A simple explanation of the Player Piano situation that gives you the correct basis for your investigation

IS IT NOT A FACT THAT PADERWESKI OR ANY OTHER PIANIST PLAYS THE PIANO BY A DOWNWARD STROKE ON THE PIANO KEY? DO YOU KNOW WHAT WE MEAN BY TOUCHING DOWN ON THE KEY?

IT IS A FACT that the Apollo is the only Player Piano in the world in which the pneumatic finger touches down on the piano key just as a pianist plays the piano. (Please give us credit for being blessed with intelligence enough to know that if we expect to sell you an Apollo Piano at the price an Apollo mus bring, we must have your confidence. Now we would hardly take a chance o foreseiting that confidence by making the above unqualified statement if there were the least possibility of your subsequently learning that we had in any degree misled you.) We can make it very plain to you why no other manufacturer employs this correct method of construction. This information is bound to better qualify you to use your own judgement in deciding the Player Piano question. Spend ten muutes to get this information, then spend as much time as you like in verifying it. MELVILLE CLARK PIANO COMPANY. TEINWAY BUILDING.

> The young man will find much that is perplexing in this body of the law And long before he has finished his studies-which is to say, long before he dies—he intends to go into politics and apply what he has begun to learn. And this be will find more perplexing still. For the books he has read will be placed upon shelves, and the human interests of the day will clash and clamor around him. At first they will seem chaotic and blind. But year by year, if his mind be keen, he will discern in all these interests two main tides drawing him in opposite ways. On the one hannd, as in his boyhood, wealth will make its claims and offer its great prizes. On the other, the mass of the people will make claims and offer prizes too. "Ready" Is the Word Newer, Better Upholstery Store

When we say "ready"—and invite you to see our showing of upholsteries we speak with a confidence born of a knowledge of the completeness of our stock and of its thoroly satisfying character.

We do not boast in the slightest degree when we declare that there is not in -all Jersey an upholstery store with a stock that even remotely approaches this one in magnitude or comprehensiveness. Go where you will, into any city, into any store, look over their lines and make a comparison with ours. You need not be an expert to see the difference. The most unsophisticated will see the difference at a glance. Truly there is no comparison.

We go even further in our claims—we invite you to visit the very biggest and best of the New York houses bar none and make comparisons. There are stocks that you might think as good, but you will find none that excels the one you find here, nor will you have lower prices quoted you.

It is conceded by those who know stores best that the Hahne & Co. Upholstery store ranks with the finest show places in America, but this elegance, this superb arrangement, this fine display would be of little value to the public if, back of it all, there were not ample variety of good quality merchandise rightly priced.

Welcome

THE reception given to Gimbels yesterday by the New York public was undoubtedly the greatest ever given to any commercial establishment or enterprise, at any time, anywhere in the world.

We entertained during the day more than 300,000 visitors—an estimate based on an actual count of one hour's arrivals. Our sales surpassed our expectations. But that which gratified most was what you said about our store and our stocks.

"It is a store that greets you with a smile," said one visitor. And the burden throughout was the same:—"Wonderful!"—"Beautiful!"—"Astonishing!"—"Charming!"

"Charming," "Smiling." Those are-thevery words we hoped you would use; the very first impression we hoped Gimbels would make!

No Store Has Ever Had Such a Welcome. But the Greater the Welcome The Greater the Duty To Deserve It.

We take yesterday's splendid triumph in no spirit of empty conceit. The outspoken approval of the most critical public in the world awakes in us only a stronger determination to keep that approval with us.

We have promised to show you in this Congress of Stores the highest note yet reached in American retailing. We have promised to show you, not merely a new store, but a better store.

Your enthusiasm yesterday does not blind us to the fact that we have much still to demonstrate. The triumph of a day means little. You will judge us by the way we square our performance to our promise through many days and months.

We have shown you the Gimbels that "greets you with a smile." As day follows day and month succeeds month, we shall show you as well the Gimbels that is the store RELIABLE.

All of a poor man's wealth is invested in his children. The poor man Falls. sacrifices his whole life to raise his children, and hopes that when they grow up they will be a help to him in his old age. If the rich man's children go to the bad, the rich man still has money to support him; butwhen the poor man's children go to the bad, all his wealth is lost, and he is left in his old age to a life of misery. The saloon is an institution that robs the poor man of his children, and he ought to be against it more than the rich man John F. Cunneen.

children, is evidenced by the latest discovery that boys 12 to 15 years of age are pitching horse-shoes for money. This is probably done without the knowledge of the parents, but it would be wise for all parents of boys of that age to quietly investigate their sports and see who their companions are. The influence of the saloons and the gambling games usually carried on in connection with them, together with the gambling machines which have operated so freely in our city in other establishments is enough to corrupt the morals of the best of the boys. When the parents cannot personally look after the boys or know of their doings they should see that they are at the Y. M. C. A. where games of all kinds are provided under surroundings that will not lead them astray. Please do not read this and then congratulate yourself that your boy is safe. He is the very lad we have in mind and our renders would be surprised if we were to publish the names of the boys who are pitching quoits for money.

The News-Herald is interested to know whether the Democratic legislative candidates will vote for James Smith, Jr., for the United States Senate or whether they will support the choice of the people as expressed at the last primaries, the Honorable James E. Martine. If the Democratic candidates choose to advise the voters of their intentions the columns of the News-Herald are open for the purpose. There are very many votersin Rahway who are friendly to Mr. Martine but who wouldn't under any conditions assist in placing James Smith, Jr., again in the U.S. Senate.

CURFEW FOR OMAHA DUR-ING SCHOOL YEAR.

Omaha, Neb.-The probation officers have decided that every night for the school year the curfew ordinance wil be strictly enforced. Any boy or girl found on the streets after the whistle blows will be picked up regardless; of explanations and taken to the police station. During the summer the ordinance has been dormant to a great extent, and the moving picture shows and other night amusements have been patronized after hours.

ly. He asked two women he knew to go to a jeweler's and pick out some little souvenirs for the women guests. says the New York Sun. The host did not know it, but a detective accompanied the gifts to the house. Each woman found at her place at the table a handsome box. When these were opened there were cries of admiration. One woman drew out a diamond ring diamond crescent, a fourth a necklace of pearls, another a diamond tiars. and so on, until the output of the boxes represented about $50,000. The host had forced a smile when the first box was opened. As each trinket revealed seemed more costly than the last his jaw fell. Perspiration began to trickle down his face, which got so red that the women became alarmed. Then they explained that the jewels

The following anecdote is related of Jerome Bonaparte: He had been playing cards until he lost all his ready money, then pledged his rings and finally laid his watch on the table. I which opened with a spring. A lady overlooking the game admired the watch and took it up to examine it. On her attempting to open the back Jerome immediately clasped it and who stood by, insisted upon knowin what was in it, grew angry, reproacha favorite there and finally, bursting into tears, quit the room. Jerome then opened the watch and showed to all present that it contained a beautiful miniature of his first wife, Betsy Patterson, with the remark, "You see, hope, that I could not with propriety let her see it." It was notorious that he remained deeply attached to his first wife long after their separation.

The Mule's Eare. that the reason that the dog's ears l is because for centuries the animal has been domesticated by man and has lain within the protecting influence of his hut and fire. The dog's cars are said to have originally stood upright, as do the wolf's today, but gradually as the necessity for keen hearing be came less imperative the dog's ears began to lon. But how about the mule? It is the duty of somebody explain why the mule's ears have no lopped down. There is no need for him to have stiff ears. The donkey, the horse and their progeny, the mule. have been under man's protecting influence for centuries and ages. The ass is the beast of burden of the Bible. His ears were stiff then, and they are time for them to begin to lop a little.

A Very Queer Custom. A curious custom takes place in villages of the Luxembourg district, Belgium, in May. After Sunday service numbers of lads cluster round the church entrance and as the girls come out saize them one by one, one lad grasping a girl by the shoulders and the other by the heels, the two lifting l her well up, while a third bumpkin passes under the human bridge thus formed. This is done in the presence of the parents, who themselves have passed through the same ordeal.

His Sole Resting Place. A precise Boston teacher spent a quarter of an hour in impressing upon her class the right pronunciation of the word vase. Next day, hoping to reap the fruits of her labor, she asked, "Now, Johnnie tell me-what do you see on the mantelplece at home?" And Johnnie piped forth, "Father's feet, ma'am."-Harper's Bazar.
