

The National Democrat.

RAHWAY, THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1892.

The President, on Monday, submitted a message to Congress in reply to some resolutions adopted by that body. In the message he alludes to a subject which has not before been treated in a manner which...

It is believed that in addition to the $2,000,000 appropriated for the purpose, would not be less than $14,000,000.

We have given the proceedings of the extra session of Congress, which was held at the city of New York, a special attention. The President's message, which was received by the Assembly on July 1st, is a document of great importance...

PICNIC OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The picnic of the Public Schools of Rahway, N. J., was held on Friday last, in the city of Rahway. The morning was clear and bright, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion...

We stated in our issue of the 27th inst. that the picnic of the Public Schools of Rahway, N. J., was held on Friday last, in the city of Rahway. The morning was clear and bright, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion...

The picnic, which will have a beneficial effect upon the educational interests of Rahway, making the parents become more interested in the schools and enhancing their cooperation in their efforts...

It was estimated that there were 2,000 persons on the ground—1,000 from Rahway, 1,000 from the city of Rahway, and 1,000 from the city of Rahway. The children and other innocent bystanders were heard of no accident, and that not serious during the day. This accident was occasioned as follows: Mr. Martin, the driver of a horse and buggy on the ground, and gaily invited a young lady, one of the teachers, to take a ride. They were in the road towards Rahway, when a horse came along, which frightened the horse causing a runaway. The horse was overthrown toward the fence, throwing Mr. Martin over in the field, and leaving the horse in the road. Fortunately, the horse became lame, and was brought from the scene of the accident, very likely, never to be ridden again. The horse, which was from Fred & Curran's stable, started for home, and when opposite the grove, one of the boys, named Turner, who believed from Bricktown, undertook to stop it, but the horse turned and kicked the boy on the side of the head, making an ugly gash, though not affecting the bone. Dr. Houghton dressed the wound and pronounced it not dangerous. The occupants of the buggy, fortunately, came off with few serious injuries. We will not undertake to express an opinion as to which suggest presented the best appearance as all looked well, and even if we were to entertain an opinion of preference, we would hardly dare to express it in this public place, as we might get weary of the children on the subject by some of the teachers. So we will give an equitable portion of praise to all, and recommend both the teachers and scholars of each school to use their best endeavors to excel at the picnic next year, as we presume this will be a regular annual occasion since the success of Friday.

Since the above was in the paper, we have received an account from a correspondent who was on the ground all day, which is probably fuller than our own report, and which we give in another place.

Correspondence.

Lenoxwood City, Conn., July 10th, 1892.

Mr. Editor:—Dear Sir, I suppose you have had my report of the celebration in this place on the 4th. It was a most interesting affair, and the day was spent in a most enjoyable manner. The weather was just what was needed for the occasion...

At such a time as this, when our public schools are in the hands of the State, it is not surprising that the people should be so interested in the progress of the schools. It is not surprising that the people should be so interested in the progress of the schools...

In the afternoon the scholars were taken to the grounds and conducted after which 60 gallons of jam made was distributed to the scholars. It was estimated that over 100 children were on the ground and all enjoyed to enjoy the treat to the top of the hill. This day's enjoyment will long be remembered by the scholars and their parents.

The Board of Education of the city of Rahway, N. J., has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the above mentioned amount, and to express its appreciation of the generous contribution of the Board of Education of the city of Rahway, N. J., to the cause of the Public Schools of Rahway, N. J.

170 BROAD ST. ELIZABETH

It is noted that a gentleman in Detroit had a grip party a few days since, to receive the congratulations of his friends on having grip returned from a visit to Chicago.

A lady stepping into a railway car, said to her little son: "Aren't you going to kiss your mother before you go?" The little rogue wouldn't wait, and called out: "Conductor, would you kiss mother for me?"

No John A. Harshbarger, Republican, in Washington City, says, in a letter to the Washington Post, that he has never seen a man in a suit who is not a member of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I know a great, strong, first-rate man in this place, writes a Western correspondent, engaged in the mercantile business, who, one morning, with a pencil in his mouth, stood behind his counter and read the Post.

"What is your name?" asked a customer. "Oh, what is your name?" asked the first man.

And he never discovered his mistake, until he began to write it when he read his last name, and with the same result, the customer said:

"I know your name, but I don't know your name."

A Senator's Log—During the late war, when the Attorney General, John Johnson, was in charge of the office, the following log was kept:
