ARRESTED AFTER HE ENTERED IRVING ST. BLACKSMITH SHOP
Policeman Bartz Caught Man Entering Hardware Store and Following Him In To Put the Handcuffs On
SAYS HE SOUGHT TICKETING

Had Lost Railroad Ticket, He Told Judge and Merely Wanted A Place to Spend the Night

Frank A. Allen, who said he was a printer, was arrested by Patrolman Bartz at a late hour last night inside the blacksmith shop of Samuel A. Harwood on Irving Street. Allen was arraigned in the local police court this morning, charged with burglary and sufficient evidence was found to hold him in $500 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. He will be taken to Elizabeth in default of the necessary bail this afternoon.

Patrolman Peter Bartz at a late hour last night detected a man prying open a window in the blacksmith shop. He waited until the prowler had disappeared inside the window and proceeded to follow him. Drawing near the window he saw the man striking matches and peering about the place as though looking for something.

Slipping a leg over the window sill Bartz followed the man into the room and a moment later a surprised individual was tumbling at the hands of the man's wrist.

"This morning testimony in the case was heard before Judge Buckley. Mr. Allen, who gave his name as Frank A. Allen, and his address as 325 West 125 Street, New York City, he said he had been a member of the printer's union for 27 years.

Mr. Harwood said the man entering his shop last night and witnessed his capture by the policeman. He praised the work of Patrolman Bartz in making the arrest and said that the man was probably after his tools.

"Allen, when placed on the stand, told a peculiar story. He said he had left Trenton in the morning to go through to New York but lost his ticket and got out at Rahway. He said he was looking for a place to sleep last night when he was arrested.

Questioning by the court brought out the fact that prisoner had been arraigned before "Battery Dan" Finn, former magistrate of the Jefferson Market Court in New York on charges of intoxication before. He also admitted having been arrested on several occasions, but in each case said he had been discharged.

Allen pleaded with the judge to allow him to leave town and go on to New York, where he said he had a job waiting for him. The prisoner said he had been drinking and laid his trouble to this. The court, however, refused to listen to his plea and held him in $500 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

When the man was arrested he had with him an alarm clock he said he had purchased in Trenton. Sergeant Conner on the supposition that the clock had been stolen is working to secure evidence of the fact. It is this proved an additional charge will be made against the prisoner.

TAKE FISH OUT OF LAKE
Game Warden Takes Hundreds of Bass and Catfish to Other Lake Safely
Wagon loads of fish are being daily removed from the old Milton Lake and are being transferred to nearby streams. Yesterday game warden Hester removed 3,500 catfish and 700 large-mouth black bass, and he states that the lake is still well stocked with fish.

The warden and a number of assistants have been taking the fish from the pond in huge nets. They have a specially constructed wagon on which has been placed a big tank of ice and the fish are drawn from the lake they are carried into the tank. They are being carried to Bloodgood's and Jackson's pond, and placed back in the water. Very few of the fish have been killed in the process of removal from the lake to the other waterways, and the game protectors are very much pleased with the work.

For many years Milton Lake was one of the best spots of Union County and within a few weeks all that will remain of the picturesque body of water will be the black mud bottom. Nearly all of the lake has now been drawn from the lake, and when the fish are removed the last water will be taken from the stream. It is expected that when the bottom of the lake is exposed many interesting and curious articles will be found.

PROMINENT MEN WITH ELKS.
Many prominent members of the local lodge B. P. O. E. were present at the Wednesday evening supper held in the lodge rooms of the order. Chief among those to receive the attention of the diners was Thomas Fyfe, candidate for mayor on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Fyfe was given an ovation by his brother Elks. During the supper ex-mayor Holmes and Henry Lauphar were among those who spoke.

The committee in charge of the affair comprised Frank A. Englehart, Sydney Harris, George L. Kirchner, Charles Leonard and Gustave Jacobs. Music was furnished by a stringed orchestra.

LINCOLN'S BODYGUARD DEAD.
Washington, Sept. 28.—W. S. Lewis, bodyguard to President Lincoln during the Civil War, and for thirty-five years until death at the White House, where he was well known to twelve Presidents, died today. Death resulted from a stroke of apoplexy which he suffered three weeks ago and he has suffered a great deal of pain since the latest convulsion.

RECEPTION AT Y. M. C. A.
Sec. Tompkins to Be Introduced to Association and Friends Tonight
The opening social event of the season will be held tonight at the Young Men's Christian Association when Sec. Tompkins will be introduced to the association and friends. Speeches will be made by several well-known Y. M. C. A. workers, and a pleasing program has been prepared for the affair.

The principal address of the evening will be made by Merton L. Beebe, well-known worker among the various branches of the Y. M. C. A. In this state, Mr. Tompkins will tell of the season's plans, and some members of the Board of Directors will attend and help make the evening a pleasant one. The Ladies Auxiliary will furnish the refreshments and a special committee will have charge of the entertainment.

The Tandy orchestra will furnish the music and some popular local entertainers have offered their services. Songs will be rendered by a quartet of the boys.

TRAMP FIGHTS WHEN SHERIFF GETS HIM
Paulsen Interrupts Three in Midnight Gaiety and is Attacked.
Late last night when the good people of Clark Township were tucked away in bed, Deputy Sheriff Paulsen was awakened out of sleep by two of his neighbors who informed him that a party of vagrants were celebrating in a barn on their farm. The sheriff hurried into his home, grasped his trusty club, and sallied out into the night.

His midnight disturbances had gone on ahead of him and the sheriff was forced to pursue his melancholy duty alone. As fast as his legs would carry him he hurried to the spot. Nearing the barn Paulsen started to reconnoiter. Finally after some negotiation he succeeded in getting the door open and peering around the corner he saw just in time to see the door thrown open and his assistants, who had been leaning against it, bowed him on the greenward as two men leaped out.

Paulsen with a flying leap was just in time to prevent the escape of a third man and bracing himself against the door awaited the recovery of his companions.

As Farmer Riepel and his assistant recovered from the shock a conference was held. Here was indeed a difficult proposition. Three men of acknowledged valor on the outside and another of unknown quantity on the inside presented the name of their candidate. The election will take place at the city clerk's office on October 9, and the polls will be opened at four o'clock in the afternoon and will close at eight o'clock in the evening. All free men in good standing will be allowed to vote.

A prominent freeman speaking of the election this morning advanced the idea that it would be good policy for the fire department to come to an agreement this year to elect the Assistant Chief of the department to the chief's place. He said that if it could be so arranged each year that an experienced assistant could be made chief it would be a great help to the department as it would always leave a man thoroughly acquainted with the details of the system in charge of the department by making a man as assistant chief for two years, he said it would be safe to say he would be well equipped for the office of chief when he was elected. The same fireman spoke of the necessity of having the department heads thoroughly study local conditions especially with regard to the schools and the big two-story houses where a fire is often likely to spread. He said he would like to see the policy carried to the extent of knowing the exact "lay of the land" in all of the big plants.

and with the loss of considerable money, he said, he had been in the local, only to be informed that the case was outside the jurisdiction of the local court. Paulsen will have to wait until the next session of the court to see the case. At the end of the night he said he was very much tired.

Tells Judge of Her Suit Before Wife Has A Chance
John Horvick, a Hungarian of Essex Street, appeared before Judge Buckley in the Police Court last night and reported that his wife had deserted him for the fourth time within the two years of their married life, and that he wished the judge to know, and a pleasing program has been prepared for the affair.

The principal address of the evening will be made by Merton L. Beebe, well-known worker among the various branches of the Y. M. C. A. BASEBALL SEASON ENDS
El Cid A. C. Will Close Contests With Last Game at Reformatory Field
The El Cid baseball team will once again meet the strong Rahway Field club team at the Riverside Park grounds tomorrow afternoon, and a great game is expected as the rivalry between these teams is very keen. Brennan and Goodwill will be the battery for the El Cids and Vanderhorst and Collins will do the honors for the Field Club. Both teams are primed for the game and are confident of victory.

At the Reformatory grounds on Sunday afternoon another game will be played when the El Cids will meet the Cranford colored team. The game will be played at 2 o'clock. The El Cids have played some of the best amateur teams in Jersey and have made an excellent record this year.

Big crowds are expected at both games as the season is rapidly drawing to a close, and the fans are sure to be on hand for every event. The colored giants will be the last team to be played by the El Cids, and the supporters of the local boys will attend in large numbers.

DEFINITE PLACE IS FIXED FOR "BOOST RAHWAY" MEETING
Committee Chooses Baur's Hall As The Setting on October 9, of Public Demonstration for Movement
START THE BOARD OF TRADE
At That Time The New Organization Will be Definitely Put Under Way and the Work Started

On Monday evening October 9 at Baur's Hall on Irving Street a general mass meeting of the citizens of Rahway will be held. The Board of Trade committee will submit its report to Rahwayans as a whole on that night and the citizens will proceed to launch a permanent organization.

William M. Davis of the special committee appointed by the committee of fifteen to select speakers for the evening said he was in communication with two prominent men from out-of-town organizations of a similar nature and unless the unexpected intervened he thought they would be present to give advice.

A report on the bylaws of the organization will be read. This report is of a comprehensive nature and entirely covers the ground in as concise a manner as possible. The bylaws of the local organization are based upon those submitted to the committee by the Newark Board of Trade, the New Brunswick Board of Trade, the Wall River Chamber of Commerce and other organizations.

YOM KIPPUR ON MONDAY
Local Hebrew Congregation Observes Day and Many Stars Will Close
The most important holiday in the Jewish calendar, will be celebrated in Rahway as elsewhere on Monday.

When the first stars appear in the heavens Sunday evening, October 29, they will usher in the day of atonement for the Jew in his entire religious calendar. From that hour until the evening of the following day, October 30, the devout Israelite will give himself entirely to God, and to the purifying of his soul by repentance. It will be a day spent by him in meditation and prayer, with no thought of the world, its profits and pleasures.

Atonement begins with the evening of the 29th. At that time the Jews will observe a fast. The fast is a solemn commemorative service for the dead. This is followed by the Neilah, or closing service, in which the main ideas of the day are especially emphasized: repentance, conditioning forgiveness and God's sealing the decree of man for the ensuing year.

LOW WAGES PREVAIL ABROAD.
Washington, Sept. 28.—Low wages compared with the American standard are paid to railroad employees in Baden according to a report by United States Consul S. H. Shunk, stationed at Mannheim, Germany. The average yearly wages of engineers are given as $1,000, brakemen $800, conductors $700, and locomotive engineers $600. The lowest wages of $400 are paid to assistant engineers. The total number of officials in the railroad system is 11,525 and of workmen 15,874.

The mileage of the state system is 1,470 miles. In the last year 52,628, 226 persons were carried 730,460,591 miles, with a good record as to no accidents.

There were thirty accidents last year, two passengers were killed and thirty-one injured. The German railroad system is well known for its safety.

AUTO HOLDUP WITH GUN-PLAY.
Another attempted holdup was added to the list of such crimes that have recently been committed on county roads hereabouts, when on Tuesday night, William Schorb and Thomas Timbo, driving an automobile from South Plainfield were stopped on the Plainfield Road by two men who suddenly appeared in the road ahead of them and signaled to stop the car. Thinking that possibly the men wanted information or help, Mr. Schorb stopped the car, as soon as the car came to a standstill one of the men told him to step out of the car.

Mr. Schorb took in the situation at a glance and pulled a revolver from his hip pocket. Seeing this move the other man pulled a gun, but Schorb, who had covered Timbo, seized the opportunity to start the car, and drove off. The man, however, was not deterred and followed the car and started to get out of the car and started to get out of the car.

It is supposed the man who shot at Schorb and Timbo, was the same man who was shot at by the police on the Plainfield Road. The man was seen to be armed with a revolver.

Several members of Manchester Lodge, of the Woodmen's Circle, attended the harvest dance of the Woodbridge circle held last night at Woodbridge. They were royally entertained by the Woodbridge circle, and they returned last night well pleased. They extended an invitation to the officers of the Woodbridge Circle to attend their Halloween dance to be held on October 30.

The annual meeting of Court Rahway, Foresters of America, was held last night at Odd Fellows Hall and a very efficient board of officers was elected for the ensuing year. They are: chief ranger, H. Hoffman; sub-chief ranger, John Connors; treasurer, A. B. Kirslein; secretary, F. W. Robinson; recording secretary, Charles Schaefer; senior woodward, R. D. McKel; junior woodward, Ernest Roll; senior beadle, H. Bennett; junior woodward, W. Rand; trustees, Louis Buzan, Harry Chapin, George Helms; lecturer, C. W. Muntell; past chief ranger, J. J. Healey.

One new member was initiated last night by the degree team under the direction of the retiring chief ranger, J. J. Healey, and three applications were received and sent to the membership committee.

HAPPINESS A BY-PRODUCT.

"How can I be happy?"

The question has been asked since the world began, and men and women have given up their lives to find happiness and were disappointed. They have tried to buy it, and no one has it for sale.

Almost anything else we want in this world we can win by trying. But we are so built we cannot get happiness that way.

Happiness is a by-product of life. You know a by-product is the thing which is left over from the manufacture of an article. It is not the chief thing; it is so that which is produced on the side.

Thus in the manufacture of steel the by-product is patent.

The chief business is the smelting of the ore into steel. The patent is the by-product.

So is happiness a by-product. It is something that comes to you when you are not directly concerned in getting it.

Make happiness the chief business of your life and you will be miserable. You are trying to make the by-product the chief thing.

Happiness comes this way: If you are healthy and normal you should be happy. If that about which you are busy is congenial you enjoy your task. Then there comes to you satisfaction—happiness. It is the by-product of congenial labor.

Therefore, The busiest people in the world are the happiest.

And conversely the idle people are the most miserable.

See those who have nothing to do and are amuse themselves. Life becomes a bore. The greater effort they make to entertain themselves the greater their misery. They grow tired of themselves.

That is consoling to you. You are busy, and sometimes you envy those who do nothing but seek pleasures. Busy not, but busy. They are slaves.

Only the worker is free. In the enjoyment of the power that is in you through pleasant labor you find freedom and incidentally happiness. Happiness is a by-product.

What Would Happen?
"If your father refuses to let me marry you, what then?" he asked suddenly.
"Then mamma and I will have to give him a piece of our minds," she replied.—Detroit Free Press.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Teddy, a Dog Who Knows the Days of the Week

I WANT to tell you about a smart little dog by the name of Teddy Jones. On, at least, his name is Teddy, and the name of the little boys who own him is Jones.

Ernie and Jack were at once ready for a story. "Is this a true one, daddy?" they asked.

"This is quite true. Teddy's home is in Englewood, N. J., on the western side of the famous Palisades.

Teddy was not always the little Jones boy's dog, and I am afraid he had not had a very pleasant life before he came to live with the Joneses. The way that came about was this: One day the Jones boys, Ernest and Harry and Walter, asked their mother if they might run out and play in a grove of trees and bushes near their home. Their mother said yes and of their run.

"When they reached the woods they heard a queer noise and, looking about, they found a little black dog tied up to a tree by a rope. The rope had been too long and had slipped so that it was tied about the limb, so that the dog was just able to stand on the tips of his hind legs.

"The Jones boys cut him down in a jiffy, and although the poor dog was frightened and hurt, he did his best to make friends with them, fearing, no doubt, that they might be as cruel as his last master and try to hang him again.

"So Teddy, as this little dog was called, came to live with the Joneses. He was a very agreeable little fellow, and the two big white cats and six mice of the Joneses loved him and let him play with them.

"Teddy soon showed a taste for visiting. The Joneses go on the hill road every Sunday and once in the middle of the week to visit grandma who lives on the top of the Palisades. Teddy soon learned on what days these visits were made.

"Later, when the boys or Mrs. Jones would be halfway up the road, Teddy would come from behind some bush or come running along behind and bark joyfully, as much as to say, 'Now, after all, aren't you glad that you didn't let me up?'

Teddy used to go to school with the boys and bring them home. He knows at just what hour Mr. Jones gets home in the evening and, in fact, knows the hour and the days of the week so well that his friends cannot help believing that he can count.

How to Make Oil Pickles.
Wash the cucumbers thoroughly and cut off all bruised or spotted parts. Put in an earthen crock, cover with water and add salt until an egg laid in the water will float to the top. Let stand twenty-four hours, then pour off brine. Put in glass jars or, if large, one gallon crock use one-quarter of a pound of browned salt cut in pieces. Cover cucumbers with mustard seed, two large handfuls of dill, several whole peppercorns and pour in vinegar to the brim and pour in over the pickles. They must be covered with vinegar. Turn the crock over in a stove, cover, tie with white cloth over it. Keep in a cool place. If jars add some small red peppers and small white onions.

PETITION OF MAIN STREET OWNERS IS READY FOR MAYOR

Documents in Favor of Paving Signed by Some Who Were Tricked Into Opposing It Previously

ALLEGAN PRICE IS GREATER

Figures Prove Conditions of Allegan Contract Make Cost More Than Price of Main St. Paving

It is expected that early this evening the petition of the property owners in favor of the immediate paving of Main Street will be presented to Mayor Howard. Angered by the attempt made to deceive them into holding up the paving several of the property owners who signed the petition against it have withdrawn their names and have signed the petition favoring the improvement.

Foremost among these is Joseph Wagoner, the chairman of the Main Street property owners, and the man who presided at the meeting at which the first petition was presented. When the trick was exposed by the Record Mr. Wagoner was the first to denounce it. William O'Donnell, who also withdrew his name from the petition against the paving and has signed the petition asking for immediate action to be presented to the mayor to-night. Other property owners have taken their names from the petition when they understood it was intended to hold up the paving, and are now on record as favoring the improvement. It is said that many of those who signed the petition against the paving are in favor of it, but that they were tricked into signing it by the promise of a reward of $100.00 if the paving was not completed by the first of October.

It is believed the Mayor will sign the contract when he investigates the petition and finds that the property owners, and more especially the business men, are decidedly in favor of having the work done.

The feeling among the business men against the man who is generally credited with having tried to stop the paving is very strong and has served to bring them closer together in the move to have the work done as soon as possible. One of the prominent property owners said yesterday, "The attempt to stop this work when all the property owners were in favor of it was a most contemptible piece of business. In this case the men of this city are performing a public service and duty, and are doing a great deal for the advancement of their property and of the city at large. Such a man is not needed. The individual who tried to stop the paving is a disgrace to the city and is a healthy sign of progress when we find people ignoring his stupid and malicious attacks."

The new petition favoring the paving contains as a feature the list of names of the property owners in favor of it. It is a list of names of the property owners in favor of it. It is a list of names of the property owners in favor of it.

It has developed that J. B. Furber, in his testimony before the Committee investigating committee was wrong about the paving contract in his home in Allentown, Mich. He said that a contract had been awarded at $180 for Metropolitan, Mich. and that he conditions were identical with those of Rahway regarding freight rates and specifications.

SERVICES AT ST. MARY'S
Father O'Brien Invites Men To Hear Jesuit Father Tomorrow Night

The services were at 8 p. m. and at 8 p. m. the early morning service was given and at the evening service a doctor sermon was delivered by Father O'Donnell. On Thursday evening he spoke of the "End of Man," and made a strong impression on the big gathering of men who attended the service. Last night the sermon was on "Sin." The speaker defined sin and clearly explained the dogma of the Catholic Church as to the various kinds. Father O'Donnell is a forceful and eloquent speaker and has gained much favor among the men who have attended the mission.

Special vaudeville service will mark the close of the mission tomorrow night and a special choir will sing.

SICKNESS REPORTED AT SCHOOL OPENING

A Few Slight Infectious Cases Being Watched by Health Board and Quarantined

With the opening of school, three cases of diphtheria have been reported to the local Health Board. None of the affected children are dangerously ill, but a strict quarantine is being maintained to prevent the spread of the disease.

Ethel Farr of Monroe Street was one of the first of the little girls to be affected. She took sick several days ago, and has been attended by Dr. Young. She is reported to be getting along nicely and is out of danger.

Other members of the family have been quarantined, and the children have been kept from school. The school of Ethel's was at first believed to have been caused by diphtheria, but it was learned on positive authority this morning that the little girl had died from an organic disease.

Another little diphtheria patient is Raymond Rhodes, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rhodes of West Grand Street. Raymond is reported to be steadily improving under the care of Dr. Chadwick, and the Health Board is enforcing the quarantine as strictly as possible. It is known that the quarantine was lifted yesterday on another case.

Dr. Seils, the medical officer to the board who has in past years taken special charge of the quarantine and spread of contagion in these cases is now on his way home from Europe, and it is believed he will be in this city next month.

It was said this morning by a well-known physician that the few cases reported were not unusual at this time of the year. He said the opening of school were always marked by the spread of a few contagious cases.

Westfield Judge Dismisses Complaint, After First Complimenting Them

Judge Collins of the Westfield Police Court, after hearing the evidence in the case of the Public Service Company against Messrs. Shannon, Carpenter, Brannan, McMillen and Mulvaney of this city last night discharged the men with a reprimand. Over sixty Rahwayans, friends of the young men, went to Westfield with them.

Warrants were sworn out by John L. and John Wiegand of the Public Service Company, charging the young men with having acted in a disorderly manner at the Junction station late one night of last week. Attempts were made to bring the case in the local court but Judge Buckley refused to handle it on the ground that it was out of his jurisdiction.

John Wiegand, the agent of the Company at Westfield Junction, claims that the young men in question loitered in the local court but Judge Buckley refused to handle it on the ground that it was out of his jurisdiction.

The Rahwayans when called to the stand told a straight-forward story. It appears that on the night in question a large number of young people from this city attended a dance at the Junction. On the return they missed the last car. Not caring to spend the night at the Junction they tried to charter a special car but were unable to do so. They then requested Wiegand to let them remain in the station until the first car in the morning came along.

Wiegand refused to do this, stating he had no room. He hit one of the party over the head with the butt of the gun, knocking it from his hand. At the moment the pistol was in the hands of the Rahwayans who refused to give it up. They returned to their cage and called up the Rahway police. The party started to walk home at this point and on meeting the city line were stopped by Patrolman Thompson of the local force who took a number of names.

Judge Collins this morning when seen by a representative of the RHC-OKD, complimented the many and gentlemanly bearing of the Rahwayans. He could see no reason for holding the boys arraigned for making it a practice in Westfield to be loitered in American whenever the opportunity presents itself. And this was one of the points.

LOCAL BOWLERS TRIUMPH
McCartney and Graves Beat Opponents From Westfield For Second Time

Walter O. Graves and P. J. McCartney of this city won the bowling series against Mooney and Miller of Westfield at the McCartney alley last night. At Westfield last Friday night the local men captured four of the five games played, and last night they won two out of three games played, giving them the necessary six out of ten games. Eight games were played; the remaining two being unnecessary.

The scores last night were all high, and the games were interesting. Mooney bowled 145, 172, and 189; and his partner bowled 145, 186 and 200. Graves bowled 202, 183 and 177, while McCartney bowled 188, 193 and 183. The games were played in preparation for the Elks tournament which will start next Tuesday night in this city.

It was said today that Rahway will have a team in the Inter-city league this year, a meeting was held at Newark yesterday at the Iquoile alley and preliminary plans were discussed.

Y.M.C.A. RECEPTION IS GREAT SUCCESS

Crowds on Hand to Greet J. E. Tompkins the New Association Secretary

Many members and friends were in attendance at the Young Men's Christian Association on Irving Street last night to welcome the new general secretary, J. Edward Tompkins, and to take part in the opening social event of the fall season. Merton L. Beebe, a former secretary of the Rahway branch, was the principal speaker of the evening. Mr. Beebe is remembered as one of the best secretaries ever in charge of the local branch, and when he arose to speak he was enthusiastically applauded. He said he felt very happy to be in Rahway for a few days, and he was very glad to see in the audience many men who had been members of the boy's branch of the institution when he was secretary.

He commented on the progress of the institution in recent years, and complimented the young men on having secured Mr. Tompkins as the new secretary. He closed with a few words on the meaning of the Y. M. C. A. and spoke of the uplifting work in which they were engaged.

Secretary Tompkins responding to repeated calls spoke a few words on his plans for the coming year, and he mapped out a very encouraging program. He spoke of the different branches of the work, the social activities, the religious service, and the educational work, and made a very favorable impression. He was followed by Athletic Instructor Lister, who outlined his plans for the work in the physical department of the institution.

Tandy's orchestra rendered several selections, and George Mingo sang a few popular songs. Refreshments were served under the direction of the ladies auxiliary, and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed. About twenty young men from the Borough of Newark, N. J., attended. They were members of the branch at which Mr. Tompkins was secretary before coming to Rahway. Among those who were present from this city were: Mr. L. L. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Young, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodruff, J. G. Gervaise, P. Williams, W. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley J. Jeffries, W. W. Russell, G. Stacey, W. Stacey, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, W. G. Smith, P. H. Smith, O. G. Gervaise, and George Harvey.

REPORT OF JUSTICE
BUCKLEY POINTS TO POLICE EFFICIENCY

Rigid Enforcement of New State Law About the Lighting of Vehicles The Cause of Many Arrests

One of the most extensive reports received from police court justice of recent years has been presented to the police committee by Judge John W. Buckley. Over $170 in fines was collected at the court by the judge and 55 cases handled. All but $20 of the $170 will go to the police fund.

Included in the 55 cases are three that come under the jurisdiction of the state. One was a case of reckless driving for which a fine of $20 was imposed. The money received from this fine is sent to the State Bureau for the Regulation of Motor Vehicles. The other two are also state cases coming under violations of the forest, fish and game laws.

The arrests in the two cases above mentioned were made by Warden Hobbs at Milton Lake. Under the law any one caught fishing with a contrivance or net in any of the waters of the state is liable to a fine of $20 for each offense or 90 days in the County Jail. The men were unable to pay their fine and were sent to the County Jail.

Two cases were held for the action of the Grand Jury. One for burglary and one for assault and battery. Both of these cases will come up at the fall sitting of the Grand Jury.

With a total of sixteen disorderly persons out of the whole number of cases, this class heads the list. Arrests for drinking after sundown without proper carriage lights accounts for some more of the total. The local police have been instructed to enforce this law rigidly and the results show they have obeyed orders.

Seven were arraigned on charges of disorderly conduct, six as disorderly persons, six for larceny, and one for each of the following: offense—non-support, burglary, violation of the city ordinance, assault and battery and alleged larceny.

The most significant feature of the report is the number of convictions following the arrests. There were convictions in almost every case brought before Judge Buckley by the police men of the city. This points to the fact that this city is enjoying police protection of which it should be proud.

The record of the local department compares favorably with those of other cities of its size throughout the State.

HOSPITAL BIDS OPENED TODAY.
Bids for the tuberculosis sanatorium which will be erected by the county at Scotch Plains will be opened this afternoon at the special meeting of the tuberculosis committee which has the matter in charge. Several bids will no doubt be received. As soon as the contracts are awarded the work will be commenced and within a short time the sanatorium which will be the benefit of the county will be under way. The committee will be in charge of the work.
