

THEY WANT $25,000
TO EXTEND THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY TO DUNELLEN.

Whether a Steep Price for Two Miles of Road, but the People seem to Want it Anyhow.—Five Hundred shares of Stock to be Subscribed for.

Mr. Jacob Krinsky, who secured the signatures of about 600 persons favoring the extension of the street railway to Dunellen, is now securing signatures to the following, of which he has already obtained subscribers to the amount of a thousand dollars.

Mr. Krinsky is disinterested, except that he believes the improvement will benefit the people in his vicinity. He would like to get better terms from the company if he could.

THE FRESH AIR CLUB.

An Organization of Cross-Country Walkers.

The Fresh Air Club, an organization of cross-country walkers, propose participating in a jaunt in this part of the country. The program is as follows: Sept. 21—Liberty Street Ferry at 9 a. m. single ticket to Bound Brook. The route will include Chubbuck Rock, Marlboro, Mt. Hope, Rock Valley, Warrenton, Washington Rock and Plainfield, which will be reached in time for the train arriving in New York City at 4:45 p. m. Those who find this trip too short will arrive on Rahway or Elizabeth, meeting trains which reach New York City at 5:45 p. m. or 6:45 p. m. Acceptable persons can obtain invitations by addressing the club by mail. All communications concerning the club should be addressed to Fresh Air Club, P. O. Box 308, New York City.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Charles C. Lister of West Second street is visiting in Philadelphia. Mr. Cornelius Compton of Duer street started yesterday for the World's Fair. Mr. George D. Arrested in the City for an Offense in the Borough.

Yesterday afternoon a number of young men gathered near the brook in the rear of French's mill, and created a disturbance. When Chief Grant and a policeman attempted to arrest them, one of their number, named William Robinson, ran across the brook and began cursing the policeman, shouting them. It is to be feared that a warrant for his arrest was issued by Justice Croswell, and ordered by Judge O'Connell.

The Last Game of the Season.

Saturday's ball game on the Crescent Oval will be the last of the season. The Montreal Athletic Club is said to be a strong aggregation of ball players. An exciting contest is looked for, the outcome will try to make a brilliant ending of a very successful season. Very few games have been lost since the players will retire the proceeds.

Arrested for Begging Money.

Policeman McCue this morning arrested James Croswell for begging money on Seventh street. His plea was that he needed money to bury a dead child. Croswell is the same man who was around town Monday begging money. He was told in the New York Times that it is a steady beggar. Croswell may be dealt with severely. He lives on Plainfield avenue.

ESTABLISHED 1884.

THEY WANT $25,000

TO EXTEND THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY TO DUNELLEN.

Master a Steep Price for Two Miles of Road, but the People Seem to Want it Anyhow.—Five Hundred Shares of Stock to be Subscribed for.

Mr. Jacob Krinsky, who secured the signatures of about 600 persons favoring the extension of the street railway to Dunellen, is now securing signatures to the following, of which he has already obtained subscribers to the amount of a thousand dollars:

The undersigned hereby agree with Thomas Dunellen and Charles W. Miller, and with each other, that they will take the number of shares of the Dunellen and Dunellen Street Railway Company, proposed to be formed, not opposite their respective names, and to pay for the same as called upon by the company. It is so called upon by the company, that the capital stock of said company shall be twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares of fifty dollars each, and that the corporate existence shall continue one hundred and ninety years.

It is also understood that all the stock of the company shall be subscribed for, or the obligations to take said stock shall be met and paid.

Krinsky is disinterested, except that he believes the improvement will benefit the people in his vicinity. He would like to get better terms from the company if he could.

THE FRESH AIR CLUB.

An Organization of Cross Country Walkers.

AT GETTYSBURG.

New Jersey Veterans on the Famous Battlefield.

AFTER a very pleasant trip the thirty-four New Jersey Veterans Association reached Gettysburg, Pa., yesterday evening on time. The campfire was lighted in the Court House.

The Home was opened with music by the Gettysburg Band. Capt. A. M. Matthews, presiding, opened with a few remarks, thanking the Veterans Association for their organization and service, leading up to the battle at this place. Dr. J. J. H. Love, the regiment's surgeon, followed, and in his address he reviewed the regiment's participation in this battle.

Remarks descriptive of the services of the regiment were made by John W. George D. Lawrence, and Commander Fritz Trephack, of U. S. Dist. Court, Orange.

Col. J. B. Hatcher, the Government historian of the Gettysburg battlefield, gave an interesting account of services of the 11th and other New Jersey regiments at Gettysburg.

The party visited the interesting points of the field, and left for Hagerstown at four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

AMONG THE WHEELMEN.

The Cranford Course Abandoned by County Racers.

WHEN the Cranford ordinance, prohibiting wheelmen from riding upon the highway, was put into effect, the wheelmen of this town without the arms and legs being entirely covered by clothing the Union county cyclists naturally began to look around for another course. They finally selected the road from Elizabeth to Rahway.

The Elizabeth Athletic Club will run their annual ten-mile handicap race on this year over the new Elizabeth and Rahway courses. This course starts at the corner of Cherry street and Rahway avenue, and extends into Rahway on St. George's avenue to a point between the road to Westfield and Church street, a distance of five miles.

Day of Attonement.

Many business places were closed yesterday in commemoration of the Day of Attonement. For the Hebrews throughout the world began the "day of atonement" the "Yom Kippur" or the Sabbath of Silence, commemorating their atonement to their God at the setting of the sun on the ninth day of Elul, and ending at sundown, when the "Shofar" or trumpet made from a ram's horn is blown announcing the close of the holy day. Services of the most impressive nature were held in Reform Hall.

Ran Out with His Whiskers.

A man complained to Policeman Kirt that another person had stolen his bottle of whiskey. He said he wanted it to the man to take a drink.

The man who was charged with the crime said that if he gave the bottle to the man to take a drink he couldn't do anything for him.
