

ESTABLISHED 1884.
ALL NEWS FOR THE WEEK, FROM A SMALL TRADING CAR TO THE LARGEST, IN THE BEST STYLE OF THE ART, PRINTED AND MANAGED BY THE NEWS AND INDEPENDENT.

JOYFINDER.
—A. R. Burtin, of Philadelphia, has received a patent for a printing press.
—The Columbia Club held a ball in the Grand and Turning Society's Hall last evening.
—The Central Railroad announced that it would increase the time table next Monday.

—Arrangements have been made to place the ball in the balcony over the entrance at the Broadway Club in the Grosvenor Hall on Nov. 10th.
—The Methodist will have a social this evening to which all are invited. Mr. Henry Miller is chairman of the affair.

—A social meeting will be held under the auspices of the Young Men's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. at the skating rink on Monday night at 8 o'clock. Boys over 18 years of age are interested are invited to attend.
—Harrison Randolph, young man of color, was in a tournament contest on Saturday last, and was defeated by the champion of the city, but he escaped with slight injury.

—The progress of the German Reformed church on Monday will close on tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. There will be an auction sale of the property of the church and other remaining articles. The sale will be open to-day.

—Governor Abbott, during his coming week, will have many important appointments to attend to. He will be in the city on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. He will be in the city on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

—While the minister had been playing in front of the house last evening a horse became frightened. The animal broke from the wagon and ran into a post in front of the house. It was not before long it was doing its damage, but he escaped with breaking the wagon.

—The fall of the W. C. T. U. in our office was to appear at the St. Mary's mission on Monday morning attending the session of the Union. It has become quite a sensation, but the result of the mission was not as good as usual and hence was not much thought after.

German's Ministers.
For official use last minister the Governor yesterday afternoon at about half past five o'clock. Mr. Knoll had for a long time been a minister in the German Reformed church. He was a native of Germany and had been in the United States for many years. He was a native of Germany and had been in the United States for many years.

STILLMAN RANDOLPH'S REVENUE.
A young woman named Anna, of the Columbia Club of this city gave their fourth annual ball in the Grand and Turning Society's Hall on Monday last. The company of a friend named Gilbert Murray, of this city, Stillman Randolph, a brother, of the Columbia Club, was said, was under the influence of liquor. Miss Murphy, it is stated, on some previous occasion had refused to dance with Randolph and he had declined again last evening. He refused Randolph to such an extent that he threatened to shoot her. The Committee in charge of the affair ejected him from the ball room.

Not satisfied with the disturbance he had already caused, Randolph determined to go to the ball room and cause a further disturbance. When Miss Murphy and Mr. Murray arrived at the corner of street and street, Randolph placed his hand on the shoulder of Miss Murphy and she fell to the ground. Randolph then placed his hand on the shoulder of Mr. Murray and he also fell to the ground. Randolph then placed his hand on the shoulder of Miss Murphy and she fell to the ground. Randolph then placed his hand on the shoulder of Mr. Murray and he also fell to the ground.

Two young women, one from Jersey City and the other from Elizabeth, witnessed the incident. They were carrying the bodies of Dr. Curran, who lives near by. The doctor was removed from his slumbers and worked hard to revive the girls. He was successful in doing so. The girls were taken to the hospital and are now recovering from their injuries.

PERSONAL.
City Judge Wm. M. Billman returned to Philadelphia this morning from a business trip to New York. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter. He was in the city on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. He was in the city on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Fisk, formerly rector of the Holy Cross church in North Platte, visited Philadelphia to-day.
The Rev. Father Barry and Stafford, of the Holy Cross church in North Platte, visited Philadelphia to-day.

The Rev. Mr. W. Terry, of Dunellen, gave a lecture party one evening this week in honor of his 21st birthday. Only a few of his most intimate friends were present. The evening was most enjoyable.

Mr. George Kline, who lives on the mountain, gave birth to triplets last Tuesday. The children, all boys, weighed from 10 to 12 pounds. They did not live. Dr. Zeigler, of Mt. Bethel, attended.

The Rev. J. L. Benedict, of New York, has been conducting a series of revival meetings in the New York Methodist church. The services commenced two weeks ago. Last evening there were fourteen inquirers.

Mr. John Geary, of New Brooklyn, and Mrs. Kate P. Leary, of New Brooklyn, were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. W. Geary, on Monday last. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. J. W. Geary.

THE VITAL QUESTION.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY ANNIVERSARY AT REFORM HALL.

Addressed by Mrs. W. M. French and Mrs. M. A. Mitchell. The Ladies' Aid Society celebrated the first anniversary of their organization in Reform Hall last evening. About four hundred persons were present. The program was very interesting and the evening was most enjoyable.

Rev. J. A. Mitchell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, was the guest speaker. He gave a most interesting and inspiring address. He spoke of the importance of the church in the life of the community and the need for a revival of religion.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

THE VITAL QUESTION.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY ANNIVERSARY AT REFORM HALL.

Addressed by Mrs. W. M. French and Mrs. M. A. Mitchell. The Ladies' Aid Society celebrated the first anniversary of their organization in Reform Hall last evening. About four hundred persons were present. The program was very interesting and the evening was most enjoyable.

Rev. J. A. Mitchell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, was the guest speaker. He gave a most interesting and inspiring address. He spoke of the importance of the church in the life of the community and the need for a revival of religion.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

THE VITAL QUESTION.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY ANNIVERSARY AT REFORM HALL.

Addressed by Mrs. W. M. French and Mrs. M. A. Mitchell. The Ladies' Aid Society celebrated the first anniversary of their organization in Reform Hall last evening. About four hundred persons were present. The program was very interesting and the evening was most enjoyable.

Rev. J. A. Mitchell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, was the guest speaker. He gave a most interesting and inspiring address. He spoke of the importance of the church in the life of the community and the need for a revival of religion.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

THE VITAL QUESTION.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY ANNIVERSARY AT REFORM HALL.

Addressed by Mrs. W. M. French and Mrs. M. A. Mitchell. The Ladies' Aid Society celebrated the first anniversary of their organization in Reform Hall last evening. About four hundred persons were present. The program was very interesting and the evening was most enjoyable.

Rev. J. A. Mitchell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, was the guest speaker. He gave a most interesting and inspiring address. He spoke of the importance of the church in the life of the community and the need for a revival of religion.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

THE VITAL QUESTION.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY ANNIVERSARY AT REFORM HALL.

Addressed by Mrs. W. M. French and Mrs. M. A. Mitchell. The Ladies' Aid Society celebrated the first anniversary of their organization in Reform Hall last evening. About four hundred persons were present. The program was very interesting and the evening was most enjoyable.

Rev. J. A. Mitchell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, was the guest speaker. He gave a most interesting and inspiring address. He spoke of the importance of the church in the life of the community and the need for a revival of religion.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

—The most sublime spectacle the world has ever seen is presented in the life of the Christian. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of his fellow men. It is the life of the Christian who is willing to die for the sake of his fellow men.

RICHARD H. DAYE
City Livery Stables.
14 West Fourth street
Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone call 141.
Special attention given to boarding horses
Orders left at A. Litworth's, North ave.
will receive prompt attention.

