Statement From White House Short to the Paint and Shows Where President Stands With Regard to Renoralnation and Re-election - Michigan's 165 Broadway Governor Responsible.

Washington, Jan 4-President Taft wants a renomination. Of this statement there can now be no doubt from the president's speech, which is brief and to the point. It follows:

"Nothing but death can keep me out of the fight now." The president added that he had objection to this statement being made public. The president, it may be said, was not goaded into making this statement. He was in good humor and was just as kindly and as pleasant as usual. but he evidently felt that in view of recent rumors and statements, especially SEST LEHIGH COAL. in view of Governor Osborn's suggestion that he should retire and not seek a renomination, the time had come when his exact position should be made known to the public. For the first time, too, Colonel Rose veit's position was made known by personal friends in this city. They declared that Colonel Roosevelt is in the fight for the nomination and added that they personally waited on Colonel Roosevelt several months ago for the mines and an arrangement of the same of th the matter. They state that they then declared to Roosevelt that in their opinion Taft could not be re-elected if renominated. They went over the ground with Rooseveit, remarking that
