Our 142nd Year

THE ONE THING OUR YEARS HAVE TAUGHT US IS HOW NOT TO SHOW OUR AGE

We proudly admit to being one of the New Jersey's oldest newspapers - and this aging has enhanced our approach when it comes to producing modern, up-to-date printing. Modestly, our up-to-the minute creative department can satisfy your whims for the latest and smartest in graphic arts.

But leadership cannot lean on its laurels and no yesterday is ever good enough to survive an uncertain tomorrow. In 1963, many new printing customers were made and we still continued to serve hundreds of old customers in many points of New Jersey. And tomorrow's News-Record printing will be finer still; this is our pledge as we light our 142nd birthday ing and young enough to produce it! Because one thing our
