Twice a year-in February and July-they have a furniture ex position in the 'Grand Central Palace.' 43d St. and Lexington Ave., New York. The various manufacturers bring their products here for the inspection of resident and visiting buyers. After the exposition is over, instead of sending the samples back to their factories, the manufacturers dispose of them to the large retail and wholesale furniture houses in and about New York We were fortunate this season in securing the entire exposition display of a prominent brass bed concern. This big purchase has been placed on sale in our bed and bedding department at pretty nearly half price. Being exposition "show pieces," the styles, are naturally above reproach; while as to quality, we have been handling this make of brass bed for many years and we can youch for it absolutely. Plain and Satin finish. Some beds are a trifle skopworn, but you will hardly be able to notice the blemishes.
