A Tale of Rue.

Of all the tired passengers of the midnight express bound eastward over the Old Colony road, perhaps there was not one more thoroughly used up than John Coleman, of the law firm of Coleman & Riggs, Asilland, Massachusetts. From the morning of November first, when he had started for San Francisco, till the evening of this December first, he had been constantly on the wing. To aggravate his fatigue the trip, in a business view had been highly unsatisfactory, if not unnecessary.

But as he drew nearer home his scowl vanished, and the lines about his firm band, to Elizabeth H. Kinsey. Reginitary at a point where the line of said Elizabeth H. Kinsey intersects the line of tands formerly of the estate of Thomas Lennington, declased; and thence running along the line dividing the lands of said Elizabeth II. Under these circomstances it may not be strange that his face, that instant spied by Miss Rue, was not the face of an amiable man. It promptly reminded Mr. Lynde of a waiting pupil, and having congratulated Mr. Coleman on his safe return, he hustled his music under his arm and deported in lissie. For the DENOCRAT "O, YOU ARE TOO OLD!"

would like to occupy a little space ight here, Mr. Editor, for the purpose of propounding a few questions and making some suggestions. Why is it that the usiness portion of the community have within the past few years discovered that a man that is over the age of 45 is incapa-citated for any kind of business? In days gone by you could in our daily papers of ten find something like this : "Man wanted, of age and experience." You never see anything of the kind these times. Its now: "Boy! Boy! Boy! or a cheap young man wanted." We have been told one of the reasons for prefering the boy is that he can be trained up and rushed through on a cheap salary so hicely, that by the time he is 25 he is capable "under our plan" of taking charge of a department or the whole concern, thereby leaving the "old man" with his old methods far in the shade, yes, and perhaps by the time he is 30 years old he is so well rushed through on "our plan," he is missing, and perhaps he resides in Canada. (Th ing young, but the going young man.) Merchants and manufacturers have been telling us for some years that over 45 is too And since Joy Maar has falsed the row bout the fold, and to be a successful drummer v must be considerably under 45, and wear a "shiny plug hat, too" or you are no good Then the government comes along and says "these office-holding privileges will have to be distributed on business principles, and it makes no matter, old man, how much money or time you have spent for the party for the last twenty years, if you are over 45 you are lost to the political world-nothing counts now but your vote Our motto is, the first man that shouts, age, of an obstinate disease by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla Since then Mr. Lut. vin has recommended Aven's Sansapanieds in many similar ure to offeet a radical cure.

Some years ago one of Mr. LELAND'S TAUM laborers bruised his big. Oning to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrotulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Horrible itching of the skin, with burning and durting pains through the tomp, made life a most intolerable. The les became enormously enlarged, and running pieers formed, discharging great qualitities of extremely olfensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. BELAND's direction, was supplied with Aver's Sansara-BILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the seres, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use. Mr. LELAND has personally used Ayer's Sarsaparilla or Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Salt Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases. We have Mr. LELAND's permission to invite Il who may desire further evidence in regard the extraordinary curative powers of YER'S SARSAPARILEA torse him personly cither at his manmoth Occan libtel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, roadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York.
