GIRL HELPED HIM FROM JAIL.
Paterson, Oct. 3.—When Cecil R. Gould, the young mining stock man, leaped again the air of freedom yesterday, after two weeks' confinement in the county jail, he had cause to rejoice in the unwavering loyalty of his sweetheart, Miss Elizabeth Curry, a nineteen-year-old schoolgirl of Paterson, West Virginia, through whose efforts Gould obtained his release.

Gould was arrested here two weeks ago by Detective Lord and Kessler at the Manhattan hotel, charged with defrauding a Paterson hotel keeper out of a board bill amounting to $110. The bill was outstanding over a year. Gould was released from the Paterson jail at the request of the chief of police of Paterson.

Immediately after his arrest, Gould telegraphed Miss Curry to send him $250. The girl not only sent Gould some money, but also managed to arrange for the payment of the amount due the hotel keeper. When this was done, last Saturday the Paterson police chief notified the local authorities and a discharge from custody was signed by Recorder Carroll. All further proceedings against Gould here at Paterson, the record man told friends here that he would leave town and conduct his business in New York.

MILTONS BEAT WEST ENDS.
The Milton A. C. and the West Ends football team, composed of young men of the city, met in battle yesterday and the latter team went down to defeat by a score of 5 to 2. Patience Kenneth Dittman made a thirty-five yard drop kick, while W. G. Gentry, the boys write us, made a "goal kick"—whatever that is.

TEACHERS LISTEN TO KENDALL.
Trenton, Oct. 3.—Delegates to the annual convention of the Teachers' Retirement fund association met Saturday morning in the assembly chamber of the state house.

The report of the secretary of the association, Miss Elizabeth Allen, was read to the assembly of delegates. This report shows that great progress has been made during the current year in the accumulation and investment of the association funds.

June 30 the fund was out of debt, all yearly annuities had been paid in full and $60,000 invested. The surplus on the year's business was shown to be $62,523.64. Deas of members amounted to $104,132.37. The 22nd anniversary of the association was celebrated by the delegates with a program of songs and a play.

The new state superintendent of education, Dr. Curtis N. Kendall, made an address of welcome to the members. The Mercer county branch of the association met in the court house in the morning and elected the following delegates to the state convention: Miss Mary C. Field, of the State Normal school; Professor Lewis C. Woolley, principal of the Joseph Wood school; Miss Ella MacPeters, of the Trenton Training school; Miss Olive Green, Morrisville; and H. D. Martin, supervising principal Irving and Lawrence townships.

TWO RETURN TO REFORMATORY.
Jersey City, Oct. 3.—Two young men sent to New Jersey State Reformatory for seven years and out on parole last week, were found in the rear of the Trenton street car, 20 Newark Avenue, shortly after 2 o'clock Saturday morning by Patrolman Tuite of the City Hall police station. They said they had gone in there to smoke on Tuite took them to the station for more latitude concerning their names, residence and occupation.

The prisoners said they were Edward B. Smith, of 30 East Third Street, New York, and Alexander B. Smith, of 115 East First Street, New York. When they were searched some silk handkerchiefs were found in their pockets and Smith had on him his parole papers from the reformatory. Captain Cady recognized them as two who had been sent away for arson about a year ago. So he sent Detective Sergeant Moran to New York and the detective found in the rooms of the two young men a lot of general furnishings that were identified later by Albert Lawrence, a merchant at 23 Montgomery Street, as goods stolen from his place about a month ago.

This morning one of Superintendent Moore's men came on from the reformatory and took both prisoners away to serve the remainder of their seven years.

WOMEN'S CLUB PROGRAM READY.

STRIKE ORDERS ARE LOOKED FOR HOURLY AT LOCAL FACTORY

Bookbinders at Quinn & Boden Wait For Orders from New York City Compelling Them to Quit Work

SETTLEMENT NOT IN SIGHT

Competitive Firms Refusal to Abide By Bookbinders League Decision Further Complicates Situation

Benjamin Boden of Quinn and Boden, the local plant which was the scene of a strike Monday and Tuesday stated this morning to a representative of the Daily Record that despite the reports circulated in this city and carried this morning by New York papers that the bookbinders strike had ended, the employers had made no settlements, and all reports to the contrary were untrue.

"We have not given in to the demands of the men, and you may quote me as saying that it will be impossible for us to do so and remain in business," he said.

It was also made clear by him that the decision of the Bookbinders' League, an organization of employers, would in no way affect the local firm of Quinn and Boden, although they are members. The League appears to have resolved itself into an organization of non-compulsive bookbinders, Harpers, Scribner, and Colliers are all members of it and these firms do not compete with each other.

The competitive bookbinders have formed an organization and will carry on the fight themselves.

It was said this morning by Mr. Boden that though the men were still out, they were not as militant as they were at first. The men are still out, but they are not as militant as they were at first.

PRIZE RIVALRY BEGINS

Record Awards for Essays in Rahway Draw Competitions as End Looms Up

With the approach of October 14, the date set for handing in the manuscripts in the Record's prize contest comes the announcement that rivalry for the three cash prizes has begun to be keen. Several people have stated their intention of competing for the first prize of $100. The high school students are accompanied by many friends will leave this city shortly after twelve o'clock, and the game will be called at New Brunswick at 3:30 o'clock sharp. The line-up will be as follows: Backs, Ayres.

The following have consented to act as judges: Rev. Charles L. Coffey, W. Z. Hockett and A. Edward Woodruff, together with the editor of the Daily Record.

Emphasis is laid on the fact that the subject of the "Rahway" Advantages is a subject of local interest, and is intended primarily to bring out a literary competition, as such, one of ideas on the city's advantages and methods of making the most of them.

The contest is really just beginning, and is open to any resident of the city under 18 years of age. There is still plenty of time to write, a 500 word article.

RAHWAY A. A. BACK AGAIN

Members Will Play the Scotch Plains Baseball Team on Sunday Afternoon

The Rahway A. A. after closing the season of baseball at the home ground two weeks ago, will once more don uniforms and on Sunday, a team will play the Scotch Plains team.

The Scotch Plains team has been playing good ball in the Central New Jersey League, and has maintained an excellent standing all season. The Rahway boys had a banner season and only lost two games during the year.

The season has really closed for them and it is only by special arrangement they have decided to meet the Scotch Plains team.

The Rahway team for the season will be Clark and Freeman, and for Scotch Plains Frederickson and Hand will do the honors. A big crowd of rooters will accompany the A. A.

EX-FIRE CHIEFS ON JOB

Have Accepted Invitation to Parade With Volunteers on Monday Night

At the meeting of the Ex-Fire Chiefs association held last night in Protection House Company's home on Main Street an invitation received from the Volunteer Fire Department to participate in the parade on Monday night was accepted. President A. P. Kirstein occupied the chair.

Orders were issued by President Kirstein to the members of the association to appear at Protection House on Monday night in full dress uniform, white cotton gloves, and white helmets with lamps instead of crumple. Chief Frederick Toms, present head of the volunteer department, will be the officer commanding.

President Kirstein particularly desired that every member of the association be present on the evening in question. The association would like to parade with a full roster on that evening and every member is requested to lay aside business and pleasure and be at the appointed place of meeting at 8:15 on Monday evening. David H. Kennedy, secretary, was instructed to inform every member by postal card of the action of the association.

The veteran chiefs members of the association are as follows: Henry Rasmussen, John Gehring, David H. Kennedy, William W. Weber, Alexander W. Weber, George W. Weber, W. C. Weber, A. L. Weber, W. H.
