Street Ganus

The street cown, rather than the suit is the smart note of the new cos tumes seen wherever the well'dressed assemble. Very simple in outline and is confortable, pretty and practical for present use, and will be worn under one of the long fur coats that every woman Either owns or desited to ewn, when cold weather prevails.

The New Furs Next were furs presented in such and M

this year. The whole world has been ransacked to supply novel and unusual polts for Milady's wear. A beautiful garment shown at the furfers is unique. Probably not another gamment of its sort exists outside of the Conness Empire The long, beautifully shaped coat is made of dyed muskrat, that looks exactly like scal, and is trimmed with a deep border of "Perwitzski ar Chinese sable a fur reserved for the use of the Emperor of that country. The farvier could not tell the history of these skins, though doubtless a protty story of intrigue and adventure attaches to them if one only knew it. They are of a lovely tawny yellow color with very dark brown or black markings and spots, and make a truly royal garniture for the hand some long coat which was lined with yellow brocade to accord with the "Perwitzski" trifinning

-----A Revival

A fur which our grandiathers prized but which few of the present gen cration have ever seen is "Fitch." This is in color like the Chinese sable. but is a decidedly long haired fur of fine soft texture, with the yellow part near the skin, the brown tips softening the effect. This is used either as a trimming for one of the long fur coats or made up in a lovely shawl scarf in combination with black chiffon with a huge muff to match.

The New Muffs

All the muffs are buge in size and either flat or barrel shape, and very many of them are combinations of various furs, like sealskin and ermine. skunk and muskrat, Australian opossium and ermine, and many others, or they are made of a fur combined with brocade, velvet or chiffon. The sceri worn matches, and in many of the newest sets is in the long shawl form that drames gracefully and accords perfectly with the lines of the newest fashionable costumes. Many muffs have huge pockets either back or front and most of these have an inner change pocket like those in men's over-

Automobile Garments

Fur coats made especially for "Auto" use come in any number of long loose, comfortable models, many of them quite elegant enough for mor formal wear. A coat of fine Astrachan with a long collar of Australian corresum which resubles chinchills closely, was such a garment, as was also a coat of the same gray fur with bands, collar and cuffs of skuuk. This latter fur is as fashionable as it is handsome and good wearing, which is saying much, for it is the only pelt I know of that grows handsomer with age. An automobile coat of unplucked seal which does not in the least resemble the Alaska fur is of shaded gray cold

Small, High Toques

The small high toque or the same size hat with a stiff crown has evi-Sently taken the fancy of the stylish New York woman. Made of velvet, fur, fur-felt or of fancy brocades, these are worn with very little trimming except their own materials. Little turned back facings of white satin or kid and white kid caraltures in the form of a rose, a butterfly, a quill o nome coually simple design are very much used, as well as similar designs done in colored satin. Usually the satin flowers are in several old tanestr colorings, while the leaves are often of gold or silver. TO ATOID UNKIND CRITICISM: * * ias Nothine. . De Nething, Be Nothing. -Fra Elbertus WHAT ABOUT YOUR THANKSGIVING

Ferewhat are you coinne to give thanks on the last Thursday of this November! For a fortune inherited. Then you will be a Shintoist, not a worshiper of God, but of your ancestors.

For your winnings in stock-cambling." Then you have not advanced far from the days when the smoke of heathen altars rose above the carnage of beathen battlefields, from the days when conquering Christians sang a Te Deum among the dead of their dving Christian enemies. For the success you have achieved by your own brain or your own hand? Ther you will be but the prototype of Caligula, who erected a temple to his own honor officiated as his own priest and burned sacrifices to his own

No, my dear Captain of Industry, you have no right to thank God for your freedom while the lash of necessity whips your child-workers and your ! undernaid workers to labor as Persian generals once whipped their slaves 10 121

No. Mr. Voter, you have no right to thank God for your franchise while electors are boucht and the elected are sold No Doctor, no Lawyer, you have no right to thank God for your growing practice while legislators leave controllable diseases free to steal into the house of the rich or terstalk into the tenement of the poor; while the man with money may appeal his case, and the man without can scarcely bave his one day in court No. Professor, you have no right to thank God for your education until about, which probably weren't last words at all.

Aducation is everywhere made compulsory No, my dear madam and my protected miss, you have no right to thank God for your safety while your sisters are creatures of barter Get down on your knees; but get down and pray God that he may drive into your hearts the spur of discontent, of anger against wrong, of strength to advance. And then set up and so out of your church, and into the streets, and there do your best, however little that may be, toward ending the world's abominations

Words are well enough, a sense of gratitude is commendable; but the only real thankfulness sends you among those who need help to bely themselves toward the things that you have been thanking God for giving you -Costropolitan

In answer to a communication without signature, the News-Herald takes occasison to clear up the apparent complication in the Councilmanic

proceedings on the dog mugaling question. Early in the season. Council passed an ordinance providing for the mutaling of dogs throughout the entire year. Recently, because of the capture of a puppy in the 4th ward by the dog warden. Councilman Bartlett interested himseslf to the extent of securing the passage of an ordinance limitize the muzzling to the interval between May first and October first the dogs to be allowed at large without muggles from October first to May first. The Mayor, realizing the fact that there is just as much danger of hydrophobia during the winter months as during the summer, vetoed this latter ordinance. To carry an ordinance over the Mayor's yeto requires eight votes. Councilman Armstrong and a few of his followers, at a special meeting of the Council, with only six members present, undertook to pass an ordinance over his veto, when the most simple school child knew that erery rote at the meeting was cast in favor of its passage, it would avail nothing as it required eight votes to be effective. The ordinance now provides that dogs running at large shall be muzzled throughout the entire Tear and the justice and good sense of this provision is amply proven by the numerous cases of mad dogs at large reported in other columns of this issue, and which have been reported constantly in the daily press during "the past few weeks. In fact, two dogs have been found afflicted with rables in our own one of Rahway since Councilman Bartlett attempted the passage of his amended ordinance, and one young man is now taking treatment at the Pasteur Institute in New York to prevent any possibility of contracting the disease with which he might be afflicted as a result of contact with one of these dors before it was killed.

The latest conviction of the Sugar Trust for stealing water f New York City mains, for which it will be compelled to make restitution to the tune of $525,000, is but a part of their continuous performance. They have now been convicted of accepting rebates from railroads, of smuggling, and of conspiracy to ruin a competitor. What their devilishness will lead them to undertake next is a question. There seems to be nothing in the category of commercial crime which they would hesitate to attempt if there were a dollar in sight. That other trusts are accomplishing the same ends but by more shrewd and better methods is believed by all. If it were not true they would not appeal through every court to the highest to prevent access to their books of accounts and records of meetings when Govern ment officials are making investigations under direction of the Attorney General. The secrecy observed by all the trusts and their habit of burning their records when necessary to save them from exposure is conclusive proof to the casual observer of their guilt. The men or corporations free from guilt have nothing to fear from the opening of their records to the examination of Government inspectors. The millions which the various prosecutions have cost the Sugar Trust in the way of legal expenses and fines would have made a nice dividend in themselves, but the Trust thought its power sufficient to secure governmental protection for years and thus contince indefinitely the piling up of its ill-gotten gains.

A thousand copies of the last issue of the Advocate failed supply the demand, every copy being sold, and the "devil." to satisfy a disappointed patron, even sold the one from the file of the paper. -Advocate, Nov. 17, 1910

Regardless of the fact that it was the election report number, and without investigating the truth of the above statement, the News-Herald offers $100.00 to any public charity of Rahway if an examination of the books will disclose that the Advocate has one third the paid circulation of the News-

A former friend and ardent admirer of Davy Armstrong remarked on Monday that he had hoped to see Armstrong use the position of Councilmanat-large as a stepping-scone to the State Senate, but that his actions in Council had absoluely killed all chance of such advancement. It would indeed be a curiosity to see Union County represented at Trenton by Davy as Senator, and all his brothers as secretaries and job holders. They would surely make a team to be proud {?) of.

In this way he would have that education. that culture which comes of the highest quality of imagination, and that quality. I take it, has been man perfectly exemplified in the poets and saviors of the race, in that they were able to feel and suffer what others were feeling and suffering, and when we come to a time when we realize just what the other fellow is suffering we will be moved by the desire t help him, and when we are moved by the desire to help him we come to a time when we see that this help must be administered intelligently, and iltimately we realize that it is the denial of equality, the denial of liberty. political and economic, in the world which is the cause of most of its suffer ing. If we had a world made up of people possessing this quality of imagination, this kind of culture, we would soon do away with the causes of involuntary poverty, and to do away with involuntary poverty would mean to

And what of Roosevelt? He is stronger today with his party and the wople of the United States than he was a week ago. He was forced into the New York campaign, entering it to a much greater extent and greater purpose than President Taft. Both responded to the call of Governor Hughes to help him get the legislature to enact a primary election law. They failed in this through a combination of every Democrat and a few old Republican bosses. The fight then went on within the Republican party and the bosses were overthrown. They and their followers took revenge at the polls. They joined hands with infamous Tammany, which controlled the Democratic State convention, and into their treasury was poured from Wall street all the money they could use. Republicans, disgusted with Cannonism, stayed at home by thousands. Colonel Roosevelt can afford to be beaten under such conditions. He remains the most potent influence in this country today both within his party and with the whole people.-Allegan (Mich.) Gazette

Ex-High On Thursday

On Thursday morning the R. H.: oothall team will engage in the final and most important contest of the year. The Ex-High game always holds a peculiar fascination inasmuch as it seems irrevocable with the spirit of Thanksgiving in Rahway. A re ord-breaking crowd is always in atendance; old graduates, who have almost forgotten what a football came is, rouse themselves early on the morning of the 24th and journey to the field to see High School and Ex-High in their annual battle. The old reliables are always present. some cheering for the school boys and others for the graduates. previous years enthusiasm has ways waxed high in R. H. Dry Your Clothes on a Wet Washday With a New Perfection Oil Heater When clothes can't be hung outside, and must be dried in a room or cellar, the New Perfection Oil Heater quickly does the work of sun and sir. You can hang up the wet clothes, light your Perfection Oil Heater, open the damper top, and the heat rises and quickly dries the clothes. Do not put off washing to await a sunny day in order to avoid mildew. Dry your washing any day with hot air from a

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It gives just as much heat as you desire. It is safe, odorless and smokeless. It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. Burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and can always be easily unscrewed for rewicking. An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. Filler-cap does not need to be screwed down, but is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. Finished in japan or nickel, strong and durable, well-made, built for service and yet light and ornamental. It has a cool handle and a damper top. Desires Burryahare. If not at yours, write for description circular to the nearest agency of the Standard Oil Company
