A Startling Offer in Fine Fur Coats Made to Measure

TARTLING is the only word that adequately describes this offering. We did not think it could be done; neither did the great furrier who is going to make these coats. It was only through our figuring together, and figuring very closely, that this offer is now possible. Handsome fur coats, made to your measure, at about half the prices quoted on ready made stock garments. Think of it! Isn't this the greatest fur bargain you ever heard of? When you consider how much of our time we spend at home, we owe it to ourselves to make our homes look as beautiful as we know how, and as we can afford.

Some folks don't appreciate this a little bit. They spend money for 3 all kinds of things lavishly except things for the house, and they, after all, are the most lasting pleasures we have.

Now there is poor Laura. I feel sorry for her. Her husband just won't give up money to buy new things for her home, and goodness knows they need it badly enough

Why, that tellow is slowly breaking her heart. Sometimes I've a mind to talk to him myself and tell him not to be so stingy. Why don't you come up to see me. Don't wall for me to repay your call. Alkays your files.d.

What a great thing it would be if Governor Wilson could only go about the state, visiting every section before election, explaining to the people just what the Geran law is and what it will do for them. We fear there are many voters, still in ignorance of this most important piece of legislation and that scheming politicians will take advantage of the embarrassment that is bound to result and endeavor to have the law repealed. These politicians realize more than anyone else! end to machine politics and give the people free reins in running the government, if they will only let it remain in force. But the political bosses will not let It alone if they can help it. It will require the best efforts of such men as Woodrow Wilson to keep it on the statute books. Once accustomed to the new arrangement the people are bound to like it. But, like the voting machine, it will require a year or two to get accustomed to it. A sample of how the Geran law works was recently had in Passaic.
