newly-wedded couple, the guests were afforded an opportunity to admire the large and costly array of bridal gifts which were displayed in one of the rooms. They comprised everything that a bride could wish for, many of them being of unusual value. Mr. and Mrs. Herber left last late night on a short wedding trip and on November 21 they will sail for Santo Domingo, where the bridegroom has been assigned for the present. They are taking a preparatory course at Fort Belvoir in South Carolina, he in class engineering, and she in the U. S. Navy on October 24, 1916.

The bride is well-known in New York and Plainfield society, in which she is popular. She has been prominent in many social functions held here and has also been greatly interested in various charities.

LIDGATE-PALMER

Fanwood, Plainfield and New York. Six tables were used in the card playing. Mrs. Delator was formerly Miss Katherine Alger and at her wedding in May, 1915, Miss Palmer was her bridesmaid. This is Mr. Delator's first visit East since leaving the Pacific coast, the trip being planned in order to entertain the bride-to-be previous to the wedding.

Last night Mr. Lidgate and Miss Palmer were the guests of honor at an informal dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilcox, of Fanwood. The affair was very enjoyable and a special mention will give Plainfield the proud of healthy development soon to catch the stride of its associates.

FROM A CHAIRMAN.

Editor of Plainfield Record: Dear Sir: Permit me to congratulate you on the publication of the first issue of the Plainfield Record. From its sturdy beginning, its promise of healthy development soon to catch the stride of its associates. Its columns be the vehicle of thoughts worth thinking, that the best minds of our city may turn to it confident of authentic information on matters worth while.

Sincerely yours,

B. M. BOGAN.

FAVORS WEEKLY IDEA.

Editor, Plainfield Record: I have before me a copy of your initial issue of the Record and I am compelled to say after perusing it that if the first number is any criterion you will give Plainfield the best paper it has ever had. The weekly idea appeals to me strongly as I am firmly convinced that the present day-hustle and bustle incident to getting out a daily too often furnishes misleading information. Where time is taken to get accurate accounts and present them in a decided readable way the result is always to be appreciated. I am surprised at the great amount of up-to-date news your first number had. Please accept my subscription and keep up the good work you have commenced.

Cordially yours,

JAMES E. MARTINE.

BECAUSE IT'S "PLAINFIELD."

Editor, Plainfield Record: The first thought that came to me when I looked over the first copy of the Record was that it was "Plainfield," that is, it was clean-cut, plain, and to the point. It really indicates that there is a good local field for a weekly. I sincerely trust that your efforts to meet with great success and that some day in the future the Record may give us the news every day.

Sincerely yours,

CORTLAND L. MALLERY.

FROM GREENWICH, CONN.

Success to the Plainfield Record and the boys who are going to give Plainfield a real newspaper. You have a good field and excellent opportunities for the development of a high class paper which the community will be proud of. There is always room for progressive opposition and improvement. I believe the Plainfield Record will be a winner.

RALPH L. MORROW.

Former Editor Plainfield Press.

Constitutional and Mrs. Lewis M. Booth entertained a number of friends at a Halloween dance at their home on Cedarbrook road on Sunday evening. Miss Anderson, of Prospect avenue, will leave on Tuesday for a week's hunting trip in the Adirondacks. Sherman B. Jost, of Belvidere avenue, has been on a two-day shooting trip on Long Island this week.

FLANDERS-IRONS.

The marriage of Miss Helen Harcourt Irons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Irons, of West High street, to William David Flanders, of this city, which took place on Tuesday at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, was one of the interesting social events of the early winter. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelle, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Miss Katherine Stillebarger, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Elizabeth Brown, Dorcas Bismann, Helen Terry, Louise Patterson, Friedella Fraker, of this city, and Miss Frances Todd, of Summit. George Yerkes, captain of the bridegroom, was the best man, and the ushers were Carlyle Turner, Arthur Willis, Joseph Van Dewater, Frederick E. Myer, of this city, Henry Clay Irons, Jr., and William G. Irons, 2d, all of this city.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Irons residence on West Eighth street, at which time the parents of the bride celebrated the twenty-second anniversary of their wedding, making the nuptials of double interest to those present. Among the guests was William G. Irons, of Toms River, father of Henry Clay Irons, and grandfather of Mrs. William David Flanders, the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Flanders are now enjoying their honeymoon in Canada, and upon their return will reside on Sheridan avenue, their new residence being completely furnished by the bride's parents. The bride is the recipient of a large collection of gifts, including an automobile.

Mr. Flanders is a grandson of the late Rev. Dr. David J. Yerkes, who was pastor of the First Baptist church for a half-century. He is connected with the Vacuum Oil Company, of New York city.

ALFRED GRAYES.

One of the most impressive funerals ever witnessed in Hope chapel was conducted there Sunday afternoon over the body of Alfred Grayes, the thirteen-year-old son of Councilman Charles C. Grayes, who died early Friday morning at the parental home after an illness of but two days. The church program was spread to the Sunday-school rooms in the rear. Among the relations and friends who gathered to pay their respects were one hundred members of Troop 12, of the Hope chapel Boy Scouts, of which Alfred was a member. The boys wore their regulation uniforms and acted as an escort for the body from the home on South Second street to the chapel and later from the chapel to the family plot in Evergreen cemetery. At the grave-side the Scout burial ceremonies were conducted under the leadership of Scoutmaster William F. Richards. The funeral service proper was in charge of the Rev. D. W. Skellenger, pastor of Hope chapel, who spoke in a touching manner of the manly disposition and likable traits of the little fellow who had so suddenly been taken away and expressed the sympathy of the community to the father and sisters, twice bereaved within three weeks. Alfred and his mother idealized their lives and when the latter died a short time ago it made such an impression upon him that many of his friends believe subdued grief played a part in his fatal illness. Thomas M. Jones, the chapel organist, rendered a special musical program throughout the service. One of the most poignant parts of the Scout's portion of the funeral was the Scout guard standing beside the casket as Roman sentinels until 11 o'clock when their places were taken by two other immobile guards. Again at 12 o'clock two other guards took their place and remained at the side of the casket until it was borne to the waiting hearse.

The marching of the two companies of Scouts, William F. Richards and Scout Deputy Duffy, as the body was lowered into its resting place at the cemetery the one hundred Scouts gave their salute while taps were sounded by a bugler. The floral tributes included pieces from Troop 12, Plainfield Lodge of Elks, the carrier boys formerly employed by the Daily Press and of which Alfred was one, and the family. The Scouts who were fellow members in Troop 12 and who acted as pallbearers were Assistant Scoutmaster John Richards, Eagle Scouts Thomas F. Edwards and Charles H. Edwards, and Scoutmaster John Richards and Scoutmaster John Richards. In appreciation of the sympathy and kindness of Troop 12, Councilman Grayes is having a beautiful troop flag made up as a memento of Alfred will present it to the Hope Chapel Scouts on Tuesday night, November 14.

JOSEPH H. RAMFORTH.

Funeral services for Joseph H. Ramforth, who died in this city last Saturday, were held from his late home in Trenton Wednesday. Rev. Charles H. Elder, pastor of the Trinity Reformed church, officiating. Mr. Ramforth was employed on the Westfield News. He was a member of the Typographical Union. Besides a wife, he was survived by two brothers living in England.

MRS. DORA DEMERY.

After a lingering illness, Dora Demery, wife of Henry Demery, died at her home on Arlington avenue, Newark, Wednesday. She was 62 years of age and was survived by a mother and four brothers, living in Newark. The funeral was held from her late residence at 3:34 Tuesday afternoon and from St. Mary's at 8:00, the Rev. Father McDonald officiating, and interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery, Amper.

DATE FOR WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Mary Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Alexander, of East Sixth street, to the Rev. Roy H. Gator, of the First Baptist church, will take place on Saturday, November 18, at 2 o'clock, at the bride's home, Miss Pauline Alexander, sister of the groom-elect, will be Miss Alexander's maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Misses Clara and Elizabeth Richards, of Newark, will be the best man. Miss Jeanne Clawson will complete the bridal party as flower girl.

Mrs. Horace G. Phillips, of Kenilworth, will be the bride.

Building Big Presses

and under each unit there will be a carrier for three rolls of paper, so that the change from one roll to another, as the one roll is used up, can be made without stopping the press. Special provision being made for that purpose. This will add largely to the productive capacity of the machine. Also, at the folder end, instead of delivering the papers in the delivery room, same as practically all other newspaper presses do, special conveyors are attached to the folders which carry the papers so fast as they are printed directly to the delivery room, each folder working independently.

The most important feature connected with this machinery, however, is the fact that it can be operated in various size groups, so as to give the utmost producing capacity for all different combinations. In other words, when a 16 page paper is being produced, the two triple octuple presses will be divided up into what is technically known as twelve quadruple machines, each of them entirely independent, starting and stopping at its own requirements, making it necessary, and not dependent on interfering with the operation of any of the other twelve machines. Then from 16 to 24 page papers are to be printed, the entire equipment will be divided into eight sextuple machines, each of which is also entirely independent, and when larger papers are required, the machine can be divided into six octuples, or four double sextuples, or two triple octuples, depending upon the requirements of the day. The Detroit News has an evening and a Sunday edition and its requirements vary considerably.

All the above combinations are produced without the loss of a single printing unit—in other words, all twenty-four printing units will be in use or ready for use, at all times. This construction is noteworthy because up to this time it has been usual to construct machines on the "decked principle, one over the other in layers, and, of course, when not using the full capacity of the press some of the upper layers were necessarily idle and it was impossible to use them in connection with other units so as to make another independent machine. The Scott "Multi-Light" system has completely overcome this difficulty, which is of the greatest importance to the newspaper world. Furthermore, up to this time, when machines are built in layers, the limit is reached when there are about four, or at the utmost, five layers over each other. With the Scott "Multi-Light" system every unit is on the floor, and a man can start with one unit and one folder, and keep on adding indefinitely regardless of what his circulation may grow to. This is of the utmost importance, because the loss to a newspaper in changing machines is a heavy one, and also because a serious problem to the press manufacturer, as these second-hand machines must be taken in, trade and handled over again. The Scott "Multi-Light" system flows away with that matter completely, because no matter how small or how large the publisher is, one or more units and folders will do his work regardless of his growth.

Also, an account of the extremely heavy and low construction, this machine, while rated to run at 300 cylinder revolutions per minute, is capable of running much faster, but based on a normal running speed of 300 cylinder revolutions per minute, the press has a capacity equal to 864,000 eight-page papers per hour, 596,000 ten and twelve page papers, 422,000 fourteen and sixteen page papers, 218,000 eighteen, twenty, twenty-two and twenty-four page papers, and 216,000 twenty-six, twenty-eight, thirty and thirty-two page papers (larger sizes in proportion). As stated before, each triple octuple press takes 122 plates, making a total of 254 plates on the machine at one time. There are 84 motors on the combined equipment 24 being on the presses; 45 on the paper reels in the basement and 12 on the conveyors on the folders. The main press rollers are 40 horse power each, and are controlled by a push button system; also, a series of electric and automatic switches are provided so that any combination can be run and so that the push buttons on the different combinations are automatically thrown on the proper equipment. Provision is also made should break down or burn out, one of the other motor equipments, so that the duty so that there is no interruption in the operation of the machine.

The press room in which these machines will be installed is 40 ft. wide, 21 ft. 10 in. long and 10 ft. high, without any posts in same, making the most machine room attached to any newspaper plant. The floor level of the press room is practically on a level with the sidewalk, and the entire press equipment will be housed on one level, occupying a full block in the city of Detroit and making a magnificent show and advertisement for White Star & Co.

Thriftiness of Walter Scott & Co. in getting the Detroit News to put in this equipment is a great triumph and has created a great sensation in newspaper circles because the Detroit News has been for a number of years a strong advocate of the high "decked" type of machine. They have at the present time four "decked" double octuple machines which the Scott Co. has for sale and these machines are to be discarded. One of these machines is the latest type which speed construction of another manufacturer and is only a few years old, so that the discarding of the entire equipment for this new low construction Scott's "Multi-Light" equipment is line entirely to the credit of the Scott "Multi-Light" construction of news buildings. Walter Scott & Co. have been developing this type of machine for the past six years and have built quite a number of smaller machines on these lines for other plants in the country, among the largest of the previous equipments being the Newark Evening News, where a six-unit four-folder equipment, technically known as a "Double-Deck" has been running since 1912, giving the very best of service. Among other prominent papers using the Scott "Multi-Light" type of machine is the Providence Journal, Providence, R. I.; Los Angeles Evening News, Los Angeles, Cal.; the Evening Star, Sacramento, Cal.; the Telegram, New York, N. Y.

Present Leader Shows Interest Champlain L. Riley Stirs Up Enthusiasm In Recreation Work

What will probably be a record season for the development of a Recreation Committee activity in Plainfield has been started well on its way under the supervision of Champlain L. Riley, chairman of the committee, and under the active guidance of Miss Lillian Lamson. Throughout its history the Recreation Committee has never had a chairman who has taken the vital interest in matters that Riley is assuming and his personal supervision has been directly responsible for inspiring new enthusiasm among the workers.

This fall and winter the calendar of events is bigger and better than ever before and it is proposed to make the efforts of the committee felt over as wide an area as possible. Mr. Riley's personal co-operation with Miss Lamson and her corps of volunteer assistants is lending an atmosphere of progressiveness to the work that has never before been so conspicuous.

A wider use of the school buildings is one phase of the endeavor that is being promoted and other features are organized play for school children after study hours and gymnastics and athletic clubs for young men and women. Some idea of the calibre of work offered for the public is shown in the following busy calendar of weekly events:

A young couple were entertaining a bachelor friend to dinner, and during the evening he was shown their infant son.

"Now, Mr. Mellowby," said the proud mother, "which of us do you think he is like?"

The guest looked fondly at the tiny suite for a moment and then replied, "Well, of course, intelligence has not really dawned in his countenance as yet, but he's wonderfully like both of you."—New York Journal.

MODEL AUTO GARAGE FOR VETERAN REPAIR EXPERT.

John R. Cline, who for the past four years has conducted an automobile repair garage at 154 Second street, will move on or about November 15 to the former Ford building at 1311 1/2 East street, where his rectory has been rebuilt into one of the most garages in this part of the state. The new quarters have been fitted up with every facility for the care of automobiles, from simple repairs in first-floor sections to the complete rebuilding of a car. The main floor is built of concrete and measures thirty by forty standard machines at a time. Mr. Cline is himself a repair expert and anybody in Plainfield who knows anything at all about automobiles knows that John Cline has not got more than the same than many others in it ever learned.

He was born in Plainfield, learned the machinist's trade in Plainfield after he had completed his education in the Plainfield schools and took up the study of the automobile when it was in its infancy. When he branched out as an expert repair man jobs of his friends and his business was so good that he was soon forced to add to the new fangled machines were only a passing fad like the bicycle and that business would continue to be the best means for business or pleasure transportation. Mr. Cline's only answer was to build his present garage four years ago. For the past two years his quarters have been closed to their capacity and it became absolutely necessary to obtain larger ones. As soon as he established he extends an invitation to all his friends and others to inspect the conditions and find out the purpose of seeing what a first class garage should be. Mr. Cline holds no army for cars, but is the local representative for the superior Knight and Blackstone tires, also handling all automobile accessories.

THREE LOCAL DELEGATES ATTEND ANNUAL SESSION.

Floyd Carroll, Edward Mosher and Harry Wiersema, all members of the local fire department, represented the local branch of the Firemen's Mutual Benevolent Association which met in annual convention at Haverhill, Mass., Monday. There were about one hundred delegates present from all parts of the state, while four hundred guests enjoyed the banquet served at the close of the convention. The proposed two platoon system for firemen of the State was discussed by the several speakers and resolutions were passed urging the need of legislation to bring it about. These officers were accompanied by George A. Henry, Atlantic City; vice president; Anthony Deal, West York; and Gus Steele, West Hoboken; financial secretary. John King, Jersey City; recording secretary; William H. Van Sledright, Newark; treasurer; John M. Holt, Elizabeth, and sergeant at arms, Benjamin Jerome, Jersey City. The next convention will be held in Jersey City.

COMPLETING PRELIMINARY WORK FOR NEW PAVING.

Following the announcement by the city that several streets will be paved permanently in the near future, the gas and electric light companies and various individuals are constructing manholes, laying pipes and doing other such work because they will not be allowed to tear up the streets after the paving is done. The various sections of streets that will be improved by paving are: West Front street, between Madison and East avenues; East Fifth street, between Washington avenue and Richmond street; East and West Seventh streets, between Washington and East avenues; Washington avenue, between East Fourth and East Seventh streets; Park avenue, between Fourth and Ninth streets.

RULE GRANTED BY COURT.

Acting upon the application of Augustus Roche, Jr., United States District Court Judge Thomas G. Halseth granted earlier in the week a rule directing the interested parties to show cause on November 6 why the Sloane Manufacturing Company, with factory on North avenue, this city, should not be allowed to give a bond for $2,500 to secure claims in that amount from creditors who are seeking the appointment of a receiver. In asking for the ruling Mr. Roche stated that a number of the claims in question were disputed ones and that the Sloane Company was solvent.

SUCCESSFUL TAG DAY.

Through the generosity of the people of Plainfield the King's Daughters will be able to continue its good work in the city and operate the Der Nursery on West Front street, where over five thousand youngsters are cared for annually in the best possible manner. All fourteen circles joined together in holding a Tag Day last Saturday, and with several hundred workers spread all over the city succeeded in raising $1,500. The money will be used toward the work of the organization and will be appropriated to such uses as the trustees deem advisable.

INTERESTING MEETING.

At the last regular meeting of the Monday Afternoon Club the members listened to an interesting paper read by Miss Harris on "A True Bird's View of South America." In which she traced the history of the continent from the earliest period of exploration up to the present day. Miss Van Vleet also read an interesting article on "The Crafts of the South Americans," which portrayed the methods of the various people in the making of cloth, pottery and the like.

STUDYING BANKING.

Russell Doeringer, Jack Rickerts, Rodman Parvin, Russell Hoadland, Byron Dunham and Edward Vossler, all members of the clerical staff of the Plainfield Trust Company, have entered the night class in the American Institute of Banking in New York. Sessions are held twice each week and the instruction includes all classes of banking and financial work.

PARTY FOR DAUGHTER.

Mrs. C. J. Hall gave a beautiful Halloween party for her daughter, Miss Claire Hall, at her home on South avenue, on Saturday night. There were thirty-five guests present from this city, Newark, New out-of-town orchestra furnished music for dancing and at midnight a supper was served.

TIPS TO VOTERS

The great thing to keep in mind in casting your vote is not what Wilson or Hughes will do during the next four years.

One thing certain in the Jersey election is that no matter which way the winds blow the election will have an edge on the governorship ticket.

If all the breath that Wilson and Hughes have used in campaigning was available for the work that would be sufficient to blow a coal barn across Lake Michigan.

We note that certain political pundits are still making punching bags out of Edge and Martin.

When certain local Republican leaders were scoring the city for a treaty lunged volunteer who would use the microphone at the city last Tuesday night to warn commuters that they had but a few hours left in which to register which to vote a well known Democrat was suggested and the fun of it is that they nearly fell for it.

A group of politicians occupied their time Tuesday night discussing the merits of Mayor Leitch's administration. Some seemed to pick on an unimportant candidate when there's so much live food for thought lurking around.

"Ted" Martin declares he can see nothing but victory ahead. But he is beginning to worry about what he is going to do with George York after the ballots are counted.

DECIDE TO VOTE DOWN VARIATION IN THE BORO.

At the monthly meeting of the North Plainfield Board of Education held Monday night Horace Fisher, one of the board members, presented the High School with twenty-five volumes of Henry Smith Williams' "Histories of the World," and a large bag to the Watchman School. The board rented Saengerbush Hall for four and a half months for basketball at a cost of $50 a month and authorized the annual training department to purchase a band saw for $100. It was decided to purchase a set of books on household chemistry, the choice of selection being left to the principal.

Because infantile paralysis delayed the opening of the schools it was decided to curtail a part of the vacations in the schools during the present year in order to make up the lost time. Regular sessions will be held on Election Day. For the Thanksgiving closing the trustees have decided that the vacation will start on Wednesday, November 29, and conclude Monday, December 4. The Christmas vacation will start on December 22 and end on January 4, while regular sessions will be held on Lincoln's and Washington's Birthdays. The Easter vacation will be shortened to four days, and on Memorial Day the pupils will have their last vacation before the summer closing on June 22.

DATE FOR WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Edie May Dunavan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dunavan, of Dorset street, and George Christie Church, son of James E. Church, of Somerset street, will take place at the home of the bride-elect's parents Tuesday evening, November 14. Miss Dunavan will be attended by her sister, Mrs. M. A. Dunavan, and A. W. Dunavan, a brother of the bride, will be the best man. The Rev. John Y. Dink will officiate.

AUTO COMPANY BANKRUPT.

Through its attorney, Robert Newton Crane, the Striker Motor Car Co., of 142 East Court street, this city, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court at Trenton yesterday. The company's liabilities were placed at $28,311 and the assets at $15,563. Included in the assets are vehicles with a concern amount to $1,713 and machinery, and $5,000.

WELCOME TROOPER HOME.

Elliott Burr, of Westfield, who recently returned from Donkey Island, Arizona, with Troop D, was welcomed to a dance in the Fanwood freemason Saturday night by several friends and James Lindsey, both of this city. The hall was decorated for the occasion and twenty-five couples were present. Fanwood and Westfield enjoyed dancing until a late hour, music being furnished by an out-of-town orchestra.

PRESENTED WITH CHAIR.

As a token of esteem, the members of the Plainfield Bar Association have presented John Van Winkle, former mayor of North Plainfield, with a rocking chair. Mr. Van Winkle is observing his birthday anniversary as a member of the local association and is still an active and prominent Plainfield barman.

CHIROPRACTIC

The PRINCIPLE of Chiropractic lies in the FACT, that every ordinary part of the Human Body is controlled by nerves, and that these nerves, running into main trunks, as do the branches of a tree, go into the Spinal Canal thru small opening between the MOVABLE vertebrae. These vertebrae, when wrung or otherwise jolted, have projections, which will pinch the nerve, and the part of the body to which that nerve runs, is weakened.

THE X-RAY PROVES WE ARE RIGHT

Sick people have had X-ray pictures taken before taking adjustments, and vertebrae are shown out of line. Other pictures taken after the patient is well, following adjustments, show that this spine has been straightened.

WHY SUFFER LONGER? INVESTIGATE RHEUMATISM

Statistics sent out from the Palmer School show that from 95 to 97 out of every 100 suffering from Rheumatism, have gotten well with the aid of CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS alone. Think that over.

NERVOUS DISEASES

Headaches, Neuritis, Paralysis (all kinds), Neuralgia, etc. Pressure on the motor nerves being the cause; Chiropractors adjust the pressure on these columns, and the full amount of impulses being restored, your Health is sure to return.

Stomach, Liver, Throat, Lung, Kidney or Bowel Trouble all respond Readily to Chiropractic.

WHY DELAY?

Come in---let me explain it from a Human Spine. Investigation costs you nothing. DO IT TODAY!

ORDER OF ZION.
At the regular meeting of the Camp 57, Order of Zion, held on Monday night the installation of the recently elected officers took place. They being: Vice president, Samuel Rosenbaum; recording secretary, E. Rosenbaum; financial secretary, W. Amshel; treasurer, S.
Seidel; master of ceremonies, B. M.
Kornstein; and inside guard, L. B.
Kornstein. A member of the executive committee, did the installing and also made an address in which he asked the Jews to become united and work for the recovery of Palestine.

At an executive meeting of the new officers held in the office of Samuel Rosenbaum on Wednesday it was decided that the next district convention would take place on the last Sunday in November, at which time the activities of the local camp will be talked of. On December 25 the members of the camp will hold a Christmas Eve. It was decided at the meeting that the old rule of not allowing women to become a member of the order be abandoned and that the Bible class should resume its meetings again. The first meeting was held last night. Harry Katz was in charge of the meeting.

DRESS SUIT PRICES JOIN
THE RAILROAD THROUG.

Dress clothes, as distinguished from evening clothes, the latter meeting palmas, are going up. You can rent one for a night at 25c time for almost the same amount you would have paid if you had bought one a year or two ago. It is the same with the suits. The suits are going up in price. The blame is immediately placed on the war. You may accept it from the dealers, dress clothes are rare and prized possessions, to be looked in the cedar chest when not worn, and to be guarded with one's life, just as one might guard a diamond when worn.

But you might have bought a year ago for $35 are now considered cheap, by the dealers, at $50, and there is no maximum to those that were cheap a year ago at $50. They are not renting them with as great eagerness as formerly. Renting men are considering asking for a deposit of the full value of the suit with each rental.

It may be because of the high price of renting them, or there may be some other reason, but the fact is that there are more fancy dress suits being given than formerly.

There is no end in sight. Prices are ballooning constantly, perhaps on account of it was the time of the rental—men tell you, or because of the willingness of the people to pay whatever is asked.

BUT

In the matter of selecting a motor car, let your judgment be governed by the unquestionable past performance of the

No Talking Machine
Manufacturer Dares
to Make this Test

No talking machine manufacturer dares to invite a public comparison between a great artist's voice and the reproduction of that voice by a talking machine. No talking machine could sustain such a test.

The

has been tested in this manner before two hundred thousand people. Great artists such as Marie Rappold, Anna Case, Alice Verlet, Christine Miller, Marie Kaiser, Elizabeth Spencer, Helen Clark, Arthur Middleton, Thomas Chalmers, and numerous others, have matched their voices against Mr. Edison's Re-Creations thereof and two hundred thousand music lovers have confessed their inability to distinguish the real voices from Edison's Re-Creations of them.

Not a Talking Machine

The New Edison is not a talking machine. It does not re-produce music. It literally re-creates music. It is the world's most wonderful musical instrument.

Come to Our Store

We want to give you an Edison Musical. There will be no obligation on your part. It will be a pleasure to us to demonstrate this wonderful new invention which Mr. Edison has licensed us to sell.

See what "VARIETY" week of Sept.
20th, 1916, says:

"THE SPORTING WIDOWS"

The current season's edition of Jacobs and Jerome's "Sporting Widows" excels any previous production routed over the big wheel under the firm's franchise and incidentally will make the majority of this year's players step along rather freely to keep up with their need for the producers have thrown together a fine combination of comedy, scenery, and clothes, and in addition have shown rather keen judgment in selecting their principals.

SEE WHAT THE ALBANY ARGUS of Tuesday, Sept. 12th, 1916, Says: "THE SPORTING WIDOWS" IS A BURLAPQUE TRIUMPH Empire Show Establishes New Record—Harry Cooper Heads Great Song and Comedy Cast.
Once again Jacobs and Jerome are furnishing the big news of burlesque. After hitting the local bull's eye square in the middle with their "Big Review" at the Empire theatre two weeks ago they take another shot and hit it in the same place, only about twice as surely, which means that "The Sporting Widows," which opened the week at the Empire yesterday afternoon and last night is a great show. No matter how many spectators you need to describe your delight at "The Big Review" you will need an entirely new and more powerful set with which to sing the praises of "The Sporting Widows."
