Council: We want Inman Ave. exit

By R.R. Faszczewski Clark's Township Council March 18 gave its unanimous approval to a resolution urging the state department of transportation to construct an entrance and exit for the Garden State Parkway at nman Ave., Colonia. The township has been fighting for the last several months to have the Inman Ave. exit constructed because of what it calls the burdensome increase in traffic in Clark caused by the Clark circle at Exit No.

According to Second
Ward Councilman William Caruso, one of the leaders the support of the Union Freeholders, of all the rest Union County and of

Middlesex County for the Councilman Caruso told The Clark Patriot Philip Cerria, the mayor of Woodbridge, has proposed an exit near the Metropark train. station in Iselin which may relieve some of Clark's truffic problems, but the councilman is not at all sure it

Commenting on the opposition of Rahway Mayor Daniel L. Martin and the Rahway City Council to the Councilman proposal, Councilman Caruso said Rahway is too far away from the actual traffic problem in Clark to actually be concerned about

The Rahway officials have protested the proposed exit, claiming it will cause increased traffic congestion in the areas of Inman and Lake Aves, and result in decreased property values.
