at present.

If there is one thing above all others that a fashionable woman wants rating or some of the new rough woolens is chosen. The smartest of the new Automobile Coats are made with ragian sleeves. The majority of the new models are untrimed wit bithe exception of large fancy buttons and odd shaped buttouholes. These coats are invariably buttoned up close to the throat and are often finished off with a standing collar, others have a to the throat to keep out the dist and cold. Leather is still used as a garniture. Very smart was a brown and and white mixed tweed cont with a brown leather collar and broad turnback cuffs of the leather.

Black and White Chiffon Waistr.

Black an dwhite effects in chiffon waists are to be very popular indeed this season. Black over white or white over black are equally desirable vokes, collars and under sleeves or turnback cuffs, jet bandings and buttons. Occasionally a black and white waist is lightened up with a touch of bright color as a narrow band of Persian embroidery surrounding the Joke or a piping of bright green, rose color or lavendar satin. The New Hals

Millinery is fascinating. Some of the new models are of course extreme and bizarre rather than pretty as they always are early in the season but the great majority are both smart and extremely becoming. Lord and Tayfor is showing advanced models of dress hats in black satin, velvet or beaver. A lar ge variety of trimming materials are used and they are frequently

Some of the prettiest of the new black or dark colored hats have their fons. Brim facings of lace are also seen and in several cases the lace pro-Jects beyond the brim of the hat, producing a most coquettish face frill. Full crowns of velvet are shown on many of the new hats. An attractive "tam" crown of brown relret and a brim of beaver.

Many of the new afternoon and evening frocks have wide girdles, of satin thus emphasizing the shortened waistline that Paris is trying hard to bring into fashion once again. This waist line is a good two inches above normal. These wide girdles are very decorative. They usually fasten in the back and are completed by flat flowerlike ornaments made of the satin or flat ovals of shirred satin through which loops and ends are drawn.

WOODROW WILSON A WARM FRIEND OF LABOR. HE DECLARES IN LETTER TO LABOR PUBLISHER

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY. PRINCETON. N. J. LMYE, Conn., Aug. 23, 1910. Mr. Edgar Williamson-I warmly appreciate your kind letter of August 18.

"The gross misrepresentations of my views with regard to organized labor which some newspapers have contained have given me no concern. They were wilful and deliberate misrepresentations, and such things take care of themselves. The papers that stoop to them will in the end be found out and lose credit altogether, "I was distressed that the New Jersey State Federation of Labor should -have allowed itself to be imposed upon-not because its members are likely to remain deceived in this matter, but for the opposite reason; because they are sure to discover their mistake and to feel the mortification of having taken unjust and hasty action. I was not hurt, because I knew that no injustice was intended. I was simply sorry. It is a pity to see things i

First, because I knew the whole matter would right itself, and, second, because I have not been seeking the nomination for Governor at the ship who are responsible for the hands of my party, and to argue the matter would seem to be arguing for a conception and execution of the Midmy nomination, but your letter puts a compulsion upon me of an entirely different kind, You urged the federation to inform itself about my views | Summer's Nightmare on Saturday and wait until it could be sure that it was acting justly, and, having fail- I last, are deserving of the greatest ed in that, you turn to me and frankly ask me what I really think, Your praise for the wonderful success of friendliness and candor leave me no choice but to reply I do so with pleas. What we now need is to take common counsel as to what is for the common benefit. for the our handiness. We need frank, outspoken, friendly opinion. We need criticism which is not intended to damage, but to create a better understanding all around. I have tried in everything that I have said on public questions to contribute to this friendly process of criticism, in order to assist in bringing on better days and a state of opinion in which all mon and all interests shall receive their due.
