The good book says: "Seest though a man diligent in business he shall stand before kings." The only reason we can think of why we do not stand before kings is that those remnants of an effete civilization do not exist on this continent. But we like to stand, and we do stand before the people as the leading house in our line of business -Clothing, and the people are the kings this side the water. Year after year, for nearly a quarter of a century, we have occupied this prominent pol sition. This fact speaks volumes. It's worth more than anything we can say about our goods or prices. If we had not served you well you would not have endorsed us for 25 years at a stretch. A It is, your endorsement and patronage grows with our age. We stand before you this Fall with a stock at which no one can fail to look and be pleased, while each week increases the variety and assortment. New suits come in daily ; the tables are full; customers are plenty; clerks are busy. and there is every indication of a Fall business which will beat all previous records. Mr. Geo.
