TO AVOID UNKIND CRITICISM: ***

THE FIRE ORDEAL, THE WATER ORDEAL, AND THE CORSNED

The standpat, unchangeable front of some Rahway members of t are still practicing the same systems of cure and the same methods in surgery that were practiced a hundred years ago. Is it possible that they are so unread that they are not informed of the changing sentiment and the vital statistics in relation to the evils of vaccination. If any physician dares to state that he has seen thousands of cases with no serious results, he states what he knows to be untrue. The medics have gotten so deeply into the habit of ascribing other causes to the severe cases resulting from vaccination that they almost have led themselves to believe that their state. | was increased last year. shortly has the ring of truth, and when passed on to the next person it becomes difficult to detect the flaw. Men holding public office are often misled after all, so objectionable to our manslightly doubtful of the victory beconversion of State leadership and ufacturers as they sometimes reprevaccination would be of more value than that of a doctor who admits that he does not read up on medical subjects of the day and is therefore guided entirely by what he may have learned fifty years ago. The school commissioner who accepts such advice rather than to take the trouble to make an independent investigation for himself, lays himself open to just criticism and if the vaccination of innocent children shall lead to a sickness or death, the school commissioners will be morally responsible for the result. In the early days of this country some of the wisest were misled into a belief in witchcraft. That day is past, but there is little to choose between such belief and the sickening practice of injecting poison into children to protect them against a disease which does not threaten. In the early English laws the ordeals by fire, by water, and the corsned were recognized as proper tests to determine the guilt or innocence of those accused of crime. They would have jumped at the chance to adopt the practice of vaccination in those days, as, in their ignorance, they would have recognized the mysterious action of the poison as an expression from Heaven which could be relied upon...If the accused recovered he would have been declared innocent, and if he died or suffered he would have been paying his just penalty

HOW TO VOTE

for crime committed

It is to persons of more or less independence, of course, that any opinion about how to vote must be addressed. The rock-ribbed, stalwart, or tightly labeled party pawn will not discriminate. Reason, in the approaching elections, leaving out local issues and decisive personal differences in the candidates, is in favor of voting for Democrats, in cases where the Republicans belong to the Old Guard, Machine or Standpat variety, and in favor of voting for the Republicans where they are of the species known as Insurgent or Progressive. It is better, other things being equal, to have both branches of the National Legislature and the President belong to the same party, s that action may be free and responsibility fixed, and it is also well to encourage the progressive movement in States where it is alive; but it i always to be remembered that the chasm between Bourbonism and progressiveness is greater than any difference that can be described between the general principles of the two traditional parties. In Ohio, Maine, Vermont or Connecticut, for example, we should vote the Democratic ticket: in Wyoming the fusion Democratic-Insurgent ticket; in Pennsylvania the Keystone Party ticket; in States like Washington, Wisconsin, California, New Hampshire, Kansas, Iowa, New York and other States, where the progressive wing is in control, we should vote Republican; always excepting cases where particular issues or special candidates furnish reasons for a different course. It is only fair to add that in certain States, like California and New Hampvery similar to the Insurgents.—Colliers.

IS IT NOT A FACT THAT PADERWESKI OR ANY OTHER PIANIST PLAYS THE PIANO BY A

EXCEPT THAT WHICH THE HUMAN FINGERS WOULD NATURALLY SEEK?

IT IS A FACT that the Apollo is the only Player Piano in the world in which the pneumatic finger touches down on the piano key just as a pianist plays the piano. (Please give us credit for being blessed with intelligence enough to know that if we expect to sell you an Apollo Piano at the price an Apollo mus bring, we must have your confidence. Now we would hardly take a chance o foreseiting that confidence by making the above unqualified statement if there were the least possibility of your subsequently learning that we had in any degree misled you.) We can make it very plain to you why no other manufacturer employs this correct method of construction. This information is bound to better qualify you to use your own judgement in deciding the Player Piano question.
