Menday or Tuesday - Massachusatts Executive Saye Classesey Would St Centrary to Public Good.

Boston, May 17.—Rev. Clarence V. T. Bicheson will be executed some time early next week—that is, after mid-night on Sunday. Governor Foun, after receiving the spinions of the slienists who examined the prisoner, read them carefully, and he caused the announcement to be made that executive ciem-ency would not be extended. The exact time when he will be put to death by electricity is a matter of discretion with General Bridges, warden of the state prison. He is allowed the entire week to follow the in structions of the court, but has not been in the babit of delaying his unpleasant
