POWERS MOVE TO BRING WAR TO END

Germany Trying to Force Settlement With Italy.
Supplies in Tripoli Short

Negligence of Turkish Government and Failure of Great Result in Food Shortage—Italy Said to Be Willing to Purchase Tripoli.

Constantinople, Oct. 3.—No definiton of the new cabinet's policy is probable before the convocation of parliament on Saturday. This indicates the strength of the party of Union and Progress.

The government still hopes, despite the failure of its first advance to Germany, that the efforts of Baron von Biebertstein, the German ambassador at Constantinople, will result in a settlement of the conflict with Italy.

The safe arrival of the Turkish fleet in the Dardanelles helps the peace advocates.

The criminal negligence of the late government has left Tripoli short of arms and ammunition and the grain crops there having failed the last season, there are no food supplies in reserve.

The question of suzerainty rights over Egypt is being raised here.

London, Oct. 3.—At last the news, which Germany as the most active agent, are taking definite steps to arrange matters between Turkey and Italy in such a way that each nation shall "save its face" and so bring to a condition which, if not averted, may provoke a serious conflict.

The German emperor has come out squarely as a peace-maker, and the German ambassador at Constantinople has been proposed on his royal mission to Italy, the latter undertaking that Turkey shall receive adequate monetary compensation therefor.

It is held in diplomatic circles here that Baron von Biebertstein, the German ambassador at Constantinople, would not have been instructed to work so actively as he is doing at this time in addition to the obvious settlement between Italy and Turkey if the emperor had not been assured that Italy was willing to consider these activities in a friendly spirit.

VANDALS AT WORK IN AUSTIN RUINS

Number of Victims Will Not Exceed 110.

REPORTS EXAGGERATED.

Greatest Difficulty Now Confronting Officials is Recovery of Bodies—Must Get Fire to Wreckage Soon to Prevent Pestilence—Only Twenty-four Bodies Recovered.

Austin, Pa., Oct. 3.—Now that the facts of the Austin flood can be made clear, it is known that the stories told from this devastated town respecting the death loss were grossly exaggerated. The roll of dead will not exceed 100. There are twenty-four identified bodies and a total of eighty-six reported missing. The authorities say that there may have been strangers in the town who were drowned—twenty-four bodies have been recovered.

The greatest difficulty now is the recovery of bodies from the thousands of tons of wreckage that choke the narrow valley. More men are needed to help in the work of lifting the timbers, and destroyed houses buried in certain parts of the town and strewn along the valley from this place to Castello. The officials say that unless the wreckage is cleared away within twenty-six or forty-eight hours and the bodies dug out, it will be necessary to apply fire to the debris as a means to prevent a pestilence.

Something like organization came out of the energetic but confused efforts of Sunday and yesterday. A steam log roller grappled at the high pile of splintered beams in a narrow front of the Bank of Austin. The grapples have established a free channel for the debris and the grapples and steamers have been working for the debris as a means to prevent a pestilence.

POWERS MOVE TO BRING WAR TO END

Germany Trying to Force Settlement With Italy.

Negligence of Turkish Government and Failure of Great Result in Food Shortage—Italy Said to Be Willing to Purchase Tripoli.

Constantinople, Oct. 3.—No definiton of the new cabinet's policy is probable before the convocation of parliament on Saturday. This indicates the strength of the party of Union and Progress.

The government still hopes, despite the failure of its first advance to Germany, that the efforts of Baron von Biebertstein, the German ambassador at Constantinople, will result in a settlement of the conflict with Italy.

The safe arrival of the Turkish fleet in the Dardanelles helps the peace advocates.

The criminal negligence of the late government has left Tripoli short of arms and ammunition and the grain crops there having failed the last season, there are no food supplies in reserve.

The question of suzerainty rights over Egypt is being raised here.

London, Oct. 3.—At last the news, which Germany as the most active agent, are taking definite steps to arrange matters between Turkey and Italy in such a way that each nation shall "save its face" and so bring to a condition which, if not averted, may provoke a serious conflict.

The German emperor has come out squarely as a peace-maker, and the German ambassador at Constantinople has been proposed on his royal mission to Italy, the latter undertaking that Turkey shall receive adequate monetary compensation therefor.

It is held in diplomatic circles here that Baron von Biebertstein, the German ambassador at Constantinople, would not have been instructed to work so actively as he is doing at this time in addition to the obvious settlement between Italy and Turkey if the emperor had not been assured that Italy was willing to consider these activities in a friendly spirit.

JOB PRINTING OF ALL KINDS

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1911.

There should be a good deal of satisfaction to Rahwayans in the course of the election. When the upturn division came from the convention with the announcement that they would present no candidates for chief and assistant chief in the interest of harmony in the department. By their action these men have eliminated the possibility of friction that might conceivably have occurred in the election, and might have been a hindrance to the best efficiency of the department.

The firemen's action is a practical demonstration of what the "get-together" spirit can do. It would seem on its face. The members of the department have seen that they can eliminate the "politicians" of their organization and leave it undivided attention to fire-fighting rather than to fighting for office. They now stand shoulder-to-shoulder in carrying out the public work they are engaged in, and there is no little group to occupy a separate corner and act as a hindrance to progress just because the man they wanted chief, or assistant chief, was not selected.

Stronger politics and smoother conduct should be made by the citizens in general for the advancement of the "boom" Rahway spirit. They should follow the example of the upturn firemen. Nothing is more likely than that at the next convention the downtown men will stand aside and let their colleagues make the nomination.
And if the nomination is a good one, and calculated to work for the good of the service, as this year's did, it is likely that they will endorse it.

By this give-and-take policy a friendly and wise manner of settling a vexatious question will have been arrived at and the value of the department—which is what all its members are working for—will have been advanced.

Again we congratulate Rahway on another instance of the "get-together" spirit, which we are glad to see is slowly but surely replacing the old "stand-aside-and-roast" policy. Who can doubt that our city is on the threshold of coming into her own?

ALL FOR WILSON BUT ESSEX.
Trenton, Oct. 2.—A survey of the complete returns from the primary elections in New Jersey shows that the progressive democrats under the leadership of Governor Wilson have captured practically every county except Essex.

An examination of the primary results shows three significant facts: In every county except Essex, where supporters of Governor Wilson sought nomination to the assembly, they were victorious. In every county except Essex where the democrats have a chance of electing their candidates, Wilson supporters have been nominated.

Progressive democrats were nominated in twenty out of twenty-one counties of the state.

The first rehearsal of the up to date play "The Return of Deborah," was held last night in the parlor room of the Holy Comforter under the supervision of Mrs. R. D. Gibby, Cherry street.

GOOD THINGS IN RAHWAY

(Special Weekly Feature)
By James H. Craig

Is Rahway developing? According to those in a position to know, and there is no one who has a better knowledge of Rahway's growth than Mayor C. B. Holmes. Rahway is growing more rapidly than the casual observer would imagine.

A drive or walk about the city will reveal the fact that during the past year over one hundred new buildings, mostly residences, have been erected in various sections. Many are in various stages of completion, while still others are being contemplated. These are substantial indications of a steady, calm growth, and bears out the statement that Rahway is on the eve of a new era.

It can be said without fear of contradiction that the inducements of ered prospective home-seekers or manufacturers are superior to those offered by any other city anywhere.
This is not the fact that Rahway could not show the steady advancement that it has in the past ten years.
While Rahway is not in any sense a new city, it is a new era.

There is substantial inducement to offer those desiring a clean, homelike city in which to locate.

We have forty-five miles of "good streets and avenues, well kept, curbed and flagged, many of which are asphalted. All are lighted by electricity and well shaded. We can boast of supplying water from which is available later as the fire and police as it is possible to protect it through the medium of an up-to-the-minute fire alarm. Gas and electricity is available throughout the entire city for lighting, heating and cooking purposes. With good railroad and trolley facilities Rahway is well adapted to adjacent cities and the metropolis. Two banks, the Rahway National and the Rahway Savings Institution, with ample capitalization and large deposits, afford the best of banking facilities, while solid and substantial building and loan associations appeal to our thriftier people.

Progression is paramount in Rahway. Nearly every corner lodge is represented here and some of our orders rank among the strongest in the state, while all have a large following.
With good churches, good schools, good stores, an excellent police force, well equipped and efficient fire department, telegraph and telephone service, a healthy city and the hundred and one other inducements it is an incentive to "boom" Rahway.

With the passing of Milton Lake one of Rahway's most famous beauty spots has been practically lost, but let us not regretfully obliterated.
Much to the regret of old and young, this picturesque sheet of water, which in years gone has afforded many hours of pleasure for all who sought it, is a fond memory of the delightful moments spent along its border. In the summer, willing as we are to see the lake, the facturers of some rock, shady bank, with book in hand, gazing over the placid waters, or in deep meditation, or in gathering the wild-flowers, of which there was an abundance upon the hillside and in the dell.

In winter, with hundreds of com-pansions, skimming over the smooth, icy surface, enjoying the exhilarating pastime to its fullest extent.
While the lake with its many allurements is a thing of the past, the reminiscences remain, and the thought of the lake, which is a thing of the past, will prove a failure.

"The too fat woman should remember that she will be happier, and infinitely her friends will be also, if she does not constantly dwell on her size. Let her do her best and let her forget that she is larger than she wishes to be."

RECTOR ENTERTAINS CLERGY.
Dr. Charles L. Cooder, rector of St.
Paul's Church, entertained the members of the Plainfield Clergy on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 1. At 11:30 o'clock the party left for the New Jersey Reformatory where Dr. Cooder took on a tour of inspection of the institution.

Dr. Frank Moore, superintendent of the institution had lunch ready for the party together with the local doctor Cooder to join the party on his trip.
After luncheon Dr. Moore outlined his methods of dealing with the criminal and embryo criminal. From every viewpoint the matter was explained.
He outlined his methods from a psychological standpoint and told of the difficulties encountered in reaching the heart and understanding of the criminal.

Among the Rahway clergymen guests of Dr. Cooder were the Rev.
Dr. Torrence Stuebel of the Second Presbyterian Church, Rev. Lloyd Young, Graham, Jr. of the First Presbyterian Church and Rev. C. C. Wood, pastor of the Second Methodist Church.
Outstanding guests were Rev. William H. Nelson of Plainfield, Rev.
Courtlandt H. Mallory, Plainfield; Rev. Clarence S. Wood, Roselle; Rev.
Edward W. Hall, New Brunswick; Rev. Harry C. Hark, Westfield; Rev.
Harold V. Little, Elizabeth; Rev. John F. Fenton, Metuchen; Rev. Arthur S.
Pheasant, Bound Brook; Rev. Henry Hale Offord and Rev. G. S. Adair of

REAR ADMIRAL SCHLEY.

Here of Santiago Who Dropped Dead Into New York.

STRICKEN IN STREET

Spanish War Hero Dies Suddenly in New York.

New York, Oct. 2.—Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, retired, dropped dead in front of 22 West Forty-fourth street, at the corner of Broadway, at about 10:30 o'clock this morning, as he was being escorted by a military band.
The admiral, who was 70 years of age, had been in the city for several days on a tour of inspection.

Winfield Scott Schley was born near Frederick, Md., on Oct. 9, 1839. His parents were John Thomas and George Virginia Schley. He was educated at Annapolis and graduated in 1860.
When the Spanish war opened Schley, then a commodore, was put in command of the famous flying squadron in Cuba in 1898. He was one of the heroes of the battle of Santiago and was awarded the Medal of Honor.

When the Spanish fleet was located in Santiago harbor and forced to come out, Rear Admiral Sampson, who was in command of the blockading squadron, was killed while on the way to the battle. Schley, the New York Times left Schley in command and independently was the beginning of a controversy between Schley and Admiral Cervera's fleet.

Rear Admiral Schley wrote "The Rescue of the 'Albatross'" and "Forty-three Years of the Navy." He was married during the Civil war. He has three sons and two daughters. He was in the Spanish war and was awarded the Medal of Honor.

G. O. P. COMMITTEE TO MEET.

vention to Be Heard Dec. 12.

New York, Oct. 2.—After a meeting last night, the G. O. P. National Convention, which was to be held in New York, has been postponed to Dec. 12.

to host the convention. The G. O. P.
National Committee will meet on Dec.
12 to decide which city should host the convention.
