civic welfare of Rahway and is eewhich is not a "contraption," and which will house the city officials in a proper manner. He is also anxious that the annual rent of $800 be elimin ated from the city budget. Mr Dule in recent letters to the public, through the Daily Record, has put forth compendium of figures that show the enormous advantage of a city owing its own city half. To show his earn. estness he has made a canvass to see how many people would be willing to subscribe for a city hall. He wants 199 other loyal residents to do the same—seek subscriptions. His letter, which is addressed to "Fellow Citizens" made promptly to raise moneys to buy land and build a City Hall and Public Building without placing the city under any further bonded debt.
