSUE

Mediators Not to Choose Provisional President.

ACT AS THIRD PARTIES ONLY

Have Not Progressed Beyond the Preparatory Part of Their Work—Now Believed Huerta Will Be Eliminated Within Short Time.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN MEXICAN SITUATION.

The real issue of the Mexican problem will be taken up by the mediators at Niagara Falls possibly late today.

Only the preparatory part of the work has been touched at yet. The commission form of government plan has not been discussed.

The mediators will not try to select a provisional president or a commissioner.

Admiral Badger reported that a big force of rebels landed to the north of Vera Cruz. Another force is marching from Tampam to join it.

The rebel plan is to prevent Huerta from reaching Vera Cruz. Zapata is to block him from Puerto Mexico.

General Villa hurriedly left Torreon for Saltillo, to the surprise of all Constitutional officials. He was expected to lead his army to attack Zacatecas, but suddenly changed his mind.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 26.—The mediators have not reached beyond the preparatory part of their work. Nothing definite regarding the settlement of the Mexican problem has yet been done, and it is not before tonight that the three South American diplomats will begin to take up the practical issues involved. No plan for a commission form of government for Mexico has been even discussed at the meetings.

This formal statement, which is a complete denial of press dispatches printed throughout the country, was made by one of those who are best placed to know just exactly what is happening behind the closed doors of the conference room in the hotel here where the fate of a nation is being settled.

It was stated on the very highest authority that the envoys of the three South American republics who have undertaken the difficult task of attempting to solve the most intricate international problem known for the past century have no intention at any time of going beyond their task of mediators. They will not attempt to select any president or commissioner to govern Mexico. They will at no time seek to become legislators on behalf of Mexico.

Their role will be confined throughout the conference to receiving the suggestions of the delegates of either side and to submitting these suggestions to the representatives of the other side, endeavoring at the same time to add to the utmost extent of their ability both sides to reach common grounds.

The mediators continued their informal "conversations" with the delegates.

Requena and Ocon left Niagara Falls to return to Toronto, where they will confer with Felix Diaz and tell him of the reception given to them by the Mexican delegates. They will be back here tomorrow, when there is good reason to believe that they will formally apply to the mediators for a hearing on behalf of Felix Diaz.

Huerta Eliminated.

Washington, May 26.—General Huerta, it is believed, will be eliminated from the Mexican situation by Constitutional success in the field and will disappear as a factor in the proceedings at the Niagara Falls conference. Not only are the rebels pressing vigorously into what has been federal territory from the start of the revolt, but they have succeeded in practically cutting off every avenue of escape for him from Mexico City.

He is massing his troops between Mexico City and Vera Cruz, ostensibly against the rebels. That this is his sole purpose was declared to the state department through the Spanish ambassador, but the concentration of the troops there is causing Secretary Garrison much concern, and army officers declared privately that the movement appeared ominous to them.

General Aguilar and his command, which occupied Tampam after the fall of Tampico, is reported to be marching inland to Jalapa, on the Inter-oceanic railway, the capture of which would cut one of the two routes open to Huerta from Mexico City to Vera Cruz.

The west coast ports are closely invested by the rebels, and to reach Puerto Mexico on the gulf of Campeche, Huerta would have to follow a roundabout route infested by rebel bands. Zapata apparently is using Cuernavaca for a base and is operating close to the southwestern suburbs of the capital.

No British Exhibit at Frisco.

London, May 26.—Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that the government will adhere to its decision not to participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco.

GENERAL BLANQUET.

He Stopped Huerta's Order to Execute 100 Prisoners.

With General Blanquet, minister of war, openly defying General Huerta and the dictator meekly submitting, while business houses in the capital are barricaded, foreigners in Mexico City sent word that they believed Huerta might not last through the week. Blanquet saved over 100 prisoners who Huerta wanted executed. Blanquet is said by refugees to be the man of the hour in Mexico City, and should a crisis come it is believed that he will take charge and attempt to send Huerta out of the country. Fifteen French cannon have been placed in Chapultepec castle, where it is said Huerta will make his last stand if he is unable to escape.

BECKER DEATH HOUSE WAIT TO BE SHORTER

Convicted Policeman to Be Sentenced Friday.

New York, May 26.—Notice of appeal in the case of Charles Becker will be given to Justice Seabury and District Attorney Whitman next Friday after Becker is sentenced. The notice has been prepared and will be submitted at once so that the appeal proceedings may be expedited.

On account of the revision of the law relating to appeal procedure Becker will not have to wait sixteen months in the death house at Sing Sing, as he waited after the first conviction, to learn the decision of the highest court. It is likely that the case will be ready for argument before the court of appeal judges within four months. If they take about two months, as they did before, before returning a decision the affirmation or reversal will have been obtained within six months.

The district attorney's staff are confident that the lawyers for Becker will be unable to present warrantable grounds for appeal. As regards the charge of Justice Seabury, they say that the record shows that the trial justice was fair and punctilious and that he safeguarded at all times the rights of the defendant. As regards another point raised by Martin T. Manion, Becker's lawyer, that the testimony of Mrs. Lillian Rosenberg should not have been admitted unless the testimony of Father Cashin and Warden Clancy of Sing Sing was admitted, they say that Justice Seabury excluded the most dangerous part of "Lefty Louie's" widow's story—that her husband told her Becker was to blame for his trouble. That testimony, it is contended would have overborne any testimony that "Dago Frank" exonerated Becker. The prosecution is satisfied that Justice Seabury's fidelity to authorities and precedents cannot be disregarded by the court of appeals.

BANDITS BURN MINE CAMP.

They Destroy Property of Maduro Company, a Chicago Concern.

Guadalupe, Mexico, May 26.—The Finavete mining camp of the Maduro Mining company, in the Jora district of Tepic, has been burned by bandits. Nearly all of the buildings of the company were destroyed.

The camp has been practically deserted since the recent departure of A. H. Harrison, an English mining man, who was attacked by bandits at the camp and who later conducted a campaign against them in that section of the country. The supplies remaining at the camp were taken by the bandits.

The Maduro Mining company is a Chicago concern, headed by H. M. McIntosh.

WILSON CHECKS NEW HAVEN CASE

Believed McReynolds Plans Criminal Action.

ADMITS OUSTING MELLEN

Morgan Accepts the Full Responsibility and Defends His Father's Action in New Haven Affair—Conference Is Held at Washington.

Washington, May 26.—It was apparent today that the brakes have been set on the interstate commerce commission inquiry into the financing of the New Haven road.

A conference was held at the White House between President Wilson and Attorney General McReynolds, and immediately after it the interstate commerce commission held a special meeting.

Reports were in circulation that the investigation, as a result of pressure from the White House, will be curtailed by the commission to the extent of omitting several of the New Haven directors from the list of witnesses who have been summoned to testify.

There is likelihood that the commission may go further than this and decide that it already has obtained sufficient information to satisfy the resolution passed by the senate authorizing the inquiry.

It is learned that a meeting of the commission has been called to consider this question and that the chances are in favor of the commission sending a communication to the senate before any steps are taken toward calling other important witnesses.

Only one interpretation is possible of this sudden turn of events, and this is that Attorney General McReynolds has in mind the possibility of beginning criminal proceedings against some of the New Haven directors.

He was strongly opposed to the calling of Charles S. Mellen to the witness stand because it would give him immunity from the indictment now standing against him and from other threatened proceedings.

Morgan Admits Ousting Mellen.

New York, May 26.—J. P. Morgan, who returned to this city from a yachting trip on which he started before Charles S. Mellen began his testimony before the interstate commerce commission, said that he accepted full responsibility for having asked Mr. Mellen to resign as president of the New Haven railroad, that Mr. Mellen's statements that the late J. P. Morgan kept him in ignorance of matters, he should have known and practically ran the New Haven himself were untrue, that the records of his firm and the personal records of his father were available and that all evidence bearing on the New Haven's affairs—not on one, but on all issues of the question—should be made public.

"I returned to New York yesterday," said Mr. Morgan at the Morgan library in Thirty-sixth street, "and have examined as carefully as the time would permit the stenographic report of Mr. Mellen's testimony, consisting of several hundred typewritten pages."

"I became a director of the New Haven railroad in April, 1913, and resigned Dec. 31 of the same year. The only reference to me personally which I have found in Mr. Mellen's testimony has to do with the fact that I as a director of the company called upon him and told him that a change in the presidency was desirable. For any blame that attaches to that act, whether it be accorded me as a member of the board of directors or as an individual, I accept full and complete responsibility."

GEN. C. T. M'DOUGALL DIES

Had Six Horses Shot Under Him in Civil War.

Auburn, N. Y., May 26.—General Clinton Dugald McDougall, who had been seriously ill in Paris, died. Information to this effect was received here, and it was added that the funeral will be held in Auburn late in June and that the burial will be in the Arlington National cemetery, near Washington.

General McDougall was one of the youngest generals of the civil war and was praised for his services at the battle of Gettysburg. He was wounded five times and had six horses shot under him. He was born in Scotland in 1839. He was president of the board of trustees of the New York Soldiers and Sailors' home at the time of his death.

FREAKISH STUNTS OF THE GOLF LINKS

Somerville Country Club Incident Heads the List of Novelties.

There is many a freakish incident which could be related about the golf links. In fact, they are happening all the time, and it is one of the fascinations of the game. During a thunder shower the other day a golfer was playing at Somerville, with one of the new steel handled clubs in his hand. The man was L. L. Miller, and he was about to address his ball when he felt a tingling sensation all over and suddenly realized that he was lying on his back gazing skyward with his club some distance away. The caddy, Joseph Clark, was badly stunned, as well as the companions of the golfer, and the bag full of clubs seemed to have been jerked violently from the shoulder of the caddy and the implements scattered in all directions. The players were none the worse for their experience.

During the final round of the New Jersey State championship last year at Baltusrol, when Jerome D. Travers and Oswald Kirby were fighting it out for the title, a heavy thunderstorm came up so suddenly that it dripped gallery and players alike. Lightning struck twice in the woods behind the clubhouse, and at once sent out of business telegraph wires erected for newspaper purposes. But it did not stop the match.

Birds have been killed on the wing by a golf ball. A story comes from Arkansas about Dr. C. U. Mayfield playing at the Pine Bluff Country club, driving from the fourth tee, but a little off direction, and the ball scooted through a tree and killed a sparrow. Two years ago at Fox Hills George F. Armstrong drove a ball into a bush which was filled with long thorns. He spent considerable time in searching for the ball and finally found it impaled on a thorn.

DURAY THE FAVORITE.
Indianapolis, May 26.—Fifteen of the forty-five drivers entered in the annual 500-mile automobile race here next Saturday made part of the elimination trials yesterday. A total of seventeen trials were timed, and of that number the work of Duray in his little French car was said by the speedway officials to be one of the most remarkable exhibitions ever witnessed on the local track.

EBBETS BALKS FEDS.
Pittsburg, May 26.—There is no chance of the Federal's getting Jake Daubert, star first baseman of the Brooklyn Superbas, at the end of this season. Charlie Ebbets, hearing that the Fed's were hot on the trail of his star, prevailed on Jake to sign up for five years yesterday afternoon. Ebbets, used to name the figures, but it is understood that Daubert got a substantial increase.

PENN'S BIG SQUAD.
Philadelphia, May 26.—Thirty-five members of the Pennsylvania track team will be sent to Cambridge for the intercollegiate championships according to the list made public yesterday by Coach Orton. This is the greatest number of athletes ever entered by Pennsylvania for the annual championships.

P. H. S. LOST GAME AND STAR PLAYER

O'Leary Will Be Out of the Game the Rest of the Season as Result of Injury.

The Plainfield High School baseball nine was walloped yesterday afternoon, on Parker Field, by the Westfield High School baseball team. The final score was 10 to 4. Westfield was held scoreless for the first three innings, Smineck mowing them down in great fashion, while his teammates scored twice in the second. In the third inning Westfield scored twice and three times in the fifth. In the eighth inning Westfield pounded Smineck for a two-bagger and a three-bagger and finally knocked him out of the box. Rosenson went in and finished the game.

In the second inning an unfortunate accident robbed Plainfield of the services of their star second-baseman, O'Leary. While stealing second he strained the ligaments of his thigh and will probably be out of the game for the rest of the season. O'Leary has been playing a star game at second and his hitting and baserunning have been above the average.

Waldorf and Nash in Individual Conflict on the Elks' Drives Last Night.

The Waldorf team, of the Elks' Bowling League, strengthened its claim to first place in the organization race last night, by copping three in a row from the Nash contingent, winning all of the trio by decisive margins. A double century score by Anichorman Waldorf put the first game on ice and incidentally established the high individual score record of the evening. Waldorf's pinning was little short of phenomenal last night, all of his scores being of the double century variety and he averaged 240 for the evening.

This mark is one that is seldom duplicated in tournaments of this nature and will probably stand as a record for the Elks' tourney. Although some of his players felt below their usual form in the series last night Captain Waldorf made up for any individual lapses by his clever pin smashing.

Captain Nash also figured prominently in the series setting up a couple of double centuries after a poor start in the first. The captains were the only players to pass the 200 mark.

Just two creditable scores were made yesterday out of the seventy-nine cards returned in the qualifying round of the fifteenth annual championship tournament of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association at the Essex County Country Club's course in West Orange, where the event is being held the third time. In the championship set Mrs. H. R. Stockton, of this city, returned a card of 52, 44-96, playing Miss Lillian Hyde, of South Shore, who had a card of 40, 49-89.

Mrs. Stockton qualified in sixth place.

BORO'S OLD TIMERS GET BACK IN ACTION

Stars of the Diamond in Years
Gone by Will Limber up Rusty Joints.

Complete arrangements for the banner sporting event of the age in North Plainfield have been drawn up and real action is now awaited by those interested. In fact, everyone has become interested in one way or another with the widely advertised ball game between the east ends and the west ends and when the two regiments come together the sidelines will be backed with ardent admirers. All will not come expecting to see baseball of the big league type but there will be those present who will require some of the real article to satisfy their appetites. Captain Alexander Milne, of the West Ends, and Captain Warren Townley, of the East Ends, have signed up some good material and preliminary practices and secret conferences indicate that the meeting will be "some scream."

Captain Milne formerly piloted the Stevens Institute nine, performing around the first station for the collegians and gained a great reputation for his long reach and swatting ability. Necessity has forced Milne to shift the scene of his activities to behind the bat and as he is the only available candidate for the job on either side he will take charge of receiving for both teams, changing uniforms between each inning.

Members of both sides are saying little and doing much in the way of arranging details and several surprises are promised in the nature of the side shows planned for those who attend the farce but it goes without saying that there will be something doing every minute of the nine innings.

Captain Townley is well known in borough baseball circles where he was a shining light a number of years ago, and as a twirler he had at one time no rival in "Canadian" territory. Directly the reverse of Milne in size and general outline he will play the role of Jeff to perfection in the camera pose he will have to take with the rival captain before the hostilities are opened. No backstop will be necessary with Milne handling the clants of Townley and Rowley.

As a side issue Rowley will be kept busy checking up the balls and strikes that are put over the pan and accounting for the spheroids that are batted to the tall timbers.

The teams will lineup as follows:

CANOE TITLE MEET ATTRACTS LOCALS

Plainfield Paddle Wielders
Planning to Enter—Details of the Event.

Racing canoeists in this city are beginning to get in condition for the New Jersey championships, which will be held by the Asbury Park Carnival Commission, Saturday afternoon, July 25, on Deal Lake, following the exclusive announcement made in the Daily Press several days ago. It is planned to form a permanent club for local paddle wielders and it is likely that the Plainfielders will enter the events under a Queen City club title. Several exceptionally formidable paddlers live in this city and have taken awards in other coast regattas in former years. The glittering array of prizes offered by the commission has stirred the paddlers throughout a wide area and interest has been aroused even among the clubs of Pennsylvania and New York.

Oscar A. Morgan, director of the regatta, has decided to allow only bona fide residents of this State to take part in the championship events, but non-residents who may be spending their vacations at the shore resort or who may care to make special trips for the regatta will be eligible to compete in the other events on the program.

The titular races will be quarter mile singles, half mile doubles, half mile fours and hurry scurry, in which the swimmers will play a part. In this event the contestants will be obliged to swim 100 yards to their anchored canoes and paddle another 100 yards to the finish. The knack of boarding a canoe from the water, a ticklish stunt at best, may be a big factor in deciding the winner, especially if the swimming race is close. Miscellaneous events have been arranged to interest the lay paddlers. Among these is a quarter mile novelty, an eight mile paddle for women, quarter mile mixed doubles and a tail end race.

Tail end racing has been popular with paddlers and spectators in this city and it has always occupied a place on the club regatta programs on the local lakes. The contestant sits on the stern seat, but instead of facing the bow he reverses his position. The canoe becomes awkwardly unbalanced, the bow, which has now become the stern, sticking out of the water, a plaything for the breezes which play havoc with the paddler's efforts to keep the craft from turning circles. On a calm day great skill is required to hold a canoe to its course, but anything like a breeze is apt to make it a merry swirl to the finish. The race is usually an eighth mile event.

All the races will be paddled in what is known in canoe parlance as Class E canoes. These are the canvas covered or cruising shells such as are seen on the park lakes and other streams and bodies of water throughout the country.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON'S CUP CHALLENGER LAUNCHED TODAY

Gosport, Eng., May 26.—Amid scenes of wild enthusiasm, the Countess of Shutesbury, at noon today, launched Sir Thomas Lipton's American Cup challenger, Shamrock IV. The ceremony was performed under ideal weather conditions and a large number of well known sportsmen were present when the event took place.

Experts declared the Shamrock is not beautiful but a craft of good lines. Her bow and stem spoils her appearance, although it is designed to save weight. The bow is a snub and her stem has been cut off. Her most conspicuous features are the tumble home sides, an extraordinary length of keel and sides quite round. The lead at the bottom divulges out on each side of the keel, being round on top and perfectly flat underneath. The lead is thirty feet long and weighs approximately sixty-five tons.

CASE IS DISMISSED, OFFICER COMMENDED

Seumus MacManus Acted Indiscreetly in Not Answering Patrolman Flatley.

Seumus MacManus, known from coast to coast as a writer and lecturer, was arraigned before City Judge W. G. DeMeza in the city court this morning to answer to charges made against him by Patrolman Thomas Flatley, of the local department, who found him acting in a suspicious manner in Crescent avenue last Tuesday night. According to the officer he saw MacManus standing in the shadow of a tree on that thoroughfare and when he approached the spot the defendant is said to have moved swiftly and softly to the shade of a second tree. This the patrolman thought suspicious and he asked him his name and address. Flatley says that MacManus told him it was none of his business.

Unable to determine his identity, the officer placed MacManus under arrest as a disorderly person, causing his appearance in court today. Richard Boardman, representing MacManus as counsel, said that his client was not a drinking man but admitted that he had acted indiscreetly in not answering the officer's questions on the night he was apprehended.

In finding the defendant not guilty of disorderly conduct and dismissing the case against him, Judge DeMeza stated that MacManus had acted without discretion in allowing his temper to get the better of him and not answering the patrolman's questioning. The court scored MacManus for his refusal to comply with the officer's request and commended Flatley highly on making the arrest. Judge DeMeza declared that Flatley had not only protected his own rights but the rights of the citizens at large in apprehending a person who would not divulge his identity and intimidate all more robberies would be prevented if all suspicious persons were taken into custody.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL SOCIALLY

The last of a series of socials under the auspices of the Hope chapel Sunday-School Association, will be held at the chapel Friday evening. A program of music and other interesting features appropriate to Memorial Day has been arranged. J. Frank Lindsey is chairman of the committee of arrangements.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Former Mayor Newton B. Smallley, of North Plainfield, had his right eye-ball seriously injured yesterday when a small stone struck him in the optic. The sharp missile cut a deep gash in the eye-ball missing the pupil by a hair. He was attended by Dr. F. C. Ard.

ROOSEVELT PUTS IN STRENUOUS DAY

Thousands Who Wanted to Hear Him at Washington
Are Disappointed.

Washington, May 26.—Hordes of persons, both in and out of official life, besieged the big marble building of the National Geographic Society today in search of tickets for the lecture to be given tonight by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. Similar crowds surrounded Convention Hall, where the lecture will be delivered. The throngs found only disappointment, for the coveted pasteboards to their limit of a little more than 3,000 had been exhausted days ago.

The former President will put in a typically strenuous day. During the nine hour and forty minutes he is here he will accomplish a score of things. From the moment he alighted from his train at 3:30 this afternoon until he boards his car after midnight he will resemble a whirlwind in velocity. Here is his program:

Reception at Union Station by government officials and old friends. Conference with Progressive leaders.

Rapid dash in automobiles through city to Smithsonian Institution where he will view trophies of his South African hunt.

Call at White House to meet President Wilson and Vice-President Marshall.

Call at home of Senator Lodge to meet old friends of the diplomatic corps.

Conferences with more Progressive leaders. Dinner as guest of National Geographical Society.

ROOSEVELT TO JUMP INTO FIGHT AT ONCE

Calls Upon Wilson For the First Time.

Washington, May 26.—Colonel Roosevelt has satisfied himself that the time has come to strike a blow at the policies inaugurated by the Wilson administration. Developments here all point to that conclusion, and unless something unforeseen occurs to make him change his mind the broadside will be fired before he leaves for Spain on Saturday next to attend the wedding of his son Kermit.

The attack will probably be in the form of a statement, because there is little time to arrange for an address. The colonel feels that the public has been waiting for some such word from him ever since he emerged from the wilds of South America. Many things have happened to influence Colonel Roosevelt concerning the course he should take. Since his return here he has seen Progressive leaders from many parts of the country. A score of them have been named in the news dispatches.

Former President Roosevelt called at the White House to pay his respects to President Wilson. It was the first time he has met a president in the executive mansion since he turned over the presidency to William H. Taft in 1901. And, not to be outdone by President Wilson in these matters of breaking precedent, he declined an invitation extended him by President Wilson to take lunch.

Usually when the president of the United States extends a social invitation to a private individual etiquette demands that the individual invited should accept. Such invitations are, in short, regarded as commands. Not so by the colonel, who wrote in reply that he would not reach Washington in time for lunch, but would "drop in" in the course of the afternoon.

Edison Uses Central Station Power

Many manufacturers believe they can make their own power more cheaply than they can supply their needs with Central Station Electric Power.

This belief is seldom founded on FACTS.

The truth is that in making calculations and comparisons ALL of the factors of cost of the private steam or electric plant are not given due consideration.

Men who KNOW the TRUTH are turning to the Central Station as the logical source of efficient and economical power.

No better proof of this statement can be desired than the fact that Thomas A. Edison, Inc., is one of the largest power customers on the lines of Public Service Electric Company.

The Edison Company uses several THOUSAND horse power of Central Station electric current in its great West Orange works.

Why?

Let each owner of a private power plant ask himself this question.

Our representatives are ready to give answer, with facts and figures to make it clear. Drop a line or 'phone.

Hand embroidered lingerie is always attractive, and the woman who is handy with the needle may have any number of pretty things to wear. Long cloth, nainsook, batiste and crepe de Chine are all suitable materials for making a nightgown such as this, and the embroidery pattern, No. 14418, contains 6 dainty sprays for 10 cents. These sprays, developed in solid work and eyelets, are also appropriate for trimming lingerie waists, underwear, children's dresses and infants' garments. Filo silk should be used when embroidering crepe de Chine but for the other

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

Fashions for children are quaintly pretty this Spring and the new materials are especially suited to childhood. Dresses and coats are inclined to the long-waisted effects, drop shoulders and short skirts. The Middy blouse dress is a practical model for general wear and school. Number 7612 shows an unbelted Middy blouse with drop shoulders and regulation sailor collar, combined with a plaited skirt attached to a separate, sleeveless under-waist. If desired, this dress may be made with a skirt of dark blue serge and the blouse of white linen or duck. This is a practical suggestion for a little later in the Spring; if the dress is intended to be worn at the present moment without a coat, it would be advisable to make it entirely of the serge with perhaps a piping of scarlet or green or a chemisette of white as a relief. For a child of ten, this design requires 4 1/2 yards of 36-inch material. Serge averages 36 to 40 inches in width and ranges in price from 75 cents to $1.50 a yard. This pattern is cut in five sizes, 6 to 14.

THIS IS A PERFECT PATTERN. Be sure to give the right size, passing the tape around the fullest part of the breast, well up under the arms. It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15c in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

STRAWBERRIES IN GELATIN.

DINNER MENU.
Julienne Soup.
Hamburger Steak.
Irish Potato Pudding.
Breaded and Baked Bananas.
Green Peas.
Strawberry Pudding.
Cafe Noir.

STRAWBERRIES prepared with gelatin make handsome and delicious desserts.

Strawberry Pudding.—Take ten ripe strawberries, two whites of eggs, two cupfuls of whipped cream, one teaspoonful of vanilla extract, two cupfuls of strawberry juice, two heaping tablespoonfuls of powdered gelatin and four tablespoonfuls of sugar. Put the gelatin into a saucepan, add the strawberry juice, dissolve over a gentle heat, remove from the fire, add the sugar, the vanilla extract and ten large ripe strawberries which have been quartered. Stand on ice until the mixture begins to thicken; then fold
in the whipped cream and the whites of the eggs stiffly beaten. Pour into a wet mold and place on ice till required. Turn out and decorate with ripe strawberries.

Flavored With Vanilla.

Strawberry Charlotte.—Take a level tablespoonful of granulated gelatin and soak it in a fourth of a cupful of cold water until soft; dissolve by standing in a bowl of hot water. Cut large, firm berries into halves, dip

them into the liquid gelatin and use for lining a chilled bowl. The bowl must be cold that the gelatin may quickly harden and the berries adhere to their positions. Whip a pint of cream until stiff, add two-thirds of a cupful of sugar, the remaining gelatin and vanilla to flavor. Turn this mixture into the bowl, taking care not to displace the berries, and chill thoroughly. Turn from the mold and surround with berries. Serve, sprinkling the berries with powdered sugar.

With Cream or Custard.

Strawberry Mold.—Take one and a half pints of milk, two ounces of loaf sugar, one pound of strawberries, one ounce of leaf gelatin, the rind of one lemon and a little cochineal. Put the milk and lemon rind in a saucepan on the fire and bring it to the boil; then strain out the rind and add the sugar.
Rub the strawberries through a hair
sieve; then add the pulp to the milk.
Melt the gelatin in about two tablespoonfuls of boiling water; then strain it into the other ingredients. Mix all well. Add the cochineal to make the mixture a pretty pink. Rinse a fancy mold in cold water, pour in the mixture, stir it occasionally till it is just beginning to set. When it is quite cold dip the mold into tepid water and turn the contents out to a pretty dish.
Cream or custard is a nice accompaniment to this dish.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—The Raindrops Enjoy Themselves In the City.

It had been raining for several days and Jack and Evelyn had to spend a great deal of time indoors.

"The rain still keeps up, doesn't it?" said daddy as they all listened to it coming down on the tin roof.

"We hope it won't rain tomorrow," said Jack, "as we want to take a good walk and find some flowers."

"Well, I hope for your sakes, too, that it won't," said daddy. "But you know the rain thinks it is lots of fun to pour down on the earth with all the force it can use. Once there was almost a quarrel up in the clouds. Some of the raindrops were being told to drop steadily for two days in the open country, where they would help the things to grow and improve the earth."

"For some reason or other those raindrops did not want to rain in the country. They said they wanted some excitement. So the king of the clouds asked them where they would like to fall, and they replied that they would like to fall down on the city pavements, for then, they said, they could see so many more people."

"You see, they knew that in the country when it rains the people are very much more apt to stay indoors, whereas in the city there is so much to be attended to and so much business to be done that the people must go out, and the cars have to run just the same whether it rains or not. So the raindrops thought they could have a nice taste of city life."

"But these raindrops were really made very happy when they were allowed to rain in the city. Their dispositions were better than if they had had to rain in the country. In fact, they felt so pleased about it that they only rained very gently."

"They fell down on the city pavements very lightly and watched all the people put up their umbrellas. Then they would barely step on the earth, and the people would close their umbrellas again. Of course they couldn't manage to fall too lightly, for if they did old Mr. Sun would have come straight out and driven them away. And they were bound they would stay in the city all that day."

"And such a fine day as they had. They rained just enough for people to call it a little drizzle, but not enough to keep any one in."

"Now, they said, that if they had had to rain in the country they would see so few people and would be so lonely that they would not be able to keep from sobbing their eyes out and pouring in torrents."

First in New York

According to the figures filed by the various Companies with the Insurance Department of the State, The Prudential led every Life Insurance company operating in New York State in 1913 by issuing and reviving through its agents in that State during the year 414,154 policies, for $96,645,161 paid-for Life Insurance. A great honor paid to this Company and its Agents by the people of the Empire State. Furthermore, The Prudential was the leader in new business in New York State for the three years, 1909, 1910 and 1913.

Waste!

No business man can afford to waste money by paying more for a thing than is necessary.

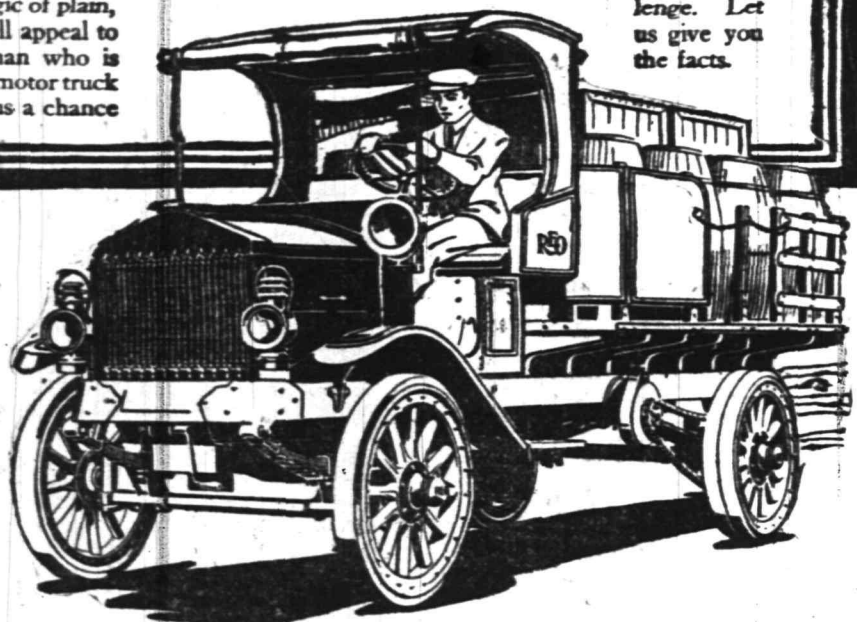

If a two-ton motor truck will do your hauling or delivery work, all you need to pay for the most efficient truck in the market is $1650. That amount pays for the Reo two-ton truck chassis—a truck that is acknowledged by leading traffic experts to embody every feature that modern engineering practice has shown desirable in a motor truck of this capacity.

Other trucks of equal capacity cost more without giving you more in service, durability or economy of operation. To pay more than the cost of the Reo means only added overhead expense, interest and depreciation charges and, most likely, added maintenance cost as well.

This is the logic of plain, cold facts and will appeal to every business man who is investigating the motor truck situation. Give us a chance to prove to you that you can get in the Reo Motor Truck all the business efficiency and economy that you could possibly get for that extra $1100 or so that makes up the average price of other makes of two-ton trucks.

This is either an invitation or a challenge. Let us give you the facts.
