Grumbled, kinder soft and low.

All us fellers dropped the apples.

Patty yelled, and me and Arny.

Crouched beneath an apple tree.

Then we heard a dog, and Fatty

Yolled, and ran around the wall,

And we started for the roadway.

Farmer Nickania would catch us,

Gee! But we were scared, the farmer

And would shoot us with a gun.

But we didn't; and he holisted

But we never stopped, and Jimmy

Then we heard a noise, and Fatty

He would fill us full of salt.

All ran faster, but ole Fatty

Couldn't run so fast, you see.

Hollered out, that he was shot

But he didn't quit, and Skinny

To be hit with salt, and Fatty

Took his hands, and made him hurry

When we reached the fence we tumbled

And we beloed him-Arn and me.

And the gun went off, but Skinny

Said he thought the shot was wild.

Hit him with a brick, and then

Said he wouldn't shoot again,

Gee! but we were but and tired.

Said that he was going to die.

Couldn't get my breath, and Fatty

And we looked at Fat, and Skinny

New Jersey's Greatest Organization.

Y/E are justly proud of our mail order system—we feel that it is one of the strongest links in the chain of this great store's success—we want you to use it—test it thoroughly and allow us to demonstrate its many splendid advantages. The Bamberger mail order system is not the result of a day. but the culmination of years of painstaking efforts. In fact, this branch of our business is so perfectly organized that you may shop as quickly by mail as in person. There are no delays, no errors—satisfaction is snugly packed with each parcel we send out. If you are not a patron/which is highly improbable) send in a trial order and you'll quickly realize the truth of the foregoing statement.
