MARRIED

MILLEB-HECTOR.

April Mr. and Mrs. George Hector jr., Elizabeth, N. J., have announced the May marriage of their daughter. Melvina Alexander-Hector, to Mr. Clifford Miler, of Rahway, son of Mrs. Albert Miller, of Elm avenue. The marriage took nlace at high noon on February 23 in the historic old First Church (Presbyterian) corner of Eleventh street and Fifth avenue, New York City, and was witnessed by the immeliate relatives of the contracting parties. following which the guests accompanied the bride and groom to the steamer, "The Oceana" which sailed at 3 o'clock for Bermuda, where the oneymoon will be spent. The state room of the happy couple was filled with flowers the gifts of July many personal and business friends. July The most substantial gift was preented the young couple aboard the steamer, a bag of several hundred dollars in gold, from the associates of the groom in the offices of the Pittsburg Glass Company.

Letters and telegrams of congratulations were showered on the young couple, one of the beautiful tributes being a magnificent gift of flowers, from the young ladies of the office force, proving the high esteem in which the groom was held in all departments. The bride and groom will reside in this city.

LECTURE ON COMMISSION GOVERNMENT.

Judge Robert Carey, of Hudson county, will lecture on the commission form of municipal government at the meeting of the Brotherhood of Trinity Methodist Church on Friday evening, March 24.

This subject is one that should terest every one who cares to be informed upon the latest and most successful method of administering the affairs of the municipalities. This system has now been adopted by over one hundred cities and the passage of a law at Trenton this Winter is being urged by those who see in this system a method of release from the serious difficulties of our present antiquated methods. MENU OF MUSIC AND MIRTH AT Y. M. C. A.

Delightfully Served By the Edwin R. Wooks Company Tuesday Evening.

The most pleasant feature of the Lyceum Course at the Y. M. C. A. is the high character of the entertainment provided. On Tuesday evening the Edwin R. Weeks Company entertained and served a menu of music and mirth which delighted a large audience. This talented company is tertainer and 123456 138546 12345 245 composed of Edwin R. Weeks, entertainer and humorist; Mrs. Edwin R. Weeks, songs and sketches; and Miss Lulu Sinclair, violinist. Individually they are artists. Collectively they compose an aggregation of funmakers far above the average.

The following program, which swayed from grave to gay; the audience at times convulsed with laugh-refinds of applause which was reaponded to gracefully: MENU OF MUSIC AND MIRTH.

Spanks Wife With Slipper.

Harry Wilson, a young married man of Atlantic City, set a new style in wife-beating when it is alloged, he took off his wife's slipper, with which to spank her. The two started a quarrel in the street and Wilson, after vainly searching for some sort of implement with which to spank his wife, grabbed her, snatched off 1 Police and citizens parted the couple and the wife protested when some of the irate rescuers started to punish the husband. The man was locked up for a hearing.
