Township voters over whelmingly defeated the Board of Education budget and elected two of three candidates backed by the Clark Taxpayers Coatition, in Tuesday's School Board Election.

The total vote on the $4.828,179 tax levy for current expense was 1,160 against and 649 in favor. That on the capital out-levy of $100,000 was 1.121 in favor and 600 agast. The three highest vote getters, who won three-year terms on the education body, were incumbent, had, 330. Thomas Faria, with 910, and the two coalition-backed candidates. John J. Dil-1 voting districts-five-cast lon and John Schneider, with 904 and 895 votes reballots every year. The budget was also despectively. The current Board pres feated by the biggest margin in Valley Road, with curident, Mrs. Eileen Mezzo, rent expense going down 395-to-178 and capital outran fourth with 851 votes to 819 for Melvin D.
