RAHWAY PUBLIC LIBRARY 1175 ST.G ORGES AVE. RAHWAY.NJ. 07065

VOL. 21 NO. 37

'A Voice for All, an Echo for None'

CLARK, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1987

USPS 115-760

A REAL TON

C TTRAARY

New hope for Hyatt

CP

by Pat DiMaggio Hyatt Clark Industries (HCI) might yet survive if a ed that certain machinery New York bearing company can iron out dif ficulties with creditors. HCl filed for protection under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in January. The em-ployee-owned company. which made roller bearings for the automotive in dustry, faced bankruptcy when General Motors, its major creditor, withdrew a three-year contract. The plant, which employed 700 people, was due to shut down on August 31. The had been sabotaged, accor-ding to HCI President Howard Kurt. An auction held on July 14 in Trenton before Bankruptcy-Judge William H. Gindin drew two bidder for the property located on 85 acres totalling one million square feet in Clark responsibilities. and Cranford. Hartz Mountain Industries, Secaucus, offered $17 million for the buildings and land on Raritan Road and another company offered $16

million for the land, buildings and machinery. Judge Grindin rejected both creditors. The low bids were | tradename "Hvatt Clark." reportedly in response to Now the bearing corporathe Environmental Cleanor | tion has been allowed to Responsibility Act's order develop a plan to purchase that the oil-contaminated HCI and to restart the plant property be improved in Clark.

estimated at a cost of $18 General Motors is reportnillion. HCl is currently edly interested in reviewing. negotiating with General Motors over the clean-up the possibility of resuming the purchase of its bearing products from the new cor General Bearing Corporpany.

ation of Blauvelt, New York, purchased all General Bearing Cormachinery equipment and poration has received a 30-day extension of its purremaining inventory as of August 31 for $5.4 million at the auction. At that time, chase agreement from United States Bankruptcy General Bearing Corpora-Judge William F. Tuohey to try to satisfy HCI's creditors to see if they can tion also purchased trade plant was closed early, bids as not being high drawings, existing contract creditors to see if they c however, when it was learn enough to satisfy HC1 rights, patents and the reorganize the company.

1987 graduate Laura Agugliaro, pictured here with Assistant Principal, John Hutchinson, A.L.J. was honored as the Outstanding Distributive Education Club Student at Johnson Regional this year and was the reci-plant of the Clifford M. Peake, Word Processing and Johnson Business Faculty awards by virtue of her forts in the Business Education curriculum at A.L.J. Laura received these honors at the annual In-School Awards Program at Arthur L. Johnson.

Teachers tentatively

Elementary schools renovated

by Pat DiMaggio

Students returning to Clark's elementary schools geable emergency lights, this fall will be mot with an The kitchen door is bei improved environment due to the Board of Education's major summer project plan. According to Business Administrator/Board Secretary H. Edward Flanagan, repairs have moved accor ding to schedule at the three elementary schools governten classrooms, 30 light fix ed by the board. tures were replaced, 38

At Valley Road School the antiquated gas hot I flushometers were replaced in boys' and girl's bath water system was replaced. rooms and there has been the boiler water feed pump extensive painting in halls, was repaired, four classoffices and classrooms. rooms and the cafeteria Carl H. Kumpf School were retiled and four repaired outside doors and classrooms were painted, the emergency gas gener-The outside kitchen door jator. All flourescent light and railing will be replaced covers were replaced, an air In addition to upgrading as well as the non-charconditioning unit was added to the new, larger computer The kitchen door is being replaced at Frank K. Hehnroom, a back flow preven tion valve was installed and School and other outside all broken outside window doors are being repaired handles and latches were replaced. Five dead trees were remov ed from the school grounds and cafeteria step railing are currently being install ed. Blowers were cleaned in school facilities, al ballfields have been scraped and graded with the appropriate clay mixes, accor ding to Flanagan. Weed killers have been utilized to help maintain a clean infield

Clark American Legion sends delegates to convention

The American Legion Post 328 of Clark, with a vocate Nelson Metchatouski: Past Commander William Wirth and Trustee inembership of 450 for the 1987 year, will be 1987 year, will be represented by nine Joseph Rybak. Commander McArdle delegates at the Department announced that a 50s Nite will be held on Saturday, of New Jersey Convention Oct. 3, starting 7:30 p.m. in Wildwood today through Saturday. The delegates attending the convention from the Tickets are $10 per person. Tickets are $10 per person. Clark Post are Commande At the Union County

Donald McArdle; Sr. Vice

Commander John Specht;

Ir. Vice Commander James

Kehoe: Finance Officer

approve contract by Pat DiMaggio in each year was discussed Teachers have returned by the Board of Education o school this week pending at their regular meeting held approval of a contract by on September 8. Clark Board of Educa-The board hopes to vote tion and the Clark Educaon the contract, at their tion Association (CEA). September 22 meeting. The CEA intends to hold A three-year contract of fering a 9 percent increase a meeting to ratify the con-tract on September 16, ac-cording to CEA Vice President Dolores Downs. are extremely pleased with the package," and Downs. Starting teachers present-ly earn $18,500 per year with a top range, with a Bachelor's Degree, of $36.380. said Downs. The CEA is the bargaining unit for teachers, secretaries, custodians, maintenance personnel and bus drivers in Clark who have been without a contract since June 30.

MENTALLY AWARE .... Senator Donald DiFrancesco and Governor Thomas Kean are pictured at the signing of the involuntary commitment bill, sponsored by DiFrancesco, which will provide major improvements in the care and treatment of the metally ill. Under the law, a mentally ill person could be committed against his will for 72 hours of evaluation only if this illness would result in his being a danger to himself, others or property.

Polish school to open Sept. 19

courses ending in May. Classes will be held Satur-The Polish Cultural Foundation, 177 Broad-way, Clark, will be opening a Polish Supplementary days, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Polish language, history, School for children aged 5-14 on Sept. 19, with geography and customs will be taught. Students will be ship for 1987 is required. The director of the school grouped by age and Polish is Eugenia Anisko of Clark, teacher in a Polish suplanguage proficiency.

25 CENTS

business ea

Regional board

by Pat DiMaggio The Union County Re-gional Board of Education warded a bid for two diagnostic engine analyzers to New Jersey Auto Test in the amount of $28,430 at their regular meeting held last week. The analyzers will be usd at Arthur L. Johnson High School in Clark and at David Brearly Regional High School.

The board also gave its approval for two students from Johnson to attend a earbook workshop at Gettysburg College, Pennsylvania. Eleventh graders Maris Cutinello and Joanne Goldberg attended the workshop August 9-13.

The salary adjustment of Mrs. Nancy Dougherty was proved by the board from $31,700 to $32,900 for attaining thirty credits in addition to the Master's Degree, and the retirement resignations of Mrs. Inez Wagner, a clerk at Johnson and Mrs. Donna Owlett, a teacher aide, were accepted. Mrs. Wagner also received $1,050 for 70 unused sick days.

In other business, the board:

 Approved the following teacher asignments in the Basic Skills Improvement Program: Mathematies. Erica Broderick. Richard Fleischer, George Hills, Mildred MacLehose Jeanne Bury, $1,325.

Arlene Schwartz ınd English, Arlene Allen Susan Dougherty, Ralph Johnson, Paul Kaiser and Kathryn Zigmont. -Approved the enroll ment of a student from Clark in the special needs vocational program at the Union County Vocational School in the small engine repair program at a cost o $840 for the school year. -Approved the addition of John Notchey of Clark to attend the Union County Vocational Center in the Diesel Mechanics Program

-Approved the follow ing instructional personne for first semester early-morning classes: Douglas Felter.

SAT English, $2,100; Richard Esandrio. SAT Math. $3,150; John Aragona, Chem Lab, $1,180; Harry Cardinale, Chem Lab, $948.58; John Mattson, Bio Lab. $1,171.42; John Maikos Bio Lab, $1,237.14. -Awarded a savings bond for perfect attendance to Thomas Galiszewski, a teacher at Johnson. -Approved the follow ing appointments: In-tramurals Coach (fall) Jack Maikos, $707; Head Cross Country Coach (girls), Tracy Hayden, $2,018; Cheerleader Coach (fall), Jeanne Bury, $1,043; Cheerleader Coach (winter). Cheerleader Coa

number of large corporate

School

book.

William Cox; Historian membership program for Theodore Lambach: Adju-1 the 1987 year. tant Ray Grimes; Judge Ad-The awards were presen-

> Prominent artist donates work to benefit auction

meeting held in August, the

Clark Post received citations for their accomplishments and leadership in the

The etching print to be Noted Springfield artist Helen Frank is among several who will be auctioned is titled "Mexican Children" and depicts a scene in a Mexican or-phanage run by the Salvalonating art objects to ar auction benefitting the tion Army. According to the artist, there is a poigmion County Arts Center in Rahway on Sept. 18. Her donations include a limited nant story behind one of the depicted children - a edition etching print and a boy with a parrot on his self-published "artist's shoulder. "When he first proved at Mrs. Frank's reputation the orphanage," Mrs. Frank as a painter of children's Dance in Saratoga Springs. portraits is among the explains, "he was very sad at the loss of 'his friend' (the several credits that have its kind in America. Two of parrot). Orphanage officials made special arrangements carned her a write-up in "Who's Who in American Art." Her work is the artist's works are cur rently on view in the gallery to reunite the boy and hird of the former Dodge estate represented in two promiand the episode had the proin Madison. verbial happy ending. nent museums and in a The print measures 3x16 collections and is on inches (16x20 inches with con mat) and is valued at $200. signment to galleries in New Jersey, New York City and Boca Raton, Florida. Mrs. Frank's second donation is a copy of a self-Besides her full-time oc published "artist's book." which she considers one of cupation as an artist, Helen is a part-time special teacher of gifted children in the Sprher more gratifying achievements. "An artist's ingfield public schools and book," she explains, "is a

A $3 donation is required work of art in the form of a teaches a class in drawing for admission. Further in and painting in the Unior book." The book, titled formation may be obtained "Menopause," explores the County Regional Adult by phoning the Arts Center emotional aspects of the Bt 499-0441 membership for the 198 year. Senior Vice Commander

The other citation was for achieving a 105 percent

subject as viewed through

Many Union County

esidents are familiar with

Mrs. Frank's work through her illustrated county map,

which has been distributed

free through the county library system. More recent ly, she designed the opening commemorative poster for the National Museum of N.Y., the first institution of

The benefit auction

which will offer oppor-

variety of goods and services, including small antiques, craft items and other art objects, will be held at the Knights of Columbus

Hall in Rahway on Friday, Sept. 18 at 8:15 p.m.

tunities to bid on a

the eyes of 15 women.

ted by Department of New leeman Charles Brame. The first citation was for Meritorious Service, surpassing the previous year's membership, by

members:

Day.

Jersey Executive Commit-

John Specht is asking all members of Post 328 to send in their dues for the 1988 year prior to Veterans

26

$190,000 targeted for town repairs

The Clark Township Council approved bond ordinances for final adoption ted and a new air condition at a special meeting held on ing unit will be installed. eptember 8.

A bond ordinance in the amount of $190,000 for the ed a bond ordinance in the improvement of public proamount of $250,000 for the perty, buildings and grounds was approved by acquisition of a new fire engine number and a bond the council. ordinance in the amount of This ordinance covers $500,000 for the 1987 reconstruction of the Police Road Improvment Pro-Department including ingram. terior and exterior renova tions, a new air conditioner The council authorized and a mublic address system the Director of Law to Municipal offices at the abandon the defense of the Brewer School are also intax appeal filed by the cluded in this ordinance Polish Cultural Foundation consisting of renovations on and approved the insertion the interior and exterior, of an item of revenue in the windows, the heating budget in the sum of system and drapes, rugs, air $13,412.03 from the New conditioning and a new public address system. Jersey Recycling Program Fund. Recreational facilities will also be improved.

Support group for diabetics

The American Diabetes sociation, Union County Chapter, announces the for mation of support group meetings. The first will be meetings. the first will be held Thursday, Sept. 17, 7:30 p.m. at 1101 South Avc. W., Westfield. Meetings will be led by Carol Manchester, R.N., M.S.N., C.D.E. Phone 655 7440 for fam.

Phone 654-7449 for fur ther information.

Registration may be made in person at the foun-dation office Mondays through Fridays, 8 a.m. to 4 The roof of the Public Library will be reconstrucp.m., except Wednesdays, when hours are noon to 2 p.m. The foundation office phone number is 382.7197. Registration by mail will The council also approv also be accepted.

extended through Septem-

Many classes still have openings available. Offer ings vary, ranging from career development courses to "just for fun" courses, in-luding computer programming, word processing, upholstering, auto mecha-ber 25.

Elizabeth for many years. The Education Commit tee includes Diana Gaza of Maplewood, director of the Studies Program; Jane Gomolka of Fords, a Polish language teacher, and Josephine Cukier of Moun-tainside, vice president of Cultural Programs.

Tuition is $10 per month for the first child, $7 per month for all other children. Family memberlementary school in

Registration extended for adult school

The Union County Re- 1 guages, birds of New Jersey. gional Adult School has anexercise programs, real nounced mail registration is estate preparation, antiques and bridge.

Several single-day bus tours have also been arranged for this term.

Registrants may inquire about receiving a brochure or about space availability for specific courses by calling Nancyanne Kopp, Director of Adult and Conti-Education, at nuing 376-6300, extension 276.

nics, various foreign lan-

BASIC MERITS....Carolyn Cospito (second from left) and her father, Mr. Gabriet Cosolto (second from right), both of Clark, discuss the merits of the Union County Regional High School District's Summer Basic Skills Improvement Program with Mr. Raiph Johnson (right), a teacher of English at the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School, during the program's closing session at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield. Looking over the work completed by her daughter Carolyn is Mrs. Camille Cospito (left).