The fly season will soon be here, and those who put in their screens promptly will be taking the best of precautions against having disease germs introduced into their homes. There is no doubt that flies and other insects transmit these germs, and that some of them find their way into food and drink, causing sickness. The extent of infection from this source cannot be exactly known, but the safest way is to keep flies out of your screens early, before fly time, and keep them up until snow falls.

Tomorrow in New York—At WANAMAKER'S

Wanamaker - Basement

Inspired by Our Extraordinary Selling of Silk Dresses
A Manufacturer Turns Over to Us
Fine Silk Foulard Frocks
(Fresh from His Workrooms)

To Be Sold Tomorrow
at the One Price, $7.50
(Although the Grades Range from $15 to $20)

Not a single dress has been on sale before. The first shipments are coming in today. More will follow tomorrow morning—as fast as they can be made up—for these frocks are made from this manufacturer's entire remaining stock of all-silk Foulards. He sells them so cheaply now because he is ready to turn his entire organization on cotton dresses.

Because of the late delivery and to give our Out-of-town Friends the opportunity of being here at the "Go On!" the sale will commence at 10 A. M. tomorrow (Saturday) morning, in the greatly enlarged salons of the Basement—Also a few counters on the Main Aisle.

Some of our young women will wear a few of the many models to show the charm and grace and fit of the frocks.

The foulards (silk, of course, and of good quality) are in conservative and simple designs—fashionable narrow stripes, polka dots, figures and borders. The colors are charming—black and white, navy blue, copenhagen, brown, rose and lavender. The frocks are so good that it is not always so.

The frocks are so good that it is not always so. The maker execute that they will be asked not "Where did you buy it?" but "Who made it?"

Styles are fresh and seldom found even among usual $20 frocks. Skirts are properly narrow and correct length. Sleeves are elbow length. There are both high and pretty round Dutch necks which fit close to the throat. Trimmings are simple and dainty.

To begin with, all sizes are here in every style, from 22 to 44.

We do not like to say "Hurry," but many women, on business, will buy three, four or a half dozen of these Frocks and even take time to see how they look.

Iceland, about half the size of Missouri, has no jail, no penitentiary; no court and only one policeman; not a drop of alcoholic liquor is made on the island, and its 75,000 people are total abstainers, since they will not permit any liquor to be imported.

There is not an illiterate person on the island, not a child ten years old unable to read, the system of public schools being practically perfect.

Double Edge Two Lawn Mowers—One

By purchasing a new lawn mower for an old woman living near Madero, Cal., the Pacific Telephone Company has ended trouble for patrons for miles along the road.
For two months they had been unable to use their phones on Fridays and Saturdays. A company detective found that the woman was in the habit of taking the receiver off her phone on these days to use as a darn- ing ball for mending the farm hands' socks, leaving the line "dead."
A mower with a blade like that is worth an invention. Its price was made deep enough on your pocketbook to bring a double-edged blade in- stead of a single-edged blade. It is "IMPERIAL" for use.

Get baby a new go-cart, then he won't cry

Dear Amy:—
My life was a burden to me a long time. Baby John just cried and cried. I didn't know what was the matter. He was also looking pale and his food didn't agree with him. I didn't know it, but he needed air and sunshine. So I went and bought him a new go-cart. Now he smiles and is fat and rosy. You just must come and see him.
Always your pal,
Lou.

BRIEF ITEMS OF LOCAL NEWS

The once inviting and charming view about the Waite farm property looks lonely enough just now, but is still beautiful even in its loneliness. Where the mansion once stood, is now but a gathering of sticks and charred timber and a mass of undergrowth accentuating the destruction by the flames and the storms of the winters and summers since the night of the fire.
The tennis court of the Y. M. C. A. is being placed in shape for playing this week. Great enthusiasm is manifested among the members of the association and it is probable that a tournament will be held through the summer months. There are a number of good players in the Y. M. C. A. and a most interesting tournament could be held.

Flag-commissioner Strickland, of Lake avenue, is having grand success and lots of solid enjoyment over his incubators in which he has started several broodfowl beautiful little chicks that hop around and chatter as well as if the good old Mother Biddy had hatched them all.
Benjamin Underhill's new residence in Northern Rahway is a great addition to that section of the city which the fine concrete-block fence being built across the front adds greatly to the attractiveness of the place; and will be a protector to the lawn as well. It is expected that a large delegation of Rahway Exempt Firemen will take part in the Newark Parade on May 17. Already many of the veterans have completed arrangements for attending.

The Plainfield Gessing and Turn Verieva have a few Saturdays open and would like to hear from any teams desiring games. For full particulars address Nels Lutheran, 206 East Front street, Plainfield, N. J.
Walt Gray of Upper Rahway, while carrying at the table, Monday, accidentally shaved off the front of a finger and the end at the same time. A physician dressed the injuries.
Neil Sullivan, who is at St. Michael's Hospital, in Newark, after a serious operation, is gaining strength, hopes for his ultimate recovery being held by the physicians.
May devotions are being held in St. Mary's church, the Rev. J. A. O'Brien, conducting the services. On Friday evening the worship will be held at 7:45 o'clock.
The Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. held a regular meeting, Tuesday afternoon.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, payable strictly in advance, $1.50 Per Year. Entered as second-class mail matter March 1, 1910, at the Postoffice at Rahway, N. J. under the Act of March 3, 1879.

RENEWALS: The date opposite your name which appears on your Renewal card shows to what date your subscription has been paid. Your Renewal should be mailed two weeks before the date of expiration thus indicated, to prevent any interruption in your receipt of the paper.

TO AVOID UNNECESSARY CRITICISM: Say Nothing - Do Nothing - Be Nothing. - Fr. Kilbride.

In various reports of Commissioner Adler's remarks at the last meeting of the Excise Board he is quoted as saying that former Mayor Furber, who is responsible for the failure of the license law, was not the highest "least bit slow in seeking the saloon influence to further his license election," since which time he has apparently had a change of heart and wants to pose as an advocate of purity. Mr. Adler is further quoted as saying that he had succeeded in growing a black feather and should not be considered a white bird. Readers who are familiar with Mayor Furber's efforts to enforce the Excise ordinance, who know of the attempt of the saloonkeepers to force him out of his position as manager of the Board, and who know of the Board's subsequent resignation because the manager of that company was doing his worst duty as Mayor, will not take kindly to Commissioner Adler's remarks. If he should ever again be called upon to drink and consumed even more beer daily than Mr. Adler himself, it would not follow that he could not hold an honest opinion that fewer saloons would be beneficial to the city. This paper, nor its editor, has never advocated prohibition for Rahway. It does not believe that public sentiment is strong enough to enforce a prohibition law here. When Mr. Furber secured the first increase of license from $250 to $500, he did so for the same reason that has inspired him in his later efforts for a further increase, viz: to decrease the number of grog shops to conform to the size of the city. That we have been successful is best evidenced by the speech of Mr. Adler himself, who has always been the spokesman for the saloon interests, on the Board of Excise. If Mr. Adler should change his attitude and conclude that the best interests of his family, his friends and the city would be served by a still further increase of license to $1,000 no one would question his right to ask as much beer as he pleases, to secure as many saloons from the liquor element as he pleases and to receive his license as freely as he pleases on the subject of liquor selling. We may hope to see the time when Commissioner Adler agrees with a law-abiding people of the city, that it does not require four saloons to a block to fulfill the requirements of a progressive and reputable suburban city?

A certain number of the Rahway Board of Education made the statement that, since its control by the present owner, the NEWS-HERALD had been on the right side of every question of public interest. FOR THE fact that he should have taken sides against us on compulsory education, vaccination, and the result of undue influence by one of the medical fraternity. We, like another, prefer rather to be right than to be President and for that reason have ardently advocated the appointment of women on school boards, the appointive rather than the elective system for school commissioners and the abolition of secret sessions. The legislature has passed, and Governor Wilson has signed, new school measures providing for each of these reforms. No more will Doctor Randolph's committee on education propose to conceal its work by so-called "Executive Sessions." Honest business can be transacted in the open. Those who have been in the habit of transacting public business in secret have no business transacting public business. The individual or publication which stands for the right will sooner or later travel with the majority. There may be an interval of uncertainty when it would seem to be the part of wisdom to abstain from what appears almost a hopeless cause, but the man who has the stamina to stand and fight to the last ditch will be the winner. We have never counted the cost nor considered the number of supporters in a given cause. The supporters increase as the good cause becomes better known. Inherently the majority desire to serve in the right when they can know what that right is. In the anti-vaccination fight the NEWS-HERALD is unquestionably in the right. The doctors know it—the ministers know it—the school commissioners know it and the parents know it. Wise will they all combine in that knowledge of the right and lay aside the antiquated and disgusting practice.

It is reported that three railroad representatives have personally interviewed every member of Common Council and the Mayor in an effort to accomplish the passage of that ordinance desired by the company. There can be nothing connected with this ordinance RELEVANT that should not bear the light of day. No Councilman can afford to be a party to the passage unless it secures to Rahway every possible advantage to be attained and it would be most unfortunate if those members of Council who are associated with the Pennsylvania Railroad should take an active part in burying the ordinance through. To be absolutely saved from criticism they should refrain from voting in a matter in which their employers are interested as no one can serve fairly two masters whose interests are adverse. The Mayor will do well to watch the railroad ordinance with most painstaking care and should know that the city gains nothing by haste. The tracks must go up, whether they go up this month or next is not so important as that the city shall acquire and preserve every possible right-to itself. Make no mistake, gentlemen of Common Council, your actions will be carefully watched. Nothing but the best of an ordinance will satisfy your constituents and the best for Rahway is not likely to be the one urged by rail carriers and employers of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

MOTOR ENGINES To the Councilmen who opposed the purchase of motor fire apparatus it is well to call attention to the fact that municipal journals are no longer carrying the advertising of the old style steamers. Everything shown is of the motor type.

PUBLIC BUSINESS MUST BE DONE THE BUSINESS OF THE PUBLIC.

WATER BOARD OPENS BIDS FOR NEW PUMP

Consistently from the 100 samples of one-cent-meter each, which were treated throughout the month. The average number of bacteria in the river water has been slightly over 7,000 and in the filtered water 13. The H. Coll have cultivated in the river water 78 per 100 cubic centimeters and have been absent in the filtered water. The efficiency of the filters, measured in the usual way, by the removal of the total bacteria has been 99.92 per cent. These results are about as near perfection as can be produced. I attribute no small measure of this efficiency to the careful and conscientious control which is exercised over the plant by Mr. Gage, and have no doubt that the one filter unit just installed has had a very favorable effect upon these results, also. Respectfully, PHILIPPS No Change in Plumber's Rules For some time past, there has been a question as to the advisability of changing the rules governing the operations of plumbers. It is now proposed to amend the rules in some instances, and it is believed that the new rules will be a benefit to the public.

WILSON SIGNS LOT OF BILLS (Continued From First Page) regarding the incorporation of rural cooperatives and another for local plumbers and another for local plumbers and another for local plumbers.

CHARLES H. ANGLEMAN On motion by Mr. Tamm it was decided to amend the ordinance relating to the taxation of railroads and their equipment by county.

Assembly No. 482—Appropriation $1,000 to the State Highway Commission and secure plans for an estimate of the cost of making a permanent bridge over the Raritan River.

The primary element of Success Without quality success in business can no more be assured than can the upbuilding of the superstructure of a modern sky-scraper without the strength of a firm foundation. Quality is the foundation. After that comes the other basic elements. The L. S. Plaut & Co. establishment has been founded and reared upon the foundation of quality. That's why to-day the "Bee Hive" is synonymous with all that is good and first-class in mercantile ethics and principles. Quality is written on our merchandise, it is the warp and woof of our business.

And Quality of Service, too. Our endeavor at all times is to elevate the standard of merchandising—to render our public the very best possible service within human limitations. This is the regular monthly convention of the society and the roll will be called by the society secretary, Mr. Harold L. Gray. The subject for the evening will be the fifth of the series of "Lessons on the One to be Considered." The scriptures to be considered: The scriptures: The life of Ruth being under lesson in Ruth 1: 1-22.

Church Notes. Second Presbyterian Church will be represented at the Y. M. C. Rally held in the Rahway Baptist Church, last Monday evening. On May 25, a dinner will be served to the men of the congregation and it is hoped that the men will reserve this date and plan to be present. An interesting game is being looked forward to. The game will be played at the West End grounds, George avenue, and will be called promptly at 3:30 o'clock. A meeting was held at the Methodist church lecture room last Tuesday evening to organize a Junior League. The four churches were represented but nothing definite was arranged for. It is finally decided that the meeting be postponed until the coming Tuesday evening, when each of the churches will be represented at the meeting, will bring one of their Junior members along with them to form the Board of Directors.

Final arrangements will be made on Tuesday evening, including the drawing up of the Junior schedule. Our Junior team is being organized and promises to be one that will stand a fair chance in the League. It is believed that the Junior will play on Saturday afternoons, immediately preceding the senior game. The first game will probably be called for a week from this coming Saturday afternoon. FIRST M. E. CHURCH. Rev. R. A. Brown, Pastor. The services Sunday will be held at the usual hours, with Sacrament at 10 o'clock a. m.; Sunday School at 11 a. m.; services and sermons in the evening as usual. Good music will be in attendance and one of the attractions of the day and evening.

REV. J. W. VANDERHURST, Pastor. Rev. J. W. Vanderhurst, pastor of the above church society, has been returned to this society by the late conference, at which his church and people are greatly rejoiced, and the pastor and his family are gratified. Good work has been done under his pastoral care in the past season, and undoubtedly will continue to prosper all along this time. A cordial reception was given Rev. Vanderhurst, Wednesday night, by the members of the church, and the people, filling Morning Star Hall, lower Main street, from front to rear, with but little standing room left over. A letter from the pastor was received by the pastor, at which Edward Stoppel was assistant treasurer, under the tutelage of some more experienced ladies. Good fellowship and lots of it marked the evening as one thoroughly enjoyed.

STEGER & SONS' Pianos and Piano Players

Installed In Their New Home
Vail Place, Opposite Rahway, N. J.
Establishing Another Link in the Great Chain of STEGER FACTORY STORES, and extending the "STEGER" policy of selling DIRECT to the Home at FACTORY PRICES.
THE NAME STEGER & SONS

has become a household word, standing for all that's best in piano building. Back of this reputation, honorably won and honestly maintained stands the great firm of STEGER & SONS, owned, controlled and operated only by its founder and president, Mr. John V. Steger, and his two sons who personally supervise every step of construction in their factories at Steger, Ill., the largest exclusive piano factories in the world, the product of which finds an outlet through the handsomest and largest piano sales rooms in the country, the Steger Building (illustrated below), corner Wabash Avenue and Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Ill. The resources, together with a capital of Five Million Dollars, will give you an idea of the value of the guarantee that goes with every Steger instrument.

Our Aim

From its inception the firm of Steger and Sons' chief aim has been to produce high grade pianos at minimum cost. Like all advance ideas, it was scorned by the old-time manufacturers who refused to believe that piano quality and musical worth could be produced at less expense and sold at a less price than had prevailed for generations. That it pays to think, is best exemplified by the general appreciation of the Steger policies, and imitation of Steger methods by many who to-day would pose as competitors.

Our Organization

Under the personal guidance of that master builder and organizer, Mr. John V. Steger, has been brought to the highest plane of perfection. Each and every man is imbued with the dominating idea, that upon him and his work, rests the maintenance of the standards of excellence for which the name of STEGER & SONS stands. From the highest official to the most lowly workman—the same spirit of workmanship pride is found dominating the entire Steger Organization.

Our Factory

here illustrated, is the largest exclusive piano factory in the world, located at Steger, Ill., covering an area of 80 acres, equipped with the most modern labor-saving, expense reducing machinery and appliances invented. Operated by the most expert artisans money can employ, directed by the most expert constructionists and builders, known to instrumental architecture.

occupy a pre-eminence position, between the two extremes of useless cheapness and unnecessary expense. We might make them cost more, but the additional expenditure, couldn't make them give better or more lasting satisfaction. No instrument can boast of a more perfect scale, a purer or sweeter tone, or a more artistic and satisfying ensemble than STEGER and SONS' PIANOS and PLAYER PIANOS. The more critical you are, the more fully you will appreciate these points of efficiency.

Our Selling Policy

We have told you how, by the process of eliminating all useless expense, in manufacture we have reduced the cost of production without reducing the standard of quality. Our next step on the economy road-way is successfully achieved, by selling our instruments direct to the home, through our own stores, eliminating all middlemen's profits and agents' commissions. The savings to the purchaser amounts to $100 and upward on each instrument.

Our New Store

Vail Place, Rahway, New Jersey, is contentedly located and beautifully arranged. A complete line of STEGER and SONS' PIANOS and PLAYER PIANOS await your inspection.
We will appreciate a call and assure you that your visit will result in the gaining of much valuable knowledge regarding piano quality, construction, etc. Our every convenience is at your service. You are welcome.

The Knight of the Silver Star
A Romance of Drumcald
By VERA BRUBNER
Copyright, 1911, by E. F. Paine & Co.

SYNOPSIS.
Oleto Verrall, a traveler, hears from a newspaper of a mysterious country beyond the Caucasus range. They are carried there by a steamer, which is the "Mystic," and Verrall is met at the pier by a woman, who is the princess of Drumcald, who is the daughter of the King of Drumcald. Verrall is taken to the palace, where he meets the princess, who is the daughter of the King of Drumcald. Verrall is taken to the palace, where he meets the princess, who is the daughter of the King of Drumcald. Verrall is taken to the palace, where he meets the princess, who is the daughter of the King of Drumcald.

HE WAS A KNIGHT OF THE SILVER STAR

CHAPTER XIV.
"I did not move until the princess had risen, which she did almost immediately. There was a flash upon her face as she retired. I could read in it a look of triumph, but I think no one else could tell whether she was pleased or not at the turn things had taken. The moment the curtains had fallen behind her the priests moved away in procession, their chief looking at me for a moment almost as if I had increased his wisdom, but he left me without speaking. There several knights, my friends, gathered round me. I had their good will, but I noted that I had not converted a single one who was avowedly opposed to me. They crossed to Count Yason, and he smiled. So we stood in two carriages upon the platform.
"The rabble is easily moved," said Verrall, "he said contemptuously.
"He passed down the steps and across the hall, followed by more than half the knights who had stood round the princess.
"The people shouted 'Sir Verrall,' but not all. A knight beside me, "We will go with you to your quarters."
"I thank you, gentlemen. I would willingly keep my life a little, since I have so much to do in it."
"By your leave I would speak with the Verrall."
The count came close to me, and there was that in her face that made me look at her hands. They were empty, hanging at her sides.
"That she was agitated was hardly to be stated. Our conversation was hurried, but every word she uttered showed that she felt I had played her wrongfully. In conclusion she said: "You shall regret the friendly Sir Verrall. You may escape the swords of your enemies, but I will see to it that you shall not escape my vengeance. It is a dangerous thing to play with such a woman as I am."
She moved away from me, and the knights came to my side again. She laughed bitterly.
"Guard him well, gentlemen, if you would keep him. I do not envy you so false a friend."
We were leaving the hall when Jassur met us. Two of the princess' guards were with him.
"Her highness commands your presence, Sir Verrall," he said.
"Her highness thinks I must, protection," I said to my comrades. "It will save you the trouble of seeing me."
