

The Daily Record's Magazine Page--Bright Reading for the Family

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

SIN-CONSEQUENCE.

She seemed at the reception-which comes to most of us human creatures sooner or later--that she may be forgiven, but consequences are eternal.

The exterior is from a recent novel. The heroine of the story is a woman of recurrent and pique breaks with the man she loves and marries one for whom she cares nothing.

The awakening was a fearful one. She discovers that sin and its consequences are as the same atom.

However--That which makes her most of all is that "a crazy moment should ruin a whole life."

"It was as if a pebble should deflect a river from its course and make it turn and overturn a landscape."

And then--Suddenly it seems to her that her whole life had been just a sunny slope down to the edge of a cliff.

It is not the pebble that turns the current. It is the sunny slope that in view it. All her life Elizabeth had been living this moment, just as some of us are living this moment.

How true an exposure of human nature! Men and women do not go wrong in a moment. They do not fall suddenly from a precipice. They tread primitive paths of dalliance down a sunny slope to the cliff.

No action is isolated. Each link in the chain. Once the chain is broken, the whole is broken. Thought, feeling, action, habit, destiny--these are the links that in the chain.

A link is false in one particular--a lie, a mean or cruel or lustful, and nothing comes of it. But--The consequences follow.

The man is started down grade. The descent to Avernus is easy. Later he is launched on the foggy slide. When he least expects it he has reached the bottom. He is amazed to find that one little act has spelled ruin.

It was not the "crazy moment"--it was the "easy slope," the life tendency which invited the rash moment.

"Sin may be forgiven, but its consequences are eternal!" Because "the easy slope."

Partner. Followed--How do they summer boarders of your keep here?

Andrew Robbins: This place golf. F. F.--What in Sam Hill's shirt? R. R.--As near as I can make out it's solitary shilling--Toledo Hotel.

The Greatest Old Bone. Methuselah's cheek--"I remember a summer just like this, 70 years ago!" he cried. Alarmed, the others shut away--New York Sun.

ARRANGING. ARRANGING. ARRANGING. How do you do that? How do you do that? How do you do that?

I wandered alone and free! Through the park I've tried these things. But now I'm in a different place. I feel in these arms.

How little upon the breezy cliffs At sunny noon I've stood. How close at hand the sea is. How close at hand the sea is.

That dawned along the food. With daylight's parting light. How sought that Eden in the light. How sought that Eden in the light.

That Eden where the immortal being Dwell in a land serene. Where flowers beyond the shining were At sunset oft are seen.

As dawn too full of adoring truth! How close at hand the sea is. How close at hand the sea is.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

For the Woman

JUST HEARD.

Two Toned and Fringed Effects in Millinery.

The dark tinge on white hats and the colored fringes on many other hats are signs of this.

A draped turban of tulle has the edges of the silk which forms the crown.

The awakening was a fearful one. She discovers that sin and its consequences are as the same atom.

However--That which makes her most of all is that "a crazy moment should ruin a whole life."

"It was as if a pebble should deflect a river from its course and make it turn and overturn a landscape."

And then--Suddenly it seems to her that her whole life had been just a sunny slope down to the edge of a cliff.

It is not the pebble that turns the current. It is the sunny slope that in view it. All her life Elizabeth had been living this moment, just as some of us are living this moment.

How true an exposure of human nature! Men and women do not go wrong in a moment. They do not fall suddenly from a precipice. They tread primitive paths of dalliance down a sunny slope to the cliff.

No action is isolated. Each link in the chain. Once the chain is broken, the whole is broken. Thought, feeling, action, habit, destiny--these are the links that in the chain.

A link is false in one particular--a lie, a mean or cruel or lustful, and nothing comes of it. But--The consequences follow.

The man is started down grade. The descent to Avernus is easy. Later he is launched on the foggy slide. When he least expects it he has reached the bottom. He is amazed to find that one little act has spelled ruin.

It was not the "crazy moment"--it was the "easy slope," the life tendency which invited the rash moment.

"Sin may be forgiven, but its consequences are eternal!" Because "the easy slope."

Partner. Followed--How do they summer boarders of your keep here?

Andrew Robbins: This place golf. F. F.--What in Sam Hill's shirt? R. R.--As near as I can make out it's solitary shilling--Toledo Hotel.

The Greatest Old Bone. Methuselah's cheek--"I remember a summer just like this, 70 years ago!" he cried. Alarmed, the others shut away--New York Sun.

ARRANGING. ARRANGING. ARRANGING. How do you do that? How do you do that? How do you do that?

I wandered alone and free! Through the park I've tried these things. But now I'm in a different place. I feel in these arms.

How little upon the breezy cliffs At sunny noon I've stood. How close at hand the sea is. How close at hand the sea is.

That dawned along the food. With daylight's parting light. How sought that Eden in the light. How sought that Eden in the light.

That Eden where the immortal being Dwell in a land serene. Where flowers beyond the shining were At sunset oft are seen.

As dawn too full of adoring truth! How close at hand the sea is. How close at hand the sea is.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset. As sunset and as sunset.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Colt That Played Practical Jokes

Jack.

"And I fell off three times," added Evelyn. "I didn't look funny, either," objected Evelyn. "I don't care, any way, can they daddy?"

"Well, I've never heard of," said daddy, "that I can tell you a story about a colt that loved to play practical jokes. This colt's name was Bill. His master was a doctor."

"When Bill was old enough to be left alone, I am sorry to say, he very often got into mischief. At first, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

"Now, my friend the doctor had a little boy named Robbie, and Bill was given to him. Robbie loved his colt and never failed to see that he had water and that he was comfortable. But there was one thing Robbie very often forgot--that was to lock the gate of the field in which Bill was kept."

"One day, when they put him in the barn, they did not let him to him up as they did the other horses. But Bill went about upsetting things, pulling down harness from the wall and poking his nose into everything. It was at last thought better to leave Bill out in the field at night during the summer."

Cotton Work

Humor and Philosophy

By SUGAN N. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

RECIPROCALITY may or may not be desirable. Who cares about it any way as long as the home front is safe?

The summer girl has a genuine horror of worms and she finds the book worms most detestable of all.

The rain of tears is a relief of tears to most men.

Some folks are a lot of comfort out of thinking about what is going to happen to their neighbors in the here after.

The girl who would wear a corset necklace with a rose pink gown would be guilty of feeding a French-poodle suetcrust and bologna sausage.

We don't hear anything nowadays of the farmer who blows out the gas. He must have slipped to Chicago with the city girl who wants to see the one that gives butter milk.

A motorcycle doesn't cost as much as a motorcar, but it makes a lot more noise.

When it was time for the young man to go home he used to wind the clock and put out the dog, but now he just sets the photograph--playing "We won't go home till morning."

Why is it that half a dozen young fellows in a motorcar can't have a drive without violating the people in the back country?

It takes a lot of hard work to run a farm, but that is one of the things that the real estate man never mentions to the gullible city man.

Quite Visible. The vessel rolled into a fog. There was an awful thickness. Their range of vision was obscured. They were lost.

The Way of It. "None but the brave deserve the fair." "That may be, but the brave don't stand to get it at this hotel unless he leaves also the rich."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

Redeeming Point. "His crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Humor and Philosophy

By SUGAN N. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

RECIPROCALITY may or may not be desirable. Who cares about it any way as long as the home front is safe?

The summer girl has a genuine horror of worms and she finds the book worms most detestable of all.

The rain of tears is a relief of tears to most men.

Some folks are a lot of comfort out of thinking about what is going to happen to their neighbors in the here after.

The girl who would wear a corset necklace with a rose pink gown would be guilty of feeding a French-poodle suetcrust and bologna sausage.

We don't hear anything nowadays of the farmer who blows out the gas. He must have slipped to Chicago with the city girl who wants to see the one that gives butter milk.

A motorcycle doesn't cost as much as a motorcar, but it makes a lot more noise.

When it was time for the young man to go home he used to wind the clock and put out the dog, but now he just sets the photograph--playing "We won't go home till morning."

Why is it that half a dozen young fellows in a motorcar can't have a drive without violating the people in the back country?

It takes a lot of hard work to run a farm, but that is one of the things that the real estate man never mentions to the gullible city man.

Quite Visible. The vessel rolled into a fog. There was an awful thickness. Their range of vision was obscured. They were lost.

The Way of It. "None but the brave deserve the fair." "That may be, but the brave don't stand to get it at this hotel unless he leaves also the rich."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

Redeeming Point. "His crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

DRY AWHILE, THEN WET IN MAINE

Figures Conflict and Results Still in Doubt.

SALEONS LATEST VICTORS.

Verified Returns Every Few Hours.

Other-Prohibition Organ Concedes Defeat by Small Majority.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14.--The election in this state is as much "wet" as it is "dry," and early today neither side was claiming the victory with any degree of confidence.

The most dramatic climax yet in the series of elections that has attended Maine's referendum election came when George W. Norton, secretary of the No License League, conceded a victory to the "Wet" by a margin of 400 votes, when two hours before the voters all over the state had voted to the conclusion that the "dry" were sure winners.

Mr. Norton based his figure on the face of returns received from the secretary of state's office, where an account, supposedly, gathered by the Express-Advertiser, a prohibition paper, and by the No License League and giving a majority of 543 votes for the repeal of the prohibition amendment.

Verified returns from 400 towns and cities were received, giving a "dry" majority of 2,200 votes. Four cities and thirty-seven towns were not included in this list. According to the special and Associated Press reports from these places, the thirty-seven towns gave a majority of 400 for the "dry," making a "dry" majority of 2,600 without the four cities.

That the four cities, Lewiston, South Portland, Rockland and Old Town, have an aggregate "wet" majority of 3,000, offsetting the "dry" majority and giving a majority of 543 votes for the repeal of the prohibition amendment.

Here are the figures. Portland, Me., Sept. 14.--A total vote has been given out by the secretary of state. It is as follows: Yes, 60,225; no, 60,370; majority for repeal, 150.

The total vote on given out by the Associated Press follows: Yes, 60,241; no, 60,088; majority for retention, 153.

There was an awful thickness. Their range of vision was obscured. They were lost.

The Way of It. "None but the brave deserve the fair." "That may be, but the brave don't stand to get it at this hotel unless he leaves also the rich."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

Redeeming Point. "His crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a blood girl and his mother doesn't approve."

"What's she going to do about it?" "Get a brunette to give him treatment."

"Why?" "Because none but the rich can pay for the fare at this hotel."

Indignant. "See that man?" "Yes, Dotie. What of him?" "He's crazy in love with a

UPTOWN GROCERY

A Hearty Breakfast should be eaten by all who have work to do during the day. But with many people breakfast has to be very tempting or it is not eaten. We Have A Host of Breakfast Foods that will tempt any appetite. Pancake flour, syrup, cereals and what not. Come and ask to see them.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY SPECIALS

- 3 Cans Dutch Cleanser 25c
- 6 Boxes Matches 23c
- Presto Package 11c
- 3 Cans Gold Cross Exp. Milk 25c
- 3 Cans Campell's Soups 25c
- Large Bottle Sniders' Catsup 17c

ALBERT YORKE
(SUCCESSOR TO JOHN FARRELL)
125 West Grand Street
Telephone 18-J

The Best Meats
and Only the Best may be had at
J. Fetter's Market
75 IRVING STREET
We also carry a full line of FRESH VEGETABLES. Direct Wire. No waiting. Phone 306. Goods delivered.

B. WIMMER
Meats - Delicatessen

156 Main St. Rahway, N. J.
Phone 346

NEW STORE Groceries, Provisions
Fruits, Vegetables
Special Low Prices for
Friday and Saturday
M. PACEWITZ
184 MAIN STREET, RAHWAY, N. J.

Eat Ice Cream?
Then Get the Best in Rahway
Buying From Rubin
Made of the Purest and Finest Materials.
Also Carry Full Line of CANDIES, etc.
S. RUBIN, 157 WEST GRAND STREET
RAHWAY, N. J.
TELEPHONE 327-J

ROTH-CO

RAHWAY'S LEADING MARKET
14 Cherry Street, Telephone 42-w
QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS

FOLLOW THE CROWD TO ROTH-CO DEEP CUT IN PRICES FRIDAY and SATURDAY

Solid Meat	Best	Best	Prime
POT ROAST	SIRLOIN STEAK	CHUCK ROAST	RIB ROAST
12c lb	16c lb	11c lb	14c lb

SUGAR CURED HAMS AND BACON
To Be Sold At Cost, Friday and Saturday Only!
HAMS 16c BACON

Legs	FULL LINE OF FRESH VEGETABLES	Loin
SPRING LAMB	Large Assortment of Fresh-Caught FISH	LAMB CHOPS
14c lb	Sealshipt Oysters	16c lb

SIX QUART BASKET APPLES,
SIX QUART BASKET POTATOES,
SIX QUART BASKET CARROTS,
SIX QUART BASKET ONIONS
29c BASKET

HAGAMAN'S UP-TOWN MARKET

198 West Grand Street, Rahway, New Jersey
Specials for Friday and Saturday

Best Elgin K. Creamery Butter, 31c lb	Verdant Valley Print Butter, 32c lb
FLOUR 14 1-lb Ceresia 75c 14 1-lb Gold Medal 75c 14 1-lb Peerless 70c	BROOMS Bamboo Handles No. 6 35c No. 7 30c
POTATOES 33c peck	White Beans 9c quart 3qts for 25c
Portuguese Sardines in Olive Oil 9c a can	Chow Chow PICKLES 9c a jar
Olives Plain 9c bot. Stuffed 9c bot.	White Beans 9c quart 3qts for 25c
Portuguese Sardines in Olive Oil 9c a can	Chow Chow PICKLES 9c a jar
Olives Plain 9c bot. Stuffed 9c bot.	White Beans 9c quart 3qts for 25c

Meats, First Quality, Always at Lowest Prices

Legs Lamb 15c pound	Rib or Loin Lamb Chops 18c pound	California Hams 10c pound	Shoulder LAMB CHOPS 14c pound	Plate Beef 3c pound
Pot Roast 12c pound	ROUND or SIRLOIN STEAK 18c pound	PORTERHOUSE STEAK 20c pound	Stew Lamb 10c pound	Roast Beef 14c and 16c lb

All Feeds, Hay and Straw No. 1 Timothy Hay $1.30 a hun.

Old Oats $1.25 bag	Bran $1.40 bag	WHOLE CORN $1.45 per bag	MIXED GRAIN $1.90 per bag	GROUND FEED $1.40 per bag
Meal $1.48 bag	Red Wheat $1.55 bag	COOD WHEAT $1.90 per bag	Alfalfa, Molasses $1.65 per bag	CRACKED CORN $1.48

WE DO NOT DELIVER FEED AT THESE PRICES

Rahway Daily Record.

VOL. I. NO. 28. RAHWAY N. J., FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 15, 1911. SERIAL NO. 28

WALSHITES ACTIVE THROUGHOUT THE CITY

Success of the Plan to Govern Rahway With Three Men

LOCAL CLERGY APPEALED TO

September 26 Official Day for Voters Of This City to Decide the Question at the Polling Places

An appeal to the pastors of the various local churches to preach the doctrine of commission government on the 26th day of September, was made this morning. Just what success the Walshites have met with, it is impossible to ascertain. It is known that the leaders of the commission plan have been making use of the mails during the past twenty-four hours to reach their supporters. Literature setting forth the alleged benefits has also been widely distributed. It is now certain that the question of whether commission government shall prevail or not, will be submitted to the voters on September 26. Following is the text of the city attorney's opinion, given at the request of the city clerk.

Charles H. Lambert, Esq., City Clerk, Rahway, N. J.

Dear Sir:—You have requested me to advise you as to whether or not the election for the commission form of government and the general primary election shall be held upon the same day, namely, the 26th day of September, 1911. With respect to this question, I advise you that there is no provision of the election law which will postpone either the primary election or the election for the commission government beyond the 26th day of September, 1911, but that both elections must be held on the same day and at the same time and with the same election officers. The further question as to whether the election shall be conducted by the new board with the additional number of polling places proposed by law or whether there shall be but five polling places I beg to advise that the election in both cases must be conducted in the entire number of polling places as they now exist under the supervision of the new board of election and registry.

Very truly yours,
FRANCIS V. DOBBINS,
City Attorney.

Out of the total of 813 signatures on the petition for commission government all but 14 have been certified by City Clerk Lambert. These names were of voters who did not vote at the last Assembly election and therefore not eligible. This means the advocates of the Walsh act have secured a total of 804 signatures when but 384 were needed. If 50 per cent of the Assembly vote cast their ballots for Commission government and that 80 per cent exceeds the opposition vote it will be adopted. The plan has aroused much interest in all circles of this city. As yet the people have not lined up in distinct fractions for or against it. There is a strong feeling in certain quarters of the city that the measure will be adopted and in other sections that it will be defeated by a big majority.

GRAND PIANO CONTEST

This Certificate is good for a Credit of Ten Cents in the Competition for a Steiger Piano, to be awarded the winner of the contest. The contest is open to all who obtain the largest aggregate credit.

PLEASE CREDIT

Cut-out and give this certificate to your favorite organization.

THOUGHT MAN WAS DEAD

But Officer Shows Excited Citizen It Was Only Walgo Sleeping

Partisan Kinnealy on duty at headquarters, yesterday-morning, was startled by an excited stranger who rushed in and informed him that a man was lying in the ally across from Monroe Street with a broken neck. Kinnealy lost little time in covering the distance between "Police Headquarters and Monroe Street." On his arrival he found George Walgo lying on the ground sleeping off the effects of the night before. With the assistance of A. J. Langer he was taken to the station house.

Walgo was arraigned before Judge Buckley in the Police Court this morning and fined $5. This is not his first appearance before the local authorities.

PRINCETON FOOTBALL STARTS

Football practice has opened in earnest at Princeton. First practice of the season was held at "Fungletown" yesterday-afternoon. Twenty-two men reported for practice and were having been put through the usual physical tests and their weight taken. They were sent out upon the field, Coach "Bill" (Tupper and MacGregor) expressed themselves as well pleased with the physical condition of the men. Captain Hart and Henderson, who are held but took no part in the practice.

PTOMAIN VICTIM WORSE

Man Attacked Yesterday Seems to Suffer More Than First Victims

It was reported this morning that Arthur Mead, the latest Rahwayian to be attacked by ptomaine poisoning as a result of the Yacht Club dinner, was not so well. Mr. Mead after having passed a comparatively comfortable day, took a short walk last night. He returned to his home and was shortly after attacked with a violent chill followed by a high fever.

This morning Joseph T. Mead father of the sick man, said that his son was in a bad condition. Dr. G. B. Gallaway is attending Mr. Mead. All of the other Rahwayians who were members of the Yacht Club and had a number of them being by this time entirely convalescent.

FIRST FOOTBALL SATURDAY

Football is coming in with the chill air at Rahway as well as everywhere else. On Saturday morning the first game of the season will be played on the grounds of the Washington Public School, when a team representing that school will meet the Franklin School eleven. An interesting game is expected.

At a meeting of the football team of the Washington School yesterday afternoon Uno Hallen, the former coach of the Main and Cherry Street teams was elected Captain and John Kie-sucker manager. It is expected that before many days have passed the new manager will have arranged a full schedule for the present season. Washington will line up on Saturday morning as follows: Uno Hallen, Captain and fullback; Harry Armstrong, right halfback; John Kie-sucker, left halfback; Walter Springer, quarterback; Nicholas Dumphy, right end; Frank Mackeral, left end; Calvin Ste, right tackle; Michael Her-mas, left tackle; James Minter, right guard; Austin Lander, left guard; Thomas Conway, center. The substitutes will be Harry Hughes, George Rhineholmer and John Zievers.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farrell and their sons, Leslie and Stanley; Mrs. Charles V. Post and her daughter, Miss Elsie; Mr. and Mrs. E. Hamill and their daughter, Henrietta; Mrs. E. Farrell, Mrs. George Schwindinger and her daughters, Adele and Margaret; the Misses Jane and Anna Gardin; Mrs. William Gardner, Alfred and Leo Du-mas, Gertrude and Thomas Sullivan, Miss Payne, Grace Clark, Edmund and Allen Hamill.

Miss Caroline Platt returned to her home in Roselle yesterday after a visit with Miss Jane Morse, of Campbell Street. The visit was very pleasant and she will return to her home in Roselle tomorrow.

David Wright, of Syracuse, N. Y., is visiting his father, Chief of Police Wright.

EVERY EVENT OF IMPORTANCE

In Rahway during the past four weeks has been covered by the RAHWAY DAILY RECORD the next day, so that when it appeared in other papers it was stale news. Moreover the RECORD has stood for a progressive, upbuilding, policy to such good effect that, aided by the city's wide-awake business men, it has succeeded in launching a Board of Trade which will put into effect the "boom" spirit that has been planted in the breast of all the citizens.

This is a pretty good month's work and it is convincing evidence that the city now has a flourishing daily paper, an asset without which it could not hope to take its place among the state's best cities. It should be the pride of every resident who has the city's best interests at heart to support the paper, so that the second month will be even more of a triumph than the first.

During the current week the mechanical facilities of the plant are to be improved and Rahway will get the benefit of an even better daily paper than it has had.

LODGE BUYS THE EDGAR MAIN STREET PROPERTY

Junior Order of American Mechanics Will Erect Business Building

The Rahway branch of the Junior Order of American Mechanics yesterday afternoon concluded the purchase of the Edgar property located at the southwest corner of Lewis and Main Streets. The Council plans to erect a modern business building, a part of which will be used for a lodge hall and club room for the members. This action of the Union Council is one of the most progressive moves undertaken by any fraternal society in this city in some time.

The property is a plot about 67x100 feet and is located in the center of the business section of the city. The purchase price has not been made public, and the sale was conducted through John J. Coffey.

Union Council has been holding its meetings in Union Hall for several years past. Since its inception the membership roll has been steadily growing and the treasury has grown proportionately. It is a source of pride to the members that the lodge has been able to purchase this property.

Some time ago the members agreed to purchase property and eventually erecting a clubhouse and lodge room. The matter lay dormant for a long while but at a recent meeting it was again discussed and a special committee was appointed to act in the matter. With trustees George C. Miller, E. C. Clark and H. Morton, the special committee consisting of Assistant Master C. A. Moore, Walter Shrier, and H. H. Voorhes, investigated several properties which were advertised for sale. The Edgar property was selected and received the approval of the Council at its last meeting.

It was stated this morning by a prominent member that it would probably be some time before the building was started, as certain local details would have to be arranged. It was also stated that the building would be erected on the site of the property which was selected and received the approval of the Council at its last meeting.

Another plan that will probably meet with general favor has been advanced, billboard advertising along the line of the railroads from New York.

Through the day for "burying the hammer" has not been definitely decided upon. It is said that it will be a day during the early part of next month. This day will be advertised through this part of the country. Parades of civic and probably military organizations will be held. Rahway will go into party dress for the occasion and the "hammer" secured by the people and the societies, will be taken to the edge of the city and buried just beyond the city limits with appropriate ceremonies.

PIGEONS TO RACE AGAIN

Another pigeon race between the homing pigeons of Commissioner Adler and Charles Koenig, the Main Street grocer, will take place on Sunday. Four pigeons, two from each of the respective camps, will be taken by their owners to Gettysburg and let loose.

Commissioner Adler requests all people who are going to take advantage of the low fare to the historic battlefield on that day to leave word with Louis Hamm at his barber shop on Cherry Street. The railroad has agreed to stop the excursion train at Rahway if ten people will signify their intention of taking advantage of it. This will mean the saving of the additional fare to Newark as well as after an hour's time.

Miss Agnes Halliday, of West Grand Street, is preparing a course of lectures on the "History of the City of Rahway" to be given at the Y. M. C. A. building on Saturday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Franklin, Eugene Company will have a sale of their new stock of goods on Saturday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

RAHWAY STOPS SATURDAY

Locals Will Have Last Chance At Team That Beat Them Twice

When the sun strikes on Saturday night the baseball players of the Rahway Athletic club will shoulder their bats and leave the field for the last time this year. On Saturday afternoon a fitting climax to their unusually successful season, the local ball-players will play the last nine of the Corona R. C. club from Long Island. This is the only team that succeeded in beating the Rahwayans during the season of 1911.

At a special feature a base running race between Clark, the local pitcher, and third-baseman Nibbunge for a gallery at the Ilderan Club to watch the fast team games in the annual tennis tournament. The interest of the spectators was divided owing to the absence of two of the club's best players who were contesting for the Empire Kelly will judge the event and see that the runners touch the bases.

LOCAL PLAYERS WIN IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Welcomed At Ilderan Club

Yesterday afternoon found a large gallery at the Ilderan Club to watch the fast team games in the annual tennis tournament. The interest of the spectators was divided owing to the absence of two of the club's best players who were contesting for the Empire Kelly will judge the event and see that the runners touch the bases.

FEARFUL NIGHT PASSES

Watching and Waiting For 24-Hour Libel Threat To Be Made Good

All was excitement in the Record office last night. The various employees, down to the much-abused "devil," were gathered in groups about the place talking with bated breath. Outside the wind blew, and the hurried footsteps of the postmen were all that broke the silence. Now and again the door would be opened on a crack and some one would peer out and report back, "all quiet."

A sudden rap on the door without warning caused a scene of consternation. "The devil" jumped for the nearest window and looked out into the night. "Who is there?" he queried. An answer came back in a stage whisper, "has the summons been served?"

Several sets of the club tournament series were played off yesterday on the courts. In the mixed doubles Mrs. Berry and Mr. Miller played Miss Nathalie Edgar and Mr. Gray, the former winning 6-3 and 6-2. Then Mrs. Berry and Mr. Miller won again over Mr. Berry and Miss Dunham, score 6-0 and 7-5.

The men's singles were played at the same time. D. W. C. Gray against F. Dobbin, the latter losing to Mr. Gray by 6-2 and 6-2.

Wednesday W. Peterson won against W. Freeman, score 6-4, then 6-4 and 6-4. In the girls doubles Miss Woodruff and Miss Langstroff scored 6-2 against 2-6 of Miss Robinson and Miss Dorothy Dunham.

On the reception committee at the club were: Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Lind-say, Mrs. Ackley, Mrs. W. E. Berry, Miss H. Collins, Mrs. L. Dunham, Miss Dorothy Dunham, Miss Nathalie Edgar, Miss Louise Gordon, Miss Gibbons, Mrs. J. B. Farber, Miss Layton and Miss Emily Marsh.

AN EXPLANATION

To the Public:—It having been published in two newspapers, that I have knowledge and would testify to the same regarding the realization that the danger was real, I wish to hereby publicly state that I have no knowledge whatever of any such boycott nor have I ever given expression to anything that could be construed as having such knowledge.

Signed,
NATHAN POLLACK.

Dated Sept. 15, 1911.
Main Street and Milton Avenue Rahway, N. J.

Franklin, Eugene Company will have a sale of their new stock of goods on Saturday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Franklin, Eugene Company will have a sale of their new stock of goods on Saturday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Franklin, Eugene Company will have a sale of their new stock of goods on Saturday afternoon at 7 o'clock.